DORA DAUGHERTY

We take pleasure in again presenting the name of the above lady to the Democratic voters of Terry County, who is seeking re-nomination to the office which she now holds, and we ask you to carefully read her statement below. So far as we have been able to learn, Miss Daugherty has given entire satisfaction, and has given the office and her duty as Treasurer, full time; or at least all the time required.

I wish to call the attention of the voters of Terry Co., to the fact that I am again before them for reelection, to the Office of County Treasurer. I have earnestly endeavored to fulfil the duties of this office faithfully, realizing that through the kindness and respect of my friends, I have been placed there. This, coupled with a desire to do things well, has led me ever to give my best service to the county that has been my home so long, and when my record speaks, as I know it will, I trust I shall have retained my old friends, and gained many new ones, and that when next election comes, I shall be permitted to serve as Treasurer again, and if so, I promise the same, faithful, earnest, willing endeavors that has marked my present term. Thanking old friends for past favors, and requesting a continuance of same, and soliciting the consideration of my new friends in my behalf, I shall await your decision at the polls.

Very Respectfully,
Dora Daugherty.

J. C. GREEN

Our aimable and efficient County and District Clerk has asked us to present his name to the Democratic voters of Terry County for renomination to the office he now holds. The writer is glad to give Mr. Green's administration an unqualified endorsement, he having given good satisfaction to all his constituents so far as we have been able to learn. Having known him for nine years intimately, we know the stuff he is made out of, know his honesty is unquestioned, and his intentions are to do the right thing at all times. If he has made mistakes, and we all do, they are of the head and not of the heart. As to his duties, we believe he knows them, and he is always at his post of duty. He has no sideline of business. The office holds his only thought. In making up your ballot, be sure to give Mr. Green full and due consideration, as under our Democratic principles, any official who has given satisfaction is entitled to reelection. He is now serving his first term.

J. N. LEWIS

We are glad to be able to again present the name of J. N. Lewis to the voters of Terry County, who will nominate their candidate in the Democratic primaries in July. Jim was one of our pioneers, having settled in the Needmore community and conducted a business as stock farmer for several years. Four years ago was the first time he he ever offered for any office, and being elected Sherriff and Tax-Collector, at that time, has served his constituents well and faithfully. He has tried as hard as any man, to do his duty as peace officer in a quiet, friendly manner, but those who have tried the roughneck style, have been handled without gloves. Such instances are rare in Terry we are glad to say. As Collector he has kept a close tab on his office, and those seeking information have at all times been readily accomodated. We ask you to give this faithful officer and citizen due consideration, when making up your ballot.

CLINT. R. RAMBO

We doubt seriously if Terry county ever had a more faithful and efficient Tax Assessor than she has right now, or one who has given more time and attention to the office. Early in his administration he moved to the county seat, that he might devote his entire time and attention to his duties. Although being badly crippled, he has purchased a small home close in, and most any day can be seen wheeling himself over toward the Court House that he might be on hand for the duties of the day. His books are a credit to the County, and are free to every citizen for inspection at anytime. Being endowed with a good supply of common sense, he has managed the affairs of his office without diction from anyone. Be sure you give Clint full consideration when making up your ballot. He is serving his term.

Jack Rabbits

State Department of Agriculture, Austin, Texas.—The Jack Rabbit now a pest in many parts of the state, can be converted into a source of large revenue. Their meat is nutritious, savory, may be served in many ways and their pelts are in demand at satisfactory prices.

During the very high price of meat the use of rabbit meat will be economical both for local consumption and for shipment to northern and eastern markets.

They may be caught in large numbers on the plains by cooperative community drives and shipped in car load lots to cities to be sold direct to consumers or to be placed in cold storage for future use; or they may be caught or killed by individual and shipped to smaller towns for immediate use.

The National Provision Company, 215 South 8th St., Waco, is the market for both jack rabbits and cotton tails by the dozen or in car load lots. They give the following suggestion on

HOW TO DRESS, PACK AND SHIP RABBITS

If rabbits are caught in traps or pens, they should be killed by hitting them on the head behind the ears with a heavy stick. Next cut the jugular vein on each side of throat and hang the animal up, head down, to bleed. While bleeding you should proceed to dress it as follows: Remove the paunch and entrals by cutting a slit down the middle of the belly, beginning at the breast bone. Take out the paunch and entrals, but leave the lungs, heart, liver and kidneys in place. Do not remove head, feet, or skin. After dressing wipe out all blood with a damp cloth. Then let the carcass hang until the animal heat escapes and you are ready to ship and ship. In warm weather use ice and ice pack as same as fish. In cool weather pack in boxes about the size of orange boxes or egg cases. It is best to pack with partitions or slats between each layer so that the air can circulate freely.

High School Notes.

All the pupils were back Monday morning for School bright and early, ready to go to work after the holidays. On Jan., 1st 1918, all the pupils made New Year's resolutions, with a good intent of making the year of 1918 the most profitable ever spent. Marked improvements have already been shown in work, general attitude and discipline. With the cooperation of the public in general, we shall make the remainder of the term the very best in every respect.

The teachers attended Institute at Lubbock which proved a success in many respects. Dr. Fletcher, from the University, Dr. Taylor, and State Supt. W. F. Doughty and the others gave us some excellent lectures and we derived benefit from them. Four counties met at Lubbock for Institute viz. Crosby, Terry, Lubbock and Garza. The people of Lubbock treated us most kindly and are to be congratulated upon their hospitality.

Chas. S. Lofton spent the holidays at his home in Canyon, returning Saturday.

Supt. J. P. Rhodes and wife spent the holidays at Roaring Springs and Paducah respectively, returning Friday.

There have been several new pupils that entered school this week. In the Seventh Grade, Elsie McCleary and Clyde Bond enrolled. To our regret however, some of our pupils have been forced to discontinue their work.

Christmas came and is gone while all seemed happy it lacked some of the things characteristic of Christmas, fire works, toys and as far as we could see no booze.

Terrell and Phillip Allen, Carol Evins, and Claude Peeler, soldiers came home for holidays to the delight of all.

Mr. Boon Peeler and family, also Joe Peeler spent Christmas at J. W. Peelers.

Little Dessie Stricklin spent most of the week in Lubbock, with Irma Myrl Robinson.

Mr. Geo. Carter's family spent later part of the week at Estacado. Mr. O. F. Boyd's family was at Mr. Carters Christmas night.

Mr. Jno. Raymer and family took Christmas in Lubbock. They were called there again Friday night at the death of Little Ethel Arnett.

The young people enjoyed quite a few parties last week.

Mr Geo. Ellington had Marlin Ellington and family with him for Christmas dinner.

Messers Ellington and Ramer's families took in the Hawaii an entertainment at Brownfield last week.

Miss Neva Stricklin has tonsillitis, hence has not returned to school.

We are informed that the Primrose teachers have resigned leaving Primrose without a teacher. They are a thriving and enterprising people therefore will soon adjust things.

We all realize how hard it is to part with old friends, and it is about the same with an old advertiser. This week, the Lubbock Coal & Grain Co., canceled a contract with us that has been running eight years this last fall, and have in that time paid us something like $500.00 for the space. Their reason for canceling is that the railroad is now in Brownfield, and while the space has paid them well, they say it will not now, which is all true. We have expected this cancellation for some time, and Barrier Bros. spoke months ago for the space, which they occupied, and you will find Barrier Bros. ad in that space from now on. Herald will ever remember the big firm that has given up the space and wishes them much more prosperity.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. . . I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui. . .

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. . . I decided I would try Cardui. . . By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. NOTED PEOPLE LEFT-HANDED

Many Famous Painters and Writers Have Been Ambidextrous—Hobby of Late Charles Reade.

Julius Caesar and the historian Tacitus are said to have been left-handed, as well as the philosopher Schopenhauer, the late Queen Victoria and former Speaker Cannon.

As to the lower animals skilled observers disagree. Gould and Brinton believe that they use the two sides of their bodies indifferently. Bardeleben, however, says that when we ascend the scale to the monkey type we find the gibbon and the orang-utan right-handed, and the gorilla and the chimpanzee left-handed, which seems to divide the honors pretty evenly.

Optimism.

Optimism is friends with the world, putting white arms of affection about the earth and men. It's good will, encircling the world, returns to it again. Optimism knows that the very needs of love are fairer in blossom than the brightest orchids of hate.

Optimism is the gospel of light, and if that light shines for you, you will find your life's dream tiding through happy fields beneath rainbow arching skies until its low sweet murmur is swallowed in a mighty river of song.

Optimism ends the world-old struggle for happiness by being happy.—Exchange.

Everyone cannot "go across" and fight, but everyone can "come across" with a membership in the Red Cross, and thus help those who do fight.

Suffering humanity, in many nations is calling to us for help. We can help through the Red Cross.

DIED

At his home here Sunday afternoon Dec. 23 at 3.45 Geo. Black Sr. The deceased was known as "Grandpa Black" and it is a literal fact that everyone that knew him loved him. Gomez has lost a citizen whose place in the hearts of his neighbors will not be filled. "By their fruits ye shall know them" By his life here and his treatment of his family, neighbors, and the strangers who met him on life's pathway; we know Grandpa Black to be one of God's children who having faithfully done his life work, has gone to the home of the blessed where toil nor sorrows never come.

He was 73 years old, a member of the Christian Church, and leaves a wife two sons Will H. and Geo. Jr. and three daughters Mrs. Wiley Bridges, Mrs. Stacey Scott, and Mrs. Will Winn and quite a number of grandchildren to mourn his death. He was taken sick on Saturday and was not considered seriously sick until just a few minutes before heart failure caused his death.

The entire community tenders sympathy to the stricken family. May they realize that he waits and watches for his loved ones, in the eternal home of the blessed. He was buried by the Masons in the Brownfield Cemetery.

Mrs. Stacey Scott of Happy Tex., came the 24th inst to attend the funeral of her father Mr. Geo. Black Sr. she returned to her home on the 27th inst.

This was the quietest Christmas we have ever seen in Brownfield or elsewhere, mainly we think, from the high cost of booze. Yet we never saw people have a better time, or give and receive more presents. Our officers had little to do as usual and we heard the Sheriff say this week he never heard or heard of a cross word being spoken during the holidays. Surely this is better way to spend Christmas the natal day of our Savior.

A Happy New Year to everybody. At twelve o'clock to night the old year will be rung out and the new year of 1918 will be rung in. Another year has rolled by long to be remembered. So many of our noble boys have been called to the colors to help Uncle Sam fight for our glorious United States. This has been a year of drouth in the Southern and Western part of Texas. Yet we have many things to be thankful for. We live in a mild and healthful climate, as our soldier boys can testify as most all of them from Terry county have proved to be healthy, brave, loyal and courageous and most all have been promoted since entering the ranks for which we are all thankful and glad that we have such fine citizen ship to help Uncle Sam.

Prof. Bishop and wife and Miss Madaline Wyatt came in the 28th from Tahoka where they spent Xmas.

School opened here the 31st with a full attendance and every one seemed glad to get back to work.

Mr. Burnett and wife of the Harris community, spent last Friday night in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Simms.

Dr. Summit will move his family to Plains this week, he has been staying out there for the last two months and has decided to locate there permanently. We regret to lose these people from our town, but hope they may be happy and prosperous in their new home.

We tender our thanks to Mrs. O. E. Adams, Mrs. S. J. Miller, Mrs. Robert Holgate and Mrs. Deshazo for the dinner of turkey, ham, pies, salad, cakes and ambrosia that they each sent us from their Xmas dinner. Only the person who can never leave home can properly appreciate such treats. May they all live long and always be happy.

Tuesday morning, Jan. 1st 1918 A Happy New Year to every body. The old year, welcome the new. A merry party of young folks held watch night here last night and we assure you if 1918 had been one bit timid of noise he would have turned back on the threshold of time and left us to try 1917 over again. They (to use a kids expression) prized up the town and put rocks under the corners; pandemonium reigned and everyone was happy, 'twas well it should be so for this has been a quiet sad Xmas owing to the deaths that bereaved our town. At 11 o'clock p. m. the bells began tolling the death of the old year and kept it up slow and sad until just at one the clangor of peals wild and frantic around; the old year was gone and they were ringing joy bells for the new.

DIED

At Post City Texas, Dec. 22nd Artie Shepherd of Seagraves. The above short sentence contains more of human heartbreak and woe than is often written in eight words. Artie Shepherd was raised in Terry county; a strictly moral, upright and honest man. He was for nearly two years our postmaster here at Gomez, also a grocery merchant in all his business dealings he was just and courteous but strictly exact trying to always do all that was his duty. One month ago he built a store and moved from here to Seagraves, where on the 16th inst. he was stricken with Appendicitis and Peritonitis on Thursday night, he was carried to Post City and on Friday morning an operation was performed. He only lived 30 hours after the operation. He was buried by the Woodmen at Brownfield on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He leaves a wife and three baby children and his parents, Mr and Mrs. Allen Shepherd of San Marcus, Texas and a large family of brothers and sisters to mourn his early death. He was 29 years of age and had been for many years a member of the Baptist church at Gomez. Their many friends in Terry tender sympathy to the bereaved family and relatives in their sad hour of bereavement.

Mr. Allen Shepherd of San Marcus, Tex. came to the bedside of his son Artie before he died, also Mrs. Bertie (Shepherd) Barcus a sister of Artie's who lives in the Panhandle came to his burial and visited old friends and relatives here for ten days before returning to her home.

A CARD OF THANKS

To the many kind friends of Seagraves, Post City, Gomez and Brownfield, for their kindness and aid during the sickness and after the death of our beloved husband, son and brother. We tender our sincere thanks, and while life shall we will cherish a

Rabbit Market

This Company writing under date of November 16, 1917, to Mr E W. Cole, Director of Markets, State Department of Agriculture, says: "We have arranged open buying stations at Lamesa and Henrietta, Texas, and will open others at Amarillo, Sweetwater, Abilene, Fort Worth Oklahoma City, and Enid, Okla.

We especially want to get in touch with those in communities where they have rabbit "drives" and where we are guaranteed a minimum of 2,000 jack rabbits in two or three days time, we will contract to buy them f. o. b. nearest railroad point to the drive and have a representative on the ground to receive and pay for them

It is suggested that those, who intend to "pull off" rabbit drives in the near future, get in correspondence with the above firm so as to have buyers present who will take all the rabbits killed and pay the cash for them.

In hunting rabbits it is better not to shoot them with a shot gun as that reduces the value of the meat. Shoot them in the head with a rifle, when possible.

Only 2 Per Cent of Men Called to Colors Seek Nonhazardous Positions

When men called under the selective service law reach the cantonments they are given, so far as practicable, their choices of Army service. Infantry is most often preferred, Artillery second, Engineer divisions are third in popularity, and quarter masters work fourth.

Investigations so far made by the committee on classifications of personnel in the Army, which has the matter in charge, prove that only 2 per cent of the men attempt to secure nonhazardous positions.

W O. W. NOTICE: All past and elective officers and all sovereigns are requested to attend the meeting and installation of new officers, first Sat. night in January 1918. A nice program is being arranged, bring the ladies. J. T. May, Con. Com.

Among the soldier boys who visited home folks were, Sam and Dude Pyeatt, who visited their father, Bill, and sisters, Mrs. Ray Brownfield and Miss Bitt. Mr. Carter, also of Camp Bowie visited his parents here. Bun Odam, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs S. P. Odam, of Southwest Terry. The latter spent a couple of nights with the editor, as we were old chums back in Jones County. There were others mentioned by other correspondents. The people here have showed the boys a royal good time.
