There is a maxim among newspapermen that "the fewer jokes people you print the more people you will have," and the maxim is true. Correspondents who write jokes about their neighbors and friends should be aware of this fact and keep the jokes before their minds while writing.

CARLSBAD THE BEAUTIFUL

Editor Eagle:

Fifteen years ago the Pecos Valley was considered merely a good grazing place. But now everything is changed. Where the buffalo was wont to range undisturbed, now graze well bred sheep, cattle and goats. Where the grass grew undisturbed, we now have thriving crops of kafir corn, milo maize and alfalfa.

Where twenty years ago the Pecos river flowed on unfettered and undisturbed, today we see massive stone dams obstructing its mighty march to the sea. Man has laid his conquering hand on the beautiful stream and made it to serve his purpose.

Six miles above Carlsbad was placed what is known to the inhabitants as the six mile dam, thereby creating two large reservoirs. These have a capacity of 10,000 acres—that is enough water to cover 90,000 acres to the depth of twelve inches. The reservoir located furthest south was named Lake Alvon. We had the pleasure of gazing on this beautiful expanse of water Sunday last. The river is dammed here between two hills, here also starts the main irrigation canal.

Gazing at the spillway, one may see the immense amount of water that is not yet needed on the 15,000 acres under cultivation near Carlsbad. There is a frail footbridge leading over the spillway, over which we walked, clinging most lovingly to the railing. I could almost feel myself being carried down with the mighty, rushing, foaming water, as it dashed madly over the rocks.

The next place is the head gates. There is a seat down under the head gates and as they were all closed we went down and sat there a few moments. Again I could feel the waters, at my back this time, for the whole torrent was pressing against the gates. The canal that starts here is forty-five feet wide on the bottom and carrying water to the depth of five feet. About two miles north of Carlsbad this canal is divided, one branch is carried to the west bank through a magnificent concrete flume. This aqueduct was built by the Pecos Irrigation company to replace the old wooden flume which had been used for the last ten years.

The new flume is built entirely of concrete and is the largest and only one of its kind in the world, and cost $45,000 and has a capacity of 1500 cubic feet of water per second. The capacity of the old flume was 390 cubic feet per second. These are figures and measurements as given by the papers. The length of the flume is 422 feet, approaches at each end extending into the bank 30 feet, making the total length 492 feet. The height from the river bed to the arch is 25 feet, to the top of the side wall 45 feet. There are four arches, 100x15 feet in the clear, 5 feet thick; three piers, 8x25 feet base and 29 feet high. There are four approach walls 30x5 feet, 29 feet high, two at each end. The space above the arches is 4 feet high. The cross section of the flume is 29x18 feet in concrete trough with side walls 2 1/2 feet thick and 18 feet high. The only material other than concrete used in the structure is 15,000 lineal feet of railroad rails, bedded every four feet in the floor and sides of the trough and tied across the top to carry the stress of the floor and hold the sides rigid. It was designed and constructed by Thos. T. Johnson of Chicago, who also designed and constructed the Bear Trap dam in the Chicago drainage canal. To fully appreciate this wonder of modern architecture and engineering skill one must see it. Standing upon a river bank and seeing one's team cross another as it were, for there you see one running south and here is another stream flowing in a westerly direction right across the first in the concrete trough, and this is the only thing of the kind in the world. One could but exclaim, "What hath man wrought." Who knows but that in the ages to come, people from all parts of the globe will come to gaze upon the flume of the Pecos as they now flock to the Pyramids by the Nile. But this we know that this structure will stand as a monument of American engineering skill, long after our "helping tongues lie silent in the grave."

The question we all ask is, "Why all this expenditure?" In answering one must consider the nature of the climate and soil, and the crops and fruit to be produced. That the soil is all that could be desired, all can testify who have seen the rich harvests which it annually produces. People here say that the climate is "the boast of Eddy county, the envy of California and Florida and the salvation of many precious lives." We have warm days and beautifully cool nights. They say that June is the hottest month of the year here. It most surely has been hot while the sun shone, but as soon as it disappears in the west one's lagging spirits rebound and then life seems worth living, for it is cool. Here in winter, the inhabitants tell me, the clear skies and warm sun moderates the climate so that plowing and all kinds of outdoor work can be carried on all year. This country does wonderful things for persons troubled with tuberculosis in any of its forms. Of course it will not raise a person from the dead, but if he comes in time he may be sure of being greatly benefited. Consumptives they call "fungers" out here or else say they have "bugs." But they don't seem to mind it in the least.

As to crops, I was talking with a gentleman who told me all about the products. This being a stock country the staples are alfalfa, kafir corn, milo-maize and sorghum. Alfalfa, which is the best fodder crop in the world, does especially well here. Here it can be cut at least four times averaging a ton to five acres. If properly cared for and scented down it lasts forever. The time they sow it is from August 20 to October 10. We note one case regarding its lasting qualities, that is General R. S. Benson and son, who have an alfalfa field ten years old which they pasture with cattle and hogs and mow only for the purpose of keeping the weeds down. But then all lands are not suited to alfalfa, as it requires a very deep soil. It is the deepest rooted crop known to agriculturists. An Indian corn cannot be grown here, kafir corn and milo-maize take its place.

The peach season is just opening here, and promises to be the greatest on record. The Pecos peach is utterly without a rival. The growth of the peach has begun in Carlsbad. No section of the world is better favored for its growth, here it has sunshine from unclouded skies, sparkling water from unfailing sources and breezes laden with the spicy perfume of mountain pines. Then no wonder the Pecos valley peach is considered the same of beauty and nourishment. The hundreds of boxes of peaches that were shipped from the valley last year led the world in price and history in quality. Some think there are great things in store for the peach growers here. With the peerless irrigation system, and no insects to molest the fruit, a good crop is insured. With the water supply absolutely fixed, (and it can be supplied to the orchard at an annual rental of $1.25 per acre,) and the sandy loam, peach growing is an attractive pursuit. On account of the fine peaches grown here Carlsbad is sometimes called "The peach."

And again she is called "Carlsbad the beautiful." And the last is the rightful one, for the eye sees only beauty in any of her streets. And the Mexican town adjoining is extremely picturesque. Here the dwellers have utilized old tin cans, split sticks, boards and mud to fashion their rude homes. And along the hillside the little Mexican boys and girls come running out of the dugouts like prairie dogs out of their holes.

The Mexicans and negroes seem to be quite friendly. One not infrequently sees them playing ball together, and exciting times they have of it. The "black berries" are there in all the shades, ranging from the blackest ebony to all the shades of brown Mexicans of all sizes. The men with their sombreros and the women with their shawls. And the hottest day of the year you will see the Mexican women plodding along with that eternal black shawl thrown over her head and shoulders.

We are going to celebrate the 4th here in the western style. All kinds of good things are promised us in the way of races, tournaments and roping contests. The town will be full of people from all parts of the country and I'm sure we will all enjoy celebrating this independence day gloriously.

F. W. THOMPSON, Editor.

G. S. and Wm. Trowbridge were here from Big Valley selling wheat this week.

Commissioner Jones was here from Center City yesterday, looking after some official business.

E. G. Crawford had charge of the district and county clerk's office during the absence of Clerk Smith.

A. J. Gatlin will open a general merchandise store in the Waters building in time for the fall trade.

Rev. J. P. Walker has returned from attendance upon a meeting of the Presbytery at Sharp, Milam county.

Presiding Elder Scott was here the first of the week to look after some business matters and preached an interesting sermon in the Methodist church Wednesday night.

Mail clerks are now on the trains that run between Temple and Brownwood. At first these trains only carried through mail, but yesterday the better service was inaugurated.

J. W. Slaven spent the first of the week with his family and friends in this city. He is now in the employ of the Cotton Belt railroad company at Waco and expects to move his family to that city in the near future.

Mrs. C. D. Hammond entertained the little girls of her Sunbeam society and an equal number of little boys with a social Wednesday night in honor of the fourteenth birthday of her little daughter. Refreshments were served and the evening was spent very pleasantly.

J. T. Hetherly this week gave the Eagle a bushel of fine potatoes. He believes in planting potatoes in the dark of the moon and his idea is evidently right for he raised twenty-five bushels and his patch is the best in the neighborhood.

Rev. J. P. Walker, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, will begin a revival at Center City next Friday night, July 17. He will commence a meeting at Shive on Friday night before the first Sunday in August. Rev. N. F. Grafton, a noted evangelist, will assist in this meeting and will furnish a tent.

Judge A. V. Patterson and his wife and son Bart expect to return to their home in Sterling county next week. They have many friends here who would be rejoiced to have them again located in this county, but they are doing so well and are so well pleased in their home in the west that we fear they will never come back here to stay.

G. B. Stark, ex-district and county clerk, after spending two years in the western counties, has returned to this county and purchased W. J. Mason's ranch in the Coy neighborhood. This is a valuable and desirable ranch and we hope Mr. Stark is now permanently located in this county. Mr. Mason has not yet made known his intentions, but we hope he will decide to remain in this county.

BRISTOW, I. T.

Editor Eagle:

For the past four weeks I've been here visiting at the home of my sister, Mrs. M. V. Skinner. I am a regular subscriber of your valuable paper, so you may know I kept posted about Mills county.

My brother-in-law, M. V. Skinner, and my brother, Lee Cunningham, have been here for the past year in the general merchandising business and are well satisfied for they have had a good, successful business. I find the people very much cosmopolitan, though about one half are from Missouri. Everybody seems so pleasant, also have met quite a number of Goldthwaite people, and they all seem well pleased with this country.

Anything can be grown here, such as cotton, corn, fruits of all kind, berries, melons and in fact everything. The rainfall is more evenly distributed than in Mills county. The well water is as fine as can be found any where.

This town, Bristow, is situated in the north-west portion of the Creek nation on the Frisco railroad. It has a population of about 2500, though only four years old. Five organizations are represented here. An $8000 school building is under way of construction. The business interest is represented by three banks, two cotton gins, six general stores, two groceries and cold drink stands, four hardware stores, four blacksmith shops, three drug stores, two jewelry stores, two shoe joints, two dentists, four hotels, three lumber yards, two bakeries, one saw mill, one livery stable, two barber shops, thirteen brick and stone business buildings, two furniture stores and one opera house. Railroad ties are made and sold in large quantities, which brings a great deal of money to the town.

I will leave here soon for Dallas to visit relatives and from there return to my home in Comanche.

BIG VALLEY.

Editor Eagle:

The thrasher men are taking advantage of the fine weather just now and the once familiar hum of the machine is again heard in our midst. There is so much grain this year that the services of two thrashing machines is necessary.

T. A. Renfro, so we are informed, averaged 21 bushels of wheat per acre on his farm, and surely his straw stack is no mole hill. It's simply immense.

Joe Sellers thinks he will get 400 bushels of oats off of 5 acres. Verily, hard times has missed us this year, Mr. Editor.

Mr. Ligon says he has cotton almost waist high and it is beginning to bloom. This, however, we think is above an average.

Walker Ligon of San Saba county paid a flying visit to home folks Sunday.

Miss Ella Pacl, who has been visiting relatives in Oklahoma, is expected home this week.

M. Stacy and wife visited the family of B. F. Bledsoe Sunday. The singing at Mr. Bledsoe's Sunday evening was enjoyed by the young folks.

Prof. T. E. Alvis, who taught school the past year in Fisher county is visiting home folks. He brought his family with him and expects to remain several days for other term. The professor at Fisher county is ahead

A NUISANCE ABATED.

AN EVIL INSTITUTION OCCUMBS TO CIVILIZATION.

The public will be pleased to learn that the abomination of desecration known as the Lime Kiln club which for so long has interfered with traffic and rendered generally obnoxious the environs of Fisher street, has at last been closed under threats of prosecution.

Many expressions of delight are heard from the decent citizens of the town since the good news became known. The immediate cause of the closing was the violent, angry and insufferable quarrels, squabbles, contentions and disputes indulged in by the foreign element, styling itself the "imported stock" of the Club; but better known among the other members as the soups, sumps, leagues and like names. These foreigners having failed to master the simplest rules of the game of dominoes have not been able to win a game since early last spring, and have got in the habit of shrieking and fighting with each other at the end of every hand, in a way that frightens passing children out of their wits, and in more than one case has caused horses on Fisher street to run away. It is said that on one occasion a pig which had been slaughtered at the adjoining butcher shop, and which was already in the seething pot, hearing the turmoil, leaped from the kettle and escaped, to the dead loss of the butcher, who, when he invaded the kiln building to expose the rioters, was ignominiously robbed of his chewing tobacco and hustled forth without redress.

Anyway we are free of the nuisance for a time and are proportionately glad of it. No blame for the conduct of the club is laid upon the American-born members who we take pleasure in saying are elegant players, and could and would have made the Club a success had the foreigners not lost their heads when they lost games.

It is understood that the Club building will be rented for a shoe shop. If it were adopted as the county pest house, no one on Fisher street would object, after putting up this long with the defunct Lime Kiln Club.

WASHBOARD.

Editor Eagle:

Farmers are preparing to thrash. Rev. Thames preached several interesting sermons here this week.

The wedding bells continue to ring at Mr. Boler's. Last Sunday morning July 5, a number of friends and relatives witnessed the solemn ceremony which united Miss Maude Boler, an accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boler, to Festus Swindle, Rev. Deaton officiating. Mr. Festus is a son of our prosperous J. O. Swindle. We wish the young couple a long life with much happiness.

Miss Ella Price has returned home from Belton, where she has been attending the Baylor university.

Miss Dora Harris and brother Houston are contemplating a visit to Hill county in a few days. Several of the boys attended a dance at Mrs. Windland's Saturday night and report a "hot time."

B. A. Howington and family of near Trigger mountain visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

W. J. Roler and family were visiting relatives here Sunday. Ol Harris of down below the Gap is making frequent visits to this part here of late.

Houston Harris has purchased a brand new buggy. There is to be a singing convention at Indian Gap Saturday and Sunday.

The Baptist meeting begins at the Gap Friday night before the third Sunday in July. Everybody get ready and attend. Now I will leave by asking the writer from Winters to come often.

SWEET WILLIAM. Pope Leo XIII is sick unto death and the entire world is grieving because of his approaching dissolution. He is perhaps the noblest and best of all the popes who have sat on the papal throne, and he is being urged to enter state abbacies. Few ever sending a saintly person who has thought of General Clay's idea for ten months.

A BUSINESS FACTOR.

Reliability is one of the strongest factors in business life. It is the color of confidence, and confidence is the foundation on which every business must be built in order to be successful. It is the most potent factor in the business world. Without it no firm, large or small, can ever hope to succeed. Human nature is much the same the world over, and the reliable firm, the trustworthy firm, will be almost certain to obtain the lion's share of trade. A reputation for reliability is worth having, is worth striving for. It's a possession that once obtained will secure its owner a trade that sticks and rarely changes, one that can be depended on for steady patronage. Reliability and good quality go together, and stand for the other, indeed nothing in the whole world tends more to establish a reputation for reliability than the sale of honest, trustworthy goods. This is especially true when applied to the merchant in a small town, where the store is dependent on the steady patronage of the same people day in and day out. The city merchant depending largely upon transient trade, need not guard his reputation so closely. People wrongly suppose that the city merchant can and does sell cheaper than the isolated smaller towns. No one understands the fallacy of this belief better than the city merchant, and he is, therefore, justified in assuming that the largest part of those who expect to find the biggest bargains in the city are the ones who look at the price and overlook the quality. We have built up our business by selling reliable, trustworthy watches, clocks and jewelry at low prices and turning out satisfactory repair work. We realize that our future success depends upon maintaining our reputation and a reputation can be maintained only by selling honest goods and doing honest work. We ask you to remember us when you need anything in our line. You may rest assured that your patronage will be appreciated.

Respectfully,
L. E. MILLER,
The Jeweler, South side Logan's drug store, Goldthwaite, Texas.

GERMAN SYRUP.

We want to impress on our readers that Bosche's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market to-day that does relieve and cure consumption; it contains the specific, such as pure tar, extracts of gums, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night and be free from the spasms of dry and hacking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectation in the morning with speedy and permanent relief. Small bottles 25 cents; regular size containing nearly four times as much 75 cents. At all druggists.

CATTLE WANTED.

We are staking our pasture and can use about 200 head of cattle. If you need a wind mill, buggy, rack, wagon, disc plow or sulky plow, mower or rake and can spare cattle better than the money or going in debt see us at once.

LOANS AND LANDS.

In this week's issue of this paper you will notice our card. In referring thereto we desire to call the attention of the public to the fact that we intend to negotiate loans and buy and sell vendors lien notes, as well as sell and trade lands. Lands listed with us for sale or trade will be advertised free of charge, save our commissions on sales or trades made.

We also own the only complete set of abstracts of land titles of Mills county, being the set prepared by our Mr. Anderson some years ago, and since then revised, corrected and brought down to the present date. Being in possession of the only set of abstracts of Mills county land titles we are better prepared than any one else to correctly and speedily furnish abstracts of Mills county land titles, and we guarantee our work to be correct from the records of this county.

Any person desiring any thing in our line will do well to call on us before closing a deal with any one else. Yours truly,
ANDERSON & CRAWFORD.

CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give me entire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

SAVES A WOMAN'S LIFE.

To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from a severe lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often" she writes, "I could scarcely breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was completely cured. I suffered from cough, colds, throat and lung trouble and this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by Ross & Clements. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitably inclined persons, the death rate among children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred that cannot be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. For sale by all dealers.

NEED MORE HELP.

Federate Reunion

D EPECHES - LARGE AND ORDERLY CROWD.
FEDERATE - VETERANS WILL ENTERTAIN - PROVISIONS MADE FOR VISITORS.
PROGRAM.

Again the Reunion of Confederate Veterans is in session at Goldthwaite. The three day deting began Thursday; and we go to press the reunion is at its height.

As each of these meetings occur, year after year, the fact becomes more impressive that they have no diurnal duration; and in how short a time, we are saddened to think, will the summers come and go with no reminder of the South's struggle against Fate save the silent reunion of gleaming marble in the final reunion-round of the men who made the name of Southland poetic, and the name of soldier noble.

For the few more times these meetings shall occur, let us always, as heretofore, make the occasion one of memorable pleasure to the veterans who meet in this land they fought for, to celebrate the victory of their sublime defeat.

The principle they fought for has passed, and the high hopes of the Confederacy lie now like sunken convoys, pearl-enwreathed and coral-covered, though freighted once with the costliest cargo of human pride and high daring that was ever launched upon the tide of time; and above that sunken ship of stately principle, the way of time bears to a triumphant destiny the great Ship of State of the American empire. And the victory, such as it is, is well. Well, also, was the noble defeat. All that was noble in the Federal victory we do gladly and proudly acknowledge; all that was noble in the Confederate defeat we do as proudly claim as an imperishable inheritance forever. It is these reunions which alone preserve to us a personal, living connection with those stainless days of pride and valor.

Let us enjoy them in reverent joy so long as they are ours. The people being so busy in farm work very few came in Thursday afternoon and evening, but Friday morning the roads leading to town from every direction were lined with vehicles and people on horseback. By 10 o'clock several thousand people had assembled at the grounds. The buildings were all closed from 10 until 2 o'clock in order that the people of the town might have an opportunity to attend the reunion and take part in entertaining the veterans.

While the attendance yesterday was not so large as upon former reunions, all who attended enjoyed the occasion. The citizens' committee provided plenty of uncooked meat, which was given to campers and others who applied for it. Hundreds of loaves of bread had been purchased, together with 500 pounds of ice, plenty of water, large kettles filled with coffee, barrels of pickles and many other things for the comfort and convenience of veterans and visitors.

The speeches were extra good and had we time and space we would be glad to give a synopsis of each one of them, as well as make special mention of all who took part in the program.

Following is the program: THURSDAY. 8 p. m. - Roll Call. Camp fires and an experience meeting.

FRIDAY. Revellie - 6 a. m. Breakfast - 7 a. m. Camp meet - 9 a. m. Prayer - Chaplain. Welcome address - Col. J. L. Lewis. Response - Rev. Harlan. 11 a. m. - Address Hon. Arch Ginnan. Select reading - Miss Stella Prater. Dinner. Camp meet at 2 o'clock and elect officers. Address - Col. G. I. Goodwin. Program for Saturday not yet arranged.

GROUP. Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extends to the larynx and bronchial tubes, and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. CITY ELECTION.

An election was held in this city Tuesday for the purpose of filling four vacancies on the board of aldermen, and electing a city secretary. There were no avowed candidates for the positions, but the names of a number of gentlemen were placed on tickets by their friends and those interested in the city's welfare. Ninety-eight votes were cast and Messrs. B. Lammers, L. R. Conroy, Jas. Raht and J. T. Prater were elected aldermen and W. E. Grisham was elected secretary. Following are the returns in full:

CITIZENS MEETING.

A meeting of citizens was held in the court house Wednesday morning for the purpose of making arrangements for entertaining the Confederate veterans in their reunion here this week.

J. D. Harris was elected chairman and announced the purpose of the meeting and called for expressions from citizens. It was the universal opinion that the people of the town should take part in entertaining the old soldiers and providing as far as possible for the visitors. To this end a committee composed of L. R. Conroy, J. C. Street and J. T. Prater was named by the chairman to take a number of citizens to take the arrangements in hand and co-operate with the veterans in the work. They appointed the following committees:

To Solicit Funds - J. D. Harris, C. C. Yarborough and Dr. M. L. Brown.

Arrangements - J. J. Mills, Leon Harris and Jas. Raht.

To Invite Speakers - Phil H. Clements and J. L. Lewis.
B. A. Harris was elected treasurer for the citizens' committee and he stated that he had $22.15 on hand from the old settlers reunion.

These committees at once entered actively upon their duties and accomplished all that was possible in the short time in which they had to work. Those who took part in the meeting or in arranging in any way for the entertainment should receive praise for their interest, but no man deserves more than Mr. J. D. Harris, the Eagle votes the town of the people of the town of the veterans, for he took in hand the matter of providing entertainment for the veterans and he arranged for the mass meeting and took a leading part in the work.

ODD FELLOWS OFFICERS.

The newly elected officers of the Odd Fellows lodge were installed Tuesday night. They are: James Raht, noble grand; W. B. Jackson, vice grand; Lewis Hudson, secretary; J. H. Randolph, financial secretary; Walter Fairman, treasurer; C. C. Yarborough, past grand; C. Dickerson, warden; J. H. Rutland, right support to noble grand; J. H. Burnett, left support to noble grand; W. J. Oliver, conductor; R. J. Atkinson, inner guard; A. B. Queen, outer guard; S. T. Wells, right support to secretary; P. H. Raht, left support to secretary; R. P. Canady, right support to vice grand; Geo. Eversly, left support to vice grand.

REBEKAHS.
Harmonia Lodge No. 96 of Rebekahs installed their newly elected officers Tuesday night. They are: Miss Clarinda Owen, noble grand; Mrs. Yarborough, vice grand; Mrs. Calaway, chaplain; Miss Lillie Grundy, secretary; Miss Leila Conroy, warden; Miss Stella Prater, conductor; Walter Fairman, outer guard; Miss Eddie Raht, inner guard; Mrs. P. H. Raht, Misses Tommie Grisham, Ellis Applewhite, Ella Brown, support; Miss Mary Lou Grundy, organist.

TO CHANGE MAIL LINE.

Since the change of the mail schedule on the Lampasa Branch of the Santa Fe our mail from the East is a day late. The mail line is said to arrive at Goldthwaite after the San Saba mail has been dispatched. The mail contractors, Woods & Urquhart, approve the petition being circulated requesting the department to change the route from Goldthwaite to Lometa to San Saba, and giving the following schedule: Leave Lometa at 7 a. m. and arrive at San Saba by 12 m. Leave San Saba at 2 p. m. and arrive at Lometa at 7 p. m. This would give us the eastern mail at about the same time as the present schedule, and would save each passenger $1.30 fare on the round trip from Goldthwaite to Lometa. - San Saba News.

CONFEDERATE MEETING.

Jeff Davis Camp, No. 117, U. C. V., met at the court house with the commander in the chair, Saturday, July 4.

The committee on arrangements and privileges of the grounds was called on for a report. The bid of L. D. Hallinquist was accepted and notice ordered given him.

The camp adopted a motion "That the letting of the grounds and all other arrangements concerning the reunion be left to the committee on arrangements." This motion was made and approved to relieve the committee in accepting bids.

FINE VEGETABLES.

The Eagle has been the recipient of many favors and presents from friends within the last few months, but none of them were more acceptable or appreciated than the nice vegetables presented Tuesday by Mr. W. H. Wood. The produce was of such peace for this precinct. Mr. Wood finds time to do some farm and garden work as well as attend to his official duties and, judging by this excellent sample of his produce, he makes a success of his work.
J. Perkins, one of the prosperous farmers of the Mullin neighborhood, was here last Saturday and made the Eagle a call and was kind enough to bring us some large and nice Irish potatoes. He raised forty bushels of these potatoes in less than a half acre of ground and disposed of them at a good price.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING.

Elder A. S. Bradley of the Christian church commenced a revival at Williams Ranch last Friday night and it is still in progress. This is a regular camp meeting and quite a number of people are in camp there and the services are well attended, considering the fact that the farmers are very busy at this time. The services are held under a tab near the church building and is a pleasant grove. Elder Bradley is a man of deep study and he has the innate ability to make known his thoughts and ideas. Prof. S. H. Gaines is in charge of the song service and being the possessor of a fine voice and having the support of some extra good voices his part of the meeting is also interesting. The meeting will probably close tomorrow night.

SNEED-BARTON.

A happy event was consummated last Saturday afternoon at the home of Dr. A. W. Barton on 9th street at 3:30 at which time his daughter Dr. John Ezrow was married to Dr. W. R. Sneed. It was an informal wedding, only the family and a few intimate friends being present. They left on that afternoon train for Mexico City, Old Mexico, where the groom has a lucrative position offered him in the practice of dentistry and where they will make their future home. The bride, though having resided here only a short time, has made many warm friends by her amiable qualities of heart and mind, and Ballinger social circles will miss her very much. The groom has just graduated in dentistry at Atlanta, Georgia, and has a bright future.

CAMP MEETING.

A Baptist camp meeting is to be held at the bluff on Goldthwaite and San Saba road near the Colorado bridge, to be conducted by Rev. W. R. Earp of Blanket and Conrad Owen of Goldthwaite. Everybody invited to come.—Come and camp. Nice shade, a cool place, plenty of water, convenient to three neighborhoods. Let us come as neighbors, as friends and as Christians and have a good soul saving, God honoring meeting, beginning Friday night before the first Sunday in August.

LEAGUE OFFICERS.

There was a business meeting of the Epworth league in the Methodist church Monday night, at which officers were elected for the ensuing term. They are: Mrs. R. M. Thompson, president; Mrs. J. M. ELECTION LAW.

A portion of the law will appear each week until all has been published. The provisions are not operative until after Feb. 1, 1904.

Sec. 93. All precinct primary elections of a party shall be conducted by a presiding judge, to be appointed by the chairman of the county executive committee of the party. Such presiding judge shall select an associate judge and two clerks to assist in conducting the election, and two challengers may be chosen by the party candidates, if they can agree upon them, for each precinct. The presiding judge of the election and his associates, as well as the clerks, shall each take the oath required to be taken by the judges at general elections; provided, that two sets of judges and clerks may be allowed at all voting precincts where more than one hundred voters were cast at the last primary or general election.

Sec. 94. The vote in all primary elections shall be by official ballot, which shall have printed at the top thereof the name of the party, and under it two names of all candidates, those for each office being arranged in alphabetical order beneath the title of the office for which they are candidates. The voter shall erase or mark out the names of the candidates he wishes to vote for; provided, that the county executive committee of the party holding any primary election prescribe additional regulations necessary to participate therein.

Sec. 95. The polls at primary election shall be opened at eight o'clock in the morning, no primary election day and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of the same day.

Sec. 96. Primary conventions may be open and close on primary convention day at such times as may be determined by the county executive committee of the party.

Sec. 97. The voting booths, ballot boxes and guard rails required for general elections shall be used by the county executive committee of the party at all primary elections, as provided for in section 45 of this bill. The party executive committee of each county shall provide and furnish just such voting booths, guard rails and ballot boxes for the use at primary elections of the party that cast the highest vote for Governor, together with printed ballots containing the names of all the candidates of such party, and all necessary writing materials and stamps, which shall be paid for by the candidates before such primary election. All ballot boxes, guard rails and voting booths, printed ballots in primary elections, shall be safely kept by order of the commissioners court for further use.

Sec. 98. All returns of precinct elections properly signed and certified as correct by the judges thereof, showing the names of the candidates, shall be sealed up and immediately delivered after such primary election to the chairman of the county executive committee of the party. Said chairman shall give notice to the members of the county executive committee of his party to assemble at the county site of the county on the Saturday after said primary election, when said returns shall be opened in the presence of the county executive committee and the judges of the election, who shall make a list of the candidates who have received the highest vote for each office, and the chairman of the county executive committee shall certify to the same and deliver it to the county clerk of the county, who shall cause the names of such candidates who have received the highest vote to be filed by all the voters of the county in the county clerk's office, the chairman of the county executive committee and his secretary shall certify the number of votes received by each candidate, and cause the same to be published in some newspaper of the county (if there be no newspaper) on the day next after said primary election, and the chairman of the county executive committee in ten days after canvassing the primary vote of the county to the chairman of each county, or to the chairman of the county executive committee of the party, shall file in the county clerk's office a list of the names of the candidates, and when the returns of each county, comparing the names of the candidates, and the result of the primary election in the various counties of the district have been received by the chairman of the district executive committee, the name of the candidate for each office, who has received the largest vote shall be placed by the county clerk of each county in the official ballot, and the county clerk of each county, upon receiving notice from the chairman of the district of such result; provided, that the county executive committee of any party for any county, or any district, may cause the names of the candidates for each office to be placed by the county clerk of each county in the official ballot, and the county clerk of each county, upon receiving notice from the chairman of the district of such result; provided, that the county executive committee of any party for any county, or any district, may cause the names of the candidates for each office to be placed by the county clerk of each county in the official ballot, and the county clerk of each county, upon receiving notice from the chairman of the district of such result;
