

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1937

NUMBER TWENTY-FIVE

NEW RIGHT OF WAY FENCED BY COUNTY

About 50 men have been at work this week fencing the new right-of-way for highway 7 between Goldthwaite and Hamilton county line at Star. This work is preliminary to deeding the land to the state for construction of the road. While no date has been set, it is hoped that clearing and grading can begin in the late spring or summer.

FATHER-SON BANQUET ENJOYED BY BAPTISTS

The Father-Son banquet at the Baptist church last week provided an excellent meal and a bushel of amusement. The occasion was justified if it promoted more sympathy and better understanding between father and son. But who ever heard of a mother-son banquet? Not necessary, because between them there already exists sympathy, charity, understanding.

The boys were relieved at the outset when the toastmaster said, "Boys you should try to make better men than your fathers." The boys looked out of the corner of their eye at Dad and whispered "dead easy."

Rev. Swanner spoke eloquently on "Ships," stressing three good ships, "Kinship, Friendship and Fellowship." However, he did not mention three other ships on which nearly all sail on the oceans of life and also have close relationship. That is courtship, hardship and battleship.

The speaker stressed the fact that ugly men always marry pretty women. Each boy's reaction to that was "Fine for these other boys but what about me?" Fred Soules and Travis Meeks said that was the best part of the speech.

After the meeting one dad was heard say, "He made the boys a good speech." Well that father missed something. Most of the speech was aimed at him. The Dean wasn't talking to the Mormons.

Church Of Christ

In one of the last prayers our Lord prayed while here on earth he said, "Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on me through their words; that they may all be one; even as thou, father, art in me, and I in thee." In as much as this is one of his last petitions, I am sure he will be pleased only when it is carried out in the actions of men. The whole tenor of the Bible directs men to be united in their religious service to God. This is that for which the early Christians gave their lives, and labored so faithfully to bring about. The inspired history of the early church shows that the members worked unitedly, and harmoniously in their efforts to spread the gospel of our Lord. Every statement from inspired writers show the necessity of our being together in matter of religion today. Listen to Paul, "Let there be no division among you, endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace, there is one faith." What could be more forceful than those inspired words? Yet we hear men thank God that they have denominations, that it may be possible for all men to find the one they like best and there-in serve.

The Church of Christ has always, from the day of Pentecost, labored to discourage division, and strive to maintain unity among God's people. This is entirely in harmony with the revealed will of the Lord, and altogether possible since he has given the only basis upon which it may be done, the Bible. We can never get together upon the creeds of men, nor can we make our opinions agree with the other man's, but Paul said "We walk by faith, and faith comes by the word of God." Hence the

CEMETERY ASS'N IN NEED OF HELP

The Goldthwaite Cemetery association met Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Eli Fairman at 5 o'clock.

Great concern is felt over the condition of the cemetery, as funds are so low in the treasury of the association and cleaning up time is coming on and so many graves have had to be filled on account of continued rains and many people say they will clean their own lots, but they fail to keep the alleys or walks around them and a man has to be paid to clean these. Then there are so many people who have moved away and have been lost sight of, that we cannot neglect their lots. The place would never look well with so many neglected lots scattered among the well kept lots. The windmill is almost beyond repair and with out water shrubbery and flowers will die, so we are making an appeal to the town for help. For civic pride, if not for the sake of those who sleep in the silent city.

If those who are finding fault with the work that six faithful women have tried to do through the many years, with such limited means, would put their shoulders to the wheel or else give of their means to help pay a man to do the work, things might be different. So we insist that all who have loved ones there or those with civic pride for Goldthwaite and surroundings, come and help the few who have labored so long, and are not willing to give up the work entirely.

STAR HIGH SCHOOL WINS TOURNAMENT

Star high school won the Mills county basketball tournament, held at Center City last Friday and Saturday, by defeating Center City in the final game by a score of 25 to 21.

Teams in the tournament included Goldthwaite, Priddy, Star, Mount Olive, Prairie, Mullin and Center City.

In the first round of the double bracket, Prairie beat Center City 21 to 17; Star took Goldthwaite 30 to 14; Priddy defeated Mullin 25 to 13; while Mount Olive drew a bye. In the second round games Star overwhelmed Prairie 40 to 21; Center City eliminated Goldthwaite 31 to 18; Priddy swamped Mount Olive 33 to 11; and Mullin went to the semi-finals on a bye.

In the first game Saturday between Star and Priddy, the closest battle of the tournament was fought. Priddy led throughout most of the game and seemed certain to win with a one point margin until little Tommie Harper sunk a long shot with 12 seconds to go. Incidentally, this was the only field goal scored by Tommie in that game.

The other semi-final was played by Mullin and Center City with Center City winning 39 to 17.

The final game between Star and Center City was fought hard and clean to a Star victory. Coaches and referee selected an allcounty team on the basis of ability and sportsmanship during the tournament. Deward Atchison, Center City, center; Sammie Harper, Star, forward; Fred Schroeder, Priddy, forward; Carl Casbeer, Center City, guard; and Cleo Benningfield, Star, guard.

Junior boys' tournament will be held tomorrow (Saturday). If the weather is good it will be played at Center City and if bad, at the Star gymnasium.

The Mills county track and field meet will be held at Goldthwaite on March 19 and 20. A schedule of events will be announced later by A. H. Smith, director general.

A CITIZEN'S CREED

Hubert Harrison, manager of East Texas Chamber of Commerce, offers "A Citizen's Creed" which is peculiarly appropriate for the New Year and which if lived up to would make better citizens, a better town, state and nation. He says:

"I believe in my COMMUNITY, my STATE and my COUNTRY.

"I THANK GOD I am an AMERICAN and a TEXAN.

"I believe that MEN play a bigger part in town-building than natural resources, and that cities are what men make them.

"I am willing to give my TIME, THOUGHT, ENERGY and MONEY to help advance the welfare of my community in return for the great blessings I enjoy.

"I am NOT AFRAID that my competitor will make more money than I will as the town grows.

"I will not be a SPONGE, taking all I can get and giving as little as possible.

"I want to LIVE in my town so that I can leave as a heritage the memory of some SERVICE for the benefit of the community.

"I believe that MY RECORD on earth will be largely my record as a citizen of THIS TOWN.

"I believe in the SUCCESS of my community and want to have it said of me that I PLAYED WELL MY PART.

"I believe in the SINCERITY of other citizens, and will not indulge in BACK-BITING, SLANDER, or 'KNOCKING' against my town or neighbors.

"I am PROUD OF MY TOWN and want to live so that the town may be PROUD of ME.

"I will advance the FAME of my town by doing MY JOB the best I can... and perhaps better than it is being done ANYWHERE ELSE.

"I will INVEST my LIFE where I make my LIVING."

That is a creed anyone should be glad to adopt and practice.

LIBERAL PENSIONS OFFERED IN BILL

A bill has been favored by a house committee in the Texas legislature by which old age pensions would not be less than $18 per month. Pensioners will be allowed to own $3,000 worth of property ($6,000 for a couple) and to receive $200 annual income from other sources without jeopardizing their pension payments.

Governor Allred has served notice on the legislators that he will not approve any appropriations unless the lawmakers provide the money to meet the increased expenses.

NEW CIRCLE OF METHODIST WOMEN ORGANIZED

A new circle of the Methodist Missionary Society has been organized with Mrs. J. A. Hester as chairman, Miss Love Gatlin, secretary; Mrs. John Patterson, treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Little, study leader. This is an enthusiastic group of twenty-five women and they are entering eagerly into the Missionary work of the church. They meet three Mondays of the month. The first meeting is a joint business meeting with Circle No. 1, of which Mrs. R. M. Thompson is chairman and Mrs. Thompson is also president of the society. The second Monday this new circle will meet for circle business and World Outlook study. The third Monday will be a combined meeting—combining the social hour and Mission Study. Monday the group will meet at the parsonage and each member is requested to bring a current event of some Missionary interest.

ARMY IS WINNER IN FLOOD BATTLE

With the crest of the flood in the Mississippi already past Memphis and the billion dollar levee system holding tight all along the line, United States army engineers in charge of flood control work are beginning to breathe easier. The fight against sand-boils, seepages and cave-ins has not stopped.

There is no let up in the work of relief, however, as over a million people are still without homes and any means of sustaining themselves.

LIONS' BANQUET MUCH ENJOYED

The Goldthwaite Lions club banquet at Priddy on Thursday evening of last week was one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held in Mills county. Exactly 92 Goldthwaite people enjoyed the sumptuous feast provided by the Priddy ladies and several more attended the program that was given in the school auditorium afterwards.

Speakers at the banquet as introduced by the toastmaster, Lion President A. H. Smith, were Rev. Kluge of Priddy, M. Y. Stokes, Jr., F. P. Bowman, who spoke appropriately and eloquently on neighborliness, Judge R. J. Gerald, Mayor H. G. Bodkin and W. C. Dew.

The program in the auditorium included music by the Priddy orchestra and Louie's Hungry Five from Howard Payne college, readings by Mrs. Walters Hester and Leona Druckhammer, a guitar and clarinet duet by Schultz Faulkner and J. D. Berry, tap dance by Connie Trent with Mrs. Nora Berry at the piano, piano accordion solo by Aubrey Smith and a quartet composed of Earl Clements, Duke Clements, Buel Condon and F. P. Bowman accompanied by Mrs. Fred Martin at the piano, John Bowman, mandolin, and Mark Fairman, jr., guitar.

A further account of this delightful evening will be found in the news letter from Priddy on another page of this week's Eagle.

The Methodist Church

Some years ago in Pittsburgh I heard Dr. John R. Mott say we should pray this prayer often. "Lord help me not to seek to bend the straight to the crooked, that is Thy will to mine, but help me to bend the crooked to the straight, that is my will to Thine." This is the beginning and conclusion of all Christian praying. His last message to His Disciples was "Go ye into all the world and make disciples of all people." This certainly is His will concerning us His children and the world. If we are following any other plan we are seeking to bend the straight to the crooked. His will to ours, and thereby defeating the purpose for which Christ died. The only way we may be assured of His presence and blessing is that we pray earnestly that we be fashioned and led according to His will. Bishop Darlington recently said, "The ministry and laity must determine that the entire Christian church is a missionary society or nothing."

We enjoyed another good day last Sunday. The church school had an increase in attendance, and if we exercise the high privilege of being collaborators with God we shall have an increase next Sunday, and on the work will go and grow.

Church school 9:45 a. m. How can we best advertise our religion at this hour? Preaching 10:50 a. m. Subject: "Life's Worthwhile Possessions?" M. Y. Stokes, Jr., will bring a special four minute message at this service. Epworth League meet at 6:15 p. m. Preaching 7:00 p. m. Subject:

Baptist Reminder

A motion was carried by our church Wednesday night that the matter of a new church be tabled until a more convenient date. The church can act on it in conference any time they desire.

The date for our spring revival will be March 15 through 19. We plan to have a fine night revival using a different preacher each night. We will also have a training school in connection with our revival. We will have five classes each night preceding the revival services. I am hoping all our membership will plan to attend these services.

Our father and son banquet was indeed a success. I have never seen men enjoy a service better. There were 110 men and boys present. The women co-operated with our president, Mrs. Sanson in a fine way.

Our services Sunday evening will be: B. T. U., 6:15 and preaching 7:15 o'clock. Remember all our services. Our crowds Sunday were unusually large at both services.

FRANKLIN E. SWANNER.

CHINA RALLIES TO AID OF AMERICAN FLOOD SUFFERERS
Shanghai, Feb. 1.—A campaign to raise the equivalent of $80,000 to help victims of the United States floods was launched today by appreciative Chinese leaders hopeful of reciprocating American aid to Chinese disasters.
Government officials and prominent industrialists, comprising the "American flood relief committee," announced the drive would begin at once.
Dr. Hsiang-Hai Kung, minister of finances, leader of the movement, said $30,000 would be sent in cash as soon as it was publicly subscribed and the rest would be spent for medical and other supplies.
"In each instance where China was the victim of natural calamities, America always assisted," Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek, premier; Dr. Hsiang Hai Kung, minister of industries for Canton, and others declared. "Now it is China's turn to show in words and deeds our sympathy for America."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Jellied Peel
Most people throw away the peels from grapefruit, oranges, and lemons when, with a little effort, wholesome delicacies could be made from them. To aid those housewives who have tried, only to have their efforts result in a product of insipid flavor and watery texture, the bureau of home economics of the department of agriculture has worked out the following directions for making jellied fruit peel:

Ingredients: 10 ounces of peel (either orange, lemon or grapefruit); 14 ounces granulated sugar, one-half teaspoon salt and one and one-third cups water (or enough to cover) for sirup, and one cup granulated sugar in which to roll the cooked peel.

Preparation: Select thick, soft, unblemished peel. Avoid russet-skinned fruit. Strip the peel off in quarter sections, including as much white as possible, and cut into strips one-fourth to one-half inch wide. Do not trim; use the entire peel.

Cooking: Parboil the peel three times, using two quarts of water each time. Bring to a boil, cook one-half hour, and discard the water after each cooking. Strips will then be tender and require careful handling to prevent breaking.

Sirup: Place the water, salt and sugar in a sauce pan about eight inches in diameter. Stir until the sugar is dissolved. Add the strips of peel, skin side up. Carefully arrange them parallel to each other to prevent breaking. Cook rapidly for about 40 minutes, then reduce the heat and boil gently for 20 to 40 minutes longer, or until sirup is absorbed by the strips. Strips must be lifted and turned frequently with fork to get sirup to penetrate equally. The finished

A PERFECT RECORD
 Nina Summy and Clara Smith,
 both members of the junior class,
 have not had the sad experience
 of trying to think of an excuse for tardiness or absence a single time during this school year.
 Neither of the girls has asked Mr.
 Cloninger for a permit to class since school started. This is indeed a record to be proud of. Illness, guests, work, inclement weather, out-of-town trips—none of these hindrances or temptations have prevented the prompt arrival of these girls to their classes. Congratulations, Nina and Clara, on your splendid record.

We are glad to be able to report that Miss Ietta Featherston, ill for the past two weeks
 in a Lampasas hospital, is considerably better and is expected home soon.

Last week the resignation of Miss Harriet Allen, freshman reporter, was tendered and accepted. We regret to lose one of the most capable and dependable
 members of the Herald staff.

EDITOR'S NOTE
 Any others who have been maligned as that reprobate has so manifestly done time and again, must just do as the editorial staff does—consider the source and forget it. Let not your mind be muddled by the childish prattlings of an imbecile.

CHATTER COLUMN
 "Ah ha!" Said we with a joyful sneer, as our editor (big chief cuttem out our best dirt) appeared at school last week with out any voice to speak of—or with. "At last you are getting the punishment you have long deserved." And "Goody-goody."

shouted all the little zeros and naughts when she turned up Monday with a decided limp and an annoyingly too frequent groan. If we could just get this column in once or twice without having it expurgated by her infinitesimal mind—boy, what a dust that would raise! (How are we gonna get the above in? Wait and see!)

What kind of a story did
 Loraine Bledsoe, Addie Mae Summy and Jeanette Martin tell when they finally reached home
 last Sunday, muddy to their knees? If anyone is really curious, we suggest that he ask the two gay young members of our younger set who blocked the road
 on the clear side of the boghole.

There was a large number of doleful faces seen Monday morning, for a good many unlucky boys and girls were carrying absent slips with an "unexcused" mark on them.

What, more letter writing going on? But in this case the persons whose names were signed plead not guilty. Who did write those letters and sign Clayton Huckabee's and Opal Faulkner's names?

Straw Vote!
 Numerous have been the protests against various items which have appeared in this column.
 Ye editor has sat back and enjoyed the rumpus while mentally despoiling the lowly being who slinks around and brings in the dirt.

The time has come for a showdown! Tired are we, the humble servants of the public, of being termed eavesdroppers, spies,
 traitors and every other disgraceful name known. We demand justice.

Do you like this column? If you do, say so. If you don't—well, perhaps you had better write us about it. All communications may be dropped in a box in the superintendent's office. If the general opinion of the public seems to indicate it, we will discontinue this column.

LEGISLATION PROPOSED TO AID AGED WORKERS

The state would extend a helping hand to middle-aged industrial workers under a bill by Representative J. E. Winfree of Houston. The proposal would make it unlawful for any corporation to discriminate against an employe because of his age.
 The emergency clause recited
 that it was becoming "increasingly difficult for persons approaching middle age to retain their jobs in the face of competition from youth."

THE MODERN WAY

In savage tribes, where skulls
 are thick
 And primal passions rage,
 They have a system, sure and quick
 To cure the blithe of age.
 For when a native's youth has fled
 And years have sapped his vim,
 They simply knock him on the head
 And put an end to him.
 But we, in this enlightened age
 Are built of sterner stuff,
 And so we look with righteous
 rage
 On deeds so hard and rough.
 For when a man grows old and gray
 And weak and short of breath,
 We simply take his job away
 And let him starve to death.—

IMPROVING PECAN TREES

Now is the best time of the year to begin transforming the native grove into an improved orchard. There are many things that should be done during the dormant season, such as clearing out all foreign timber and underbrush. There are some pecan trees that should come out; those bearing inferior nuts should either be taken out or top worked to some named variety that has proven good in the sections where it is to grow. Too, there are some trees that show signs of distress—such as diseases—they should be cut down
 and burned.

Some have dead limbs all through the top, and holes or cavities on the trunk; trees of this type should be looked after.

Some trees can often be revived by severe pruning and filling the cavities with cement or other preparation made for this purpose; in doing this work, be sure to clean out the cavity and fill thoroughly, using some good disinfectant before filling.

We do not advise spending much money or time on those century old trees, unless they are very favorably located and considered a pet of the family.

The major portion of the orchard pruning should be done
 during the dormant season, that is, when the sap is down, after the trees have shed their foliage.
 The dormant season is the rest period for pecan trees. During this season of rest, they do not have much to do; in fact, about all the work they do is to replenish the small amount of sap
 that has passed off through air evaporation from the small twigs and branches.

There are some reasons why pruning means the removal from a tree or plant a portion of the top which is undesirable; the view of improving the health of the plant, of increasing the fruit production, or of enhancing the general appearance and value of the tree.

Nature, herself, does a good job of pruning—she is even more ruthless at times than many of us growers—in spring, summer,
 autumn, and winter her invisible
 pruners are at work with the result that strong, healthy trees flourish, while the weaker are pruned.

Nature's method of pruning cannot be expected to shape pecan trees so the nuts will mature and ripen better or so they can be harvested more conveniently. It is left up to man to put the finishing touches on the work. Man must shape the hedges, shrubs, vines and trees
 to conform to individual taste
 and design.

To achieve the best in this work, careful, painstaking pruning on the part of the home owner or grower is necessary. Efficient pruning saves wasted effort on the part of the tree or plant and deflects the energy to the production of finer nuts of better quality.

The equipment for doing home
 orchard pruning, usually consists of a pair of small shears,
 one pair of lopping shears with long handles to be used on larger limbs than you can conveniently cut with the small shears, a folding saw and also a larger saw for heavier cuttings.
 A good pocket knife will come in handy to smooth off the fuzzy edge of the cut made by the saw.
 After this is done, apply immediately a coat of orange shellac
 around the edge of the white wood and bark. This is done to

MOSQUITO CONTROL BILL NOW BEFORE LEGISLATURE

A health measure affecting the lives and happiness of thousands of Texans annually is now before the legislature. It is a bill providing for the creation of mosquito control boards in counties where mosquitoes are a serious menace to the public health.

The Texas death rate from malaria justifies the enactment of this bill into law. In 1934 (the state board of health, discovered that malaria affects 186 of our 254 counties and that in these 186 counties, more than 21,000
 cases of malaria were reported which resulted in the deaths of 497 Texans. It also was learned that in these 186 counties there were 550,000 carriers of malaria.

During 1934, the last year for which vital statistics are obtainable, the Texas death rate from malaria was 8.2 per hundred thousand. The national rate for the same period was 3.7. Texas ranked ninth among the states
 for deaths from malaria, a preventable disease.

The Texas Planning Board
 wants to conserve this manpower for the state and it believes that it can be done
 through enactment of the mosquito control bill.

What does the mosquito control bill propose to do? Provisions of the bill permit counties to create boards which would have full authority, and the backing of the state, in eliminating mosquito breeding places.

Scientists declare that the preserve the cambium layer which is between the bark and wood. After two or three weeks,

 the whole surface may be covered with some good outside barn
 paint which does not contain too much oil.

It has always been the policy of the commissioner of agriculture to render the very best service possible in each division,
 and we wish to extend to you
 the courtesies this division offers and invite you to use us whenever your interests may indicate a need of our suggestions
 and service.—Texas Commissioner of Agriculture.

BLAME THE PARENTS NOT THE CHILDREN

During the last few weeks of 1936, in Massachusetts, three deaths occurred from guns in the hands of small children. In the case a grandfather was visiting his son and daughter when a small lad came into the room with the gun of his father; the gun went off and the grandfather was instantly killed. In the other two cases two small lads killed two of their playmates.

Parents who keep weapons
 where they can be found by children or who make presents of deadly weapons to their children
 —they, and not the children, must take the blame. In the first eleven months of 1936 one person collected clippings from a removal of mosquito breeding malaria prevention. Stagnant water is the natural breeding place for mosquitoes. The drainage of such areas which are adjacent to communities will do much to stamp out malaria.

 Other measures include the screening of houses and the prompt attendance of a physician for every case of malaria.

limited number of papers of 39
 deaths from guns in the hands of children 15 years of age or younger.

In spite of all this, public opinion is growing rapidly against making it possible for children
 to have guns and even the opposition to toy guns as gifts is increasing. For example, the police department of New York, accustomed in the past to distributing a certain number of toy guns at Christmas, has abandoned the practice, the deputy police commissioner having said,
 "I am in sympathy with the campaign to eliminate this type of toy, and we are more than glad to take an active part in this campaign to eliminate dangerous weapons as playthings."

Beware The Cough From a common cold That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines
 you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion.
 Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Wild Cherry and Menthol, but also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children
 with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote

 and they rank Creomulsion
 top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs,
 chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist
 is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle.
 Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. • (Adv.)

THE 25-MILLIONTH FORD HAS JUST BEEN BUILT

IT HAS never occurred before in automobile history that 25 million cars of one make, bearing one name, have been manufactured under one management. The 25,000,000th Ford car rolled off the Ford Rouge Plant production line on January 18, 1937.

25 million cars since 1903... more than one-third of all the cars ever built... enough cars to transport the entire population of the United States.

The figures represent a remarkable contribution to the social welfare, the industrial stability and the general
 progress of our country.

People respect Ford efficiency. They know Ford uses fine materials, the best workmanship at good wages, the most exact precision measurements.
 They know these things are passed along to purchasers in the form of extra value. Naturally, they like to do business with such a company.
 That is the only reason it has been required to produce 25 million cars.

Naturally, too, they expect more of a Ford car, more this year than last year—more each year than the year before. They have every right to. The experience gained in building 25,000,000 cars enables Ford to produce today a really superb motor car at a really low price

 —with the Beauty, Comfort, Safety and Performance of much more expensive cars.

The 1937 Ford V-8 combines advanced design, all-steel construction,
 extra body room, and brilliant brakes
 with a choice of two V-type 8-cylinder engines—the most modern type of power-plant on land, sea, or in the air.

The 85-horsepower engine provides top performance with unusually good economy for its high power.

The 60-horsepower engine gives good performance with the greatest gasoline mileage ever built into a Ford car—and wears the lowest Ford price tag in years.

People expect more of a Ford car
 because it's a Ford—and they get more, for the same reason. It is undeniably the quality car
 in the low-price field.

COMMUNITY LETTERS

NORTH BENNETT

I'm sure everyone has been enjoying the sunshine for a few days. Here is hoping it continues to shine for a while.

Little Nada Ruth McNeil has had the flu.

Mrs. F. M. Anderson and Andrew and Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Page visited Mr. and Mrs. Berry and children at Salado last Friday. Mrs. Berry is a daughter of Mrs. Anderson and her folks have been sick.

Mr. Lawrence has been a victim of the flu, but is able to be up. Ernest Whitson is staying with them and taking care of the chores around the place.

We are glad to report Mrs. Bill Anderson and little son are doing fine. Miss Zella B. Conway has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Anderson, while she was sick.

L. J. Arthur of Kingsville came in Thursday to visit his wife who is teaching here. They spent the week-end in Bertram with her folks. Mrs. Watson of Center City, a sister of Mrs. Arthur, accompanied them to Bertram.

Mrs. R. L. Kendall, Mrs. Batchelor and Lula made a trip to Caradan Friday afternoon and also visited in the Morgan McNeil home a while.

Mr. Kendall and J. J. Geeslin have been fixing fence on the Jeske place.

H. C. Geeslin and R. L. Kendall did some good work on our road. They hauled some rocks and filled a mud hole then took the grader and went over the road. But there are plenty of mud holes yet. Looks like our commissioner could find plenty to do if he is looking for a job.

We were made sad to hear of the passing away of Leland Simpson. The family have our deepest sympathy.

J. J. Geeslin and family visited in the Monroe Geeslin home Sunday.

Charles Fox started to school Monday and Millard Ellis started Tuesday.

Those who enjoyed the birthday dinner with Mr. Kendall Tuesday were: Otto Kendall, L.

CARADAN

The first thing I want to do this week is to correct a mistake I made last week when I said that Bro. Hayes would preach Saturday night and Sunday. I should have said he would preach the second Saturday night and Sunday.

We had a better crowd at Sunday school Sunday morning. There were not so many at singing Sunday night. Everyone is invited to come and sing.

Milton Glen Stewart visited Billie Head Sunday. Alvin Head and little Glory Oatis visited in the Stewart home Sunday.

Misses Hazel and Floy Beard had quite a crowd of school pupils visit with them Sunday.

Deward Reynolds and family visited in the Charley Anderson Lloyd Reynolds and Mrs. Leverett homes Sunday evening.

This entire community was made sad when the announcement came that the death angel had borne away the soul of Leland Simpson. To know Leland was to love him. He was too sweet for this old world and God called him to come join his mother in heaven. We sincerely sympathize with all of his loved ones.

Several from Caradan attended church at Mount Olive Sunday. Bro. Chambers preached at Caradan Saturday night.

Mrs. Anderson visited in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Will Knight, last week. She also visited her sister, Mrs. Page.

There has been a bit of sickness in this vicinity. All seem to be improving at this time.

We are all hoping for some spring weather. We can hear the red birds whistling. REPORTER.

J. Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Geeslin and Mrs. S. J. Batchelor and Mrs. Kendall They had baked chicken, salads, cakes, pies and all that it takes to make a real dinner They report a pleasant time, but I failed to get the number of candies on the cake. We wish him many more happy birthdays. BLUE JAY.

ROCK SPRINGS

This community extends deep sympathy to our neighbor O. C. Gatlin and wife in the loss of her father. Also to Roy Simpson and family in the loss of their son and brother.

Sunday and Sunday night will be church day. Come and bring some one with you.

Several from here attended the play at Big Valley Friday night. When you think those young folks can't put on a good play you are mistaken.

Miss Bernice Traylor went to teach school one morning last week and when she got ready, she got her lunch, or she thought it was her lunch, but it was a sack of prunes. So she traded her pupils prunes for some of their lunches.

John Earl and Janette Roberts visited Friday night with Janecé Doggett in the Nickols home while their mother and brother went with Philip Nickols to Big Valley to the play.

Joe Roberts and Beryl attended the father and son banquet at the Baptist church in town Friday. They said it was mighty nice.

Herbert Landrum and family and Leroy Miller and wife from Comanche visited in the McClary home Saturday night and Sunday.

Fred McClary and wife moved into town last week.

Mmes. Porter and Nickols dined with Will Marshall and wife in town Monday. They also called on Mrs. Conroy and Miss Lucile and Mrs. Lula Gatlin in the afternoon.

Mrs. Homer Doggett and Janecé spent Monday with Mrs. Dwight Nickols.

Vernard Tyson and wife and James Nickols and wife visited in the Webb home Sunday night.

Joe Anderson visited his girl friend, Miss Bernice Traylor, last week.

John Roberts butchered last week. They treated some of their neighbors to nice meat.

Miss Johnnie Belle Circle is keeping house for George Robertson and family in Big Valley.

Hardy McClary left Sunday afternoon for Fort Worth where he thinks he will get work.

Mrs. Joe Roberts and children were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts.

Miss Nealie Moore from Brownwood spent Saturday night and Sunday with E. D. Roberson and family.

Beryn Turner and family from Algeria spent the day Sunday with Mrs. Traylor and family. Mmes. Porter, Nickols, Doggett and Janecé and Glenn Nickols attended the Norwood baby's funeral at town Sunday afternoon.

R. C. Webb and wife visited in the Nickols home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ema Whitt went home with her daughter, Mrs. Abijah Stark, and family Thursday afternoon for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Stark live in San Saba county.

Mrs. Joe Roberts spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Ira Harvey in town.

Herbert Cooke and wife from Pecan Wells and Horce Cooke from Star spent Saturday night with their father. They all went to the show for a change.

Philip Nickols took his sister, Mrs. Doggett and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Glenn Nickols, to the midnight show Saturday night.

A. H. Kaus and family spent Sunday in the McClary home. W. A. Daniel bought several hogs from his neighbors last week.

Philip Nickols plowed for R. C. Webb several days this week. They are getting ready for another crop.

O. C. Gatlin went to Brownwood Saturday afternoon to be with his wife and son. While he was there, his father-in-law passed away.

Chocolate — Friend of Budgets

Festive Enough for the Proudest Occasion.

HOMEMAKERS who produce limited budgets richly deserve the name of culinary artists! And one of the fairy godmothers presiding over such resourceful housewives is chocolate. For chocolate is a flavor which endows the pot-luck bread pudding with unexpected grace—it lends steamed pudding, that winter favorite, an almost regal air—or, when a company dinner is planned, Chocolate Velvet Cream makes an imposing finale.

Chocolate Velvet Cream
1 square unsweetened chocolate
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon granulated gelatin
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup heavy cream
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Add chocolate to 1/2 cup milk and heat in double boiler. Soak gelatin in remaining 1/2 cup milk 5 minutes. When chocolate is melted, beat with rotary egg beater until blended. Add gelatin, sugar, and salt, and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Cool. Add cream and vanilla. Chill until cold and syrupy. Place in bowl of cracked ice or ice water and whip with rotary egg beater until fluffy and thick like whipped cream. Turn into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with whipped cream. Serves 6.

Chocolate Bread Pudding
1/2 square unsweetened chocolate
1/2 cup milk
1 egg, slightly beaten

1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups cubed stale bread
Add chocolate to milk and heat in double boiler. When chocolate is melted, stir until blended. Combine eggs, sugar, and salt; add chocolate mixture gradually, stirring vigorously. Add vanilla. Place bread in greased baking dish; pour mixture over it and let stand 10 minutes; then mix well before baking. Place dish in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 60 minutes, or until pudding is firm. Serve hot with hard sauce or cold with cream. Serves 6.

Steamed Chocolate Pudding
2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg, well beaten
3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
1 1/4 cups milk
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, soda, and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, and cream together thoroughly. Add egg and chocolate, beating until smooth. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating well after each addition. Turn into greased mold, filling 3/4 full, cover tightly and steam 2 hours. Serve hot with hard sauce. Serves 10.

TOO LATE

A number of interesting communications were received too late for publication this week. We ask everyone to get their letters in the mail soon enough to be received at the Eagle office Wednesday morning or Wednesday noon.

Left-over dinner can be made into delicious luncheon dishes by brushing with melted butter and scattering them until golden brown.

CENTER CITY

Since "ground hog" day we have had much better weather. We sincerely hope winter is gone and spring is here.

Most of the farmers are anxious to begin work in the fields. It will soon be corn-planting time and very little land is ready.

Our two days tournament was a great success with us. Large crowds attended both days. The P. T. A. is well pleased with proceeds from the sale of eats and drinks which amounted to more than $100.00. However, the expenses of the tournament were paid from this amount. While our boys failed in the final game by 3 points they played well. We must congratulate Star for their fine team, also their coach, Mr. Cooke, and hereby is hoping they win for Mills county in the district.

Mrs. Webb Karnes visited Mrs. Karnes and other relatives a few days last week, while her husband was in Minerals Wells for treatment. Their many friends wish for him a complete recovery.

Professor Harris and family visited his father at Mount Olive last week-end.

Good crowds attended Sunday school and church services Sunday. Bro. Wade preached two interesting sermons.

Friends of the Simpson families were grieved when news reached here at noon Sunday that Leland, younger son of Roy Simpson, had passed away at the family home in the Live Oak community. They have our sincere sympathy in their hours of grief.

CHILD BRIDES

The recent marriage of nine-year-old Eunice Winstead to a young man in Tennessee has started a hue and cry all over the nation. But Tennessee is only one of 13 states which have no age limit for brides.

JAPAN FACES A CRISIS

The jingoistic military party of Japan at last has been called to task by the level-headed conservative members of the government. For several years now the rattling sabers and jingling spurs of Japan's cocky generals have beat the time to which the country has had to march.

PLAIN SILLY

A bill has been introduced in congress making it a penal offense to pay ransom to a kidnaper. The Hearst newspapers have for months been advocating such a law on the grounds that it would prevent kidnaping.

THE TAIL WAGS THE DOG

Those who look to the universities of the nation to provide a sane and reasonable outlook on life cannot fail to be disappointed in the University of Texas making a ten-year contract with a football coach for the staggering sum of $15,000.

This brings up the question of whether college is for football or football for the college. First things come first, and evidently those who have the say, football is more important than scholarship.

The ultimate blame for these conditions," Dale Miller writes in the Texas Weekly, "lies with a public that exults in physical thrills. Not far removed from the case of the football coach is that of the voluptuous movie siren who draws her weekly salary in thousands while those in the industry who do her thinking for her must be satisfied with comparatively little.

"Perhaps the situation will never be solved until old Johnny Q. Public," as Boake Carter would say, becomes less the epicurean and more the thinker, which means that present conditions will probably prevail ad infinitum.

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the state and its people. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas

Q. What were the conditions in Texas under Spanish occupancy when Moses Austin made his colonization proposal?

A. They had changed but little except for the worse since Spain made its claim to the country some 300 years before. There were only two small settlements of Spaniards—at San Antonio and La Bahia—the missions were in a state of ruin, hostile Indians preyed upon the few inhabitants.

Q. Why did Spain fail to realize anything from its possession of Texas?

A. The Spaniards were militant soldiers who sought gain from conquest rather than from development. They were gold-seekers and cared little for a country that required labor to make it habitable.

Q. How does the $15,000 a year salary reported to be paid Coach Bible on a 10-year contract with the University of Texas, compare with other salaries of University and state officials?

A. The salary of the president of the university is $8,000 a year; teacher's salaries range from $1,400 for instructors to $5,000 for highest-paid professors; salary now paid governor of Texas is $12,000 a year; attorney general $10,000; these being the highest paid state officials.

Q. How many Texans were enlisted in the Confederate army?

A. The estimates are from 50,000 to 65,000, the first figures probably being nearest correct. The merging of battalions and regiments, the confusion of records and the fact that about three-fourths of them were scattered over the Trans-Mississippi department in Louisiana, Arkansas and the frontier, while the other fourth were east of the Mississippi, make accurate estimates impossible.

GASOLINE GOES UP

The price of gasoline has started up as a result of the recent increase in the price of crude oil. There were some announcements early in the past week of one-half a cent a gallon increase, and others are expected to follow.

TEXANS LAY PLANS FOR NEWSPRINT MILL

Dallas and East Texas capitalists, bankers, lumbermen and timberland owners, meeting in Dallas this week, mapped plans for the construction of the first newsprint mill in the south.

Writ Davis, Dallas banker, was authorized to appoint a committee on organization plans for a $5,000,000 plant to use East Texas pine. Texas Mill No. 1 of the Southland Paper Mills, Inc., would be located at a site selected by engineers now at work in East Texas.

Ted Dealey, president of the Texas Newspapers Publishers Association, announced Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana publishers had agreed to purchase a substantial output.

On the organization committee Davis named Nathan Adams and Fred F. Florence of Dallas, E. L. Kurth of Lufkin, Arthur Temple of Texarkana, P. B. Doty of Beaumont and W. W. Buffum, treasurer.

"THE CHASER" CIRCULATION EXPECTED TO REACH 75,000

Circulation of The Chaser, free monthly health bulletin of the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, is being increased and is expected to reach 75,000 copies a month within a short time, according to R. W. Henson, director of the Division of Correspondence of the State Sanatorium and editor of The Chaser.

The publication, devoted to the study and prevention of tuberculosis, has been issued for about eight years, said Mr. Henson. It is published through an appropriation by the State of Texas for the purpose of instructing the tuberculosis patient and educating the general public on tuberculosis, he explained. It is sent anywhere in Texas without charge and does not solicit for publishing advertising matter.

The Chaser each month prints articles by members of the medical staff of the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium and many nationally known authorities on tuberculosis prevention and treatment. Also it carries several cartoons, humorous and instructive, on the subject of tuberculosis, and many other interesting features.

The salary system of paying officers who formerly were paid out of fees has cost the State of Texas $335,165 in the first year of its operation, according to a compilation by the State Comptroller. The compilation, prepared for the use of the governor and legislature, discloses that the constitutional amendments which abolished the fee system of remuneration had been a costly experiment, so far. The total cost to the State of salaries—most of which are still unpaid—was $812,460, as against the previous four-year average of $477,294.

The senate foreign relations committee has approved a resolution authorizing the president to invite the Pan-American republics and the Dominion of Canada to participate in the greater Texas and Pan-American Exposition to be held in Dallas, Texas, this year. The resolution was introduced by Senator Connally, Texas.

The newly advanced costs cannot be brought down and the trend of prices generally is likely to continue upward for some time. It is well to keep in mind that government expenditures are a big factor in the present upward trend of the volume of business, and that undoubtedly they have some relation, more or less, to the unprecedented consumption of petroleum products. There is pressure to bring down government expenditures, and they should be brought to lower levels as soon as that is practicable. It is to be hoped that they will tend to decrease henceforth.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

VIEWES OF THE NATION'S PRSS ON TOPICS OF INTEREST AND DEBATE

FLOOD UPON FLOOD

A new word has made its appearance this week. It is appropriately coined. We read of the "super-flood" It may be said to mean more than the mere breaking of records as the waters rose to unprecedented heights. With the rain continuing in the Middle West the rivers were burdened with a flood superposed upon a flood. There was a demonstration that man, from past experience, can set no limit to the height to which waters will rise. There is always reason for the fear that the next flood will be greater than any that have gone before.

UP IN CANADA

Among the traditions built up in this country, not always to the credit of domestic patriotism, is the belief in Canadian justice. The Canadian "mounties" get their man, the Canadian murderer is executed, the Canadian embezzler expiates his offense with long prison term. So it is discouraging and a bit disheartening to learn that Dominion prisoners burned the buildings in which they were housed, and that a number of them escaped, although many later were caught before they had gone far. Inmates of the reformatory ran amuck for nine hours, finally firing the place, because they resented the quality of their food, and because they said there was delay in delivering their Christmas presents.

THE FORGOTTEN MAN

Almost every time we read a newspaper we see another report about something a state or the federal government is doing for somebody. We have laws for the farmer, the worker, the needy, the exporter, the importer, the shipper—laws for almost everybody you can think of.

DR. HILL'S CHRONICLE OF THE TEXAS NAVY

Comparatively little attention has been given, by historians, to the important part which sea-power played in establishing and maintaining the Republic of Texas.

Dr. Jim Dan Hill, president of State Teachers College at Sulphur (Wisconsin), is a native Texan. He enlisted in the United States navy in 1917 and served 21 months. After the war he entered Baylor university and was graduated in 1922. He is now a lieutenant-colonel in the Wisconsin national guard and professor of history at the institution he directs.

Dr. Hill's book, "Sea Dogs of the Sixties" (1935) at once gained favorable notice. He lately rendered his native state a service by writing "The Texas Navy."

Dr. Hill has set forth an impartial narrative, largely based upon original documents. He notes that the first conflict between Stephen F. Austin's colonists and the Mexican garrison in Texas was "distinctly maritime" in origin.

In 1830, Maj. Gen. Anastasio Bustamante became Mexico's president. He soon sent a garrison to Anahuac on Galveston Bay and to Velasco—between the Brazos river's mouth and Brazoria—to prevent further American immigration and to collect duties on imported goods.

A record of the deeds performed by such almost forgotten sailors as Commodores Charles E. Hawkins and Edwin W. Moore—which Dr. Hill vividly recounts—is essential to a well-balanced history of the Texas Republic. The book recalls how Santa Anna was prevented from embarking at New Washington—on an arm of Galveston Bay—for a Mexican port by the presence of Texan warships, turning northward, the self-styled Napoleon of the west halted on the San Jacinto, where on April 21, 1836, his army was crushed by Gen. Sam Houston's force.

He, too, is the man whose steadiness kept the credit of the governments good, for everybody knew that in the end he would supply the money that would pay off debts. And he is the man who keeps on and on contributing taxes and taxes and taxes, until he is dizzy. If all these forgotten men had stopped producing wealth, what would have resulted. Chaos. Isn't it about time that thought and thanks were given to the people, now apparently forgotten, who stood out in the seven year's storm like sentinels? We may erect statues to them when they are gone; we may put their names in history books; we may name rivers and trees and flowers after them. But they're human like all us, and it's about time we gave them a pat on the back.—Industrial Press Service.

Captain Bennett and another army officer, whose name we failed to learn, have been stationed at Brady, buying horses for the army. Some four or five cars have left Brady. They inspected horses here the first of the week and four were accepted.

Lou Edgehill of Munro-Kincaid, Boston, was here Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stephens. This is Mr. Edgehill's first trip to Texas, the heart of the wool industry, and he was very favorably impressed.—Reporter.

Two men and two women were in Lampasas Wednesday night and Thursday morning, making many of the business houses where marble machines are operated. In some places they unlocked machines and in other places they inserted an electric magnet in the machine and played them until the money

MILBURN FARMER HELD ON MURDER CHARGE

A complaint has been filed in justice court here against Fred Parker, 26-year-old McCulloch county farmer, charging him with the murder of his 42-year-old wife, Mary Betty Parker, the night of January 22.

Officers revealed this afternoon Parker's arrest yesterday, but declined to say in what jail he was being held. Sheriff Love Kimbrough did not reveal who signed the complaint. Justice W. B. Douglas of Brady has not yet concluded the inquest.

The body of Mrs. Parker was disinterred Tuesday afternoon and an autopsy performed. The woman's husband said she failed to regain consciousness after being kicked by a horse at their farm in the Milburn community, 25 miles northeast of Brady, about 7:30 o'clock, the night of January 22. Mrs. Parker suffered a three-inch fracture back of her left ear.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker were married about 10 months ago. She taught for seventeen years in the J. P. Elder and Jennings Avenue junior high schools at Fort Worth, and later was instructor in civics and history at North Side senior high school at Fort Worth, until her resignation in 1933.—Brady Standard.

IN MEMORIAM

LELAND MELFORD SIMPSON

"But, oh, fell deaths untimely frost,
That nipped our flower so early."
—Burns.
Leland Melford Simpson, son of Roy Simpson and Eva Casbeet Simpson (deceased) was born October 1, 1921. He died February 7, 1937, at the age of fifteen years, four months, and six days. He was a member of the freshman class of the Goldthwaite high school.

Funeral services were held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simpson Monday afternoon, February 8, at 2 o'clock. Interment in the South Bennett cemetery followed. The services were conducted by the Rev. E. W. Stovall, pastor of the Church of Christ. He was assisted by the Rev. J. K. Beery, pastor of the Methodist church and Mr. A. H. Smith, superintendent of Goldthwaite schools. Six boys from the freshman class served as pall bearers, while six girls from his class acted as honorary pall bearers.

Leland's death came as a shock to his parents, relatives, and friends alike, and to all of us who knew and loved him his going has left an empty space in our lives which only time can partially efface.

Leland's gay but unassuming personality was unconsciously felt and appreciated wherever he went among us. Just recently he had passed from childhood into the full bloom of young boyhood, and although we know that Leland has gone to the land of perpetual happiness and sunshine, it is only natural that we grieve because of his passing while still in the morning of life. Grief such as ours is adequately expressed in the words of William Cullen Bryant:

"And now I think of one who in his youthful beauty died,
The fair, meek blossom that grew up and faded by my side;
In the cold, moist earth we laid him when the forests cast their leaf,
And we weep that one so lovely should have a life so brief."
He is survived by his father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simpson, one brother, G. W. Simpson, one sister, Mrs. Earl Denman, two small half-sisters, Veda Fay and Mary Margaret, and a host of relatives and friends who mourn his early death. XXXX

NUTRITION IS VITAL TO GOOD HEALTH

Austin, Texas, Feb. 11.—Importance of maintaining uniform good health for all parts of the body is stressed in a message sent out by the state health officer. More and more, we are coming to realize that the normal functioning of special parts of the body are dependent to a large extent upon the general condition of the body as a whole.

All parts of the body are nourished from the blood stream, and so if all the essential elements of the body are met by an adequate food supply daily each part will receive what it needs to function normally. Experimental work in nutrition in all parts of the world has shed new light on the relationship between a properly balanced food intake and the eyes.

Essential to adequate nutrition is the inclusion in the diet of foods containing vitamin A. When general bodily health is impaired by a lack of vitamin A, it often happens that the tear glands of the eye cease to function. Such results have repeatedly been shown in animal experimentation, and also among humans in times of food shortage. During the world war extreme cases of this eye disease known as xerophthalmia were found in Denmark among malnourished children who were living on skimmed milk and a very restricted diet. To cure this disease the government ordered that butter be added to the diet and a certain percentage of butter fat be retained in the milk.

Since vitamin A is such an important factor in growth, development and health, it is essential that everyone, especially children, eat foods containing it. Vitamin A is found principally in green and yellow vegetables, in fresh eggs and cream, and in various animal fats. It may be manufactured from carotene, the yellow coloring matter of these foods.

Although a deficiency in vitamin A might not result disastrously immediately, its effects over a period of years probably would culminate in a lack of normal growth, physical debility, and injury to various parts of the body.

PRIDDY

PRIDDY LUTHER LEAGUE

Thursday, February 4 was indeed a red letter day for us. On this date our good friends, the Lions club, their ladies, and many other business people from our neighboring little city, and county seat, Goldthwaite, honored us with their presence at a banquet prepared for them at our parish house. Our ladies aid and others of our kind ladies had helped us prepare to receive an banquet our guests. To these good ladies, one and all, our heartiest thanks. We hope and believe that none of our guests left our midst hungry.

Professor A. H. Smith, president of the Goldthwaite Lions club, acted as toastmaster, and called on quite a few of his fellow townsmen for after-dinner speeches. His wit and the pleasant good-will remarks of the other speakers were greatly enjoyed by all. Our pastor, Rev. Kluge, was our spokesman.

After the meal was finished we all went over to the high school auditorium where, we believe, every individual present enjoyed the hour and a-half program.

First our local high school band gave a twenty-minute concert which was abundantly applauded. Then a short reading by Leona Drucekammer. The next forty-five minutes the Goldthwaite people entertained us with a varied and much enjoyed program by their local talent.

We surely did enjoy the program. Then came our "trump," "The Hungry Five," playing typical "Little German band" music. This little organization is composed of five soloists from the Howard Payne college band—"Herr Louis," cornet, Claude Klentz; "Wiesel," clarinet, Harvey Ray; "Hans," clarinet, Reinhardt Kluge; "Fritz," bass, Robt. Edgar; "Jacob," trombone, Dasmus Stephens.

The program was a "scream" from there on out; their comedy, acting, stunt-playing, and in spots, excellent music, finished our evening in great hilarity. These boys were the league's guest-entertainers, and we thank them for their entertainment. (and they are welcome to the "wurst" and home-made bread that Herr Louie found in basshorn.)

We enjoyed every minute of the evening. Goldthwaite, come again soon.

Sunday evening Misses Hilda and Louise Ohlenbusch entertained members of our league
