C.L. Mashburn of Ebony looked after business in the city Tuesday.

H. B. Dennard of Big Valley looked after business in the city last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hiller of Shive visited in the Henry Martin home Sunday.

Prof. Cooke of Center City school was a pleasant caller at the Eagle office Saturday.

I. T. Howell of Pleasant Grove community was a business visitor to the big town Saturday.

Henry Peck of Star was a week end visitor to the big town and made the Eagle an appreciated call.

George Clements and family of Coleman visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Clements, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blackwell of Center City were among the appreciated callers at the Eagle office Saturday.

J. O. McClary of Rock Springs community was a week end visitor to the city and stated his new residence was nearing completion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Allen of Blanket and Ernest Allen, Jr., of Howard Payne college, visited in the J. A. Allen home in this city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Y. Stokes and their son, Chas. E. Stokes, and his wife and son visited in the M. Y. Stokes, Jr., home in this city Sunday.

Homer DeWolfe and family came over from Austin last week end for a visit in the J. N. Keese home and to meet with some of their Goldthwaite friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dew spent last week end in Fort Worth and Dallas and while in the first named city attended the district bankers convention.

It pays to patronize your home dealers and home enterprise of every kind.

This week having been designated by the governor as "Texas Week," is a good time to begin to plan for taking part in the Texas centennial celebration.

The request of the club ladies that the public use the walks around the court house lawn and keep off the grass is being observed remarkably well, but it should be well observed.

Shelving has been built in the vault in the county judge's office this week, adding greatly to the convenience of the place and materially assisting in facilitating business where records are needed to be handled.

J. T. Morris and his wife and daughter have returned from Alpine and El Paso. His arm, which was broken some months ago and has caused him much suffering, is now out of the "sling" and it is hoped he will soon regain the use of it.

It is to the interest of every citizen to have stores and other business places in their town and the way to keep them there is to patronize them. Mail order houses and foreign dealers are very little help to your community.

Give the Eagle your order for NRA cuts for your advertising. We can also order rubber stamps of the same style.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCullough and daughters, Mary Ella and Norma Frances, spent the week end in Goldthwaite with relatives. Mr. McCullough's mother, Mrs. W. P. McCullough, who had come to Hico on Thursday, accompanied them to Goldthwaite Saturday afternoon.—Hico News-Review.

NEWS FLASHES

While the minister looked on from a front pew, Ruth St. Denis danced a rhythmic interpretation of the Psalms before the altar of the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York Sunday. A symphony in white black and red, the dancer went through motions which she said symbolized the gradual ascent of man's soul from the moment he acknowledged his need of spiritual light to the final radiation. A first reader and a second reader, one standing in the pulpit and one at the other side of the church, read passages from the Psalms and from Miss St. Denis' own writings amplifying them. After a few verses the dancer interpreted them to musical improvisations on the piano by another member of her company.

A report from Austin says that plenty of bills are on the calendars of both legislative branches if they get down to work. The dockets are bulging with measures awaiting disposition and now that the ban is lifted in the senate, that body can proceed under full steam. Its rules prohibited general bill consideration during the first 40 days. This session promises to break a record for bills and joint resolutions introduced. Its total now is 1000 and the session is not half over. So far the house has received 601 bills and forty-one joint resolutions and the senate 331 bills and twenty-seven joint resolutions. Joint resolutions propose amendments to the constitution and require a two-thirds vote of each branch to be submitted to the people. Thus far none has been submitted. Large numbers of the bills have been given favorable committee reports and await action by the main bodies.

INCOME REPORTS

Many important changes effecting the filing of income tax returns are embodied in the Revenue Act of 1934, several of which are likely to be most confusing to income tax payers.

For this reason, this office will send Deputy Collector A. E. Brooks to Comanche, Texas, for the sole purpose of assisting tax payers in correctly filing their returns. He will be in the Federal building, Comanche, Texas, from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. on March 9, 1935, where he will be glad to confer or assist anyone who wishes to avail himself of his help. W. A. THOMAS, Collector, Internal Revenue

No wonder, there wasn't anyone at home across the river.

Greta and Christine Traylor spent Sunday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson.

Mrs. Ira Dewbre made a rushing trip to town Monday afternoon.

Phillip and Shirley Nickols went to Landy Ellis' after a horse to be broken.

Wick Webb bought three sheep from James Nickols this week.

Bro. Homer Starnes spent Saturday night in the J. T. Robertson home. He ate dinner Sunday with Woody Traylor and wife.

Mrs. J. C. Stark went to the club at Mrs. Ed Davis' at Center Point Thursday afternoon. Her son took her over for the quilting.

Mrs. Eula Nickols called on Mrs. Lula Gatlin in town Saturday afternoon.

If you want to know how to get gas out of a model A Ford, just ask James Nickols. He will give you instructions.

Marvin Spinks and wife played dominoes with the Nickols boys Saturday night.

August Kauhs, Homer Doggett and Janece went with James Nickols to Otis Hutchings' at Center Point Sunday afternoon to feed his sheep.

J. T. Stark and Shirley Nickols played dominoes Sunday night with Marvin Spinks and wife at Rabbit Ridge.

James and Shirley Nickols seemed very despondent Saturday night and Sunday. Their girl friends were also despondent.

Mrs. Eula Nickols and Phillip and Shirley enjoyed the radio music in the Ellis home Thursday night.

This month was really short. Time flies, especially when the month just has 28 days in it. After this cold spell, everybody will be gardening and setting hens and hunting turkey nests.

BUSY BEE

UP GO FOOD COSTS

The recent rise in food costs and in the price of other necessities plus the sales tax in Ohio is causing uneasiness. Many fear that we are in for a period like that in the years preceding the world war in which living costs increased more rapidly than money incomes. It is significant in this connection that the administration has apparently lost much of its zeal for higher prices.

Much of the advance in living cost in the last two years is attributable directly to AAA policies. The drouth which forced up the price of feed and led the administration to slaughter cattle, sheep and swine can be charged in considerable measure with the high and rising price of meat and dairy products.

While an improvement in the position of the farmer was essential to general business improvement, and a rise in the price of farm staples accordingly desirable, it would be unfortunate if the AAA took no cognizance of the improved position of the farmer and continued to pursue policies the effect of which would be to raise living costs further.

Already increased food costs have affected the budgets of millions of salaried persons. Just in the measure that more of their incomes for other articles is reduced and their standards of living lowered.

In its commendable effort to create a fair balance between agricultural and non-agricultural activities the AAA should be careful not to overshoot its mark and establish a balance so heavily in favor of the farm population that the urbanites must spend too large a portion of their income for foodstuffs. Increasing living costs will not afford a base for the expression of production and consumption upon which in the last analysis continuing improvement in the economic situation must depend.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Loyalty
 Vergil Howard
 This world of ours today, seldom come in contact with loyalty. Most people, only of themselves and they can beat their fellow-men a crooked deal. If we turn back the pages of a period of thirty years, we would see the loyalty of the men of that time. In those days a man was taken at his word. Men could borrow and not be forced to give a note for it. A man by his friends until they prided themselves in their loyalty in those days. Do we find today in the loyalty? If a man wants money he must mortgag everything he has, or give a mortgage ten per cent interest. One trusts their fellow-men out of their sight. They are one another only for the money gain that is in sight. They call one another friends as they are on top of the world, but let the person they call a friend get down and out, and he is no longer their friend. Loyalty was once a symbol of the end of loyalty, but that symbol is rapidly burning itself out, unless we try to cultivate loyalty it will absolutely disappear.

NAIL SWALLOWER
 A 10-penny nail panic broke out among the parents of school children in a town of Jugoslavia, when the acute indigestion of a 15-year-old boy puzzled doctors and led to the revelation he had swallowed 98 nails. In the collection the 10-penny variety predominated, but there were shingle nails and other shapes and sizes. When the word spread among other parents that the boy had sought to become the champion nail swallower, all slight stomachaches were looked upon with the gravest suspicion. No more nails have been found in abdomens, however.

LEGISLATIVE LETTER

The usual number of changes have already been proposed to the Texas constitution at this regular session. Many more are in the making. The total number of proposed amendments may exceed those offered at any previous session.

One bad amendment can cause the defeat of a dozen good ones, when placed on the same ballot, and a weeding out process must take place in the committees of the senate and house on constitutional amendments and on the floor of both houses when these proposals come to a vote.

Last November eight amendments were overwhelmingly defeated and several of these proposals have been re-introduced. It is best that many of these amendments be defeated in the legislature instead of in an expensive campaign of education and organization among the voters.

The senators and representatives in Austin want to know how the people back home feel about these proposed changes in the organic law of our state and it is the citizens' duty and constitutional right to write or wire their legislators giving their view point and advice on such serious matters as making permanent changes in that great document.

It is the desire of many influential members that there be not more than three amendments submitted to the people by this regular session. Opinions of members privately expressed indicate that these are the most popular amendments:

Constitutional limitation on all ad valorem taxes, state and local.

Authorize legislature to regulate, control and tax liquor.

State and federal co-operative plan for old age pensions.

We submit a brief description of the amendments so far introduced, together with our comments on several of the proposals:

Tax Limitation: Probably the most discussed amendment, aside from prohibition repeal, is S.J.R. No. 22, to limit the amount of all taxes (state and local) that can be levied and collected from real estate. This amendment will lop off at least one-third of the total ad valorem taxes now paid by farms, homes, ranches and other business property for all purposes. It is in successful operation in Ohio, Michigan and several other states. Its adoption means substantial tax reduction.

Prohibition Repeal: The chief executive, the Democratic platform, all the wets and many of the prohibitionists are for submission. From the taxpayers standpoint legalized liquor means probably $5,000,000 from a revenue field not now occupied. This is H.J.R. No. 1 and S.J. R. No. 3.

Classification of Property for Tax Purposes: This is substantially the same amendment which was defeated last November because it would greatly increase the taxing powers of the legislature and other taxing agencies. This is S. J. R. No. 9. It should be defeated in committee. If not, then surely on the floor of the house or senate. Why take it to the people again?

Exempting Homesteads From All Taxation up to $3000 Valuation: Such an exemption was adopted two years ago as applied to state taxes. This proposal is to make the exemption apply to county, municipal and district taxes. It should be defeated. The tax limitation amendment, S.J.R. No. 22 is more desirable from the standpoint of all taxpayers. Why exempt any class of property? Let's limit the amount of real estate taxes that can be levied and collected and broaden the base of taxation for the replacement revenue. This is H.J.R. No. 10.

New State Constitution: With the present state of the public mind this is no time to rewrite the organic law of this or any other state. Those men who met in Austin on September 6, 1876, did a pretty good job. The present document has more than a hundred patches on it. A few more will not hurt. The framers of that instrument believed that the people should support the government. The tendency today is for the government to support the people. This is H.J.R. 15.

Sales Tax: This proposal is sound as old wheat, but there is not a chance to pass it at this session. Even if it obtained the necessary two-thirds majority in both houses it would fall of ap-

ARITHMETIC OF OLD AGE PENSIONS

The administration's estimate that less than one million persons will be eligible for old age pensions, under the law now pending, puts a different light on the vexed question. There were about 6,000,000 persons over 65 when the 1930 census was taken, but less than a sixth of these, it appears, will be beneficiaries of the pension bill. The administration's estimate includes 736,000 persons over 65 who are on federal relief rolls and 180,000 who are already receiving pensions in the 21 states that have old age pension laws.

The cost to the state, under the bill now pending, would be about $111,000,000 annually, it is estimated. Texas' share would be between six and seven million dollars, and the question of where that much money is coming from in a state that already has a fifteen million dollar deficit in its general fund is not readily answered. It would be much less of a problem, however, than that of raising the 30-odd millions which earlier estimates indicated would be necessary.

It is becoming more and more apparent that if the old age pension is to become a reality, it must be started on a very modest scale. The administration plan contemplates monthly payments of $50 a month, or less, to persons over 65 who have no other means of support. There is a wide spread between such pension plan and that advocated by Dr. Townsend, but the administration's program is a feasible one and the other is not. Advocates of the pension plan must realize that a start must be made on a practical basis, with individual need as the determining factor, and that to urge any more liberal plan is to endanger the pension movement as a whole.—Wichita Falls Times.

approval at the polls. The tax limitation amendment will accomplish the same purpose and it is possible to get the limitation proposal through the legislature. The sales tax amendment is known as S. J. R. No. 1, and H. J. R. No. 16, is along the same line. V.M.

How One Man lost 22 Pounds

Mr. Herman Runkis of Detroit writes: "A few lines of thanks from a rheumatism sufferer—My first bottle of Kruschen Salts took all of the aches and swellings out of my joints—with my first bottle I went on a diet and lost 22 pounds and now feel like a new man."

To lose fat safely and quickly take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—a quarter pound jar lasts 4 weeks. Get it at any drug store in America.

If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back.

INCOME TAX EXEMPTION

The compensation of officers and employees of a state or any political subdivision thereof, if the services of such officers or employees are rendered in connection with activities which constitute the discharge of an essential governmental function as distinguished from a proprietary function, is exempt from federal income tax. The compensation of such officers and employees is subject to federal income tax if their services were rendered in connection with the exercise of a proprietary function. For example, the compensation of the governor of a state, the mayor of a city, councilman, board of aldermen, public school teachers, firemen and policemen is not subject to federal income tax. Compensation received by employees of a municipally owned waterworks or street railway or electric light plant is subject to federal income tax, as such activities are proprietary rather than governmental in character.

Fees for special services to a state are taxable, as, for example, compensation paid architects and builders for planning and erecting a state capitol or other state or municipal building. An officer or an employee of the state, for the purpose of the income-tax law, is one whose services are continuous and not occasional or temporary.

NEGLECTED ALASKA

"Remote control," is what ails Alaska. Nominally, the territory is governed by its legislature, whose acts are subject to review by congress.

But the detailed administration of the regulations governing Alaska's chief industries are in the hands of bureaus located at Washington, and in charge of officials not familiar with the problems of the territory.

The important industries of Alaska are fishing, fur and mining; a potential industry of incalculable value is forestry.

The conditions governing those industries in the north country are different from those found in the states.

Alaska's fishing problem is not akin to Maine's or Massachusetts'.

Persons familiar with Alaska conditions assert that the federal government should establish a branch of its bureau of fisheries on the Pacific coast, with an executive in charge empowered to deal with Alaskan problems as they arise.

The timber problem of Alaska, too, is different, from that existing in the west. Much of the Alaska timber is found on the islands off the southeast coast. These islands are crowned with spruce, valuable in airplane manufacture, and with hemlock, and other conifers, a potential source of pulp.

Timbering on these islands should be conducted scientifically, but the conservation problems are utterly different and supervised by officials bound by no rigid, inapplicable regulations.

The neglect of Alaska should end; the federal government should encourage productive development of the territory's resources.—San Antonio Light.

RABBIT RIDGE

The ladies of this community were glad to see the norther, because we don't have our spring bonnets, but the men were very sad. They are afraid it will kill the grain again.

Almost all the children have the measles, but until today they are not serious. We are hoping they will soon be well and ready for school again.

Mrs. Addie Noggles from Breckenridge spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stark.

Mrs. A. F. McGowan and her grandson, Wayne Davis, called on Mrs. Marion Robertson Tuesday morning.

Bro. and Sister Hoover from town called in the Austin Whitt and Will Stark homes Tuesday afternoon.

Marvin Spinks and family spent Sunday afternoon with Ray Davis and family at Center Point. Mrs. Spinks and Mrs. Davis called on Grandmother Davis that afternoon also.

Those who spent Sunday in the Will Stark home were Austin Whitt and family, Ernest Hagan and family from Center Point and Charley Simpson and family from Center City.

Dan Westerman and wife from town spent Thursday afternoon with his mother and sister.

Marion Robertson and family and A. F. McGowan spent Sunday afternoon in the Traylor home at Rock Springs.

We are sorry to report Mr. and Mrs. Will Stark on the sick list this week. We hope they will be better soon.

Wayne Davis spent Sunday and Monday night with Haskel Gatlin.

Joe Anderson from Mount Olive is staying at M. L. Spinks this week and working on the highway.

Shirley Nichols and J. T. Stark sat until bedtime in the Spinks home Sunday night.

Haskel Gatlin spent Sunday with the Davis boys at Rock Springs.

Grandmother Westerman went to the doctor with her eye again Wednesday.

The Spinks and Westerman families were made sad Sunday evening when they were called to the bedside of their brother, Dan, who was very sick, but are thankful that he is better at this time.

Miss Elsie McDermott is enjoying her school work again, after several weeks absence, recovering from a tonsil operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason from Center City spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Herbert Simpson.

CROSS EYES

Miss E. J. Norton spent the week end with Mary June and Merjeanne Perryman.

REPORTER

MOUNT OLIVE HIGH SCHOOL

We don't really know how to appreciate warm, sunny weather until we have a norther as we have this morning. However, we have an average attendance at school.

Declamation Try-out

We had our declamation try-out last Thursday night. Roy Simpson, Miss Marjorie Featherston and Miss Payne, from Buffalo were judges. Each declaimer did his very best and we are proud of all of them, even though they could not all win. The following pupils placed: Junior girls, Lorene Hodges, first; Juanita Benningfield, second, and Wyona Qualls, third. Junior boys, Billy Hightower, first place; T. H. McArthur, second; Eldred Lane, third. Senior girls, Nadine Hodges, first. Senior boys, Jack Bleeker, first; Vernon Lawson, second; Elmer Koen, third.

Blue, red and white ribbons were given to those that placed, and to the other eight declaimers we want to say we admire you for trying!

Sport News

As Priddy was ruled ineligible in basket ball our boys tied with Prairie for second place.

Friday, the basket ball girls, the teachers and several of the parents went to Star. The girls played Big Valley. Until the last quarter it seemed as if they would lose, but they scored 13 points during the last quarter, giving them a score of 16-13 over Big Valley.

Star girls defeated Priddy and we played Star for first place, losing by a score of 15 to 7. However, we won second place and we are proud of our girls. Both the Big Valley and Star teams acted very good sports and we wish to say we enjoyed playing with them.

Visitors

Ruby Leach, Clara Blackwell and Mrs. Ina Woodall, formerly Miss Ora Bell Wilcox, and her little daughter, Wanda, visited school last week.

Illness

We are sorry to report that Jack Hightower has the measles. We wish for him a speedy recovery. Violet Weathers is also ill.

To Annie Marie and J. R. Kiser we wish to say that we are very sorry you are moving. Annie Marie has been an active member of the basket ball and pep squad teams, also the glee club. J. R. was one of the leaders of his class and we certainly will miss both of you.

Play

The play, "Go Slow, Mary," will be postponed until a later date, due to sickness and bad weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Miss Lois and Miss Clara Blackwell spent the week end at Brownwood. They attended the district basket ball tournament and reported that Center City lost to the Brownwood high school, the winner of the district, by a small score.

Seventh Grade

We have pruned the orchard of Mrs. S. F. Roberts. Her orchard was in bad shape and we are glad that we were able to clean it up for her.

The seventh grade is real proud that Lorene Hodges won first place in the declamation try-out from our school. Lorene, your class has faith in you and we expect you to win at the county meet.

Sixth Grade

We are taking mid-term exams. Billy Hightower made 100 in his arithmetic examination. Some of us would have been glad to have made half that good.

We are glad Billy won first in declamation try-out for junior boys. He is very good and we just know he is going to win a place at county meet.

Fifth Grade

We can not boast of winning a first place in the declamation try-out, but we can proudly say that we had the most entries from our grade. We could hardly expect to win this year, but we got some good training and expect to do better next year. We are working hard on spelling and the three-R contest.

We can say that the fifth graders will do their best for Mount Olive at the county meet.

Fraud

Mr. Cooke recently went to Dallas. He returned wearing a scarf pin set with at least a four carat bulk of radiance. The jewelry dazzled the rural belles, and excited the envy of the other young men. Mr. Smith bluntly

SCALLORN

My, it is cold this morning and there is lots of ice.

A. J. Miller and family spent Friday in Coleman.

Tom Tolerton and family of Lometa spent Sunday in the R. D. Evans home.

Marvin Alley and wife spent one night last week with Mrs. Cora Ford.

Miss Eva Luckie spent several days with her aunt, Mrs. Cora Ford, while her mother is in a sanitarium in Brownwood.

Mmes. Homer and Fate Eckert spent one day last week with Mrs. Dutch Smith.

Miss Verna Harris has been with her sister, Mrs. Smith, two weeks visiting.

Ed Miller and sister, Beatrice, spent Monday night in Mrs. A. B. Ford's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hines and girls visited Sunday afternoon in the Weems Weathers home.

Elza Laughlin and wife spent Sunday in the Will Harbour home near Center City.

Two of Mr. Morgan's nieces from Eastland spent the night with Mrs. Morgan, also some of her nieces and nephews from Rock Springs. They have a nurse with Mrs. Morgan. She is doing fairly well some days, and feels better, other days she is not so well.

Mrs. T. J. Laughlin, Sr., is with her daughter, Mrs. Lamar McClain, in Goldthwaite.

Sherwood Ford and wife attended Sunday school Sunday and dined with Mr. and Mrs. Miller, also visited in the R. D. Evans home in the afternoon.

Mrs. Daisy Ford came down Monday and took her sister, Miss Eva Luckie, home with her for a few days.

asked if it was a real diamond.

"If it ain't," was the answer, "I was skun out of a half dollar."

Humor

Robert Whorton hurried home to his father with an announcement: "Me and Columbus Reid had a fight today."

The father nodded gravely. "Mr. Reid has already called to see me about it."

Robert's face brightened. "Gee, pop! I hope you made out as well as I did!"

Lying

Miss Blackwell detected James Lane, a small first grade boy, in a deliberate lie. With tears in her eyes and a catch in her voice, she sought to impress upon him the enormity of his offense. "Do you know," she questioned severely, "what happens to little boys who tell falsehoods?"

James shook his head in great distress and Miss Blackwell explained carefully: "Why, a great big black man, with horns on his head and one eye in the center of his forehead, comes along and grabs the little boy who has told a falsehood, and flies with him up to the moon and keeps him there, sifting ashes all the rest of his life. You won't ever tell another falsehood, will you, darling? It's wicked."

James regarded Miss Blackwell with round-eyed admiration and exclaimed, "Oh, teacher, what a whopper!"

Tender Memories

"Please tell me, Hurshel," directed Mr. Smith, "where shingles were first used?"

"I could, Sir," Hurshel replied in great embarrassment, "but I'd rather not."

Young husband: It seems to me, Oneita, that there is something wrong with this cake.

Young bride (smiling triumphantly): That shows what you know about it, Raymond. The cook book says it's perfectly delicious.

Flowers To The Living

Here's to a girl who is a friend to all, and has no enemies among her schoolmates, which is a record equalled by few. She may not agree with what you say, but will give you the right to say it. She is open-minded and slow to anger, but is not to be put off lightly when offended. When any good deed is to be done she seems to be always handy and willing. She respects her teachers and is a good sport with her fellow classmates. Always wearing a smile and refusing to look on the dark side of life, she is a pupil whom Mount Olive regrets to lose another year. If you have guessed Eva Koen, you are right!

Senior News

The students of the English class are studying poetry as they are required to memorize so much poetry before the end of the term.

We have not had very good attendance this past week, due to so much illness. Those absent were Ethyl Hill, R. C. Petty, Jewel Bramblett, Henry Nauert. Of these Ethyl Hill has been absent the longest and, therefore, it is easy to see that the students will be glad when she is back.

We are planning to present a play in the near future. Some of the seniors and juniors will make up the cast.

We are going to work out in spelling and we hope to be proud of another winning team.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade had many absences Monday on account of the cold weather.

The laboratory groups have been changed. Tuesday and Friday are the only days in which the class goes to laboratory.

The Freshman Better English club had its program last Thursday. A new program committee was elected.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade pupils are now working for the county meet.

Part of the seventh graders are working on arithmetic and the others are working on spelling.

The seventh graders are now telling stories in reading class every day, which are very interesting.

Some of the stories which are being told are: "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," and "The Revolt of Mother."

Leona Drucekhammer, who was absent because of sickness, is back with us again.

Ella B and N. C. Karnes have returned to school, after being absent about a month and half. We are glad to have them back.

Mr. Hein has another sixth grade pupil in his room.

In the last meeting our secretary resigned. Miss Marjeanne Perryman was elected to fill the vacancy. The club has changed the day of meeting, because it conflicts with band practice. We decided when we were to pay our dues and the club treasurer reports $5c balance.

We have a new student in the sixth grade. He is Earl Henke. We are very glad to have him and hope he gets acquainted.

The sixth grade is studying spelling out of the spelling list with the ones who are going to enter in junior spelling. The seventh grade students are also using the list.

Girls' Sports

The girls' basket ball tournament was held last Friday at Star. The first game was played between Big Valley and Mount Olive. Mount Olive won the game. The second game was played between Priddy and Star and Star won. Star also beat Mount Olive to win the tournament.

Boys' Sports

As the boys' basketball tournament has ended, the boys are preparing for track. A new vaulting pole, shotput and discus have been secured, which will enable them to work better.

Altho the boys lost the basket ball tournament, they are good sports in wishing the winner further success in that line.

Girls' Glee Club

We are practicing the songs, "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean" and "America the Beautiful," for the program for next P. T. A. night. We have also practiced a drill for the songs.

Home Economics

The home economics girls are getting their pillow tubing and hope to get started by the end of the week. The pillow cases will be hand hemstitched.

Some of the girls will start using the different machine attachments, while others work on their pillow slips.

In this way all of the students are able to work on their projects at the same time.

English Club

The English club was very successful last week. Our program was based on the life of Washington, in commemoration of his birthday.

The program was as follows: A story of Washington—Irvin Scott.

Washington's boyhood days—Carl Willman.

Days after Washington—Mildred Mason.

Jokes—Johnnie Mason.

The program was very interesting and the students are looking forward to another successful program.

Announcement

Blue Ridge will present a play in the high school auditorium at Priddy, Friday night, March 1, (tonight). Everybody be present for several hours of good entertainment.

The P. T. A. program will be held sometime in the near future. Watch for date.

Tenth Grade

The tenth grade English class is memorizing an old English poem. A book report is also due Thursday.

SPECIAL PRICES

The Eagle is prepared to make close prices on sales books and other stationery used by the business men. Place your orders with the Eagle and keep at least a part of the money in the county.

CALL BURCH

When you want a suit, dress or single garment cleaned or pressed. Call Burch and he will please you.

Sheriff J. H. Harris was confined to his home the first of the week with flu.

Most of the schools of the county are preparing to take part in the interscholastic meet.

M. L. Casbeer and wife of South Bennett were in the city visiting and transacting business Wednesday.

Chas. R. Hunter of Star looked after business in this city Wednesday and made the Eagle an appreciated call.

M. Y. Stokes, Jr., who has been in the government service in Fort Sam Houston for the past two or three years, has resigned and arrived at home yesterday.

A SAD MESSAGE

Mrs. R. L. Steen, of Ligon received a message Tuesday bringing the death of the brother, Ed Ligon, in Comanche of pneumonia. The held yesterday and members of the family attended.

Mr. Ligon leaves two children, together with a number of other relatives who spent several years in school in Big Valley and is kindly remembered by a number of friends here.

If you want to swap, use the Eagle.

Dates of the revival at Central Methodist church which had been set for March 10 to 24, have been changed to March 17 to 31, according to the pastor, Rev. H. S. Goodenough. Rev. Goodenough and Presiding Elder J. T. McClure will conduct the services the first week. Bishop H. A. Boaz of Fort Worth will be the evangelist for the second week of the revival.

Extensive permanent improvements to the United States Pecan Experiment Station at Brownwood were in prospect this week as members of the city council pondered an offer from the government to spend $26,000 at the field station immediately, provided the property is deeded to the government. No permanent improvements can be made at the station, it is pointed out, unless it is made in fact government property.—Banner.

Hamilton

Mrs. Blanche Fields has accepted a position as instructor in the Methodist Orphans home in Waco. Announcement is made this week of the establishment in Hamilton of a new business firm, L. W. Koen & Co., located in the Eldison building.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Davis left Thursday morning for San Francisco, Cal., for a visit with Mrs. W. T. Sharp and family. O. R. Williams was called to Jonesboro Sunday night to be at the bedside of his invalid mother, Mrs. G. W. Williams, who had accidentally fallen from her chair and injured her hip. She also suffered a deep cut in striking the floor.

Bruce Neal of Menard, who sustained fatal burns in a gasoline explosion in the bathroom at his home on Sunday night, Feb. 10, and who died in a San Antonio hospital on Monday morning, Feb. 11, was a cousin of Mrs. Tom Smith, of this city. Claude Luce, who was reared in Hamilton, but who had lived away from here for some twelve years, returned here recently to engage in business. Mr. Luce and P. T. Lee, formerly of Indian Gap, have purchased the Brewer filling station business, and are operating the station with new additions to the service in the same location.—Herald-Record.

Lampasas

Northington, cashier of Peoples National bank of this town, was elected as chairman of the Sixth District Bankers' association at the meeting held at the bank here last week. Mrs. R. E. MONEY MADNESS

In New York City Frank Greiges, 67-year-old "sandwich man," who a few weeks ago was catapulted into the nation's headlines, and comparative fortune, as the "honest man of Wall street," by turning in to police a wallet containing $42,000 in negotiable securities, was violently insane Sunday. The hitherto mild, uneffusive little man threw his Bowery lodging house into an uproar late Saturday night when he flung himself writhing and moaning upon the floor and in stentorian tones proclaimed he was "God." He shouted that those upon whom he cast his "fatal" glance, died. In the midst of this pathetic scene, a lodger at the hotel, tripped blithely up the stairs, took one look at the sobbing figure on the floor, gasped—and fell dead!

Helps Babies Rest Ends Colic Pains Aids Digestion

When your baby tosses about, cries in pain and cannot sleep, why not get at the cause with McGee's Baby Elixir. It neutralizes indigestion acid, ends gas cramps and colic pains and then helps them become cheerful again. They sleep better. McGee's Baby Elixir is made of the purest medicinal extracts and syrup. It cannot harm. Years of use has proven that. Simple directions tell exactly how to use it. Tastes good. Gives relief promptly. Two sizes: 35c, 60c. (adv.) HUDSON BROTHERS

The Texas senate investigating committee has recommended legislation to stop padding of school census rolls and cure other defects which the committee found in the present method of taking the census.

Two horses received injuries which made it necessary to destroy them and a jockey and stable boy were taken to a hospital in Hot Springs, Ark. Saturday, after a triple collision during a morning workout at Oaklawn Park race track.

Postmaster General of England, Sir Kingsley Wood says television will be in general use in Britain by 1937. Cauleton L. Dyer, radio scientist, views this prophecy with some misgivings, however. He says great Garbo will look like "a Russian salad," if wave lengths "gate crashing of which we are all now unpleasantly aware," still prevails two years hence.

People in Unity, Sask., are setting their clocks by an earthquake which has occurred every morning with machine-like regularity 10 miles west of Unity. The quake begins at 3:45 a. m. and is followed by rumblings which continue for 15 minutes. Oil drillers believe the earth is suffering from "gas pains." They propose to start drilling operations next spring at the point where the shocks are most pronounced.

Tranquil lights from the residential division of real estate have given assurance that conditions are improving in one of the most sorely depressed branches of American enterprise. Although below the normal level of pre-depression years, residential construction in January aggregated $22,400,000 in the 37 states east of the Rocky Mountains. It was 54 per cent greater than January, 1934.

Germany lost 2,036,897 soldiers in the world war. For the first time exact figures of Germany's war victims have been published by the Army Medical administration. The report is based on casualty lists, hospital records, and army reports. During the world war, until November, 1918, 13,300,000 Germans had been mobilized, of which 2,036,897 were killed. Of these 34,836 were officers and men of the navy. About 100,000 men reported missing have not yet been traced. The number of living war-maimed is calculated 89,760 and there are 2734 war-blind. The number of wounded German soldiers totaled 4,814,557.

The last of the Russian imperial treasures, consisting of 2000 jeweled pieces once owned by the former czar, are reported to have been sold by the Soviet government to a London house. The articles are said to include diamond-studded Easter "eggs," designed by Fabere, gold ikons, jeweled orders and other relics of the "Little Father."

The third trial of Cal B. Yarbrough of Belton, for the torch death of his 18-year-old daughter, Doris, ended at Waxahachie Saturday, without a verdict. The jury, hopelessly deadlocked, was discharged. Convicted and sentenced to 25 years at his first trial, Yarbrough appealed and the verdict was reversed. At his second trial a mistrial resulted.

A woman, aged 27, of Omaha, was dead "for the second time" Saturday. Last week she was revived three minutes after death by an injection of adrenalin in her heart. She remained semi-conscious for several days then lapsed into a fatal coma. Efforts to restore her heart action the second time failed.

A report from Trenton, N. J., says that contributions for the defense fund of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, convicted slayer of the Lindbergh baby, have reached a new high of $10,000, according to Flemington counsel for the Bronx carpenter. The attorney declared that the defense would require about $25,000 in all.

The Hauptmann jurors have returned to their normal way of living, after having declined large salaries for a vaudeville tour. A theatrical promoter, disclosed that 10 members of the jury met in Flemington, N. J., and decided not to accept his offer of a 10 weeks' contract to appear in theatres throughout the country.

Drouth and AAA crop restrictions transformed the United States probably for the first time in its history—from a heavy exporter into an importer of feed and foodstuffs during 1934. The crops in 1934 were the smallest since 1880. As a result prices increased to a point where other nations could ship to the United States, scale the high tariff walls and still make a profit.

Two large, full grown lions were caught near Rio Grande City last week by trappers engaged by the relief commission, sponsoring a program of predatory animal eradication. The lions, for which the trappers had been hunting the past three months, each measured 6 feet 5 inches from tip to tip.

Portraits of three Democratic presidents and one Republican will appear on the face of the new "baby bonds," which the treasury will put on sale late on March 1. The $25 bond carries a picture of George Washington, while the likeness of Jefferson appears on the $50 bond; Cleveland on the $100 denomination; Wilson on the $500, and Lincoln on the $1000 unit.

A call was sounded Friday by Secretary of Commerce Daniel Roper for the creation of a citizen's civil service reserve corps, designed to bring better future government and to resist subversive movements. He disclosed plans being worked out whereby citizens will participate in the civil arm of the government just as the army and navy reserve corps bring them into the military arm.

Cancellation of airmail contracts by Postmaster General Farley was brought before the supreme court again Saturday, on petition of the Pacific Air Transport Corporation. The corporation asked the high court to review a decision of the District of Columbia court of appeals dismissing a suit to enjoin Farley from preventing it from bidding on airmail contracts for five years. The penalty was ordered against the company at the time of cancellation of contracts last year.

The man, who for more than 20 years has been head of the penitentiary, was formally re-moved by Mrs. Margaret Allman, Ohio's woman welfare director, a few days ago. The removal order charged the veteran prison head of being "guilty of incompetence, inefficiency, immoral conduct, dishonesty, neglect of duty, failure of good behavior, misfeasance, malfeasance and non-feasance." It listed 17 specific charges.

A drastic anti-dog bill is being pushed in Rumanian parliament by the minister of public health, designed to destroy all canines found in the streets and highways of Carol's kingdom. The reason for this declaration of war against man's silent friend is that a total of 22,000 persons were treated in Rumania against rabies in 1934, while 180 persons died in terrible agony from this disease. Rumania tops the list of countries where rabies is epidemic.

Selection of Dan Moody of Austin, an ex-governor of Texas, to represent the United States in its income tax prosecution of Abe Shushan, political supporter of Huey Long, was disclosed Saturday at the department of justice. Moody has already conferred in New Orleans with the United States attorney in preparation for the trial, due to start the first week in April. Officials said Moody would be named a special assistant United States attorney for the case. The government's indictment charged that Shushan evaded income tax payments, aggregating $53,919.34 for the four years, 1929, 1930, 1931, 1932. The indictment charges the amount of money on which this sum was due was $390,628.77.
