GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1936

NUMBER THIRTEEN

NEW HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION TO START HERE SOON

Right-of-Way Bought For Half of Distance To Hamilton County

Asphalt Topping To Brown County

New Route Cuts Out 93 Crooks and Turns

Plans and specifications for hard surfacing highway No. 7 from Goldthwaite to the Brown county line have been completed and are awaiting the approval of the federal bureau of roads, W. T. Smith, state highway engineer for Mills county, stated yesterday. This highway will embody the latest and best ideas in highway construction. The caliche surface will be 34 feet wide, and the asphalt topping 20 feet. There will be a minimum of 800 feet clear vision ahead on the curves and hills.

Mills county commissioners court has made rapid progress in purchasing tracts for the new right of way for highway 7 extending from the Goldthwaite city limits to the Hamilton county line at Star.

The new road will be only 14.85 miles long as compared to 18 miles at present, and 8 miles of this has been purchased already. The new road will have only three curves, and they are so slight that they will hardly be noticed by the traveler, whereas the old road has 96 crooks and turns. Thus a saving of 93 turns will be made.

Of the 44 tracts involved, 25 have been bought and 19 remain to be secured. Twenty-one landowners have sold land for the road and 18 remain. For the most part the court has found the landowners willing to co-operate to the fullest extent. J. P. Webb of Star, for example, the first landowner to sell his tract, simply told the court to pay him what ever they thought was right.

The Methodist Church

We are beginning to feel very much at home in Goldthwaite, and Mrs. Beery and I want to tell the members and friends of the Methodist church how deeply and sincerely we appreciate the very warm and wholehearted reception you have given us. We trust we shall be, in a large measure, worthy the confidence and love you have shown us. We want you to know also that we have fallen in love with the people of Goldthwaite, and are praying that this may be a truly great year of Christian fellowship, and achievement. When we are willing to be our best for Christ, He will do the greatest things for us.

Services next Sunday are as follows: Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Let us make this a growing school in every department. Preaching 10:50 a. m. Subject: "The Supreme Passion of the Church."

Epworth League 1:30 p. m. With our fine group of young people we should have a large attendance. Preaching 7:00 p. m. Subject: (Continued on page 5)

COUNTY TEACHERS FORM ASSOCIATION

On October 29, the Mills County Teachers' association was organized and held its first meeting of the 1936-1937 school year. The program was as follows: Musical number by the Goldthwaite high school orchestra; a discussion of the teacher's retirement plan by Supt. Tolbert Patterson; and a talk on the Texas state teachers' association by Supt. A. H. Smith.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Chairman, Tolbert Patterson; first vice chairman, Erie D. Robertson; second vice chairman, Cecil Parker; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Euna V. Barnett.

The following officers for the 1936-1937 interscholastic league year were elected: Director general, Supt. A. H. Smith, Goldthwaite; declamation, Brooke Smith, Mullin; extemporaneous speech, Warren Duren, Prairie; debate, Miss Williams, Star; spelling, Miss Summy, Mullin and Mrs. Marshall, Goldthwaite; rural schools, Judge Gerald; athletics, Hollis Blackwell, Center City; music memory, Mrs. Carothers, Goldthwaite; picture memory, Miss Graves, Lake Merritt.

The date of the next meeting was not decided, but will be announced later, as a regular meeting date would interfere with the Christmas holidays.

Federated Clubs Meet In San Antonio

One of the largest and most interesting annual conventions of Texas women club members was held at San Antonio last week when the Texas Federation of Womens clubs held its thirtieth annual meeting.

Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, jr., president of the Art and Civic club of Goldthwaite, was one of the 356 voting delegates, and nearly 200 women visitors were also registered.

Addresses by Gus Jones, well known G-man, who represented J. Edgar Hoover, Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, Peter Molyneux, Texas writer and editor, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, honored Texas author and clubwoman, Lyndon Johnson, National Youth executive, and Senator Margie Neal were features of the program.

MEANDERINGS BY THE WAYSIDE

We arrived in the city in due time. Joe Palmer is a splendid guide and a safe driver. I recommend him for safety on all occasions.

Our house for a time looked like a double cross section of chaos. We have managed, however, to get things shaped up a little and are once more at home, and I think, among friends. If we are not we have not yet found out to the contrary.

We have found the way down to Kresses store and also to Woolworth's. We have not run the red lights nor blown out the gas. We think that in time we will become city broke. But we are not unmindful of the fact that it takes a long time to get all the surplus hayseed out of the hair of a well developed "hayseed," especially if the condition has become chronic.

Mrs. Bowles has broken into the limelight already. Monday, she was on a program at the Trinity church. I did not hear her. I have heard her before. Her fellow traveler in the undertaking was the secretary of the Y. M. C. A., of the city, colored. I should have added. There was much (Continued on page 5)

Nazarene Remarks

Recent attendance in all the services at our church has been exceptionally good. We are encouraged with the outlook for our work this new assembly year. All the new officers and teachers of the Sunday school, as well as the officers of all the departments of the church have taken hold as if they were determined to do the job. It has been said that "one can measure the percentage of a man's success by his attitude toward his job"—100 per cent I WILL, 90 per cent I CAN, 80 per cent I THINK I CAN, 70 per cent I MIGHT, 60 per cent I THINK I MIGHT, 50 per cent I'LL TRY, 40 per cent WHAT IS IT? 30 per cent I WISH I COULD and 20 per cent I DON'T KNOW HOW, 19 per cent I CAN'T, 0 per cent I WON'T. I believe our group is up toward the top of the ladder in the can and will class.

The eleven o'clock service Sunday morning will be a Thanksgiving service. Let all express their thanks to God by attending church some where Sunday. We invite you to worship with us CHARLIE HARRISON, Pastor.

NEW METHODIST MINISTER

REV. JOHN K. BEERY

A Missouri farm 15 miles from the railroad was the birthplace of John K. Beery who arrived in Goldthwaite last week as the new pastor of the Methodist Church here. He was one of a family of ten children, four boys and six girls. Two of his brothers are also ministers. He was educated at Morrisville College at Morrisville, Mo., Central College, Fayetteville, Mo., and Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee. After serving churches in southwest Missouri for six years and Kansas City six years, Rev. Beery came to Texas and joined the West Texas Conference where he has preached nine years in San Antonio and six years in the Rio Grande Valley. He comes to Goldthwaite from El Campo.

LIBRARY OPENING GETS FINE RESPONSE

With 74 members already signed up and a number of others expected to join before Saturday, the new library will open at 2 p. m. tomorrow afternoon (Saturday). The library room is on the third floor of the court house adjoining the Retail Merchants association office.

Convenient shelves for the room have been donated and installed by Barnes & McCullough, and a splendid assortment of books for young and old have been classified and placed on the shelves ready for lending to members. All who join before Saturday will be listed as charter members of the library.

PENSION CHECKS READY FOR OLD FOLKS

Nearly 88,000 November checks will be released by the Texas old age assistance commission at Austin as soon as the federal grant arrives from Washington.

Already written are 86,237 warrants, totaling $1,342,993, which will be placed in the mails as soon as the state treasurer notifies Carpenter that the $800,000 federal check has been received. It is believed checks can be mailed Saturday.

We are now writing 1,500 more warrants in addition to the 86,237 the director said. These are for aged needy individuals eligible under the new law who have not received their grants. Applications now total 212,000.

STAR

The latest outstanding event of the past week was the carnival held at the school gymnasium last Saturday night. In response to a natural inclination to have a good time a large group assembled to enjoy the festivities, the games and the fun in general. Miss Ina Beth Soules was crowned queen of the carnival for the coming year. At a late hour the games lagged, the booths were abandoned and the merry-making ceased and gradually silence claimed the festive hall, leaving in the school treasury over one hundred dollars which will be disbursed for library books and other needs of the school.

The school band under the direction of Prof. Bertram Geeslin, boasts of over twenty members, and is reported doing good work.

Another happy occasion was the recent marriage of Miss Lotie Hurst to Glenn Teague. These are popular young people of Star and we wish for them happy years, prosperity and many friends along the journey of life.

Mrs. Noble Henry and little son are visiting relatives in Brownwood this week.

Mrs. Hurst has just returned home from a visit to relatives near Brownwood.

Delegation of enthusiastic Goldthwaite rooters will travel to Saba Tuesday evening for the hardfought football game that will take place between the rival high schools. This game was originally scheduled for the night of Friday, November 30, but was postponed because of the fatal illness of the San Saba school's football coach.

Tuesday night will witness San Saba's new football field, one of the best in this section. Last night when Lampasas and San Saba, a special train of 450 Lampasas rooters and a 100-piece band made Goldthwaite citizens by school authorities too are proud of the team.

Share of the proceeds from the game will be paid to the high school athletic association.

DIPHTHERIA YIELDS TO IMMUNIZATION

With sporadic cases of diphtheria being reported from various communities in Texas, the state health officer, has issued another warning to citizens to be on guard. The importance, the value, and the effectiveness of diphtheria immunization of children, is a well established fact to the medical profession of today and it is possible to say, without reservation, that diphtheria is a preventable disease.

Since diphtheria immunization is now a procedure of proved value, it places the control of diphtheria in our hands, but the greatest obstruction to elimination of diphtheria is delay.

Mass immunization in schools and clinics has demonstrated that the people of a community may control the number of cases of this preventable disease and that immunization is a simple and harmless procedure. However, the fact that 134 cases of diphtheria were reported to the state health department for the month of October, shows that the diphtheria is on the increase. The first week of October showed 27 cases reported to the state department, the second week showed 17, the third week 27, and the fourth or last week showed the alarming number of 63 new cases.

The fact that diphtheria is most dangerous to the very young children, makes immunization not only a school problem but a pre-school problem. Parents who fail to observe a precaution which may prevent a fatal illness are taking a heavy responsibility. This immunization agent is absolutely safe to administer. There is only a slight local reaction, and practically no constitutional or troublesome after effects. It confers a lifetime immunity in the majority of cases.

It is hoped that every community, if it has not already done so, will commence to wage a campaign to have all pre-school and school children immunized against diphtheria.

SOUTH BENNETT

WOMEN IN JOBS

Personal appearance—dress, hair, hands, behavior and posture—is of vital importance to the woman who wants to make her own way in the world. This is the prime conclusion of a survey made public last week by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women.

The survey, as explained by Dr. Iva Lowther Peters, head of the federation's committee on the employability of women, was aimed at finding out things that contribute to the success of a feminine careerist. More than 200 business and professional women aided the study.

Findings:
Age is no alibi for the woman who has failed to make good, in either large city or small. More than half the successful careerists questioned were over 40 years old.

Dress is important in keeping as well as in obtaining, a position.

Good speech is essential. Many women have found it profitable to take training from a voice specialist.

Beauty treatments are worthwhile. A neat, well-groomed appearance is of great value because it creates a good impression.

In general, more permanent waves, more dignified dress, quieter colors and modern but tasteful styles are recommended as helpful hints to the young girl seeking a job or to the adult woman anxious to hold on to the one she has.—Pathfinder.

MOLINE

The Eagles did quite a lot of playing last week. They met Center City at Star Wednesday night and took part in the tournament at Evant Friday and Saturday. The game at Star was a lively contest but Moline won by a score of twenty-one to sixteen. At Evant the Eagles opened the tournament by beating the powerful Lavita team twenty-five to fourteen. Their second game was played Friday night with Center City, their close neighbor and old basketball rival. After a hard battle the Eagles just did whip them down by a score of twenty to eighteen.

Moline's last, and the final game of the tournament played Saturday night was a hard-fought battle. Jonesboro defeated the Eagles by two points scoring twenty-one while the Eagles were close behind them with nineteen. All of the boys proved to be in excellent condition. James Baker, their new tall, lanky center, looked good in all the games at the tournament. The Eagles have played six games this season, winning four. They will meet the Star Tigers Friday at Moline and Saturday night at Star. Come and see the Eagles fight. If you want a winning team, show the boys that you are behind them by coming to the games.

The girls dropped a hard-fought battle to the Star girls Friday night at Star by a score of twelve to seven. They have played two games so far this season, winning one and losing one. The prospects are bright for a good team.

There will be a play presented at Moline Friday night, November 27, entitled, "Under Western Skies." There are twelve characters, five males, seven females, and it is two hours long. A play of the great open spaces, bristling with excitement, glowing with romance and abounding with good, wholesome comedy. First of all, the play has an excellent plot designed to hold the audience from the rise of the curtain to its fall. Many startling and unusual situations lead to an unexpected climax. Everyone who wishes to spend an enjoyable evening should come and see, "Under Western Skies." There will be no admission charge.

After the play Friday night there will be a quilt given away to the holder of the lucky ticket. The chances are being sold for ten cents each and the proceeds are to be used to buy our boys new basketball suits. This quilt has been pieced by the girls and ladies of the community and is very nice, so come and try your luck.

This column is contributed by the English class of the Moline high school. REPORTERS.

Sunday night I had the honor of preaching to the Trinity congregation. The audience was large and manifested a degree of patience with the "stranger with in their gates," that bespoke a very great growth in that important Christian asset. In addition to all this the madam is invited to go out to Lake Worth with the Epworth League young folks to a weiner roast Tuesday night. I think she took advantage of the opportunity which last Sunday evening offered when she was invited to speak at the League meeting to rather insinuate that an invitation would be duly considered.

We miss our friends at Goldthwaite. It seems strange when I go out on the street not to have Henry Rahl ask me how Brother Kelley and I came out in our hen roost raid the preceding night. Well, there was never another place just like Goldthwaite in all my experience. The man who has a thin skin, who can not stand a good joke even at his expense had better move on from that place. We look back with pleasure to the strong ties of friendship of many there. We do not expect to find any to whom we are united with stronger ties. We regretted very much that the inclement weather made it necessary that we rush away without an opportunity to say good-bye. I must not forget to tell you we enjoyed the coming of the Eagle. We read everything. Even the advertising

Q. Who was General Felix D. Robertson, whose picture has recently been presented to the state Confederate museum at Austin? F. H.

A. He was born at Old Washington, March 9, 1840, and was Chief of Staff for General Joe Wheeler of the army of Tennessee. He died in 1928, the last survivor of the fighting generals of the Confederacy.

Q. What appeared to confirm the Spanish fear of Nolan's intention to take possession of Texas? G. S.

A. Mercedes Richards, who deserted Nolan's last expedition, later testified before a Spanish courtmartial, purportedly disclosing Nolan's plan to build a fort among the Caddo Indians, explore the country thoroughly and then go back and get authority to conquer Texas. This was strengthened by correspondence between Thomas Jefferson, then vice-president, and Nolan in regard to the habits of wild horses.

Q. What was the Aaron Burr conspiracy and what became of it? G. S.

A. In 1806 Burr planned with General James Wilkinson, who had been in command of the Spanish border since 1805, to overthrow Spanish authorities in both Texas and Mexico. Before the expedition was organized, Wilkinson revealed the conspiracy to both governments, this resulting in Burr's trial for treason.

Q. What American was the first to be suspected by Spanish authorities of coming to Texas to forward designs of the United States for acquiring the Texas territory? G. S.

A. Phillip Nolan, who came to Texas about 1799 with a passport to purchase or capture horses, was charged with being the agent of General James Wilkinson of the United States army to make maps of the country, and incite the Indians to revolt against Spain. His arrest was ordered if found in Spanish territory.

CLOSING WEEKS AT DALLAS CENTENNIAL TO BE LARGEST

The final weeks of the Texas centennial exposition will bring to Dallas one of the biggest and newest attractions in the show world, Frank Buck's, "Bring 'Em Back Alive," jungle show, which has just closed successful runs in New York and Boston.

Centennial officials, wishing to close the greatest exposition with a bang and give to its visitors some event which will mark a high spot in entertainment, have just closed the deal with Mr. Buck by long distance telephone. The giant jungle show will open at the Livestock Arena at the exposition on November 14 and run for fifteen days until November 29.

Billed as "a big success—an absolute natural" by eastern newspaper critics, the jungle show played to 55,000 persons in its seven-day run in Boston, and to even larger crowds in New York.

The show has 10 acts in its 90-minute program, including Captain Roman Proske's royal Bengal tigers; Captain Bob Matthews' wire walking lion, King Tuffy; a thrilling trio consisting of a Sumatra tiger, a black bear and a puma and a talk by Frank Buck on his various expeditions into the wilds of the jungles to bring 'em back alive. The show closes with Buck's elephant act, which reviewers say is "the finest elephant performance in either show, circus or stage shows anywhere in the world."

Frank Buck is another Texas boy who made good. Twenty years ago he got his start in Dallas catching rattlesnakes on Turtle Creek in Highland Park. His home in Oak Cliff was a landmark for residents from miles around because snakes, coyotes, baby lions and monkeys were always sunning on the lawn. Since that time, Mr. Buck has become nationally and internationally famous, and returns to his home town amid a blare of trumpets. The jungle show exhibit, which includes almost a hundred animals, will be open continuously from 1 to 11 each day, with special performances at 2:30 and 8:30.

THANKSGIVING AGAIN

Next Thursday, according to time honored custom, has been designated by President Roosevelt as Thanksgiving Day. Unlike other national holidays, Thanksgiving is not a fixed date. It is left to the President to announce and, presumably, could be omitted altogether. Although the custom dates back to the days of the Pilgrim Fathers in New England, some three hundred years ago, it was only in 1863 that the custom of having the president name the fourth Thursday in November was adopted.

What have we Americans and Texans to be thankful for this 1936 Thanksgiving Day? Possibly the most telling way to bring this out would be to call the roll of other nations and see what we have that they have not.

Closest to the United States in language and common origin is Great Britain. But though we hear comparatively little about it, England has greater unemployment and far heavier taxes than America. The inhabitants of the "right, little isle" never go to bed without wondering if an air raid may not awaken them with a shower of flying shrapnel or choking poison gas. But most of all right now we may be thankful that we have no bachelor king whose marriage is a national concern.

Then there is France. With dozens of "governments" in the past few years, those now in power may be turned out at anytime before night by the simple expedient of refusing the premier a vote of confidence. In consequence French officers are continually walking a tight rope stretched across the chasm of political oblivion. Divergent groups are continually clamoring for control. The communists, stronger in France than in any other republic, are closely allied with Russia. The Fascists receive aid and encouragement from Italy, and the Royalists, whose aim is to re-establish a monarchy in France, are perennially active. Politics is a serious business in France. Perhaps this turbulent instability is a result of the fact that France has the worst tobacco and the vilest coffee in the world.

Where else shall we go? To Russia with its firing squads almost daily disposing of the critics of the dictator Stalin? To Germany with its dread concentration camps where men may be sentenced for voicing the slightest complaint? To Mexico where the threat of revolution hovers perpetually over the government like the sulphurous smoke above the snow clad slopes of Popocatepetl?

Shall we emigrate to Canada, once heralded as the promised land, but now the scene of a determined movement on the part of the French speaking population to secede from their English government?

Conditions in the United States could be improved. In this column we have frequently found fault with things as they are and have pointed out ways in which they could be bettered. But the United States is one of the few countries in which this privilege of free speech and a free press continues unshackled.

After all we have much cause for Thanksgiving just for living in a country where everyone has the opportunity of showing his approval or disapproval of the government by a free and secret vote, where everyone may voice his opinions freely and publicly, where everyone has enough to eat, where everyone who wants to work can find work or will be provided work by the government itself, and, greatest blessing of all, where everyone may worship according to the dictates of his conscience, without interference from the state or an all-powerful church.

We have reason to be thankful, we Americans.

FARMER'S PURCHASING POWER

If the annual farm income in 1936 amounts to $7,850,000,000 as presently forecast by the department of agriculture, it will be 10.7 per cent larger than in 1935 and 81.4 per cent larger than in 1932 when farm income was at the low for the depression. As compared with the pre-depression year, 1929, however, farm income in 1936 will be 25.1 per cent smaller.

On the assumption that prices paid by farmers for goods bought during the last quarter of 1936 will remain at the September level, the government's estimate of farm income indicates that the farmers' purchasing power for the full year 1936 will be 11.6 per cent higher than in 1935 and 59.9 per cent higher than at the low for the depression in 1932, according to the Alexander Hamilton Institute. At the same time, it will be only 7.3 per cent lower than in 1929.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK

The United States has the brightest outlook in its history, and Texas, now the greatest producer of wealth in the union, will be the greatest industrial state within 10 years, Nathan Adams, Dallas banker, told the chamber of commerce annual membership meeting Thursday of last week at a luncheon in the Gunter hotel, in the most optimistic speech probably heard here in 10 years.

New York has more wealth than any other state, the speaker said, but does not produce more. Texas' resources, including oil, natural gas and lignite as fuel, with other natural advantages, will "make Texas the leading industrial state as certain as we are here," Adams declared.

That leaders in other sections of the country are coming to know this state was emphasized in the fact as stated by Adams, that "I have seen more big men in Texas this centennial year than in the previous 48 years of my business and observations in the state."

Adams was presented to the large gathering by Reagan Houston, San Antonio banker, as the head of the greatest bank the south has ever had, the First National of Dallas, with $116,000,000 in deposits, "more," said Houston, "than all the banks and trust companies in San Antonio combined."

"Don't let anybody tell you this country is going to hell. Communism can't make inroads on a nation of home owners, and

In this connection I would like to remind you that there is room in Texas for all the unemployed in the nation to make a living if they are willing to work. This country was not built on Wall Street markets or chiseling."—San Antonio Express.

CURTIS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Time marches on for us all, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Curtis are no exceptions. They both passed another milestone recently, and the event was celebrated by their friends at a surprise birthday party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Greathouse on November 7. Everything was planned perfectly and carried out accordingly.

There were sixty-one persons present for the party and not until the Curtises were seated was the purpose of the party made known to them. Greetings were extended and a cake covered with "dozens" of candles, and a "special" gift to each was presented. By reason of the fact that Mr. Curtis had declared war on neckties many years ago, his friends presented him with a big box of ties (most of which had been broken to use). Following this came a large box of gifts from the many friends individually.

Mrs. Greathouse and others had popcorn balls, and heaps of candy ready and all present were well fed. We all ate, drank (water), and were merry. The party broke with great excitement, and it is rumored that the Curtises were too excited to sleep soundly.

"GENERAL DIED AT DAWN" COMING TO MELBA THEATRE

A fast-moving story of adventure, intrigue and romance in modern war-torn China, "The General Died at Dawn," brings to the screen a thrilling drama which well might have been taken directly from the newspaper headlines.

"The General Died at Dawn" presents Gary Cooper again in a soldier-of-fortune role, one which has added greatly to his stature as one of filmdom's outstanding stars. Playing opposite him—as a woman who uses her beauty as a lure in the high game of international intrigue—is beautiful blonde Madeleine Carroll, young English actress who is headed for a major position among the great stars.

The film is based on the struggle between modern China and the predatory war-lords who are laying the country waste. On the one side is General Yang, ambitious war-lord intent upon crushing China under his iron heel. On the other is a growing people's movement. Cooper is in the ranks of this movement.

Sent to Shanghai with money with which to buy arms, Cooper is lured aboard a train by Miss Carroll, daughter of a crooked international agent. The train is held up and Cooper captured. The agent is given the money and sent to Shanghai to pick up Cooper's arms consignment. Once there he decides to flee to America with the money. Cooper escapes from Yang and reaches Shanghai where he kills the agent in a shooting scrape. Yang arrives and takes him prisoner again, together with Miss Carroll. He takes them aboard his junk where he intends to torture them into revealing the hiding place of the money which neither of them know.

Miss Carroll discovers she loves Cooper and to atone for her duplicity in leading to his capture, offers to pay Yang with her life if he will permit Cooper to go. Before this becomes necessary, however, Yang is shot in a scuffle. Realizing he is about to die, he orders his soldiers to kill Cooper and the girl and then to kill themselves so that he can enter heaven with an entourage befitting his rank. Just as the soldiers are about to fire, Cooper begins a desperate gamble for life by playing to Yang's vanity.

Kay Francis as Florence Nightingale, the social butterfly who became mankind's immortal angel of mercy, in "The White Angel," First National's successor to "The Story of Louis Pasteur." "The White Angel," is playing at the Melba Theatre, November 22 and 23.

ORCHARD NEWS

"My orchard paid well this year," says C. C. Collier, Goldthwaite. From 15 acres he sold 504 bushels at an average of more than $1.00 a bushel. He also sold more than $100.00 worth of grapes from 100 vines. Mr. Collier and his family did all the harvesting and sold the entire crop at the orchard.

This orchard, planted in 1926, consisted of Mayflower, Early Wheeler, Elberta and a few trees of other varieties of peaches.

Mr. Collier will enlarge his orchard by planting apples and commercial varieties of peaches.

New orchards should be planted on terraces. If possible, make a terrace for every row of trees and plant the trees on the terraces.

It is a good practice to plant the old orchard to oats or rye. This makes a good winter cover crop and may be turned under next spring for fertilizer.

Look over the orchard for scale and if found spray early. Gather and burn or bury all mummified or diseased fruit. Brown rot, scab and other diseases carry over on this dried up fruit.
