A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness.

In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.

MULLIN.

Editor Eagle:
Since my last writing to the Eagle in August there has been a variety of changes in Mullin and vicinity, a few of which I will mention:

Wm. Kemp has bought Mr. Summy's hardware business. D. Gentry has sold his furniture business to S. Eikner. Z. D. Kemp has purchased an interest with the popular firm of Shelton & Shelton. He has also bought the residence of Mr. Justice, where he and family now reside.

L. J. Vann, B. P. Kittle and S. P. Shelton have bought homes in Mullin, and on adjoining lots from Aaron Little.

Rev. Bentley has been called and accepted the pastorate of the Missionary Baptist church of Mullin, and is occupying, with his family, rooms at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bross. They commenced house keeping with a visitation of a heavy pounding, which did not inflict a single wound, but "vice versa."

Alick Conner of Fort Worth is having a reunion with friends; is the guest of his niece, Mrs. H. F. Butta.

Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick is visiting relatives at Bristow, I. T., and will probably be absent several months.

Miss Eva Gentry is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Tillman. She will visit other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Grove is quite sick, in consequence of which Prof. Grove had to dismiss his school for a few days.

Mrs. W. E. White has on display at her place of business a lovely line of millinery and at very reasonable prices.

Mrs. M. C. Kirkpatrick and daughter, Miss Marie, visited Goldthwaite Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris entertained at their residence the young people of Mullin Tuesday evening.

Cotton! Cotton! is still coming in to W. C. Dew's gin. Over 600 bales have already been ginned this season.

Pat James has a market house and restaurant that would be an ornament to a much larger town than Mullin; and he treats you nicely.

Rev. Chandler of Brownwood held service at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening.

A refreshing shower of rain fell Sunday afternoon and at night.
The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George Fletcher was buried in the Mullin cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Berney Eaton, who is now a student of Daniel Baker college, Brownwood, spent Sunday with home folks and his best girl.
"Old King Alcohol" is true to his appointment and comes to Mullin every Saturday to hold a bacchanalian revel in the dark hours of night, and sometimes makes the darkness hideous with the howls of his victim "Oh, where is my boy tonight?" is the inward cry of many a loving mother's heart. Echo answers—where?

Frank Eaton is having a nice residence erected opposite his father's lumber yard.
A tent studio is the latest attraction in Mullin. Mr. Mickle, the artist, is making some fine pictures, so I am informed.

Wednesday was a rainy day, but fine on turnip patches.
Rev. Bentley and W. A. Short spent Sunday at Trigger Mountain and Brother Bentley preached at 11 a. m. G. V. M.

A BIG INCREASE.
During the month of September four deaths and nineteen births were reported in this county. This makes a total of births in the county of 708 since the law requiring a report to be made to the county clerk became effective in July, 1903, and five have already been reported for October. During the same time there have been only 186 deaths reported.

The heavy rain Wednesday and Thursday made the roads almost impassable and very little cotton was brought to market those days.
If you expect to buy a buggy or hack, it will pay you to see Rose & Coekrum.

Mr. J. J. Davis, whose home is in the Duran community, a few miles above Mullin, came near being killed by some one who shot into his house last Sunday night. Mr. Davis and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mills, were standing on either side of the dresser and a lighted lamp stood just before the mirror, when a man rode up to the front gate and shot into the house with either a pistol or Winchester, the ball passing between Mr. Davis and Mrs. Mills and shivering the mirror on the dresser. As soon as the shot was fired Mrs. Davis ran to the door and shut it, when another bullet struck the door and passing through it was embedded in the floor.

LETTER TO E. B. ANDERSON.

Goldthwaite, Dear Sir: James B. Bannan, drugist, Westley, R. We suspect the Westerly people don't wear their paint till it gets very shabby.) Devoe covers more; of course, we know that; and we know why too; it's all paint and full-measure. Yours truly, F. W. Sheriff Burkes of Bell county, the officer who has gained wide renown and much praise for his good work in suppressing clubs and blind tigers in his county, announces that hereafter "law bonds" will not be accepted from men accused of crime in Bell county. He will examine the tax rolls and also investigate the financial standing of men who sign bonds.

General Booth of the Salvation Army, in a lengthy article, published in a London newspaper, dealing with the situation from the large number of prisoners at present out of employment in England, announced that he has chartered three steamers which, in the spring, will sail for Canadian ports with emigrants, all of whom will be guaranteed employment.

Sherwood Bishop is the third ex-employee of the Mercury to accept employment with the Goldthwaite Eagle. While all of these young men are not now working for Brother Thompson, we are certain that while in his employ they gave excellent satisfaction, as they did while working for the Mercury. And we might add right here, that, in our estimation, Brother Thompson is a fine man to work for.—Weimar Mercury.

Friday afternoon about 2 o'clock F. W. Dent happened to a very serious accident. While unloading telephone poles off a car some loose box cars run down against the car on which the poles were being unloaded and struck it with such force that Mr. Dent was thrown from the car to the ground with such force that his leg was broken very bad.

Dr. Biggs and McKean dressed the wound temporarily and Dr. McKean carried him to the hospital at Temple on the 9 o'clock train for treatment.—Lometa Reporter.

The following tribute to General Robert E. Lee from the late Benjamin H. Hill, senator from Georgia, is one of the most beautiful eulogies ever delivered: "When the future historian comes to survey the character of Lee he will find it rising like a huge mountain above the undulating plain of humanity, and he will have to lift his eyes high toward heaven to catch its summit. He possessed every virtue of the other great commanders without vice. He was a foe without hate, a friend without treachery, a soldier without cruelty, and a victim without murmuring. He was a public officer without vices, a private citizen without wrong, a neighbor without reproach, a Christian without hypocrisy and a man without guile. He was a Caesar without his ambition, a Frederick without his tyranny, a Napoleon without his selfishness and a Washington without his reward. He was as obedient to true authority as a true king. He was as gentle in life as a woman, pure and modest as a virgin in thought, watchful as a Roman vestal, submissive to law as Socrates and as grand in battle as Achilles."

The Southern Cotton Association has undertaken a novel experiment, whose results may establish new principles in economics. In its convention at Asheville, North Carolina, on September 7, it resolved to fix a minimum price of eleven cents a pound for the new crop, which it estimates at 9,588,133 bales, or nearly five million bales less than last year's output. Heretofore the price of cotton, like that of other farm products, has been fixed by the free play of the market. If the Southern Cotton Association can have its way, the rate will be regulated hereafter, at least as to its lower limit, by majority vote. The price of sugar, oil and steel rails is fixed by edict, and the cotton growers may be able to accomplish the same thing. If they succeed they will be essentially a trust. Their success would naturally lead to the formation of similar trusts among the wheat growers, the corn raisers and the haymakers. Labor trusts are already in successful operation. Thus the evil of monopoly may cure themselves through the spread of combination to a point at which everybody is a monopolist.—Collier's Weekly.

Derangements of the teeth of the horse very frequently lead to grave difficulties, both local and constitutional. The teeth often become decayed, holes form in them and toothache is a common term. There is no such thing as blind teeth, as is often supposed. There is either a rotten or a long tooth. Ninety per cent of the horses that are fed condition powders to recuperate their health, need nothing but their teeth repaired.
