doubt an account of the marriage that occurred the 18th. will be among the first columns; but our little flower-girls and ushers must be complimented in the columns of the Great Western paper, (The Voice).

The marriage of Prof. Florence and Miss Loula Spinks was an event of beauty. They both being our teachers in the literary school at this place, and their marriage taking place at the close of their school. Four of their little school girls were selected for flower girls and little ushers, namely: Iris Mauldin, Ruby Jones, Mary Homes and Lois Reeves.

Prof. Florence was an enterprising man of this place, with fine reputation as a citizen and teacher.

The bride was one of Gomez' most accomplished young ladies. The young people regret the loss of her presence at their entertainments. But are sure they wish her a long and happy life, and invites her join them in their social life when she visits the city. The groom was dressed in black, and the bride in white, making a pretty contrast, and beautifying it all in comes two little usher girls, age six, little Mary and Lois, dressed in pure white. Next comes the bride and groom led by two little girls, age twelve, dressed in long white robes trimmed in blue and a wreath on their head. Little Iris led the groom down one aisle and Ruby led the bride down the other. When they reached the altar, the bride and groom joined arms and the two little flower girls joined hands and stood looking up in the face of the one they had given away, while the little wee usher girls knelt by the side, making a beautiful picture that any artist of taste would be glad to sketch.

Bro. Roberts pronounced the bride and groom made one under the laws of God and man, and Mrs. Ambler played a march and the picture was changed, instead of them marching in a door led by two little sweet girls, they marched to the music down the aisle together, husband and wife; two more hearts made to beat as one. Mr. and Mrs. Florence allow me to congratulate you. May your life be one of brightness and your path be strewn with roses, that may always look as fresh as the pretty wreaths that were presented to you by your little flower-girls.

Little Mary, Lois, Iris and Ruby, allow me to compliment you one and all for your gracefulness in performing the part assigned each of you, and you should feel highly complimented as being selected to the position you filled in the marriage of your dear teachers. Your teachers were proud of you and the kindness you showed them, and we are sure your parents were.

Notice the new cards on last page of Dr. S. H. Windham and M. E. Gilmore, of Tahoka, Tex.

Tuesday and Wednesday were two of the warmest days we have experienced since cold weather.

Several local notes and communications were crowded out for the lack of space.

Home seekers, if you are looking for a home in a good country where land is cheap and of the very best soil, you should load your wagons for Terry County.

One of our merchants placed a page ad in the Voice last week, advertising the bargains he had for sale, and on last Monday sold $300 worth of goods. Who now will say advertising does n't pay. try an ad and be convinced.

Don't stand back on coming to Gomez just because it hasn't any street cars or electric lights. It may have them some day, and land that's worth five dollars now will be worth a hundred then. Now is your time to invest in real estate. Gomez will some day be a city. It has too much good country around it to not be the leading town of West Texas in the near future.

Changing Bible Sentences.

While the Athenians of the present generation have riotously protested against the rendering of classic plays into modern Greek, English speaking people have not got up any riots over similar outrages perpetrated in the twentieth century Bible. For instance the text, "A city which is set on a hill cannot be hid" became "It is impossible for a town which stands on a hill to escape observation." Where the authorized version says, "Sayest thou this thing to thyself?" the twentieth century paraphrase reads, "Is that a suggestion of your own? But as absurd as any is this rendering of a famous passage, "And it being loves day in heaven all God's nobility came to court to present themselves before Him."

Bob Hill and J. M. Owens, of Clairington, were in our city this week visiting friends.

C. L. and J. M. Craig, from Brisco County, are here this week visiting their brother, J. W. Craig.

Mr. Adams, from southwest Terry, was in the burg Monday on business.

J. H. Davis returned from Big Springs Tuesday with a new well drill for D. J. Broughton.

Thad Tubbs, of Lubbock, was with Gomez people a few days this week.

D. K. Taylor and lady were in town Monday buying goods at J. J. Lane's.

Walter Gainer and family, returned last Saturday to their home in Yorkum county.

Lawyer McPherson returned last Saturday from Stanton, where he has been attending court.

J. A. Long, from north Terry, was on our streets Monday. He tells us most everybody in his section of country is preparing land for a crop.

Charlie Rowland, from Anson, was here this week with lumber to build on his bonus five miles west of town.

R. Conley returned last Saturday from Stanton, where he has been attending court. What if Terry County had a court house?

Last Saturday Eve the Voice office was greeted by several smiling little faces, who for a moment were taken for strangers, but to our surprise they were Gomez girlies dressed in long robes, and were out calling. Thank you for your visit. Call again.

Dance.

At Mr. Nelson's last Thursday night week, Many a boot and shoe went squeak, squeak, squeak. The bow was rosined and the fiddle tuned, Not a dancer we heard say, sets are coming to soon. It's useless to write but one more line, And that is, everybody seemed to have had a good time.

Mr. J. T. Gainer and Bruce, left Monday for Stanton. Mr. Gainer will aboard the train at Stanton for Big Springs on business.

Mr. J T Gainer, tells us that he recieved a letter from his brother last week, who lives in Oklahoma, which read: "I am coming to see you in the summer, and wouldn't it be "funny" if you should locate me out there". Mr. Gainer's brother seems to think it would be "funny" to live in Terry, and of course it would be "funny" to live in a country where you can buy good rich land from $1.50 to 3.00 per acre that will make a half bale of cotton. Well yes, it would be rather "funny".

Entertainment.

On last Friday night the young people were royally entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Glover's on second street.

The entertainment was a leap year party, and after the crowd had gathered, and the girls were to lead the way they were not long in finding them a partner. The girls suggested the plays and of course the boys were more than willing to accept. Many were present and all took an active part. When the time come to bid good night everybody reported the time very pleasantly spent.

Florence-Spinks.

At the school house the 18th., at the close of school, Prof. W. P. Florence and Miss Loula Spinks, who have so ably taught our literary school, were married. Rev. A. B. Roberts speaking the words that made two hearts beat as one.

They left the next day for their future home near Lubbock.

The bride was one of Gomez' esteemed young ladies, and had made many friends during her stay in our city.

The groom is a competent school teacher and has many friends in Gomez, who bids him and his charming bride God's speed.

The Voice joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life in wed-lock.
