BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY NOVEMBER 28, 1919

NO. 20

WESTERN BUZFUZ 41 CENTS

Last Monday a farmer sold cotton in Big Springs Texas, at forty-one cents a pound, and the town was so proud of its record that the news item was reported to the Dallas News as the highest price ever paid out there. Poor old Big Springs! If a man in Red River County had sold his sorriest buzfuz at such a price last Monday, he would be ashamed to look his dog in the face; he would have begged the forgiveness of his children, and have sworn to his wife that he was drunk when he made the deal. Yet that's "heap price" for Big Springs—when she is doing her best and the market's up. Poor old West Texas! Three years out of four it is too dry for even cotton to grow; and at last when the rains do come, the cotton has lint so short that the buyers pay a price that makes even our buzfuz ashamed of it.—Red River County News.

The above bull and general mixture of venom is just a sample of what is heaped upon the fastest growing section of the State by foolish and jealous editors of the frog pond section of this State. Their old carcasses are so dinged full of malaria, chiggers and frog eggs, that in clearest hours, their minds are not free to write sane articles, for thinking of some sunny place behind a log to have their next chill.

We don't know what he means by "buzfuz" and don't suppose he does even in his rational moments, but suppose he has borrowed it from some of his black companions of old Red River, blessed land of swamps and "long steeple" cotton. But we are all aware of the fact that West Texas is not getting as much for its white cotton as "Eas Texas" is for stained varieties—but you know we have to stand a lot out here. But he thinks "long steeple" cotton cannot be grown outside of his little ball-wicks. Listen to the following from the Slaton Slatonite, a newspaper printed in an adjoining county to Terry.

S. R. Lynn this week marketed the first bale of long staple cotton ever grown on the South Plains, and sold for 62 cents per pound. The cotton was shipped to Houston by express. Mr. Lynn has four more bales of this cotton which proves that the long staple can be grown on the plains and no doubt a good acreage of this variety will be grown here next year. The yield is fully as great as other cotton and the extra price of 20 cents per pound makes it more desirable to grow.—Slaton Slatonite.

of course the article was aimed at Big Springs in particular and West Texas in general, and we realize that Big Springs country was without a crop for three years, which cannot be said of Terry County, but one good crop or two in West Texas is equal to three crops any other place in the State. You notice that he uses the words "heap big" in his article, and probably thinks that Indians and wild men still roam this part of the State. Poor fellow, he probably was never outside of his home county except the time his daddy took him to the Dallas Fair in the early 80's.

Folks, this is the kind of nump sculls that West Texas is bound up with for "sentimental reasons." They are the dirty curs that get our tax money to educate their puny off springs, black and white and then stab you in the back. This is one of the counties that gets back more money than they pay in, and you people of West Texas are helping to do it.

Would to God that West Texas would wake up to their rights and cut loose from these howling maniacs. But we are getting their best farmers and they are mad about it.

Even now, buyers from the eastern part of the State are here after cotton seed for their farmers to plant the following year, as it has rained so much back there that the cotton seed will not germinate, and buyers from that section are thick here after our maize and corn to feed their old poor cows through the winter. Out side of our tax money East Texas hates West Texas from Dan to Bersheba, but their jealousy is of no avail, for if it were not for bounding West Texas, the State as a whole would show no increase in population next year, and man for man, the wealth of the Western people is much greater.

We could tell this guy more, giving him facts and figures, but he would not know how to handle them, and he has seen nothing of the rest of the world. Infact—the time he was at "Dallis" with his father, he wrote a post card to his mother and ended by saying it was from "her lovin' sun, fer, fer away."

Buzfuz? This may be a creation of his own, from the buzzards and fuz of niggers of east Texas. We have neither here. The atmosphere is too pure for the former to scent his carion, and the white race here is too pure to want to scent the latter. His whole article sounds to us like a cow boy's common expression of what we medical men term stearine chips.

Mrs. Fred Smith Entertains.

The Maids and Matrons met on Nov. 18th with Mrs. Fred Smith. The meeting was called to order by vice President, Mrs. Prideaux. Several committees reported. The constitution and by laws were read and approved. Some important communications from State Federalism were reported on. Then the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Bell, who was leader. The Scene III. of Henry IV. was studied and questions asked, which was thoroughly enjoyed by each member. Mrs. King showed a map of England she had drawn, locating important places mentioned in the lesson. After an hour which passed all too soon, the meeting adjourned to meet at 2:30 promptly with Mrs. Stricklin, next regular time.

Mrs. Smith served dainty refreshments to eleven members, after which the club members dispersed, expressing them selves as having spent a delightful afternoon in this lovely home.

Rev. M. D. Williams has sold his residence in the western part of town, and will in about two weeks leave for Gallop, N. M. where he will make his home in the future. This is one of the oldest residents in the county, he and family arriving here about fourteen years ago, and it is with many regrets that we see them go.

Mr. M. B. Elbert, of Quanah, Texas, special agent of the Cravens and Gage insurance companies, of Houston, was here this week making an inspection of their risks in this city. He found no serious violation of policies, but gave us all good talks toward keeping fire hazards as much in controll as possible. Mr. J. T. Whitley, one of the very successful farmers of the Needmore community, was in this week and renewed for his Herald. He informed us that he would make about fifteen bales of cotton this year, which would make a good substantial payment on his place that he purchased, he having rented land up to this time. He further says he is doing all he can to help settle old Terry, and recently found a buyer for G. J. Stearns' place in that community, for $12,000.00 cash. Mr Stearns has bought the half section just north of J. L. Hyman and will improve it. Come to Terry.

CAMPAIGN TO CONTINUE LAUGH ON DETECTIVES

Heavy rains throughout the state has made it necessary for the directors of the third Red Cross Roll Call in Texas to announce that the campaign will not be concluded on Armistice Day, as originally intended, but extended ten days, closing on November 21st.

Roll Call Director Prather has been urged from many sections to allow an extension of time owing to the inability of teams in many places to get out into the country. Bad transportation facilities also resulted in the miscarriage of many bundles of supplies, and it became necessary to get buttons and supplies by special messenger from St. Louis. These were distributed in many instances by special messenger in order to insure their arrival. In securing the Roll Call buttons from St. Louis, State Director Prather was strongly suspected of being a "bootlegger" and when he went through the sheds of the Union Station in Dallas and received a bundle from the steward of the riding car, he was politely requested by detectives and several policemen to step aside and allow himself to be searched. When the representatives of the law found he was only "bootlegging" Red Cross campaign buttons they allowed him to go free while the crowd laughed at the officers.

Some of the colleges are now giving the "B. A." degree without Greek or Latin. It is well. In 99 cases out of every hundred the young men starting out to make a living in the world for himself has need for Greek and Latin the same as a pig has need for two tails. To the hundredth young man whose father provides, it is all very nice, and even then a lot of this "B. A." stuff might as well be labelled "B. S."—Ex.

The local lodge of Woodmen at Lubbock is about the only lodge in the State that we have heard of that has willingly decided to stand for the unwarranted raise in Woodmen assessments. Most of the lodges have decided that the raise has been made necessary by flagrant extravagance, and woeful mismanagement, and do not feel that they should be made bear the burden. Looking back over a period of 25 years and noticing the fate of different orders, we are constrained to believe that all fraternal insurance is a failure.—Ralls Banner.

We don't know what the local lodge, as a lodge, has decided to do, but many of the members are applying for old line insurance with the intention of dropping fraternal insurance.

BROWNFIELD GIN SERVING LARGE TERRITORY

According to W. W. Price, county judge of Terry county, who was here a short time the first of this week, Brownfield's one gin is serving the largest territory in the town's history. Farmers from Dawson and Gaines counties and the eastern portion of New Mexico are hauling their cotton to Brownfield. For this reason the farmers there are experiencing some delay in getting their cotton ginned than at other places.

The gin at Brownfield was erected only a short time ago. Since its erection many acres have been planted to cotton. The gin is owned by the West Texas Gin Company and is modern excepting the power facilities. A movement is now taking foot in that city to provide electric light and power. This will probably be a matter of history in a few months.—Lubbock Avalanche.

IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE AT LUBBOCK SANITARIUM

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Lubbock Sanitarium an extensive improvement program was discussed, but we are not yet at liberty to publish same. As is well known this institution has been treating large numbers of patients—more than at any other period in their history. The maximum capacity of the institution is frequently reached and at times they have been unable to admit all wishing to secure medical or surgical aid where hospital beds were required. On account of this condition and having in mind the future needs of the people in this vicinity an effort will be made to improve the facilities.

Another improvement at this institution is the recent employment of a registered dietitian, of training and experience, Miss Helen E. Griffith, a graduate of the Domestic Science School of the Battle Creek Sanitarium and previously the dietist of Christ's Hospital in New Jersey.—Lubbock Avalanche.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night . . . I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui . . .

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again . . . I decided I would try Cardui . . . By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Patrons of the South Plains Telephone Co.

Owing to the present high price of labor and material, we find it necessary to raise our rental rates. In order to give efficient and sufficient service, and to satisfy the demands of justice and reasonableness, these prices must cover the cost of rendering that service and leave a profit which compares favorably enough with the profit of in other branches of industry to attract to the telephone companies a continuing supply of capital for extensions and improvements required by the Telephone using public.

While the rentals here in Brownfield have not advanced since 1913, and you are still charged the old pre-war prices, yet labor has advanced 75 per cent and material over 100 per cent and in some instances as high as 300 per cent.

For the purpose of making some comparisons with the present prices charged by this company, and the present prices of other commodities, we wish to call your attention to the following, taken from Table 1 Index Number, Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Government

Group	Year 1913	April 1914
Farm Products	100	233
Food	100	207
Clothes and clothing	100	215
Fuel and lighting	100	177
Metals and metal products	100	153
Lumber and building material	100	161
Drugs and Chemicals	100	169
House furnishings	100	231
Miscellaneous	100	216

While we do not intend to raise the present rates 203 percent, yet in keeping with other commodities this would be the average per cent, and in view of the above facts, we have no hesitancy in asking our subscribers an increase of from 20 to 35 per cent. Should any of our subscribers deem this increase unjust and unreasonable, we will be glad to go into this matter further with them and explain in detail fully the present abnormal conditions effecting Telephone Service.

The present management has about completed the rebuilding of the entire outside equipment, also the re-wiring of the subscriber's stations in the city of Brownfield, and contemplate the erection in the near future of a new office building, and the installation of entirely new central office equipment, and we promise our subscribers that every penny added to your present rentals, will be used in the betterment of the present service.

Rates effective on Brownfield Exchange on and after Dec. 1st 1914 will be as follows:

Business Telephones	$3.00
Residence	2.00
Rural	2.00
Switching (six or more on same line)	1.00
Switching private	2.00
Extension Telephones	1.00
Extension Bells	.25
Installing Telephones	$3.50
Moving Telephones	1.50
Desk Sets Extra	.25

Arthur Sawyer, one of our hustling stock raisers, received a solid car of hogs from one of the farmers near Lubbock, one day last week, and informed us that he had bought this car of hogs at prices so that he could retail them at a low figure and still make something himself. COTTON PRICES TO PRODUCERS

Address to the People—Hold, Shelter, Insure, Market Slowly.

TO THE BANKERS

You said reduce the acreage; your advice and the abandonment of much planted land, lack of labor to plant cultivate and harvest, rains rotting grown bolls and lint in the fields, boll weevils, boll worms, leaf worms, root rot, drouth, floods and frost, combined, will limit production to less than a ten million bale famine crop.

The world is bare of cotton. It would consume 15 million bales profitably after paying 50 cents per pound for it.

When cotton producers got $25.00 per bale that was all they could deposit. Now with your partial support last year and this, the farmers who have held their cotton can deposit eight times that amount per bale of foreign money with you. Your profits are limited only by volume of deposits. True, farmers are paying their notes, but with expansion of business through use of abundant capital you can always find borrowers. Your wealth has been created from labor and lands of the farmers. They have confidence in our banks and will act on your advice, therefore you are to some extent morally responsible in this instance for their financial success. So we emphatically, earnestly and urgently request that all of you advise the farmers to hold their cotton, shelter, insure and market slowly. The immediate and steady result will be that the growers will receive a price somewhat nearer cost of production.

There is not a chance for loss of a cent, but certainly of incalculable profits to you, and through general prosperity of the farmers, which adds to the possibility of a crop next year, whose profits you will share.

We hope for decisive action by you to utilize your influence and financial power for the benefit of all.

TO THE MERCHANTS

This cotton has cost the producers more than 44 cents per pound. The farmers are your customers and friends. The banks will carry you ninety days longer, with profits to themselves, to you and the farmers Help hold, shelter and market slowly.

TO THE FARMERS

During the year 1917, the Texas Department of Agriculture advised you to hold your cotton and market and you would get 30 cents for it. Those of you who followed that advice, realized 30 cents a pound and over, for cotton which would have sold for 20 cents or less without that counsel and your act on it.

Last year it paid 35 cents with the same results. We boldly advised the only thing necessary to get 45 cents a pound and up, for all good cotton is for you to hold, shelter and market slowly, as the Department has again advised. If you owe money consult your banker. Let him know that your cotton is sheltered, insured and subject to his order. Not one banker in a thousand will fail to carry you cheerfully. If your banker is an exception and demands his money, wire the Commissioner of Agriculture at Austin for the name of a Bank which will furnish you credit on your cotton.

To those farmers who are not in debt we appeal not to dump your cotton to the gamblers' prices, and break the market for those who hold.

If prices begin to fall quit selling. Let the world see that we will stand together to obtain a fair price and the victory is won.

Respectfully signed, your fellow-citizens,

(Signed) Chas. B. Metcalfe, Cotton Grower, San Angelo, Texas.

J. W. Johnson, Vice Pres. Central National Bank, San Angelo, Texas.

J. G. Murphy, Editor, San Angelo Standard, San Angelo, Texas.

C. S. Miller, President, Ballinger State Bank & Trust Co.

K. M. VanZant, President Fort Worth National Bank.

Porter A. Whaley, Manager, West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

G. H. Alford, Editor, Progressive Farmer, Dallas, Texas.

D. E. Lyda, President Farmers Union.

W. B. Yeary, Cotton Specialist, Department of Agriculture.

In connection with my signature to the foregoing, I wish to give credit to the Farmers' Union, to the Warehouse and Marketing Department, to the State Bankers' Association, to the Retail Merchants' Association and others for their assistance and support in the cotton campaigns of 1917-18.

(Signed) Fred W. Davis, Commissioner of Agriculture.

I have signed the foregoing statement because I heartily endorse any movement having a tendency to bring about increased returns to the producers of the South. I do not assume to have a personal knowledge, nor am I in a position to determine personally the cost of production. Therefore I do not sign this statement with regard to the facts stated as to the cost of production, nor am I in a position to assure the public that action upon the part of

of the producers, as advised by the Department of Agriculture or others, was the direct cause of the realization of increased prices during the years of 1917, 1918, although I heartily commend the Department of Agriculture for the advice given, for I can give assurance as to the action to the banks with regard to carrying accounts.

(Signed) W. P. Hobby, Governor.

We have advocated the above plan practically, persistently through the columns of Farm and Ranch and shall continue to do so.

(Signed) F. P. Holland, Publisher, Farm and Ranch.

I think there should be a gradual marketing of cotton, that it should be well housed and preserved pending sale, and that all financial institutions, mercantile and banking, should adopt the most liberal policy in aid of a wise and gradual marketing plan.

(Signed) W. F. Ramsey, Fed Reserve Bank, Dallas, Texas.

Talking about an express car being well filled, but the one on this run was jammed last Saturday morning when the train pulled out. Besides the cream and other regular business, there was better than 2600 pounds of turkeys aboard. W. S. Daniells had 1500 pounds and Mr. Turner had 1100 pounds. The latter shipped out another large consignment this week, and would have shipped more, but could not get coops. He had more than 100 turkeys that he could not get coops for.

Print paper has quoted as high as 13c per pound in New York this week and the big papers are unable to connect with any at that price. The Herald was thinking of enlarging to a six column, but if any of the papers suffer for want of paper, it will be the little fellow as usual, and we aim to journey on as best we can under present circumstances, crowded as we are, until the paper situation is more settled. It may so happen that a lot of us little fellows will have to suspend, and carrying dead heads on the list is entirely out of the question.

The floors in front will be of tile, and those behind the counters will be of hard wood.
