State Law Makers Adopt Tax Relief Measure

Provisions Outlined For New Law

More than a two-thirds majority vote both houses of the legislature adopted Wednesday a conference committee compromise bill as reported by the joint committee was approved between the Weiland and the O Neal plan. It was adopted in the Senate by a unanimous vote and in the House by 136 to 6.

Gov. Sterling did not have the opportunity to sign the bill until Thursday, as both houses adjourned Wednesday. The bill had been enrolled and signed by the presiding officer. Having polled more than a two-thirds affirmative vote on both sides, the bill will go into effect when signed by the Governor. It was the first emergency bill submitted to the legislature by Governor Sterling.

The Governor said he would sign the bill to the Attorney General for an opinion as to its constitutionality.

The compromise bill provides the time of payment of all taxes, county, special school, district, road district, improvement district and irrigation district taxes and all other taxes of the political subdivisions of the county other than cities and town and poll taxes levied for 1930, is extended to Oct. 15, 1931. The act does not apply to independent school districts, which are legally required now to collect their taxes on the annual basis.

The bill, in the features originally incorporated in the bill, the compromise allows one-half of the taxes to be paid at any time prior to Oct. 15. The 10 per cent penalty provided on taxes unpaid Feb. 1, does not apply for year, but in its stead is levied an interest charge of 10 per cent on taxes unpaid by Feb. 1, though they do not become due until after Oct. 15. On Oct. 15 unpaid taxes will become due and a penalty of 5 per cent and other statutory penalties for delinquency will be assessed. Suits for the collection of taxes delinquent on that date will follow the same procedure as prescribed.

A BAD ACCIDENT

Yesterday morning the driver of a bus coming from Lampasas discovered a trailer attached to a truck turned over about twelve miles south of this place. Upon investigating he found a man beneath the trailer. Other passengers came to the assistance of the bus driver and the trailer was pulled off the man and he was brought to this city, where he was given first aid and then placed in the Fairman company ambulance and carried to the hospital at Brownwood, accompanied by Dr. J. M. Campbell, whose hurried examination indicated that the man's back was broken and he was otherwise injured.

The young man, who was apparently about thirty years of age, was conscious and gave his name as Middlebrook. He was driving a Cagle Company truck, to which the trailer was attached, and was en route from Taff, Texas, to Stamford. His truck and trailer were loaded with oil field timbers. The truck and trailer were still at the place of the wreck when the Eagle was put to press.

MANY VOTERS MAY BE BARRED FROM ELECTIONS

Poll Tax Receipts Still Required

Poll tax payments have pepped up considerably the past week, yet the number is far short of the number assessed. There is still time for the issuance of many receipts and, doubtless, the grand total will not be far short when the collector's books close Saturday night. If the governor signed the "split tax" law yesterday afternoon it will become effective at once on ad valorem taxes, but has no reference to poll tax payments and those who do not pay their poll tax before the first day of February will not be entitled to vote in any election in this state for the next twelve months.

LOCAL SCOUT NEWS

The twenty-first anniversary of scouting will be observed the week beginning on the 8th of February. The scouting movement is not local, state, nor national, but international. Scouts are found in all parts of the civilized world.

The local troop is trying to create interest in the movement in order that every boy in Goldthwaite will become a member of such a great and worthwhile organization. One of the patrol leaders stated that every member of his patrol would make an advance, either in rank or merit badge attainment at the Court of Honor to be held in Lampasas February 7.

The high school librarian, Mrs. Riley, is interested in Scouts and their work and wishes to form a Scout library division. This portion of the library will be for the use of Scouts only. If you have any Scout books, nature study books, handcraft books, or any other type of books that are of interest and use to Scouts, please to inform some Scout and we will be around and get it for the library, if you will allow us to use it.

Each Friday night at seven o'clock the local troop meets in the basement of the court house. We would be glad to have interested visitors.

We will try to tell you the officers and organization of our troop next time.

Don't forget that we are gathering old clothes for local relief and all we need is to know where you want us to call.

ART AND CIVIC CLUB

The Art and Civic club met, January 21, in the hospitable home of Mrs. L. R. Conro. After a short business session, the following program was rendered on Canada.

Leader—Mrs. Jacob Saylor.

Roll Call answered by something of interest about Canada.

Mrs. Harry Allen read a very interesting paper on Quebec, the capital of French Canada.

Mrs. Bowman read a beautiful poem on Canada.

Mrs. Walter Fairman told in her charming way of a tour through Canada and of the many beautiful spots of that country.

Every one present then enjoyed two beautiful vocal numbers by Mesdames Martin and Bowman.

After the program, our hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Lucille, served a delicious refreshment plate.

SELF CULTURE CLUB

The Self Culture Club met at the club room in the court house with the president in the chair and all business attended to.

It was decided that one-half of the Red Cross collection was to be reserved for home demands. Reports of the committees were heard.

Mrs. J. H. Saylor was leader for the evening. Roll Call was answered by thirteen members with quotation from "American Humorist." Life story of Mark Twain was read by Mrs. Jim Cokrum and a brief summary of a Connecticut Yankee (Mark Twain) by Mrs. G. C. Ivins. Both the above readings were appreciated.

We were delighted to have some new records furnished the club by Mrs. E. T. Fairman for the Brunswick. All enjoyed the music. Many thanks to Mrs. Fairman for her thoughtful donation.

We had as a guest Mrs. Zack Kemp of Post.

The next meeting of the club will be Feb. 12, at the club room, at which time there will be an election of officers for the year 1931-1932. All members are urged to be in attendance.

SPORT TIPS

Rollo Henry

The Tigers are still in constant practice getting into first class condition for the coming games. The remainder of the Class A conference games are scheduled as follows:

Mullin vs Goldthwaite, Jan. 31.

Mullin vs Star, Feb. 3.

Star vs Goldthwaite, Feb. 5.

Star vs Mullin, Feb. 7.

The last game of the Class A series Star vs Mullin, to be played on the night of Feb. 7, at Mullin, promises to be a thriller, so let's all go out to witness the outcome.

Again we see in the papers:

	G	W	L	Pct.
S. M. U.	3	3	0	1000
T. C. U.	4	3	1	750
Ark.	8	5	3	625
Rice	6	2	4	333
Baylor	3	1	2	333
A. & M.	3	1	2	333
Texas U.	5	1	4	200

During the past week end a great change was made in the Southwest Conference cage race. S. M. U. being idle, went into first place as the Arkansas Razorbacks nosed out the T. C. U. Frogs in a 29 to 28 cage bout last Saturday night. The Frogs breezed through the Razorbacks with ease on Friday night, when Dietzel, the tall Frog center chalked up 20 of the Frogs' 34 to 26 victory. But in the contest on Saturday night the Razorbacks placed two guards on Dietzel, forcing him in the back ground with only one field goal.

Too, another thrilling occasion was witnessed by the Baylorites last week end, when they watched the Bruins defeat the Longhorns in a thrilling melee, 45 to 43. The score was tied 43 all, with eight seconds to go, when Strickland, the Bruin center, arched a high one through the net just as the gun sounded, which turned a tie into victory for the Bruins. This tall gangling youth from Coolidge scored 23 of the Bear's 45 points.

The Rice A. & M. game resulted in an easy victory for Rice. The Frogs' hopes for going thru the conference undefeated has faded, yet they are still picked to win the conference.

We see in the Dallas News that Schmeling, the German Dempsey, and young Stribling, will meet in a heavyweight bout in Madison Square Garden next June. Primo Carnera, the Italian Giant, is expected to meet the winner at a later date. Jack Dempsey denied all rumors that he would appear again in the ring against Carnera.

Oakland, of the Pacific Coast league, has traded Bernie Deiveros, star infielder to the San Antonio Indians for Mike Donders, second baseman.

Don't forget, Starites, the game between the Tigers and Badgers next Friday night, Jan. 30, at Lampasas.

A. G. Woodward and Jackson Hughes, fieldmen of the Lone Star Wool and Mohair Co-operative Association, transacted business with R. F. McDermott Thursday and Friday of last week.

Only one more day after this one in which to secure a poll tax receipt that will entitle you to vote during the next twelve months, and there is sure to be a bond issue amendment submitted this summer.

Hatchery Notice — Will set my hatchery on Monday, Feb. 2. Custom hatching 3 cents per egg.—Burch Hatchery.

D. A. Jeske of Star, one of the foremost merchants and best business men in the county, was a visitor at the Eagle office last week end. Mr. Jeske looks with hopefulness to the future and believes the crest of the "hard times" has passed and conditions will improve steadily.

T. F. Elliott of Seallorn was a visitor to the city Saturday and gave the Eagle man a calendar bearing the advertisement of his son, T. E. Elliott, who is in the second hand furniture business in El Paso. The calendar shows the place of business owned and occupied by young Elliott, which is a large brick building, two stories with a swell front. Elmo was reared in this county and has a great many friends here who are delighted to know of his prosperity.

5% FARM AND RANCH LOAN! Easy Terms—5 to 36 Years Dependable Service Through the Federal Farm Loan Bank of Houston, Texas W. C. DEW

Hon. Phil H. Clements, door-keeper for the House of Representatives, was kind enough to send the Eagle the following interesting communication relative to the committee appointments of our representative: "Hon. Homer C. DeWolfe, of Goldthwaite, representing Comanche and Mills counties in the House of Representatives, Forty-second Legislature, has been appointed to serve on the following committees: Revenue and Taxation, Criminal Jurisprudence, Claims and Accounts, and vice-chairman of the Judiciary Committee.

These are four of the most important committees of the House, and the appointment of Mr. DeWolfe as vice-chairman of this very important committee on Judiciary is a distinct honor, and will be very gratifying to his many friends in his district. Such an appointment places him in line for chairmanship of this committee, should he again be returned to the legislature.

Many matters of both county and state interest are brought before these committees for consideration and approval. In this capacity Mr. DeWolfe hopes to be of real service to his constituents; and to carry into effect as nearly as possible their wishes pertaining to legislation.

SOUTH BENNETT

Sunday was meeting day. We had a large crowd at both services.

Travis Griffin and family, Dan Covington and wife visited Mrs. L. Covington at Pleasant Grove Sunday.

Grandma Edging fell and hurt her hip one day last week, but glad to say she is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hill visited Mrs. Hill's mother at Star Sunday.

Bob Kirby made a flying trip to Brownwood last Friday. Henry Webb has two sick children.

Visitors in Mohler Simpson's home Sunday were Roy Simpson and family, Walter and Otto Simpson and families.

Lee Benningfield has been cutting wood for Travis Griffin.

Mrs. Walter Simpson visited Mrs. Dan Covington Monday.

I hear some talk of the Ladies Club going to meet. I wonder if they would learn the men folk to talk and make flowers.

Mrs. Long and Mrs. Edging visited Mrs. John Ross Sunday.

I. M. Hawkins and family visited in Henry Webb's home Sunday.

Aaron Stacy visited the Black burn boys Saturday night.

The party at Ernest Wade's was well attended last Friday night. All report a good time, but Essie.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter visited Jim Carroll at town Sunday.

Willis Hill moved his goats home last Saturday.

Miss Lena Mae Casbeer was seen in our community last week. We are all wondering why she is so busy quilting? Well, as news is scarce, I will ring off. NO. TWO.

COTTON ACREAGE REDUCTION

Compilations based on farmers' responses to the price of cotton in December indicate that acreage planted to cotton in the United States in 1931 will be decreased between 7 and 8 per cent, according to Dr. A. B. Cox, director of the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas. He says: "The price and yield of competing crops and weather may affect cotton acreage considerably. This year, the price of corn, oats, wheat and most other competing crops are relatively higher than cotton. Moreover, the weather has been favorable for winter wheat and oats, so that the plowing up of these crops may be less than usual. The weather at planting time also has considerable influence on final acreage. If it is unfavorable for corn and spring oats, land intended for them will be planted to cotton, for it can be planted later."

SCHOOL BRIEFS

The pupils and teachers are beginning the fifth month of school.

Lyndon Davis visited his grandparents in the Rock Springs community this week end. He also visited with Mr. Cooke on Friday night.

Joe Spinks was over talking with the teachers one day last week. The school realizes that it has a loyal supporter in Mr. Spinks.

Johnnie, Vergie Mae and Curtis Taylor attended B. Y. P. U. at Rock Springs Sunday night.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of the Shipman children's cousin at Brownwood last week.

Gerald Davis is absent from school on account of sickness. His little cousin, Dorothea Marie Davis, visited him Sunday.

Ellen Perry was absent from school last week. She was house keeping during her mother's illness.

NEW PUPIL

Dorothy Huffman enrolled in our school Monday. We are always glad to have new pupils. We welcome and hope she will love Center Point as all of our student body does.

Julia Dee: "Do you think kissing unhealthy?" Vergie Mae: "I don't know." Julia Dee: "What! Never been kissed?"

Vergie Mae: "No, I've never been ill after it!"

Fred Shipman, who had never seen an ice cream cone before, tried one. He walked outside to eat it, then took the cone part back to the soda fountain saying, "Much obliged for the loan of the vase."

BOARD PRESIDENT ILL

Mr. G. F. Meyer has been ill for several days. We hope he will soon be on the road to recovery.

SOME HINTS

The following hints might prove beneficial to some of you people.

To keep ants from crawling around your pantry shelves, remove the shelves.

To prevent mice from gnawing holes in wood work, file their teeth.

How to tell when an egg has boiled sufficiently, dip egg in boiling water several times with a spoon. Then grasp it firmly in left hand. It's hot, so immediately drop egg to floor. It naturally breaks. Step on it. If it doesn't stick to your shoe, it is all right.

To keep ashes from piling up in stove, do not build a fire.

To keep ice from melting, leave it at the factory.

CAN YOU IMAGINE

Willard Davis not comparing everything brought up, with something similar that happened in New Mexico.

Johnny Fallon thinking a mountain range is a cook stove. Joe Shelton telling Mr. Cooke that in Scotland they took the census by rolling a nickel down the street.

NEW OFFICERS

The pupils in the senior room elected two new reporters for The Pointer. Lessie Shelton was elected reporter for the girls. Lyndon Davis elected for the boys reporter.

Willard Davis thinks a fur-rough is some kind of an animal kin to the 'possum.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Elday Hoover of San Saba will fill the pulpit in the Church of Christ in Goldthwaite the second Sunday in February, at both morning and evening hours. The public is cordially invited to hear him. XX

RED CROSS CALL

Editor Eagle:

While the Red Cross is becoming active in most of its local organizations, I hope the Mills county organization will soon become interested in the drive to collect funds to help feed the destitute of our country. Our organization was very active and engaged on its work in collecting the annual membership fees before Christmas and, as I have understood, was quite successful in its collections. Again the country seems to be in great distress in certain localities and, it seems, must have help from the less fortunate districts. Mills county and Goldthwaite have always responded liberally to those in distress, and, although times are very hard with most of us, there are, no doubt, many among us who will willingly contribute something more to feed those who are more unfortunate than themselves.

The Red Cross is the greatest Christian organization on earth to succor the needy and unfortunate and funds entrusted to it to administer to the necessities of the sick, afflicted and needy have never been misapplied or spent injudiciously. Let us meet the appeal for help as liberally as our circumstances will permit, for no one can doubt that the necessity is very great.

Very respectfully, A. J. HARRISON, P. M.

BIG VALLEY

Just because we give our space to a more interesting journalist now and then, is no reason for not telling you this week that:

The Big Valley church called a pastor Sunday.

The good people of Lower Valley organized a Sunday school Sunday afternoon. We hope the interest will grow.

Woodrow Long and Howard Weaver visited the Cockrell boys Sunday.

Big Valley was represented at the pecan meeting Saturday by Uncle Billie Oglesby and others.

Foxest Renfro has sold out and is expecting to leave the Valley. The place he goes will have another good citizen. He is a fine fellow.

There is a call for all interested in the Big Valley cemetery to meet the second Friday in February and do some needed work there.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peek opened their home Sunday night for a singing.

Cleota Swim was home last week end.

The Baptist Workers' Conference met with the Big Valley church the third Sunday. There were some splendid talks made. We hope it will come to us again some time. It will meet the third Sunday afternoon in February with the Mullin church. FARMER.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION OF FINAL ACCOUNT

The State of Texas: To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mills County, Greetings:

H. H. Faulkner, administrator of the estate of E. L. Hamilton and Nena Hamilton, both deceased, having filed in our county court his final account of the condition of the estate of said E. L. CHIROPRACTIC REMOVES THE CAUSE OF DISEASE THERE'LL BE NO REGRETS

Foreign Visitors Come Here for Sake of Jazz Music. RICHARD KRAETKE. The sunrise - thru gray skies - comes smiling over the hills. Modern American Music Rivals European Ruins As Tourist Attraction. New York City.—Jazz has polarized sea traveling and is the chief reason for foreigners coming to America. So says Richard Kraetke, famous operatic conductor, now musical director for the S. S. Leviathan. "Jazz is a sort of musical Esperanto," Mr. Kraetke declares. "Thousands come to me on the Leviathan to ask questions in many languages about jazz. I play it for all nationalities and all nationalities understand our music. Each country has its favorite, of course. The English prefer our waltz ballads, the French our 'hot' numbers. The Balkans like our slow foxtrots and the Germans our fast ones. "Sometimes my orchestra plays a number which has strains reminiscent of all countries. The 'Sunrise,' which I have played so often recently is this type of music. It has a home land message for each nation, but I should describe it as pure American with an international flavor in the orchestration. "If the chambers of commerce of America would boost our native music as efficiently as European travel bureaus have boosted the interesting spots of the continent, I think we should have as many foreigners 'doing America' as there are American 'doing Europe.'"

REFORESTING BY MACHINERY

In the renewal of our forests, possibly no other factor will have greater future importance than one to which forestry officials in New York direct the attention of all interested.

It is a machine for planting trees, whose principle is adapted to some extent from the tobacco planting machine. It requires three men to operate it. While it would seem that its success would often be handicapped by rough ground having stumps and roots, it is asserted that it will set out 25,000 saplings from one to four years old in an ordinary day.

To plant 1,500 trees by hand is a fair day's work. The device is described as breaking the sod, turning up a shallow furrow and digging a hole for the sapling, which it then plants and tamps the soil about it, making no complaint as to backache. As many of the trees are found to live as in the case of hand plantings, and the cost is not more than a third as much.

Setting out the trees has always been a big item of expense in reforestation undertakings, and even on large tracts often amounts to $5 an acre. If $1 can be made to do the work of $3 in forest renewal, the near future should see big crops of thriving saplings growing on lands of little value for any other crop. — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

PENALTIES INSTEAD OF BONUSES

The plan of making reckless and irresponsible automobile drivers pay higher insurance rates, is receiving increasing consideration.

Under the present merit-rating system, drivers with favorable records receive a premium discount. An objection to this theory is that it requires a base rate somewhat higher than would otherwise be necessary in order to provide for the merited discounts.

Many persons now believe that a better system would be to start with a rate level slightly below the necessary amount and make up the difference by raising rates when drivers have accidents. Putting an increased financial burden on the bad risk is a better inducement toward safe driving than giving credit to the good risk.

Any practical program that will help curb carelessness should be welcomed. It might be found that financial penalty for carelessness would cause more persons to think before taking a chance, than a bonus for carefulness.

MORE AND BETTER ROADS

More mileage of better and more expensive roads will be constructed all around the world during 1931. This is the finding of the Commerce Department, which fixed Monday a total of $3,000,000,000, as the planned road expenditure for the new year. It was reached thru a study of reports from 110 nations and political subdivisions covering the entire globe. The United States, as usual, leads the procession.

BUSY BEE.

ON THE GO

The roads do attract throngs of travelers. It is not unreasonable to suggest that our long, smooth highways attract more tourists than they should. One of the things the matter with a lot of poor people is their restlessness. They have been on the go ever since they came into possession of automobiles, and today they are not quite at home anywhere. The open road has called many farmers with a more seductive voice than the corn field had. It has called the housewife away from her picking and preserving. Innumerable homes are scarce of furniture, because gasoline has commanded about all the loose money. A million pantries are bare of food stocks by reason of temporary residence and repeated removals. Nomadic habits have been formed, and the reaction has appeared in terms of poverty and deprivation. A settled place of living and a sturdy resolution to build up rather than ride around will restore prosperity to all who can undertake it. There can be no permanent restoration for those who will not stand hitched and contribute their own efforts to their own problem. The land is still fruitful. It gives mankind all its physical sustenance. But it does not give without price. It demands labor in return for yield, and sincerity, continuity of purpose in return for its salvation. — State Press in Dallas News.

THEATRE ROBBED

Two hi-jackers robbed a theatre manager at Temple Sunday night of approximately $1,100, representing the receipts of the show for Saturday and Sunday. Last year the same theatre, under a different management, was robbed in identically the same way and the thieves secured practically the same amount of money.

MOUNT OLIVE

Everyone is proud to say that this was another week end that it did not rain. Several in the community went visiting Sunday, as it has been muddy the last three week ends.

Jessie Neal spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Neal.

Minnie Cody and two of her girl friends from Mount Olive visited at home awhile Sunday afternoon.

Red Barrington gave a party Friday night and Lonnie McCarty gave one Saturday night. Both parties were well attended.

Mrs. Barrington's brother, Carl Bell, has been visiting her this week from Rising Star.

Stenton Richardson from Indian Gap, was in the Mount Olive community Saturday night.

Charles, Leona and Sammie Roberts from Cisco visited J. H. Roberts over the week end. Leona was driving a new Chevrolet coupe.

Aunt Sallie Barkley is still on the sick list, but we are in hopes she will soon be up again.

We are glad to say that Curtis Koen is recovering nicely from his hurt and is able to be up most of the time.

Gracie B. Mason visited school Friday.

Eva Koen has been absent from school this week, as she has the chicken-pox.

Everyone come to the program Friday night.

TEN THOUSAND LIVES

Each year, on the average, ten thousand people are burned to death and 25,000 are injured by fire in this nation. The ration of deaths to injuries — one to two and one-half — is extremely high. Each day fire destroys thirty-three lives. The records show further that there is a daily average of five school fires, five in churches, fifteen

MONTEITH NOMINATED MAYOR OF HOUSTON

One of the most vituperative campaigns ever conducted in a Texas city ended in Houston last Saturday, when Walter Monteith was nominated to succeed himself as mayor by a majority of 6,100 over Oscar Holcomb, a former mayor, who attempted to stage a come-back. The local interest in the campaign is that Monteith was reared in Belton and his father was a law partner of the lamented District Judge John M. Furman and a brother of Mayor Monteith was a candidate for district attorney here some years ago.

in hotels, one in a hospital, four in warehouses, six in department stores, two in theatres, eight in public garages, three in printing plants, and ninety-six on farms. This takes no account of fires in homes, where hazards are most apparent and where terrific toll is taken in the lives of children.

It is an interesting fact that the constantly increasing number of deaths due to automobile accidents has caused the public to demand action. Fire deaths, on the other hand, are mainly taken as a matter of course. Yet it is far easier to remove the causes of fire than the causes of highway accidents.

Defective flues, chimneys, heating plants, electric wiring and the like constitute the greatest group of hazards. They have caused the destruction of an army of people and billions of dollars worth of property. The record of fire waste is a black page in the history of American progress

Sea Sickness Conquered by Saxophone Symphony

ROGER RAULIN

Kiss and make up, why can't we Kiss and make up? I'm so lovely and I'm awfully blue, —

French Line Officer Says Jazz Has Banished Mal-de-Mer

New York City.—Jazz has banished the last vestige of sea sickness. No more will misgivings prevent the would-be traveler, always provided he can dance, from crossing the ocean, asserts Roger Raulin, Commissaire of the S. S. Paris of the French Line.

The reason? Why, if you dance to modern American rhythm, your balance centers have already become accustomed to a motion like that of the sea for the ocean heave and the foxtrot roll are closely akin, if we are to believe Mr. Raulin.

The Paris is known as the celebrity ship, because it has brought more European celebrities to our shore than any other vessel afloat. It has been Mr. Raulin's job to accustom many of these foreign dignitaries to the modern dances.

"The motion of American dancing accustoms the balance centers in back of the ear to the motion of the sea," explains Mr. Raulin. "I have told this to people coming to America and they have laughed at me, but on their return trip after months of dancing through their meals, they laugh no longer except with joy for they can then travel without mal-de-mer."

"I have one special tune, 'Kiss and Make Up,' that the orchestra plays when I am trying to introduce beginners to dance motion and show them how to protect themselves against occasional tilt of the boat."

To insure growers adequate returns for better staple, the Texas cotton committee in its annual session Tuesday voted to have a legislative committee named at an early date to consider enactment of a law enabling Texas to co-operate with the Federal government to have all cotton classed at time of sale by producers in all districts wishing such a service.

Charged with abduction and robbery, J. D. Conner, a former school teacher of this section and a graduate of Howard Payne college, was assessed a fifteen year sentence in San Antonio district court Monday.

Discovery of two skulls Tuesday lying in a burlap bag on the south side of the Rio Grande, near Laredo, started Mexican and American officers on an investigation.

A STATE INCOME TAX

A movement is under way to pass an income tax during the present session of the Texas Legislature.

The majority of economists and business leaders of Texas, however, are taking an open stand against the move.

Representative E. R. Barton of Collin county is a leader in the fight to impose an income tax upon the inhabitants of Texas.

This point of his radical plan is what alarms those citizens and state leaders who have visions of Texas making rapid strides in an industrial way in the immediate future.

A typical case has been cited by Peter Molyneux, editor of the Texas Weekly.

"That an income tax," says Mr. Molyneux, "places a penalty on mere residence within the state is proved abundantly by the single instance of Edgar E. Davis, who was literally run out of Massachusetts by the state government, which attempted to collect from him more than $300,000 of income taxes on wealth he had made in Texas.

A meeting of county judges of West Texas was recently held at Odessa, when resolutions were adopted declaring against any plan which has for its object the levying of any additional special taxes, whether through the creation of new forms of special taxation or the increasing of existing special rates."

Venson Whitburn visited with his aunt, Mrs. W. Morgan, recently.

If the weather is favorable, there will be services Friday night, Saturday at 11 o'clock, Saturday night and Sunday.

STANDARDIZED TRAFFIC LAWS

During 1931 extensive revision of traffic laws will take place in many states. It is an unfortunate fact that legislation probably will, as in the past, vary from state to state so that the motorist who crosses boundary lines will be in a quandary as to what is legal and what is not in the matter of driving an automobile.

This lack of state co-operation has unquestionably been largely responsible for the barriers in the way of accident prevention. Various organizations have sought to create a national code suitable to the needs of all states. A federal traffic ordinance has been suggested. This would not only be a violation of the state's rights principle of government, but would lead to the creation of another great federal department, extending into every community at the public expense.

WOMEN HOUSEKEEPERS

Most arguments on the relative abilities of the sexes turn on the question whether women are able to do "a man's work." In the American Mercury, Mr. Ralph Wille Parley argues that men are far better than women at "woman's work."

Women as a matter of fact, he claims are inherently unfitted for housekeeping. He indicates that on four counts: Women are unalterably conservative, they won't accept improvements, they aren't mechanical, and they won't follow directions. He illustrates his points with this incident: Their dirt washing. One woman bought and used a good rotary dirt washing machine. But at the first opportunity she scrapped it, because "it cluttered up the sink."

To the suggestion that men and women "swap places" Mr. Parley objects: "Just about the time that each of them get things going more smoothly—the wife making more money, and the husband running the home like clockwork on two hours a day and spending the rest of his time fishing or playing golf or poker—just about then the wife would catch on, conclude that her husband was a lousy leader, and make him come down to the office and work under her for his six free hours a day."

MILLIONS FOR ROADS

One hundred and sixty million dollars is now available for road construction, as a result of recent federal appropriations and sums on hand in the various states.

The appropriations have given the nation an almost unprecedented opportunity to advance the good roads movement and at the same time aid in bringing business back to normal. Prices of materials of all kinds are the lowest in many years, there is an abundance of labor and engineering talent, and governments can borrow money at low rates of interest.

A large part of the money is to be used in rural areas, where it will give the biggest return for each dollar spent. The American farmer has been waging a battle against a variety of circumstances, and a sound "relief" program is the construction of year-round farm-to-market roads. It is probably true that lack of adequate transportation arteries has done as much as anything else to hold agriculture back.

We live in a motorized age, in which quick low-priced transportation is essential to commercial and social activities of all kinds. Only a small part of our millions of miles of roads are surfaced and passable at all times of the year. Wise use of the appropriations will pay high dividends.

FACED WITH FEDERAL CHARGE

Austin, Texas, Jan. 29.—(UP)—William W. Tippen, former president of the First National Bank of Lometa, Lampasas county, was to be arraigned in federal court here this afternoon to answer to indictments charging violation of the National Banking and Farm Loan Association acts.

Tippen is charged with six counts of false entry and falsification of the comptroller of the currency, from September 24, 1929, to June, 1930. He was also indicted on a charge of misapplication of funds of the Lometa National Farm Loan Association, of which he was secretary-treasurer.

SOME TIME AHEAD TO TOMORROW

We hear that often sometime we will see that at this, make a visit to the sick neighbor, or send flowers to the living or to a dozen other neighborly deeds of kindness.

Procrastination is the ally of somnolence and so it's never done.

Yet, so much time is gone and first things are not given first place. Sometime says the man of the house will straighten up the old sagging gutters and repair the broken fences that are all so dilapidated and are the advertisements of shabbiness. Days go by and still it is sometime that is so hard to designate like "tomorrow" and lack of time is the alibi. The work is, one is still on the route of procrastination. Most people have attacks of this disease, but at this season of the year when the yards, barns and fences are crying out loud for improvements, it would be an opportune time to murder some time and invest one hundred per cent of time for awhile in labor and improvements on the home premises.

If every home owner in this progressive county would spend a reasonable amount now on the needed improvements, it would help make the wheels of business go around again and help to invite prosperity back home.

of the national executive committee of the American Legion endorsing the cash payment of adjusted service certificates that makes that subject a national issue. There has been much agitation in favor of this, but the Legion's convention in Boston last fall refused to approve it. The action of the committee reverses the previous decision.

The committee's change of opinion was brought about by the revision and wide-spread movement among veterans.

A large number of measures have been introduced in connection with cash payment. The Legion endorsed no particular measure.

There are upward of 3,000,000 service certificates outstanding. They have a face value of probably $3,500,000,000.

Among the proposals most discussed has been that of Representative Patman of Texas, who would issue bonds for meeting cash payments. Patman's arguments are in general those in support of a bonus—soldiers suffered during the war while others profited greatly. His idea is that putting $3,000,000,000 into circulation would revive prosperity.

It should be noted that certificates have a loan value which increases each year to date of maturity, and that half of the loans have taken advantage of this, most of them borrowed through banks. If a veteran's complete advantage of his borrowing privilege, he will pay interest during the life of the certificate about half its face value.

It is true that the business objections of the government are met promptly after the passage of the so-called bonus for the veterans not occur until 1924.

It is equally true that undue demands are being made on the treasury; that veterans' readjustment approximates a billion a year; that aid already extended to some 400,000 veterans through compensation, gratuity and hospitalization, that the last congress enacted a pension bill giving veterans with non-service connectivities pensions ranging from $12 to $40 a month, which greatly increase as the years pass. Also, that there are 464,000 pensioners of the Civil and Spanish American wars still on rolls, and that their pensions have largely increased at the last session of congress. — House Press.

REBUILDING NIAGARA

The fall of a great rock mass into the Niagara ravine, forming a big U-shaped gap in the contour of the American side, has had the effect of drawing attention to remedial legislation proposed to save the city of the falls by delaying the Canadian Parliament's ratification of the proposal aimed in a treaty framed by the International Niagara Board May 28, 1929, but it has not been reported out of committee of our senate in Washington.

The chief purpose of the engineering plans is to delay erosion by mid-curve of the Horseshoe falls by scooping out an armature channel in the form of a "Y" to throw the weight of the water over toward the center of the stream. At the same time the flow over the American side would be regulated and increased more even by underwater dams upstream. The cost, estimated at $1,750,000, would be borne by the power companies of the Ontario Commission, which would be permitted to divert 125,000 more horsepower at present for a period of ten years. Practical considerations thus unite with esthetic ones for urging forward the rebuilding of Niagara to work its way into a stretch of tumbling falls will take thousands of years. But within our own time shape and flow of water may be altered for the worse or otherwise by the work of the engineers, who should be done about it. — New York World.

FROM THE ENTERPRISE

The Sawyer family was here Sunday for a visit.

Miss Emma Harvey of Duren has been quite ill recently.

Mrs. J. L. Farmer is visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamilton this week.

Will Hodges and family of Levelland visited relatives and friends at Duren recently.

Mrs. Albert Downey is resting well since her appendicitis operation last Saturday in a Brownwood hospital.

Mrs. Burgess is recovering from a recent attack of influenza. She has been ill for the past two weeks.

Mrs. L. J. Smith and children spent last week at Rio Vista with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nanny.

Mrs. Bob Crockett of Zephyr is convalescing nicely, after a long seige with an infected foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tesson of Richland Springs spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Vaughn.

Mesdames J. B. Applewhite and J. J. Canady were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randolph in Goldthwaite Thursday.

Miss Loraine Crockett of Brownwood spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Crockett.

W. A. Henderson of Llano was a recent visitor with old friends in this section. He was formerly telephone man here.

Jerry Price had his cousin Sim Hasslev, and two friends from Waco down Saturday for a hunting expedition.

The many friends of E. L. Burkett will be glad to hear that he is convalescing nicely from a recent operation in a Temple sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wasserman and children and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wigley and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Crockett.

Mrs. Lawrence Smith and children returned home Sunday, after a few days visit at Rio Vista. Mrs. W. H. Nanny, her mother, accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wilson of Goldthwaite spent Friday with his mother, Mrs. J. H. Wilson. This is indeed good news to Mrs. C. R. Wilson's warm friends here, as it indicates she is rapidly regaining her health and strength.

Mrs. J. H. Randolph, Misses Dora and Florence Oden of Goldthwaite and Mrs. L. W. Wigley of Mullin visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Patterson Saturday.

G. W. Chancellor and family and J. L. Chancellor and wife attended church Sunday at Prairie and enjoyed a delicious dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Willis.

Blaké Lee, wife and son took a long walk Sunday. William's Ranch was their destination. He said the long walk was worth it and found the place interesting. The old rock hotel, the spring, the tree where a Mexican was hanged and buried beneath it and the old quaint cemetery.

Leonard Henry, a son of Wiley Henry, went hand in hand with "lady luck" recently. At Mexia, where he resides, a new Ford coach was raffled to help the unemployed. Leonard bought a ticket for a $1, one chance, at the new car, and lo and behold if Leonard Henry wasn't the lucky one. He says he is caught up with his luck now for some time.

The box supper at Red Top school was well attended last Thursday night. Judge Roy Simpson and District Clerk J. S. Chesser addressed the people. The funds were used to purchase play ground equipment. Miss Egg is the efficient teacher of this good school.

C. B. Case and family have gone to Tennessee. They left Monday morning, after spending the week end with her mother, Mrs. Dunlap, at Democrat. Mr. Case will be located near his aged father in Tennessee and he and his good family carry with them into their new home the best wishes of their large circle of friends here.

SCHOOL HOUSE MEETING

An enthusiastic group of interested patrons and citizens met last Saturday afternoon at the school building and discussed ways and means of repairing the old school building. A number of good talks and suggestions were made and it is expected and hoped that the old building will be remodeled and be used again at an early date. It is badly needed and will soon depreciate and be useless if left as it is.

PLAN WELFARE ORGANIZATION

Here is your opportunity to lend a helping hand to the needy at your own door.

A meeting will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at J. H. Randolph's building. Come and help this good cause. We plan to distribute used clothing and ask you for your donation without being urged. We need shoes, hats, or warm clothing of all sizes.

AN INTERESTED CITIZEN

METHODIST CHURCH

Jesus said in one place, "And I, if I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto me." If we understand what the gospel means, it is the good news that Jesus saves and meets our every need. I think we are inclined to emphasize our peculiar denominational views too much, thus taking attention away from the Savior Himself. Let us look at two of His characteristics as revealed in the two acts of His healing of the woman whom Satan had bowed twelve years and the girl of Jairous, whom Jesus raised from the dead. In these incidents we see His sensitivity, and sympathy. In the first instance He feels the woman's touch and that healing power went from Him, even if He did not know who touched Him. We take the lesson to mean that if we desire Him we may press through the hindering causes that confront us, and touch the hem of His garment and also be made whole. The woman was restored back to health, society and friends. Her suspicion that she was an outcast or some witch, had now been removed. She is also God's child.

In the other case Jesus' sympathy for the parents of the little girl that had brought twelve years of sunshine to the family, restored her back to life, back to tears, back to the temptations of the world. Some scholars say that the real words He used when He raised her from the dead were: "Little lamb arise." What a tender expression! And yet it is in keeping with the Master. We learn here that He understands. Sometimes our children are not raised from the dead, yet many times they are restored to us, when they are as good as dead. But if we recognize that Jesus is sensitive to our petitions, that He understands what is best, let us trust Him.

"Only trust Him, only trust Him now,
He will save you, He will save you,
He will save you now."

Faithfully yours,
T. M. MITCHELL.

FORMER CITIZEN WRITES

Littlefield, Texas, Jan. 26,
Dear Mrs. Patterson:
Thought I had better write you a few lines and let you know our new address, for we surely did miss the Mullin Enterprise last week. It is a welcome visitor in our home each week.

I am enclosing check for the Enterprise, for we sure want it to keep coming.

We are all well at present. Hope you folks are all enjoying good health. We are a mile and a half north of Littlefield and like our location fine.

Yours truly,
J. L. PETTIT,
Littlefield, Texas, Rte. 2.

Mrs. W. G. Shirey is convalescing from a recent attack of illness.

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

The legislature has begun work on redistricting the state, in accordance with the late census, which will give the state three more congressmen.

Many people, like many news papers, seem to feel and believe that progressiveness is embodied in the advocacy of any measure that calls for increased taxes and increased expenditures, on the part of the government, whether federal or the smaller political subdivisions.

In the city of Lubbock last Friday there was a novel scheme for raising funds for the needy. Every able-bodied person was called upon to voluntarily fast and give the amount usually spent for food to the charity organization to help the poor. Several thousand dollars were contributed in that way.

All of the legal technicalities that could be brought out by any lawyers could not save John Brady, the Austin lawyer, who killed his paramour in the winter of 1929, from paying at least a slight penalty for the crime, and he entered the penitentiary at Huntsville the first of this week to begin the three years term, to which he was sentenced by one of the Dallas courts. Brady was at one time a member of one of the higher courts in this state.

Former Governor Edward Edwards of New Jersey, who was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president in 1924, suicided in his home in Jersey City Sunday night. Ill health is given as the cause, while he had suffered some severe financial and political reverses in the last few years. He was known as the "wettest of the wet" and in his campaign for the presidential nomination stated he intended to make the government as wet as the Atlantic ocean.

Someone with a flare for Texas geographical mix-ups has found that Rusk is in Cherokee county, and Cherokee is in San Saba county; Henderson is in Rusk county, and Athens in Henderson county; Palestine in Anderson county, and Anderson in Grimes county; Crockett in Houston county, Houston in Harris county and Queen in Crockett county; Tyler in Smith county, and Woodville in Tyler county. He might have added that Pecos is in Pecos county, Taylor is in Taylor county, Dimmitt and in Dimmitt county, Comstock is not in Comstock county, Jenesen is not in Jnes county and Stephenville is not in Stephens county. — Abilene Reporter-News.

State auditor Moore Lynn recently discovered that no wholesale dealer in pistols in Texas had reported a sale since 1927. Records dating back to 1897 show that in no year except one have more companies than two made a statement of their pistol business. For some reason, ninety-six companies made reports and submitted $31,827 in gross receipts taxes on sales in 1919. The nearest return to this was made by one company paying $614 in 1929. Contrary to general belief, it is not against the law to sell pistols in Texas, if records of such sales are made and 50 per cent of the gross receipts is paid quarterly to the State Comptroller in taxes. The Attorney General has held, however, that it is illegal to lease guns and escape payment of the gross receipts tax.

MR. COBB'S LETTER

Dear Brother Bob:

Will you allow one who realizes he has passed the place where mental or physical activities can be depended on as in years gone by, present on his bill of fare something we think can and should prove palatable to thinking, ambitious, young men and women, who are not stopping to grieve over yesterday's failures, but who are seizing the fleeting moments of the "now", this very "now", to find such food for thought as will enable them to make today count in such a way as to present to them a lovely, beautiful tomorrow, so as to enable them to brush aside the failures of yesterday and with their God given intelligence climb further to a more sure foundation on which to build today, that will enable them to laugh at impossibilities which many others have allowed to break upon them with such force as to cause them to say, "It is useless for me to try. I will have to try something else, if I get anywhere on the road to success." Proving the breakers on which multiplied thousands of young lives have been wrecked and in many instances when just a little more perseverance and determination would have planted their feet on a foundation from which they could with great confidence have sung the English poet's, Robt. Browning's little song:

"The years at the spring, And day's at the morn; Morning's at the seven, The hillside, dew-pearled, The larks on the wing, The snail on the thorn, God is in His heaven— All is right with the world."

Alas! Alas! So many give up too soon. Too many are not willing to deny themselves of what others seem to be enjoying until they too can honorably, yet perhaps by hard lies, attain what they imagined others were enjoying, which caused them to give up the fight. "All is not gold that glitters," which the boy behind the bars for violation of law and the girl who has sold her virtue to try in some easy way to enjoy what their misguided imaginations led them to believe others were enjoying, will be good witnesses to the fact that all is not gold that glitters.

Good resolutions are always in order and one good one, strictly adhered to, is worth a million equally good resolutions broken. It is a sad thrust at human weakness to say promises, like pie crusts, are made to be broken. Observation and experience show that men are more prone to break promises made to themselves than they are to break promises made to others. As a matter of fact, each time we break a promise to ourselves we lower our standard of character in the dust. So to be fortified against such breaks we cannot begin too early in our thinking to see that a strong and enduring character is needed. Shakespeare said, "To thine own self be true; And it must follow, as the night the day, Thou canst not then be false to any man."

Be sure not to make too many resolutions and be sure the resolution you do make are ones you are capable of carrying out. Two things you can resolve upon accomplishing even this year—the building up of character, and the building up of your business. And the success of the latter depends upon the success of the first. Oh! That character! What a treasure, if guarded, fortified and prized as it should be. So many young folks are drifting into the cities, where many are already working on starvation wages, if they try to go the gates. Many have already learned what going the gates mean. It can't be done on the salaries they are getting, yet so many say it must be done, and when settled that way, honor, honesty and virtue tremble in the balance, often going down to the surprise of those yielding, yet fashion with its so called pleasures and to do like some one else, says, "It must be done." Oh! What a fall! What a tragedy! What embarrassments and heart rending at first, but the decision was made

Many boys crowding into the white collar jobs are likely to be filling no collar ones before many years.

The young men seem to believe in love matches, provided the girl has money.

The household experts tell us how to make applesauce, while the politicians give it to us free.

If you want to find the modern girl, don't waste any time calling at her home.

Too many people are talking on scapboxes, and not enough are using the contents of the same.

Some folks feel that when they pay a bill, they lose money.

The people feel that politics should be cleaned up, but it can never be done with soft soap.

It is difficult to interpret dreams, but when people dream of getting rich quick, it usually means they are about to lose money.

The poet says that in the bright lexicon of youth, there's no such word as fail, but there will be such a word as jail, if some of them don't mend their ways.

The people clamor for the high tide of prosperity, but when that tide flows in, they take to speculating and get in over their heads.

There is much controversy about the unemployed, and any way they should provide partners for the wall flowers at the dances.

Recreational centers are the thing for children now, but in former days they got along with spanking centers. — Squibbs.

DON'T

Put your summer clothes away dirty. Have Burch clean and press them. It will preserve the material.

and now the fall, the tragedy, the emaltreatment, the heart-rendings, the thoughts of home and mother, are all in the same boiling caldron of despair with more inducements to plunge deeper and deeper as they go. How sad! My dear young reader, are you going that way?

Is not the alarming condition shall we not say the apparently unyieldable condition of so many, enough to cause you to think, to resolve, to determine you will choose the better way? Will you? God, your maker, asks you why? The dying words of His son, our Lord, was, "It is finished," what is finished? A way for you to find the better way and become a recipient of all the good things necessary for your happiness and to make you so useful, your influence for good be felt by others. You might take desperate chances and drift with the bad, if there was no hereafter, but we think it doubtful. The elevating influences of Christianity, when properly lived has charms that commands the respect of all men.

In this disconnected line of thought we have tried to throw out the life line to danger fraught, tempted and tried boys and girls, hoping someone will take hold of God's promises, and see visions held out to them to improve the talent or talents given them.

We close with best wishes to all. H. C. COBB.

"PAINLESS" TAX GROWS PAINFUL

The gasoline tax has been considered a "painless" means of extracting revenue from the motorist.

There are signs on the horizon at present, however, which would indicate that the public is weary of being "painlessly" milked of its money. In the past eleven years the gas tax has totaled more than $2,000,000,000 and it is forecast that an equal or greater sum will be collected in the next four years.

The tax began with levies of one or two cents, but now the average levy is almost four cents and increases are being proposed in many states. Several states have diverted a share of gas tax funds to general purposes. It is reported that a group in Georgia is seeking to have a reasonable proportion—what that is—of gas tax money used to reduce property taxes. By exactly the same reasoning it might be advocated that the gas tax replace the income tax, the corporation tax, the insurance tax, or any other staple source of governmental revenue.

Every time we buy a dollar's worth of gas we get, in reality, about seventy-five cents worth. The rest of our dollar goes to the state. Where a four-cent tax is in effect, we must pay one cent to the government every time we drive three miles. No other commodity in general use, except tobacco, has ever been so over-taxed.

Unless the public puts a stop to the trend, it is not difficult to imagine a time when the tax will be greater than the cost of gasoline.

COST OF BAD ROADS

A survey by J. L. Tennant of Cornell University shows that the benefits accruing to the farmer from year round, surfaced secondary roads are almost unlimited.

Mr. Tennant summarizes his findings with the statement that good roads add to the farmer's income by saving time, by reducing expenses, by improving marketing conditions—all resulting in a more profitable type of farming. On the other hand poor roads often cause the farmer expense in actual cash. It costs him more to have his fuel and supplies delivered, to operate his motor vehicles, to go back and forth to town, to summon medical aid. The Iowa State college estimates that the average cost of operating automobiles on high type roads is 5.44 cents per mile; on medium type roads, 6.43 cents; on low type roads is 7.50 cents. In other words, it costs the farmer two cents a mile more to ride on a poor road than a good one.

Still another benefit is land values. Farmers living on dirt roads in New York, according to Mr. Tennant, estimate that their land would increase in value to the extent of $15.58 per acre if adjacent roads were surfaced.

Five, ten or twenty miles back from the splendid main highways that go from city to city, we customarily find roads essentially the same as in the horse and wagon days. This barrier to agricultural progress must be removed if permanent farm prosperity is to be achieved.

Say It With Music, Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Advise Honeymooners

New York City.—Ethel and Irvin Talbot are known as the happiest couple on Broadway. They are constantly being impudently by less fortunate couples to give their recipe for wedded bliss. They used to say that they hadn't one, but nobody felt that this could possibly be true, since they have managed to stay married a long time in a section noted for divorces.

Finally Mrs. Talbot revealed the truth. "It is music keeps us happy as well as friendly," she laughed. "We believe that people cannot have music and hatred in their souls at the same time. We are both musicians and we have never had a fight. Furthermore, it hasn't required any self-control to keep from quarrelling. We simply haven't felt like throwing things at each other."

"Perhaps it is fantastic but I almost believe that a couple on the verge of divorce really might stage a comeback by taking up music. Anyway, I have recommended it to two friends and they are going to try it. When I get results from them, I shall be able to tell whether my theory will hold water."

Mr. Talbot, who is musical director at the Rivoli Theatre, agrees with his wife. Mrs. Talbot is his unpaid assistant. She always helps when he is casing a picture and does much of the routine work of his orchestration. Before her marriage, she was a well-known musician in Saint Louis.

The Talbots cite "That's Why I Love You," a song which has been made famous by the remarkable orchestration Mr. Talbot has given it, as expressing their ideas and ideals of life.

"So far," concludes Mrs. Talbot, "our lives have not been marred by any awakening and we still feel that all is well with the world."

"I was just a girl of 18, my mother gave me this medicine and it did me a great deal of good. I was weak and pale. After I had taken Cardui a while, I felt much better. In 1924, my health was so poor, I felt miserable, and I had no strength to do housework. It took me a long time to get my willpower to keep up my pale and weak. I got Cardui and took it. LAMPASAS

According to the gauge at Bros. bank the rainfall Lampasas Friday and Friday amounted to 1.75. This added to other recent date continues an excellent season in and as well as adding to the water in the tanks section.

Lampasas school district recently increased by 100 acres, making it approximately twice the acreage heretofore included. The new territory comes from the school district and north of the Lometa road and the place of Chas. and then goes over to the City road.

According to information from the sheriff's office, there are making a habit of the Palace market and McEver market going off with them such products as hams, bacon, and other meats. Both places reported thefts two or three times within the past weeks.

Wachendorf states that school is in need of a wood stove in order that they properly prepare meals for the children who are at the school. The citizens association, working in connection with the P.T.A. is now feeding 35 children at the school and the meals are prepared on an oil stove, but it is in bad repair and a wood stove would aid materially.

Shirley Hooper Dry Goods Co., this city has made an assignment and the doors were closed yesterday afternoon. The name was associated with the interests of Lampasas thirty years. Their many customers will be glad to learn of their misfortune. Mr. and Mrs. Benton Roberson, operators of the business, have no announcement to make at present in regard to their plans. —Leader.

SAN SABA

C. McDowell gave the fire department a banquet at Mac's Monday night.

The weekly Rotary lunch was held last Thursday with the presence of the 10 ranking members of the high school as guests of the club.

A 60-pound little lady arrived promptly at 2:15 a. m., Sunday morning to brighten the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Park. Mother and babe doing nicely in a Dallas hospital.

Walter Wad shot down the best Mexican eagle last ever reported in this county. This lone eagle has a prey on the lambs and a number of years. It was shot on the Powell ranch and eating a 3-year old ewe at time.

For the first time in history, the value of fire drills demonstrated practically the San Saba Grammar school Monday morning. With cheers calm at their posts and children conducting themselves admirably, more than 500 kids from 18 different rooms gathered orderly and rapidly onto the campus as clouds of dense smoke poured through hallways of the building.

Fire originating in the boiler room was discovered by students in the high school building about 11:30 o'clock. The auditor had closed the boiler room doors and gone to lunch. High school boys leaped out the windows and flew to the scene. Fire and smoke had already spread off the room in which is located the fire alarm. So they ran from room to room spreading the alarm. —News.

COMANCHE

The office of city treasurer is to be abolished when the new officers take charge in April, according to action of the city council, made public this week. Mrs. J. B. Sloan, who was elected to the Comanche council, from a Brownwood hospital two weeks ago, was released Saturday, when her husband

Comanche dairymen are again to have a sweet milk market, according to arrangements perfected this week with the Goldthwaite Cheese factory, and Geo. Pate and the Comanche Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Pate started a sweet milk route from Comanche Thursday, Jan. 22, and will carry sweet milk until the weather turns warmer, every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Hearing a noise Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, Mrs. Turner Sanders, wife of the deputy sheriff and jailer, rushed to the jail window just in time to see C. H. Brownlee, an inmate, drop to the ground from the end of a blanket, the other end of which was fastened to the bars of a second-story window of the jail run-about.

Mrs. Sanders chased the prisoner until he jumped the backyard fence, she then rushed to the telephone and notified her husband at the court house and stood guard in the run-around until Mr. Sanders came and locked the other two prisoners in their cells. Brownlee was located a few minutes later under an old church west of the Comanche Motor company. — Chief.

HAMILTON

One of the saddest deaths it has ever become the part of the Herald-Record to chronicle was that of Mrs. Nora Harris, Martin, wife of W. W. Martin, prominently known people of Indian Gap. The death of Mrs. Martin occurred on Wednesday night, January 14, at ten o'clock.

As Walter Burton, traveling salesman out of Dallas, was leaving Hamilton last Tuesday morning at about ten o'clock, going south on Reagan avenue, his car collided with that of H. M. Weiser, driving out of the side street by the home of Dr. W. A. Snodgrass. Mr. Weiser had thrown on his brakes, but his car had not quite stopped, when struck by Mr. Burton's car in passing. Mr. Burton's car was overturned and wrecked and he was painfully injured about the head and neck, and was seriously shocked. — Record.

BROWNWOOD

On March 13 and 14 the county interscholastic league track, field and literary meet, will be held in Brownwood.

Fire of unknown origin early Friday morning destroyed the four-room home of Tilda Smith, on Hall street. The loss was practically covered by insurance.

It took just one shot from the pistol of Clarence Remington, 801 Booker street, to frighten two youths away from a bottle of milk located on his front porch early Friday morning.

Miss Lenevieve Weatherby favored members of the Monday Contract club and other friends on the club meeting day during the past week, entertaining with a delightfully informal courtesy at her home on Coggin avenue.

Equipment for accomplishing almost all experiments in peean work is being shipped to Brownwood by the federal government, it was learned Saturday from an authoritative source. ACCIDENT PREVENTION

The problem of automobile accident prevention, with its many related factors, will come in for much legislative consideration during 1931.

Many states have signified their intention of adopting laws requiring rigid examination of drivers. This is believed by many authorities to be the best single means of keeping the dangerous driver off public highways.

In a few states compulsory insurance legislation will be considered, but in view of the unsatisfactory experience of Massachusetts, it is doubtful if it will be passed. More generally popular is the "safety responsibility law," now in effect in New York, Connecticut and other states. This law provides that a driver, after causing an accident, must provide proof of his financial responsibility before being allowed to again operate a car.

Laws for periodical inspections of cars, for controlling pedestrians walking on the highways, and for banishing ancient and dilapidated motor vehicles, have likewise been proposed and will receive due consideration.

In the aggregate, the vast volume of suggestions for improving highway safety gives good reason for optimism. Every step taken, no matter how small, means that at least a few lives are saved, a few pieces of property protected. The public is reaching a state of mind that gives no encouragement to those who, through carelessness and incompetence, sow death along the highways.

A FIVE-YEAR SUGAR PLAN

The five-year sugar stabilization agreement which soon is to be signed by the most important groups of producers all over the world, is designed to remove from the market an existing surplus of 3,500,000 tons. This surplus had forced the price of sugar below the cost of production, with consequent hardship throughout the industry, especially in Cuba, where ruin seemed impending.

The usual quota system will be applied, each country being given its share in the total of world exports. At the same time, the surplus, which will be gradually fed into the market over the five years, will be a safety valve guarding against any unwarranted rise in prices. The agreement provides that no rise shall occur in excess of the cost of production plus a fair return on investment. If the plan succeeds, at least one commodity will have escaped from the vicious circle of overproduction, and, as for Cuba, it will be well worth the $42,000,000 it will cost the Cuban treasury to be once again on the way to economic normality. —Exchange.

COUNTY DEPOSITORY

Sections 2440 to 2453 inclusive of the Revised Statutes of Texas of 1911, provide that at the February term of the Commissioners' Court next following each general election, proposals shall be received from any banking corporation, association, or individual banker in the county that may desire to be selected as county depository for the ensuing two years, and that notice that bids will be received, shall be published by and over the name of the county judge once each week for at least twenty days before the commencement of such term.

In compliance therewith all banks and banking institutions in Mills county are invited to bid to become said depository and are hereby notified that all bids must be sealed and deposited with the county judge on or before the first day of said term of court, which this year is Feb. 9, and that all bids so received will be opened in public at 10 o'clock a. m., on Feb. 9.

For fuller information on this matter you are referred to the sections cited.

Respectfully,
ROY SIMPSON,
County Judge, Mills Co., Tex.

FORD SMOOTHNESS

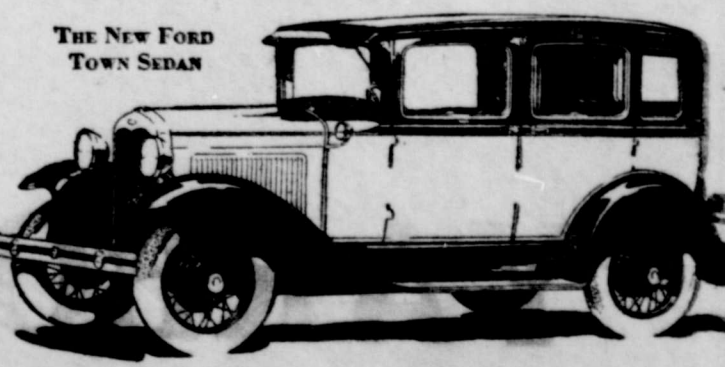

The new Ford has more than twenty ball and roller bearings

EVIDENCE of the high quality built into the new Ford is the extensive use of ball and roller bearings. There are more than twenty in all — an unusually large number. Each bearing is adequate in size and carefully selected for the work it has to do.

At some points in the Ford chassis you will find ball bearings. At others, roller bearings are used regardless of their higher cost. The deciding factor is the performance of the car.

The extensive use of ball and roller bearings in the new Ford insures smoother operation, saves gasoline, increases speed and power, gives quicker pick-up, decreases noise, and gives greater reliability and longer life to vital moving parts.

Other outstanding features that make the new Ford a value far above the price are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, three-quarter floating rear axle, Rustless Steel, the extensive use of fine steel forgings, and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

Conveyors Carry Ford Car Parts

Trains unload in the plant. Bodies starting through the shop.

Conveyors carry wheels with mounted tires over a line on which cars pass to completion.

The highly important part played by conveyor systems in all Ford Motor Company manufacturing and assembly plants is graphically shown in the above three pictures taken in the recently opened Edgewater, N. J., plant. One of the pictures shows how parts may be unloaded from freight cars within the plant only a few feet from the various assembly lines. Another picture shows automobile bodies starting their trip on a conveyor while the third view is of the conveyor system used to bring wheels to the chasses which are also moving on a conveyor. As indicated in the picture, a constant flow of wheels on which the tires have already been mounted moves around and over the chassis assembly line. As a chassis enters the section, workers in groups of four, each take a wheel from the hooks and fasten it to the chassis.

MUST REDUCE ACREAGE
"If the farmers of Texas plant as much cotton as they did last year, no power on earth can get them a decent price," said Carl Williams, cotton growers' representative on the Federal Farm board, who visited Texas this week.

Mr. Williams said that "world production of cotton in 1930 was so much greater than world consumption in the same season, that next August will show by far the largest world carry-over ever known. The carry-over of American cotton alone, will be almost, if not quite as great as that in the year of 1921. Cotton growers in every country have been gradually increasing their acreage and their production faster than the people of the world have been willing to buy and use their cotton. This has been going on for a long time, with the result that the world surplus has been getting bigger. It is made worse now by worldwide business conditions which have cut down the consumption of cotton much below normal. The Federal Farm board can not solve this problem. It can be solved only by cotton farmers themselves.

DIVERSIFICATION PAYS
The San Angelo Evening Standard reports that farmers growing a longer staple cotton in East Texas recently secured $10 a bale more than is paid for the short staple article usually grown in that area. Farmers, according to the Redland Herald, have learned that the way to prosperity lies not only through reduction of cotton acreage and cultivation of a better staple, but through diversification, use of adapted crops and livestock, low cost methods, living at home and marketing on a quality basis—in other words, through practice of the precepts contained in the A. & M. "safe farming" program. With that lesson learned, and put into operation, it is the consensus of opinion that a long step has been taken toward the goal of agricultural rehabilitation.

"WHERE YOUR MONEY BUYS MORE"

All accounts with us are due in full on the first of each month. No longer terms can be granted.

When people grow much of anything that other people will not buy it at a fair price the only answer is to cut down on production until consumption catches up. That is the thing which must be done now. There is no possibility that farmers of the South will or can, cut the acreage this spring as much as it ought to be cut. That means that every farmer ought to cut as much as he can.

"This matter is more important to the members of the Texas Cotton Co-operative association than it is to the farmer on the outside, because the member of the Co-operative has not sold his 1930 crop and therefore, he has the price of two crops at stake, whereas the fellow on the outside of the Co-operative has only one.

"I am glad to note the tremendous interest in this subject and in co-operative marketing, shown by the large numbers of people attending the meetings of the Texas Cotton Co-operative association this month. I am sorry that, with two thousand farmers coming to Dallas this week, I cannot stay in Texas to meet them and to go over this problem and other in which the Federal Farm board is doing its best to help. The Board can do a great deal to help bring about a reasonable degree of prosperity for farmers, provided the farmers themselves will fully co-operate in doing the job.

"No government institution or no government law can help farmers very much unless they are willing to help themselves. It is a partnership job for the farmer and Uncle Sam and if both partners do their part, we will see great progress."

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATED
Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Casbeer celebrated their Golden wedding on January 20. On that date they had been married even fifty years and both had lived in Mills county fifty-two years. They are natives of Texas and have lived on their home place in South Bennett community all of the years since their marriage. The Eagle hopes to be able to tell more about these good people next week.

We sure did have a Christmas, receiving many tokens of freindship. I am walking on four legs. I don't believe I belong to any beast creation. My wife is 80 and I am nearing 80. We are only waiting for our hands to be nailed to the home not with hands, eternal in the sky. We made our peace with God 60 years ago and have no fear for our future. Meet us in the beautiful beyond the skies.
