

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

THIRTY-SEVEN.

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1931.

NUMBER FIVE.

Harvesting Demonstration

Man Co., put on a demonstration of Harvesting machinery on Monday and there was a large crowd in attendance. Several hundred farmers and guests and most of them accompanied by their families. Many were in the crowd and were as much interested in the machines as in the show. The first model formed a line, a barbecue dinner was served and the afternoon show was given, as equally as interesting as the machines. The displays that attracted considerable attention were of primitive construction displayed by John W. of Rock Springs. This was brought to this county by the railroad and was hauled over by Roberts has had it in all of these years and does good work. The day was filled with interesting displays, illustrations, and entertainment of in-grain growers and the generally.

ENTERTAINMENT AT PRIDDY

Nabors Creek school play, was decidedly entertaining and well rendered at that place Friday night, will be presented at Priddy school auditorium Friday night of this week. The play will be used for the benefit of the piano fund of Nabors school and the people who are interested in the entertainment will see a nice program well rendered, but will help a good cause as well. These young people should be encouraged and it is expected a number of Goldthwaite people, as well as from other communities, will go to Priddy for the entertainment.

Marriage License Issued

County Clerk Porter reports one marriage license since issue and that was to a Hamilton county couple. Cyril New secured license to wed Miss Craig and the wedding was solemnized Saturday, the bride's uncle, Elder O. O. O. of Hamilton officiating. The young people live at Shive and the groom is a son of County Commissioner C. C. O.

SCHUBERTS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. S. P. Sullivan and Miss Myrna Miller entertained the Schubert Club in the beautiful, modern Sullivan home on Fisher street.

Upon entering the reception room all aglow with the beauty of cut flowers and sweet peas, tulips, carnations and ferns and the bird warbling his notes in song gave a very welcoming air to the guests.

Subject of study for the evening was "Noted vocal musicians." Sketches of some of the most noted singers were given, piano and vocal solos, trio and club music filled the evening as well as the soul full of harmony and appreciation of the talent of singing God has given man that he might develop and use it to his peace and happiness.

Beautiful tulips were placed on tables and spring colors of pink and green made attractive the serving of the salad course and ices, which had been moulded in form of flowers and a spray of sweet peas and fern as a favor. These favors were passed by little Constance Trent, taking them from the basket in which she brought them, in her quiet fairy like manner made them more attractive. Mary Ellen Trent, Mary Margaret Bigham and Robert Elizabeth Littlepage assisted the hostesses in serving in a very gracious manner, which pleased the guests very much as they are our little friends.

Included among the guests were Mesdames Fred Martin, F. P. Bowman, Lewis Gartman, Claude Eacott, R. V. Littlepage, E. D. Stringer, Jno. Berry, Sparks Bigham, Claude Smith, D. Albert Trent, D. H. Trent, Misses Ruby Lee Dickerson, Rachel Johnson and Bessie Crews.

Federated Clubs Sixth District

Goldthwaite delegates to the district convention of Federated clubs at Big Spring, representing the Art and Civic club of this city, report a most delightful convention and one that was profitable as well. Mrs. Roy Rowntree was the accredited representative and is also district chairman of Literacy for the federation, and Mrs. J. H. Saylor, president of the Art and Civic club, was an ex-officio delegate. These ladies were given much recognition by the convention and the individual delegates, showing that the good work and high standing of their club have been recognized throughout the district. When Mrs. Rowntree made her report she was heartily cheered and many members privately complimented the excellent showing of work made by the report. The club was also given honorable mention for the accomplishments recorded and notwithstanding it is in one of the smallest towns in the Federation, they were given recognition equal to the clubs in the larger cities. The Art and Civic club was given enthusiastic praise and endorsement for its campaign in sanitation, yard improvement and public health, while it was commended for the co-operation given other organizations in civic advancement.

The delegates were delighted with the convention and their report heartens the club for greater efforts for the future.

FOR SUMMER MEETINGS

Elder Lloyd left the first of the week for Mason and Crystal City, and will conduct a meeting at each place, to continue ten days or longer. He has other meetings scheduled for the summer, but will come home for a rest from time to time.

A Fatal Auto Wreck

Merlen Faulkner was killed in an automobile wreck near Priddy Tuesday about noon. The young man, aged about 20, was in the employ of Higginbotham Co. of Comanche and had been to Hamilton to carry a salesman for his company. He was on his way back to Comanche, it is supposed, when he missed the bridge over a ravine and his car, a Chevrolet coupe, fell to the bottom of the draw and when he was picked up by some passers, he was seen to be seriously hurt. They started with him to Hamilton, but he died before reaching that place. Nothing definite is known of the cause of the accident, but it is supposed he was driving very rapidly, as both doors of the car were wrenched off and flew fifty feet away, into a pasture, both doors going in the same direction. The young man is said to have been unmarried.

School Picnic At Ebony

The closing of the school term at Ebony will be commemorated with a picnic Saturday, April 25, and a most pleasant time is anticipated. Miss Mirla Guthrie, principal of the school, was kind enough to send the Eagle folks an invitation to attend and we hope to be able to spend a part of the day there. In former years the editor of this paper has attended picnics and other gatherings at Ebony and remembers each occasion with pleasure. Those who can be there Saturday can depend upon a good time.

ENDORSE HEALTH MOVE

We heartily endorse the movement for a health nurse and the protection and preservation of the health of the school children and the public generally throughout the county.

MORE MILES OF ALL-YEAR ROAD

The American Farm Bureau Federation states that road work has received considerable impetus from the making available of Federal funds, and that materials which permit the surfacing of more miles of year-round roads are being favored. A long list of states whose road specifications have been published show bituminous type surfaces, which offer both low original cost and upkeep expense, and imperviousness to weather conditions. A highway system which neglects the farmer is damaging to general progress. Secondary roads, bringing rural areas into all-year contact with the outside world, can help solve many of agriculture's problems.

The present time, with low material costs and plentiful labor is particularly propitious to high way progress. About eighty per cent of money spent for roads goes to workmen. Every time we build a road, we are making an investment that will not only be of assistance in relieving unemployment and aiding business now, but one that will pay profitable dividends far into the future.

MUSICAL CONVENTION

The members of the Schubert club went to Temple yesterday to attend a federated musical convention. Most of the ladies made the trip by automobile.

SCALLORN

I will feed the dear old Eagle a few crumbs this cold, disagreeable morning.

We are needing rain on the small vegetation and grain. The R. D. Evans family had a reunion last Sunday week. Will Fox and family from Lampasas, Joe Evans and family, Tom Tolton and family from Lometa, Albert Herford and wife and daughter, Dorothea, from Goldthwaite, were in attendance.

Mrs. Lewis Gartman of Goldthwaite brought a few of the young folks down to Walter Ford's Sunday evening. They had an enjoyable evening riding horseback and playing croquet.

Mrs. Cora Ford and Mrs. Sherwood Ford spent Monday in the home of Jess Baxter.

Elza Laughlin and wife, Mrs. Ora Black and Granddad Bradley spent Sunday in the home of Hardy Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Raferd Davis spent the week end with Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. Ora Black.

Chester Ford and wife and Mrs. Cora Ford spent Sunday week with Hassell Ford. Chester Ford stayed to help shear.

Joe Morgan attended the funeral of Mr. Horn at Lometa Tuesday.

Mrs. Earl Blake spent several days in Brownwood, Her grandfather, Mr. Bradley, accompanied her home.

Joe and Leonard Whittenburg and their wives sat until bed time with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hines were in Brownwood Friday evening. Misses Freda and Greta accompanied them home and spent the week end. They took them back to school Sunday evening. Sixteen of Mrs. Winter Stevenson's friends gave her a surprise birthday dinner Friday. She went with Mr. Stevenson to town and when they got home her guests were there and the table set with everything that was good to eat. Mrs. R. D. Jones cooked the birthday cake and had the candles on it. She received several nice presents. All enjoyed the day and wished her many more birthdays.

Ralph McMurray is staying with his sister, Mrs. Chester Ford.

Several will attend the working Thursday at the old Senterfitt cemetery.

Sunday School Class Supper

Tuesday evening the Fidelis class had one of their usual picnics. The cheerful glow of a wood fire made a pleasing and congenial atmosphere for those gathered around a heavy laden table to eat of the many good things.

After the feast, plans for the future of the class were discussed. Each member agreed to make a special effort to help the class and to solicit more members. A number of social outings were planned for the summer. The class always enjoys these occasions because they create a friendly interest. Each member resolved to be in place Sunday and bring some one.

FIDELIS REPORTER.

ALWAYS MEETS THE TRAIN

Somebody wrote to a newspaper and sent a picture of Fritz Kauh, saying that he had walked five miles twice a day to watch the passenger trains pass and that he had not missed a train in thirty-five years. The Eagle has received papers with the account and picture from various sections and yesterday received from Pete Moore a section of the San Francisco Examiner containing the account and picture. Whether the record is true or not, the young man has a lot of notoriety out of it.

Joseph Bowles Wins Debate

In the oratorical contest at Fort Worth Saturday night, in which Texas colleges competed, Joseph Bowles, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Bowles of this city, won second place. A special from Fort Worth says:

"J. W. Sprinkle, Fort Worth, representing Texas Christian University, speaking on 'The Realization of World Peace,' was awarded first place in the oratorical contest of the thirty-third convention of the Texas State Oratorical Association, held Friday night at Texas Christian University.

Joseph Bowles, Groveton, representing Southwestern University, Georgetown, won second place. His subject was 'America Calls to Arms.' Andrew Armistead, Baylor University, speaking on the 'Westward Way,' was awarded third place. The only other speaker was Charles Barnes, representative from Simmons University of Abilene, who spoke on 'The New Patriotism.'

Sprinkle was presented $35, the first prize; Bowles $25 and Armistead $15.

Judges were Cato Sells, Julien C. Hyer and Dr. H. E. Stout, president of Texas Women's College. Dr. E. M. Watis, president of Texas Christian University, presided.

Protecting The Child

Many communities are planning programs for May Day emphasizing child health and accident prevention. This is part of the general year-round safety campaign conducted by schools and various child-protective organizations.

At a time when accidents and deaths to adults have constantly risen, child fatalities have been on the down grade. This is the direct result of the teaching of fundamentals of accident prevention and good health in schools. It is an invaluable work, not only because of the lives now being saved, but because it is paving the way for safer streets, highways and homes in the future.

The astonishing total of accidents among adults is due largely to their refusal to take safety teaching seriously. The child's mind, being malleable and open, is extremely receptive to safety instruction when presented vividly and in an interesting manner. And that which is learned in the primary and grade schools, by the child, will be part of his character as an adult.

There is nothing esoteric about safety. It is the simplest of things, depending on a few common sense rules and principles. Care, watchfulness, courteousness—such factors as these, that can be exercised by every one, young or old, can almost wholly do away with accidents of all kinds. Carelessness, slothfulness and incompetence are now claiming thousands upon thousands of lives each year—more than 30,000 in automobile accidents alone.

POOR FATHER

Do you know of a subject that more unusually appeals to the men? Father can get into more trouble than mother can get him out of.

Poor man! He hardly knows which way to turn, yet he has to keep the wolf from the door and make a big political success. What is it all about? Ask the senior class and perhaps they will tell you more of the poor man in next week's paper. XX

TELL THE NEWS

If you know a local item tell the Eagle. Your friends will appreciate it.

BIG VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sykes and son, Floyd, returned Saturday from Ozona, after attending the funeral of Mrs. Sykes' sister.

Sunday school and preaching were well attended Sunday. Our pastor will be with us again the first Sunday in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dennard visited in Mullin Sunday.

The play given by the Big Valley High school Friday night was well attended and it was enjoyed very much. Clean, wholesome entertainment keeps up one's pep to cut weeds and plow.

Mrs. Morris Traylor and daughter were in Big Valley Sunday. J. H. Burkett, the state peacan specialist, was looking over the orchards here last week. He and his good wife spent the night in the Cockrell home.

Jim Hays has been elected principal of Big Valley school for next year.

Gordan Miller of Plainview was in the Valley last week.

Mrs. Robert Long and Mrs. Jack Attaway went shopping in San Saba last week.

Arthur Griffin and Edgar Greely of Trigger Mountain were in the Valley last week.

The fagots on the hearth are burning low, the chill of the spring norther is getting in my bones, my pencil point is dull, anyway this is all the news.

FARMER.

EBONY

The baseball boys went to Bowser Saturday to play ball, but they had played only two innings, when the rain began and stopped the game.

School closes this week. The play, 'Aaron Boggs, Freshman,' will be presented at the school house Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Reeves and Mrs. E. O. Dwyer attended the District meeting of the P.-T. A. in Brownwood last Tuesday. They report a pleasant and profitable time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth and daughter, Bernice, went to Brownwood Monday.

Mrs. Mack Reynolds went to Brownwood Saturday.

The P.-T. A. members enjoyed a tucky party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Singleton last Saturday night.

The J. R. Wilmeth family and Misses Ruth Briley and Mirla Guthrie were guests at the Dwyer home Sunday.

Miss Merle Haynes is at home again, after a successful year of teaching in the Locker schools.

Miss Briley expects to leave Sunday, to visit with homefolks in Dallas until summer school begins. She will be a student at Denton Teachers' College, this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyt Roberts visited in the Reynolds home Sunday afternoon.

An Extended Wedding Tour

Ralph H. Grant and his bride have just returned to Chula Vista, Cal., after spending a week with his sister, Mrs. J. J. Osterhout, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant. He lived here several months with sister and parents three years ago and formed many pleasant friendships, which were renewed on his visit. His bride, before her marriage, was Miss Vivian Beck with of Torrance, Cal. She was born in Gainsville, Texas, and has many relatives in the state, whom the young couple have visited on their honeymoon. Mr. Grant is an emigration officer, stationed at Chula Vista, Cal., where he and his bride will make their home.

Local Items Given Attention

Mr. and Mrs. Moody Perkins visited relatives at Zephyr last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randolph went to Austin last Saturday to visit relatives.

Mrs. J. C. Mullan spent last week end visiting her sons at Dallas and Fort Worth and reports a most delightful stay.

Mrs. H. J. Starnes and children returned to their home at San Marcos Sunday, after spending several weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Kemper.

Mrs. C. M. Burch, who has been in the hospital at Temple several weeks, suffering with an infection in her hand, caused by a rusty nail scratch, is getting along nicely and expects to come home in the next few days.

The cool spell of this week brought out winter clothing that had been packed away and several stoves that had been taken down were put up again. The frost Wednesday morning is reported to have killed some of the garden vegetables, but it was not heavy enough to do material damage to corn.

L. J. Gartman was carried to the Temple hospital Tuesday night, suffering with an advanced case of appendicitis. He underwent an operation Wednesday morning and his condition was found to be quite serious. Reports yesterday said he was getting along fairly well and his recovery was expected, although he was not out of danger.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage of Miss Janice Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haeckel Smith, to Mr. James D. Pulliam at Austin on Wednesday, April 15. The young lady frequently visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randolph, in this city and has attracted to herself a large number of admiring friends who are glad to extend congratulations and good wishes.

An Excellent School Exhibit

A display of the products of the manual arts and domestic science departments of Center City school has been on exhibition in the show window of Hudson Bros. drug store this week. The articles of furniture and decoration and the dress designs and other artistic needle work reflect great credit upon the teachers and their pupils. These exhibits are well worth inspecting and the Eagle speaks for them to be entered at the county fair in July.

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

Seventeen motor car loads of flowers were carried to the funeral of a New York gang leader buried Monday. He was shot and killed by an assassin a few nights ago.

A decline of more than 134 per cent in wholesale prices during March has compared with the previous month, has been announced by the labor department at Washington.

Results in Chicago followed the president of the American Glass Co. and his wife into their garage Sunday night and robbed them of jewelry estimated to be worth $30,000.

It was announced in Washington this week, by the secretary of commerce, that the United States leads the world in exports and there is no danger of having to take second place any time soon.

The tax of 3 cents per package of 20 cigarettes has been finally adopted by both houses of the legislature, after much discussion and lobbying. If the measure receives the governor's signature it will become a law 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

A traveler on the highway near Childress Saturday stopped to render assistance to two men who seemed to be having trouble with their car and he rendered more assistance than he expected, for they relieved him of $247 and left him standing in the road.

Secretary Wilbur Monday signed the $48,890,995 contract for construction of Boulder Dam by Six Companies, Inc. The secretary's signature was the final touch needed to start the giant project under way. The work is expected to take about six and one-half years.

Alfonso, deposed king of Spain, is living with his family in a Paris hotel at an expense of $600 per day, but the police of that city have suggested to him that he move on, as they are fearful that an attack might be made on him and his party by anti-royalists.

Thirty-four states let contracts for a total of 56,042 miles of road to the total cost of $80,000,000 during March. This amount was divided among the states according to the contracts awarded during March a year ago and resulted in a total employment of about 200,000 men. In a list of contracts Texas is shown to have awarded construction for 152 miles at a cost of about $2,000,000 and employing about 12,000 men.

Three hundred and forty Texans were burned to death last year, state fire insurance commissioner said Monday. A large percentage of the deaths was caused by improper use of kerosene and gasoline. Since Jan. 1, fifteen Texans have been burned to death by the improper use of kerosene and especially by starting fires with it. Mr. DeWeese urged persons never to start a coal or coal fire with kerosene. The commissioner said the practice of cleaning stoves with gasoline was a dangerous one. He asked motorists not to smoke in a garage or in their automobile while the gasoline tank was being filled. Since 1922 2,570 Texas men, women and children have met their death by fire, according to the department's records.

DOWN ON THE FARM

By O. G. H.

J. L. Coats and W. P. Weaver have been appointed directors of the Heart of Texas Jersey Show to be held at Dublin, May 13, 14, 15, and will attend a meeting at Dublin Thursday.

This organization covers 35 counties including Mills. At this show can be seen as good Jerseys as are exhibited at the Fat Stock Show or the Dallas Fair. All classes will be judged the second day and a large delegation from this county will attend. School boys and girls should see the placings. A visit to this show might inspire us to greater efforts to improve our herds. Erath county dairy men are satisfied with none, but the best. Why should we be?

Jim Soules, Star, has a few miles of fine pecan trees along Bennett creek and its tributaries. He is now placing 2,000 buds on these trees. That reminds us: That the County Agent and W. H. Oglesby spent today with Mr. Soules in 1921 and put on a few buds and placed some grafts. A few of these have and are now bearing fine crops of improved nuts. Now, Jim has taken up the work in earnest. Had he done this in 1921—but there is no time like the present.

Hoyt Coakrell, Melvin Doak, J. J. Coakrell and W. P. Weaver attended a meeting of the Texas Valley Pecan association at Hamilton the 15th. The proceedings were interesting and profitable. J. H. Baskett, D. S. Gray, C. F. Denny, J. R. Patterson, J. A. Barton and others, leaders and growers, spoke on methods of improvement and the trends of pecan culture. A barbecue was had in the afternoon. The next meeting will be held at Glen Rose in October.

Several hundred farm women with their husbands enjoyed the Romance of the Reaper at the local theater Monday, after partaking of a splendid barbecue dinner. Thanks to Fairman Co.

How could our people have come through the drought and depression, but for the pressure cooker. Those in greatest need are the folks that usually pass up garden and truck crops and do not have a canner. Now is the time to plant the food crops and to plan for the canner. And many farmers are planting a cane patch for making their supply of molasses. More interest is observed in growing a pig or two for the home supply of meat. Mills county people have found that it takes less of cotton to buy these supplies for the table.

College Station, Texas, April 13, 1931.

Mr. W. P. Weaver, County Agent, Goldthwaite, Texas: Replying to your letter of April 16, in which you described the pecan program held in Goldthwaite recently, will state that I will congratulate you on the completeness and success of this occasion. I have heard from other sources that the day was a success from every viewpoint. I regret very much that I was unable to be with you. Why not make this an annual affair in your county? It is something that your growers would look forward to and the thing will increase in interest and attendance each year.

Very truly yours, J. F. ROSEBOROUGH, Extension Horticulturist

COMPULSORY TRANQUILITY

From the metropolis of the far West comes words of a hard-fisted warfare against needless noise, while from the metropolis of the East peccolates the news of ceaseless harrying by the anti-noise beagles. In Los Angeles legislation is on the fire for preventing all preventable noise except such as may be caused by automobiles and street cars. In New York the scope of the crusade is still broader, for it includes automobile horns. The report is that while a year ago 95 per cent of the homes were objectionable, today only 7 per cent come under this classification. Here is something to crow about, or hunk about.

Specialists of the New York noise abatement commission declare that needless noises are driving thousands of people to neurologists and filling the hospitals with noise-racked patients, who did not even know the cause of their illness. It is predicted the time will come, when citizens will look upon noise abatement as they now look upon fireproofing, a necessity in the erection of edifices. It is a cheering prospect, especially to citizens whose nerves are made of some material less strong and rigid than steel. In Cleveland, there has been a small and promising beginning, but it should be greater and more concentrated. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

BUILD ROADS NOW

Those areas which build secondary roads now will be the centers of agricultural and small town prosperity in the near future.

Of all the farmer's problems, none is more serious than the lack of year-round, passable roads, and none is more easily and cheaply corrected. Secondary roads add the real value to main arteries of travel. A state or county may have the finest trunk highway in the world, but it is of small use to a farmer who lives a mile or five miles away, on an unimproved dirt road that becomes impassable with the coming of rain and mud.

Adequate roads, suitable for all necessary traffic, can be built and maintained inexpensively. Local materials, bituminously treated, make surfaces impervious to rain and snow. In this period of plentiful labor and low construction costs, almost all communities should be able to provide good roads for their residents.

In the past, many narrow secondary roads have been built from a mistaken idea of economy. These are considered a menace by all safety authorities because it is dangerous to run a wheel off the road shoulder. Full width roads cost but little more and are cheaper in the long run.

PENSIONS

The old age pension law is humanitarian in its object, and may prove itself profitable in its application, but to offer any man a premium on indigence is a doubtful way to build up self-reliance and the sort of self-denial that makes for independence in old age. Three hundred dollars a year from the county will be a windfall for many an old man in Idaho, as in every other state where such a pension is provided. Yet there is some ground for the proposal of Mr. Claude Callan, a syndicate writer who was reared on a ranch in southwest Texas. Mr. Callan advocates middle-aged pensions. He urges a pension for wives in their middle forties. Their struggle to remain youthful, he alleges, costs a lot of money. Their husbands, who give up the fight at about that age, are hard put to supply the money for beauty lotions and flapper clothing, therefore, a pension for married women in the middle forties is strongly urged by Mr. Callan. He makes it plain that he wants no pension for himself. He is not striving against the advancing years and looks it. But if the state can help the ladies retain their school girl complexions and college girl figures, by all means commit the state to that

Secretary Hyde, who recently returned from a tour of the drought areas, reports the drought broken, confidence restored, gardens growing, federal loans doing what they were intended to do, fields ready for crops and "nothing pessimistic in the present outlook."

This is good news for everyone. It means that with anything like normal rainfall during the next few months there will be crops, which will mean money, which, in turn, will mean renewal of purchasing power over the whole region. Nearly 190,000 Federal loans have been made to finance the new crop, and Mr. Hyde says this is estimated to be more than half the total number of loans expected. Moreover, less than half the money available for these loans has been used, so there appears to be no problem of financing in the offing.

But most striking of all is the picture Mr. Hyde draws of the once stricken area. There are clear skies, fertile, deep-plowed, well-watered fields, ready for planting, food for all, kitchen gardens showing green in virtually every farmyard, the countryside itself clothed in the warmth of normal spring foliage, and, most of all, a spirit of optimism, both among the farmers and the townsmen. Verily, the drought and all that spirit of depression which accompanied it seem to have been broken. — Philadelphia Public Ledger.

It looks like a practical and worthy proposition. Our addition is this: After the lady has passed sixty-five, let the pension be transferred to the old man, her husband. — State Press in Dallas News.

AMBULANCE CHASERS

In spite of all that the judges of the Common Pleas Courts and the censors of the Philadelphia Bar association can do, the evils attendant upon "ambulance chasing" and the systematic stimulation of accident litigation go on. The only difference between the conditions of a little more than a year ago, when the Board of Judges asked the bar association to make an investigation, and those now prevailing is said by a committee of that association to be that the participation of members of the bar in the objectionable practices has been to a great extent eliminated and that the "chasing" is carried on by the runnys formerly employed by lawyers for the work.

The bar association finds itself without disciplinary jurisdiction to deal with these persons because they are not members of the bar and because there is no law to prevent them from making settlements in the "negligence cases" upon which they thrive. As a result the committee reports, "certain of the defendants — corporation and minor insurance concerns — have obtained settlements unfair to the injured parties, and the enactment of a law making it a misdemeanor for any one not a member of the bar to engage for profit in transactions of this class is recommended." — Philadelphia Public Ledger.

RIVER SYSTEMS

Money expended in the development of channels and navigation on the Mississippi River and its tributaries is a capital investment by the Nation. Any project before being adopted by Congress must pass inspection by the engineers to prove that the traffic attracted to the river by the improvement will result in rate savings to the public, that will cover interest on the Government's investment and amortize it within a reasonable time, as well as the annual costs of maintenance and administration. In addition to this the revenues to the river carriers must be sufficient to attract private capital to the business of building and operating boat and barge lines. If the promoters of the transcontinental railroads had been forced to meet any such rigid economic tests, it is very doubtful if some of them would have been started.

One of the most interesting and perhaps valuable studies that is expected to come from the surveys of the tributaries of the Mississippi river system, authorized by Congress in 1927 and now being carried on by the Army engineers, is the possible aid to navigation improvements by the storage of flood waters on the source of streams and the use of that water for irrigation.

There is no doubt about water storage limiting erosion of soils. Its value to irrigation is admitted. It is doubtful that these two beneficial effects will justify the cost of storage construction except in a few instances. The effect of these potential storages on navigation and flood control would seem to be most important, perhaps decisive. — The Waterways Journal.

PALE AND WEAK

"I THINK Cardui is a wonderful medicine, for I improved greatly after taking it," says Mrs. A. W. English, of R.F.D. 4, Roanoke, Va. "When I was just a girl of 13, my mother gave this medicine to me, and it did me a great deal of good. After I had taken Cardui while, I felt much better. In 1924, my health was poor. I felt miserable, and hadn't enough strength to do my housework. It took all my willpower to keep up. I was pale and weak. I got Cardui again and took it. My improvement was wonderful. I can recommend Cardui to others, for my health was so much better after I had taken a course of the Cardui Home Treatment."

CARDUI Helps Women to Health. Take Theford's Black-Draught for Constipation, Indigestion, Bloating. Only 1 cent a dose.

FORD RELIABILITY. Long, hard use shows the value of good materials and simplicity of design. EVERYWHERE you go you hear reports of the performance and reliability of the Ford. One owner writes—"The Ford Tudor Sedan driving has covered 59,300 miles through all kinds of weather. It is still giving perfect satisfaction. Another owner describes a trip of 3217 miles in 95 hours over bad roads and through heavy and sleet in the mountains. "Throughout the tire trip," he writes, "the Ford performed excellently and no mechanical trouble of any kind was experienced. The shatter-proof glass undoubtedly saved us from serious injury when a prairie chicken struck the windshield while we were traveling at 65 miles an hour." See the nearest dealer and have him give you a demonstration ride in the Ford. Then, from your own personal experience, you will know that brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price. LOW FORD PRICES $430 to $630. SPECIAL PRICES ON ALL CANNED GOODS. We have bought a special lot of High Grade Canned Goods, especially Canned Fruits and can offer unusually low prices on everything in this line as long as the goods last. Better come and make selections early, as the goods will move fast at the prices we are naming. EVERYTHING FRESH EVERYTHING GOOD EVERYTHING PRICED RIGHT. JOE A. PALMER

LAMPASAS

The family of Lloyd Pierce,
who lost their home last Saturday night by fire, lost everything they had except the clothing they were wearing.

The April term of district court opened Monday with Judge Few Brewster and District Attorney Henry Taylor
and Court Stenographer J. S.
Hess here for the term.

The grand jury, in session
since Monday, returned twelve felony bills Wednesday afternoon. They are in session and will probably have other bills
before adjourning.

Sheriff A. R. Harvey killed
a mad dog in his back yard
Saturday morning, in the western part of the city. The dog was biting at everything it came in contact with and had every symptom of rabies. Another such dog was killed in the same neighborhood Saturday afternoon.

Lee Walker and his son, Cecil Walker, and Mr. Walker's daughter, Mrs. Martha Buske, and baby were painfully injured Tuesday evening about 8:30 o'clock when they were pinned under a truck load of wool on the Georgetown road about fifteen miles from Lampasas. Mr.
Walker and his son and daughter, with her baby, were driving a Chevrolet roadster enroute home from Austin, when they met the truck near the Rocky Creek crossing. In passing, the truck with its load of wool turned over on the car and pinned the occupants underneath. The truck was from Galveston and was hauling wool
from Lampasas.—Leader.

SAN SABA

Mrs. Ed Crawford visited friends and relatives in Goldthwaite the past week end.
Mrs. M. R. Weatherby, who underwent a serious operation
in a Temple hospital some three weeks ago, came home Saturday and is convalescing nicely.

Ed M. Dickerson went to Paris last Saturday and accompanied Mrs. Dickerson home
the first of this week. Mrs.
Dickerson had been visiting the old home for several days.

Commencing last Monday a daily mail service was given to Chappel post office and all the people on this Star route out of San Saba. This gives the Chappel people a daily mail service,
instead of the three times weekly
as heretofore.

In the closing session of the district P. T. A. here last week,
a deserved and distinctive compliment was bestowed on Mrs.
J. Mitch Johnson, former president of the San Saba local. She was unanimously elected and presented with a life membership.

The board of directors of the San Saba County Fair Associa-

been fixed for the second week
in August.—News.

LOMETA

Mrs. Buddy Jackson and Miss Mattie Kirby were in Goldthwaite Tuesday afternoon, attending a bridge party of Mrs.
Chas. Frizzell.

Miss Beatrice Casbeer entertained a host of friends last Friday night with a slumber party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. May.

Mr. and Mrs. Fields Jackson and Mrs. P. C. Jackson recently moved to Houston, where Mr.
Jackson has acquired an interest in a tailoring business conducted by his brother-in-law. It seems odd not to have some member of the Jackson family listed as citizens of Lometa since this has been their home since
the founding of our little city.
Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jackson came here when the town was moved from its original location
a few miles west and its name
changed from Senterfitt to Lo-

BROWNWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Ed B. Gilliam,
Jr., were hosts Friday evening
to members of the Ace of Clubs
and several additional guests.

Monroe Stewart, local cow-
man, happened to a very painful accident Saturday morning,
when a horse he was riding
slipped and fell on his foot,
crushing it and bruising him.

J. M. Bowman, who for several years and until recently,
was in the employ of the Crystal Ice company of this city,
has filed suit against the company in the name of the Central Texas Ice company for sums totaling about $6,000. In the suit Mr. Bowman is asking for a bonus of $300 a year and a salary since the year 1927.

What is sure to be one of the most unusual incidents to occur here in Brownwood in several years happened Friday
when $4,500 worth of radium
was lost at the Central Texas hospital, which sent all the scientific talent of the city on a search "for a needle in a haystack." According to Dr. Jewell Daugherty, of the hospital,
the lump of ray-giving metal was misplaced and with the aid of an electro-scope it was discovered at the city dumping grounds at about 12:30 by Dr.
O. E. Winebrenner.—Record.

JUDGE DISSENTS

Judge Ogden of Ardmore, Oklahoma, does not agree with the avowed rule established by Judge Lattimore of Fort Worth to require a three years wait for divorce by persons who leave Texas, on account of the requirements to secure marriage license, and go to Oklahoma or some other state to be married.

The Dallas News says of Judge
Lattimore's rule: "District
Judge Hal S. Lattimore of Fort Worth refuses to be officially a party to the tandem from bigamy involved in consent divorce to permit remarriage.
He announces that persons married outside of Texas can go somewhere else to get their divorce. His court has nothing for them.

The Judge suggests that the rule he is enforcing in his court should be made a law, but the fact that he has lawful authority to enforce it without further statute answers his suggestion. His rule, however, is unobjectionable. Divorcees sought in contemplation of early remarriage are 'pretty apt to be fraudulent in their claims somewhere or other.

These runaway grooms who can not pass a physical examination showing them fit to be husbands, and the foolish brides who permits themselves to make off to Oklahoma or Arkansas
for the wedding on that account, have very little claim on Texas for aid in being relieved of the consequences of their own folly. Marriage is not a lark and divorce is not a rain
check. But scores of Texas couples show up in Dallas and Tarvant counties in ignorance of what it means to take a marriage vow or to live up to it."

CITATION

The State of Texas
To the Sheriff or any Constable
of Mills County, Greeting:

Oath having been made as required by law you are hereby commanded to summon Robert Brown by making publication of this Citation once in each week
for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Mills County, to be holden at the Court House thereof,
in Goldthwaite, Texas, on the 1st Monday in May, A. D. 1931, the same being the 4th day of May,
A. D. 1931, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 30th day of March,
A. D. 1931, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No.
2331, wherein Juanita Brown is plaintiff and Robert Brown is defendant, and said petition alleging:

Now comes Juanita Brown,
who resides in Mills County, Texas, hereinafter called the plaintiff, complaining of Robert Brown, whose place of residence is unknown, hereinafter called the defendant, and for cause of action the plaintiff represents to the court that she is an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas, for a period of time of twelve months, and that she has resided in Mills County, Texas, six months next preceding the filing of this suit, and that on or about the 25th day of June, A. D., 1928, plaintiff was legally married to the defendant in Mills County, Texas,
and continued to live with the defendant until on or about the 14th day of February, 1929, he left the plaintiff voluntarily. She was kind and affectionate towards her husband, and the defendant disregarding his marriage vow, began a course of unkind harsh treatment and would
at several different times curse
and abuse the plaintiff and called her the most opprobrious epithets and names and never supported plaintiff and called her vile names with a course of unkind, studied vexation; harsh,
cruel treatment of which renders the plaintiff from ever living with defendant insupportable.

That the plaintiff is desirous of having said marriage between herself and defendant dissolved and declared null and void by a decree of this court, wherefore,
the plaintiff prays the court that defendant be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that said marriage between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and declared null and void, and that plaintiff be restored to her maiden name, Juanita Tyson, and for judgment for costs of suit and for such other and further relief special and general in law or equity, as in the premises she may be justly entitled to.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Goldthwaite, Texas, this the 30th day of March, A. D. 1931.

Clerk, District Court, Mills Co.

CENTER CITY

Well, just as we begin to realize the truth in that beautiful quotation, "For lo, the winter has passed, the rain is over and gone, the flowers appear on the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come," another cold wave is blowing over our land bringing a biting frost.

Both our Sunday schools were well represented Sunday, after which Brother C. M. Head spoke an interesting message to all at the Baptist church. We are glad to see such co-operation. Next Sunday Prof. Patterson will preach for us. Let's all go to hear him and let him know we appreciate his work in the community
as well as in the school room.

Have you seen the Center City
display in the window of Hudson Bros.? It is interesting and we are glad our school boys and girls have accomplished such needed work this year. Especially are we thankful to our teachers for the interest they have taken. We understand Miss Leota Simpson has been elected to take Miss Gladys Casbeer's place, while Miss Gladys and Hollis Blackwell go to Pleasant Grove.

Mrs. M. E. Casbeer was carried to Brownwood Tuesday morning and operated on that afternoon for appendicitis. She is reported doing nicely and we hope
she will be able to return home
in a few days.

J. M. Oglesby and family visited
Hugh Smith and family
Sunday afternoon and attended
Sunday school in Lower Big Valley.

Ellis Head is on the sick list,
but is improving.

Miss Velma Shaw of Abilene
is visiting her sister, Mrs. Brock McCasland and her mother.

A number from here attended the District Meet at Brownwood.
Al Truman Langford won second place in junior declamation and Eula Bell Chappell third place
in Essay writing.

There will be two more weeks of school after this. A play will be presented at its close.

Mr. Wild's son from Dallas and daughter from San Saba visited in his home Sunday. Mr.
and Mrs. G. D. Bird were also visitors.

Cary Owens attended the District
Singing convention at Hamilton
Sunday.

Ewell Venable and family visited relatives here Sunday. XX

Kloomp, twelve days over from Copenhagen—Alpha House.

Mrs. Pansy Hopscotch, fair, fat,
and forty—Myrtle Parker.

We will miss you if you are not there.

Some of our young people attended
the opening of the Wonderland Cavern at Richland Springs Sunday.

Nolan Horton of Wichita Falls
made a short visit last Saturday
in the home of his wife's parents,
Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Featherston.

MRS. C. R. WILSON

PASSED AWAY

Mrs. C. R. Wilson died at the family residence in the northern suburbs of this city last Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, after an illness covering several years.
She was given the best of medical and surgical attention and had spent some time at health resorts, but with no permanent benefit. She was a consecrated Christian woman, a devoted member of the Baptist church
and had the friendship of all who knew her, while her neighbors and other close friends were deeply concerned for her recovery and were overwhelmed with grief when her death was announced.

Mrs. Wilson was reared in the Zephyr community and after her marriage moved with her husband to Mullin, where they lived a number of years. They moved to this city several years ago and she surrounded herself with many sincere friends. She was a patient sufferer through the years of her illness and was conscious to the last.

Funeral services were held in the Baptist church Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. C. Ivins and Rev. L. J. Vann, and the large number of sorrowing friends who attended the service and joined the procession to the cemetery proved their sympathy for the bereaved husband and son, mother,
sister and other relatives.

the entire school to enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brooks and family visited Mr. and Mrs. R. R.
Bynum Sunday and then on Tuesday night Mrs. Brooks' mother, Mrs. Thompson, came in from Abilene, where she had been visiting another daughter. Her home is at Snyder, but she has been visiting for some time.
It seems that she has not visited Mrs. Brooks for two or three years.

Ben Geeslin and sons, Dell
and Glenn, came to Mr. E. M.
Geeslin's Tuesday evening. Mr.
Geeslin was on his way from Arlington to the Rio Grande valley.
He is moving to Hidalgo county,
so is busy with his plans and the work of the move. He reports some conditions rather hard in the valley. Crops such as cabbage are being plowed under by the acres. Mrs. Geeslin will not join him until school closes in June.

Mrs. Ellis and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cal
Head of Center City.

The same day Mrs. Venable
and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Geeslin visited with Mr. and Mrs. Huber Geeslin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Booker spent the day Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. C. O. Geeslin.

When I Was Lost

Sixth Grade

One day I got lost in a forest.
It was a beautiful morning when my brother and my little sister and I were up on a hill. We wandered over on the other side to see what we could find of interest.
When we started back we lost our way. We went on for two miles or more. Suddenly something hollered. We then heard something in a tree and went to it. We found it was a squirrel. We ran on a long way and wandered anxiously about all evening. When night came we made out the best we could,
making beds of leaves and then
tried to sleep.

Next morning we began trying to find our way home. We found some tracks of a team. We wandered back over the hill and began shouting and were soon

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

E. J. Shave of Star transacted business in the big town the early part of the week.

Mrs. N. Franco from Redwood, Cal., is here visiting in the home of her father, Mr. C. D. McLean.

J. A. Godwin was here Monday from his Long Cove ranch, meeting his friends and inspecting the harvester display.

San Jacinto Day was observed Tuesday by the banks remaining closed, but otherwise there was no celebration or observation.

Mrs. Floyd Mullan and son, James Newton, were here from Dallas Sunday, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Irwin, and other relatives.

Mrs. C. T. Bowman writes to have her paper sent to Star in future, instead of Los Angeles, Cal., where she spent the winter with her daughter.

T. E. Hamilton was here from Star last week end and made the Eagle office an appreciated call. Mr. Hamilton is one of the leading men of his part of the county.

W. H. Carpenter, editor of the Comanche Chief, passed thru the city Friday afternoon, en route to Junction to attend the Heart of Texas Press association meeting.

Rev. H. H. Dare and his wife and daughter left the early part of the week for Robstown to visit relatives and attend the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of his parents.

Most of the rural schools of the county have already closed for the term and very few will be carrying on after May 1. However, Goldthwaite and Mullin will continue until the latter part of May.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ford of Seallorn were pleasant callers at the Eagle office last week end. Mr. Ford was engaged in the barber business in this city for a good many years, but has now retired to the pleasures of ranch life and is pleased with the change.

Mrs. Roy Rowntree, who was a delegate to the Federated clubs convention at Big Spring, returned home Saturday, delighted with the convention. Mrs. J. H. Saylor, who was also delegate to the convention, stopped over in San Angelo on her way home, for a visit to relatives.

Miss Greta Little, who is a student in Texas University at Austin, has been added to the staff of the Daily Texan, the university paper, as a reporter. She is a host of admiring friends who know she will make a fine record in her work, as well as give class and dignity to the profession. She spent Sunday here with home folk.

A former citizen of Goldthwaite, who returned here a few days ago, remarked about the many changes he noticed and the further fact that every change was for the better. When a house is rebuilt or replaced it is an improvement over the old one and the new buildings are of a modern architecture. In fact, Goldthwaite has been on the improve a good many years.

Mrs. W. J. Ford of Seallorn exhibited at the Eagle office last Friday two eggs measuring 8 inches in circumference and weighing one-half pound each. The eggs were from a Rhode Island red hen, which lays one of the monster eggs each alternate day. As these are of such wonderful size Mrs. Ford is doubtful if they will hatch, but will likely try them out if the hen continues the practice of laying them.

Mrs. A. W. Savoy of Mullin was a most appreciated caller at the Eagle office Monday. She is a daughter of our lamented friend, Capt. M. S. Wallace and as Miss Myrtle Wallace she was popular with a large circle of friends in Goldthwaite, when the family lived here and her father was engaged in the furniture business. It was indeed a pleasure to meet with her and to know she remembers the friendship the Eagle editor bore for her father and the other members of the family.

BAPTIST CHURCH

A little information was given in this preacher by Arthur Cline that might make good reading as well as being interesting for some. He informed us that he had been traded by some of the Baptists to the Methodists, and in the deal the Baptist got Harry Allen, Well, we are glad to get Harry. We have always considered him one of our best friends. So the treasurer of the church will see him about the time the salary is due.

We have always understood that congress had two houses. The upper and the lower. The senate occupying the upper chamber, but we notice that the reverse is maintained at the county court house. Another noticeable thing about this senate, it never adjourns. As soon as we get the line up on these representatives and senators we will have something more to say.

We were asking some one the other day how it was that Hamilton Bodkin could drive a big car and carry two extra passengers along. We were immediately informed that the gentleman was mayor and that the city furnished all extras.

Some people wonder why we are having such hard times. That is very easy to understand, if the gentleman knew what he was talking about when he made this statement: "13 per cent of the families in the United States own 90 per cent of the wealth, and 87 per cent of the families owned 10 per cent of the wealth."

We cut a few weeds last week in our own yard and every fellow that passed had to say something about it. It is a strange thing that some people will not let a preacher alone when he wants to work. Really we didn't think we would have that to do, as the school marm had come home to stay, but we passed by Haynes Harrison's home the other afternoon and the lady of that home had the gentleman in the back yard digging. Just digging. The yard was perfectly clean and so the next day we went to work. But there are two men who live on Fishy street that positively will not work around the house, according to information furnished by good authority. One of these is the Sunday school superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school, and the other is the County Attorney. Both these men are just as energetic as they can be, but they just won't cut weeds.

We don't see why we can't have an old fashioned barbecue at the Baptist church and invite all of our friends. We understand that Mr. J. D. D. Berry has approximately one hundred head of the finest white faced cattle in this section of the country. That doesn't seem to me that the Baptist church is about to go broke. Why we can just take about four of those yearlings and pay off.

The gentleman that loiters around the postoffice, better known as "Jake," has purchased himself a new Chevrolet coach. As Jake is a little timid we will not put out the information as to why he bought a coach instead of a coupe at this time.

We had dinner in the J. R. Skipper home Sunday. We enjoyed the good dinner and the splendid fellowship of that home. In the afternoon we motored over to John Jackson's and joined them and then motored to the river for a little stay in the Attaway home. On making inquiry of some fishing parties as to when the sign was right to catch fish, a lady informed us that every Sunday.

Why don't you fellows that hang around on streets every Sunday morning come down to our Sunday school class of men and boys, and we spend only thirty minutes. If you are in town at 10 o'clock, drop by and worship with us.

G. C. IVINS, Pastor

If you do go to L. E. Miller's Jewelry Store, where you can fit yourself with a pair of first-class glasses and save money.

TAXPAYING MADE EASY

Paying taxes is to be made easy for the property owners of Knoxville, Tenn. The method devised will keep a steady flow of revenues coming into the city treasury and yet the drain on the taxpayer is to be lightened by allowing him to pay in quarterly installments.

To those who are able to pay all of their assessments in advance, a discount is to be granted, but, since economists estimate that from 60 to 75 per cent of taxes are paid by borrowing money, it can be expected that there will be many at Knoxville who will avail themselves of the installment option.

Tremendous wastage is involved in delayed payment of taxes. The amounts added to the tax bills themselves by penalties for not making payment within the prescribed time limit and the interest on loans runs into large sums yearly.

But it may be that the Knoxville plan does not go far enough. Why can not the tax payment be divided into twelve installments and thus be made increasingly easy? Then taxes would be met in the same manner as the monthly telephone, lighting and gas bills. Perhaps banks could be designated in various parts of the city for convenient payment.

As a start, however, the Knoxville method seems to be advantageous from many standpoints. Tax clubs have attracted considerable savings accounts for tax purposes are also workable for those who are able to save systematically, but the installment plan of meeting taxes at definite dates appears especially sound. Taxpayers made easy—that is a consummation devoutly to be wished.—Christian Science Monitor.

Carolina Woman Lost 47 Pounds In 3 Months and Feels Years Younger

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts for nearly 3 months. I have continued taking one teaspoonful in warm water every morning. I then weighed 217 pounds, was always bothered with pains in my back and lower part of abdomen and sides.

"Now I am glad to say I am a well woman, feel much stronger, years younger and my weight is 170 pounds. I do not only feel better, but I look better, so all my friends say.

BEYOND THE POOR FARM

On the theory that this is the land of opportunity in which only the lazy and shiftless fail "to get on" America has been punishing men and women for the crime of being old and poor. Punitive institutions, called poor farms, have been this country's answer to the aged who have reached the evening of life penniless and friendless.

While medical science has been adding years to people's lives, social science has done little to make the added years a time of peace and security. Nothing in the American psychology has made for more heartaches than this complacent attitude toward the aged.

A few states did pass old age pension laws. The bulk of them were satisfied with their poor farms. The federal government willing to spend billions directly or indirectly to aid industry, refused to spend a cent to aid industry's by-product, the aged poor. This fabulously rich nation was willing to stand with China, the only other civilized nation without some old age pension provision.

But apparently light is breaking through. Reports today indicate that seven states have passed laws since January 1, relating to old age security, thus making 15 states that have taken official action. Many of these laws, of course, are inadequate. Many of the poorer states will be unable to finance the old-age pensions at all.

The answer, of course, is federal aid.—Houston Press.

Nine-Tenths Preventable

Nine-tenths of all the diseases of the American people can be traced directly to constipation, doctors say. Constipation throws into the system poisons which taint and weaken every organ of the body and make them easy victims for any germs which attack them. Prevent constipation and you will avoid nine-tenths of all diseases, with their consequent pain and financial losses. Herbine, the good old vegetable cathartic, will relieve constipation in a natural, safe and pleasant way. For sale by HUDSON BROS. DRUGGISTS

Like a Symphony... the best Gasoline is Blended

IT'S primer knowledge to the orchestra conductor that each group of instruments in the ensemble brings a necessary influence into the symphony's finished blend of tone. In the unaccompanied "oomph" of the bass horns the overlay of melody provided by singing violins and mellow woodwinds is lacking. All must be blended by the baton of the conductor according to the expert formula of the composer before the perfection of the symphony is achieved.

CONOCO long has realized that harmony is as necessary to gasoline as to music. So CONOCO gasoline is blended—and balanced. One type of gasoline is no more satisfactory than is an orchestra of bass horns. So CONOCO refiners take the three types containing the elements of the perfect fuel and deftly combine them until they blend in absolute harmony.

That's why CONOCO contains: Natural Gasoline, for quick starting... Straight-run Gasoline, for power and long mileage... Cracked Gasoline, for its anti-knock qualities.

No single type of gasoline can contain all these qualities. They are present, though, in CONOCO Gasoline... blended there into a symphonic, harmonious whole, with CONOCO's master refiners wielding the baton. For, after all, it's in knowing how. That's why some musical directors, as well as some refiners, achieve fame.

You'll find this triple-test gasoline with the balanced-blend wherever you see the CONOCO Red Triangle.

REMEMBER THE LIVING

When a regular man, a hard rider on the trail of life, a chap who plays the game fair, cashes in and crosses the great divide, where all the hoot prints point one way, it is customary to place flowers in his lifeless hands and speak kind words that his ears cannot hear. We have vowed that if we have flowers for fellow traveler, we will place them in his hands now and not on his bier later. Why give flowers to a pile of clay? There's nobody home. He's done. Give flowers to your friends while they can enjoy their fragrance and appreciate your loving kindness. A modest violet plucked from the deep wood is worth more to a lonely heart, a sick soul on earth, than the most costly floral wreath placed upon the mound of clay after the soul has passed to God's beautiful garden of flowers. Place some flowers upon the bier if you care, but don't neglect to give the prettiest and most fragrant blossoms, while they are living. —Selected.

THE PEOPLE AND TAXES

Senator Bingham of Connecticut attests an obvious truth when he asserts that if more people had to pay income taxes there would be less popular approval of extravagant expenditure of public funds. It would be true all down the line of taxation, even to the annual levy for municipal budgets. The pocket nerve is the most sensitive in the entire body politic. It may be said that if it were not for the exceptions and lower rates for smaller incomes, the federal income tax, with its immense resources for government revenue would be impossible. It is there because the great majority of people are not touched directly by it. Of course, the income tax, like all other taxes, in the last analysis is paid by everybody. But, freed from the direct burden, the average citizen easily overlooks the indirect burden. The sales tax, which would be equally productive and more consistent with the earlier theory of indirect levies for federal funds, is unpopular because everybody would be required to pay a share, according to the proportion of purchases.

State aid from the Federal treasury is voted in larger amounts at every succeeding session of Congress largely because the majority of states are thereby getting a distribution of federal funds collected from the minority of heavy tax-producing states. If Senator Bingham's scheme of a universal income tax levy were set up and everybody had to pay a reasonably proportioned tax on income, down to a bracket inclusive of ordinary exemptions, there would probably be a broader and more effective popular appreciation of the cost of the Federal Government, and following upon it, a greater and more active national demand for governmental economy. — Star-Telegram.

TOLERANCE NEEDED

Why are you so exasperated at the mistakes of others? You yourself have made many mistakes and continue to make them.

Yet you can't overlook inaccuracies and mistakes even when you know they did not happen from carelessness, lack of interest or concentration.

Something out of the power of the one who made the mistake caused the discrepancies you have noticed and you are so annoyed that you take it out on the individual who makes the report, or is supposed to show a finished product.

Is it not also true that many of the objections you present are not the result of expert knowledge, but due to a personal whim?

Why should you consider your way so superior to others? Results are the important thing in any undertaking.

No two people get results by the same route.

Individuality, personality, education and experience all enter.

It is natural for people to do things in different ways.

Everyone can not be put into the same mold and produce the same sort of product, so make allowances for individuality and remember that the person who does not make errors does not do anything in an original way. —Houston Chronicle.

THOUSANDS of people from all over the world visit the Ford plant every year. See what they see! Hear what they hear! You'll say this is an unusually entertaining and instructive picture.

SEE ACTUAL FORD CAR SAWED IN TWO

Women as well as men show great interest in this revelation of vital mechanical parts that are seldom seen. Shows valves, pistons, cylinders — fuel, cooling, ignition and lubrication systems — how the body, seats and upholstery are made — how the different layers of paint are put on. There's also a cut-away Ford truck chassis. Many things you have always wanted to know clearly explained.

- ALSO SEE
- First complete showing of all the new Ford cars in this vicinity. Includes the smart new De Luxe Bodies — Ford trucks and delivery cars.
  - The Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield that will not fly when broken.
  - How Rustless Steel exterior parts are made, from the sheet metal to the ever-gleaming finished products.
  - Why Ford steel-spoke wheels are so strong and sturdy — how the wheel is welded in one piece.
  - How the Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers cushion against hard shocks and why they are called double-acting.
  - How the crankshaft and camshaft are made — from the original steel bar to final machining and polishing.
  - And many other features which make this free show well worth your time.

PASSING OF MRS. PARKER

Mrs. Mollie Parker died at her home in Pleasant Grove community Monday morning at an early hour, after an illness of several days duration and her remains were laid to rest in Pleasant Grove cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the sad service being attended by a large number of sorrowing friends of the family.
Mrs. Parker was a sister of Mrs. J. N. Keese and Mr. J. H. Verden of this city and Mrs. L. Covington of Pleasant Grove. The family moved to this county from Rogers, Bell county, several years ago and located in the community where her death occurred. Her husband preceded her in death by several years, but she is survived by a son and two daughters at Rogers and one son in the Long Cove section.
The bereaved family can be sure of the sympathy of all who know of their bereavement.

DAIRY PRODUCTS

"I can think of no better or quicker way of bringing about economic improvement for the whole state than to bring the dairy industry back to the position it is entitled to," said Governor Roosevelt of New York in a recent address before the Dairymen's League Co-operative Association. He then coined the slogan—"For health and economy use dairy products." Governor Roosevelt's pronouncement holds good for many other states beside New York, for the dairy industry is an important spoke in the business wheel.

The example set by the Dairy men's League would be a good one to follow elsewhere. This organization, representing 45,000 farmers, has given milk producers in its territory what they sorely need—the power of collective bargaining. It has, as well, benefited the consumer by standardizing and improving the quality of milk to the point, where it is said that New York's milk supply is unexcelled anywhere in the world.

The nation, of course, needs little encouragement to use dairy products. There is hardly a home where their necessity and value is unappreciated. But rising consumption of milk does not necessarily mean rising profits for the farmers who sell it. As a rule, the single farmer, selling his product to some great distributing organization, takes what he can get. On the other hand, thousands of farmers, selling together, are in a position to obtain and maintain a fair price.

Co-operative marketing—which is another name for mass distribution—can do for agriculture what it has done for a multitude of other leading American industries.

A REAL SAFETY EXAMPLE

An example in safety work that is well worth emulation is afforded by the Union Pacific Railroad system. The April issue of its magazine is devoted to that subject from the standpoint of the men who are charged with the company's safety activities.

A car department in its railroad shop worked 300 men for six years and three months without an accident causing the loss of as much as a day's time—another group of 218 men employed in a roundhouse worked 732 consecutive days without a single lost-time injury—600 men worked two years on a $5,000,000 depot construction project without a single fatality—during 1930, a total of 845 of the company's foremen completed a record of seven consecutive years without an accident to any of the employees in their department—during the past 20 years personal injuries at one of the company's locomotive shops have been reduced from an average of 50 to an average of 4 per month; a reduction of more than 90 per cent.

There are some of the high lights of the company's safety record. They are cited because they show, better than any argument, what continuous, conscientious work can do to reduce accidents in even hazardous industries. There is no secret to safety, nor any golden road to accident prevention—it is a matter of unremitting, intelligent effort, over a period of time. And the work pays for itself over and over again—in more contented workers, in greater and better production, and in less wasted time.

PAUL McCULLOUGH, Editor

Joe Palmer (to young bride)—How about some nice horseshadish.
Bride—Oh, no, indeed. We keep a car.

Certaineed Roofing can be had in a number of soft, pleasing colors and it is guaranteed.

Dow Hudson—Where are you going with that meal bag?
Blake—Taking a little girl out to dinner and they say she eats like a horse.

We have just received a shipment of wire stretchers, wrecking bars, post hole diggers and wagon and truck irons of every kind.

Ellen—Johnny, do you know who built the Ark?
Johnny—Naw.
Ellen—Correct for once in your life.

Old Mother Hubbard Went to the cupboard To get her a drink of gin. But when she got there The cupboard was bare. And her husband was wiping his chin.
