

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1936

NUMBER SEVEN

Will Meet Friday, Oct. 13

Annual meeting of the P. T. A. will be held at the school auditorium, Friday, October 13 at 4 o'clock.

Officers for the year 1936-37: President, Mrs. R. L. Stevens; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Mack Horton; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. D. D. Simpson; Secretary, Mrs. J. A. Cavanagh; Reporter, Mrs. Claude Cavanagh.

Room-mothers chosen for the year: Mrs. Adams, teacher; Mrs. C. A. Hodges, Mrs. Skinner, teacher; Mrs. W. D. Kline; Mrs. Ely, teacher; Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Bar, Mrs. Walter Summy, Simpson.

Mrs. Saylor, teacher; Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Barton; Mrs. Stanley, teacher; Mrs. C. A. Hodges, Mrs. W. W. Stevens, Barton.

Mrs. Patterson; Mrs. Marvin Rudd, Mrs. Earl Luther Soules; Mrs. Carothers; Mrs. G. H. Frizzell, Mrs. Geo. Bohan; Mrs. Walter Doggett.

Mrs. Miss Bigham; Mrs. J. H. Saylor, Mrs. Curtis Long, Mrs. Heatherly.

Mrs. Mr. Schultz; Mrs. O. E. Greathouse; Mrs. Bunt, Mrs. Joe Huff; Mrs. A. Renfro.

Mrs. Mrs. R. H. Chandler; Mrs. Fairman, Mrs. J. Carl Bledsoe; Mrs. Mrs. Allen Ross; Mrs. Rudd, Mrs. R. J. D. D. Tate.

Mrs. Wilbur Fairman, Hartman, Mrs. Fred; Mrs. Marvin Hodges; Mrs. J. A. Hester, Mrs. Mrs. Lewis Gart; Mrs. Jim Faulkner.

That every member, member and friend be present next week. We are especially interested in parents whose children recently entered this school and take part in the work.

One of the things the board did at this meeting that will please our people very much was to extend an invitation to the home at Waco to visit us with the representatives of that great organization some time this fall. This visit of these children has always been a great occasion, and has always been greeted with a full house. It has also greatly inspired the spirit of giving in our people to this most worthy cause. We shall look forward with pleasure to the coming of the children of the home.

PATTERSON-VIRDEN
John Patterson and Miss Lizzie Virden quietly slipped away from their friends in Goldthwaite (Thursday), yesterday morning and went to Llano where they were married by the presiding elder of the Methodist church, Rev. Chas. E. Nixon, after which they left for San Antonio and other points in south Texas for their honeymoon.

Mrs. Patterson is the daughter of John J. Virden, one of the respected pioneers of Mills county, and is greatly admired by a large circle of friends. Mr. Patterson is a son of the late Judge L. E. Patterson and served out the unexpired term of his father as county judge after the latter's death.

The happy couple have the congratulations and best wishes of the entire community.

Methodist Notes

The Methodist folks have been working faithfully at the job of closing up the conference year which is drawing now to a close. Less than a month remains to finish this work. It can be done in that time if each will simply do his or her duty. It is important that this be done and at once. Now for a pull together.

The Red Cross canvass for the annual enrollment is now progressing. The usual time for this is in November, but this year the need is so great that it is thought best to do the work now.

Never has there been a greater necessity for liberality in contributing to this great national organization than now. Distress is everywhere. Scarcely do we read of one great calamity that another occurs, making demands upon the work of the Red Cross.

This is the only organization that can in any sense meet the emergency. True, there is much in a local way to demand our attention. Some even think that this is all that is necessary and excuse themselves with this local work. But we must not fail to understand that in many places the demand is so great that the mere local work can not meet the need. We have examples upon every hand in flood disasters that sweep away entire sections of country, in great fires where cities are devastated and in many ways too numerous to mention. Here the Red Cross has its field of operation and should have the co-operation of all because it is only through our help that it can meet the situation as it confronts it.

This is the reason that some of our people, without salary are making this canvass for membership. There are those, doubtless, who think that these who are working so faithfully at this job are receiving a salary for their labor. The one thing that they receive is the consciousness that they are doing their duty by a great cause. At their own expense they are engaged in this work and this is no small item.

The board of Christian education of the local Methodist church, held last Sunday afternoon, finished its work for the conference year. As many know the church school year, begins with October. Then it is that the new organization begins its work. It is to be hoped that this may be the beginning of a new era in our work, and that all may begin with a spirit that will bring the greatest success. To this end let us use all the energy and sanctified intelligence we possess.

One of the things the board did at this meeting that will please our people very much was to extend an invitation to the home at Waco to visit us with the representatives of that great organization some time this fall. This visit of these children has always been a great occasion, and has always been greeted with a full house. Masons To Attend Brownwood Meeting

Members of the Goldthwaite Masonic lodge are planning to attend a zone meeting of Texas Masonic lodges to be held in Brownwood on October 15.

Barbecue dinner will be served on the campus at Howard Payne college at 6 p. m. Masons arriving in Brownwood at this time will go directly to the college.

Brownwood Lodge No. 279 will be opened at 7 p. m. in the college auditorium, distinguished guests presented and a business session will be held.

Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, Hon. W. Marcus Weathered, of Coleman, will be formally received at 8 p. m. by the Masons, after which he will deliver the address of the evening, his subject being "Rededication of Masonic Principles."

The meeting will close at nine o'clock, or shortly thereafter, to enable Masons from distant lodges to return to their homes as early in the night as possible.

"Masons everywhere are earnestly requested to make every possible effort to attend this meeting as it is anticipated that great inspiration and fellowship will be enjoyed on this great occasion," Goodner Bedford, secretary to Grand Master W. Marcus Weathered of Coleman said.

Counties in zone 11 include: Shackelford, Stephens, Palo Pinto, Callahan, Eastland, Erath, Coleman, Brown, Comanche and Mills.

The eight District Deputy Grand Masters who reside in the zone include, C. M. Barham, Stephenville; William C. Chilton, Comanche; G. R. Kilpatrick, Cisco; George T. Lamar, Cross Plains; Goodner Bedford, Coleman; J. L. Cross, Brownwood; John Harlin, Gordon; and W. D. Clements, Goldthwaite.

Five Blocks of Paving Under Way
Five blocks of paving will soon be laid in Goldthwaite under city supervision with WPA labor.

Caliche base and asphalt topping will be placed on Fourth street west of the postoffice for one block, on Parker street on block south of square, on Hutchings street south of Methodist church for one block and on Fifth street for two blocks adjoining the square.

BAPTIST W. M. S. MEETING
The Baptist W.M.S. met with Mrs. F. E. Swanner Thursday afternoon in a social and business meeting with Mrs. Fannie Brim's circle entertaining.

The rooms were softly lighted and lovely bouquet of roses made the setting more perfect for a friendly and sociable hour.

A very interesting devotional was given by Mrs. Goosby, after which a short program was had followed by spirited games.

In the business the W. M. S. voted to have a luncheon this month, having as our guest speaker, Mrs. Chas. Siveills, district W.M.S. president, Mrs. J. P. King and Mrs. Wilson Fielder a returned missionary of China.

The fall study is starting off with much enthusiasm, having an average attendance of 25 women each Monday.

A delicious refreshment plate was passed to about 30 guests.

Nazarene Remarks

Four more Sundays will close our assembly year. We are not only beginning to look to the district assembly which will meet at First church, San Antonio, November 4-8, but looking into new assembly year and making plans for a greater year's work than that of the present and past. Last Monday night in the annual church meeting most of the major offices were filled for the coming year. With new courage the local congregation presses on with other congregations of the town to do their bit in building up the kingdom of God preparatory to His return.

Our next zone rally will meet at Whon next Friday, October 16. All our people and as many friends as can be urged to attend with us. The young people are expecting to bring the attendance banner back with them. This will be the last zone rally before the assembly.

The prayer service next Wednesday evening will be in charge of the young people's society. All the Sunday services will be at their regular hours. You are invited.

CHARLIE HARRISON, Pastor.

HIGH SCHOOL GLEE CLUB

The Glee club held its first meeting; elected officers and made plans for the year's work. The meeting was held in Mrs. Sullivan's studio and as always she was the inspiration of the meeting. We have a good membership and hope that all will continue to hold the enthusiasm of the meeting.

The following are the newly elected officers: President, Constance Trent; vice-president, Betty Jo Whitacre; secretary, Addie May Summy; treasurer, Lorraine Bledsoe; reporter, Lottie Belle Hester.

On Thursday, October 15 the club is sponsoring "White Fang," at the Melba theatre and we urge every one to see this splendid picture. REPORTER.

MOVES TO GOLDTHWAITE

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Bradford, late of Winters, Texas, have moved to Goldthwaite where he will be a member of the Eagle force.

They are at home in the J. C. Darroch bungalow, which has recently been remodeled and beautifully redecorated within. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford are natives of Gatesville and have many friends in the surrounding towns and counties.

Mills Flood Damage Estimated at $270,000

Estimate of the flood damage in Mills county has been itemized at approximately $270,000 by a report sent in by Mayor H. G. Bodkin and Judge R. J. Gerald to the Central West Texas Flood Control Conservation District. A. D. Kirk at Crawford's Ranch has been appointed director for Mills county for this district which will submit the flood damage report to the army engineers on October 20 in Austin for flood control in the Colorado river area.

Flood losses were itemized as follows: Pecan crop $10,000, damage to pecan trees $25,000, corn crop $15,000, cotton crop $25,000, vegetables and truck gardens $2,000, livestock and poultry $15,000, farm buildings $50,000, farm homes $2,000, county roads, culverts and bridges $40,000, state and federal highways $2,000, farm outbuildings $5,000, farm homes $18,000, furniture $8,000, surface soil $50,000, other losses $6,000.

Baptist Reminder

Our church came back to normal attendance Sunday. We had good crowds at both services. There were a good number present from the country. We appreciate them coming in with us.

At our regular monthly conference Wednesday evening we had encouraging reports from our W.M.S. president; B.T.U. director; and Sunday school superintendent. The treasurer's report showed all bills for the month paid, with a small balance in the bank.

Sunday morning my subject will be, "The Place of the New Testament Church in the World Today." Sunday evening my theme will be in the form of a question, "Is it Nothing to You, All Ye that Pass By?"

Sunday, October 18, Rev. Wilson Fielder of China will visit our church and will preach at both services. He has had 25 years experience as a missionary in China. His message will of course be on conditions in China today. I hope you will make it a point to attend one or both of these services. The women of our church are sponsoring his visit with us.

Church Of Christ

The cool weather should put new life in our blood. We should move with a more rapid pace. This is true in our business affairs and we trust it will in religious matters. This thing of Christians going into hibernation may be comforting, but it is altogether unchristian. We have to serve the Lord daily regardless of the weather.

A good crowd was present for Bible classes Wednesday. A good interest seems to prevail in all lines of the work of the church.

I preached the funeral of Mrs. J. W. Shepherd at Upper Big Valley Baptist church. This is another reminder of the fact that we are all going to face death some day. Are you ready for it my friend?

Come to the Church of Christ services and learn what the Bible says do to be prepared to go to heaven.

E. W. STOVALL, Minister.

Lions Pledge Aid To New Road Plans

Meeting for the first time since last spring, the Goldthwaite Lions club held an enthusiastic session Tuesday evening in the basement of the Methodist church. After enjoying a fine supper prepared by the ladies of the church, numerous business matters were discussed.

After hearing Judge R. J. Gerald and Thomas W. Smith, highway engineer, discuss the state highway department's road program for Mills county, the Lions voted the commissioners court a resolution of confidence and co-operation.

The men teachers in the Goldthwaite schools, who were present as guests of the Lions club president, A. H. Smith, were introduced and their duties briefly sketched. Coach S. E. Cloninger discussed the prospects of the football team which was heartily applauded.

Considerable interest was aroused by president Smith's discussion of the needs of a modern athletic field that would compare with those belonging to the schools at Lampasas, San Saba and Coleman. Such a field would be available for the use of the entire community as well as the school.

TUESDAY STUDY CLUB

The Tuesday Study club met in the home of Mrs. E. B. Gilliam this week.

A review of the mystery novel, "Three Times a Widower," by Adam Bliss was given in a most interesting manner by Mrs. R. L. Steen, Jr. Mrs. Steen told the story of the plot in the first person, making it very realistic. She held her audience in suspense until the climax came revealing the murderer. Miss Adeline Little gave an interesting discussion of "Famous Detectives in Fiction," mentioning Sherlock Holmes, Philo Vance, Skattergood Baines and many others. She also gave the requirements of a real mystery novel.

At the close of the review an attractive salad course was served to club members and Mrs. Rufus McKinney, a guest.

ROCK SPRINGS

Last week was an awful sad week from Sunday until Saturday. Our last death was Vernadine Warren, who was accidentally killed Friday night not far from town. We never know who will be next. This precious child will be missed by her playmates and schoolmates and her dear parents and other relatives and friends. She is in Heaven waiting for her loved ones, and schoolmates and her friends. We extend our deepest sympathy to our dear friends in their grief.

There was Sunday school at 11 o'clock with nineteen present. They are ordering literature for the adults. They have been studying the Bible. We extend sympathy to Mrs. Elder and her children in the loss of their loved one.

The club met with Mrs. W. A. Daniel Friday. There were but a few of the members present. There were three visitors from Big Valley, Mrs. Zona Robertson, Robert Robertson and Geo. Robertson. The ladies almost pieced a quilt, but Mrs. Daniel failed to have enough material for the quilt. Mrs. Daniel served delicious cake and hot chocolate.

The club will meet with Mrs. Woody Traylor the 16th. She will have a quilt ready to quilt.

John Roberts has been busy this week working with his bees and honey.

This church has called Rev. J. C. Wade at town for their pastor. He is to preach Sunday morning and give them his answer.

R. E. Collier and wife visited until bed time with Marion Robertson and family Tuesday night.

J. O. McClary and wife and John Roberts and wife went to Hamilton Friday. Mrs. McClary stayed for a longer visit and Mrs. Blackshire came home with Mr. and Mrs. Roberts. Mr. McClary went after his wife Monday and Mrs. Blackshire went back home.

Mrs. Eula Nickols and Phillip visited in V. D. Tyson's home Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Nickols also visited with Mrs. Oden and Miss Dora.

Clifton Boyd spent Sunday with James Roberts.

Marion Robertson, Oliver Traylor and Rudolph Cooke visited with Phillip Nickols Sunday morning.

Woody Traylor and family were guests in Marion Robertson's home Sunday.

James Nickols and Miss Ethel Tyson from town visited with Mrs. Nickols and Phillip Thursday night.

W. A. Cooke, Herbert and Horace made a flying trip to Brownwood last Saturday afternoon.

Dwight Nickols and wife from town and R. E. Collier and wife were Sunday night visitors in the Nickols home.

Phillip Nickols and the Roberts boys doctored James Nickols' sheep Sunday morning.

Marion Robertson and family visited until bed time in the Spinks home Saturday night.

Loy Long and family spent Sunday in the Ellis home.

Miss Nealie Moore and other relatives from Brownwood spent Saturday night and Sunday in the E. D. Roberson home.

George Bohannon, who drives the bus to Big Valley, picks up his first passenger at Mrs. Nickols' gate at six-thirty every morning.

Woody Traylor and family and Mrs. Mary Faulkner and Rachel Mahan visited until bed time with Mrs. Nickols and Phillip Saturday night.

Joe Davis helped Abijah Stark, who lives in Big Valley, shuck corn Friday.

Little Kathlene Clements spent a part of last week with her aunt, Mrs. Eula Nickols.

Mrs. O. C. Gatlin and son went to her farm in Brown county. It was damaged by the flood. Mrs. Joe Roberts helped her mother, Mrs. Nickols, quilt again this week.

R. E. Collier and wife visited until bed time with Woody Traylor and family Wednesday night.

Phillip Nickols hauled his first bale of cotton to the gin Friday afternoon, and Monday he took in his second bale. He thinks he will get four bales this picking and he hopes for that many more next picking. If nothing happens he will be over it by Wednesday.

Our neighbor, J. R. Davis, and wife are located in Stephenville where they have bought a rooming house. We wish them much success.

Mrs. Eula Nickols spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Dwight Nickols in town.

Oscar Gatlin must be prospering since the fine rains, he has a new car top on his car.

Landy Ellis and wife visited until bed time with Mrs. Jay Hicks and children one night last week.

Mrs. Eula Nickols and Phillip and Kathlene Clements visited in the Cooke home Thursday night.

Miss Nellie Dee Cooke's school started Monday. She is teaching back in Rannels county.

Kathlene Clements and Mrs. Joe Roberts visited school Friday afternoon.

Alvin Lee Mahan visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mahan at Center Point Sunday.

J. T. Robertson and wife spent Sunday at Lake Merritt with their sons, Walter and Douglas, and their families.

Miss Besse Hutchings from Center Point and Mrs. Joe Roberts helped Mrs. Nickols to quilt Monday afternoon.

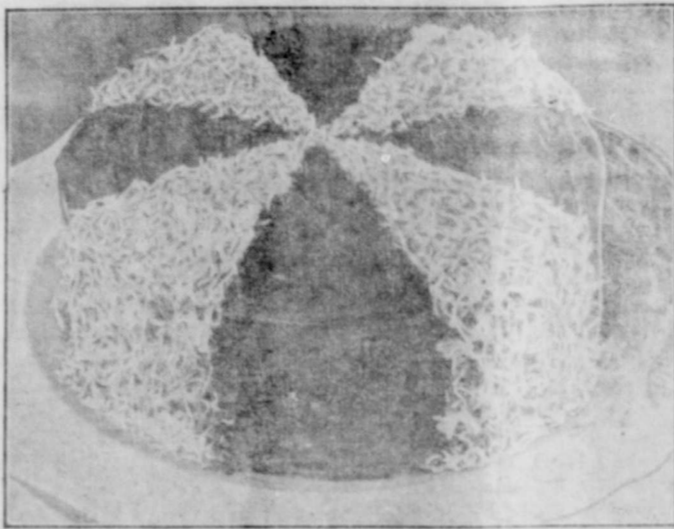

Harry Boyd and Rudolph Cooke enjoyed a nice drive Sunday afternoon.

Marion Robertson and family were Sunday night visitors in the J. T. Robertson home.

As I close it is trying to rain. We don't need any more rain for a while, as the farmers want to get their cotton out. BUSY BEES

Smiles Beam 'Round and 'Round - When You Bake "Windmill Cake"

ISN'T it heart-warming to hear murmurs of admiration when you bring a handsome, eye-filling cake to the table? Don't such tributes repay you royally for the time you took to decorate your cake? And you can vary this decoration: You can frost this cake with white frosting and tint the coconut pink before you apply it; you can tint the frosting pink and decorate either with white or toasted coconut.

Windmill Cake

3 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup water
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add flour, alternately with liquid, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add flavoring; fold in egg whites quickly and thoroughly. Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375° F.) 20 minutes. Spread chocolate frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake. While frosting is still soft, mark off in eight sections. Sprinkle moist, sweetened coconut on alternating sections, beginning from top center and work out and down on sides.

To Toast Coconut: Spread coconut in thin layer in pan or baking sheet. Place in hot oven (400° F.) or under broiler. Toast until delicately browned stirring frequently to prevent burning.

COMMITTEE HELPS FARMERS IN DEBT

Sixteen farmers of Mills county have been enabled to avoid foreclosure or forced sale of their farms or equipment as a result of voluntary debt adjustments reached through aid of the resettlement administration. A total of 2,019 acres of land, as well as other property, was involved. Debts amounting to $19,825 before adjustments were reduced by $5,465.

"One long-time purpose of the resettlement administration is to help farmers toward ownership of the land which they operate," said T. F. Sansom, chairman of the county debt adjustment committee. "It is just as important to keep them from losing land which they already own as to help them buy new land." He said that the debt adjustment work is largely with small farmers whose financial needs are so small that other agencies find no profit in handling them, or where the debt is so large, in proportion to the value of the property, that other financing agencies consider it unsafe. The resettlement administration makes no loans for paying delinquent taxes, interest or principal, but through committees of local volunteer workers brings about agreements between the debtor and creditors for reducing or extending the indebtedness to such an extent that the debtor has a reasonable opportunity of paying it off. Assistance is rendered in refinancing the debt, through the farm credit administration or other public or private lending agencies.

Although it can make no loans for payments on land or taxes, the resettlement administration is authorized to make loans for purchase of teams, tools and supplies. Such loans were made in many of the cases adjusted during the year. Unsettled cases pending September 1 totalled 9. Members of the debt adjustment committee for Mills county are: Willis Hill, Goldthwaite;

A. The people there asked that the place be named for a friendly Indian chief, Santaanta, but Washington authorities, not knowing the chief, construed the request as being to have the post office called Santa Anna.

Q. What was the first county seat of Comanche county? S. D., Sipe Springs.

A. Troy, also called Cora, about 14 miles from the present town of Comanche, was the county seat, when the county was organized in 1856. There had been a town of the same name, sometimes called Pine Bluff, established about 1847, in Freestone county, near the west line of Anderson county, which was once a chief town of that section. There is now a prosperous town of that name in Bell county.

Q. Where was the first white man's settlement in Williamson county? R. T., Liberty Hill.

A. Between the present towns of Leander and Cedar Park, settled in 1835, a small fort being erected there by the government of Texas is near the Leander-road and is known as Block House Springs.

GOLDTHWAITE TO LAMPASAS

Last Friday afternoon approximately 125 students and patrons of Goldthwaite went to Lampasas to witness the football game between the Eagles and the Badgers. Four buses and a cavalcade of cars streamed into Lampasas about 7:45 p. m. full of pep and high hopes for the fast approaching game.

Although disappointed in the score we were not in the game.
 It was the best game the Eagles have played in a long time. The Badgers were able to get around the end several times, but they never broke through our line.

The pep squad kept up a continuous roar of yells, songs and whatnot all during the game.
 Their pep lasted well and we found that individually, everyone of the members were willing to give our boys all the support possible.

We take this opportunity to thank Mr. Smith for taking the buses to the game. We realize that it takes quite a bit of work and extra trouble to put over such a trip, and that it takes a superintendent who is really interested in the football and pep squads to do such a thing. We are sincere when we say, "No school ever had a better leader."

TIP FROM THE SOPHOMORES

The great demand is on people's hearts rather than on their purses. In the matter of kindness we can afford to be generous whether we have money or not. The school-boy may give it as freely as the millionaire. No one is so driven by work that he has not time, now and then, to say a kind word or do a kind deed that will help to brighten life for another. If the prime minister of England, William E.
 Gladstone, could find time to carry flowers to a little sick crossing-sweeper, shall we not be ashamed to make for ourselves the excuse, "I haven't time to be kind."—Selected.

The sophomore class was glad to welcome Rubin Lawson and Helen Reid last week. Rubin Lawson is a stranger to most of us, but is rapidly getting acquainted and Helen Reid is one of our old classmates who has been attending school in Houston for several years. We are all glad to have her back with us.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Tuesday, September 29, the Goldthwaite chapter of the F.F.A. met and voted on local, state and national F.F.A. objectives.
 All of them passed. Committees were selected to see that they are carried out.

Vocational agriculture is moving along smoothly. The boys have learned a good deal about terracing, and culling hens.
 They are all well satisfied with the work and are doing fine.

On Monday, October 5, the boys met and decided which game they wanted to play. Part will play basketball and the other part basketball. They are thinking of getting up an F.F.A. basketball team. It has been decided that they will have an F.F.A. sweetheart and an F.F.A. hillbilly band. Everyone will know Goldthwaite has an F.F.A. chapter soon.

Miss Mary Horton has facial paralysis and has been absent for over a week. She has been taking electrical treatments and seems to be improving. We are anxiously awaiting her return to school.

Betty Whittaker and Constance Trent attended the centennial at Dallas this week-end. Our editor-in-chief and assistant editor, Louise Gartman and Louise Ohlenbusch visited in Dallas the first part of the week.

Voyd Lee Doggett, the senior boy that everyone likes, who has been suffering with a broken ankle, was able to attend the Eagles vs. Badgers football game.
 Aside from jumping up and down on his good foot and waving his crutches every time the Eagles made a good play, he behaved excellently and Mr. Henry says he is a very active invalid.

EAGLES LOSE TO BADGERS

The Goldthwaite Eagles played their second conference game of the 1936 season Friday night, October 2, at Lampasas against the Lampasas Badgers.

The Eagles put up an excellent battle and through their quick succession of line plunges, made the first touchdown.

The following statistics were gathered directly from the game.
 The starting line-ups for both teams was as follows:

BADGERS	Position	EAGLES
Lee	1e.	Gauffmar
Collier	1t.	Berry

 stopped by the Eagles. The Eagles promptly went over for a touchdown, but failed to score the extra point. The Eagles kicked to the Badgers' 25-yard line, and the ball was returned 6 yards. In one of the following plays, Moses of the Badgers, was slightly injured. Time out was called by Lampasas, but Moses remained in the game. The Badgers kicked and Ross recovered for Lampasas.
 The Badgers fumbled and Armstrong recovered for the Eagles. A pass was intercepted by Lampasas, who fumbled, and Goldthwaite recovered.

The Eagles kicked off to the Badgers' 25-yard line, and the ball was returned 30 yards. Ross ran 40 yards and scored the first Badger touchdown. Marshall went in for the Eagles. Lampasas failed to score the point. Gray went in for the Eagles and the Badgers kicked off to the Eagle's 45-yard line. The Eagles returned the ball 5 yards. In the following plays, the Eagles fumbled, and Lampasas recovered the ball.
 Morgan ran 53 yards to make the Badgers' second touchdown in the third quarter. The Badgers failed to score the extra point.
 The Badgers kicked off to the Eagles' 27-yard line, and the Eagles returned the ball 7 yards.
 The Eagles completed a long pass from Davis to Fox. Davis was hurt and the Eagles called time out. Bailey went in for Prior for the Badgers. The Badgers kicked to the 52-yard line, and the ball was returned 1 yard.

NEWS GATHERED FROM COMMUNITIES BY EAGLE CORRESPONDENTS

CRAWFORD MILLS (Ratler)

We, the people of this community appreciate and thank every one that has helped us in any way during the flood. A friend in need is a friend indeed.

There was church here Sunday morning and night. Bro. B. F. Renfro delivered the message. There was a good attendance and everyone enjoyed the sermon.

Those who visited in the Jernigan home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Seignor Jernigan of Lampasas, Mrs. Malcolm Jernigan of town, Miss Grenetta Bell of this community and Miss Knight of Denton and Mrs. C. J. Crawford of this community.

Misses Annette and Mary Renfro spent several days with their brother, Taa, in town and went to school last week.

Miss Rose Rale Casbeer and brother, Tot, of Center City visited in the Langford home Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Dawkins of De Leon spent a day or two in the O. B. Bell home last week.

Miss Louise and Janette Jernigan spent last week in town going to school.

Jack Griffin has gone to San Angelo for work. We hope he will be back in our community soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilcox and family, and Mr. and Mrs. William Wilcox spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks and family.

The men of the Ratler community worked on the road Monday. The bus can come on regular route from now on.

Miss Janette Jernigan visited Vera Mae Bell Sunday. They went over to Granddad McCarty's. He is sick in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Crawford are packing their things to move to the other side of Goldthwaite. Pretty soon everyone is going to leave. I think they must be afraid of high water.

W. G. Saylor and father of town were in this community Monday. I suppose they went to see the remains of the cabin.

and Mrs. J. W. Hanson of Carlsbad, New Mexico, were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilcox. Little Rufus Hanson, who has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilcox, returned with his mother, Mrs. L. B. Hanson.

R. J. Slack spent Monday with his daughter, Mrs. Brent Davee at Goldthwaite.

Wesley Crawford of Ratler called in the Crawford home Monday.

Raymond Williams and Miss Johnnie Wathers were visitors in Pleasant Grove community Sunday. Mr. Williams spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hodges and Miss Weathers with Novaleen Berry. On their way home, they called on Austin Cook and son, Hubert, in Rock Springs community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilcox spent Wednesday in Mullin visiting her mother, Mrs. Scrivner, and brother, Calvin Scrivner.

BIG VALLEY

For some reason the letter from here did not appear in the paper last week. Perhaps people think this place was washed entirely off the map. Well it seemed for a while it would be and it was almost washed off. I believe enough has been reported about the overflow damage, so I won't report it again. There were very few families who escaped some property loss or damage. However, we are thankful that no lives were lost. As I write this it is raining again. We never can tell old man river may come out again.

Sunday school at the Baptist church was well attended Sunday morning. There was fifty-three attended B. T. U. Sunday night. This was our first meeting since the B. T. U. was organized. We are certainly proud of this large number to begin with. However, there are others we would like to have join us. There is a place for everyone, young or old, as we have fine organizations.

Mrs. J. J. Cockrell returned last week from a visit to her niece Mrs. Floyd Greer of Oklahoma. Mrs. Cockrell also visited friends in Sherman, Bonham, Dallas and perhaps other places in that part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oglesby entertained their friends with a 42 party one night last week.

Bill Trowbridge has been quite sick for several days.

M. T. Cook of Mineral Wells was in the community a few days last week visiting relatives and looking after his ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hale and daughter of Crawford Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Connie Knowles from town, J. A. Stark, Campbell Thompson, Darnie Dupuy, Joe O'dell, Virginia Long and Flora Weaver dined in the Harve Hale home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Strayley spent Sunday in the Hugh Denard home.

L. E. Dupuy was called to Knox City Saturday to the bedside of his sister, who was not expected to live.

Roberta Roberson took dinner and spent the afternoon with Beryl Oglesby Sunday.

Lavern Sykes had as dinner guests Sunday Anna Jean Hale, Sibyl Woods and Lorena Lawson. Mr. and Mrs. Archer from town spent Sunday in the Elvis Morris home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Hale and son spent Tuesday in the Harve Hale home.

We sincerely sympathize with the R. O. Patterson family in the loss of Mrs. Patterson's mother, Mrs. John Sheppard, who passed away Tuesday. Also we sympathize with the other members of the bereaved family.

Our sympathy is extended to each of the other families who have lost a loved one recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Leahman Knowles and children of Mullin spent Sunday in the G. A. Knowles home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moreland and daughter, Shirley, of Shive and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Baker were visitors in the Valley Sunday.

Mrs. Oran Hale and son and Mrs. Harve Hale called on Mrs. Scott Thompson Tuesday afternoon.

BLUE JAY.

LONG COVE

Bro. Wade filled his appointment here this week-end as the weather would not permit his getting here the fourth Sunday of last month.

Mrs. Tom Simms visited her daughter, Mrs. Carl Smith Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Elmore called on Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grimland Saturday night and listened to their new radio.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Hodges, Mrs. Bill Manning and L. W. Hill spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Mullin.

Enoch Godwin and children reported a good time on their trip to the centennial during the past few days.

Kenneth Grimland spent Saturday night with Bud Elmore.

Mrs. L. W. Hill visited her cousin, Mrs. Edith McWhorter, at Goldthwaite Sunday.

Some one asked Deward Elmore how it feels to have car trouble. He seems to have had plenty over the week-end.

Our school was supposed to have started Monday but we did not learn whether it did or not, as there has been talk of putting it off on account of field work being delayed by the past rainy weather. Miss Ruth Godwin and Charles Conrad are the teachers. This will be Miss Godwin's second term here and Mr. Conrad's first year to have taught school. We wish them the best of luck.

Misses Winnie, Eddie, Hoyette and Vernon Elmore attended the dance at Lampasas Saturday night.

Jess Baxter of Lometa was looking after business in this community Monday. REPORTER.

SCALLORN

The community was made sad Friday night when the message came that Vernadine Warren had been run over on the highway near Antelope Gap and killed. It was a great shock to us all. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved parents and relatives. A goodly number of friends from here attended the funeral Saturday at Goldthwaite.

Mrs. Reasner spent several days last week in Brownwood having her throat treated.

Albert Hereford and wife of Goldthwaite and Joe Evans and wife and son of Lometa spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. R. D. Evans.

Miss Vernie Harris is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dutch Smith.

Sherwood Ford and wife spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Cora Ford.

Dalton Barnett and wife of Goldthwaite spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Laughlin.

Those who visited in Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Laughlin's home Sunday were: Homer Eckert and family, Troy Fleming and wife of Mullin, Hugh Knowles, wife and son.

Thirty-two of the patrons of the school met at the school house Friday night and gave Lloyd Laughlin and wife a shower. They served cake and hot chocolate. The honorees received a large number of nice presents.

Webb Laughlin and family and Mrs. John Coble of Lometa were up for the Laughlin shower.

Alva Ford is nursing an infected toe this week.

Tom Fleming Ford and Miss Alice Long stole a march on their friends Saturday and motored to Hamilton where her parents live, and were married. They will visit several places before their return home.

Sherwood Ford and wife were down Friday night for the Laughlin shower.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Warren, sons and daughters came for the funeral of Vernadine and will stay several days with their parents.

Mmes. John Kuykendall, Dutch Smith, T. Casbeer, Velma Gage and Barney Laughlin carried dinner in for Mr. and Mrs. C. Warren Sunday. REPORTER.

CENTER POINT

There were only a few attended Sunday school Sunday morning.

EBONY

Good interest was manifested at Sunday school and church Sunday. Next Sunday is Bro. Conley's day to preach. Everyone take notice, that since he can only come in the afternoon, we will not meet in the morning next Sunday, but will meet at two o'clock in the afternoon for Sunday school and communion service. Preaching will be at three. Everybody cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cawyer and Edna Beth of Pasche came in Saturday and stayed until Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Dwyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilmeth are at home again for the first time since the flood. They are teaching at Spring Creek in San Saba county. They came around by the Winchell bridge Saturday. Their school dismissed this week on account of cotton picking.

Mrs. W. H. Reeves, who will teach the Ridge school this year, opened school there Monday.

Dorothy and Mildred Thompson are staying with their aunt and attending school at Morgan. Charles Stanley Roberts is attending school in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Charm Whittenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McNurlen and Norville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth, Mrs. Clara Wilmeth, Mrs. Nellie Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. John Briley and Miss Bernice Wilmeth were guests for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves Sunday after church.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Singleton visited Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Griffin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth and Mrs. Clara Wilmeth called on Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger Sunday evening.

Burl Crowder and his mother, Mrs. J. C. Crowder, moved to Tahoka last week. Bro. Crowder visited her daughter, Carl Lane while there.

Joe Horton of Bangor is buying cattle in this community.

CARRIER PIGEONS
MAKE GOOD SOLDIERS
In spite of numerous scientific developments to aid in waging modern war, the homing pigeon, which even before the birth of Christ was being used to carry messages, still has an important place in the communications system of the United States army.
At Fort Sam Houston where the Third army command post exercise was conducted last month, Staff Sergeant Max Bronkhorst, Seventh signal service company, is the keeper and trainer of more than 125 homing pigeons which Uncle Sam would use in time of war.
In spite of the fact that he is continually breeding and raising pigeons, Sergeant Bronkhorst knows everyone of his feathered messengers by name and number.
Pigeon breeding, raising and training is both a hobby and a profession with Sergeant Bronk-horst. Born in Nymegan, Holland, Sergeant Bronkhorst has raised and trained pigeons all of his life. His father before him, owned, raised and trained hom-ing pigeons.
Among the army pigeons under the constant care of Sergeant Bronkhorst are many national champions—pigeons that have made names for themselves as racers and distance travelers, in the world of pigeon fanciers.

There is, for instance, General Allison, named for the chief signal officer of the United States, who this year won the national racing championship.
General Allison was liberated at Topeka, Kansas on June 20 at 5:05 a. m. and at 3:05 p. m. on June 21, the bird was in his home loft at Fort Sam Houston, having traveled a distance of a little less than 700 miles and thereby setting a speed mark of 772 yards per minute for the trip.
General Allison's feat was made additionally outstanding when it is known that his nearest competitor had to travel 200 miles less distance to reach his home loft.
But General Allison's performance was not for a speed record.
his was a feat of endurance, for there are other birds in the loft which often on shorter distances have set records of a mile-a-minute speed.
There is in the loft the well known Army Queen, who in a 600 mile race in 1934, did the unusual, came in to the home loft in the middle of the night. Birds ordinarily home during the daylight hours.
There are several distance birds in the loft too, birds which frequently have traveled as far as 1,500 miles a trip.
There is, for instance, the Kansas City Queen, No. 730, who flew 700 miles from Kansas City to Fort Sam Houston in 12 hours, leaving Kansas City at 6:03 a.
m. and arriving at Fort Sam
Houston at 6:05 p. m.
There are others too numerous to mention, among them,
Black Diamond, Shave-Tail, Communication Chief, Storm
Queen, mother of General Allisson, Red Devil and Big Recruit, all of which have been rolling up pigeon records by the dozens as the army post here continues to play a prominent part in races, local and national.
But racing isn't all of life for Chief Pigeonier Bronkhorst's feathered beauties. They are first of all carrier homing pigeons and they must go through their military training even as the soldiers of the army.
Training is conducted by Sergeant Bronkhorst under the direction of Major Ralph Guthrie.
A fledgeling pigeon stays in the loft pens for at least three months before he begins his training. At three months, according to Sergeant Bronkhorst, a pigeon has developed enough intelligence and has become so attached to his home that his first thought once he is out of the loft is to return to the fold.
The birds first are turned loose about five miles from the loft; later the distance is increased to 10 miles; then 15, 25, 50, 100, 150, so the distance becomes no barrier to their urge to home.
Having gone through this process day after day, they then are ready for racing, and entrance in the various local, state and national pigeon races augments their value to the army.
"Army pigeons are placed in races because it increases their amina, speed and ability to home," according to Colonel Walter E. Prosser, signal officer for the Eighth Corps Area, who is in charge of all signal corps activities for the army in the states of Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Texas and a part of Wyoming.
The speed with which a pigeon homes determines his value to the army in time of war, according to Colonel Prosser. These pigeons, which have entered long distance races are better equipped to home quickly by reason of their training although in time of war they will not be required to fly long distances, Colonel Prosser explained.
In addition to the regular loft,
the army also keeps a mobile loft,
a home for pigeons on wheels, which the pigeons know as home whether it is located on or off the army post. In time of war this loft could be moved about from headquarters to headquarters and the pigeons would find their way back to it.
Regarding the ability of pigeons to find their way home even though they are hundreds of miles away, Sergeant Bronkhorst has developed some interesting theories. He believes that pigeons do not rely on their sight to bring them safely back, but that their home lofts set up certain atmospheric vibrations, which the pigeons recognizes, and which guides him home.

Sergeant Bronkhorst says for instance that the present loft at Fort Sam Houston, a building where once the radio station was operated, has proved to be the most successful home for pigeons ever located here.
"We have found that our pigeons return here quicker than they returned to the other loft and that fewer pigeons ever fall to return on long distance flights," the Sergeant declared.
"I believe that is true because there are hundreds of pounds of copper wire buried in the ground about the building and that this has done much to make the vibrations of the loft more distinct to the pigeon in the air," he declared. His disagreement with other pigeon fanciers who claim the pigeon has photographic mind has been arrived at from several principal observations.
He said that in releasing pigeons from airplanes and where the loft was in plain sight that the pigeons did not make a bee-line for the loft in line of their view, but circled about several times, hesitated as if waiting for guidance and then suddenly darted home leading the Sergeant to believe that the pigeon did not start home until he had that certain aerial vibration to follow.
World war annals show that pigeons followed this guiding vibration home, according to Sergeant Bronkhorst. During the war many carrier pigeons were shot to pieces, but found their way back home and many others were blinded by blood and gas, but their message came through. There was Bon Ami who was decorated for bravery for delivering an important message in the Meuse-Argonne section, although nearly blown to bits when it finally reached the loft. Others had eyes shot out but came home. Sergeant Bronkhorst also has had pigeons who found their way home after being blinded by hunters.
Sergeant Bronkhorst came to the United States in 1914, bringing with him several of his prize Holland homing pigeons. Within a few months he was in the army. He came to Fort Sam Houston in 1920. He went into the signal corps for the first time in 1929 at Scott Field, Illinois, and has been at Fort Sam Houston since 1931.

The present method of releasing birds from airplanes used in many places was discovered by Sergeant Bronkhorst. Pigeons now are thrown into the slip stream to reach the air under the plane. Passing through this intense wind caused the pigeon to lose many of his feathers.
With all of its modern developments, the army still depends on physical means for transmitting messages across that portion of the battle field immediately in rear of the front-line. It is here that enemy shells fall and it is almost impossible to keep telephone lines intact from the forward echelons to the elements immediately in rear. Radio has not been developed sufficiently to operate with any degree of success in this area where shells are falling thick and fast. Runners often are used for covering this area constantly under fire, but casualties to foot-messengers make the pigeon more useful. Even if they are wounded, well trained pigeons will find their way home to their mobile lofts and their speed is such that they traverse the distance faster than a foot-soldier.
During the Third army command post exercise five homing pigeons were furnished each of the cavalry division headquarters at Camp Bullis, participating in the exercise, for transmittal of messages between Camp Bullis and the Third army headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, 18 miles away.
After the exercise is over, the pigeons will once again get in their racing harness. Sergeant Bronkhorst will enter his young birds in the state racing regatta starting October 3. The birds will race in the 100, 150, 200, 250, 300 mile distances, from race points at Georgetown, W. Va., Widesboro, Fort Worth and W. Va. boro.
And from this new crop of young birds, Sergeant Bronkhorst expects to develop a real distance racers for national contest.

THE LIQUOR AMENDMENT

The first proposed Constitutional Amendment to face the voter on November 3rd is S. J. R. No. 3-A which provides for a State dispensary system to have exclusive sale of distilled liquors and all profits from the sale of such liquors would go to the State.

The State would maintain various places of business for the purpose of the sale of such liquor direct to the consumer. These places of business would only be maintained in the counties, precincts or incorporated towns where by local option elections such sale has been made legal.

Local option as now in effect would not be changed by adoption of the amendment. The sale of alcoholic beverages containing not more than 22 per cent alcohol which has been legalized in such political subdivisions shall not be prohibited by this section.

This Amendment further provides that the open saloon shall not be re-established.

It is also provided in this Amendment that the Legislature shall have the power to regulate the sale for private profit and possession of distilled liquors for medicinal, scientific and mechanical purposes.

This Amendment, the Eagle believes, should and will be turned down by the voters on November 3. The opportunity for building up a corrupt political machine is so great that it outweighs any advantages the state dispensary system may otherwise possess.

THE JEFFERSONIANS

Considerable resentment has been aroused among the regular Democrats of Texas by the assumption of the name "Jeffersonian Democrats" by a group of Texas millionaires and their henchmen.

The self-styled Jeffersonian Democrats of Texas are waging a campaign of slander and misrepresentation against the Roosevelt administration that sets new low levels for that type of campaign activity. Purporting to represent those who adhere to the traditional doctrines of the Democratic party, and to reverse the memory of Thomas Jefferson, these once-upon-a-time Democrats are reorganizing no barriers of fair play or decency in their destructive assault upon the president and the party of which he is a leader.

Among the most damaging efforts of the Jeffersonians is the circulation of a book entitled "The Roosevelt Red Record and Its Background." This is a cleverly written production, in which are portrayed what purport to be facts of record pertaining to Communist affiliations of a hundred or more of the men and women who in one way or another have been associated with the Roosevelt administration.

In a recent address Mr. Roosevelt effectively answered the charge that he is in sympathy with Communism or any other radical "ism," citing his record of a quarter of a century of public service in support of what he said. The fact of the matter, however, is that the Jeffersonians are not actually concerned about the menace of Communism. If they were they would be attacking Communism instead of seeking by every conceivable means to destroy the Roosevelt administration merely because they claim it is friendly to the radical elements of the citizenry.

FLOOD CONTROL

How many millions of dollars' damage has resulted from the two recent disastrous floods on the Colorado river will probably never be accurately known. But this much is certain: The damage is considerably greater than the cost of an adequate system of flood control measures.

Two striking examples of the benefits of dams were shown at this time. The new Brownwood dam undoubtedly saved the city of Brownwood from a serious overflow. More than that, it checked the flow of Pecan Bayou, and prevented it from doing the damage that it would have caused if the dam had not been built across its watershed.

The new dam between Burnet and Llano, although not yet completed, checked the torrential current of the Colorado sufficiently to flatten out the stream and Austin and the towns on its lower reaches did not suffer in proportion to the volume of water carried. If more dams had been in existence, and if more attention had been given to the unprotected watersheds of the Colorado, it is certain that Mills county would have been spared most if not all of the loss that resulted from the overflow.

TEXAS HISTORY IS WRITTEN INTO THE NAMES OF TEXAS TOWNS

Goodnight is named after one of the outstanding cattlemen of the past; he is the one who preserved the buffalo in Texas. Hereford was named for the celebrated Hereford cattle. C. V. was the brand of the C. V. ranch. When the ranch was divided and sold to farmers, the location for a town was fixed. C. V. was sent in to the postoffice department as the name for the new town.

A postal regulation required the name to be words instead of letters; therefore the many e's were added and the town was named Cee Vee. Peerless has lived under three names: first, Oakdale, next Fairyland. The postoffice department requested the third name because there was already a Fairyland in Texas.

When the surveyors were surveying for a townsite in Reagan county, they came to a particular spot and one of them remarked, "This is the best." The town received its name from this remark.

Many towns were named for individuals, others for tribes of people, some of the latter are Seminole, Caddo, Kickapoo, Waco, Nacogdoches, Cherokee, Comanche, Osage, Wichita Falls and Ysleta, which is the oldest town in Texas.

The missions have played an important part. San Antonio gets its name from the first mission established in 1718. Refugio, one of the oldest cities in Texas, was named for the last mission, Our Lady of Refuge, founded in Texas in 1791. Goliad was established first as the mission La Bahia del Espiritu Santo, and when the town was built the residents of the mission obtained permission to call it Goliad.

Some of the new settlers from other states brought the names of their old homes to Texas with them. Some of these are New Braunfels, New Boston, New Berlin, Paducah, New Sweden, New Ulm and New Salem.

Longview was so named because the engineer on the railroad could see the spot a long distance away and he named the town Longview. There are other "view" towns. They are Plainview, Valley View, Prairie View, Lakeview, Wellview, Millview and Grandview and View.

Texas is colorful. The rainbow is well represented by Redwood, Orange, Yellowpine, Green, Bluegrove, Violet, Amarillo (which means yellow), Blanco (which means white), and Colorado (which means red). Texas has never seen fit to give one of her towns the name of Indigo, but she has such names as Topsy, Egypt, Cleo and Caesar.

Back in the days when there were very few windmills a crowd of cowboys were driving cattle and had not found water for three days, when all of a sudden one of the cowboys saw a draw. He went to it and found some water. When he stooped down to get water in the brim of his hat, he said "How happy I am." After that the draw was known as Happy Draw, and a town was located near this draw that carries the name of Happy.

El Paso was named for the rock line pass between the mountains about two miles up the Rio Grande valley from the business district of the city. This pass was called El Paso del Norte by the early Spaniards, as it was the pass to the north. Del Rio gets its name from its geological position. The word means "by the river." Rockwall and Rockwell county were named for a geological formation, a subterranean stone wall which crops out on the surface in many places in the county. Forsan gets its name from the four kinds of sand that were found there.

There was a Scotchman on the crew that laid the Santa Fe railroad through what is now known as Midlothian. When the crew reached that site, the Scotchman remarked that the hills overlooking the beautiful valley reminded him of his old home in Midlothian, Scotland. Afterwards it so happened that the Scotchman went to order some supplies and when asked where to deliver them, he said, "Send them to Midlothian" and they were delivered to the spot he called Midlothian. As the officials of the railroad thought it a good name it was used.

John E. Pierce, a land owner in Southwest Texas had spent the best part of his life developing his land. By and by the Southern Pacific railroad was built through his property and when the Brownsville railroad crossed the Southern Pacific on Mr. Pierce's land and a town was started, Mr. Pierce was so pleased that he suggested that they call the town Thank God. The railroad company objected to this name and Mr. Pierce said it was such a blessing to have these improvements that he thought they ought to call the town Blessing and the name was adopted.

A Mr. Taylor with a crowd was trying to decide on a name for the postoffice of which he was postmaster. He happened to look through a window and saw a rose bush and he remarked, "We will just call it Rosebud." The citizens of Rosebud claim that the name was well given and to express his civic pride each resident has a rosebush in his yard.

HEALTH EDUCATION IMPORTANT PROGRAM

Assembling of students in the schools of the state this month calls public attention to the definite health responsibility of parents and teachers, as well as health workers, and is the subject of an address from the state department of health to the citizenship.

A public health education program is an outstanding factor in the development of the physical, mental, and social welfare of the state health officer said. Health teaching should be a basic part of every educational program.

Practically every phase of the school system is related to health. Housing, screening, diet, disposal of wastes, exercise, rests, even the manner of daily contact with others, all have a direct bearing on health. Schools must treat the child as a whole—with his physical condition related definitely to his mental and emotional capacities.

Prevention is the all important factor in the control of communicable disease. "Communicable"—as we all know—describes that kind of disease which may be imparted or transmitted from one person to another, either by personal contact or through some other method. One by one, the communicable diseases, such as smallpox, diphtheria, whooping cough, and typhoid fever, are being controlled by preventive or immunizing agents. It is much better for all concerned that the child should be protected from ever taking these diseases, which often leave some condition that will cause trouble later in life.

Assume your responsibility in the community and work for the development of health education which will pave the way to a better health for the future.

Thomas Wright, 14, of El Paso was recovering last week from the effects of one of the most unusual accidents ever seen in El Paso. The youth was riding to school on his bicycle when he swerved from the curb to avoid a parked car. His foot slipped off the pedal, catapulting him against the side of the car. The door handle rammed into his chest and left him dangling, unconscious. It was several minutes before passersby could free the child.

VIEWS OF THE NATION'S PRESS ON TOPICS OF INTEREST AND IMPORTANCE

BLANTON MOVES OUT

Departure of Thomas L. Blanton and family from Abilene to make their home in Washington is being mourned in the city where he has lived for the twenty-eight years. With two of his sons the congressman, whose term of service as representative of the seventeenth district will end in January, will go into the general practice of law in the national capital, and the family home is being transferred to that city.

Mr. Blanton is in the same sort of predicament in which many another man has found himself after a long period of service as a public official. Soon or late, the office is taken away from him, and he must begin at the beginning in his business or profession, to build up a competence for the rainy days of old age that are certain to come. The retiring congressman, however, is much more fortunate than are most of those who, after twenty years of public service, must go back into private life. He accumulated little money during the two decades and more given to office holding as district judge and congressman, but two of his sons are engaging with him in the practice of law with all their youth and vigor, and he has an acquaintance in Washington that should readily develop for him a lucrative law practice there. At any rate, all his friends here and elsewhere in the country he has represented at one time or another will hope that this may be so.

Retirement of Mr. Blanton as a member of congress was not altogether unexpected, nor has it embittered him. During twenty years he devoted himself to the pursuance of a policy which, although beneficial to the country and productive of strong friendships as well as much influence in congressional affairs, steadily added to his list of enemies those who were determined at all costs to blast him out of congress. Year after year their assaults were unavailing, until this year when opportunity came for success; and the man who was once invincible in his district was finally condemned by a majority of the voters. He might have avoided all this if he had chosen to follow the course of least resistance, as so many congressmen do; but sometimes there is victory in defeat, if defeat results from the conscientious performance of duty. Mr. Blanton doubtless feels so, and prepares to enter upon his new career with satisfaction.—Brownwood Bulletin.

COTTON COMING BACK?

Early season signs support the idea of some authorities that the 1936-37 season, now beginning, will be a crucial one in the determining the position the South will hold in the world of cotton. Forecast of a crop of 12,481,000 bales is a reminder that production is edging back to what we regard as normal and invites the question whether there will be further growth of our export markets, which improved ever so slightly in the past season. Better trade has induced a relaxation in federal price-control, and should American cotton, in a relatively free market, find enlarging favor abroad, that would diminish the anxiety expressed recently in so many quarters over the future of the Southern staple. Overproduction is no longer a problem. The Southern crop, although somewhat larger than anticipated, is forecast at almost exactly what the world consumed in the past season. Domestic mills reflected the rise in trade by taking 1,000,000 bales more than the preceding season and foreigners increased their consumption of the American variety by less than 100,000 bales. The point at issue is whether the South, with trade conditions becoming more settled, can regain markets for 2,000,000 bales a year lost since 1932 to foreign growths. An impediment, of course, is the rise in foreign growths in five years

NEW DAY FOR CUBA

"A new day has dawned for Cuba," President Miguel Mariano Gomez recently told New York Times correspondent, Russell B. Porter. "I am asking for the co-operation of all factions and I hope all the exiles will return to Cuba and co-operate with me. I do not want any political exiles while I am president." The new day really has dawned. On Wednesday of this week twenty-eight political prisoners were released from Priepe prison, bringing the total released since the new Amnesty Law became effective on Saturday to seventy-eight. Charges of subversive activities against former President Ramon Grau San Marin, Joaquin Martinez Saens, leader of the A. B. C. organization, and Joaquin Ordoqui, radical leader, have been nullified and the exiles may return to Havana. The release of all political prisoners and the quashing of indictments against all refugees may be expected in the next few days. The old custom of throwing political opponents in jail or causing them to flee the country is ended. The practice ruthlessly carried on by the Machado dictatorship and followed by the various provisional regimes during the last three years is abolished. Having been a political prisoner and a political exile himself, President Gomez fully realizes that persecution of the kind breeds revolution, and to establish a strong constitutional regime there must be freedom and co-operation. Freedom applies to the political parties abolished by Machado and the provisional presidents. These may be restored and President Gomez appeals to them to work with him for the tranquility of the republic and the establishment of self-government. A new day has dawned for Cuba.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

CLOCK OR BUGLE

Relief officials of Franklin, N. H., have decided that an alarm clock is a necessity of life. Hubert Battis, a relief client is now a charge upon the taxpayers because he hated to get up in the morning—and lost his job. With ruthless disregard for Hubert's beauty sleep, City Marshal A. H. Manuel of Franklin has installed in the Battis home the loudest alarm clock he could buy. Perhaps this little chronicle of home life is symbolic. America needs alarm clocks in public as well as in private life, if we are ever to return to conditions under which every family can use an alarm clock or a factory whistle. Probably the great issue that now confronts this people is whether in the future Americans shall be awakened by the family clock or by the dictator's bugle.—Chicago Daily News.

from about 10,000,000 bales to more than 14,000,000. But Southern cotton, or rather its price, has not been in so much disfavor with foreigners as most other American products. The depression decline in exports of the staple was relatively much smaller than the general loss. Overseas shipments and consumption improved slightly last season, despite an enormous carryover of foreign growths, a fact that should be encouraging to the Southern farmer who must raise cotton at a profit or get out of the business. Southern cotton prices probably had no more, and perhaps less to do with the drop in exports than the trade barriers set up by nations in a desperate effort to reconstruct their own national economies. Now reciprocal trade treaties are slowly injecting life into foreign commerce. Gradually the temporary advantages of grossly depreciated currencies will be dissipated and there will be a tendency in most countries to return to stable money. All this will be to the benefit of the Southern farmer whom nature has endowed with a favorable climate and good land.—New Orleans Time-Picayune.

TRUE CONSERVATION

We read in Business Week "It is time that business and agriculture practiced economy in their relation to themselves and also to government to do its job." Business Week uses the word "conservation" in the sportsman's or sportsman's sense. It doesn't mean the destruction of our basic resources—the forests, and the soil—and forces early and drastic action upon the national policy if this continues. The "bread" of the nation's "bread" in the middle western states have become the national "bread" is known to us as a desert. The dust bowl is a silent desert. Men have made it before now by reckless bandry. They did it when the Sahara stretches, until the clouds wiped out their civilization. They did it in the area of the Gobi, where also grew abundant crops to support extensive populations. In the United States we are making deserts as did the clients who at last were compelled to flee from before the works of their own hands. Up to industry and agriculture as well as government, to the damage we have done. Business Week. It is the danger consists of recklessly cleared forests, wantonly straggled grass lands, stupidly drained marshes. The forests must be planted and hereafter selected areas must be laid down to ally the ghastly rise of dunes. The swamps must be restored. Milwaukee Journal.

MARNISM IN SPAIN

The conflict in Spain is a struggle between republicanism and monarchy, or democracy and Fascism, or feudalism and Communism, or some other combination. No two writers at the scene of action appear to agree on political nomenclature of civil conflict. Nor is at all tending, for the factions mounting up the government's forces are very numerous, as are the constituting the rebel army. Perhaps we would come nearer the truth if we described the civil war as one between socialists democracy and reactionaries Fascism. There are four principal groups supporting the government, any of which might conceivably determine in large part the political complexion of the Madrid regime, if the rebellion is suppressed. One group which has furnished Spain's leader since 1931, is the Left Republican party. It is the party of intellectuals, liberal professional men, and in general the moderates who recognize the need for reform, but do not subscribe to socialist tenets. It now seems unlikely that these will dominate in future, for the government's real strength lies in the masses, who are farther to the left. Of the larger groups, the Socialists are more numerous. After the min point of numbers are the anarcho-syndicalists, whose antiquated theories of anarchism are being supplanted by the syndicalist ideas of direct action. Last of all in size is the Communist group. Communism as such is quite new in Spain, and has not won an important following even yet. There is little reason to anticipate the development of a Communist Spain, therefore, if the government wins.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Coleman

If County Tax Assessor-Collector Frank Lewis collects 100 per cent of the state and county taxes—and all poll taxes—for 1935 this county will be $219,127.21 richer. For the tax rolls completed and approved by the commissioners last week-end, call for that much in collections on a total valuation of $11,684,739. The state tax rate is 63 cents on the $100 valuation while the county rates is only 43 cents per $100 valuation.

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE

Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place. In such cases, Cardui has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.

As if timed by some unseen hand, 63 years to a day following the much talked of flood of 1873, Lampasas suffered another great flood September 27, 1935. This time all the water came from the overflow of Sulphur Creek, Burleson having already run down before the high water came, while the flood of 1873 was the overflow of both streams. And while the water in some parts was higher Sunday than in the flood of former days, the north and west part of town did not suffer this time as was true of the 1873 high water.—Record.

BUT OIL-PLATING LASTS...

Change today

Right you are. The weather hasn't made up its mind yet. But you don't care, once Conoco Germ Processed oil—patented—is Oil-Plating your engine for Winter.

Change to modern Oil-Plating today, for instance. Then every cylinder, piston, bearing and other part is completely Oil-Plated

And today . . tomorrow . . next month . . as long as you use Germ Processed, this Oil-Plating will still be up there. It gets there by means of the special "hyper-oily concentrate" which is alloyed into Germ Processed oil under patents. In circulating, this oil renews its genuine Oil-Plating, which doesn't return to the crankcase, but stays up all through your engine.

Thus the old cry of "get your right Winter viscosity" isn't the half of it, now that you can get exclusive Oil-Plating, too—a great big extra. Oil-Plating is all ready to lubricate before your starter even turns, and that lets your battery live. Oil-Plating doesn't run off in any weather, and that saves your engine and oil. You keep away from your next quart—your next battery—your next car, by changing today to Conoco Germ Processed oil. Continental Oil Company

Mrs. Shepherd leaves several children and a husband and was well thought of in her neighborhood and was a kind neighbor.

A. D. KARNES PASSED AWAY

A. D. Karnes, one of Mills county's beloved pioneer citizens, passed away at his home, September 28.

His death cast a sadness over the town and surrounding country. Mr. Karnes was born in Fayette county, Texas, July 16, 1861, was married to Miss Emma Criswell, January 31, 1883. To this union were born ten children, five boys and five girls.

The family came to Mills county in 1886, first locating at South Bennett, east of Goldthwaite. Mr. Karnes later united with the Baptist church at Rock Springs and lived a consecrated Christian life until the last.

He moved to Goldthwaite when the town was established and was a very public-spirited man, having served two years as public weigher, four as commissioner of precinct No. 1 and four years as sheriff, filling every office faithfully and efficiently.

He is survived by his widow eight children and thirteen grandchildren, two great-grandchildren.

The children are as follows: Mrs. Lacey, Richland Springs; Willie Karnes, Gainesville; Mrs. Laura York, Fort Worth; Aaron Karnes, Post; Mrs. Vera Carroll, Ellasville; Mrs. Jim Rudd, Miss Clara and Joe Bailey Karnes, Goldthwaite.

May God comfort and bless the bereaved ones.

REHABILITATION LOANS NOW BEING MADE, BUT ON RESTRICTED BASIS

Rehabilitation loans for the new crop year are now being authorized by the resettlement administration, but lack of funds requires the number and amount to be more restricted than during the past year. It was announced by S. M. McCracken, Mills county supervisor.

"New borrowers in drouth or flood areas will receive what we term emergency loans, for purchase of seed, feed and supplies for human subsistence," the supervisor said. "We are not authorized to make any new standard rehabilitation loans, which are for purchase of teams and equipment, as well as supplies. We made such standard loans last winter to 80 farmers of this county, a large number of whom were thereby enabled to buy teams and equipment and to resume operations. Where these previous borrowers now require supplementary loans, we are authorized to make them for the purchase of necessary supplies."

The supervisor said that most of the previous borrowers will repay this fall the amount borrowed for "consumable" goods, such as food, clothing, seed and feed. They have more time in which to repay the amount advanced for "recoverable" goods, such as teams and tools.

Borrowers who have demonstrated that they cannot be rehabilitated will be dropped from the program. In passing judgment on these, due consideration will be given to obstacles encountered, such as adverse weather conditions, poor land, and sickness. First consideration for supplementary loans and grants will be given to those whose past performance "has demonstrated thrift, initiative, a willingness to work, a co-operative attitude and a proper regard for their obligations."

THIRTY-EIGHT MULLIN STUDENTS TAKING H. E.

A total of 38 students of Mullin high school are taking home economics, according to a check with Mrs. Eula Harkey, instructor. There are 18 students in the first year class and 19 in the second year class.

The students in home economics first year class are: Jennie Mae Bean, Floretta Burkett, Reba Carlisle, Ruby Grace Carlisle, Thera Beth Collier, Helen Elliott, Mary Ruth Fletcher, Virginia Harding, Thelma Lois Lewis, Billie Louise Nell, Audrey Virginia Ratliff, Helen Reed, Daisy Lee Sanders, Marilynn Smith, Mollie Smith, Ovelia Smith, Oleta Utzman and Reva Warren.

The girls in the second year class are: Juanelle Burkett, Barbara June Casey, Theda Fae Daniel, Eloise Downey, Shirley Guthrie, Loraine Hart, Vivian Lewis, Dava McCoy, Louise McCoy, Genevieve Miller, Laura Evelyn Mills, DeAlva Perkins, Joyce Preston, Lucille Sanders, Lula Belle Sanders, Mildred Skipping, Genevieve Templein, Oreta Utzman and Kathleen Von.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of expressing our sincere thanks and appreciation for the many kind deeds and assistance offered during the darkest hours of our sorrow over the loss of our dear mother, also do we thank each and everyone for the beautiful floral offering. We especially desire to express our heart-felt thanks and appreciation to the Rev. Swanner for the comforting words spoken at the funeral services. May God's richest blessings rest upon each and every one. Signed, LEVERETT CHILDREN.

Lynn Medford is doing some fencing on his place seven miles north of Mullin.

HUDSON BROS. DRUGGISTS

OWLS

Published by the students of Big Valley High School

Editor-in-chief, Veseva Sellers Associate editor, Ina Bea Hale Local editor, Hubert Stark Girl sports editor, Estell Miller Boy sports editor, Morris Sellers Joke editor, L. E. DuPuy, Jr. Contributing staff: Lacy Thompson, Jessie Mae Sheppard, Cartwright Oglesby. Adviser, Mrs. Woodrow Long.

School starts Monday, Sept. 28. We have two new teachers, Miss Bains from Oplin and Mr. Moss from Blanket. We are very proud to have these teachers with us. We are also proud to have Mrs. Long and Mr. Robertson back with us. We want to strive hard to make this the best year in our school's history and to leave a record which will be hard for pupils who come in later years to break. How are we to go about making such a record? The one and only way is to spend our time studying hard.

Basketball Team

The boys have organized a basketball team and plan to begin training soon. They are planning to have a team that will be hard to break.

Water Fountain

With the money made last year by putting on plays, Mr. Roberson bought a Wicker living room suite for the stage. The home economics girls are going to add new upholstery and the manual training boys are going to give it a new coat of paint. Mr. Roberson certainly made a good selection and got his money's worth. Another new addition is a new water fountain which is certainly lots better than the old one.

P.-T. A. Organized

The parents and teachers of the community met last Friday evening and organized a Parent-Teachers association. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Elvis Morris; vice-president, Mrs. Will Daniels; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. H. Haggood. This is a very helpful association. It will meet again Friday night (tonight) to plan the programs for the year, and the parents will also be entertained with a short program. Time 7:30 o'clock.

Enrollment Slow

There have not been as many pupils enrolled as should have been, due to high water. We hope the water will soon be gone, the roads dry, so the bus can run and more students will start to school, because we really need them.

JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRATS

Offer Proof of Anti-New Deal Charges

We recently made charges in this paper that Mr. Roosevelt and his administration were not Democrats, and had no claim to Democratic loyalty. We charged that continuation of his administration would undermine the economy of the nation, and threaten its institutions. We charged that he had opened the sluice-gates of the federal treasury, and through Boss Farley, had Tammanyized the nation. We charged that he had surrounded himself with radicals, and had more nearly discharged their radical platforms than his own. We are offering the proof of our charges through our paper, the Jeffersonian Democrat. We reassert that we are regular Democrats. We would prefer to vote the regular ticket. But we refuse to put party loyalty above our loyalty to America. In scratching Roosevelt we violate no party pledge, for the primary ballot contained a pledge to vote for the nominees of that primary. Mr. Roosevelt's name was not on that ballot. Furthermore, the Texas law instructs the voter how to cast a mixed ballot, and the Supreme Court has upheld that right.

We ask all true Democrats to weigh the proof before voting for a continuation of government by irresponsible radicals. Unlike the New Deal we have no ready made organization to spread our propaganda and raise money for our campaign. We will appreciate your support and whatever donations you can make us.

Write us for copies of the Jeffersonian Democrat, and help us distribute it throughout your county. J. EVETT'S HALEY, Chairman Jeffersonian Democrats of Texas, Austin, Texas. (Paid Political Advertisement)
