The city election Tuesday was in some ways quite exciting, and a larger vote than usual was polled. John D. Waring was elected mayor; J. J. Alexander, Hugh Rambo and Paris Smith, aldermen; L. B. Russell, secretary; Gib Calaway, attorney; W. H. Davis, treasurer.

There was a county convention of state-wide prohibitionists at the court house Monday afternoon. Most of the voting boxes had elected delegates, but on account of the rains a number did not come; however, the district court room was comfortably filled, and the meeting was quite enthusiastic.

At a special session of the commissioners court yesterday a petition was before it asking for an election to be held in Comanche voting precincts Nos. 1 and 2 to

There are ninety-eight miles of public roads, main and secondary, in this territory, and it is urged that they can all be put in first-class condition with the funds to be derived from the bond issue.—Exponent.

Closing Exercises of the Williams Ranch School.

On Friday night of last week the writer attended an exhibition at Williams Ranch that marked the close of Miss Ellen Johnson's school at that place. The exercises began at about 8 o'clock and continued until 11, and during every minute of the three hours the audience was entertained with music, recitations, dialogue, etc., all of which showed that someone of tact and ability had been at the head of it. There was not a piece recited but what every word could be heard in the farthest corner of the building. Even the smallest children seemed to fully realize that the large audience before them had come to hear them and hear they should. I don't think I ever attended an entertainment of the kind where I came as near hearing every word spoken from the stage. Their pieces were of a high type and contained good moral lessons to any who wanted to get the lessons. This is Miss Johnson's first school, but the arrangement of her exhibition showed the tact of one of much longer experience. They pantomimed "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "Nearer My God to Thee," "Rock of Ages" and "Home, Sweet Home." These alone, with the instrumental music and songs, were a good entertainment. They had a large and attentive audience and all went away well pleased.

A Delightful Evening.

On Wednesday evening Miss Lois Humphries, whose marriage to Mr. John C. Hicks is to be solemnized on the 18th of April at the Baptist church, was again the nonoree of a most elaborate function. This courtesy was extended by three of her girlhood friends—Mesdames Owen Yarborough, William Little and Hammond Bodkin. The Yarborough residence, which adapts itself so beautifully to any form of entertainment, was chosen as the scene of this festivity and was most artistically decorated, the dainty color scheme of pink and white being combined in attractive style. Quantities of bride's maid roses and syringas tastefully arranged in tall vases and bowls throughout the house formed the floral adornment and seemed to breathe out the gladness and joy of the occasion which they graced.

The first form of entertainment provided for the guests was a progressive game,—"Blushing bride"—which provoked much mirth and jollity. Mrs. Claude Escott won the first prize—a handsome vase filled with roses—which she immediately presented to the guest of honor.

Delicious refreshments consisting of ices and cakes featured the pink and white combination of the floral achievement. Napkins bordered with hearts and love knots accentuated the bridal motif and on each plate a favor was found in the form of a "blushing bride,"—a tiny doll arrayed in white en train with tulle veil and arm bouquet of roses.

The guests were next ushered into the living room, where an amusing game of fortune was played. An immense heart was hung on the door and each girl in turn was blindfolded, given an arrow which, when pinned on the heart, disclosed her future, Dame Fortune, it appears, has great things in store for some of the girls. Such as "You will be an old maid school teacher;" "Your affinity is searching for you;" "A nappy life on the farm awaits you," etc. Last of all the bride elect was led towards the magic heart, but upon her approach it vanished, the door opened and the spacious dining room stood revealed. Lights hooded in pink shades cast a soft glow over the dining table covered with daintily wrapped packages. The bride-to-be was then told to examine more closely the exquisite embroidered linens and china which loving friends had taken this opportunity to bestow upon her.

The personnel of the guests was as follows:

Messes Mamie and Eddy Kelley, Minnie and Beula Rahl, Mary Lou and Lily Grundy, Adelyn Hudson, Mamie Sherman, Lawrence Thompson, Sallie Weathers, Kate Fairman, Lillie Martin, Eda Hearn, Zella Prater, Ada Moore, Nora Hooks, Lois Humphries and Mesdames John Scott, Frank Rahl, Hammond Bodkin, Claude Escott, Owen Yarborough, William Little, Floyd Mullin, Carlton Abney of Lampasas and W. S. McCall of Waco. A GUEST.

Teachers Elected.

The school board met Wednesday night and re-elected all of the teachers who are now employed in the public school here. The salaries will remain the same, except that of Miss Mamie Kelley, the primary teacher, who will receive an increase of $10 per month in the next term of school, which will make her salary $60 per month.

It is believed all of the teachers will accept, with the possible exception of Miss Zella Prater, who may decide to go away to school next year instead of teaching.

Editor Eagle:

I see quite a lot in your paper lately about good roads.

Now, just a few words. Last year the bond issue was talked of, but the people believed that at the present rate of taxation the roads would or could be put in good shape. I do not see why the same amount of work cannot be done each year as has been done in the past few years. If so, we will soon have good roads and will not owe for them. I do not believe in overdoing the thing, either in home expenses or county expenses. Some people will strain themselves because other people have so and so. That, I think, we should not do, either at home or in the county.

Now, I think we are getting along very well in Mills county and I sure do not think we want any more taxes for a while. At the present rate the roads are being fixed I do not see any use of an extra tax. Last year the bond issue was knocked out. We do not need it any more now than we did then. But some will say we are against it now but favor the special tax levy. Now where is the difference? Money is what they want and, well, it was planned that either one by itself would have been defeated, just like the bond issue was last year. But the two tickets and no other in the election will surely get the money.

Where are you people going to get off at, who believe that the present road system is not all right? I hope you will get off without falling. R. W. BARR

Mrs. Walter Bayley received a message last Saturday announcing the death of her mother that morning from apoplexy at Leaky, Edwards county, and left on the night train for that place to attend the funeral. She was joined at Lometa by her sister, Mrs. Gillenkamp. She returned home Tuesday morning. The friends here of Mrs. Bayley and family greatly sympathize with them, in their great sorrow.

The attorney general has ruled that the words "official ballot" must be printed on ballots used in prohibition elections, the same as in other elections.

A former member of the Illinois legislature, Michael Link, one of the men indicted for bribe taking in connection with the election of Lorimer to the senate, was found dead in a bath tub at his home Sunday.

A coal mine disaster at Banner, Ala., resulted in the loss of 123 lives. Of this number, 123 of the men were convicts and nearly all were negroes. It is not known whether powder or "damp" caused the explosion.

At a banquet in Spokane, Wash., Col. Theodore Roosevelt announced positively that he was not making his western trip for campaign purposes and that he only wanted the respect of the people hereafter and not their votes.

Gen. Stanley Williams, an American who was leading a company of 30 insurgents in Mexico, attacked an entire battalion Saturday and was so badly wounded that he died the following day. Only a few of his men escaped.

Mayor Tom Johnson of Cleveland, Ohio, died Monday night, after a long illness. Mr. Johnson was one of the most successful men of his generation, in many ways. Beginning life as a newsboy he became a millionaire and later lost his property by assisting others.

Farmers in the Mississippi valley are alarmed over the appearance of the boll weevil and are using every means known to destroy the insects. One wealthy farmer has offered $1 each for every weevil brought to him and many have already come to the search for the weevil.

Senator Taft denies emphatically a rumor of combination between Japan and Mexico mobilization of troops. He says reports of a revolution in the public and the danger to American interests caused by the troops assembled in a convenient place, conditions in Mexico may and the intervention of the United States at no far distant time has famine is reported in many sections and Americans and people of other nations are suffering greatly because of the prolonged war. The struggle could be ended in a few minutes if Gen. Disz would resign the presidency, but he appears to be determined to hold onto the job, regardless of consequences.

The Mexican congress has voted an appropriation of $4,000,000 in gold for the pacification of the country. When the insurrection first began the administration announced that it was only the operation of a few outlaws. It is evident the same idea is not entertained. The act appropriating this large sum states that it is to be used for the purchase of supplies and the transportation and maintenance of troops under the direction of the secretary of war.

Boosts For Texas.

Texas is experiencing an era of factory building and manufacturers of the North and East are turning towards Texas as a place of safe and sane investments.

In writing specifications of public utilities a community should not fail to include rural telephones and good roads. These are the talking points that will do the business.

New commercial organizations are being formed every day in Texas to advertise the splendid opportunities which the state has to offer and these clubs are largely responsible for the wonderful advancement of the state during the past few years.

As to the social standing of the farmer, we have only to look back to the days of slavery when the southern planter was looked upon as the ideal of a gentleman as regards occupation, and so it has been from the war on down, the owner of a farm is regarded as the highest type of citizenship. Uncle Sam knows how to farm. Last year he marketed $8,000,000,000 worth of products and every year he is bringing new land under cultivation and improving his farm. He has 130,000,000 acres of virgin soil in Texas that he is trying to turn under and when the Texas plantation is all under cultivation it will add a few million dollars per annum to his wealth.

Travis county is to have the largest exclusive chili pepper plantation in the world. W. B. Walker, an irrigation farmer near Austin, has planted two hundred acres of chili pepper. On forty acres of land planted in this crop last year, $30,000 were realized and figuring on the same basis, the 200 acre crop will yield a net profit of $150,000. Texas soil and climate is conducive to the growing of almost every product known and agricultural opportunities are growing larger every year.

A letter was sent out to the Commercial Clubs of Texas from the headquarters of the Texas Commercial Secretaries' Association urging that clubs organize a county fair association and arrange to hold agricultural exhibits. Several of the larger cities have regularly organized Fair Associations and hold state and district fairs annually and quite a number of the small clubs held agricultural exhibits during the year, but the State Association hopes to increase the number of fairs and exhibits and enlarge the scope of commercial club work among the farmers.

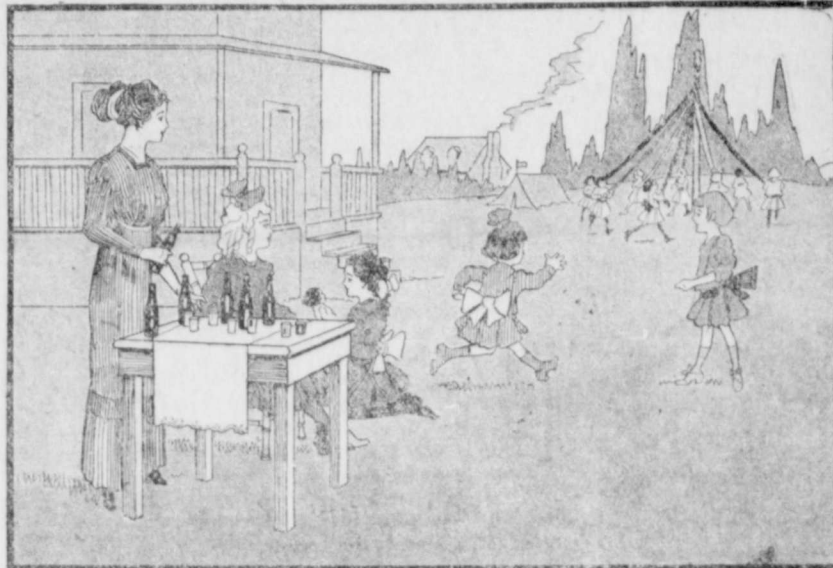

A good place to study human nature is at the bargain counter. Uncle Sam has been keeping tabs on the women during the past decade—no one else would dare to do it—and he reports that in the purchase of mixed cotton and woolen goods there has been a decline of 52 per cent, which appears to indicate a tendency on a part of the fair sex to economize, but she is only flirting with the markets. With the business eccentricity that has characterized the daughters of Eve since the creation of the world, she straightway increases her purchase of woolen dress fabrics 231 per cent. The women purchased last year 105,799,000 square yards of all woolen goods and 4,320,000 square yards of mixed goods. She increased her purchase in all woolen goods $37,714,000 during 1909 over the purchases of 1899. The women are becoming a strong factor in the high cost of living.—Commercial Secretaries.

SHARP, STABBING PAINS

Generally Tell of Sick Kidneys. A Goldthwaite Resident Shows You the Cure.

The sharp twinge of pain in the small of the back that strikes you after any sudden twist or awkward motion, tells of weak, sick kidneys. Early signs of weakened kidneys are: backache, lame back, sharp, darting pains, dizzy spells, tired-out state, dependency. And there are usually disturbances of the urine—too frequent urination, scalding or burning pain during passage, discolored urine and sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills are prepared especially for sick, weakened kidneys, backache and urinary disorders—have cured thousands of such cases. Doan's are endorsed throughout the civilized world—are recommended by Goldthwaite residents.

J. W. McAlexander, Goldthwaite, Texas, says: "On account of an intense pain across the small of my back, I could not work and when I stooped it seemed as if knives were being thrust into me. I also had difficulty in passing the kidney secretions. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Clements' Drug Store, restored me to good health and freed me from pain. Opportunity.

[The following sonnet, entitled "Opportunity," was written several years ago by Senator J. J. Ingalls of Kansas. The answer, bearing the same title, is the work of Walter Malone, who takes a diametrically opposite viewpoint.]

Master of human destinies am I!
Fame, Love and Fortune on my footsteps wait.

Cities and fields I walk; I penetrate Deserts and seas remote, and, passing by

Hovel and mart and palace—soon or late
I knock unbidden once at every gate!

If sleeping, wake—If feasting, rise before
I turn away! It is the hour of fate,

And those who follow me reach every state
Mortals desire, and conquer every foe

Save death; but those who doubt or hesitate,
Condemned to failure, penury and woe,

Seek me in vain, and uselessly implore;
I answer not, and I return no more.

—JOHN J. INGALLS.

They do me wrong who say I come no more When once I knock and fall to find you in;

For every day I stand outside your door
And bid you wake and rise to fight and win.

Wall not for precious chances passed away;
Weep not for golden ages on the wane;

Each night I burn the records of the day;
At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have fled,
To vanished joys be blind and deaf and dumb;

My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never mind a moment yet to come.

Though deep in mire, ring not your hands and weep,
I lend my arm to all who say "I can!"

No shame-faced outcast ever sank so deep
But yet might rise and be a man again!

Art thou a mourner? Rouse thee from thy spell!
Art thou a sinner? Sins may be forgiven!

Each morning gives thee wings to fleet from hell,
Each night a star to guide thy feet to heaven.

—WALTER MALONE.

The attorney general has ruled that the words "official ballot" must be printed on ballots used in prohibition elections, the same as in other elections.

Farmers in the Mississippi valley are alarmed over the appearance of the boll weevil and are using every means known to destroy the insects. One wealthy planter has offered $1 each for live weevil brought to him and a great many have already commenced the search for the weevil.

SHARP, STABBING PAINS

Generally Tell of Sick Kidneys. A Goldthwaite Resident Shows You the Cure.

The sharp twinge of pain in the small of the back that strikes you after any sudden twist or awkward motion, tells of weak, sick kidneys. Early signs of weakened kidneys are: backache, lame back, sharp, darting pains, dizzy spells, tired-out state, despondency. And there are usually disturbances of the urine—too frequent urination, scalding or burning pain during passage, discolored urine and sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills are prepared especially for sick, weakened kidneys, backache and urinary disorders—have cured thousands of such cases. Doan's are endorsed throughout the civilized world—are recommended by Goldthwaite residents.

J. W. McAlexander, Goldthwaite, Texas, says: "On account of an intense pain across the small of my back, I could not work and when I stooped it seemed as if knives were being thrust into me. I also had difficulty in passing the kidney secretions. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Clements' Drug Store, restored me to good health and freed me from pain. Whenever I hear anyone complaining of backache, I advise a trial of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Opportunity.

[The following sonnet, entitled "Opportunity," was written several years ago by Senator J. J. Ingalls of Kansas. The answer, bearing the same title, is the work of Walter Malone, who takes a diametrically opposite viewpoint.]

Master of human destinies am I!
Fame, Love and Fortune on my footsteps wait.
Cities and fields I walk; I penetrate Deserts and seas remote, and, passing by Hovel and mart and palace—soon or late I knock unbidden once at every gate!
If sleeping, wake—if feasting, rise before
I turn away! It is the hour of fate,
And those who follow me reach every state Mortals desire, and conquer every foe
Save death; but those who doubt or hesitate, Condemned to failure, penury and woe,
Seek me in vain, and uselessly implore;
I answer not, and I return no more.
—JOHN J. INGALLS.

They do me wrong who say I come no more When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door
And bid you wake and rise to fight and win.
Wait not for precious chances passed away;
Weep not for golden ages on the wane;
Each night I burn the records of the day;
At sunrise every soul is born again.
Laugh like a boy at splendors that have fled,
To vanished joys be blind and deaf and dumb;
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never mind a moment yet to come.
Though deep in mire, ring not your hands and weep,
I lend my arm to all who say "I can."
No shame-faced outcast ever sank so deep
But yet might rise and be a man again!
Art thou a mourner? Rouse thee from thy spell!
Art thou a sinner? Sins may be forgiven!
Each morning gives thee wings to flee from hell,
Each night a star to guide thy feet to heaven. —WALTER MALONE.

Electric Bitters is a priceless blessing to women troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney disorders. INDIAN GAP--The Coming Town!

WHAT IT IS - AND - WHAT IT WILL BE?

Five years ago Indian Gap was a gap in the mountain; nothing more. Nothing here but a postoffice and one or two small stores. Then all eyes were turned upon West Texas. From across the rich, rolling and productive prairies in Hamilton county many people came, unable to see and realize the great possibilities of this fertile section of the country owing to the dazzling glamor of the Far West. But the radiant future of West Texas proved to be a rainbow. Those who went are returning. They have answered the call of the fertile acres that stretch away for fifteen and twenty miles in every direction from Indian Gap and are putting into cultivation every available acre of this rich territory and building substantial homes for their families. Every foot of land that is offered for sale is being bought by thrifty farmers.

She Has Today

2 General Mercantile Stores, 1 Grocery Store, 1 Drug Store, Bank, Barber Shop, First-Class Hotel, 2 Gins, Telephone System, Blacksmith Shop, Wagon Yard, third best School in the county, fine $2500 Baptist Church just completed, 2 Secret Orders, a live wide-awake Commercial Club to see that the opposite improvements under course of construction are completed and many new enterprises added.

LOCATED upon one of the beautiful sites of Texas, surrounded by miles and miles of the most productive black land farms that can be found anywhere, with Cowhouse Creek, whose fertile valley is almost a solid farm, running within less than a mile of the town, and being almost a central point between Comanche, Goldthwaite and Hamilton, and being 20 miles from the nearest county site,

Indian Gap is Bound to Grow.

What She Will Have

This is a partial list of what we are going to have in the near future:

A Commodious Business House with W. O. W. Hall above, Racket Store, Newspaper, Confectionery and Cold Drink Establishment, Real Estate Exchange, New Christian Church, wonderful improvements as regards civic attractiveness, more and better roads leading into town, and last but by no means least a $10,000 School building to be built of beautiful white native stone in which our hills abound.

Owing to the fact that Indian Gap has the widest and richest territory of any inland town in this section of the state, and our gins turn out from 5000 to 6000 bales of cotton per season, to say nothing of the immense quantities of corn, wheat and oats that are raised here and being a logical market place and trading point, who can gainsay that Indian Gap will take her place among the leading towns of this section?

The territory demands a good town here and it is safe to predict that in less than twelve months it will have trebled in size.

The trade territory, which extends for fifteen or twenty miles in every direction, is settled by a prosperous and thrifty class of farmers, both Americans and Germans.

If you are looking for an opportunity to better yourself in the way of school facilities, or if you are not satisfied with the healthfulness of your present locality, or should you have money to invest in any line of business or a good farm, WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO COME TO INDIAN GAP.

Favors School Tax.

Editor Eagle:

I see several school districts have voted a special tax for school purposes. Now, I think this is some of the fruits of Judge Allen's work. We need better schools in the country and the only way for a farmer to get anything good is to go down into his pocket for it. There are a few farmers who have ambition to educate their children well. I will say there is no place where it can be done so well and so cheap as at home, if the patrons of each school will co-operate. Let the farmer's polar star be good schools and good roads. Do something for yourselves. Don't wait for Bailey or Colquitt to help you get wise to your interest.

Bond Election.

The date for the election to determine whether or not $50,000 in road bonds shall be issued by precinct No. 1 has been fixed for Tuesday, April 25, which is one week from next Tuesday. This is an inconvenient date for the farmers of the precinct, who are busy in their crops, but they should not let the inconvenience deter them from going to the polls on that date and voting, no matter which side of the proposition they advocate. It is a matter of vital importance and every tax paying voter in the precinct should cast his ballot on the question.

The Eagle is opposed to the issuance of the bonds, as is well understood, and we have no apologies to make for our position on this or any other public question. If we believed the bond plan was the best for the district or the county at large we should support the proposition just as heartily as we now oppose it. Our position on this proposition may have lost us some patronage and perhaps some friends, which fact is very much regretted, but these things have never yet deterred us from the discharge of our duty to the public and the exercise of our free American privilege and never will have that effect. We appreciate fully the patronage and good will of every person who has seen fit to have business with us and we have always endeavored to give full value for every penny we have received from any source, but our citizenship and principles have never been bartered and we will never agree to do the bidding of our patrons, under any circumstances. We accord to all men the right to think and vote as they please and we shall certainly take the same privilege, though the heavens fall, and will never exchange our principles for patronage.

The next issue of this paper will be the last one before the bond election and in justice to all concerned the Eagle will not publish any matter bearing on the question of the bond issue, for either side, without those holding opposing views having the right to read such articles and reply to them in the same issue.

It would be manifestly unfair to allow either side space in the last issue before the election without giving the opposing side the privilege of a reply in the same issue.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Some Interesting Discussions—Advisory Board Elected.

The Goldthwaite Commercial club met in regular session Monday night, Secretary Clements being absent, G. A. Swaim was elected secretary pro tem.

The committee appointed to ascertain the probable cost of water works for fire protection was not ready to report, but Mr. Goodman, a member of the committee, made some suggestions regarding the matter and he was followed by other members, all of whom favored the plan of putting in the system for fire protection only. The proposition under consideration and perhaps the one that will be adopted, is to sink a well on the public square and place a large tank nearby, which can be kept full of water by pumping with a windmill or gasoline engine. The main will be run to each of the business blocks with hydrants or fire plugs a convenient distance apart. The plan is to raise the necessary finances for the enterprise by subscriptions from the business men and property owners on a basis of the amount that will be saved to each by the reduction of insurance rates.

A committee appointed to solicit funds with which to buy oil to sprinkle the streets reported nothing done, but the members were confident the money would be subscribed by the citizens. Members of the city council's street committee reported the formation of plans for preparing the public square for the oil sprinkling.

Messrs. B. F. Geeslin, W. C. Dew, J. C. Street, E. M. Boon and J. H. Burnett were elected as an advisory board for the club, to serve during the remainder of the terms of other club officers.

The attendance upon the meeting was not large, but all present took interest in the proceedings and the meeting was interesting throughout.

A Bad Wreck.

There was a bad wreck of the local freight train going east Monday morning in a cut about four miles below town. Seven cars went into the ditch and the track was torn up for more than half a mile. On account of the location of the wreck it was not practical to build around it, so the passengers on the night trains were transferred and the baggage and express on the train from the west was left at Goldthwaite until the next morning, at which time the wreck was cleared away and traffic was resumed.

There was nobody hurt in the accident, but the loss to the railroad company was considerable.

ANOTHER.

Wednesday morning about 2 o'clock another freight train wrecked about two miles this side of Mullin and the east bound passenger train was delayed about an hour while the track was being repaired. A number of cars went off and several water cars rolled down the embankment. The loss was not as great as the Monday morning wreck, but there was considerable damage to the railroad's property.

Kicked By a Mad Horse.

Samuel Birch, of Beetown, Wis., had a most narrow escape from losing his leg, as no doctor could heal the frightful sore that developed, but at last Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it completely. It's the greatest healer of ulcers, burns, boils, eczema, scalds, cuts, corns, cold-sores, bruises and piles on earth. Try it. 25c at R. E. Clements.

B. M. C. Entertained.

On Wednesday evening of this week the B. M. club assembled in Mrs. Owen Yarborough's home, the guests of Mesdames Yarborough, Little and Bedkin, for the purpose of showering Miss Lois Humphries, the "bride-to-be."
The evening was spent in playing "Blushing Bride," Mrs.
Claude Eacott receiving club prize—a hand painted vase filled with La France roses, which was presented to Miss Lois.

Delicious refreshments of strawberry cream and cake were served and a doll very daintily dressed as a bride was given as a souvenir to each guest. On the door hung a large heart. The girls were blindfolded in turn to pin an arrow on the heart, for the possible history of each. Dame Fortune handed to some "Happy life on a farm," while to others
"Single blessedness." Soon came Miss Lois' turn, the door was opened and she was led into the dining room, where the table was covered with many beautiful gifts from her friends. Not only the members of the club and friends present were represented in this shower, but several out of town friends, among whom were Mesdames Gibson of Bangs and Hester of Mullin.

Musical selections from Mrs.
Scott and Misses Sherman and Hooks were enjoyed.

Among the out of town guests for the evening were Mesdames McCall of Waco and Abney of Lampapas.

At a late hour the girls bade adieu to the hostesses and voted this one of the most pleasant occasions of the season.

REPORTER,

A Bad Runaway.

Last Friday afternoon Owen
Welch, son of Mr. W. G. Welch of Center City, was coming to town in a surrey and when he started down the mountain east of town the vehicle ran against the horses, causing them to take fright and run away. One wheel of the vehicle was broken at the start and another was crushed when the horses ran against a telephone post near Mr. Dickerson's residence. The boy was thrown from the vehicle but was not hurt. It was indeed a narrow escape for him, for those who saw the accident thought sure he would be badly injured or perhaps killed. When the impact was made with the post the team was stopped,
