HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTS, Regular Correspondent

The Old Miser gave the Dog Hill preacher a hickory nut yesterday.

Mrs. Isaac Hellwanger spent Wednesday in Tickville looking at a piece of calico.

An enlarged picture of Jessie James has been hung on the wall at the Hog Ford Moonshine still house to preserve order.

Slim Flinders was in the toils again this week, but by agreeing to plead guilty to the charge he was allowed to go free. He was arrested Tuesday morning on a charge of having stolen the only mule the blind man had. The trial was set down for Thursday morning, and on account of the blind man being unable to see, the court appointed for him an interpreter in the person of Sap Spradlen, in identifying the defendant.

Atlas Peck, who has recently been appointed chairman of the grievance committee that will assist in the operation of the railroad that will run into Tickville, has returned home bringing the chair with him.

The Mail Carrier attended the magic lantern show at Rye Straw Saturday night. He took his mail pouch along with him, and when the doorkeeper stopped him, he threatened to have him arrested for interfering with the U. S. Mail.

Slim Pickens has entered society, and since doing so has put insect powder on his mule and greases his buggy with vaseline.

Ellick Hellwanger heard of a marriageable widow with three children and a cow, living over near Thunderation, but after a visit to that place he decided to take only the cow.

A large yellow mule hitched to a cart lately occupied exclusively by Jefferson Potlocks, ran away the fore part of this week. The runaway was headed toward Rye Straw and might have resulted disastrously had not Jefferson had the presence of mind to hasten on ahead and let down the fences.

In his lecture at the Wild Onion school house a few nights ago Prof. Sap Spradlin gave it as his opinion that dandruff was only freckles that had been jarred loose by sneezing.

An eating house called the Farmer's rest has been opened at Tickville by a gentleman that used to dig cisterns for a living. All his tables are made large in order that his patrons will have plenty of room to chew their steak.

The Hogwallow postoffice was almost covered up with snow last week and the mail carrier had some trouble in finding it. In some places the snow was about two feet deep while at other points around Hogwallow it was about evenly distributed and very shallow. The postmaster was called on for an explanation and gave a satisfactory one by saying that the postoffice is the center of impotence and every thing naturally drifts toward it.

Atlas Peck has traded for a dog to be used as a companion until he can get a wife.

Dock Hocks who fell from the fence Monday and broke two ribs is being attended by the umbrella mender from Boundling Billows.

Yam Sims has written to a Chicago house for the prospectus of a suit of clothes and expects to walk with Miss Fruzic Allsop under her large hat ere the onion bloom again.

Hogwallow continues to get more important as a commercial center. Now, through the untiring efforts of the Hogwallow improvement Society of which our fellow townsman, Luke Mathews is president, our town has been placed on the circuit of another tin peddler, and hereafter he will make this place every two weeks.

District Attorney, G. E. Lockhart was here this week attending County Court. He reports good rains over his way.

Correspondents'

Some of our correspondents are laying out on us from some cause or other, and we would like for them to get in harness and we together will make the Herald a pleasure to the readers, from one side of the county to the other.

We also wish to make some further explanation in regard to getting your letters in as soon as possible. On Monday we throw in the type used the week before, and finish Tuesday morning, then the Editor has to get busy getting copy and setting type together, which takes him the balance of the week to get in printable shape, and on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning, there is not enough copy to keep the extra help anything like busy, but by Wednesday noon and Thursday, the correspondent's letters begin to arrive, and we are swamped with copy the rest of the week, as it all comes in together. Thursday noon, the editor has to quit composition and go to remodeling ads or reading proofs, and our helper has to finish by herself sometimes, and as we go to press soon Friday morning you can readily see that by delaying your letters so long that we are sometimes forced to work till way after dark Thursday night.

This can all be remedied by your getting your letter in Tuesday, so that we can have the copy the first of the week, and not all on us right at the last minute. Please get your letters in early.

Dr. Treadaway reports the arrival of a fine boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Barrett, of the Meadow neighborhood, on the 24th inst.

Son Hughes made a trip to Lubbock this week after coal and supplies for our merchants and citizens.

See Daisy, she is a "Daisy". She will show you a "Daisy Time".

Notice to Creditors

You that are indebted to me, are hereby requested to come in at once and settle your accounts especially those of long standing, as I must have the money. We have waited long and patiently on some of our customers, and now we expect a prompt settlement.

Respt.

Not Original But Applies Just The Same

The following is published with no claim for originality—in fact about the only thing that is original is original sin. But this article applies just the same:

"The reason why is always a vital question, so I stopped beside the road and let the old mare browse sedge grass while I figured it out".

"The average Harrison county farmer gets up early in the morning at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, buttons his Chicago suspenders to Detroit overalls, puts on a pair of cow hide shoes made in Ohio, washes his face in a Pittsburg tin basin, using Cincinnati soap and dries on a cotton towel made in New Hampshire, sits down to a Grand Rapids table, eats hot biscuits made from Minneapolis flour, Kansas bacon and Indiana grits fried in Omaha lard, on a St. Louis stove, buys Irish potatoes raised in Michigan and canned fruits put up in California, seasoned with Rhode Island spices, claps on his wool hat made in Philadelphia, harnesses his Missouri mule fed on Iowa corn, with New York harness and plows his farm covered by a Massachusetts mortgage, with an Indiana plow. At night he says a prayer written in England, crawls under a New Jersey blanket and is kept awake by a Harrison county dog, the only home produce on the place, and wonders why he keeps poor."—Marshall Sentinel.

This also applies to Terry county as well as Harrison county.

We have just been in the market and have purchased one of the most complete lines of spring goods that we have ever shown, including all grades of fancy goods, silks, novelties, notions, ladies skirts and men and boys' suits. All of which will be on our shelves for your inspections in a few days.

After spending about seven months on the Plains, most of the time working for Frank Proctor, Aubrey Thomas, nephew of the editor, left this week to visit his aunt at Anson, a cousin at Wichita Falls and an uncle at Grandview Texas. He may go from there to Sabinal Texas, to work, but he never did deny that he might come back to the Plains; in fact he rather intimated that he would.

In Memoriam

The last note in that perfect psalm, the life of Fannie J. Crosby, has been sung and the music whose dominant chord for more than half a century has been, "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want," sounded as clear as sweet and as true at its close as at its beginning.

That music will never be hushed, for while time lasts and human hearts must know bitterness and sorrow and anguish, so long will that sweetest of gospel singers bear her message of "Peace be Still" to the uttermost parts of the earth.

Denied natural vision, she attained that deeper, truer spiritual vision which transforms defeat into victory and which recognizes no obstacle to ultimate triumph, and so we hear above the subdued tones of the funeral dirge, the glorious paean of victory—a victory not hers alone but the heritage of all mankind today, tomorrow and forever.

Monuments will be builded by others to do honor to her memory but the monument she has builded for herself in living, throbbing human hearts will live eternal as truth itself when marble and granite shall have crumbled into dust.—Ex.

County Court

County Court met Monday and Tuesday of this week. On Tuesday the case of State of Texas against J. R. Hill came up, and Mr. Hill, pled guilty to carrying a six shooter and was fined $150 and cost.

We understand there will be considerable building and improving in our little city this spring and summer. We love to see people trying to make their homes more attractive.

Conserve the season while you have one, Mr. Farmer. By turning the soil early, the vegetation left from last year's crop will have time to rot by planting time, and enrich the ground, besides, our very best farmers say by bedding their ground early they keep it from blowing so much.

It is often said that if Terry county can start with a good season, and have a few showers along, that she will make a good crop. Then, we will have one this year.

Let us all see how lovely we can make our homes appear this year. If we are not able to make expensive improvements, or purchase costly furniture for the interior, we can at least put out some more trees, shrubs or vines and add to its appearance at no cost whatever, except a little energy. We believe our ranchmen will furnish trees from their hedges to all who will make an effort to beautify their home. Home should be the center of attraction for all normal men and women, and the more attractive the happier the occupants. Sometimes the mere straightening up of a leaning fence, or the trimming of a tree will add wonders to the looks of a place. Let's all get out at every leisure moment and see what we can do to make our home more attractive.

Harris

J. C. Dooley was out the first of last week doing some windmill work on his place here.

Arthur Cotten was called to New Mexico a few days ago by a message that his brother had been shot out there. We didn't learn any particulars.

Mrs. W. J. Satterwhite and children visited at B. C. Christenson's last Wednesday.

Mrs. R. K. Benton was trading at Harris last Friday.

The young man who is working for Arthur Cotten started to Lubbock with a freight wagon last Thursday. He stayed at Harris that night and the next morning after hitching up, the team ran away. They had only run a short distance when one horse fell down, and the wagon was drawn over it crushing one hind foot. They thought best to shoot the horse.

T. J. Conley hauled a load of corn to Tahoka last week. We understand corn hasn't been selling for quite as good a price as it was.

Brit Clare went to Brownfield today, Monday, to attend court.

Mr. Smith and family formerly of Ft. Worth, are now living on Edward McPhaul's place. They were trading at the store today.

J. W. Spear and family and Jim Wright and wife went down in the J Cross neighborhood Sunday.

Arch McPhaul and family were trading at Harris Saturday.

Notice of Road Work

The Commissioners Court of Gaines County, Texas will on the second Monday of March, the same being the 8th day of March 1915, receive bids for crowning, grading or filling the road leading east from Seminole to Lamesa. The court reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Length of road about 15 miles. For further particulars see any member of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge.

W. R. Slaton,
County Judge, Gaines Co., Tex.

Brit Clare was here this week attending Court, and informed the editor that they had none of the big hail in their part of the county, Sunday night.

A cloud came up from the northwest Sunday night, and one of the biggest hails in a long time fell, covering the ground like a snow. The lumps were too small to hurt live stock, and we have heard of no damage. This hail and rain, together with the big rain that fell Friday night, amounted to 1.63 inches.

FOR SALE. A good two seated Surry; or will trade for corn or heads.

J. W. French and son Luther, were here this week courting. Mr. French was doing County Court while Luther was doing the old fashion courting act among the fair sex.

My! my! what a hail and rain we had Sunday night. It has turned considerable colder and it is more like winter than spring, although willow buds are making a showing.

A. W. Blankenship made a trip to Lubbock Monday in the interest of our school campus. With the assistance of a lawyer, he is having the papers fixed up to have the land patented that belongs to the school.

Lence Price came up Sunday after his family, who have been visiting at Lee Cowan's for the past week.

Sam Branch and Charley Cowan made another trip to Lubbock Friday with two more bales of cotton from the Cowan ranch. This makes 22 bales and there are three more bales which makes 25 bales off of 20 acres of ground.

The thresher is still at Mr Timmon's this Monday. They did not get to finish last week on account of sickness and the rain.

William Perritt who has been helping A. H. Herring haul his maize to Tahoka, visited home folks Sunday.

Our school is progressing nicely as most of the people enrolled are attending regular now. Prof. Faw intends to organize Literary Society right away and have entertainment soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Timmon's baby died after a ten days illness, of bronchial pneumonia.

On account of being at the bedside of the sick last week I failed to get my letter off.

West Wind, you must have misconstrued my meaning or at least I did not intend to imply it that way. I think the editor must have changed his viewpoint for he did say that an item of interest to many would score a point above the visiting item, or words to that effect. But recently when commenting on the correspondent's letters he made it very plain that the Gomez writer had contributed 50 columns of reading matter, but never said how much the other correspondents had contributed. Thus I assumed it was quantity that he was after, hence my remarks. Your items are all o.k. Gomez will never be a dead town as long as they have such a splendid writer as West Wind. (You don't seem to look at what you are reading very close, Cricket, as in the same item that credited West Wind with 50 columns we also said that the other correspondents had probably written enough to make the total reach 150 columns; read it again and see if this isn't correct. Again, when we agreed with West Wind recently on her answer to you, it was that part of her letter that said all advertising in her letter was paid for, which it is, at 5c per line. Recently you had a big ad in locals for some lumber concerns and we left them out. If these people want to tell the people in Terry how cheap they sell lumber, let them pay for it. Advertising space is our stock in trade the same as cotton, maize, corn, hogs, chickens and turkeys are yours, and you don't give them away, do you? We hope we have made this plain enough.—Ed.)

WANTED, a pig (no runt.) See Editor.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Terry County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Edwin C. Rallins, J. W. Knox, W. F. Turner and J. F. Turner & Company, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 72nd Judicial district; but if there be no newspaper published in said judicial district, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Terry County, to be holden at the court house thereof in Brownfield on the fourth Monday in April, 1915, the same being the 26th day of April, 1915, then and there to answer to a petition filed in said court on the 19th day of January, A. D. 1915, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court, No. 215, wherein J. W. Templeton is plaintiff and Edwin C. Rallins, J. W. Knox, W. F. Turner and J. F. Turner & Company and J. R. Lanier are defendants, said petition alleging that heretofore, to-wit, on or about the 1st day of January, A. D. 1915, plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land and premises, situated in the County of Terry, State of Texas, and known as the west one-half of Survey No. 9, Block D14, Certificate No. 218, issued to the C. & M. Railway Company, containing 320 acres of land, holding and claiming the same in fee simple.

That on the day and year last aforesaid, defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom, and unlawfully withholds from him the possession thereof, to his damage ($1,000.00); that the reasonable annual rental value of said land and premises is ($100.00).

That heretofore, to-wit, on or about the 10th day of August, A. D. 1909, the above described land and premises was conveyed by G. E. Lockhart and J. R. Lanier to Nick Alley, in consideration, among other things, of two notes of even date therewith, for the sum of ($100.00) each, due and payable twelve months after date, and that thereafter, the said Nick Alley conveyed said land and premises to J. W. Knox, and the said J. W. Knox, in consideration among other things, executed two notes for ($200.00) each, payable to Nick Alley, due two and three years from the 31st day of August, 1909, and the said Nick Alley retained a vendor's lien against said land and premises to secure the payment of said notes; and that thereafter, to-wit, on the 4th day of October, 1909, the said J. W. Knox conveyed the above described land and premises, to W. F. Turner, and as a part of the consideration of the said conveyance, the said W. F. Turner executed two notes, one for the sum of ($130.00) and one for the sum of ($125.00), payable to the order of J. F. Turner & Company, one and two years after date, and a vendor's lien was retained in said deed to secure the payment of said two notes.

That on or about the 25th day of October, 1910, J. R. Lanier recovered judgment against Nick Alley and W. F. Turner in the District Court of Terry County, Texas, on the two notes first described in the preceding paragraph, and foreclosed the vendor's lien against the land and premises herein described; that on the 3rd day of January, 1911, said land was sold by the sheriff of Terry county, to satisfy said judgment, and was bought in at said sale by J. R. Lanier.

That the two notes sued on in the case of J. R. Lanier vs. Nick Alley, et al., in the District Court of Terry County, Texas, were superior to the said notes executed by J. W. Knox in favor of Nick Alley and were superior to the notes executed by W. F. Turner, and payable to the order of J. F. Turner & Company, and that by reason of the lapse of time, the holders of said notes should now be estopped from claiming any equity of redemption.

That on or about the 10th day of August, 1909, G. E. Lockhart and J. R. Lanier made, executed and delivered to Ira H. Wilson a certain mortgage against the land and premises herein described to secure the payment of one note for the sum of ($200.00), executed by G. E. Lockhart and J. R. Lanier, and payable to the order of Ira H. Wilson, which mortgage was at that time the only lien against said land, and which was at any time thereafter, the superior lien to any that was created by virtue of the vendor's lien notes hereinbefore described.

That on the 21st day of March, 1911, J. R. Lanier conveyed said land and premises to Edwin C. Rallins, and as part of the consideration therefor, the said Rallins executed two promissory notes, one for the sum of ($750.00) due November 21, 1911, and one for the sum of ($370.00) due Nov. 21, 1912, which notes, however, was made subject to the outstanding mortgage lien and not for ($200.00) in favor of Ira H. Wilson.

That on or about the 30th day of April, 1912, Ira H. Wilson recovered a judgment in the District Court, Terry County, against G. E. Lockhart and J. R. Lanier, on said ($200.00) note, hereinbefore described, together with the foreclosure of his mortgage lien, and that thereafter, to-wit, on the 7th day of January, 1913, said land was sold by the sheriff of Terry County, Texas, to L. B. Minor, by virtue of an order of sale to satisfy said judgment.

That said ($200.00) note held by Ira H. Wilson, and the mortgage securing the payment of same, was first lien against said land, and was superior to any lien, claim, equity or right held by any other person. That since the sale of said land to L. B. Minor by the Sheriff of Terry County, neither of the defendants herein have offered to exercise, their equity of redemption, if any they have, and should now be estopped from claiming any right, title or interest in and to said land by virtue of any of said notes, or said deeds herein referred to.

That by virtue of the deed from J. W. Knox to W. F. Turner, and by virtue of the notes executed by W. F. Turner, in favor of J. F. Turner & Company, and by virtue of the deed from J. R. Lanier to Edwin C. Rallins, and the notes executed by Edwin C. Rallins to J. R. Lanier, there is a cloud cast upon plaintiff's title, and he is, and should be entitled to have the same removed.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays the court that the defendants be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that plaintiff have judgment for title and possession, of the above described land and premises, that the cloud cast upon plaintiff's title hereto be removed, and that writ of restitution issue, for this rents, damages and cost of suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law or in equity that he may be entitled to receive.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness D. J. Broughton, Clerk of the District Court of Terry County, Texas.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, this the 19th day of January, A. D. 1915.

D. J. BROUGHTON,
Clerk of District Court, Terry County, Texas.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE
And Be Free From Her Troubles,
but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.
