

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1935.

NUMBER TWELVE

Commissioners Meet Regular Session

Commissioners court held a regular monthly session Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The session was transacted routine business, receiving official reports, and allowing accounts against the county and dividing automobile license money to precincts from which it was received.

Mills County Club Formed At Tarleton

Fifteen students from Mills county in John Tarleton college, Greenville, met and organized the Mills County club last week. The purpose of this club is to enjoy life to the fullest.

Members of this club are: Grace Saylor, Bently, Bert Patterson, Von Steedlin, Charles Conradt, Blackwell, Norman Black, Samuel Kuykendall, Robert Johnson, Clark Huddleston, Booker, Wendell Hamilton, John Reese Graves, Alvin and Max Harrison. The officers were elected: Patterson, president; Von Steedlin, secretary-treasurer; Blackwell, reporter.

Wednesday night was selected for the regular meeting night. It was held to meet only twice each month. Each member pledged co-operation toward making the club one of the most prominent on the campus.—J. Tac.

Sixtieth Anniversary Celebrated Sunday

The sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boler celebrated at their home in Brownwood last Sunday, with all of their children and grandchildren, together with relatives and a number of friends present. The dinner for the occasion was provided by the sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Boler and the gathering was planned as a surprise for the most excellent couple. In particular, as well as in all other ways, it was a complete success. The day was most delightfully spent by all present and will be long remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. Boler were residents of Mills county for many years and have a great many friends here, who remember them with pleasure, and are glad to know of this delightful anniversary celebration.

Mr. J. M. Boler and Miss Victoria Germany were married in Brownwood, Miss., Nov. 9, 1875. After making their home in Mississippi a few years they moved to Texas, locating for a time in Hill county and then came to this county, establishing their home in the Indian Gap country where they lived for over forty years and engaged in farming and stock raising. The fine farm on which they first located is still owned by members of the family and Mr. Boler also owns valuable property at Winters, as well as the home in Brownwood. Ten children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Boler, eight of whom are alive, and three of them, Mrs. B. Swindle, Mrs. W. F. Swindle and J. B. Boler still live in Mills county.

In all the years this most estimable couple lived in Mills county they were valued citizens and reared a family that is a credit to them and an honor to the county. Their friends in this county and elsewhere join in extending good wishes for them and hope they may be spared to their children, grandchildren and other relatives and friends many more such delightful celebrations as the one Sunday observed to be for all present.

Methodist Notes

The Scribe and Pharisee took out last week and paid a visit to the meeting of the Central Texas conference at Brownwood. It is not very remarkable, knowing human nature as this writer does, that this association with the great and near great has served to give him a rather abnormal opinion of himself. But at this present time he is getting back to earth again.

The conference was an enjoyable affair. After attending these meetings for half a century, and having been a member of several of them, this writer votes this conference at Brownwood one of the most pleasant sessions he has ever been permitted to attend. After the first day the weather was pleasant, making it ideal for comfort. The people of the city laid themselves out to make the occasion one to be remembered in way of hospitality. In fact, everybody thought he had the finest home in town, besides the good ladies served meals at the church that could not be surpassed. There was not one thing to mar the fine fellowship and pleasure of the occasion, and all left the city feeling that they had had one of the finest sessions possibly ever held.

The Methodist folk of our own local church are laying plans for an advance all along the line for the coming year. All are well pleased that we had no change of preachers. So they are relieved of the nervousness that naturally comes because of the changes that sometimes disturb. The board of stewards met last Tuesday evening and organized, with Marsh Johnson chairman, Walter Bayley as secretary and C. E. Bayley as treasurer. Plans were discussed for the carrying out of the program for the year, and everybody is hopeful for a good year along every line. "So mote it be."

Much is being said now, and has been for a long time, about the universal desire to get back to the good old days. I don't know just what that means. I know, however, that so far back as I can remember there have been those who were constantly reminding us that times were not what they once were; that the good old days were far superior to these days. Perhaps this is true. For one, I am decidedly desirous for the good old days to return, if they measure up to all that we may desire in way of goodness. If, however, they do not meet the correct standard of goodness, I, for one, prefer the modern days, provided, of course, that they measure up to what should be expected in way of nobility. There is one feature of these good old days, however, that I am not especially longing to see return. I remember in those good old days so far in the past, of which men speak, were the days when we saw drunken men stagger along our streets, fall into a not very sanitary gutter, insult our women with their drunken conversation and make themselves a general nuisance, besides the harmful effect which such conditions naturally brought upon themselves and their families. Yes, these good old days are upon us. I saw the effect of it all a few weeks ago in another town. You might have seen it where it made the more indelible impression upon your mind, because nearer home, not long since, had you been in the right place. But let us prepare ourselves for it; it is coming back to us in all the glory that it had when men placed their feet upon the brass rail. The good old days, so longed for, when men blew the foam from the glasses, will soon be with us. Then, with thousands of death-dealing machines on our highways—well may the good Lord have mercy upon us. J. S. BOWLES.

Cotton Report Shows Decrease

The report of ginners shows that 4,093 bales of cotton were ginned in Mills county from this year's crop up to Nov. 1, as compared with 4,260 bales up to the same date last year. This is running pretty close, yet ginners estimate that there will be a very few additional bales for the remainder of the season.

No Funds Provided

There is poor defense for the "old age pension" law. Under its terms, nearly all are eligible, but it undertakes to degrade all who accept it. The worst is yet to come. It is doubtful that we can enact adequate revenue measures to pay it. I always thought that the saying that "Legislators vote for all appropriations and against all taxes" was just a joke. Too many do just that.

Parent vs. Teacher

By Tolbert Patterson

As critics of existing practices, in the solution of educational problems, and as a mouthpiece for the encouragement of better public education, teachers have in the past, for the most part, been the leaders. This was logical in days gone by, when school was held for a few special classes and not for the general benefit of the masses. Actual conditions now, however, warrant that the average citizen must become the leader in the solution of problems of public free schools.

Every mother knows the thrill and the mingled pain experienced the first morning that her child is prepared for school. Every father experiences a thrill at looking over son's or daughter's first report. Every tax paying citizen is conscious of school taxes. In the United States over 85 per cent of the white homes with children over 7 years of age had children in school last school year. In fact, there are scores of reasons why the average mother and father should be interested in educational problems. These same reasons necessitate that parenthood must either take this interest in school affairs or free public education suffers.

The question that we are interested in just here, however, is why should the teacher appreciate an active parent interest in school? Notice that the word "active" is used. There might be a passive interest. The word active implies the type of interest that prompts a willingness to work for the promotion of a cause. Personal sacrifice, labor and sympathy are elements of an active parent interest. The following are some of the reasons why teachers should appreciate such an interest:

1. Parent interest aids child interest. Pupil interest is one of the secrets of the learning process. Thus, when the child is interested the teacher gets better results.
2. The teacher and parent usually come to know and trust each other when the parent is actively interested in school. (This is true if the teacher is a teacher and not a check-graber.) When this relationship exists, the parent and teacher can work co-operatively on student problems. When the two work together the problem is usually more easily solved. Thus, the teacher problem is reduced.
3. For those that are sincere, school problems are of common interest to both teacher and parent. The school that does things in a big way must inevitably have the efforts of these two groups. This effort must be sincere and with the child's interest foremost. A school does things in a big way in exactly the same proportion as the student is benefitted.

Cotton Certificates Being Issued

Approximately 3,000,000 cotton sales certificates have been distributed in Texas to extension service county agricultural agents' offices.

According to the assistant chairman of the state allotment board at College Station, the county agricultural agents are busy identifying these sales certificates with Bankhead allotments on the cotton crop of 1935. Cotton adjustment payments are figured on the difference between the average price of the 10 spot markets on the date of sale and 12 cents. The check will be made to the producer who made the Bankhead application and he in turn will distribute to tenant and cropper their share.

The chairman said that many producers are asking that, if they put their cotton in a 10 cent loan, would they get their cotton adjustment payment. He explained that producers would receive payments as claimed on cotton sold prior to July 31, 1936. "If a producer doesn't clear his loan and it runs beyond July 31, 1936, he will receive payment on quotation of July 31, 1936, and will be paid the amount of claim less carrying charges," he explained. After November 8, 1935, all sales certificates must be filed in the county agricultural agent's office within seven days from the date of sale.

As a note of interest, the assistant chairman of the state allotment board said that approximately 500,000 second rental cotton checks have been received in Texas.

Nazarene Remarks

The Young People's zone rally which was held at Ballinger last Monday, was indeed a success. The entire program was a spiritual feast from beginning to end. The young people attending the rally left here last Sunday afternoon and went as far as Coleman, where the writer was in a revival meeting last week. Their presence was very much appreciated in the service there.

A program also was rendered at Coleman Sunday evening by our local N. Y. P. S.

Next Thursday evening (Nov. 22) our new district superintendent, Rev. J. C. Henson, will make his first visit to our local church. Brother Henson comes to us from Arkansas, where he has served four years as superintendent of that district. The last two years sixteen new churches were organized in that district under his efficient leadership. The Young People's society of that district led the entire denomination in membership increase last year. Brother Henson also has served as business manager of the Bethany Peniel college at Bethany, Oklahoma. We urge all members to be present to welcome Brother Henson on his first official visit here. The public is cordially invited.

Beautiful Pictures

The landscaping for small homes, shown by picture slides at the Melba theatre and sponsored by the Garden club, was a decided success last Friday afternoon. A large number of interested ladies were present, and the lecture, so capably given by Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Turkey Market

The turkey market opened Monday and the price is very satisfactory, running as high as 18 cents. The crop is not heavy, however, and several owners are holding their fowls for the Christmas market.

Mullin Boy Wins Trip To Chicago

Rex Williams, 4-H club boy, won the trip to Chicago on his corn project, harvesting over 70 bushels to the acre.

The trip is presented by the Santa Fe, Armour Packing Co., Wilson Packing Co., and Nelson Knitting Mills. Rex will leave the 29th of November and will be joined by other winners in the state and will probably be gone two weeks on his trip to Chicago.

Ebony

We are having a real taste of winter this week. We have had so much rain that people have not been able to gather their crops. Several still have cotton in the field, and some have feed still uncut.

Quite a nice little crowd met at the school house Saturday night for the Townsend club speaking. J. B. Jones spoke for us. He was unable to get another speaker at that time. The Townsend club will have its regular meeting Sunday afternoon. We now have thirty-one paid-up members. Come on and help us get fifty so that we can get our charter and begin to get our literature. If there is anything we can do to relieve the present distress, let's do it.

Merry Wives Club

The Merry Wives club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Frizzell and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Burch Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Frizzell.

Priddy P.-T. A.

Priddy P.-T. A. met Friday night, Nov. 8, and organized for the coming school term.

Delta Han Bridge Club

Mrs. Frances Linneweber was hostess to the Delta Han Bridge club Wednesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lee Berry.

Baptist Reminder

Sunday morning I will discuss our church covenant. I find that many people know nothing of our church covenant. You would appreciate your church membership more if you knew the church covenant. Every member of our church should be present Sunday as we study this covenant. Sunday night my theme will be "The journey of man." You will remember our mission offering Sunday morning will go to Howard Payne college.

Our services this past Sunday were well attended. Our Sunday school increased over the previous Sunday. We had 104 in B. T. U. This is the largest attendance we have ever had. Come and enjoy all our services with us.

Home Makers Club Meets

The Future Home Makers club of Priddy met Nov. 11, 1935, for a business meeting. Dorothy Shepard, Mary Shepard, Hattie Kenkes, Hattie Schumann, Orla Hohertz and Hazel Eakin were accepted as members of our club. Then the president read the constitution, which was adopted. It was also decided that we would meet every first Thursday for a social meeting and every third Thursday for a business meeting. The business meeting will be held during the class period.

Singing At Priddy

There will be singing at the Priddy Baptist church Sunday afternoon. The public is kindly invited to attend.

PEP SQUAD

The pep squad met Thursday morning during assembly to choose a letter from three samples for their sweaters. The girls voted by a big majority for the heaviest padded letter. The orders for the letters will be sent as soon as the girls have brought their money, so in hopes to have one formation with our uniforms complete, the pep squad as a whole requests that each individual bring their money as soon as possible.

In mention of the game and also the formation Friday afternoon, we may say, as one, that both were a success, and it pays to be an optimist. The pep squad made another of their many successful formations, which seemed to go over as all the others.

The saying, becoming well known, that if our team was half as good as the pep squad, we would really have a team has not been heard since Friday afternoon, when our boys showed Goldthwaite and Bangs they were playing football to put defeat into the background. We are proud of them and hope they will still keep victory as their goal in the remaining three games.

PICNIC

About forty-five or fifty members of the pep squad and football team met in the Clements' yard before starting to the picnic ground out in the pasture. The crowd seemed eager to go, and although some of the football players had had a rather hard fought 2 hours, they seemed in good spirit. Not many games were played, but they sat around and talked until some got hungry and then everyone had to grab for himself, real picnic style, all manners left at home. After all the food disappeared, some chose to go home and others to the rock crusher, where they climbed upon it and in it, almost everything but turn on the engine and go through it.

Doyce Killingsworth, playing guard on the Temple Wildcat team, the champions of district 12, class A, visited Louise Gartman last Monday and honored some of her friends with the presence of a class A football player in person. His visit tended to lessen the badly felt disappointment of not getting to see the Temple vs. Corsicana game as she planned, even though the disappointment was shared by another, who also wanted to see the game as planned, but could not.

EAGLES TIE DRAGONS

After the Eagles led almost the whole game and made over twice as many first downs, Bangs completed a pass in the last thirteen seconds of the game to tie the score, 6 to 6. The Eagles' tally came in the second quarter, when a 15-yard pass from Davis to Harvey put the Eagles in a scoring position on the nine yard line. On three straight plays Lucas bucked the line, and on the third down he crossed the goal line. The try for extra point failed.

With but two minutes to go, the Eagles had Bangs backed up on their own seven yard line. Bangs completed a pass for 20 yards. The Eagles then drew a 15-yard penalty for roughing. A few yards were picked up on a running play. Then with but 13 seconds remaining to play, Bangs completed a pass for a touchdown. A line drive was tried for extra point, but Bangs found no hole in the Eagle line. Bangs has one of the heaviest teams in the district. If our boys can tie them, they can win the rest of the games.

WHEN TO BE NONCHALANT

When you are summoned to the office.

When Miss Cox searches your test papers.

When the whole school is talking about the signs you painted the night before.

When you fall down the stairs.

When you try to leave your seat and find that someone has tied your sash to the seat behind you.

When the study hall teacher tells your little group to either get quiet or scatter.

When Miss Love tells the class an interesting episode, looks at you and smiles, but refuses to mention any names.

When your voice breaks in public speaking.

When you upset a chair in the H. E. B. or the lab.

When you walk out the window at the first landing, only to find a teacher standing outside.

SPANISH CLUB

On November 4, 1935, the second year Spanish class met and organized a club. The following officers were elected: President, Earl Harvey; vice-president, Carlisle Stark; reporter, Willie Faye Gray; recording secretary and treasurer, Alleene Stark; corresponding secretary, Addie Mae Summy.

The president appointed the following committees: Program committee, Leon Gray, chairman; Agnes Johnson, Maxine Geeslin, Addie Mae Summy, Carlisle Stark. Entertainment committee, Willie Faye Gray, chairman; Connie Trent, Troy Berry, Warren Thompson. Committee to select a name, chairman, Dorothy Fryer; Vivian Kirby, Juanita Sanderson, Dorman DuPuy. Courtesy committee, Doyal Horton, Mary Horton, Louise Harwell. Committee to choose flower, motto and colors, chairman, Jack Hall; Willie Faye Gray, Dorman DuPuy, Vivian Cortis, Maxine Geeslin, Connie Trent, Dorothy Fryer and Juanita Sanderson were appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws for the club.

The object of the club is to create interest in the study of Spanish. The president and each member are very interested in the success of the club. The club meets the first and fourth Monday of every six weeks at 11:15 o'clock in the Spanish classroom.

JUNIOR CLASS

Last week the junior class met in order to plan a way in which to make money to go in our treasury. We planned to sell candy at the noon period, and we are making lots of money. Don't forget to buy candy from us each day at noon. We also decided to sell lunch Wednesday. We will serve sandwiches, pie and hot chocolate in the lab or room 104. Help the junior class by buying your lunch from us.

We are proud to have another new student in our class this week. She is none other than Annabel Langford, who was a sophomore in our class last year.

HIGH SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

This week the high school enrollment reached two hundred fifty pupils. This is indeed a record enrollment for the local school system.

A question may enter the mind of the reader as to just what are the advantages to be gained in a school system by an increased enrollment. The answer is two-fold, yet simple. First, the additional cost of operation is cared for from outside sources so that the local community is not put to any additional expense in the matter. Then the main advantage to be gained is that with an increased enrollment it is possible to run many of the classes in more

NOT THIS TIME

England says that it is necessary to have the United States join in the sanctions against Italy in order to make them effective. The information leaked out after the World war that it was England's propaganda that got us into it, and there won't be a repetition of the folly. We went in and lost our money, lost our men and lost our loans.

The nations of Europe used us for a banker and after the war, we are still holding the notes. Our fingers are burnt and if we now have any sense we won't stick them in the fire again.

England has been a great civilizing force in the progress of the centuries. She is deserving of a lot of credit in shoving out the borders of civilization. But England has used the other fellow in every possible instance. Her interest in this Italo-Ethiopian affair is not unselfish; she has some chestnuts in the hot ashes, and wants everybody to help her rake them out.

You are likable in many ways, John Bull, but you are wasting your time trying to get us tangled up with European affairs. Our place is at home.—Waco Record.

No. 656 in Bankruptcy, San Angelo, Texas, November 7, 1935.

Creditors of James Fowler (Jim) Soules, a farmer, of Star, Mills county, Texas, are hereby given notice that on the 7th day of November, 1935, the said James Fowler (Jim) Soules filed his petition herein praying a decree of the court discharging him from all debts provable against his estate in bankruptcy, except such debts as are by law specially excepted from such discharge, and said petition having been referred to the undersigned as Special Master.

It is ordered that any creditor or other party in interest, who may desire to oppose the granting of the discharge as prayed for in said petition, must on or before the 9th day of December, A. D. 1935, file with the undersigned formal notice in writing of such intention, together with specifications of objections thereunder.

Also it makes possible the offering of more courses than could be offered in a smaller school, making it possible for the students to choose more nearly the subjects they are interested in and the ones they think will be of more benefit to them in after life.

FRESHMAN NOTES

The pupils in the Latin 1 class are looking far and wide for their dog. He was chained to a stand with "cave canem" (beware of the dog) on a sign above it. Someone 'accidentally' broke the chain and forgot to leave the dog.

The freshman boys who came out for football are making good. J. D. and Floyd McKenzie have played in several of our games, and they have improved our team greatly, as they showed in the game Friday. Go to it, freshmen!

Refreshing Relief When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. . . Mr. J. Lester Roberson, well known hardware dealer at Martinsville, Va., writes: "I certainly can recommend Black-Draught as a splendid medicine. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."

A REASONABLE CHARGE

The Eagle, like all other newspapers, makes a reasonable charge for the publication of cards of thanks, obituaries, lodge resolutions and similar articles. This is not a new rule, but has been in effect all of the years of the Eagle's publication. The charge for these articles must be assumed or guaranteed by the writers or some other responsible party.

SCALLORN

(Intended for last week)
We had another fine rain last Thursday. The grain that was sowed is up fine. Nearly everyone is through picking cotton and gathering corn and hauling in their feed stuff.

Albert Hereford and family from Goldthwaite visited with home folks Sunday.

John Samuel Kuykendall and his friend from John Tarleton school spent the week end with his parents.

Junior Eckert stuck a nail in his foot and had to have it treated, but it is better.

J. D. Ford and wife and daughter of Lampasas were at the entertainment Friday night and spent Saturday with Mrs. Cora Ford.

The B. Y. P. U. was well represented—several new members. The young folks made up money to buy Uncle Robert Evans a basket of fruit.

Misses Hilda and Louise Ohlenbush attended the B. Y. P. U. Sunday night.

Lloyd Laughlin, the president of the P. T. A. and teacher, entertained the parents, children and friends with a hallowe'en party Friday night at his grandmother's, Mrs. Cora Ford's, home. Ghosts and spooks were seen about. Several different kinds of games were played, with prizes for each. Refreshments were served, consisting of popcorn balls, lemonade, cake and cookies. A good crowd was present and everyone went home light-hearted, and hoping Lloyd would soon give us another party.

Miss Breda Crawford from the river spent Sunday with her nephew, Bill Williams, and wife and attended the B. Y. P. U.

Elza Laughlin and wife spent one day last week in Will Harbour's home.

Mrs. Kate Johnson and several of her children and Mrs. Alice Jackson of San Saba spent Sunday with the R. D. Evans family. Mrs. Alice Jackson stayed over this week to be with her sister, Mrs. R. D. Evans.

Mrs. Daisy Ford entertained a few friends Saturday night with a Dutch supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blake of Mullin spent the week end in Mrs. Ora Black's home, and attended the entertainment at Mrs. Ford's.

Misses Verona Franks and Frankie Nelson of Gatesville and Flossie Rattliff and Lorent Russell of San Saba were week end guests of Mrs. Daisy Ford.

Several of the ladies met at the church Wednesday and quilted two quilts—one for Buckner's Orphan home and one for the P. T. A.

Misses Verona Franks and Frankie Nelson of Gatesville and Flossie Rattliff and Lorent Russell of San Saba were week end guests of Mrs. Daisy Ford.

CENTER CITY

(Intended for last week)
We are having plenty of wet weather. It has not rained since Monday, when a norther blew up.

Avery Lee went to Santa Anna last Friday and brought his father and mother home from the hospital. Glad to report Mr. Lee doing nicely, after his operation for appendicitis.

Miss Hulda Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Carter, was carried to a hospital in Brownwood and operated on for appendicitis. Mr. and Mrs. Carter are with her. This almost completes the family circle for operations, since Mr. Carter and all four of his children have been operated on for appendicitis.

The P. T. A. met last Friday. The school rendered a short program, and a business session was held. All were in favor of having a basket ball tournament again this year. Unless a change is made, it will be held Saturday before Thanksgiving. All seem well pleased with our school, and let's all help to make it better.

Mrs. Lee Walton is president of P. T. A. Mrs. Chappell is vice-president, and Miss Lois Blackwell, secretary and treasurer.

Miss Luckie is practicing her rhythm band. These youngsters are delighted with the work, and we are looking forward for them to play on our programs.

Dock Anderson and family of Abilene, with some of their friends, visited Harry Welch and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Doggett were visitors from Brownwood Sunday.

Miss Lois Blackwell spent the week end with Miss Mada Hudson at Evant.

Bro. Liles was sent back to this charge for another year. We hope all can help and make it a better one than the last.

W. W. Head and family and Bill Lucas and family visited their sister, Mrs. Chloe Adams, and family at DeLeon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schwartz and his sister of Talpa visited their aunt, Mrs. Ellis Reid, and family last week end.

Rev. Travis Sparkman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Sparks of Locker spent the first of the week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Head.

Ewell Venable and family and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Jones visited Robert Lee Sunday.

Mrs. Ercher McCasland, Nella Beth and Larry and Mrs. Venable visited in the Oglesby home Sunday afternoon.

Ira Allredge was carried to a doctor at Evant. He has been suffering for some time with infected hands, said to be caused from working with hay. We hope he can soon be cured.

Barney Carter visited his brother, Allan, and family the first of the week.

Miss Clara Blackwell and Wendell Hamilton, who are attending school at Stephenville, are sending in fine reports of their school work. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blackwell and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hamilton, and families visited them recently.

Mrs. Charles Sheldon of Star visited relatives here the first of the week.

Fayne Coffman missed school Thursday, on account of illness. Jimmie Head of Lometa visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Head, and attended Sunday school last Sunday.

Miss Gladys Casbeer, who is teaching again at Pleasant Grove, visited her mother, Mrs. Emma Casbeer, last week end.

Brook McCasland and family spent the week end in Abilene. Their daughter, Miss McLean, is doing nicely in the school there.

This community extends sympathy to members of the Langford and Smith families in the tragic death of Mr. Sammie Smith last week. Mr. Smith was liked by all who knew him here. He visited here often before leaving Goldthwaite, as he had a place leased stocked with sheep and goats.

Mrs. Joe Langford's sister, Mrs. Mollie Dutton, is quite ill with pneumonia. Her father, J. E. Carter, came from Mexia to be with the family. His health is not the best, and the weather is bad, so he is staying with Langford most of the week.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Calotabs have found in Calotabs a valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the dose at five night if needed. Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators, cleansing the intestinal tract of germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

THE BOX SUPPER OVER

The box supper was better attended than was expected Friday night. The roads were very rough and muddy and the weather somewhat threatening, yet eleven dollars and some cents were made. The money will be used to build a night basket ball court at Caradan for the outside and school teams of Mount Olive, Midway and Caradan. The following officers were elected: Manager, Will Roberts; treasurer, Jess Stewart.

The following committees were appointed to see after material and building of court and equipment:

Mr. Smith, Mr. Cooke and Harry Couch from Mount Olive; Harold Beard and Miss Floy Beard from Midway; and Wilbur Ship and Frank Kerby from Caradan. Work will begin at once. Those that did not get to attend the box supper and are interested in basket ball and wish to help on the court may see Jess Stewart. We will need more money to build a good court for you.

P.-T. A.

We did not get to organize a P.-T. A. so there will be a meeting at the Mount Olive school house Wednesday night to organize a P.-T. A. Come and help build your school.

NEW LIGHT

The electric equipment for lighting the Mount Olive school came Saturday, so we will have electric lights for Wednesday night. The intermediate room also has two new records and have been practicing on some new songs.

THIS AND THAT

If a fellow does nothing but shoot his mouth off, it's probably because he has no aim in life.

Then there is the proud father who wanted his son to be a carpenter, so he sent him to a boarding school.

Many a girl has discovered that a gay old dog's affections have turned out to be puppy-love.

The time for a man to play with fire is when he has money to burn.

Another thing that Mr. Cooke won't trust around the corner is a woman driver.

"I'll never get over it," sighed Miss Neal, as she looked at the moon.

"Just because the way to a man's heart is through his stomach isn't a sign he'll swallow everything," said Mr. Smith.

Elton Huckabee thinks marriage is a great game, but it always ends in a tie.

DeLoyd says the vowels are A, E, I, O and U and sometimes apostrophe and S.

Evelyn says a synonym is a word she uses when she can't spell the other word.

WE WONDER WHY—?

James bid $1.80 on a box Friday night?

Curtis and T. J. got their heads washed Tuesday.

Mr. Cooke turns in at a gate about a quarter of a mile from Caradan so often.

MIXING IT UP

Last summer I proposed to Mary and she turned me down cold, so to spite her I married her mother. That made Mary my daughter. But my father married Mary, and that made my daughter my mother, my father my son-in-law, and my wife my grandmother.

Mr. Cooke: Who can tell me what the former ruler of Russia was called.

Seventh grade (in unison): Tsar.

Mr. Cooke: Correct. And what was his wife called?

Class: Tsarina.

Mr. Cooke: What were the tsar's children called?

DeLoyd Benningfield, who had kept quiet until now, answered: Tsardines!

Lorene Hodges: I met a man last night who could read a person's character by the face.

Norma Lee Benningfield: Did you try him out?

Lorene: Yes, and was my face red?

Elmer Koen: I suppose a lot of women will be made miserable when I marry.

Ruby Ballentine: Why, how many women are you going to marry?

Miss Neal: And now if I were to be flogged, what would that be?

Arvel: That would be corporal punishment.

Miss Neal: And if I were to be beheaded, what would that be?

T. J. Burks: Oh, that would be capital.

Mr. Cooke: Now, if I lay three eggs here and five eggs here, how many eggs will I have?

Buoy Lane (with a questioning glance): I don't believe you can do it, sir.

ROCK SPRINGS

The old fashioned fellowship meeting with the Rock Springs church was a huge success. The spiritual meeting and the sermon by Bro. Davis was enjoyed in the morning. Everybody brought their well filled baskets, and we really had some split bonnets. We appreciate the Rock Springs members, and the Jones Valley church for coming in a body. We wish to thank Mrs. Mary James, Mr. and Mrs. Tas Renfro of Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bowman and Clara, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Weaver, W. T. Kirby and Mrs. Mamie Windsor and Miss Lora Newton of Goldthwaite, Mrs. Ernest Jarrett, Elton and Bonnie, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stark and children of Center Point, Mrs. Hillard Dyches of Breckenridge, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nelson of Big Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Goodwin of Long Cove, Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Turner and baby of Algerita for coming to help make our day a success. Mr. Weaver had charge of the old time singing in the afternoon. There was singin from the "Sacred Harp" and "Christian Harmony" books. And don't think Mrs. John Roberts can't play all of them without a book!

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Salters and baby of Fort Worth visited in the McClary home from Friday until Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Nickols, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Nickols visited in the Nickols home Sunday.

Herbert Cooke of Mount Olive Horace Cooke of Center City and Nellie D. Cooke of Winters visited with their father, W. A. Cooke, from Friday until Monday evening.

James Nickols did his usual barber work in the Nickols home Sunday.

Janette Roberts is visiting Glenn Nickols and wife in town.

We regret to lose the Jess Massey family from our community. They are moving to Walter Weatherby's place at Lake Merritt. We are not only losing a good neighbor, but the children from the school.

The cold norther may result in hog killing for those prepared for such.

Mrs. M. E. Faulkner visited Mrs. Joe Roberts and Janette Thursday evening.

Miss Jackie Luckie of Center City visited Nellie D. Cooke over the week end and Armistice Day.

Homer Doggett of Coleman spent Saturday night and Sunday night with his wife and baby in the Nickols home.

J. Frank Davis was not feeling so well Sunday, but W. A. Cooke was better after a week of ill health.

Millard Orr went to visit his mother, Mrs. Juanita Orr, of Wichita Falls Saturday. His grand parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Davis, will miss the child, as he is a lot of company for them.

Hillard Dyches and boys of Breckenridge visited his sister, Mrs. Dearson, in Priddy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Traylor, Greta and Christine visited in the Massey home Sunday night.

Mrs. Hillard Dyches and Betty of Breckenridge and Mrs. Mary James of Mullin came to spend the day in the J. T. Robertson home Sunday, but on arrival found them prepared to go to the old time church service, so attended church at Rock Springs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Skeets Pearson visited in the Massey home Sunday. Mrs. Traylor, Waldine, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts visited in that home Monday afternoon.

Beryl Vann Roberts visited school Monday evening.

Nella Moore of Brownwood visited in the home of her sister, Mrs. E. D. Roberson, from Saturday morning until Monday.

Bernice Traylor visited her mother and sisters over the week end, coming down with Miss Moore. They returned to Brownwood Monday afternoon, after enjoying a "lovely" Armistice day.

Word from Mrs. Eula Nickols tells that she is having a nice visit. She still does not know when she will return home.

The cold wind and rain has been the cause of lots of wood cutting and green tomato gathering Monday, as many fear the first frost of the year.

NOTICE OF ELECTION

The State of Texas, County of Mills, City of Goldthwaite.

To the resident qualified property tax paying voters of the city of Goldthwaite, Texas:

Take notice that an election will be held in the city of Goldthwaite, Texas, on the 30th day of November, A. D. 1935, on the proposition and at the place more particularly set forth in the election order adopted by the city council on the 13th day of November, A. D. 1935, which is as follows:

Resolution and Order

By the city council of the city of Goldthwaite, Texas, calling an election on the question of the issuance of $6,000.00 bonds for the purpose of financing a portion of the cost of constructing a sanitary sewer system in said city and the levying of a tax in payment thereof.

Whereas, there is necessity of a sanitary sewer system in the city of Goldthwaite, Texas; and

Whereas, it is considered to be to the best interests of the city that the bonds of the city be issued on said proposition as hereinafter more fully set out, for the purpose of financing a portion of the cost of constructing such sanitary sewer system.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered by the city council of the city of Goldthwaite, Texas, that an election be held on the 30th day of November, A. D. 1935, at which election the following proposition shall be submitted to the resident, qualified, property tax paying voters of said city, who have duly rendered their property for taxation, for their action thereupon.

Proposition

Shall the city council of the city of Goldthwaite, Texas, be authorized to issue the bonds of the city of Goldthwaite, Texas, in the amount of $6,000.00, maturing serially, within twelve years from their date, bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum, and to levy a tax on all taxable property in said city, sufficient to pay interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund with which to pay the principal at maturity, for the purpose of financing a portion of the cost of constructing a sanitary sewer system within said city, as authorized by the constitution and laws of the state of Texas. That said election shall be held in the district court room within said city, and the following named persons are hereby appointed managers thereof, to-wit:

- J. S. BOWLES, Judge,
- L. B. ASHLEY, Judge,
- LUCILLE CONRO, Clerk,
- LUCILLE FAIRMAN, Clerk.

That said election shall be held under the provisions of, and in accordance with the laws governing the issuance of municipal bonds in cities as provided in the general laws of the state of Texas, and only rest qualified taxpaying voters, own taxable property in the and who have duly rendered same for taxation shall be eligible to vote.

That ballots for said election shall have written or printed thereon the following words: "For the issuance of bonds, the levying of a tax in payment thereof."

"Against the issuance of bonds and the levying of a tax in payment thereof."

Each voter shall mark with black ink or pencil of the above expressions, thus indicating the other as indicating vote.

That a copy of this resolution and order, signed by the mayor of said city and attested by city secretary, shall serve proper notice of said election to the date of said election.

The mayor is further authorized and directed to cause the notice of election to be published in some newspaper of general circulation, published on same day in each of two consecutive weeks in said city, the date of the first publication shall be not less than four full days prior to the date of said election.

Passed and approved this day of November, A. D. 1935 (Seal) H. G. BODKIN, Mayor of the City of Goldthwaite, Texas.

Attest: F. P. BOWMAN, City Secretary, City of Goldthwaite, Texas.

NOTICE OF SANITARY SEWER REVENUE BOND ELECTION

The State of Texas, County of Mills, City of Goldthwaite.

To the resident qualified property tax paying voters of the city of Goldthwaite, Texas: Take notice that an election will be held in the city of Goldthwaite, Texas, on the 30th day of November, A. D. 1935, on the proposition and at the place more particularly set forth in the election order adopted by the city council on the 13th day of November, A. D. 1935, which is as follows:

Resolution and Order
By the city council of the city of Goldthwaite, Texas, calling an election on the question of the issuance of Twenty-five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars, revenue bonds for the purpose of financing a portion of the cost of constructing a sanitary sewer system in said city, and the pledging of the revenues of the system to the payment thereof.

Whereas, there is necessity for the construction of a sanitary sewer system for the city of Goldthwaite, Texas; and

Whereas, it is considered to be to the best interest of the city that a portion of the cost of constructing such a system be financed by the issuance of revenue bonds, payable solely from and secured by an exclusive first lien on and pledge of the revenues of the sanitary sewer system to be constructed, after deductions for reasonable operation and maintenance expenses, all in accordance with the provisions of articles 1111-1118 both inclusive, of the 1925 revised civil statutes of Texas, as amended, and in no wise supported by an ad valorem or other tax on property in the city; and

Whereas, the city council deems it necessary and proper that the question of the issuance of such revenue bonds be submitted to the qualified electors of said city.

Therefore, be it resolved and ordered by the city council of the city of Goldthwaite, Texas:

1. That an election be held on the 30th day of November, A. D. 1935, at which election the following proposition shall be submitted: to-wit: "Shall the city council of the city of Goldthwaite, Texas, be authorized to issue Twenty-five Thousand ($25,000.00) dollars, revenue bonds of the said city maturing serially over a period of years, not to exceed thirty-five (35), bearing interest at the rate of four (4) per centum per annum payable semi-annually, for the purpose of financing a portion of the cost of constructing a sewer system in said city; and to provide for the payment of principal and interest on said bonds by pledging the net revenues from the operation of said sanitary sewer system."

2. That said election shall be held at the within said city, and the following named persons are hereby appointed managers thereof, to-wit:

- J. S. BOWLES, Presiding Judge,
- L. E. ASHLEY, Judge,
- LUCILLE CONRO, Clerk,
- LUCILLE FAIRMAN, Clerk.

3. That said election shall be held under the provisions of, and in accordance with the laws governing the issuance of municipal bonds in cities as provided in general laws of the state of Texas, and only qualified electors, who own taxable property in the city and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be qualified to vote.

All voters, who favor the proposition to issue the said bonds, shall have written or printed on their ballots, the following words: "For the issuance of sewer system revenue bonds, and the pledging of revenues of the sanitary sewer system to the payment thereof." And those opposed to the proposition to issue the said bonds shall have written or printed on their ballots, the words: "Against the issuance of sewer system revenue bonds, and the pledging of the revenues of the sanitary sewer system to the payment thereof."

4. That a copy of this resolution and order, signed by the mayor of said city and attested by the city secretary, shall serve

LONG COVE

Everyone is really glad to see Old Man Sun come out and shine again, after so much bad weather.

Several met at the school building Friday night and organized the P.-T. A. for this year. However, we did not learn all of the particulars, as we were not there.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Delano of Killeen spent the latter part of the week here with their son, Bill Delano, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bain and Morris Malone were business visitors in Lampasas Saturday.

Mrs. Edith McWhorter returned to her home in Goldthwaite Thursday, after visiting Mrs. L. W. Hill a few days.

Jim Hunt of Scallorn has been grinding feed in this community the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hill and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bain Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Turnbo were visitors in the David Neal home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Hodges of Mullin visited relatives here over the week end.

Estelle Hill is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Barton Hodges of Mullin.

Mr and Mrs. Tom Conrad called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conrad Sunday.

A. F. Shelton of Mullin, one of the county's best men and one of the Eagle's most appreciated friends, transacted business in this city the early part of the week.

We buy pecans.—Bledsoe & Rudd.

Mrs. W. J. Ford of Scallorn was a visitor in Goldthwaite Tuesday, while en route home from a visit to her son-in-law and daughter, Prof. and Mrs. Dave Williamson, in Menard. She also met a number of friends while in Menard.

INTER-RACIAL COMPLICATIONS

The world looks on with interest as the Italian-Ethiopian struggle progresses, yet the vital interest has not been elicited that would have resulted from a general realization of the inter-racial complications that may arise. It is a fact that a great majority of the world's population is colored, and a great majority of these colored people are dominated by whites. If the Italy-Ethiopian disorder leads to a decisive split between the two great groups, it will be one of the most important events in the history of the world—an event that, over a period of many years, perhaps centuries, could change all the maps and remake the earth to a different plan.

A negro leader and writer suggests the danger of complications, in an article in the last issue of Foreign Affairs, and predicts that a victory for Italy would be costly to the white race. He is probably wrong in his conclusions, especially since it is a fact that most, if not all, of the foremost nations of the world are in sympathy with Ethiopia. Yet that spirit of sympathy may not avail in future considerations. We can readily recall that when Japan started her invasion of Manchuria a few years ago, the white nations seemed to be solidly on the side of China. Japan was called an outlaw among nations, was held to be a menace to the peace of the world. Yet a legion of white observers have returned from the Orient since, bringing news that China today feels more friendly to the Japanese who tried—and are still trying—to wrest from her a large share of her territory, than she does toward the English, the Americans, the Germans and other nations who sympathize with her in the struggle. It is impossible to estimate just what a nation's reaction may be toward those who sympathized and helped in an emergency. It may be that some ulterior motive may be attributed and animosity rather than friendship may be engendered. It is entirely possible that the gulf between the white and colored races may be widened by the controversy and contest brought about by Italy in Ethiopia.

TOWNSEND PENSION PLAN

There has been very little serious consideration given the Townsend pension plan, except by those who would be directly benefited by its provisions, yet there are some good features involved in the plan. While it will not be adopted in the very near future, because of the immense amount involved, yet it would be an ideal plan on some lines, once it was in operation. It would do away with unemployment in this country forever, and if the finances could be provided as Dr. Townsend, its originator, estimates it could be raised, it would bring about a great economic change. It is true, no doubt, that ten million or more people would automatically go on the pension rolls and that several billions of dollars would be required to pay these pensions, yet the pension would have to be sufficient to attract men and women from gainful operations when they reach the age limit.

The plan would also do away with selfishness to a great extent, since every person with a record free from crime would realize that once they reached the age of sixty, the pension would automatically come to them and provide them with all the necessities of life and many of the luxuries; hence they would have no reason for a continued effort to accumulate means for their support after they have passed the productive age.

Of course, the plan would take away the incentive for effort and energy to a large extent, and that condition would make a great change in economic affairs and might have a tendency toward profligacy and inertia, but most people who are nearing the age limit or have already reached it would like to give the plan a tryout anyway.

A MAP ON AGRICULTURE

For many years in the early history of this country it was a practice of farmers and others interested in agricultural pursuits to plant such crops as they desired wherever they wanted to plant, without any knowledge or information as to the adaptability of the soil or the climatic conditions. Then many of the state governments undertook to educate those who would know how to analyze soil conditions and the adaptability of certain soils to the growth of desired crops. This effort has been highly successful, and all that should be known has not been taught or learned along this line, but the country has made and is still making progress in the right direction. In line with these efforts, a new map is in course of preparation and is supposed to be completed in about two years that will attempt to locate areas where weather conditions are best adapted to various crops. The work includes recording, interpreting and correlating weather facts to show the relation between climate and agricultural production.

Once this is completed, it will be possible to make far more accurate estimates of crop production, and to advise farmers all over the world as to the possibilities that may lie ahead of them. The work is in charge of government experts and scientists, and it is reasonable to hope for decidedly beneficial results from the preparation and use of a map or chart of this character.

BUSINESS BUILDING BACK

Reports continue to come from all parts of the country showing that the business affairs are improving in almost all lines, giving encouragement for the present and faith in the future. Earnings for the third quarter of 1935, as reported by 184 industrial corporations of the United States, showed a gain of 36.3 per cent over the same quarter last year, according to the Associated Press. During the first three quarters their gains aggregated 29.6 per cent over the same period last year. Percentage gains by major groups of industries were in keeping with these figures. These same improvements are noted, to a greater or less extent, in the smaller business enterprises throughout the country, as well as in individual affairs. Everybody everywhere appears to be improved in spirit, at least, and looking to the future with hope and confidence.

PECAN SHELLING

Pecans, the favorite nut of thousands of people, may be the source for the spread of disease, according to the director of the bureau of food and drugs. The pecan itself isn't to blame, but the manner in which it is shelled and later handled is the cause for this warning.

The shelled pecan industry has assumed large proportions in the last few years and the shellers in other states have attacked the Texas product on the ground that the shelled nuts are not handled in a sanitary manner. The large packing houses that have the nuts shelled in their own packing plants maintain a satisfactory standard of sanitation. The evil of the shelled pecan industry is where pecans are taken into individual homes where no supervision is possible.

Many Mexicans, negroes and a few whites do this work at home, with at times the neighbors coming in to help them out. It is possible for the communicable diseases to spread by shelled pecans, and for that reason it will be to the public's advantage to ask where the pecans were shelled and under what conditions. The food inspectors of the state department of health have investigated the home shelling of pecans for hire and report that many homes where this work is done are most unsanitary.

All persons engaged in shelling pecans should have a health certificate; the same as any other food handler. The purchaser should demand that the pecans they buy shall have been shelled by such a person and handled in a sanitary manner and under supervision to lessen the chances for the spread of tuberculosis, colds, dysentery, typhoid and other diseases.

KEEP ON FIGHTING

The agricultural west and the agricultural south are at least learning to fight together. For generations they suffered from having to buy everything in a tariff-protected American market and sell everything in a competitive world market. "If industry is to have special privileges, agriculture must have them," is now their slogan, as the Progressive Farmer says:—

"Whatever may be the decisions of courts as to any specific features of the AAA, the overwhelming votes of the farmers show that they have learned by experience that the control of farm production is necessary to their own economic life, and also to that of the nation. They know that the nation is better fed and clothed and all are more prosperous when no more crops or animals are produced than can be sold at a fair price to the consumers.

"Farmers do not underestimate the strength of the opposition to present agricultural policies, nor the effects of adverse decisions of the courts. The privilege of dictating agricultural policies, so long enjoyed by other interests, those interests will not readily give up. Even now the United States chamber of commerce has a commission appointed, on which there is not a single cotton producer, to solve the problems of cotton!

"But farmers today are studying their economic interests as never before, and they now know the economics of their business as well as any other class. They are not going to stop and lie down because of temporary defeats in the courts or in congress. They have tasted the sweets of a partial and long delayed justice—and after the experience of the last five years, through depression and partial recovery, they must be reckoned with in the future in all national affairs affecting their industry.

"If the processing tax is declared unconstitutional and some other way can be found under the constitution to give farmers the equivalent of tariff benefits and to permit them to control their production, well and good. If this is impossible, then the constitution must be amended. The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath," said the Master of

NOTES AND COMMENTS
(By A. Writer)

Laugh this off: Big business would like to reform itself!

Children who dislike school seldom know what a good time they are having.

The best way to keep government out of business is to keep business out of politics.

When you touch the pocket-book nerve of the average citizen dynamite comes to life.

Many newspaper men are against accepting public jobs until somebody offers them one.

By and large, it might be better if the laborers of the country managed to get larger incomes.

If you see two men putting their heads together the chances are that one is telling the other a joke.

Trading in Goldthwaite is an exhibition of civic loyalty that every good citizen should attempt to make.

Correct this sentence: "I believe strongly in the enforcement of all laws that seem to be just and proper to me."

A forest fire is a dangerous thing—so be careful when you are in the woods and see that you don't start a blaze.

The average man will be glad to extend you financial assistance after you get to the point that you don't need it.

A survey says that youth is losing its influence—why, the fact is that old folks are getting younger every year.

A newspaper, as a general rule, is no better than the community in which it circulates, and rarely is it worse.

Contributions to the Eagle are always welcomed even if, occasionally, it is impossible to print them all.

Pay up your subscription during the early part of November and enjoy Thanksgiving without any qualms of conscience.

Promise the average voter a job, or a few dollars off, and he will forget all he know about the constitution.

The course of history shows that nations have generally resorted to war for material gains; in short, they sought plunder.

A few years ago most of us had too much money in closed banks; now we hardly manage to keep anything in the open ones.

Getting mad with a newspaper because it doesn't print everything to suit your opinions is a sign that you are not sure of your opinions.

Borrowing money to spend today may sound easy, if you can find a lender, but when the payments fall due the job assumes proportions.

Speaking of transformations—have you ever seen a sensible couple imagine that Junior or Sister inaugurated a new species of genius?

Despite the talk that is bandied around the country by those who know better, there are few newspaper men who can be bought or bribed.

National joke: Tariff protected manufacturer yelling his head off because the government has a processing tax with which to pay farmers crop benefits.

We know at least a dozen men right here in Mills county, who can solve the problems of the universe faster than you can put the propositions before them.

Merchants who advertise in the Eagle are not the only ones who have something to sell, but they are the only ones that are bragging about it.

The League of Nations is making fairly effective stabs to show that it has grown its teeth and knows how to use them. No peaceful nation should do anything to prevent the League's success in halting the war in Ethiopia.

old and so it must be with the nation's fundamental law. The constitution was intended to serve the people to their help and its patriot makers never intended that the people should bow down and serve it to their hurt. It must be kept up to date in order that it may be an instrument serving twentieth century living men and not merely a monument glorifying a falsely assumed infallibility of 18th century dead men."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

VIEWS OF THE NATION'S PRESS ON TOPICS OF INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE

TAKING THE PLAY FROM JAPAN

The western nations are not likely to clash with Japan over her territorial ambitions in Asia—provided we leave out Russia, whose friction with Japan presents a problem in itself. But western nations have great interest in the Orient, and there is now an indication of how these interests may lead to action which the Japanese will dislike. An instance is now given: Japanese journals are protesting the British aid to Nanking in getting the Chinese off a silver money base and putting them on paper—in much the same manner by which the United States, Britain and other countries left gold. The job in China is much more difficult, since the Chinese people have no such supply of paper money, or faith in it, as Britain and the United States long have had. But Britain has much silver at her disposal, from the inexhaustible hordes of India. She is in a position not only to give the Nanking chieftains financial advice and leadership, but to bolster their course with a plentiful supply of the white metal.

Britain is not, of course, doing this from an entirely altruistic motive. She values her trade with China, and that trade has been sadly injured by the United States' silver-buying policy, which has brought on a vast deflation in China. Further, the British would like to have Chinese money put at a ratio with their own, favorable to themselves—and this doubtless will be done.

Japan very naturally resents this British leadership in Chinese affairs, and perhaps sees more difficulty for herself in dealing with an economically prosperous China, than with a depression-ridden China.

The incident also reminds the Japanese that the white man isn't out of the Orient yet, and that his course may not be the cautious sealing away, or acceptance of Japanese commercial domination, which it has envisaged.

No one need see in this development danger of war; yet it lends color to the talk that some day Japanese ambition to control Asia and the Orient will clash with Britain's interests there.

Perhaps, however, the two empires will have the good sense to co-operate, rather than fight. This is not beyond the probabilities.—Houston Chronicle.

REMNANT OF DARK AGES

Utterly inconsistent with dictates of humanity" was the description applied to the chain gang systems in Georgia and some other Southern states by the American prison association meeting at Atlanta. There are few who will not echo this condemnation of a mode of punishment, which is a remnant of the Dark Ages. Its abolition in the United States is long overdue.

Prison should not be made so attractive to the felon that it becomes little more than a vacation period from a life of crime; but there is, conversely, no excuse for it being the abode of barbaric practices. The abuses of the chain gang have from time to time been brought to the attention of the public, but it clanks on unreformed.

The association which now calls for its abolition is composed of prison officials and penologists of long experience in rehabilitating the offender for a new life. They can not be accused of sentimentality. They know that men chained to labor on the roads are generally brutalized by the experience and few are fitted to enter a better life when the shackle is removed.

Co-operation with other public organizations looking toward the removal of this medieval blot from the American prison system will be undertaken by the association. President Roosevelt has been asked to use his good

COWARDLY

Dog poisoners not only are cowardly for the cruel, agonizing deaths they inflict upon dumb animals, but they present a direct threat to the lives and safety of little children, as well. All too frequently cases are written into the record where the deadly mixtures they concoct and spread surreptitiously have been picked up and eaten by toddlers or other youngsters.

There is no possible excuse or justification for anyone to stoop to such a practice. If a dog or any other pet maintained by a neighbor becomes a nuisance, the sensible and lawful procedure is to take the matter up with the owner, not to take it out on the dog.

Various laws exist to deal with the dog poisoner, and deal with him severely, as he deserves. Potentially, his activities carry the threat of homicide, and there should be no temporizing in prosecuting such cases to the limit.

It is not necessary here to dwell on the sorrow and grief the poisoner brings to so many families, particularly to children, when he destroys beloved pets and companions. Those who have witnessed the pitiful sufferings of prized animals that have fallen innocent victims to the poison and ground-glass spreaders, are not to be blamed if they have nothing but loathing and bitter contempt for human beings who can sink to such depths of unmitigated cruelty. One such experience usually will suffice to convince any dog lover that the whipping post has been abolished too soon.

HALLOWEEN HOODLUMISM

Hoodlumism rampant in Texas cities at halloween is a local phenomenon. Nowhere else is there found such a period of license as is set up by the custom of going masked and further disguised by fanciful costumes which prevails on this one evening of the year. And thus nowhere else is there afforded the opportunity to the vicious to riot with small danger of detection and punishment.

Halloween becomes each year more a nightmare to the police of Texas cities. They are practically helpless, in the swarm of masks and disguises, in their efforts to protect the persons and property of the public against hoodlumism. If matters go on as they are, drastic measures must be resorted to.

The halloween festival would be entirely enjoyable fun if there were only well-intended and good natured people. Unfortunately, there are vicious people, who take advantage of the concealment afforded by halloween custom. Well-intentioned and good natured people, who may with safety be permitted the liberties of halloween, may themselves be willing to forego masks and disguises so that these devices may be forbidden the vicious and criminal.—Star Telegram.

offices with Gov. Eugene Tal-merge to bring abolition. The Georgia executive in an address before the association declared the gangs were preferable to confinement in prison.

A committee was appointed to visit chain gangs and prisons and acquaint the public with conditions that need correction. In this practical way the association should accomplish much in ending a penal practice which smacks of revenge rather than reform.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

SOYBEAN POSSIBILITY

A recent series of articles in The News on soybean possibilities in Texas and their agricultural and industrial uses has attracted much interest in various parts of the state. While Texas has always held to a conservative attitude in its agricultural program, one which will give the safe procedure over a period of years by agricultural experiment stations and the extension service, it is now pointed to the need for considering new ideas in a time when Texas is nearly out of its foreign cotton market.

The restrictions imposed on cotton farmers necessarily for adjustments to changed conditions. Idle cotton land, it may be planted to feed for consumption only on a farm which produces a really calls for a compensating crop, a new cash income will replace that from the bales. Reshaping of the southern agricultural economy is perhaps the most important need at present. Unfortunately in the excitement and confusion of federal reduction campaigns there was little opportunity for thinking of substitutes.

There is a definite demand among progressive farmers everywhere for information on crops which might be sources of cash income. The Texas Soybean Information Service received by The News as a sufficient proof of wide interest in something besides cotton. The east Texas chamber of commerce is to be commended for its projected soybean meetings at strategic locations. Texas cotton crushers are keenly alive to the importance of obtaining a steady volume of new oil-bearing seeds to keep their plants operating, following the loss of nearly one half of their former normal supply of cottons. Soybeans are worth careful investigation.—Dallas News.

WHAT "STEP ON IT" IS DOING

Recently on the same day reports were published with reference to the two major methods of transportation in the United States. One was issued by the U. S. Department of Commerce, the other by the U. S. Department of Transportation. The former stated that not a single passenger had been killed in a traffic accident on steam railroads during the first six months of 1935. The latter reported that during the twelve months of 1934 automobile accidents were the cause of 33,980 fatalities; stated further that these appalling figures showed a big jump over 1933, as 1933 also did 1932.

What is being done about it? Sometimes it seems as though the daily record of automobile casualties has numbed the public into apathy. Answering the question, "What is being done about it?" there has been a vast outlay of money and splendid engineering skill in highway construction and traffic signs. And yet the shocking toll continues.

What can be done about it? A radio address recently by Pettibone, past president of the national safety council, speaker of the various campaigns urged emphatically that education alone will not do the job. Safer automobiles and still safer highways must be built. Motor manufacturers, he expects, will construct automobiles safe to operate and also comparatively easy to maintain in such condition.

When all this shall be accomplished, however, there remains the personal equation. The selfish, law-breaking speeder kills and maims. And thinking persons, concluded Mr. Pettibone, agree that the highways must be reserved for the sane drivers; the reckless, the heedless and the speeders must turn over a new leaf or go.—Christian Science Monitor.

Rev. J. S. Bowles, who is a member of Central Texas Methodist conference, attended the session at Brownwood last week, returning home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nellie Dee Cooke was here from Winters, spending the Armistice holiday with home folk and friends. She and Miss Jackie Luckie of Center City made the Eagle a much appreciated call Saturday.

Tip For Herb

Herbert Hoover was asked three times in New York, "Do you intend to run for president?" and he ignored the question each time. He should have answered the question. He may not be asked again.—Cleveland Press.

Still Coughing?

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

CLOTHES PIN PARTY

Friday night the home economics girls were entertained with a clothes pin party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hale. Many enjoyable games were played throughout the evening. Most of them were played with clothes pins. We had to have a clothes pin to get in. Those who enjoyed this delightful party were Virginia Dennard, Robert Doak, Lore Renfro, Cleve Colvin, Claude Colvin, Adell Bynum, Melvin Doak, Miss Bird, Hoyt Cockrell, Alberta Windham, Garland Patterson, Wayne Miller, Mary Hapgood, Mr. Wilmett, Flora Weaver, Estell Miller, Jesse Mae Sheppard, Veseva Sellers, Bert Murphy, Lillard Wilmoth, Miss Butler, Vance Cockrell, Howard Weaver, Woodrow Long, Nell Miller, Clarence Duey, Sallie Jean Hyslop, Lorean Shotwell, Dora Dean Hale, Ruth and Ina Bea Hale, Ga and Boyd Knowles, Vernon Bynum, Mrs. Ernest Weaver and daughter of Menard, Mr. and Mrs. Connie Knowles, Loyd Davee, Marzell Hicks, Robert Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Hale and children.

SCAVENGER HUNT

The senior class was entertained with a party at the home of Miss Virginia Dennard Saturday night. The main feature of the evening was a "scavenger hunt." Each couple was supplied with a list of articles to find, and left the house in high hopes of winning the prize. We all returned to the house at a designated time with our articles. Vance Cockrell, Dora Dean Hale, Melvin Doak and Alberta Windham won the prize for finding everything on their list and returning to the house first.

Those who enjoyed this delightful affair were: Dora Dean Hale, Vance Cockrell, Melvin Doak, Alberta Windham, Ruth Hale, Wayne Miller, Sallie Jean Hyslop, Lore Renfro, A. J. House, Bertha Sykes, Howard Weaver, Virginia Long, Pat Murphy, Virginia Dennard, Jo O'Dell, Woodrow Long, Miss Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sloan and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dennard and children.

THIRTEEN THINGS

TO REMEMBER

Adell Bynum
The value of time.
The success of perseverance.
The pleasure of working.
The dignity of simplicity.
The worth of character.
The power of kindness.
The influence of example.
The obligation of duty.
The wisdom of economy.
The improvement of talent.
The virtue of patience.
The joy of originating.
The thirteenth is: The partnership you will have in the divine plan if you execute the other twelve.

PIE SUPPER

There will be a pie supper at the Lower Big Valley church house Friday night, November 16 (tonight). Proceeds are to go to repairing the church house. Everyone come and bring a pie.

OLD CITIZEN PASSED AWAY

Mr. M. V. Nowell, one of the oldest citizens of the county in point of years as well as in time of residence, died at his home in Big Valley last Saturday morning at 2 o'clock and his remains were interred in the cemetery in the upper valley Saturday afternoon, the sad service being attended by a large congregation of his friends and the friends of the family of that community and elsewhere.

Mr. Nowell was in his 95th year and had been a citizen of this county since 1877. He bought a farm in Big Valley in 1876 and the following year moved on the place and continued to reside there until the time of his death. He was reared in Missouri, but came to Texas in early life, first locating in Denton county and soon thereafter came to Mills county. He was a member of the Baptist denomination and the last of the charter membership of Jeff Davis camp of Confederate veterans.

Mr. Nowell was an honorable man, a good neighbor and a faithful friend. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. J. H. Burnett of Big Valley and Mrs. Winfield of Comanche, and by five sons, H. C., J. J., Jim, John and George, the last named being the only one of the sons who is a resident of Mills county.

LOWER BIG VALLEY

We are having winter at last. At the time of this writing, we have had two big frosts and some very cold northers.

Miss Laura Nelson spent last week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Oglesby and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oglesby Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Thompson and sons, Campbell and Lacy, Mrs. Oran Hale and little son visited relatives in Dallas from Sunday until Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith were guests of Mrs. Sena Ezell Sunday.

Walter Nelson attended singing at Rock Springs Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson are driving a beautiful new car.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith visited a while in the Warlick home Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Abijah Stark and sons spent Sunday with Austin Whitt and family of Rock Springs.

Miss Adell Bynum was a guest of Miss Leatrice Smith Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nelson and little daughter spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nelson's.

Mrs. J. W. Warlick is the proud grandmother of a beautiful little girl, who arrived last Tuesday to announce herself boss over the Hilliard Whitt household. Mrs. Whitt will be remembered as Miss Ila Mae Warlick, a former resident of our community. Both mother and little Glenda Fayne are reported doing nicely.

Boyd Knowles was slightly hurt last Tuesday as he fell from a pecan tree while threshing pecans. He was able to break his fall, however, by catching a limb before reaching the ground.

The turkey market has opened at a good price, and almost everyone is selling this week. We are hoping for the best results in both the market and the turkey crop.

Community pie supper at the Lower Big Valley school house Friday night (tonight). Proceeds will go for repairs on the building everyone invited.

BUSYBODY.

BIG VALLEY

Sunday was our regular preaching day. Quite a few attended services, but we need more to help us out.

Bobby Doak left for Austin Saturday to visit his sister, Mrs. C. M. Patterson, for a few days.

A party sponsored by the home economics class was enjoyed by the class and others in the Harvey Hale home Friday night.

Our community was made sad this past week by the death of Mr. M. V. Nowell. Mr. Nowell has been ill for a number of years. He was up in his nineties and had been a citizen in our community for a long time. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved.

Miss Laura Nelson, who is teaching at Melvin, came in Friday and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nelson.

Melvin Doak and Hoyt Cockrell made a business trip to west Texas this week.

Several of the young folks enjoyed a party at Hugh Dennard's Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burdett and son, Lewis, visited in the Weaver home Sunday afternoon.
