Arrangements Being Perfected For A Big Mills County Fair

Fair Dates Fixed For July 18-20

The Woman's Department of the Fair has heretofore been one of the most attractive and will be more extensive this year. Mrs. Roy Rowntree is the manager of the department and O. H. Yarborough is director. The Fair catalog is on the press and will be ready in the next few days. Women interested in the textile department should read the pages of rules and regulations and the attractive premium lists. Competition will be restricted to Mills county exhibitors. All Mills county ladies are invited to co-operate with the managers of this department.

An attractive premium list appears for Farm, Orchard and Garden exhibitions. Men are urged to inform themselves relative to this department and help make this exhibit worthy of Mills county—the diversified farming section.

Plans are being drawn for a livestock pavilion to take care of sheep, goats, bulls, and Jersey cows. This promises to be an interesting department of the fair.

Ask for entry blanks and show your good stock.

Ask Henry Rahl about the Big Relic and Curio department. Old relics and curios greatly interest fair visitors and this will be the largest collection ever seen in this part. If you have interesting relics put them on exhibition with the fair.

DR. WILSON MOVED

Dr. E. A. Wilson and family left yesterday for their new home in Corpus Christi, where he owns and operates, with the assistance of his son, Fannin, the radio broadcasting station. The people of Goldthwaite and Mills county regret the removal of this good family and wish them the pleasure this life can give and all the success possible. Dr. Wilson was a citizen of Goldthwaite for more than thirty years and prior to coming here he lived in Mullin and he and his family have many friends there as well as in this city. He is a dentist of skill and ability and enjoyed a large and lucrative practice, but decided to make a change in work and selected the radio business as one of such promise and prospect of development. He still owns his home here, but has bought a home in Corpus Christi, which indicates that he expects to make that city his place of permanent abode. The Eagle and the people of Goldthwaite can do conscientiously recommend this good family to their new neighbors as some of the best people to be found anywhere and we can say without the least hesitancy or reserve that no more honorable business man can be found than Dr. Wilson. In matters of contract or agreement his word is as good as any document that could be prepared and his every plan and purpose is honorable to the last degree. We part with him and his family with regret, and feel that we have been fortunate in having known and been associated with them.

J. A. Hester's Car Stolen

(Mullin Enterprise)
J. A. Hester's car was stolen last Monday night in Brownwood. Walter Hester attended a De Molay meeting in that city, parked the car on Lee St. at 8 p. m. and when he returned for it at 11 o'clock, it was gone and no clue up to the present has been found. The car was insured.

A LIONS CLUB CELEBRATION PLANNED FOR TONIGHT

Elaborate Program Outlined

The Goldthwaite Lions Club is to have a big celebration tonight at the auditorium at Fair Park, in honor of the receipt of their charter from headquarters. Guests are expected from the Lion clubs in Brownwood, Comanche, Lampasas, San Saba and possibly other places. An interesting program has been arranged, including singing, instrumental music, speech making and other methods of entertainment. The club has also arranged for a big spread, including barbecue. A beef was butchered and put on ice today. The menu will include Mills county cheese, donated for the occasion by the Cheese factory here and drinks donated by the new Coca Cola Bottling Works, recently established here by Mr. Latham of Brownwood and operated under the local management of Neal Chesser. The bread, pies, cakes and other parts of the menu are products of Mills county and have been provided in an abundance for the club members and their guests.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Thompson George, a negro Baptist missionary from Liberia, Africa, will speak at the Baptist Church Saturday night at 8 o'clock. There will be a free will offering for the work he is trying to do in Africa. If you have never heard this colored man speak, it will pay you to hear him. He has a very interesting message. He is making a tour of the country speaking to great crowds of white people in their own churches.

One hundred and ninety in Sunday school last Sunday. Now, let's make it two hundred next Sunday, at least 40 stay away so we can go back to 150. Just won't do to have 200. Our superintendent would have an 'ager' and we all are very anxious about his health not giving away. The text for Sunday morning sermon is found in II Kings, 20:9-11. I am going to find out how many will already have read the text.

Remember that preaching services begin promptly at 10:50 and 8:15. You have a cordial invitation to attend both services. G. C. IVINS, Pastor.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MEETING

Commissioners Court

The court met in regular monthly session Monday and transacted a considerable amount of business of a routine nature.

Official reports were examined and approved and accounts were audited and ordered paid.

An old man by the name of John Thomason, living in the vicinity of the bayou, was placed on the indigent list and allowed $10 per month.

The highway fund for the month was divided as follows: Precinct No. 1 received $106.02; No. 2, $43.69; No. 3, $26.96; No. 4, $42.04.

The county's business was found to be in good shape and everything moving along nicely.

REFUSING ADVERTISING

In accordance with the long established business rule of the Eagle management, the paper this week refused a large advertisement from a department store in competing town. This to the average reader, may seem bad business, but it suits the Eagle just exactly. This paper accepts advertising from its patrons believing they receive full value for the money that they pay the Eagle for advertising in these columns. If advertising in the Eagle is beneficial to the advertiser and attracts trade, then surely an advertisement from a competing town will be beneficial to that town and the merchant placing the advertisement. For that reason the Eagle refuses to accept patronage where it believes the interests of its home people and home patrons will suffer. The Eagle believes it to be to the interest of all the people to buy their supplies of every character in Goldthwaite and so believing must advise its patrons to that effect and it would be manifestly unfair to take the money merchants of other towns and then advise against patronizing them.

AN HONOR STUDENT

Miss Mable Fowler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Fowler of Dallas is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts, in Rock Springs community. She is a recent graduate of S.M.U., where she secured her A.B. degree, and her friends and the friends here of her parents and other relatives are proud of the excellent record she has made. Under the heading, "Smartest S.M.U. Co-Ed Wins Highest Scholastic Honors," the Dallas Morning News says of Miss Fowler that she is 19 years of age and has three times been the honor graduate in her class and secured her degree in S. M. U. in record time of three and one-half years. She has been awarded a scholarship in S.M.U. valued at $250 and will return to that University in the fall to secure her Master's degree. She ranked highest in a class of 220 pupils and is president of her sorority. She will go to Kansas City the latter part of this month to attend a convention as a representative of her sorority. Miss Fowler has visited here frequently and has many admiring friends in this city and county.

ROBERTS-JENKINS

Sunday, June 9th, at 9 a. m., Mr. Browning Roberts of Brownwood and Miss Edra Jenkins were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage in Goldthwaite, Bro. Lambert officiating. They were accompanied by a few close friends and relatives. The bride wore a beautiful dress of pink crepe roma, trimmed with imported lace, a large picture hat of pink lace with accessories to match. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jenkins. She grew to womanhood in Mills County, among people who love her for her sweet disposition and winning ways. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Roberts of Brownwood, a former student of Howard Payne College and a young man of sterling qualities. The family lived here last year and made for themselves a host of friends who regretted to see them leave Mills County.

The happy young couple left immediately after the ceremony for Galveston and other points, where they will spend a week, after which they will be at home in Brownwood. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts wish for them much happiness.

A Friend.

REV. S. D. LAMBERT

Miss Lucy Bethel of Lampasas came over Wednesday and assisted in getting this issue of the Eagle out by operating the Linotype during the absence of Clarence Newcombe, who was called to Dublin on account of the death of his grandmother. Miss Bethel is an experienced operator and a most admirable young lady.

Rev. H. L. Munger, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lubbock, accompanied by Mrs. Munger and their son Henry, Jr., came in Tuesday afternoon for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thompson. The Munger family visited here two years ago and are remembered by many whom they met on the occasion of that visit.

Jesse Chenault of Ft. Worth and his younger brother Floyd were in the city yesterday, seeing after business matters. These gentlemen spent a part of their childhood in Goldthwaite and are kindly remembered by many friends. They are sons of James Chenault and the family moved from this city to Ft. Worth a good many years ago. Mr. Chenault has passed away, but his sons and daughters are doing well and all live in Texas, except Tommie, who lives in New York.

MARRIED AT NORTON

Harry Palmer of this city and Miss Alma Allen were united in marriage Monday at high noon at the residence of the bride's mother in Norton, Rannels county. Immediately after the marriage the happy young couple came to Goldthwaite, where they will make their home.

The bride is a stranger in Goldthwaite, but she is assured of a hearty welcome from all who know her husband and his family. She is a lady of talent and culture and Goldthwaite folk are glad to have her with them. Harry Palmer is one of the worthy young business men and is connected with the Joe A. Palmer grocery business. He was reared here, but has been away from the county a greater part of the time the past few years and only recently returned. He is a young man of high character and belongs to one of the best families of the county. He has the highest esteem of all who know him.

Well, the old Eagle hasn't received any news this week, so will try and sent in some of the latest happenings. ### BROWNWOOD CHOIR IS TO SING SUNDAY NIGHT

Sunday night, beginning at eight o'clock, the choir of the Central Methodist Church of Brownwood under the direction of Cameron Marshall will give a sacred concert. This choir received highest honors at the West Texas Commercial Club last year and we're fortunate to have them sing for us. Besides the choir members they will give a male quartet. The evening sermon will not be displaced. It is possible that a visiting pastor will preach for us. Come and receive a treat in spiritual uplift.

A cordial welcome awaits visitors. "Where you are a stranger but once." S. D. Lambert, Pastor.

A SERIOUS CHARGE

John Straley, claiming Waco as his home, was arrested in this city yesterday by Sheriff Bledsoe and Deputy E. O. Priddy charged with possession and transportation of liquor. The officers took three half gallon jars of whiskey and one half gallon of milk from behind the seat in the coupe driven by Straley and he made a statement before Justice of the Peace James Rahl that he bought the liquor in San Saba county for his own use. He was admitted to bond in the sum of $1,000 to await the action of the grand jury.

MEETING IN SAN SABA

Elder Claud McClung, who held two meetings here in Goldthwaite last year, opens with the Christians for a meeting in San Saba beginning Friday, June 14, and ending June 27. Many from here are planning to go over Sunday and spread dinner at San Saba Park. Let's all go.

GRASSHOPPERS

The Jumbo Grasshopper is showing up in considerable numbers and may be seen along the highways of Mills county. They will not likely damage the growing crops if pasture grasses remain green and tender but if the pastures wither they may invade the fields, destroying the crops. Farmers should watch closely and be prepared to fight them if necessary.

The formula for poison bran mash to control grasshoppers is as follows:

Coarse wheat bran, 25 lbs., Paris Green or White Arsenic, 1 pound, Cane or sorghum molasses, (avoid corn syrup), 2 quarts; 3 lemons for flavoring; water sufficient to make a moist mash.

Mix the bran and poison thoroughly. Mix the molasses in about 2 gallons of water adding the lemon juice. Then pour over the mixture until every particle is moist, yet so it may be readily sown broadcast. Spread broadcast along the edge of the infested portions of the field in early morning so the hoppers can feed on it while it is moist. W. P. Weaver, County Agent.

SCALLORN NEWS

Well, the old Eagle hasn't received any news this week, so will try and sent in some of the latest happenings. We can hear the hum of the threshers in our community this week and they seem to be very busy.

Mrs. Allen Wise from Moran is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cora Ford. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Laughlin spent Saturday night with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Warren of Pleasant Grove community.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ford and daughter, Rachel, and Mrs. Cora Ford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Luckie in San Saba.

Clem Howard from Moline is hauling grain for the thresher.

Mrs. Chester Ford happened to the bad accident of burning her right limb and arm pretty badly while canning beans, but it able to get around on it now.

Miss Alma Featherstone visited with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ford Sunday.

As news is getting scarce and it is almost time for the Eagle to fly, will close while I can.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

The new marriage license law became effective yesterday and hereafter three days notice must be given the county clerk before a marriage license can be obtained. County Clerk Porter has issued the following named persons license since the last report: Guy Marshall Ewing of Brownwood and Miss Elsie Ellison of Georgetown, E. M. Nesmith and Miss Mamie Harrington, both of Zephyr.

SOMETHING TO BE CONSIDERED BY STOCKMEN

I have been pondering the conditions and opportunities that confront the stockmen of Mills county for several days, and have decided, if the Eagle feels my mental ruminations worth the printer's ink, to give it an opportunity to air them, hoping the stock interests may give them careful thought, and if they think worthwhile, may profit by them.

We have hundreds of milk cows and thousands of sheep and goats in Mills county that will require thousands of dollars worth of feed to carry them through the coming winter and make them thrifty, healthful and profitable. We likewise have thousands of dollars worth of the most choice feed that, if our farmers pursue the usual course, will be disposed of at a price that can be regarded as nothing but a sacrifice. Why should our county sacrifice hundreds of tons of the best stock feed in June and July and pay an exorbitant price for shipped-in feed in December and January. It is simply bad management—worse than bad management, it is wasteful.

The prospective price for both barley and oats looks like about 1 cent per pound. Ground feed, which is often adulterated with cheap stuff of little feed value, and shipped in here and sold for sheep, goat, and cow feed at from two to two and one half cents per pound can hardly compare, in feed value, with a pound of ground oats or barley. Yet we sell at a loss and buy back at a big profit to someone, feed that is not nearly so good as what we have sold at half the price a few months before.

I am advised by those who have used it, that there are few ground feeds that can be classed as good as ground oats and barley for milk cows, sheep and goats and where they can be classed as good they usually cost from two and one half to three times the amount we get for our oats and barley.

The milk cow, with the present demand for her product, (the demand now seems to be unlimited at the cheese factory) is becoming a fixed source of revenue for the county and the thing most necessary to do is to reduce the cost of her feed bill, which will greatly augment the profit derived from her product. It is within the power of every milk producer to do this by looking present conditions squarely in the face and determining to profit by the splendid opportunity offered.

If one dollar invested in feed in June and July secures two dollars worth of feed only six months hence, you are making 100 per cent on a six months investment. This beats any investment you could possibly make and fully justifies the milk producer in borrowing the money to lay up this cheap feed, if he has not the ready cash at hand. The thousands of bushels of oats and barley that will be offered for sale within the next sixty days ought not to be shipped out of the county, but should be bought up and stored for taking care of this valuable stock during the winter.

I sincerely hope our stock men will ponder the situation carefully and take advantage of the splendid opportunity to make them more prosperous and secure in their stock interests, which is now the chief industry of our section of the state.

Don't haul a hundred dollars worth of milk to the cheese factory and leave fifty dollars worth of it with the feed man for shipped in feed. Spend $25 for feed now and leave the hundred dollars on deposit in your local bank later on.
PHILOSOPHER.

AROUND THE CAPITOL

Austin, Texas, June 12. (UP) Making both ends meet is the big problem of the present session of the legislature.

Taxation, revenue, and appropriations are no longer vague general terms. They are stern realities for the 180 legislators. What they do will be realities for the tax payers next January and the January after that.

The maximum possible income which can be appropriated for two years for general purposes is $49,280,033. To have that much the state will have to levy the maximum tax rate of 35 cents on $100 valuation. The rate this year was 22 cents. The amount raised was only $40,752,000 in two years.

Out of the possible $49,000,000, approximately $3,000,000 has been already appropriated at previous sessions of the legislature. All of the balance will be taken if the legislature adopts the house proposals. If the senate proposals are accepted there will be at least $11,000,000 to make up somewhere.

Beside the ad valorem tax which raises the funds to pay general appropriations the state levies a 35 cent tax on the $100 for schools and seven cents on the $100 for Confederate pensions. Neither may be diverted.

Separate funds are raised for the state highway department by gasoline tax and automobile registration fees.

Various methods have been presented of getting more funds. The income tax bills do not propose more funds. They propose merely raising $25,000,000 a year by taxing incomes and releasing property taxes. One bill proposes to do this by providing whatever amount is obtained by income tax shall be deducted from the total state needs before computing an ad valorem tax. Another bill proposes to make the deduction for each individual.

If a man has $100 income tax and pays $80 ad valorem tax, he would have to pay only $20 income tax. The objection to this is that the property owners for whom the income tax is planned as a relief are not making enough money to have any income tax on which to credit their ad valorem taxes.

There is a proposal also to levy a tax of $1 a ton on sulphur. That would take the place of the gross receipts tax on sulphur now calculated on its market price.

Entirely new taxes are: A tax on tangible assets of corporations not now included in the utility corporations taxed.

A tax on malt extract.

A tax on cigars and cigarettes.

One fourth of whatever is collected in gasoline tax goes to schools. The highway department estimates that a four cent tax on gasoline will furnish them $23,000,000 a year and a three cent tax on gasoline, $17,000,000.

The auto registration fees apparently will be cut about 30 or 35 per cent. How much shall be retained in each county for road work form the principal problems to be worked out by the legislature.

TIME VALUABLE FACTOR

The runner who is set and ready to go at the crack of the gun has a big advantage over the slow starter. This applies to farmers as well as to track racers. The farmer who is always ahead with his work has less weather than worry. If he gets out into his stubble and turns it under as soon as the grain is harvested he not only restores organic matter to the soil, but he conserves winter moisture and is ready to plant the first favorable day in the fall or spring, it depending upon the selection of the crop.

The farmer who anticipates wet weather in the spring by doing plowing in the fall and winter is on the mark, all set and ready to go. He is thus able to select and plan his crops, and is not forced to plant something else because of delay in preparing his seedbed. Early plowed land has a chance to settle, and thus a firmer seedbed is secured.

Farmers who depend entirely upon horse power are not always able to get ahead with their work. Oftentimes the soil is too dry and hard, and then when it rains it is too wet. Thus the summer goes by, and when spring comes the fields remain unplowed until too late to plant anything but cotton or sorghums. Here is where power farming comes in. With a good tractor the plowing can be done at a proper depth at times when the work would be too hard for horses or mules. A good tractor will not hesitate because the weather is hot and the ground baked hard, but will pull the plow at a rapid rate at any desired depth.

It is often said that tractors cost more to operate than horses or mules, but when one considers time as an element, proper depth of plowing, speed in accomplishing the work, and the saving made by being ready when planting time comes, they more than pay for themselves if properly handled and cared for.—Farm and Ranch.

THE WRONG JOHNSON

In the issue of the Eagle of May 31 appeared a communication on the subject of the new road from Hamilton to Zephyr, which communication was signed by "W. A. Johnson," when it should have been W. C. Johnson, who is one of the well known citizens of Zephyr. The operator made the mistake of striking the wrong letter on the machine, thereby making a difference in the identity of the writer of the article. The error was unintentional, but it was an error just the same and is naturally annoying to the writer of the article.

SOME NEW LAWS

Austin, Texas, June 13 (UP)—Watch your step after June 13. After that day "thou shalt not" applies to things now free and untrammelled. On that day the laws passed at the regular January session of the state legislature went into effect.

Most thrilling is the new marriage law. Three days notice will be required before issuance of a marriage license. The prospective bridegroom will also be required to furnish the county clerk a physician's certificate of his freedom from certain diseases.

Buying liquor on Texas soil will not alone be unlawful, but it will be an offense also to take a nip in an airplane, if the plane is used as a common carrier. Drinking in motor busses is also prohibited.

Giving liquor to a person under 17 became an offense punishable by jail sentence of not more than a year and a fine of not more than $500. Whether the courts can stretch this law into an anti-petting law remains to be seen. Its term provide that contributing to delinquency shall include "any act which tends to debase or injure the morals, health or welfare." It specifically includes giving of intoxicants, taking to dance halls where improper persons congregate or causing a person under 17 years to leave home without the consent of a parent or guardian.

That Jack Frieth, alias Jack Griffin, cannot be convicted of kidnapping, as he was charged, for leaving Texas with 16-year-old Fannie Lee Minter, is shown by the emergency clause to the new kidnapping law. This clause points out that the courts have decided it is not kidnapping to take away a person over 14 with that person's consent. Fannie Lee insisted that she went with Frieth willingly.

Taking any person away who is under 17 regardless of consent is made kidnapping under the new law. Wife and child desertion became a felony.

Going upon premises after dark to entice away laborers became a punishable offense. The law was passed to stop rival labor contractors inducing cotton pickers to leave.

Taking cotton or cotton seed in an amount less than $50 becomes an offense.

A distinction is made between drug stores and pharmacies. Places which merely sell patent medicines are drug stores. Those which compound drugs and fill prescriptions are pharmacies. The signs of the latter must so designate and the sign cannot be used lawfully unless a registered pharmacist is employed. A stricter optometry law also became effective.

Blacklisting is prohibited and it is punishable for election officers to fail to make correct and prompt returns.

Motor trucks operated for hire have to be registered and comply with provisions to be laid down by the motor division of the state railroad commission.

The weights and measures law has new teeth put in it, including a provision which makes giving of false weights or measures punishable even though the weigher does not buy or sell the article weighed. This is designed primarily to punish incorrect marking of grain and cotton. A strict law to insure pure agricultural seed became effective at the same time.

Flying, whether commercial or for pleasure, is unlawful without a pilot licensed under provisions of the Federal Air Commerce Act.

Sportsmen will find many new game rules. Most of these are of local application. A bulletin of the changes likely will be issued by the Fish, Game and Oyster department shortly.

Many changes are made in the school law. Physical education becomes compulsory. Teaching of courses in the constitution was also to have been effective this June but by concurrent resolution the special session of the legislature postponed the time until Sept. 1.

The scholastic age is to be widened Sept. 1 to include all children between six and 18. School must accept all persons between six and 21 who wish to attend.

School teachers are required to be American citizens. German text books are reinstated, after being banned since the beginning of the World War.

Get Up in The Morning Feeling DIZZY

"I BEGAN to suffer with headaches and dizziness," says John G. Malcom, Buena Vista, Ohio. "I had a hurting through the middle part of my body which seemed to come from indigestion. I would get constipated, and then feel all out of sorts. I would get up in the morning feeling dizzy, and everything else would disagree with me."

"Someone asked me why I did not try Black-Draught. I found it to be just the medicine I needed. When I feel a spell coming on, I begin by taking a dose of Black-Draught, dry, at night. I continue to take it for several days, and in a short while I am feeling fine. It is all the medicine I need."

ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

Electric appliances have become so commonplace that we use most of them without a thought of the human draggery they save. At the New York Electrical Show, recently, an entire house full of electric equipment was exhibited. The house, incidentally, was placed on a turntable, with all outside walls cut away, and rotated before spectators by a small electric motor.

In every room, of course, were electric lights, probably the oldest electrical standby; telephones and electric heaters. The living room contained also an electric radio and phonograph, and electric clock and artificial fire hearth. In the dining room was various electric equipment, such as a waffle iron, percolator, toaster, chafing dish, egg cooker and servant bell. The kitchen contained an electric refrigerator, dish washer, washing machine, ironer, air purifier and electric range. The bathroom had a therapeutic light, a quick heater, a hair curler and other incidentals. Elsewhere were sewing machine, special floor and wall lamps, a bed warmer and similar equipment.

It is really astonishing to what every-day use we put electric equipment in the modern home.—Houston Press.

ADVANCING THE LINES

Science has advanced its lines in the campaign against the white plague another mile. The National Tuberculosis Association reports two important improvements in tubercular treatment. Tuberculin, the substance used for detecting the disease, has been reduced to absolutely purity, thereby eradicating doubt that has previously existed in the case of positive reaction to tests that might have resulted from the other substances in it. New research achievement has provided the possibility of detecting tuberculosis within three or four days of infection, instead of two months.

The actual importance of both discoveries is obvious in present treatment. Tuberculin becomes a sure test instead of a dubious one, a fact which, it is conceded, will save the lives of a good many cattle hitherto condemned as possibly affected. Early treatment is accepted as so important in tuberculosis that the elimination of nearly two months of time it has had to gain a foothold will save many lives.

The potential importance of the two discoveries is even greater than the actual. Brought as close to the point of origin as the treatment of the disease will now be, there is foreshadowed complete enlightenment on causes, the first step toward permanent prevention.

Since both of these discoveries, however, deal with detection, not sure of the disease, it must be borne in mind that they fit in with the campaign of the Tuberculosis Association to detect the incipient affection. The importance of periodical examination for the average man is emphasized. Science can only help him in so far as he helps himself.—Dallas News.

CANADA STEERS CLEAR

Liquor dealing is an outlawed trade in the United States. It is perfectly legal in Canada. The proximity of two such territories is bound to produce difficulties. On the American side it is alleged that a great proportion of the liquor illegally sold in the United States comes from Canada. The prohibition enforcement administration in Washington recently transmitted to the Canadian government a request that the Canadian authorities put a ban on liquor shipments to the United States by refusing to issue clearance papers for such. After consideration, the Canadian government denied the request.

The Canadian government was, of course, within its rights. It is not required, in law of international usage, to aid in the enforcement of the laws of another country. On the other hand, the Canadian government could have acceded to the Washington request with ample precedent to guide the action. Governments frequently aid in enforcing the laws of other countries by refusing action which might have the effect of making them partner to violation of these laws.

By far the most interesting phase of the international exchange on the subject was the statement by the Canadian prime minister that a ban such as was requested by the Washington authorities could not be enforced, and that when failure of government enforcement resulted the Canadian government would be under constant nagging from Washington. In order to avoid this unpleasant situation, Canada feels justified in declaring "hands off" altogether.

Thus, perhaps without intending to do so, the Canadian prime minister passes judgment on prohibition in the United States.—Fort Worth Star Telegram.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE

"What difference does it make where we end our days?" Thus John Pless, 87-year-old inmate of a California poorhouse. Reached the Golden State in 1860. Farmed and studied engineering by lamp light. Invented the great Pless dredge, and almost grasped a huge fortune. Shrewd, unscrupulous hands took all. "My head was in the clouds," he says, "and the feet of men I trusted were on earth."

Old, feeble, poor, but his idea enriches the earth. Millions of acres did the Pless dredge reclaim, for homes, farms, food and happiness to his fellowmen. Indeed, what difference does it make where we end our days when our days have been devoted to service of others? What difference where, when or how? The days must end; the service goes on.

A man who gave to his fellows as old John Pless did may wear honorable laurels, even in a poorhouse. Not what has been gotten but what has been given is the basis of philosophy, when the end of the day approaches. TRACY.

THE OLD RANGE

My native home is Texas,
'Tis the place where I was raised;
Where the wild horse roamed
the hillside
And the long horned cattle grazed;
Where we used to ride o'er prairies wide
In sunshine, rain and snow;
And the camp fires bright burn
through the night
In the days of long ago.

Long since I rode those ranges,
O'er valley, plain and hill;
Long since I led the stampede,
But the memories linger still.
Long since I spread my blanket
Upon the prairie's crest,
With my head upon my saddle
And laid me down to rest.

(3)
I hope when life is over
We find a better range;
Where horses don't eat loco,
Nor cattle have the mange;
Where cowboys grow no older,
And never tote a gun;
Where the sun shines brightly always,
And the cattle never run.

FINE FIGS

Mr. F. D. Webb brought to the Eagle office one day this week one of the largest and most perfectly formed figs ever seen in this section. It weighed one-fourth of a pound and measured 7 inches in circumference. The flavor was as delightful as the little purple fig, which is known and reputed as the best. Mr. Webb has a tree bearing a goodly number of these figs, altho it is not an old tree.

BUMPER WHEAT CROP DUE IN WEST TEXAS

"The recent rains in the Panhandle and South Plains section of West Texas practically insure a great wheat crop. Conservative estimates place the crop at 30,000,000 in 1929 as against 22,000,000 in 1928."

The above statement was made by Homer D. Wade, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in a letter to U. S. Pawkett, traffic manager, in which he gave instructions to the traffic department to urge common carriers to provide sufficient rolling stock to afford prompt movement of this great crop.

"The advent of the combine in the harvesting of grain places a new situation upon the movement of the grain crop," declared the head of the regional organization, "in that the work of harvesting is accomplished in a much shorter time than under the old way, hence the necessity of prompt and vigorous efforts upon the parts of the railroads in handling this immense crop."

POULTRY WORK

County Agent W. P. Weaver says reports from poultry growers show that tobacco dust fed to chickens and turkeys in the proportion of 1 part to 50 of feed is proving effective as a preventative of round worms. The best results are obtained when chicks and poulters are fed from the time of hatching. It is sufficient to feed the mixture one week and skip a week. However, if fowls become infested it is necessary to dose them with some effective expellant then keep the flock clean by feeding the tobacco dust.

Famous Conductor to Develop Personality In Others

Paul Ash

Paul Ash Originates New Class for Orchestra Leaders

New York City—Teaching people to be themselves will be the unique and not entirely simple job which Paul Ash, first "personality conductor," will undertake when, and if, he retires as leader of one of the world's most famous orchestras, to train other conductors how to use their personality in music.

"Here is one place where the bright young man with no experience will be welcomed," declares Ash. "The idea of the experienced young man about personality conducting is usually evolved from copying some already-arrived conductor. I have set down experience as a liability rather than an asset for my pupils. So many leaders try to copy the successful ones, and as a result, fail utterly to develop themselves. They are nothing but an imitation of something good, and people are resentful of 'something just as good.'

"The personality conductor who has introduced into the theatre a new type of entertaining must, above all, be an original interpreter of the role he is playing.—If he is not that, he is an absolute failure. I have seen a half dozen orchestra leaders do 'Don't Cry Baby' in exactly the same way. This should not be. There should be something individual about each person's conducting.

"I was at a small cafe the other night when 'Don't Cry Baby' was asked for. There was only a small band of eight pieces, but how that leader played. The trimmings which he put onto the music made his performance something to be remembered. Of course he had good material to start with, but that man used personality. You could literally hear the parting goodbyes.

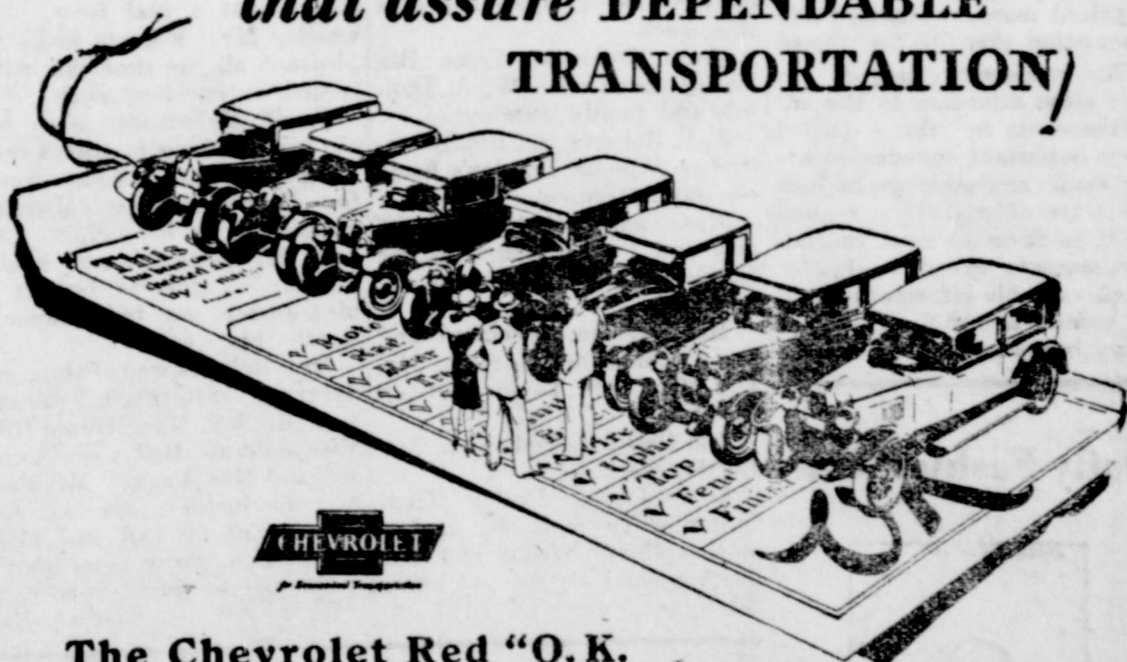

Modesty prevents Ash from calling attention to the fact that thousands of these imitation personality conductors have taken him for a model. Scores of theatre managers all over the country are to blame for this, for they ask their own leaders "Why can't you be like Ash?"

THE PLEATED MODE

As well as adult modes, the widespread popularity of pleats as a means of varying the straight-line silhouette. The little frock shown above is smart in its simplicity, and is therefore an easy model for mother to make at home for her little girl. It has a square yoke, front and back, below which wide pleats, stitched down part way, are laid. The yoke is cut down at the center-front, underfaced and rolled with the deep collar which resembles that of a middie blouse. Linen, linen-finished cotton, pongee or flannel may be used in contrasting shades.

CHIROPRACTIC IS SUCCESSFUL WITH HAY FEVER

Hay Fever is a condition wherein the membranes of the nose and eyes are in a state of congestion and are constantly producing a profuse exudate. The eyes water, the nose runs, the patient sneezes; the discomfort continues day after day, week after week, usually until cool weather sets in in the Fall.

We have been told that Hay Fever is produced by dust as an irritant, but the cause of the hay fever lies within the individual. If this were not true, everyone would suffer from the disease. This we know is not the case. The Hay Fever victim sees many around him perfectly well yet living under the same conditions that he is. Just a moment of reasoning will show him that there is something wrong with him. Most Hay Fever victims have tried so many so-called cures that they are disgusted. Many of them have just about made up their minds that they are destined to suffer as long as they live. If they could only know that Chiropractic has been successful in many, many cases of this kind.

Our services are available. Now is the time, get the cause removed and enjoy greater health comfort this coming winter. The Hay Fever sufferers can't afford to go on year after year when relief is available now.

Take Chiropractic first. There'll be no regrets.

Volume Number 1. Friday, June 14, 1929. Number 22

Published in the interest of the people of Mills County by Barnes and McCullough.

PAUL McCULLOUGH, Editor

From now on we expect to listen to some whopping fish stories.

Claud Bacott and myself went fishing Tuesday afternoon. Tell us that someone else had Merrit dam. Those dam fish are hard to catch.

Judging from the number of people reported gathering dandelions, the Department of Agriculture must have predicted a failure of the grape crop this year.

Mr. B. Edgar Simpson has one of the most improved places in Mills county.

Use lime for sanitary purposes.

It's a funny thing about the dandelion. We used to cuss it. Now it's our most popular flower.

We have Duco colors to harmonize with any color flowers.

June love may not be classified as a disease, but it's frequently catching and of a rash nature.

If the heat from the mountain ranges made it warmer I suppose railroads would then advertise them as winter resorts.

Mr. Brooks of the Hickman & Kilgoer ranch believes in saving this years grain crop. He has impoved the Ware ranch till a person would not know it.

Subscribe to Nails and Staples, nothing a year, and not even that in advance.

Mr. Jno. Fulton will not build a concrete sidewalk or a concrete structure of any kind unless he can build it by using the proper proportions of cement and gravel.

Summer'll be here before you know it! Summer with its countless days of joyous carefree motoring. Carefree motoring is properly pepped up.

How about it—has your car yet had its 1928 Texaco "spring cleaning"? Stop at the nearest Texaco Station—look for the Red Star and Green T—and drive on to the runway. Just say, "I want Texaco Lubrication Service."

The attendant will drain the crankcase, flush it with Texaco Motor Flushing Oil and fill it with the proper grade of clean, clear, golden Texaco Motor Oil.

(Mullin Enterprise)

It is no mistake about people reading the ads in the Enterprise. In a recent issue of the paper the linotype man left out one word which resulted in odd reading. Within two days time the editor was accosted by eleven readers who had some razzing on the editor about the error. Strange to say, we didn't know six of them could read, as only five were subscribers to the paper.

Middle Life Troubles

"ABOUT twenty years ago, my health was very bad," says Mrs. Mat Howard, of Terrell, Texas. "I was passing through a critical time in my life, and I suffered a great deal. I was not at all strong, and my nerves got all upset. I had hot flashes, and sometimes I would get suddenly so faint I could not stand up. My head would whirl, and I could not see a thing. I would have to lie down for hours at a time. I improved so much after I had taken Cardui for a while. I continued the medicine for some months, until I had passed the critical period. Since then, I have given Cardui to my five daughters. All of them have continued the use of Cardui in their homes. We have all been better for having taken it."

Your MODEL T FORD is still a good car

THE Model T Ford led the motor industry for twenty years because of its sturdy worth, reliability and economy. Those same reasons continue to make it a good car.

As a matter of fact, nearly one-fourth of all the automobiles in use today are Model T Fords. Millions of them can be driven two, three and even five more years with reasonable care and proper replacements. Figures show that the average life is seven years.

Don't sacrifice your Model T, therefore, but take it to the Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of putting it in A1 shape. A very small expenditure by the means of giving you thousands of miles of additional service.

For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. This price includes new bearings, reboring cylinders and any other work necessary. Parts are extra.

Valves can be ground and carbon removed for $3 to $4. The cost of tightening all main bearings is only $4. The labor charge for overhauling the front axle is $4.50 to $5—rear axle assembly, $5.75 to $7.

New universal joint will be installed for a labor charge of $3. Brake shoes relined for $1.50. Rear spring and perches rebushed for $1.75. The cost of overhauling the starting motor is $3. A labor charge of approximately $2.50 covers the overhauling of the generator.

It will pay you, therefore, to see your Ford dealer and have him put your Model T in good running order. By doing so you will protect and maintain the investment you have in your car and get months and years of reliable transportation at a very low cost per mile.
