

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

VOLUME FORTY-ONE

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1934.

NUMBER EIGHT

Public Hearing Ordered Held

The order of the commissioners court calling for a public meeting to be held in the district court room Saturday, Oct. 27, which will be one week from tomorrow, to discuss a proposed bond election in precinct No. 1, was published in full last week. The meeting is to be held at 11 o'clock on the morning of Oct. 27. This election concerns precinct No. 1 alone and is for the purpose of securing funds with which to buy and fence the right of way for highway 74A from Goldthwaite to the Lampasas county line.

All citizens of the precinct who are interested in the matter should remember the time of meeting and be present, if they wish to be heard on the subject.

PLANNING A PARK

Several citizens, including E.B. Gilliam, county administrator of the relief, have in mind the beautifying of a plot of ground in the southern part of the city as a park. This land is owned by the city and is south of highway No. 81.

Some correspondence has been had with the relief office in Austin and a promise secured to have a plat made and the necessary engineering for the park, the object being to provide work for some unemployed.

Full details of the plans and arrangements have not been made public, but enough is known of the project to justify the hope that the plans will terminate in providing a much needed public park in that portion of the city.

One of the ladies clubs is also considering plans for a park at this or some other site and they are meeting with encouragement on the project and will likely make public their plans at an early date.

WELFARE PROBLEMS

There is to be a meeting and discussion in Austin Saturday regarding welfare work by the government program, under direction of the Fort Sam Houston officers. The San Antonio Light says of the program:

Problems confronting educational agencies of the Texas district of the CCC will be discussed at a conference to be held at Austin, October 20, under the leadership of L. W. Rogers, 8th corps area educational adviser.

Heading the list of speakers the program will be Maj. Gen. Johnson Hagood, commander of the third army and eighth corps area; Brig. Gen. Charles R. Howland, commander of the second division and Texas district CCC; President H. Y. Benedict of the University of Texas; D. E. Colp, chairman of the state park board, and Dr. E. O. Siecke, state forrester.

Topics for discussion include: "Selling the Hardest Prospects—Those on the Lower Educational Levels," by W. P. Davidson, camp educational adviser at Denison; "Recreational Activities," Capt. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., welfare officer. Capt. Stokes is expected to come to Goldthwaite for a visit, after the Austin meeting.

TEXAS CENTENNIAL APPROPRIATION

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson this week submitted to the legislature the subject of taxation necessary to provide funds for the Texas centennial.

Sponsors of the centennial have asked a state appropriation of approximately $9,000,000 to supplement funds promised by the city of Dallas and money which it is hoped can be obtained from the federal government for financing the big celebration.

Methodist Notes

We had an increase in attendance at Sunday school last Sunday. This was pleasing and indicates that with approaching winter we shall have a larger and more regular attendance, as it should be. With all the talk of financial depression and all that it means to our people, the spiritual depression is just as great, and as a matter of fact, more dangerous to our people. For one, I am disposed to believe that if we had never had the spiritual depression we would not have fallen to the depth to which we have gone financially. These things go hand in hand. They go down together, and if they ever rise, both will rise together.

Next Sunday closes our conference year. It has been a short year, so it seems to me, but so it is in all things as we face the decree of the calendar. Let us all be at our places next Sunday.

The conference meets next week in Travis Park church in San Antonio. This is a most delightful place to meet. The surroundings are historic. The hospitality of the people is ideal. Any who attend the conference will greatly enjoy it. Bishop Boaz will preside. He is a Kentuckian by birth and a Texan since childhood, and is glad of both facts. Texas Methodists are proud of him. For half a century he has been an active participant in most of the things which have been for the best interests of Texas. He has not only been a faithful Methodist preacher, but he has been a mighty factor in the educational realm. He has been president of Polytechnic College, now Texas Woman's College, Fort Worth; president of Southern Methodist University, Dallas, and one of the active founders of that institution.

Bishop Boaz was secretary of the Board of Church Extension, Louisville, Ky., when his name was advanced for the presidency of Southern Methodist University. Bishop Mouzon was appointed to find out if Dr. Boaz would accept the presidency of the school. In reply to the letter a wire was sent to Bishop Mouzon: "Boaz is available." So far, so good. But the receiving operator at Dallas did not read the message with a very great degree of care, so here is what Bishop Mouzon received: "Booze is available. It was Boaz rather than Booze, however, that presided over Southern Methodist University.

"Come all ye faithful" to Sunday school and church Sunday.

J. S. BOWLES

SELF CULTURE CLUB

Mrs. J. S. Bowles was hostess on Thursday afternoon at her home to members of the Self Culture club, who met for a most interesting program.

During the business meeting Mrs. R. J. Gerald was elected to membership in the club.

At the close of the program Mrs. Bowles, assisted by her daughter, Miss Mary, and Miss Love Gatlin, served dainty refreshments, featuring a color note of white and green, the club colors.

The attendance was unusually good, every member answering to roll call except Mrs. J. H. Randolph, who is ill. The next meeting of the club will be in the club room.

FIRE PREVENTION

The sixth grade had a fire prevention play last Wednesday in chapel. The name of the play was "Our Friend, the Fire Chief." The characters were Fire Chief Evans, Orville Huffman; Mr. Johnson, Aubrey Smith; Mrs. Johnson, Mary Louise McGlirk; Jack and Mildred, Mark Fairman and Norma Tyson; stage setting, scene, modern living room, time, autumn evening; place, modern town or city.

Miss Little also had four children who said fire prevention rhymes. These numbers were enjoyed by everyone. REPORTER

Livestock Quota Rapidly Filling

The government quota for livestock—cattle, sheep and goats—is rapidly being filled and will likely be completed in the main by the end of the week. Full information is given by County Agent W. P. Weaver, who says:

"One thousand condemned cattle are being bought in Mills county this week. It is believed that this will finish the government cattle buying. Mills county will have sold 7000 cattle by the end of this week and have 5500 of the sign-up left unsold. "The sheep buying will also be finished this week, the sales reaching approximately 9000, the greater part being condemned and slaughtered.

"Goat buying is in full-swing and will be completed in another week. The buying of goats by the government is limited to 64 per cent of the sign-up.

"No cotton or corn-hog checks have come in lately.

"The referendum held a week ago on the corn-hog program resulted in a majority for continuing the work of more than 12 to 1. The majority of farmers throughout the nation voted to continue the program through 1935."

EXERCISE REQUIRED

It appears that the authorities at Austin supervising the "relief" distribution in Texas think that able bodied applicants for "relief" should be required to do more than simply hold out a hand or basket to be filled from the government treasury. A report from Austin says:

"Adam Johnson, state relief director, has cautioned county administrators to observe the new law providing for a minimum expenditure of relief funds on work projects.

"The new state relief law provides that at least 35 per cent of the state funds allocated to any county shall be expended on construction, repair or maintenance of lateral roads or other work projects," Johnson said.

"Each county administrator is hereby advised that it is his duty and responsibility to see that this provision of the law is fulfilled at all times."

"Johnson stated further that it is not the desire of the state board of control nor of the state administrative office that work relief expenditures shall be restricted to the 35 per cent minimum.

"On the other hand, it very definitely is the desire of the board of control and of this office that every employable person receiving relief shall be employed in an approved work project to the full extent of his monthly budget.

"The commission has applied to the federal surplus relief corporation for 1200 cars of Maine white potatoes for distribution to Texas relief clients. The potatoes would be shipped in bulk to Galveston and distributed by rail to points in Texas."

WESLEY WORKERS SOCIAL

The members of the Wesley Workers class enjoyed a social at their park Tuesday evening. A large crowd participated in the jolly games and gathered around the soup pot enthusiastically when supper was called. Afterward volley ball and visiting among friends kept the crowd until time to go home.

CALL FOR BIDS

The state highway department has asked for bids on additional reinforcing steel on highway No. 81, which bids will be received in Austin and awards will be made within next few weeks. This steel will go for further construction of bridges on highway towards San Saba.

Polls Now Open

Wednesday was the day to begin absentee voting and this can be continued until three days prior to the general election, which is to be held Nov. 6. Those who expect to be out of the county or away from their voting precinct on election day should call on the county clerk and vote. The ballots for the election are already in his office and there will be no delay in voting. However, up to the time the Eagle was put to press no absentee vote had been deposited in the clerk's office.

It is important that every citizen vote, for the heavier the vote the larger will be the representation allowed the county in the political conventions. It is the general election votes that count, rather than primary voting, in apportioning convention representation. Besides this, it looks well for the county to poll a heavy vote.

Another important matter that requires attention from the voters is the disposition of the eight proposed constitutional amendments.

Be sure to vote.

NEWS BRIEFS

The Texas relief commission will help play Santa Claus to needy children this year. The commission announced that relief clients will be employed this fall to make, repair and distribute toys among needy children.

The work will be under the direction of the state director of women's work. The relief commission announced it would not, however, spend any money for materials.

A few hours after Edward Lickwala confessed Wednesday to sending a letter to Edsel B Ford, demanding $5000 under penalty of death, he pleaded guilty to an indictment charging attempted extortion and was sentenced to serve 10 years in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas. With near-record speed, Lickwala was indicted by a federal grand jury that heard only two witnesses. Within an hour after the indictment was returned in Detroit, the 20-year-old youth was arraigned before a United States district judge, his plea of guilty accepted and sentence pronounced. He will be taken to the federal detention farm at Milan, Mich., to await transfer to Leavenworth.

Twelve hundred "suicide striking" miners at Pecos, Hungary, came out of their pits alive Tuesday on promises of better pay, but expressed dissatisfaction with the offer which had kept them from dying under ground. One miner, speaking for his comrades, said: "The new terms offered by the company are no good. We accepted them because we were demerited." What the miners underwent below ground probably will mean suicide for some of them, for a few are in such critical condition from their privations and underground air poisoning that physicians said they feared they might die. Hospitals were crowded with 110 of the "resurrected" miners who, when they were brought out of their black pot, looked like starved beggars with their faces covered with whiskers and their clothes in tatters.

Cotton Crop About Gathered

It is estimated by farmers and cotton men generally that the cotton crop of Mills county is about all gathered. Some estimate as high as 90 per cent of the crop ginned. While the receipts can not be given as authentic, because of the certificates not having all been received, it is known that the crop turned out better than could have been expected under the circumstances and that the receipts from the crop, the excess certificates and the land rentals will put more money in the pockets of the producers than they would have received without the operation of the Bankhead law. There are some amendments to the law needed to prevent delays and other inconveniences, but these will be arranged before another crop.

The market is down just a little from last week and cotton is selling a few points below 13c at this place.

KIDNAP VICTIM SAFE

Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll of Louisville, Ky., kidnap victim of a former insane asylum inmate, was returned safe and well to her family Monday night.

Department of justice agents found the young wife of Berry V. Stoll, wealthy oil man, at Scottsburg, Ind., and hurried her back to Louisville.

Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., 22, of Nashville, Tenn., was named by justice agents as the kidnaper. He had been sought for questioning in the sensational case since Stoll found his wife gone and a $50,000 ransom note in an upstairs room.

Robinson's wife was taken in custody and along with her and Mrs. Stoll on the hurried return to Louisville were the Rev. E. Arnold Clegg, and his wife. The department of justice in Washington announced Mr. and Mrs. Clegg were not involved in the case.

The lead that enabled federal agents to rescue the daughter of one of Kentucky's wealthiest families came when Mrs. Robinson called for the $50,000 ransom package in Nashville. It had been shipped there last Friday by railway express, according to directions in the original ransom note.

Mrs. Robinson was trailed to Terre Haute, Ind., there the agents tried a ruse to get the woman into a taxicab by a disguised federal agent. The trick failed and she took another cab. The agents trailed along behind, following the car to Indianapolis and to the home of the Cleggs. Late that afternoon a large machine containing Mrs. Stoll drove away from the Clegg home. At Scottsburg, Ind., the agents overtook it and rescued the woman.

Mrs. William Shallcross Speed, was slugged on the head by a saw-toothed man who entered the home last Wednesday night saying he had come to repair the telephone.

Mrs. Stoll told her husband the former lunatic asylum inmate had shut her up in a dark closet after binding and gagging her, after snatching her from home last Wednesday for $50,000 ransom.

Robinson, who once worked for the Stoll Oil company is liable to the extreme penalty under the Lindbergh law. As amended it authorizes execution when the victim is injured.

Kidnaping and conspiracy to kidnap Mrs. Stoll, was charged jointly against the slender six-footer whose long, rambling, neatly typed ransom note breathed hatred against capitalists. His wife, Frances, and his father, Thomas Henry Robinson, Sr., of Nashville, Tenn., were charged jointly with him.

Mrs. Robinson was arraigned late Wednesday and sent to jail in default of $50,000 bond.

Sunday school 10 a. m. Sunday morning.

Preaching 11 a. m. Sunday morning.

B. T. S. 6:15 p. m. Sunday evening.

Preaching 7:15 p. m. Sunday evening.

Sunday morning we are expecting 200 in Sunday school. I am sure that every teacher has his or her force working to this end. It is suggested that the adults have 70, the young people 50, the junior intermediates 40, the beginner primary 30 and the cradle roll 10. Let us pray and work to this end. I will speak especially to the Sunday school workers Sunday morning. "The Glory of Teaching."

Sunday night we will change the time of our services again. The B. T. S. will meet at 6:15 and preaching at 7:15. This change is to accommodate the older people who want to attend the services. I will speak Sunday night on "A New Deal in Religion."

FRANKLIN E. SWANNER, P. S.—There will be a special announcement of unusual interest to all those interested in our church, Sunday morning just before the preaching hour.

BAPTIST W. M. S. MEETING

The ladies met Monday at 2:30 p. m. in a mission study at the church. The devotional was given by Mrs. E. B. Anderson. After a song, Mrs. Byler of Caradon, led the prayer.

After the teaching of the lesson by Rev. Swanner, Mrs. W. B. Jackson asked that each one begin to fix what they could for Buckner Orphans' Home, so it could be sent for Thanksgiving. The meeting was dismissed by prayer by Mrs. Jim Hays. We were happy to have the visiting ladies with us in this meeting.

DOUBLE WEDDING

In a double wedding ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hunt in this city last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Carson Edmondson and Miss Lillian Hunt E. C. Miller and Miss Nadine Donohoo were united in marriage. Rev. J. H. Frizzell officiating, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. All of the young people lived in San Saba county, except Miss Hunt, who was reared in this city. They all have many friends and well-wishers who extend congratulations and good wishes to them.

DUCK SHOOTING

The duck season is near and those desiring to shoot duck should know that they can only kill ducks in this county on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of each week, beginning next Friday, October 26, and ending Sunday, December 30. Every duck hunter must have a federal stamp, which can be bought at any postoffice at $1 each. Better be safe and buy the stamp, then be sure of the day of the week on which ducks are killed.

RECEIVING PELTS

Notice is given by the local relief office that they can now receive up to 2000 sheep pelts if the pelts have been off the animals as long as two weeks. The pelts must be thoroughly dried and in good condition. If the pelts have not been off the animals as long as two weeks and if they are not thoroughly dried owners are asked not to bring them in as they will, of necessity, be turned down.

BAPTIST MINUTES

Several of the Baptist churches of the county have not yet received their copies of the associational minutes. The secretary of the association has made the apportionment and the copies are at the Eagle office. Pastors, clerks or others interested are requested to call and get them.

The fall term of district court closed last Friday afternoon and Judge Brewster and District Attorney Taylor left for their homes in Belton that evening. They opened court in Belton Monday.

In a retrial of the case of Olen Langlitz, charged with burglary, the first trial having resulted in a "hung" jury, he was given a three year suspended sentence. A number of old cases on the docket were dismissed and several cases, both civil and criminal, were continued.

The next term of district court will be held here the first Monday in January and two weeks are allotted to that term.

A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

All the little friends of James Edward, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Horton, celebrated his sixth birthday. His birthday was October 12, but as all his little friends were in school Friday, he put it off until Sunday afternoon.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Walton and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Walton and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Collier and one child, all from Center City; Mr. and Mrs. Vestus Horton and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Horton and two children, all from Caradon; Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Collier and four children, Mrs. Marvin Collier and three children, Grandma Mason and three of Louie Karnes' children, all from Star.

When all the children had gathered in little James' home they were all ready for play. Mrs. Vestus Horton, Oleta and Vera Horton took all the little ones to a large shade tree, where they played all kinds of games. After they had played awhile Mrs. Horton gave the signal for all the little folk to line up and march into the kitchen to see James blow out the candles on his cake and help him eat it and drink lemonade, then look at all his nice presents.

Everyone talked and played until the sun was sinking in the west, so everyone wished James many more happy birthdays and went home.

A GUEST

ADVERTISERS HELP

The Eagle's local advertisers were requested by the P. T. A. ladies to insert a line in their ads this week calling attention to the carnival Oct. 27, and they all readily agreed. However, some of the advertisements had already been printed when the instructions were received at this office, hence the insertion could not be made. If, therefore, the announcement does not appear in some of the advertisements it is not because of a refusal of the advertisers to assist the ladies, but because the directions did not reach this office in time. The announcement appears in those advertisements that had not already been printed. Where the insert was authorized too late for this issue it will be made in next week's paper.

GOOD WORK APPRECIATED

The ladies Self Culture Club is indeed appreciative of the prompt response made by Mr. Dan Yates and the other city officials in charge of street work, and also the good work done by the street workers in clearing and widening the sidewalk on College street, near the intersection of Reynolds street, thereby making it possible for the children going to and coming from school to remain on the sidewalk and not be forced to walk in the street at that point, where they were in danger of being run over by cars.

The work was promptly and nicely done and the club sincerely thanks all who were responsible for it. PRESIDENT

ROCK SPRINGS

There was Sunday school at the usual hour Sunday morning. There was singing Sunday night.

Mr. Burnham and his men helped John Burnett to work on the Burnett hill this last week.

Mr. Burnett had his men working the road on this end of the line. Maybe it will rain now, as we are getting the road fixed. Wouldn't it be fine.

The drillers got back to drilling Wednesday. As usual they had bad luck. They are very busy this week doing their best to finish the job. As I close my letter they are broke down.

This community extends their deepest sympathy to Mrs. Kate Shelton and children in the loss of her daughter and sister. We also sympathize with the Tullos family in the loss of their dear wife and mother. May God's richest blessings rest on each of you in your grief.

The report got out in the middle of last week that there would be a party at Mrs. Eula Nickols Saturday night, which was not so. She got it stopped in town pretty well Saturday afternoon, but some came to the party anyway, to their disappointment. Next time it would be best to ask her so you will know for sure.

Some from here attended Leslie Shelton's and Mrs. Sid Tullos' funerals last week.

Homer Doggett went with James Nickols Monday morning to Center Point, to see about James' sheep. Mrs. Doggett and Janee visited their cousin, Miss Besse Hutchings.

Sunday afternoon Mmes J. C. Stark, Eula Nickols and W. A. Cooke visited Grandmother Westerman at Rabbit Ridge. Saturday was her birthday, so all of her children, but one daughter, surprised her Sunday night with a nice dinner and pretty gifts.

Mrs. Dan Westerman made the birthday cake. No wonder Dan is so healthy-looking, if his wife feeds him cake like that every day.

Miss Estel Doggett from Valera spent Wednesday night with Miss Johnnie Belle Circle.

Dan Holland and family from Richland Springs spent Saturday night in the Circle home.

Marion Robertson and family dined with his parents, and his sister, Mrs. Dunkle, Sunday.

Miss Ethel Tyson from town sat until bed time in the Nickols home Saturday night.

Mrs. Marion Robertson spent Monday afternoon in the J. R. Davis home.

Miss Bernice Traylor visited the Dewbre girls Monday afternoon.

Homer Doggett and family spent Sunday night in the Nickols home.

Mmes. Glenn and Eula Nickols and Fred McClary enjoyed a treat Tuesday in the August Kaus home in town. They were invited to eat fish.

J. T. Robertson, Woody Traylor and family, Mmes. Roberts and Dunkle went to Brownwood Friday to do their fall shopping.

W. A. Cooke has been feeling badly the past week, but seems he got better when his son, Horace, came home Friday.

Haskell Gatlin from Rabbit Ridge called in the Nickols and J. R. Davis homes Saturday morning.

Louie Ponder from Rabbit Ridge and J. T. Stark played 42 in the Webb home Saturday night.

Sunday seemed to be the day for fishing and visiting.

Some got out of stock water last week, as the wind failed to blow and turn their mills.

The rain was spotted Saturday. It just rained enough to settle the dust out here. I helped to cool the air once more after a few days of warm weather.

Fred McClary and his sister, Mrs. August Kaus, went to Dallas and Krum the last of the past week.

J. O. McClary and wife came home last Wednesday from Fort Worth, where they visited relatives.

Harvey Dunkle and wife had business in Big Valley Monday morning.

Hugh Nelson from town and Louie Ponder from Rabbit Ridge tried to teach James Nickols and Wick Webb how to play 42 Tuesday night. Hugh and Louie decided they couldn't be taught. They got beat badly.

Marvin Spinks and family from Rabbit Ridge, Dwight Nickols and wife and Shirley Nickols from town sat until bed time Wednesday night in the Nickols home.

Mrs. Woody Traylor and Christine spent Wednesday in J. T. Robertson's and the Dunkle home.

Shirley Nickols from town spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother.

Raymond Williams from across the bayou spent Saturday night and Sunday in the Robertson home.

Glenn Nickols was home this week. They found the pecans too green to handle. He is back on the drilling job for the rest of this week.

C. Ballard and Clifford Ballard from Moran visited Collier Ballard and Mrs. Minnie Ballard and family last week and a part of this week. We are always glad to see our old neighbors.

J. F. and Joe Davis and families spent Sunday in the Ellis home.

Clifford Hicks is at home again, after several months work close to Junction.

Thursday night Ed Hufstutler and family, Richard Souders and wife and Landy Ellis and wife and Sam Darwin and Mrs. Underwood from across the river enjoyed cream in the Hufstutler home.

R. C. Webb and wife visited in Wiley Holland's home Thursday.

Richard Souders and wife and Ed Hufstutler and family visited in San Saba county Saturday night and Sunday.

Some one broke into our friend's trunk, J. A. Stark, in the CCC camp at Burnet last week and took $20. Seems too bad to work hard for what we earn and then some one take it.

R. C. Webb and wife visited across the river Sunday. I failed to learn just who all they visited.

Mrs. E. L. Pass from town and Mr. Pass' cousins, Arthur and Walter Burton, of Cleburne, visited Mr. Pass and his mother last week.

Shirley Nickols went to Center Point Sunday morning to look after James' sheep.

E. L. Pass hauled Collier Ballard's cotton to the gin Friday. Collier happened to bad luck while in town Friday or Saturday, I didn't learn which day. He lost some money. Now don't misunderstand he gambled it away. He just lost it. He was loser, but someone else was fortunate.

Landy Ellis and wife sat until bed time in Collier Ballard's home Saturday night and Sunday night they visited in the Hicks home.

Joe Roberts and wife and children from town, spent Monday afternoon with his parents.

Mrs. Eula Nickols called on Wiley Holland and wife in town last Tuesday morning.

Most all of the men had business in town Monday. They left their wives at home for some cause.

Why don't some one write from Mount Olive, as the last scribe has moved away. Someone can take his place. We need to know the news from there. We can't keep up with Prof. Cooke unless you keep us informed as to his whereabouts. Seems like he has quit home for good.

The Opening

The Priddy high school opened its doors Thursday morning, September 20. In the evening a program was rendered and lunch served to the people of Priddy, the Lions club of Comanche and the orchestra members of Comanche, who entertained the people during the evening.

School work began Monday morning, September 24.

The Enrollment

The school enrolled 227 pupils. The senior class has 14 members, the greatest number in the history of the school.

Class Reports

The biology class consists of seven groups of two's. It made its first field trip to the Hohertz mountain October 4 and brought back several kinds of soil, many rocks and a few insects for the laboratory.

The junior class of Priddy high school has been organized. It was organized October 11, 1934. The officers who were elected are as follows: President, Irene Gromatzky; vice president, Carl Willman; secretary, Gwendolyn Hill; reporter, Lillie Henkes.

The civic class organized a Civics club. The officers elected were: Carl William, president; Ethel Hill, vice president; Edna Lubke, secretary; Velma Bufe, reporter.

The home economics class is getting along splendidly under the leadership of Miss Watson. All of the equipment has not arrived yet. We hope that it will arrive soon, so that the girls will be able to start on a larger scale.

The lower grades have been progressing well and new equipment has been put in some of the rooms, including lunch cabinets, which have been put in every room of the school.

Priddy School News

The ones who made the daily honor roll in reading all last week were: Fourth graders, Dorothy Nell Fickel, Ruth Hein; third graders, Emilee Harris, Willie Mae Steinmann, Bobbie Joe Long.

The ones who made the daily honor roll in spelling all last week were: Fourth graders, Ruth Hein; third graders, Elnora Wagner, Emilee Harris, Viola Frances Jeske, Francis Kunkel.

Crawford Hopper, one of the fourth grade students, was absent last week, because he went to Eola.

The senior class had its first social at Lake Merritt in the form of a chicken supper. Other eats were also taken.

Our Bus Line

Every one seems to be co-operating with the busses to make it possible for them to run as they should. The busses are loaded when they arrive at the school, especially the new bus.

Girls' Sports

The basket ball girls will begin earnest practice now that their court has been completed. They are the senior group.

The indoor baseball girls have been practicing and we hope that both will be successful. They are the junior girls, one of the physical education group.

The high school girls are divided into two groups during physical education periods.

One group of girls or rather the seniors, play basket ball.

Boys' Sports

The shoes which have been ordered for the boys have arrived. Johnnie Mason has been elected as captain of the boys' basketball team.

The boys' indoor baseball team seems to be stronger this year than last.

Constipation Symptoms Soon Go Away After Use of Black-Draught

Mrs. E. G. Ramey, of Henryetta, Okla., writes that she has taken Theford's Black-Draught about twenty-five years, when needed, and has "found it very good." "When I have a sour stomach and my mouth tastes bitter, and I feel bilious, sluggish and tired, I will very soon have a severe headache if I don't take something. I have learned to keep off these spells by taking Theford's Black-Draught. Very soon I am feeling fine. I feel that Black-Draught can't be beaten as a family medicine." . . . A REASONABLE CHARGE

The Eagle must observe its rule of long standing of making a small charge for articles written by persons giving their views on any public issue. Matters of public record or on current events are news, but private views in advocacy or opposition to political or personal issues come legitimately under the head of advertising. There is no good reason for expecting to give voice to one's views at the paper's expense. The editor pays a good price for this privilege, as the preparation of every line for publication costs real money.

Hale, Catherine Hodges, Clarie Lankford, Alleene Ross, Virginia Ruth Rudd, Sarah Dell Scott, Jacque Sebolt, Joyce Mae Weaver.

Straight A cards in all grades: Natalie Berry, Harriet Allen, Roselyn Berry, Thelma Henry, Laura Helen Saylor.

The high school library is indebted to Mrs. Windsor for a set of Ridpath's history of the world which she recently donated to the school. The books have been put in place in the shelves of the library and will be of untold benefit to the student body in their quest for knowledge.

Would it not be a fine idea for others to follow the example of Mrs. Windsor.

Physical Education

The high school physical education is progressing nicely for its second week of running. The tennis group is taking regular practices. The baseball group needs a ball before it starts playing. All the other boys are taking physical training under Coach Cloninger. The remaining girls are in the pep squad or taking physical training.

Chapel Program

Last Tuesday morning Rev. Swanner made a talk to the student body during assembly. His subject "Are You Going My Way" was very interesting and instructive.

Eagles Vs. Blizzards

Last Friday, Oct. 12, the Goldthwaite Eagles played Bangs and were defeated 12 to 7. The Eagles scored on a pass from Wm. Todd to Wallace Johnson, over the goal line. Bangs used passes for most of their gains, not being able to make much progress through the line.

Today the Eagles play Winters, who are reputed to be the strongest team in this conference. The Blizzards won the conference last year and have not lost any games this year. The Eagles will play them for the first time in history today. Be sure and see the game.

Seniors Meet With P. T. A.

Last Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 9, 1934, the senior class met with the Parent Teachers association in the junior high school auditorium. After refreshments had been served, Miss Cox was asked to introduce the senior class to the P. T. A. After acknowledgment of the introduction by the P. T. A., Doris Robbins gave a talk on the Texas Centennial.

The seniors are glad to have the Parent Teachers association behind them in their activities this year, and with their cooperation the seniors should be able to make the class of '34-'35 one of the best classes the high school has ever known.

Seniors To Have Booth At Carnival

The Parent Teachers association is sponsoring a Halloween carnival November 27, and has given the senior class control of the Bingo stand. The seniors will be given all the money, which is derived from this stand. The seniors will use this money to help complete their project. The money you spend at the senior booth will be used as a benefit to the school. The seniors will thoroughly appreciate anything you can do toward making the senior booth a success.

The seniors are very grateful to the P. T. A. for allowing them to sponsor this stand.

Organization of Sophomore Class

At a meeting of the sophomore class last Wednesday morning, October 10, the following class officers were elected: President, Forest Hill; vice president, Shults Faulkner; secretary-treasurer, Addie Mae Summy; reporter, Alice Doggett; faculty sponsor, Mr. Watson. We intend to do our part in making this the best school year in the history of Goldthwaite high.

Home Economics Club

On Thursday, October 11, both sections of the home economics class met immediately after school and organized a home economics club. The officers elected were: Ruth Obenhaus, president; Oleta Faye Shave, vice president; Alleene Stark, secretary; Fatima Faulkner, treasurer; Mary Louise Fairman, reporter.

We also elected a social committee composed of Deacia Shaw as chairman of the committee, and Clara Blackwell and Von Dean Geeslin as her two assistants.

At the first business meeting, we decided to meet twice a month, on Tuesdays. The first formal meeting will be held next Tuesday.

This is a new organization in the school, but as all the members seem enthusiastic, we hope to make the club profitable for all participants.

The Senior Project

For several years, it has been a tradition of the senior class of Goldthwaite high school to leave behind them something that will be useful to the school.

The senior class of '33-'34 started the project of seating the junior high school auditorium with opera seats. With the assistance of the Parent Teachers association and the business men of the town, they were able to replace forty-four of the old seats with new opera seats.

With the assurance of the assistance of the Parent Teachers association, the seniors of '34-'35 have decided to carry on this project. When this is completed, the junior high school auditorium will be used only for programs and will no longer be used as a study hall.

The senior class will appreciate the co-operation of the P. T. A. and the business people of the town toward completing this worthwhile project.

Pie Supper

The pie supper given at the school house last Friday night was attended by a large crowd. The pies were auctioned off by Joe E. Peck and Judge Gerald of Goldthwaite. The proceeds amounted to $50.73. We appreciate the help of Mr. Peck and Mr. Gerald in auctioning off the pies.

How Would You use An Extra Hour?

What would you do with an extra hour of school? Would you spend it wisely or foolishly?

The student who really studies at other periods would find this a period of leisure in which he could broaden his knowledge by reading books, papers, and magazines.

The student who spends the other periods making noise, writing notes, throwing paper-wads, and running around, would find this just a period to play more of his tricks and pranks in, and perhaps, be kept in.

Oh, well, anyway, it would cause the teachers too much trouble, so we'll not want another hour of school.

We Wonder Why

Vernon is so nervous. Dorman let his girl scratch his face.

Carlisle acts so mannerly around the girls. Alberta wears Floyd's ring.

June watches all cars that pass. Kathryn meets the mail.

Virginia's teeth are nearly all out. Alene has a "crush" on a certain boy.

Lore has been missing school. Dona is interested in all the boys.

Ona wants P. D. to start to school. Floyd acts cute.

Wayne smiles at Mary. Campbell keeps a board for protection.

Tarzan is so quiet. Adell is so crazy about the letter "C."

Reba doesn't write letters to the boys. Mary is so blue lately.

Estelle is always happy.

Humor

Carlisle: "I don't agree with the man who said that horses, like dogs, are man's best friend." Campbell: "Why not?"

Carlisle: "How would you like to go home and have a horse jump up in your lap?" Mr. Hale: "Why did Washington cross the Delaware?"

Morris: "The same reason the old hen crossed the road. You can't get any of those jokes off on me." Mr. Lawson: "What is the interest on $100 for one year at two per cent? . . . James pay attention!"

James: "For two per cent? . . . I'm not interested."

FROM THE FRENCH RADIO PROGRAM

STYLES IN NEW YORK

Styles in New York reflect every phase and flutter of feminine appreciation or preference. For instance, "shorts" won a great popularity on the tennis courts and the golf courses. Now they are going to be made a part of the permanent wardrobe. For that purpose, lingerie is being divided into two sorts—one, the feminine and elaborate, which has always been the case, and the other appropriating the "shorts" idea. This latter is completely devoid of any ornament and is intended to be worn with costumes for traveling or sports.

The new rayon material appearing in these shorts is specially sponsored for that purpose. It is quite supple, but does not stretch or lose its form. Colors for the new shorts are beige, rose beige, topaz, silver grey, medium and navy blues, grayish blues, chestnut brown and a whole gamut of greens from medium and moss green to deep greens and bluish greens. New York is a listen post for Paris styles. News flashes for houses which have services there state that a great effort is being made to revive the fan and predilections are heard that leading French houses believe that purplish tones have met with a real success. Now York is going in definitely for the high hat—it is seen everywhere. But here is a curious phenomenon—the high hat does not dominate the styles.

Turbans, berets and flat hats are also smart. One of the biggest and most famous of America's milliners said recently at a style function that all shapes will be the vogue. Here is the report of a stylist who is in touch with everything, "high, bright shades in lighter fabrics are to be worn under heavy winter coats through December and also January." The smartest thing seen recently in toilet-ware is a traveling kit of black moire; it closes zipper fashion and contains just the four or five necessary articles for a trip.

The Christmas gift idea is already sticking its head around the corner. Beautifully colored wrapping illustrated with appropriate designs and carrying Christmas greetings have made their appearance.

Elegant Simplicity — Trend in Stage Costumes — Important In Mode.

It's an elegant simplicity that characterizes the costumes in Broadway's theatres and one that promises to influence the general mode. Luxurious fabrics, including silk and synthetics in rich and colorful new velvets and satins are featured in these dramatic, but not "theatrical" costumes designed by outstanding American designers, who without sacrificing one whit in the glamorous effects desired in stage costumes have created stage clothes that the smartly dressed woman may well wear. Strikingly beautiful is the combination of white satin and black velvet in one of the ensembles. This is carried out in long slim skirt and short jacket styling of the white satin, with deep black velvet cuffs and vest, and worn with matching black velvet gloves and chic black velvet tricornie accented by a white tassel. Another stunning star costume is of white satin worn with a pansy velvet tunic coat, fitted at the waist and clasped at the throat and waist with rhinestone clips.

Even the chorus girl costumes have been freed from tinsel and ostrich fan strappings—substituting these elegant fabrics—the silk and synthetic velvets, satins and metal cloths—decidedly rich and colorful. Particularly effective in the final revue are the black satin sheath gowns with deep gold capes, lined with striking black and white print—the capes easily untied at the throat and falling back in fish-tail train. A group of gunmetal synthetic gowns, stressing up-standing shoulders in bateau lines and a pleated and split train at the back is evidence of this smart trend in wearable, dramatic stage clothes that are inspiring the clothes of the smartly-dressed woman this season.

PLEASANT GROVE

There was a large crowd at singing Sunday night. We were certainly glad to have all the visitors from other communities with us, and we invite you back. We are sorry to say there was not many out at Sunday school. Let's all try to be there next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Irwin and family attended church services at Goldthwaite Sunday morning and visited Uncle Newton Irwin and Tommie Irwin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Berry and family, ate ice cream in the home of W. A. Berry Monday night.

J. D. Benningfield and Raymond Casbeer of Center City visited a few hours in the Marvin Nesbit home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Moreland spent a few hours visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Miller and family Sunday.

Mrs. Flora Hodges spent the week end visiting in the J. D. Hodges home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Berry visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Virden Saturday night.

Mrs. Harvey Jeffery and little daughter are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Benningfield and family this week at Mount Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Berry and daughter, Bertha, Mrs. W. W. Berry and daughter, Pauline, Misses Gladys Casbeer, Annie Louise Shaw and Mrs. Flora Hodges visited in the Melvin Crawford home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Virden and children spent Sunday visiting her mother, Mrs. Ike Collier, at Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Hodges and son visited Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hodges Monday.

It was announced at Sunday school that there would be church next Saturday night, Sunday morning, dinner on the grounds, conference in the afternoon and church Sunday night.

Mrs. Charlie Berry and Mrs. Jeffery have been sick. We hope for them a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robbins visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Nesbit Sunday.

A few gathered in the home of W. W. Berry and enjoyed some music Friday night.

Several from here attended the party Saturday night at Jack Shaw's and reported a very nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hall were shopping in Goldthwaite Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Marvin Nesbit spent a few days last week in Goldthwaite.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Benningfield, was in this community Sunday.

Brit and Levi Berry were transacting business in Lampasas Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Irwin and Miss Hazel Lee called in the home of Mrs. Lee Benningfield Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Ross of Goldthwaite spent a few hours visiting in the Walker Berry home Tuesday afternoon.

Several of this community were busy Tuesday and Wednesday canning beef. SMILES

EBONY

Grandmother Hobbs of New Mexico is here to spend the winter, and is now visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bob Egger.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Russell and son of Abilene are visiting Mr. Russell's parents, Mr. and Meek Russell.

The larger boys and girls of our school attended the football game at Indian Creek Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Egger and Patsy of Brownwood and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hanna and Erva June of Oakland, attended singing here Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer McNurten are occupying the Ben Egger place for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Crowder and sons, Nummie and F. L. Jr., of Oakland, ate dinner at the Wilmett home Sunday after church. W. M. Clements went to Longview Saturday to be a witness in a court case there.

Alvin Griffin of Electra, who is attending Howard Payne college at Brownwood, spent the week end with his uncle, C. H. Griffin.

Little Norville McNurten fell into a pot of hot soap last week and burned his hand and arm severely, but the doctor says he is getting along all right.

Miss Letty Crowder of Oakland visited her cousin, Miss Monta Ray Crowder, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Crowder and Billie Burl have moved into the Will Crowder house. Mr. and Mrs. Will Crowder and children have moved to their home at Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Josh Philen, Noel Haynes and Wayne Roberts attended the ball game at Indian Creek Friday afternoon.

Lillard Wilmett, Gene Wilmett, R. M. Haynes and Noel Haynes attended the game at Howard Payne college Friday night.

Clayton Egger, a student of Howard Payne college, spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Effie Egger.

Mrs. P. R. Reid, trustee and patron of the school, requests that all interested persons meet at the school house Friday night, October 19, to organize the Parent Teacher association for this year.

The drouth holds on in our community, and many people are having to drive their stock to water.

Remember, that Bro. Jodie Caldwell of Howard Payne college, who preached here the first Sunday, left an appointment to preach here again next Saturday night, Sunday morning and night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith of Ridge attended singing here Sunday night.

2 for 1—HUDSON BROS.

CHAPPEL HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Liss Walker, Arnold, Kathleen and M. C., all visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grelle and family at Lampasas Sunday. Mrs. Walker and Arnold extended their visit on to Austin to be with friends and relatives a few days.

R. Buffe is doing some repair work on his dwelling, which adds very much to the looks and comfort of it.

Arnold Walker, who has served 12 months in the CCC camps, came in last week from Chislo mountains, where he has been for the last five months. He says he sure was glad to get back in to Texas, where he could hear a rooster crow once more.

A Lorenz has started on the next crop, by breaking land now.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Buffe and family visited his brother, Fritz Buffe, and wife Sunday night.

It is useless to mention those who had business in town Saturday, for they were all there and seemed to be happy. I guess it was because they saw it rain.

We sure miss the old Mount Olive correspondent news items. While we could not say if he was a good writer or a "Poer" writer, but to be safe will say he was both.

Norris Crook says when it comes to a skin game he is there. Especially when it is skinning goats.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Fickel and family visited in the Walker home Saturday night and were entertained with music and a great game of forty-two.

MOUNT OLIVE HIGH SCHOOL

School Opens
School opened October 8, with an enrollment of 54. The teachers and pupils seemed to be very enthusiastic over the prospects of the coming year. All the trustees were present and promised their loyal support. Several interesting talks were made.

Tenth Grade
Saturday, October 13, the trustees, teachers and some of the patrons of Mount Olive met to discuss the possibilities of adding the tenth grade to the school. By Thursday the county board had granted our request.

Mr. Smith Goes to Brownwood
Our principal, Mr. Smith, went to Brownwood Saturday to see the state supervisor. She advised him as how to divide the work to the ten grades. She stated she would be glad to give him further assistance if he needed it.

Seniors Organize
Monday the seniors met in Mr. Smith's room to organize the class and elect officers for the coming year.

The following officers were elected: Mildred Wilcox, president; Eva Koen, secretary and treasurer; Clinton Harris, reporter; Miss Blackwell, sponsor.

To the County Board
We wish to thank you for giving us the opportunity to have the tenth grade. We realize it means extra work for the teachers and school, but we intend to do our very best to be worthy of the trust you and the community are placing in us. To some it means a chance to go to school where otherwise they could not go and we intend to work hard and prepare ourselves for the high school we hope to attend next year. —The Tenth Grade.

Basket Ball Plans
The boys met and asked Mr. Cooke to assist Mr. Smith as their coach for the coming year. The coaches have already bought new balls and back stops. Every one is looking forward to a winning team this year.

Look out for our team!!!
Girls Basket Ball
The girls met and elected Vera Koen as their captain. The Mount Olive girls have a good line-up and from all prospects will have a better team than they had last year. They also have a new ball and goals.

Farewell
Mount Olive was made sad Monday when the McCarty girls checked in their books. They are moving to Big Valley. Vada Lee and Myrl will be missed by the high school students and basket ball girls. Earlene and Anelita will be missed by the primary room. Big Valley is fortunate in our loss.

To Mr. Cooke.
We're very glad to have as our coach this year. Thanks for the new ball, back board and goals. We intend to give you our loyal support and to obey you in every way.

Inspector Visits Us
Tuesday Miss Gilstrap, the state inspector, visited us. She seemed very pleased with the conditions of the school and agreed to help us all she could.

NOTICE
Everyone is invited to attend the pie supper at the school house a week from tonight (Friday night), October 26. We want to raise money to pay for some school material.

We also intend to organize a P. T. A. and be sure to come and bring a pie!!!
Primary Room.
Well, we have a new room this year, but we still have our teacher, Miss Blackwell. And from the talk of the fourth grade pupils they hated to leave our room. However, we know they will like Mr. Cooke just as well.

Our room is very attractive this year. We have several pot plants and some water lilies, a Mickey mouse, several gold fish and a real live turtle that Miss Blackwell got from the World's Fair. His back is painted white, "A Century of Progress" written across his back in red letters and three small roses painted on him. We keep him in a bowl with some pretty rocks and shells. "There's A Little Dutch Boy and a Little Dutch Girl" made of wood, painted red and white, that stands at the front of the room and lastly—we have seventeen very good boys and girls as fellow classmates. We're very glad to have Ural and Adeen Lawson and Clovis Qualls from

BIG VALLEY

A nice shower fell in the valley Saturday evening. Everybody seems to be feeling better, even plants and trees, as well as human beings. We hope we will have another before the effects of this one are over.

The stork has been a popular visitor in our community of late. It left a little girl at Mr. and Mrs. Lawson's about a week ago. Last week it visited in the Carl Woods home and left a big boy. Saturday night it visited Billie Daniel and left a big boy. The stork seems to be the most popular and welcome visitor I know of lately.

The community enjoyed a program and pie supper at the school house Friday night. They took in a nice sum of money, which is to be used in buying equipment for the school.

Mrs. T. P. Reed left last week for Ballinger, where she is going to make her home for awhile with her daughter, Mrs. Lee Sykes.

Vance Cockrell spent the week end visiting in the D. G. Barnett home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith spent Thursday evening visiting Mrs. Raymond Stewart.

Mrs. Homer Weaver visited Mrs. Claude Lawson Wednesday evening. Mrs. J. J. Cockrell also visited in the Lawson home Friday evening.

Raymond Stewart and Forrest Renfro went to Menard Thursday on business.

Mrs. Lawson of Alexander is visiting her son, Claude Alexander, and her new granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Burns and family took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Cockrell Sunday.

Joe Peck, one of our good neighbors, who has moved on the other side of town, was back in the valley Sunday, seeing after the interest of his farm.

G. A. Knowles has been making syrup this last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Oglesby and family went to San Saba Sunday to visit Dr. and Mrs. Bickham.

Bro. Whitl and family from Flat Rock visited in the Warlick home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moats visited their daughter, Mrs. Arnold Sloan, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams from Ranger are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Mitchell.

Mr. Lawson's mother, who is visiting him, was taken suddenly ill Sunday morning with bronchial asthma. The doctor was called and he gave her quick relief. At the present writing she is doing fine.

Word has been received here in the valley that Clell Reed was married Sunday. Clell is a Big Valley boy who has made good. We wish for him and his wife the best that life has to offer.

We are glad to welcome our new neighbors, Lonnie McCarty and family. Mr. McCarty is not a stranger here, as he used to live in the valley. They are moving on the Judge Darroch place, recently vacated by Will Dewey.

Grandmother Edgin, who makes her home with Mrs. Ross, her daughter, celebrated her birthday Sunday. Quite a few relatives and friends attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith and son, Hugh Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Weaver and son, Walter Martin, visited Mr. and Mrs. Oran Hale awhile Sunday night.

Miss Anna Belle Long is on the sick list this week. We hope she will soon be better.

Several neighbors and friends visited the new baby and sick folks in the Claude W. Lawson home Sunday.

Sunday night the B. Y. P. U. elected new officers. Big Valley has a fine union and let's all work to make it still better.

New Addition

When the 10th grade was added to our school Miss Blackwell decided to teach the fourth grade a part of the time, so they stay in our room until noon for their arithmetic, reading and English, then they go to Mr. Cooke's room for the rest of the day.

CENTER POINT

There was not a very large crowd out at Sunday school Sunday.

Miss Lessie Shelton died in a Brownwood hospital last Tuesday morning, where she had been for the last week. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Miss Eva Fallon spent the week end with Loraine Calaway at Bozar.

The young people met and practiced their play Friday night.

Miss Besse Hutchings has been sick the last few days.

Charley Stark and family have moved on Mrs. McWhorter's place, where Mr. Halford and family moved from.

Miss Julia Dee Fallon and Ruby Brooks spent Tuesday night with Mrs. Rube Brooks at Goldthwaite.

Mrs. W. A. Allen visited friends at San Saba Wednesday.

Clifton Smith of San Saba came to see Evelyn Robbins Saturday evening.

The government bought cows at B. F. Mahan's Thursday.

Miss Loraine Duey spent the week end at home.

Julia Dee Fallon and Mrs. Fred Davis visited in the Robbins home Friday evening.

Mrs. Sid Tullos died Friday evening, after a long illness. The relatives have the sympathy of everyone.

Gordon Williams of Mullin spent Friday night with Arvon Davis.

Miss Ruby Brooks spent Saturday night with Julia Dee Fallon.

Mrs. Julia Taylor and son, Joe visited Mrs. Johnnie Taylor Sunday evening.

Verne French came in from New Mexico Monday. He has been out there with Roy Braswell after a load of apples.

Harvey Allen came home from San Saba Sunday evening.

Miss Inez and Adeline Spinks visited in the Conner and Taylor homes Thursday evening.

Arthur Williams spent Monday and Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Hill at Lake Merritt.

It looks like it might rain. It missed a good chance last Saturday afternoon. BO PEEP

A LIGHT RAIN

A light rain fell here last Saturday, which amounted to little more than a drizzle, but a considerable shower fell in some parts of the county. However, there was not enough rain to be of any material benefit and not enough to lay the dust along the highways.

The board of inquiry of the United States steamboat service in a report made public Tuesday, charged Captain William Warms and four staff officers of the Morro Castle with negligence in connection with the burning of the Ward Liner and the attendant loss of 132 lives.

Registration for the first semester at the University of Texas was concluded Tuesday with 6998 students enrolled. This was an increase of about 1000 over last year. The enrollment is expected to pass 7000 when a number of students who have registered, but not paid fees, make the payments.

F. P. Bowman, J. V. Cockrum, W. T. Keese and Jake Kirby were Fort Worth visitors the early part of the week.

Oh, yes, for making real chili use Bill's Famous Chili Mixture. It makes real chili. At Bill's cafe or your grocer.

Jake Kirby was in Dallas the first of the week, having been called there on account of the serious condition of his nephew, Jake Sexton, whose condition was somewhat improved at last report.

Cheerfulness

Throughout the world today, more than ever before, is a universal need for cheer. The depression isn't over yet; it's still "sticking." On top of the depression came a nation-wide drought and now—winter is at hand.

What can we do about it? Exactly nothing, so far as preventing it is concerned, but we can make things more endurable, make conditions more pleasant, make easier to carry the burden, which rests on the shoulders of every citizen of the United States—merely by being cheerful.

Students in the school "bear up" in your little world. You have terrifying conditions, concerning lessons, themes, examinations, note books to bring up. But the symptoms are the same, as are the remedies. A word of friendly cheer, a friendly lift and a broad smile will do lots in curing our troubles and cheering those around us.

During this depression let's smile and see how the world looks.

It is easy enough to be pleasant when life rolls along like a song. But the man worthwhile, is the man who can smile, when everything goes wrong.

Volley Ball Challenge

We want one of you volleyball girl teams—we don't care who—to come over and play us. We will pay your visit back.

Intermediate Report

The fourth grade is interested in their theatre project and the fifth grade is busy with their salt maps.

Primary Report

The primary room has their windows decorated with bats, witches, jack o' lanterns and black cats.

They have some clean sand in the sand table and they have been enjoying playing with their farm yard animals and post toasty cut outs.

Entertainment

There will be a pie supper at Center Point on Friday night, October 26. It is to be for the benefit of the school for playground equipment. Everyone come and bring or buy a pie.

The members of the 4-H club will meet Friday (tonight). All of the members try to be present. Part of the members are working hard on a play to be put on soon.

Visitors

Little Ray Donald Horton visited school Friday.

Albert Spinks was a visitor at school Friday evening. Deward Fallon went to Dallas Monday morning to attend the Dallas fair.

Miss Gladys Perry spent Saturday night with Merlene Stark. Arlie Taylor ate supper with Doris Davis Sunday night.

Absent

L. D. Spinks was absent from school Tuesday and Lucille Harmon was absent Thursday.

Improvements

The blackboards are receiving a new coat of black paint, which will be a great help.

Humor

Mr. Robbins: "Garland, how does a pig eat?" Garland: "It eats hoggish."

Miss Frye: "Name some important buildings in your town." Gerald: "My grandmother's house."

Mr. Robbins playing volley ball said, "They can never return the ball."

Doris: "We'll show you honey."

CENTER CITY

Bro. Sparkman filled his regular appointment last Sunday. The program at night was very interesting. Miss Keese showed her ability as a speaker on this occasion, as well as in the school room. The visitors from Goldthwaite were welcome and we trust you will come again.

I'll agree with you writers that it is hard to get all the news and sometimes, we forget to write that which we learn. I intended to say last week that our school is progressing nicely and all seem to be well pleased. A nice program was rendered on Friday night before and a P.T.A. organized to help the school in every way we can. The chapel program, with Miss Keese in charge, Wednesday morning was interesting and several of the mothers were present.

Mrs. Will Harbour, her son, Lynn, and Mrs. Brown are visiting relatives near San Antonio.

Mrs. Harvey Morris accompanied Hartal, Naomi, Al Truman and Joe Shelby Langford to Temple Tuesday to visit their father and mother. Mr. Langford was not feeling so well that day.

Matt Roach of Mertzon visited his nieces, Mmes. Carey Owens and Z. Karnes, the first of the week.

Walter Simpson and family and Edgar Simpson of South Bennett, spent Sunday with J.M. Oglesby and family.

Last Thursday morning, very early, the death angel came and took from our midst Mrs. Tul Wright. She had been carried to Lometa in hopes she could be cured, but all in vain, she died at that place. Her husband and a few close relatives were with her and she seemed to be better and only went to sleep without a struggle. Four of their children, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee, Miss Naverne Lee, Medford Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Atchison and Mrs. J. M. Oglesby and a number of relatives from Star, went to Lometa immediately to be with the family there. Fairman hearse carried the remains to Goldthwaite, thence to Hurst Ranch cemetery, where the funeral services were held late in the afternoon, and she was buried beside her father, Mr. Garrett, who preceded her in death by only a few months. Besides her husband and the four children, who attend school, she leaves a married daughter, Mrs. Raymond Reid, and many friends here who offer sympathy to them all.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Morris were called to the bedside of her father, Mr. Holland, in Goldthwaite Wednesday. His condition is quite serious.

The ladies enjoyed the singing at Mrs. Harry Welch's Wednesday. A miscellaneous shower, was given her sister, Mrs. Luther Piper, at the same time. Much merriment was caused while Mrs. Piper wound the thread on a spool, which led to her gifts hidden in a closet. Mr. and Mrs. Piper are moving to their home near Adamsville to begin house-keeping. May good luck be theirs.

Howard Blackwell, who is taking a business course in Abilene, writes that he likes it well, and is progressing in his work.

RATLER

Bro. Nicholson filled his appointment Saturday night and Sunday. There were good crowds at both services.

Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick and son, Billy Moore, attended church and had dinner in the Renfro home Sunday.

Ellis Wallace and family visited Mr. Wallace's brother, Sam, Sunday at San Saba. He has pneumonia.

Tas Renfro and wife are visiting in Ratler this week.

Bro. Nicholson had dinner in the Tip Roberts home Sunday. S. R. Stewart and wife made a rushing trip to Ratler Monday evening and brought Tas Renfro and wife down from Mullin.

Ellis Wallace moved Mrs. T. P. Reed to Ballinger one day last week.

Roland Woods had dinner in the Wallace home Tuesday.

Mrs. Earl Hale visited her mother, Mrs. Stark, at Rock Springs Monday.

George Brooks was home over the week end from his work. Mrs. Olan Curtis and son, O. P. Jr. visited Mrs. Gorman Partridge a few days last week. She returned home Wednesday and Mrs. Partridge and children

"Pains Gone," Says Lady, After She Had Taken CARDUI

In describing how her health improved after she had taken Cardui, Mrs. Ralph E. Courtney, of Wytheville, Va., said: "I was run-down and suffered from pain in my side. I wanted to feel well and get rid of the pain in my side, so I sent for Cardui and began taking it. By the time I had taken three bottles of Cardui, I was feeling much better. The pains had gone. I am very glad to recommend Cardui to other young women." ... Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. $1 a bottle, at drug stores.

Curing Unemployment

The lady secretary of labor in the national cabinet made the announcement a few days ago that the unemployment situation in America must be remedied by further reduction of hours of employes in industry and an increase in the pay for the workers. It is not strange that those unused to the routine of business and industry and unfamiliar with economic affairs should hold to the idea that it is entirely within the power of employers to pay any scale demanded, or make any terms they might desire. None of these economists have ever struck the keynote of the remedy for unemployment and that is to divide the work and the pay among the available workers.

When industry is burdened beyond its power to endure there will be brought about a condition far more depressing and ruinous to the workers and the country generally than has been experienced heretofore. The legend of killing the goose that lays the golden eggs will then be verified.

Perhaps the supervision of industry by the government, in the form of NRA to force employment, has been beneficial, or at least has not been detrimental. However, it is impossible to say whether business and industry would have worked out of the depression more readily without interference, yet notwithstanding the loud acclaim of the advocates of supervision that great benefits have accrued and unemployment has been greatly reduced, the news reports tell us that the mining and oil industries are employing 300,000 fewer workers than in normal times. The railroad employment is down 670,000. Telephone and telegraph companies show a drop of 160,000. Wholesale and retail distribution industries are down 670,000. And so it goes, throughout the entire industrial structure, with the durable goods industries—steel, cement, etc.—showing an employment shortage of 1,500,000. One of the worst phases of the problem, according to reports, is that even if business returns to the 1929 level, about 3,000,000 men will still be out of work, due to technological advances. In the past new industries have taken up the slack caused in this manner. The federal government discovering that it could not find jobs for the unemployed, turned to relief on a grand scale. Through the FERA, the SERA, the CCC and similar agencies, the government is providing food, lodging, clothing and in some cases, work for the unfortunate. But this cannot go on forever—the expense is gigantic. It will be recalled that in a recent speech, the president warned the country that local agencies must do their part, that federal relief cannot carry the entire burden, or even the bulk of it.

A Discouraging Outlook

According to estimates compiled by the National Bureau of Casuality and Surety Underwriters, 35,000 or more persons will be killed this year, and more than a million injured. Statisticians estimate the total economic cost of all this to be between one and a half billion and two and a half billion dollars when all the items are added. Assuming that two billion dollars approaches the correct figure, it means a cost of about $16.66 for every one of the 120,000,000 persons in the United States. That is indeed a tragic tax to pay for our own recklessness. Investigators say that at least 95 per cent of motor accidents are avoidable. They can not be blamed on the automobile, but on the driver. They are due to some omission or commission on the part of the man or woman behind the wheel. In spite of intensive work by the authorities and safety associations, we go on just the same, smashing and crashing, killing and maiming, flaunting the laws and regulations.

All of this tragedy and havoc can not be laid to the charge of the drivers of automobiles, although a good share is due them. Other users of the highways should bear their share of the responsibility and blame. Walking carelessly on or across public thoroughfares causes almost as many accidents and injuries as careless driving, to say nothing of the large list of people who attempt to defy the traffic by leisurely and arrogantly walking or driving on the highways and expecting the other fellow to look out for them.

Cotton Control

While the Bankhead cotton control law has some very helpful features, there are many objections to it and there now appears to be considerable doubt as to its future. It is helpful in curtailing the number of acres devoted to cotton and the present season's price has been improved as a result, but this reduction may work a detriment to the future of the American crop, as it has had the effect of encouraging cotton production by foreign countries—countries where cotton can be grown cheaply and possibly as good quality as in the south. The main drawback to those countries growing cotton in the past has been their need of the land for growing food products, but when the price is forced high enough to enable those countries to grow cotton and buy food elsewhere a very serious competition with American cotton will be fostered. Some of the officials in charge of the cotton control are talking and thinking of waiving restrictions and allowing growers to plant all the acreage to cotton they desire for the 1935 crop. The policy has not yet been fixed and it is entirely possible that some method may be devised to cure the situation, but it is one requiring more than a superficial knowledge of world conditions and the effects government control of American cotton will have on the markets and cotton growing in other countries.

A Special Session

The Texas legislature was convened in extraordinary session last Friday, in response to a call by the governor for the enactment of several measures, the important and outstanding demand upon the solons being to make further provisions for "additional and necessary relief for indigent and unemployed people of Texas as now required." In a message to the legislature the governor suggested $8,000,000 per month as the necessary amount to provide and appropriate and the federal government will provide half of the amount. Doubtless, much of this money will be needed and many worthy people will be saved from suffering and want, yet the precedent is one that must be faced for many years to come. The immense sums of money that have already been expended in relief work must be replaced, sooner or later, while a spirit of dependence upon the government is being fostered. This is a matter requiring the most serious thought of patriotic and humane statesmen.

Health Hint

VITAL STATISTICS

A new ruling by the federal bureau of census has just been put into effect in Texas and will be of interest to every community in the state, according to Dr. W. A. Davis, registrar, state department of health.

This new ruling is to the effect that the death of any person shall be credited to that person's legal residence. In the past the place where one died was charged with the death. New death rates for all towns and counties will show the true conditions.

The towns in Texas that have a reputation as health centers have been unduly credited with more deaths than have occurred among their citizens. Now, whenever a health-seeker dies away from home, the place of his residence will be charged with the death.

The same holds true in the compiling of records for counties. In the past many towns had a death rate three or four times as high as the county. This was due to a variety of causes—principally, patients from the rural areas coming to town for medical attention and hospitalization and dying while there and giving their addresses as the town without specifying that their home is outside the city limits. The state department of health requests everyone to give exact information for all birth and death records.

ANOTHER PUSH

We are stating two points as to the spirit of controversy. One is, as investigation has shown, that most often each contestant hardly comprehends the meaning of the other. The other thing is that disputes and contention over small things will weaken character and produce a small, narrow life.

Just a few years ago Professor Burgess, in setting out his philosophy of movement, stated that there may be movement apart from any object. Quite a number of scientists were drawn in to controversy over his position. A storm of dispute raged around his person and teachings from both sides of the Atlantic. Those philosophic gentlemen had plenty in vocabulary. What did it matter to my kind of folks whether or not they settled the question as to how it was settled? Either way the matter was of no practical value. I still have a deep sense of pity when I think of the man who I once knew—the public called him a useful man, who was killed in a dispute over a debt said to be only thirty-five cents.

After all has been said to help our controversies to be sane and set in carefulness we all, with one accord, like controversy when things of value are in the balance. Or as the case is often, when things of value are being destroyed. Now, for some time our people have been needing a sympathetic controversy as to what extent a Divine hand shapes conditions in national life. Our leaders in the state and nation as a rule, are not atheists. They believe in the one supreme God to whom we all must finally answer as individuals, but all of us need to be keyed up on the fact of a vigilant providence which in wisdom sends rain or withholds rain, which causes conditions of temporal prosperity and creates conditions of leanness and depression. For several decades we have been cautioned by a few moral leaders as to immoral tendencies of the times. They have taught that the holy Sabbath must be better observed and the sanctity of the home redeemed, else our nation would come to a serious tragedy. The more thoughtless people have considered such teaching mere vanity and such a teacher a fanatic. To call to mind other nations which have gone down in moral decay while they had also the same unwelcome fanatics, is a lesson to be easily learned. The time is overdue for some controversy.

VIEW OF THE NATION'S PRESS ON TOPICS OF INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE

PROVIDING EMPLOYMENT

A stubborn fact, which must be faced sooner or later and the facing of which cannot be postponed much longer, is that neither the state nor federal governments, nor both of them together, can go on indefinitely maintaining from 15 to 20 per cent of the population in idleness. Moreover, it is doubtful that the destitute unemployed will continue indefinitely to accept contentedly a condition of things which condemns them to a meager existence in humiliating circumstances. The people of Texas are going to be brought face to face with this situation in a few months in a way that will compel them to give attention to it. It is being said right now that "the people will not vote any more relief bonds when the limit of $20,000,000 has been exhausted." And yet it is absolutely certain that at the regular session of the legislature, which convenes in January, proposals will be seriously made to submit another amendment to the state constitution providing for additional issues of relief bonds during the next two years of from $30,000,000 to $50,000,000. It may be said that the people would vote down such proposals if they should be submitted, and that may be true. But we think that the pressure of more than a million Texas men, women and children without the means of providing themselves with the necessities of life will be so strong as to compel action by the legislature and then the people will have the choice of voting more bonds and providing revenue to finance them or of attempting to wash their hands of any responsibility for the indigent unemployed. Faced by such a choice, the people can make only one decision, for to attempt the latter course would be tantamount to telling the indigent unemployed to shift for themselves and that would be the prelude to disorder and anarchy of a more costly character. This being the situation, is it not imperative to face squarely the question of devising ways and means of providing this large percentage of our population with employment?—Texas Weekly.

RESULTS FROM THE HOUSING DRIVE

The Chronicle article of Sunday telling of more than 200 renovation loans approved in Houston, with scores if not hundreds more likely to be approved, indicates that the federal housing program will get worthwhile results here. The amount of work already assured will give employment to several hundred men for several weeks time; and that in itself is no mean item. Building supply firms will benefit, and every business concern which serves the builders in any way.

This good start should bring a redoubling of effort on the part of all groups particularly interested in the housing drive. Enough has been accomplished to prove that the program is feasible, that much more good can be done if the present plan is but pushed hard enough.

The actual evidence that home renovation is being done under the terms of the new federal legislation should interest thousands of home and business property owners who have not yet shown their intention of undertaking such jobs. As their interest evidences itself our official bodies should make every effort to translate it into action.

Success for the renovation drive should have a very important influence on the coming drive for new construction, under terms of the federal mortgage insurance legislation. Already a great many requests for information concerning this matter are reaching housing administration officials; giving evidence that the launching of a major construction activity is clearly possible.

There can be no doubt of the shortage of housing, nor of the ability of many persons and firms to build, provided they are given the needed financing and have sufficient confidence in

COMPETITION COMES BACK

It is a wholesome sign that Donald R. Richberg, new chief of brains of the NRA, is ready to admit publicly that experimentation along lines alien to sound business practice does not aid business recovery. It has been said that the president's re-organization of the NRA is a face saving proposition, that the institution is doomed anyway. Whether so or not, business men will be inclined to take at their face value the intimations of Mr. Richberg and his associates, that price fixing and production control have been carried too far even for an emergency period, and that a return to the normal policy of competition will do more to promote business recovery than a continuation of past mistakes.

The genesis of the revolt against the new deal is found among the small business men, who are very numerous and very influential in their own communities. They exert an influence which is greatly assisted by the direct experience of the consuming public, especially housewives, with higher prices without corresponding increase of income. These consumers care little about the blue eagle, except as it may be to them a symbol of governmental exactions, and they can not understand the employment by the government of the boycott when that instrument of coercion, has been definitely outlawed against the labor unions. Mr. Richberg's utterances before the National Press club may leave one in some doubt as to whether General Johnson or the business men themselves, the larger ones, are responsible for the restrictions and punishments of NRA, which have so confused and halted business, but they leave no doubt that it is now the hope of the new administrators to encourage business as a whole, and win its confidence. If Mr. Richberg can bring about so important a change in business sentiment as that, it will make little difference whether NRA lives up the ghost next June or not. Recovery will come of its own accord.—Boston Transcript.

THE BANKHEAD LAW

We are willing, as a rule, to unite in forwarding those interests which are noncompetitive, which are spiritual or intellectual, but we are slow to unite for purposes of monetary profit. We know that personal selfishness creeps into the best-intentioned organizations, and it is the history of most co-operative movements that they disintegrate sooner or later because the many get the idea that the few are most profited. We are all cotton farmers at heart, and cotton farmers dearly love to plant, reap and sell without consulting any authority outside themselves. The Bankhead law is unpopular with many cotton growers who resent its imposed restrictions, even though they believe it has afforded, so far, a certain measure of benefit. The meaning of the word "corporation," is co-operation. But the share holders in a corporation often sell out for lack of confidence in the management or because the executives seems to be getting too much pay. The weaker interest is always suspicious of the stronger. Human nature is a difficult fact to ignore or combat.—State Press in Dallas News our future prospects to assume the indebtedness necessary to such projects. The federal mortgage insurance act should make private funds readily available for such construction, while the improving conditions generally, and the obviously growing demand for housing, should inspire the would-be new home owners to go ahead with their plans—particularly in view of the fact that many a family has been waiting years to start its new home.

This housing campaign obviously offers us great opportunities; we are taking advantage of them, but what we have done so far should be a beginning only.—Houston Chronicle.

POOR MAN'S COURT

During the past 50 years the courts, with their inelastic rules of procedure and their ever increasing mass of decisions and statutes, have failed to change with the changing times in order that they might meet new views. They have failed completely in what should be one of their main functions. The poor man with the small claim finds that in reality he has no recourse to justice. Court procedure on small claims is made impractical by the fees demanded by lawyers who are absolutely necessary because only they can find their way through the intricate maze which leads to justice. Long delays and frequent court appearances make the poor man shun the court room because he can neither afford to wait nor afford to lose the time consumed by the prolonged action.

This condition has for some time been recognized as a serious problem and one which demands solution. In this country of all countries the administration of justice to all classes is an absolute necessity. Several of our leading cities and a few of the states have set up courts with simplicity and mobility the main aim. They have met with varying success, according to their structures.

But now comes the one which threatens to eclipse all the rest in popularity and success. Five branches of what is popularly known as the "poor man's court" have been established in New York City. This court handles all claims below $50 and is concerned only with civil suits. If the laundryman loses a shirt and refuses to pay for it, or if an employer refuses to pay for a day's work, the new court will promptly render a decision. All that the plaintiff has to do is to walk into the court, recite his claim, and, if it is thought that he has ground for action, pay $1.25 and file his suit. The defendant is notified by registered letter and when both parties arrive in court each tells his side of the story and the court makes its decision. The informality of the procedure might be enough to send shivers up and down the dignified spines of some of our worthy jurists, but justice is administered here in all that is necessary.—Pathfinder.

Hamilton

The honorable commissioners court in regular session on Monday, October 8, appointed Dr. D. B. Beach to succeed Joe J. Cleveland, resigned as county chairman of the federal emergency relief board.

Will A. Lewis, well known farmer and stockman, located on Cowhouse Creek, ten miles from Hamilton, is hauling water from the city lake for his livestock and poultry. He has been living on the Cowhouse for a long, long time and has never before known the stream to be "bone dry."

At a little past eleven o'clock Monday night, fire of unknown origin burned down the garage on the premises of Mrs. T. T. Gordon and destroyed the family car, a Plymouth six. The fire had made too great headway for the fire fighters to extinguish the blaze.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell left Wednesday for their home in Kerrville. Rev. Campbell, who has served the local Presbyterian church as pastor for two different periods of time, is retiring from active work in the ministry, but both he and Mrs. Campbell will find a busy life in Kerrville with young people in the camp and school.

Curtis Christopher, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Christopher, of the Pecan community, was seriously wounded by an accidental discharge of a shotgun early Wednesday morning while out squirrel hunting. The boy and his dog had treed a squirrel and he leaned his gun against the bole of the tree to chase the squirrel into the open by chinking the little animal. The dog knocked the gun over and the weapon was discharged, the full load entering the boy's body in the region of the hips. He was brought immediately to the Hamilton sanitarium for surgical treatment and is reported to be doing as well as could be expected.—Herald-Record

Lampasas

The Lampasas school board has closed a deal to purchase a large fifty-passenger bus to transport pupils here from other districts. The bus is listed at $1600.

Census bureau reports 1821 bales of 1934 cotton ginned in Lampasas county up till Oct. 1. At the same date last year the amount ginned was 3907 bales.

Terry's Men's store was entered sometime Sunday night and considerable merchandise taken from the stock. Entrance to the store was made by breaking through a window in the rear over which is iron bars. The back door was opened for exit. Up until Wednesday evening no trace of the robbers or the merchandise had been found by officers.—Record.

There was a crowd estimated between six and seven hundred people who gathered Wednesday morning at the Lampasas State park for the reunion of all Lampasas citizens who had resided in the county for fifty years or longer.

A wedding of interest to their many friends was consummated Friday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Zula Ervin became the bride of Maurice Owen. The wedding was performed in the home of his parents with Rev. J. M. Powledge officiating. These young people are well and favorably known here. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ervin of Goldthwaite, but has made her home in this place for the past year and a half.

J. V. Hammett has been appointed by the federal district court to act as county conciliation commissioner for Lampasas county, pursuant to the provisions of the Frazer-Lemke bill passed by congress on March 3. The bill is an amendment to the bankruptcy act providing that any one farmer who is insolvent or unable to meet his debts as they mature may file a petition in the federal district court asking that he be afforded the opportunity of working out a composition or extension agreement with his creditors. Failing in this, he may ask to be adjudged a bankrupt and the court will set aside to the debtor farmer any part or all of his property

Comanche

George S. Emert mail carrier on Rural Route No. 2, will retire on November 1, under the 30-year service rule, according to an announcement of the Post Office Department from Washington.

Charges of assault with deadly weapons were filed against three men in Justice White's court at DeLeon Wednesday, following a shooting affray at the Dick Bell farm five miles northwest of DeLeon earlier in the day.

A special session of district court was held here Tuesday morning, when District Judge R. B. Cross heard the Mandamus suit brought by Otho Bowman to compel the trustees of the Fairview school district to sign a written contract hiring him as principal.

A volunteer peanut contract will be offered to all peanut growers by the AAA for the year 1935, according to County Agent J. A. Barton. At this time a processing tax is being placed on peanuts of one cent per pound farmers' stock weight, on peanuts except those that will be diverted to oil stock.

Thirty charges of theft and burglary are expected to draw the attention of the grand jury when district court convenes in Comanche for the fall term, as that number has been bound over to await the action of the grand jury in addition to three liquor charges which have been filed.

According to an announcement by the postal department, rural routes 1 and 4 will be consolidated and will cover a distance of more than 55 miles. The route will be known as No. 1. Mr. Emert's route will remain No. 2 and will be unchanged. T. A. Barnes' route will continue as it is under No. 3. G. S. Clark's route will be changed from No. 5 to No. 4, the change being as to number only.—Chief.

Lometa

Mrs. Leo Page and children came in the first of the week from Galveston and the children will enter school here the first of the week.

Tuesday afternoon the City Dads endeared themselves to every business person on Main street, when they sent to Lampasas and got a sprinkler and began the dampening of Main street.

The fire boys answered call Tuesday morning at the Raymond Jones produce, where a small fire had started. However, the blaze was extinguished before any material damage was done.

J. B. Hill, Mrs. Lee Toombs and Little Miss Adalade Farmer of Goldthwaite took Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hill to Winters Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hill stayed in Winters for a visit and Mr. Hill is hoping to recover his health while there.

The directors of the Lometa rural telephone company are having the old office building, which has been in the service since the company was organized some thirty years ago, torn down and a new building erected to take its place. They bought the McBeth residence in the Fulton addition, and are this week having it moved to the location of the old building.

Last Friday when Ed and J. A. Perkins and Mrs. Oney were en route to Temple to visit their father, "Pappy" Perkins, who is in the hospital there, they had a pretty serious car accident, though none of them were seriously injured. It occurred on the narrow, crooked road between Copperas Cove and Killen. Their car and another run together on a narrow bridge. Mrs. Oney was thrown through the windshield and badly cut up. Both cars were badly damaged.—Reporter.

for a period of five years; the farmer paying a rental into the court for the benefit of the creditors. The act further provides that, with the consent of the creditors the property may be repurchased by the debtor under a six-year payment plan by paying the appraised price of the property; the appraisal to be made by three disinterested persons.—Leader.

San Saba

Miss Blanche Burkett, teacher of the Bend school, was a business visitor here Saturday.

A paving crew is in San Saba this week, making repairs to the pavement laid on the city streets of San Saba in the winter of 1930-31.

Miss Elizabeth Brown and a daughter of Mrs. W. G. Lindsey visited Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Spears of Goldthwaite Sunday.

L. M. Stone returned to San Saba this week from Breckenridge, where he had been visiting his son, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident last week.

Spinning is not a lost art as Mrs. W. B. Hubbert, demonstrator of the Colony Home Demonstration club has demonstrated. She had three Angora goats, which had not been sheared. She swept the concrete floor of the chicken house and she sheared one with scissors while her husband used sheep shears. She washed and carded the wool and is now spinning it on a very old spinning wheel borrowed from a neighbor. She will dye this and make it into hooked rugs.—Star.

Fifty years as postmaster is the remarkable record held by the Carter family at Richland Springs, fifteen miles west of this place. The father, J. J. Carter, held the position from 1883 until his death eight years ago, and at that time the son, Arthur Carter, was appointed to the job, which he held until the first of this month, when J. B. Coffey was named to the position.

Early Tuesday morning forty witnesses had been summoned by the state for the trial set for October 29, in which N. H. Sellman, former deputy sheriff, and Hamilton Brown are charged with the murder of Will Robertson, a world war veteran, here in August, 1933, and in which these two men with Chester Daniel, Rupert Maulsby and Morris Lusty, all San Saba county citizens, were indicted by the San Saba county grand jury, in the April term of court. All five men have been at liberty under a bond of $5000 each since the last term of court.—News.

SPECIAL PRICES

The Eagle is prepared to make close prices on sales books and other stationery used by the business men. Place your orders with the Eagle and keep at least a part of the money in the county.

Brownwood

The October term of district court will be convened October 29 for an eight-week session.

Thirteen Brown county youths left last Friday for the U. S. recruiting station at Big Spring, where they will be assigned to CCC camps to work during the next six months period.

Work on the CCC camp at Lake Brownwood state park has progressed rapidly during the past week and it is expected that within a few weeks the camp will be ready for occupancy by the 250 man CCC unit.

If Brown county citizens pay all of their county, state and school district taxes assessed them for 1934, the various departments of the government for which the taxes are assessed will receive a total of $292,080.16.

Tax collections since October 1, when 1934 taxes became due, have been good. Tax Collector Lee Meek said Thursday. Since the first, more than $6700 delinquent taxes have been paid, and a large amount of current state and county taxes have been collected.—Banner.

BETHEL

Bro. Brown filled his regular appointment Sunday. This was the last sermon Bro. Brown will preach for us, as he was transferred to the Rio Grande valley for the coming year. We regret very much to lose these fine people. He and his wife have both been a great inspiration to our community. We do not know yet who our new preacher will be.

Sunday was singing afternoon at Bethel and a goodly crowd was present, but we need more singers. Come on all you other communities and help us out. We will surely appreciate it and assure you a hearty welcome. We will sing again the fourth Sunday.

Those who visited in the Geo. Denman home Sunday were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Parker and little son, Christine Simpson, Letta Featherston and those who called in the afternoon were Mrs. F. M. Anderson, Mrs. Minnie Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson.

Some from here attended a singing at Charley Simpson's Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson attended church at Caradan Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Deward Reynolds have moved with Mrs. F. M. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Denman and Mrs. Frank Denman visited Mr. and Mrs. Chatman at Live Oak Sunday afternoon.

We were glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Will Taylor out at singing Sunday.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Kate Shelton and family of the Center Point community over the loss of her daughter, Miss Leslie. May God's blessings be upon you in your time of bereavement.

Everyone remember to be on time at Sunday school Sunday.

Can You Prove Your Oil is Better than the Others?

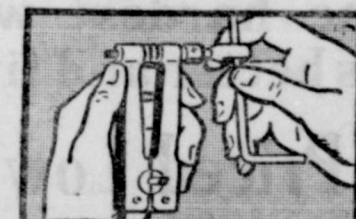

We Can and Do!

This Machine Shows Why this New Oil Cuts Motor Wear and Saves You Money!

YOU, as a buyer of Motor Oil, should ask that question—and demand facts! Here is Continental's answer:

In the demonstration pictured below, the film strength and oiliness of every well known motor oil in America have been shown to be increased by the addition of a drop of Germ Essence.

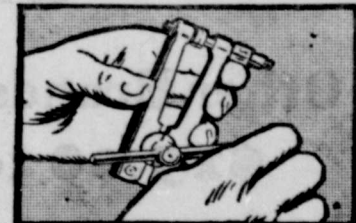

Demonstrations before at least two hundred thousand motor-minded men have proved that "Any oil would be better oil if Germ Processed!" But there is only one oil made by the patented Germ Process—New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil! Use this oil of proved strength in your car! It saves you money by giving greater motor protection and lower oil consumption. It gives you the comfortable feeling that you know your car is protected by the safest, finest motor oil made!

1 Assembled instrument. Split bearings and shaft, lubricated with competitive oil, are clamped between "jaws" of instrument. With set-screw, extreme pressure is applied.

2 Crank is now used to turn shaft. Oil film ruptures and bearings "seize." Shaft extremely hard to turn. You can even hear the metal-to-metal contact!

3 Drop of Germ Essence is added to oil in bezzing. Same pressure applied. Shaft can now be turned easily. Smooth, quiet movement—no seizing—no sound. Proof that Germ Processing increases oiliness and film strength of any oil!

TO CAR OWNERS OF

Continental backs claims with facts. To prove that New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil gives you lower oil consumption as well as greater motor protection, we drove six brand new cars to destruction, testing this oil against five other nationally known oils. Any Conoco station will give you a booklet that tells the story of this convincing test. It will pay you in money saved to read it. Drive in and ask for a copy—or try this oil

CROSS EYES

MRS. TULLOS PASSED AWAY

Mrs. S. J. Tullos died at the family home, three miles north of this city, last Friday evening, after a long illness. Funeral services were held in the home Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and burial was made in the cemetery at this place.

Mrs. Tullos and family moved here from Navarro county thirty-three years ago and after a short residence in this city they moved to their farm on the highway to Mullin, where her death occurred. She was a kind and loving wife and mother, a good neighbor and loyal friend. She was the mother of seven children, three daughters and four sons. They, together with the bereaved usband and other relatives have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.
