GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1937

NUMBER THIRTY-THREE

Club Girls Win Best In Abilene Meet

New Books Added to Library

Board met Tuesday. In the absence of Mr. W. E. Miller, Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, president, presided. Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, secretary, presided over the meeting. Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, secretary, presided over the meeting. Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, secretary, presided over the meeting.

Remarks

Lighted with the breeze in all of our Sunday. May the breeze as the spring breeze. There are a number of new books added to our library. Through the united efforts of each individual church and the co-operation of the churches as a whole, we have reached a point where we can operate better together into the future. The laborers are already white.

Best Zone Rallies

Friday at the church. The attendance was excellent. The church was well represented. The speaker, Mr. J. J. Cockerell, gave an interesting talk. The church was well represented.

BY AND HIS

we reported the work of Wayne C. S. Miller, Big received $71 for expenses, leaving a balance of $12.00.

for Friday

Last go around. We have secured 47 acres of land for a school. The school will be built on this land. We have also secured a number of new books for the library.

County News

Commissioners' court met Tuesday and accepted a good report from the auditor, who had been at the court house auditing the books and records of Mills county. The auditor, W. H. Turner, has been the auditor for several years in this county. He complimented the county and county officials for having such a good financial status.

GOVERNOR SPEAKS

Governor Alfred's position and his public statement on the sit-down strike problem is a forthright declaration of policy that the people of Texas should commend. There is no reason why common sense methods of solving industrial problems can't prevail in Texas and why the unfortunate situations which have developed in Michigan and other states can't be prevented by co-operative and fair dealings between employer and labor. Texas has a chance therein to distinguish itself.

Flag Booklets Given to Schools

The U. S. Army recruiting office at Waco has provided a supply of attractive booklets which picture and describe the United States flag. One for each room of the Goldthwaite schools was presented Tuesday morning at the assembly hour by Postmaster M. Y. Stokes, Jr., who also spoke on the significance of Army Day.

A number of other schools in the county received the folders direct. Those which did not, or any school which needs more may secure them by addressing the U. S. Recruiting Office, Waco, Texas.

CMTC Camp at Camp Bullis

Fort Sam Houston, Texas.—Approximately 3,000 applicants for admittance to the Citizen's Military Training Camps to be held in the 8th Corps Area this summer have been received at Corps headquarters here.

Between 5,000 and 6,000 applications will be submitted and from this number approximately 3,000 will be selected for attendance at the five encampments to be held throughout the corps area. Camps will be conducted at Camp Bullis, near San Antonio, July 7-August 5.

The Methodist Church

A great state-wide conference is to be held in Fort Worth next week in the First Methodist church. The meeting begins on Monday night at the City Auditorium with Gipsy Smith as the speaker. Tuesday and Wednesday six of our Bishops and other outstanding leaders of our church will bring inspirational messages. Pastors, Presiding Elders and Laymen from all over the state will be there. They are expecting several thousand to be in attendance. This is a wonderful opportunity for our people and we trust many may find it possible to attend, if for not all the Conference, at least a part of the time. It begins on Monday night and closes Wednesday night, the 14th.

Beginning on Sunday evening the pastor will preach a series of sermons on the Ten Commandments and those who attend these services are asked to bring a definition of a Christian and place it in the collection plate. Write the best definition you can, it will do you good. You must bring your definition, not send it. Only those who are not physically able to attend (the shut-ins) may send in their definitions. This will continue until last Sunday night in May and the one who has written the best definition will receive a Bible, the second a new Testament, and the third a year's subscription to the World Outlook. If after you have put in your first definition you think you can write a better one, you may put one in every Sunday night.

Next Sunday services, Sunday school 9:45 a.m. Let us be prompt in our attendance. Preaching 10:50 a.m., subject "The Meaning of Sonship." Senior and Junior Epworth Leagues 6:45 p.m. Preaching 7:30 p.m., subject "The First Commandment." Mid-week and prayer service and Bible study Wednesday 7:30 p.m.

You will always find a welcome to worship with us. We form habits, and habits form us. The habit of church attendance is an important habit to form in the development of Christian Character. It can't be otherwise.

A number have responded to the appeal for the University of San Antonio sent out last week, and we trust those who have not will do so at once. Thank you.—John K. Beery, Minister.

The Goldthwaite Lions Club held its regular semi-monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the Methodist church. A fine dinner was served by the ladies of the church to twenty Lions. The program which was enjoyed by all began with a song by the club quartet, composed of W. M. Johnston, R. E. Clements, F. P. Bowman and Buel Condon. W. P. Weaver spoke of farm improvement in this county in past twenty years, which was very interesting.

New song books were distributed and every Lion entered into the songs, some could sing some couldn't, but everyone made some kind of noise, and the meeting was enjoyed by all.

PARENT-TEACHERS TO MEET TUESDAY

The Parent-Teachers Association will meet Tuesday, April 13, at 4 o'clock.

Program: Leader, Mrs. Jno O. Carothers; girls Glee Club; reading by Buddy Stokes, "Grin" by Robt. W. Service; Homes around the World, dramatized by Mrs. Bigham's room. Everyone cordially invited to enjoy this interesting program. Your attendance will be an inspiration to your children. In turn this will be the making of a better school and a better town.

NEW FARMING METHODS

Today one-fifth of all farm products raised in this country are sold through farm co-operative marketing associations.

This is a remarkable achievement, in view of the relative youth of the farm co-operative movement, a generation ago such co-ops were extremely rare. Equally remarkable is the fact that their business has risen steadily during the depression, and every year has witnessed increase in the membership list of the organizations.

It appears inevitable that this progress will be continued in the future. Organized production and distribution practices have become firmly fixed principles in our agricultural life, precisely as in our industrial and commercial life. The modern farmer will never return to the unproductive hit and miss distributing and production methods of his predecessors.

The WEEKLY CONSTITUTIONAL

by MAX BERNIS

The Men Who Wrote Our Constitution

PART I.

"The Fathers of the Constitution." How often do we use this phrase? How often do we voice our admiration for these men and reiterate our confidence in their wisdom? But who were they? Who were these patriots who drafted our great charter of liberty, establishing a lasting "Temple of Refuge" where the lowliest American may seek shelter?

Seldom, if ever, have so many stars of the first magnitude undertaken a single task in cooperation. Unanimously chosen as presiding officer of the Constitutional Convention was George Washington. Revered by all Americans today, he was then, at 55, in the prime of life, a man seasoned with years of experience as Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army.

Surrounding him were men who would be outstanding in any day and age. Benjamin Franklin, ripe in wisdom gathered in the school of a wide and varied experience. Eighty-one years old, hale and hearty, he had recently returned from Europe after long years spent in various foreign capitals in the service of his country. Single-minded in his devotion to the country, no American, save, perhaps, Abraham Lincoln, ever more completely gripped the world's imagination—a child in his simplicity, a giant in understanding.

Madison, our fourth president, was in this amazing group. A young man of 34, with a knowledge of political science from Aristotle to his own time, familiar with the course of federated governments in Greece, Switzerland and Holland, deeply versed in English history and constitutional law, he was a leader of commanding power in the Convention debates.

ANOTHER TELEVISION STATION IS PLANNED

New York.—Another experimental television station, this one with a peak power of 30,000 watts, probably will be operating in New York before a new year rolls around. It would be run by the CBS chain.

Application for a construction permit has been filed by the network with the federal communications commission, the equipment to be located in the top of the 74-floor Chrysler Building. That would place it in the vicinity of the RCA-NBC experimental picture transmitter in the Empire State Building that has been putting on field tests for about 10 months.

The station, like the RCA-NBC outfit, would operate on the ultra short waves and incorporate the latest developments, which provide pictures of 441-line definition. The power is to be equal to that planned for the Paris station in the Eiffel Tower and is declared to be the highest yet proposed for television. The approximate range is expected to be 40 miles or more.

REGISTRATION OF AUTOS

The following is the number of cars registered so far during 1937:
1231 passenger cars, 132 trucks, 126 farm trucks were registered to the 1st of April at the sheriff's office.

Recent School and City Elections Very Quiet

OLD ALDERMEN ARE REELECTED

A few more votes were cast in the city election this year than last, and each of the three aldermen who was running for re-election was elected by majorities averaging better than two to one. Follows is the tabulation by the judges: Joe Palmer, 131; Neal Dickerson, 104; Walter Weatherby, 99.

WRITE IN CAMPAIGN ELECTS TRUSTEES

Voters of Goldthwaite Independent School District took their pencils in hand last Saturday, scratched the names of three aspiring candidates off the ballots and wrote in their place the names of W. D. Clements, E. A. Obenhaus and Joe Long. As Clements and Obenhaus have been members of the board, the one-sided vote indicates the confidence of the voters in the present board and Superintendent A. H. Smith.

Baptist Reminder

We will have special music at both the morning and evening hours Sunday. In the morning our ladies will sing a trio, at the evening hour the Lions Quartet will sing two numbers. We invite you to be with us at both our services. The pastor will preach at both hours.—Franklin E. Swanner.

CENTER POINT 4-H CLUB MET LAST MONDAY

The girls and boys of the Center Point 4-H club met Monday afternoon for the purpose of seeing what the members had done toward their projects. The majority are progressing nicely with their projects, while others hope to get started soon.

After listening to an interesting talk given by Mr. Weaver, with the subject "How to Raise Chickens," and singing several songs, the club decided to adjourn until the next meeting.

PECAN SCHOOL AT STAR

Just to remind the Eagle readers that the seventh Mills county Pecan School and Growers' Picnic will be at Star Friday, April 16, all day.

The meeting will be held in Jim Soules' grove on Bennett Creek two miles east of Star, where pecan improvements began in May 1920. The county agent gave his first budding demonstration in this orchard at that time.

All growers and their friends are invited to come. Budding, grafting and topping will be demonstrated. At 1 p.m. talks on varieties, care and cultivation and marketing will be heard. Many requests have been made for J. J. Cockerell to demonstrate peach tree budding and we feel sure he will do so.

For seven years the pecan school has brought out the largest crowd of the year. If you miss this one it will be a year before you can go to another.

Come and bring a contribution to the dinner and be happy with the big crowd of fine people.—W. P. Weaver, County Agent.

USE THE DUMP GROUNDS

Governor James V. Alfred has proclaimed this clean-up week. One old tin can full of germs can cost the life of a precious one with one case of typhoid.

It's not lending a helping hand to put rubbish and cans on the roadside. It detracts from the general appearances and few farmers are wanting their fence rows decorated with junk. We have a place to dump it.

VISITS IN NEW MEXICO

T. F. Elliott, Rt. 3, paid The Eagle a visit Friday and had this paper changed to New Laguna, N. M., where he will spend the summer with his daughter, Mrs. L. H. Hillin and family. Mr. Elliott said to be sure and get the paper changed to the new address for he had been taking the paper ever since the county was organized, and didn't want to miss a single copy.

Church Of Christ

Last week was spent with the Hamilton congregation in an exchange meeting. This week was enjoyable, and the services were well attended. Three were baptized and two restored to their first love. Our hearts are always rejoiced when men and women have the courage to obey their Lord in what He has commanded. He became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey Him.

Beginning third Lord's Day Brother Leland Aiton of Hamilton will be with the church here in a series of meetings. Brother Aiton is a good man, a sound gospel preacher, and will do you good every time you come to hear him. He has done a splendid work in his town and is loved by both the church and the town. Make your plans to hear him every time he preaches.

I would like to take this opportunity to invite and urge every member of the Church of Christ to come to the meeting. It is your duty to attend, and the success of the meeting depends upon the interest you take in it. Come and have fellowship with us in this good work.—E. W. Stovall, Minister.

STAR SCHOOL AFFILIATED

The Star school has received state affiliation with 14 definite units, and two vocational units to be inspected soon. Friday night a public program was enjoyed. 1000 people were present from Star and surrounding communities.

H. E. Robinson, deputy state superintendent of Brownwood, J. W. O'Banion, state high school supervisor, were present.

Also Judge R. J. Gerald and all made addresses and a program that was interesting and educational was enjoyed. Star band under Bertram Geeslin, director, rendered several pieces.

Last but not least 50 gallons of ice cream was served. Supt. and Mrs. J. S. Armstrong served 6 o'clock dinner for the out of town speakers.

I HARDLY EVER SEE A MAN WEARIN' COMFORTABLE CONGRESS GAITERS BUT I WELL REMEMBER TH' DAYS WHEN THEY COULD BE SEEN ON EVERY HAND!

Who is it that does not admire lovely handwriting? We take pleasure in leaving the admirable Agnes Johnson's beautiful hand to Ina Bell Petty.
 We turn to a pretty lady-like miss, better known as Nora B House, who in turn says she can think of none other than Oleta Knight to whom she had rather will her glasses.
 Who doesn't know Lorane? Nobody! And everybody thinks she is a good sport. She passes her well known position as pep squad leader to Jeanette Martin, the favorite of the F. F. A. boys.
 Up pops the anti-Turnip Greener reprobate, Shultz Faulkner. He has so many talents he can't decide just which one is the most needed in G. H. S. However, we have inveigled him to give his knack at clarinet playing to Lester Moreland.
 To know Addie Mae is to love her, and the same applies to Nina Summy, to whom Addie Mae now leaves her daintiness and art in public speaking.
 Alfred Carter, that big handsome man who the girls have found harder to get than suspected, awards his geometric trick to Floyd McKenzie, our football hero.
 That fighting man, Carrol Berry, who can pick a guitar like a turkey picks corn, betwix his amiable countenance and grin to Dealva Virden.
 Forest Hill, favorite track man and chief debater, wills his remarkable intelligence to his little red headed brother, Charles Will bur.
 We hear now from the ladies' fate, Fayne Coffman; this accomplishment with the beautiful girls, and of his feats as a football hero, as our most respectable gentleman, we are indeed at sea as to what he can leave. But we have very sincerely considered Fayne and think that he, as a real gentleman can contribute his chivalry to a fair lady, Ruby D. Berry.
 "Cappie and Connie," two lovely blondes but we think it should be "Connie and Cappie," because in this case our darling Connie wills her dancing to Cappie.

 For Mary Horton and to all the audience we hope that we can take the happy attitude Mary has toward life as a lesson to us. Mary bestows her adorable disposition to Christene Denman.
 Judge Elwaine Doggett, the best freshman in 10 counties, dispense his fishing pole and his worms to tall, dark and handsome Marvin Hodges.

Dark eyed Russie Faye Oden graciously endows her little Audrey Reynolds her vast economic knowledge.
 Al Langford, the gentleman who prefers blonds and who jumped so high he almost didn't come down again, says he will dispense his football experience upon the head of the would-be blackmailer, Omar Harvey, Grr!
 Lovable June Knowles wills her long lost ruler to Earline Faulkner, the gal that will sure find it.
 Last and not least we hear about the vagabonds of the road, villains of the night, whose left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing: Voyd Lee Doggett and George Johnson.
 In conclusion we think the juniors will be able to will some useful traits to the juniors of next year. As a last gift to you we seniors will leave you our dignity.

Pretty Laila Joyce Bachelor turns to Clara Smith and says in her most delightful way, "I leave you my office job and hope you can make headway with the attractive salesmen."
 Herman Reynolds awards as a first rate prize, for which many pay high, his lovely black curls to Elmo Fallon.
 Look out for the marvelous marvel of the seniors, our magnetic Warren Thompson. He bequeaths his gigantic, stupendous, superb, colossal, fourth dimensional brain to Ferdinand Reginald McDermott.
 Wayne Miller, alias King Kong, the pride of the senior class, wills his craft for barnyard imitations to J. M. Wrinkle.
 Zeida Kelo, the one girl who has at one time or another had every sr. boy standing on his head, wills that characteristic to Maxine, and her ability to speak 320 words a minute to Monnie Rose.
 And that blunt, tactless, ye editor of the Herald, wills her ability to keep two boy friends at the same time to Joyce Johnson.
 In collaboration with her closest conspirator and exact opposite in type, yours truly, wills the Herald and the labors attached therein, their debating and the annoying frequency with which they manage to be in everyone's way when there is work to be done to Dorothy Hartman and Snow Johnson.

And that's exactly what is was when the juniors entertained the seniors Thursday night, April 1. The annual junior-senior banquet was held in the basement of the Methodist church and never has any scene reflected so much gaily, fun and general pleasure.
 The decoration motif was colonial. The tables were arranged with lacy dollies and tall candles. The place cards, containing the menu and program, were clever little scenes of the covered wagon days. Petite waitresses in hoop skirts, lace and flounces presented all the ladies with corsages of violets.
 The menu consisted of an entree of pineapple juice, followed by the main course of white meat of chicken on toast, green beans, deviled eggs, gelatin fruit salad, latticed potatoes and buttered rolls. Iced tea accompanied this course. Desert consisted of Bluebird special ice cream.
 The juniors rather did themselves proud on the program and the seniors appreciated every minute of it. Mrs. Smith and the Goldthwaite orchestra opened the program, to be followed by the invocation by Rev. Beery, the welcome address by President Ceta Henry of the juniors, and the response by President J. D. Berry of the seniors. Jeanette Martin, Catherine Fairman and Joyce Johnson, juniors, sang "Seeing Nellie Home" after the entire junior class had welcomed the seniors with "Sing an Old Fashioned Song to a Young Sophisticated Senior." George Johnson, junior, delivered the class prophecy, full of laughs and appropriate digs for all and sundry members of the senior class. A chorus of junior boys rendered beautiful Mary B. Hodges turns to Ida Mae Scrivner, equally popular, and with the friendliest kind of smile donates her bookkeeping trouble to Ida Mae who (while holding nose with hand) smiles and takes it.

 Well, I'll swan if there's not Swanie Bigham peeping up at Lloyd Horton, our big little man of the senior class. So Lloyd, the least biggest man of the junior class, that mysterious, mischievous twinkle in blue eyes, to the brown eyed Swan.
 R. C. Petty, one of our most sincere good fellows, wills his math talent to our Bingo champion, Boyd Hunt.
 We can't pass these blond bombshell gold diggers in any place, at any time, and in class will. They are known in G. H. S. as two of the squarest shooting, friendliest gold diggers of a decade. Fleeta Sheppard and Vivian Cortis. Vivian laughingly says, "Ah heck, she can have my allure if she needs it. What do you say, Fleeta?"
 J. D. Berry, our talented violinist, singer and romeo, leaves his high position as president of the seniors to versatile Oleta Henry, president of the juniors.
 Betty Whittaker, our brunette tomboy, leaves her championship of the racket to the dark tomboys of the junior class, Florence McDermott and Mary June Perryman.
 Dear old Butter Berry, our famous track man and football hero, has taken his mind off of bookkeeping long enough to consent to will his fiery red locks to Gladys Kirby.
 Our senior cream of the fountain, Jim Frizzelle, gladly accords his elegant position of the man behind the counter to Lester Moreland.

"Wagon Wheels" in a delightful fashion. Misses Barbara Waldin and Mary Louise McGirk danced a charming colonial dance. Louise Ohlenbusch, senior, benevolently bestowed the arts, accomplishments, capacities and supreme abilities of the talented seniors upon the grateful juniors. Rev. and Mrs. Beery spoke for a few minutes each and Supt. Smith, full of food and good humor, closed the program with a SHORT speech consisting mainly of cracks about the defenseless seniors and guests. The banquet ended with everyone singing "Auld Lang Syne."

After the banquet the juniors literally and figuratively took the seniors to town. Everyone went to the Melba Theatre to see a grand musical show, "College Holiday." The members of the upper class were requested to walk across the stage in order that the townspeople might get a view of school boys and girls decked out in all their glory. And the girls had an opportunity to show off their new evening dresses.

The members of the senior class would like to give the juniors all their thanks and a rousing cheer for giving them the grandest evening probably any class ever had.

V. A. NEWS

On Saturday, April 3 the Goldthwaite livestock judging team went to Tarleton College for the Area contest held there. About 80 schools were represented and competition was very stiff. Our team was composed of J. D. and Carroll Berry, Dale McCasland and the alternate, Rex Collier.

Monday night, April 5, the V. A. One-Act play went to Rochelle to take part in the district contest held there. Only two schools besides Goldthwaite had a one-act play, these being San Saba and Richland Springs. Goldthwaite got first place. In all district contests Goldthwaite has shown up well and we hope to continue to do so in the future.

Troy Berry was taken to a Temple hospital late Monday night with a severe attack of appendicitis. Friends and classmates unite in hoping that he is not seriously ill, and that he will soon be back in school.

Texas' Name in 1719 Is Found at Capitol

Austin.—Lost in a maze of legal documents, a hitherto unknown name for the domain that now comprises the State of Texas has been found. It was called "Philisebella."

This fact has been recently gleaned from an old document by J. V. Haggard, of the University of Texas, translator of the Texar Archives. On separating a set of papers long classified as one document into two separate documents, Mr. Haggard came upon the commission of Don Juan de Olivan Rebelledo as governor of the province of New Philippines or Phillisbella in 1719. The don never fulfilled the appointment, but his commission from the Spanish crown cites the boundaries of Texas for the first time, stating that the province extends from the Mississippi river on the east to the Medina river on the west the territory to be jointly named for the Spanish sovereigns, Philip and Isabella.

NEW YORK TO LONDON IN 24 HOURS

Transatlantic air mail and passenger service has reached the legislative stage and will become a reality on November 1. Years of dreaming, planning and international negotiations are about to bear fruit. A modest item—$750,000—in the Treasury and Postoffice appropriation bill reveals the fact that regular aerial service between New York and London is within sight.

In reporting the measure to the House, Representative Louis Ludlow, chairman of the Appropriations Sub-Committee, explained that the United States will operate two round trips a week and Great Britain two. "There will be two contracts," he pointed out. "We will have our own contract with a United States contractor for service going from this country, and the British contractor two round trips from their country over here. On their return to America the American airships will bring British mail bearing British stamps, the receipts of which will belong to Britain, and vice versa the British airships on their return trip from America to London will take American mal, with American stamps affixed, the receipts of which will belong to America." Both the northern and southern routes will be used, the one from New York to Newfoundland, to Ireland to London—a distance of 3,418 miles and requiring from 24 to 30 hours—and the other from New York to Bermuda, a longer but safer course, and navigable the year around.

Negotiations last year between American and British officials brought the project to the point of actual construction of ships. The delay in spanning this water route long after the two Americas were joined by an aerial link and regular air service over the Pacific was established was due to the fact that Great Britain, which owns or controls the intermediate landing points and the terminus of the route, had not until recently devised the planes for the service as the United States had done in its clipper ships.
 New York in from 24 to 40 hours therefore is no longer the dream of a Jules Verne.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

COMMUNITY LETTERS

STAR

April 2 was a red letter day for Star. It was a day looked forward to by the school faculty and the student body, a day when nerves grow a bit tense with expectancy—inspection day. During a noon hour Deputy State Supt. H. E. Robinson, busied himself checking and re-checking from room to room for Dr. W. W. O'Banion, chief superintendent of high schools of Texas. Other guests were Supt. Cluck of Cisco and Judge Julian Gerald of Goldthwaite.

Fifty gallons of ice cream were served as a gift of the community. The school band played as the crowd gathered. Mr. Robinson gave the school 14 credits with two and a half more due in May.

The hour was growing late, so a lot of the program scheduled for the evening was marked for a later date and will be given April 9, which is to-night.

The senior play will be given Friday, April 16. On that occasion the two quilts will be given away to the one holding the lucky number. The lucky number gets both quilts and you have from now until then to get your numbers—15c for one or 25c for two.

The funds from the quilts will be used by the juniors and seniors for a trip to Carlsbad cavern.

The juniors and seniors made a trip to the state capitol Tuesday of last week. They were accompanied by Mr. Armstrong and were shown through every department of the state White House.

Sunday was a big day for the

LAKE MERRITT

OUR STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Tuesday, April 6, marked the twentieth anniversary of the United States' entry into the World War. Today, twenty years after, you and I are still paying a share of its stupendous cost.

We entered the war, and now it seems it was too late to save free government or, as we then proudly thought, to save the world for democracy.

All soldiers may not be patriots, and certainly all patriots are not soldiers. But the sight of Old Glory fluttering in the breeze as the tramp, tramp of marching feet echoes through the street is one that will stir any normal heart to a faster, prouder beat.

The name "Old Glory" was given to our national flag August 10, 1831, by Captain William Driver of the brig Chas. Doggett.

Old Glory symbolizes national independence and popular sovereignty. It is not the flag of a reigning family or royal house, but of a hundred and thirty million free people welded into a nation, one and inseparable, united not only by community of interest but by vital unity of sentiment and purpose.

Old Glory incarnates for all mankind the spirit of Liberty and the glorious ideal of human freedom; not the freedom of unrestrained or the liberty of license, but a unique ideal of equal opportunity for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Floating from the lofty pinnacle of American idealism, it is a beacon of enduring hope, like the famous Bartholdi Statue of Liberty enlightening the world, to the oppressed of all lands.

Old Glory embodies the essence of patriotism. Its spirit is the spirit of the American nation. Its history is the history of the American people. Emblazoned upon its folds in letters of living light are the names and fame of our historic dead.

Old Glory first rose over thirteen states along the Atlantic seaboard, with a population of some three million people. Today it flies over forty-eight states, extending across the continent, and over great islands of the two oceans; and one hundred and thirty millions owe it allegiance.

NO SIT-DOWN GOVERNOR

Governor James V. Allred is being showered with congratulatory messages commending his vigorous warning that the State of Texas will not tolerate sit-down strikes.

For every citizen who has taken the time to let the governor know he approves this action, there are a thousand who feel the same way. Governor Allred has not waited for the infection to strike and spread. He gives warning in advance.

The easy way would have been for him to wait until a sit-down strike had actually commenced. That would have been the traditional sit-down method. But James V. Allred is not a sit-down governor.

Laughing Around the World With IRVIN S. COBB

It Was All Lit Up, Too

By IRVIN S. COBB

A DISHEVELED man, much the worse for wear and tear and things, staggered out of a blind pig and laboriously propped himself against the door.

his foot slipped and he collapsed in a heap on the sidewalk and began snoring.

A hurrying pedestrian paused, reflectively surveyed the fallen man and then poked his head in the door.

"Oh, Tom," he called, "Tom! Come out here a minute."

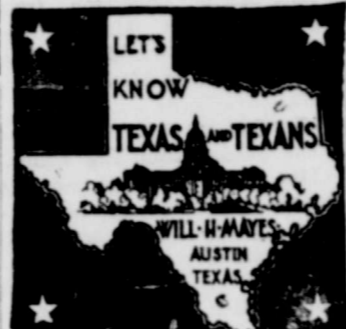

The proprietor of the joint, smoking a fat cigar, emerged. He blinked in the bright sunlight.

"Hello, Jim," he said pleasantly. "What's up?"

Jim jerked his thumb toward the slumberer on the sidewalk.

"Yer sign has fell down," he explained, and resumed his walk.

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the state and its people. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas

Q. Who was the first woman to go up the old "Chisholm Trail" with a herd of cattle?

A. According to Dr. T. U. Taylor in "The Chisholm Trail and Other Routes," Mrs. Harriet Cluck of Williamson county, accompanied her husband, Geo. W. Cluck, up the Chisholm Trail in 1871, being the first woman to make the hazardous trip.

She traveled in a hack with her three children: Allie Annie, aged 7; Emmet, age 5, and Harriet Minnie, aged 2. The Clucks spent the winter of 1871-72 at Abilene, Kan., where another child, Euel, was born, and returned in the spring, buying a home at Cedar Park, Williamson county, still the family home.

Q. When was the next Mexican invasion of Texas made after that of March 1842?

A. On Sept. 11, Gen. Adrian Woll, with 1400 men appeared at San Antonio, and after a brief skirmish took the district judge (court then being in session), several court officers and lawyers and other citizens to the number of 53 as prisoners and after three days withdrew with them to Mexico, where the Texans were imprisoned.

Q. How did Houston feel in regard to Austin's imprisonment in Mexico?

A. Along with many other Texans, he felt that Austin was indiscreet in his letter from Mexico urging the San Antonio Ayuntamiento to lead a movement for a state government for Texas. In a letter to John A. Wharton, Houston said: "I was provoked by his first letter, where he broke into prison."

Q. How much federal relief has been spent in Texas?

A. The president's report to Dec. 12, 1936, showed total expenditures in Texas in all branches of recovery and relief totalling $150,804,967, with an additional amount of $37,635,405

HERE AND THERE

Turnersville—A three-legged colt was born a week ago on the R. P. Williams farm near here.

The colt is normal and frisky as any animal of his age. Mr. Williams says inquiries will be sent to Robert L. Ripley, who several years ago caricatured a three-legged colt supposed to be the only one in existence at that time.

Fort Worth—Five Bibles more than 325 years old are in the library of Brite college of the Bible at Texas Christian University.

The oldest was printed a year before Columbus discovered America—1491. It belonged originally to a councillor to the court of Gesner of Gottenen. It was printed in Basal, Germany, and is bound in calf skin.

The text is in Latin but lacks the familiar verse and chapter divisions. Each paragraph begins with a beautiful illuminated letter in blue or red.

Centennial markers on two historical Bell county spots will be erected this week, the state board of control announced.

One marker will be erected at the ruins of the Davis mill on the Salado river near Salado, the other at the ruins of the Childers-Shanklin mill on the Lampasas river near Lampasas.

Winter disregarded the calendar makers, who said spring was here, to bring snow to the Panhandle and West Texas Sunday.

The United States weather bureau predicted, however, that warm weather would return all over the state Monday.

TEXAS SCRAP BOOK

A beautiful book with brilliant cover showing Texas capitol surmounted by Six Flags, size 9x12 pages, indexed, classified by subjects, with numerous historical pictures ready to be pasted in book.

This makes a lovely gift for children, is adapted for school or home use and stimulates interest in Texas history and love for Home and State.

Mailed postpaid for only 25c. Will H. Mayes, 2610 Salado Street, Austin, Texas

I enclose 25c in coin, securely wrapped, for a copy of Centennial Scrap Book.

This suit is brought as well to try title as for damages, plaintiffs alleging that heretofore, to-wit: on the 1st day of April, 1937, he was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described lands and premises, lying and being situated in Mills County, Texas, holding and claiming the same in fee simple, to-wit:

(A) The Henry Millard 320 acre survey, patented to the heirs of Henry Millard, by Patent Number 144, volume Three, dated November 6th, 1886, recorded in volume Three, page 194, of the Patent Records of Mills County, Texas, Abstract Number 474; and

(B) The Britton Dawson 829,324 square vara survey patented to H. R. Hearne and Charles Lewis, assignees, by Patent Number 341, volume 23, survey Number One, dated Oct. 7th, 1880, recorded in Volume 2, page 182, of the Patent Records of Mills County, Texas, Abstract Number 179, and,

(C) The Tomas S. Pinckney 320 acre survey, patented to the said Thomas S. Pinckney by Patent No. 248, volume 45, dated August 22nd, 1881, recorded in volume One, page 61, of the Patent Records of Mills County, Texas, Abstract No. 534, and,

(D) 1830.4 acres of land, more or less, out of the South and East part of the Willaba Boatright survey patented to him by Patent Number 357, volume 16, dated Feb. 28th, 1861, Number 255, Abstract Number 15, all of which land is more fully described in Plaintiff's Original Petition, on file in this cause, and to which reference is here made for more particular description of the said lands.

That on the day and year last aforesaid, the defendants entered upon the said premises and ejected the Plaintiff therefrom, and unlawfully withhold from him the possession thereof to his damage in the sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars.

Plaintiff further alleges title to the said land under and by virtue of the statute of five and ten years limitation, as is more fully set out in Plaintiff's Petition on file herein, and the nature of the defendants title of claim to the said land is unknown to him.

Plaintiff prays judgment for the title and possession of the said land, and that he be quieted in his title thereto, and that the Cloud cast upon the title of the Plaintiff to the said land by the claim of the defendants be removed and held for naught, and for such other and further relief to which he may be entitled, in law or equity.

Herein Fall Not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this Writ with your Return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness: B. J. Keese, Clerk of the District Court of Mills County, Texas.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Goldthwaite, Texas, this 1st day of April, A.D. 1937.

Hamilton

Hamilton, admittedly one of the most progressive, permanent-ly prosperous and fast growing cities in Central Texas, and the hub of a diversified farming section of unequalled enterprise, has the brightest prospects in her history for being granted a federal postoffice building. Again this week tragic death has claimed a promising young life and brought sorrow to an aged father and mother here, and to family connections and hosts of friends in this city and elsewhere. L e m a c i e Moore, Jr., of Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Moore of Hamilton, was killed, it is supposed, almost instantly when he lost control of his car on a rough road between Lufkin and Livingston en route Tuesday afternoon to Corpus Christi on a mission for his company, the General Motors, of which concern young Mr. Moore was traveling representative out of Dallas. He was found by a passerby dead in his car, which had spun around and slid over a 25 foot embankment at the side of the road. Death was caused by fracture of the skull from a blow in the back of the head. J. H. McCrary, a leading stockman and farmer of the county, is recovering at his home in the Gentry's Mill community from accidental injuries sustained when struck down and run over by a car loaded with feed. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Solomon, of near Goldthwaite, were Saturday night guests of their daughter, Mrs. Garfield Brummett and husband, near Fairy. Mr. and Mrs. Solomon also visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Solomon, when enroute home. The singing class of McGirk met as usual and gave a very enjoyable program. Lewis Porter and family of Goldthwaite were present and his children gave a special number. They possess undoubted talent. They are all small and their father being a singer helps develop the children's talent and directs the studies. Music and singing is the most popular entertainment of the day. Mrs. L. D. Bratton and Mrs. C. D. McKinley were in Goldthwaite Wednesday. Mrs. Bratton attended the meeting of the executive board of the Heart of Texas Garden Clubs, which was held at the home of the president, Mrs. John Berry. Mrs. Berry entertained with a luncheon for representatives from Hamilton, Coleman, San Saba, Mullin, Mason, Brown, Mills counties. Mrs. McKinley visited with her brother, Walker Ligon and family, and with her sister, Mrs. Robert Steen and husband. —Herald-Record.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Rushing, daughter of Mrs. Rosella Rushing, and George Edwin Walton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walton, was solemnized at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning at St. Paul's Episcopal Church by the Rev. J. Hodge Alves, minister. This was a double ring ceremony. Mrs. J. E. Vernor had as guests for the week-end her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Mills, and her granddaughter, Mrs. B. K. Casen and two sons, Dick and Walter, all of Beaumont. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Roberts for Mrs. J. E. Hooper, who passed away early Tuesday morning in Houston.—Leader.

Comanche

Mrs. Kate Walker, sister of Mrs. J. C. Gaddy and Miss Gus- sie Walker of Comanche, died at Birmingham, Ala., Saturday, where she had been a deaconess in the Methodist church for the past eight years. Funeral services were held at the Comanche Methodist church Monday afternoon by Rev. J. D. Smoot, assisted by Rev. Charles H. Cole. A new street likely will be opened soon in Comanche, H. L. Stewart, president of the Comanche Chamber of Commerce and member of the city council, said at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night. The proposed new street will intersect North Main. Funeral services were held last Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Church of Christ for Mrs. E. L. Wallace. Mrs. Wallace died at her home in Comanche at 1:15 Thursday afternoon following a brief illness. William Isaac Starnes, a former widely known citizen and business man of Hamilton and the county, who recently moved with his wife to Gustine, died in the Gorman sanitarium in the evening of March 23, at 10:30. Mrs. Margaret E. Nance, for 30 years a resident of Comanche county, died at her home at Hass Sunday at 12:16 p.m., following a lingering illness. Interment was at the Board church cemetery Monday afternoon.—Chief.

Fire Losses in Texas Have Decreased

Austin.—Texas' total fire loss has decreased over 50 per cent during the last two years, Marvin Hall, fire insurance commissioner, announced. "Figures compiled from the reports of over 500 Texas fire mar- shals show that the high fire loss trend of 1931 and 1932 has taken a steep swing downward in recent years," Hall said. "The total loss for those two depression years was $32,938,537. The total loss for the years 1935 and 1936 was $13,732,587—still too high an amount, but encouraging nevertheless."

According to the fire marshals' reports to the Texas Fire Insurance Department, 79 per cent of the 6,514 fires in 1932 occurred in dwellings with a loss ratio of 55 per cent. In 1935, 68 per cent of the fires occurred in dwellings and in 1936 the number decreased to 2,897, or 62 1-2 per cent of the total number of fires. The loss ratio has decreased 20 per cent in five years. "Our reports prove conclusively," Hall explained, "that the large number of dwelling fires occurring each year are a direct result of the economic conditions of the time. Too many fires are started in lean years as a 'profit fire', and the number of fires of unknown origin seem always to decrease when times get better."

Hall stated that only through investigation by the proper authorities and by active fire prevention measures to eliminate careless fires could losses in dwellings be further reduced. "The fire insurance department is proud of the splendid work Texas' fire marshals, fire chiefs and co-operating citizens have done in cutting the number of incendiary fires in fourth, the number of vacant house fires in sixth, and the total of yearly fires almost in half," Hall said.

Trees and brush being cleared out in the Texas state parks are being converted into charcoal for use by picnic parties, according to information received by the Texas Planning Board from the National Park service. Trade with Goldthwaite stores.

CCC Camps Permanent

All over the country Civilian Conservation Corps camps are celebrating their birthday. They have entertained visitors, put on programs, exhibited the work they have been doing. The CCC camps apparently are set to become permanent institutions and not just a fly-by-night emergency program. They have served a definite emergency purpose. They have proved a substantial lift in solving the employment problem. Their work in conservation programs has been their chief, permanent value to this country and that work should not and will not be forgotten. The country has benefited in a large way by the Civilian Conservation Corps program.—Home Tower in Temple Telegram.

Brownwood

The possibility that Brown county will be placed with San Saba county in district 87 was made known early this week when a bill redistricting the House of Representatives on the basis of the 1930 census received a favorable report from the House Legislative Districts Committee. Brown county is now with Coleman county in the 125th district. Enactment of the new bill would be the first legislative redistricting in 24 years. Other nearby districts are: 84—Tom Green, Irion and Reagan; 85—Concho, Runnels and Coke; 86—Coleman and McCulloch; 88—Eastland; 89—Mills, Comanche and Lampasas; 106—Callahan, Shackelford and Stephens; 108—Taylor. Dr. Charles E. Barker, nationally known lecturer and advisor of young people, was in Brownwood Friday as a guest of the Rotary club. Dr. Barker delivered three addresses. At 10:30 a.m. he spoke at the Brownwood high school, at noon he addressed the Rotary club and at 7:30 p.m. he was presented in a public lecture to adults in Howard Payne auditorium. Roy Chinn, local druggist, and W. O. Stewart, manager of Hotel Brownwood, presented an in-Various entertainment features are being planned for the 22nd annual convention of the Sixth District Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held April 12, 12 and 14, with the Federated Women's Clubs of Brady as hostesses. Mrs. J. B. Whitman, member of the Brady Tuesday Club, is general chairman of the convention; Mrs. Will Kennerly of the Sorosis Club is co-chairman, and Mrs. Jerome Wilkerson, Junior Twentieth Club, is junior chairman.—Brady Standard.

A lot of things can happen to embarrass a person. One of the embarrassing things that did happen occurred recently at Robstown, down on the Gulf coast. A hostess had just served steak and mushroom sauce to a large dinner party, when the maid called her to the kitchen. The maid had fed the family dog some of the mushrooms, and soon thereafter found the dog dead on the front doorsteps. The hostess was the sort that possessed great presence of mind. She phoned several physicians, told them to hurry to her house and bring stomach pumps. When they arrived, she broke the news to her guests; they had eaten poisonous mushrooms. Hurriedly all stomachs were emptied. Then the doorbell rang. A policeman stood there. He handed the hostess a slip of paper. "Here," he said, "is the number of the car that ran over your dog a while

DRIVING A PRIVILEGE—NOT A RIGHT

It is high time we realized that the operation of a motor car on the public highways is a privilege—not a right. Every automobile is a potentially lethal weapon. Properly used, it is one of man's most desirable mechanical servants. Improperly used, it is a terrible menace to the lives, health and property of everyone in the area it travels. Rigid training is necessary to obtain a license to pilot an airplane—yet the plane travels empty airways where, generally speaking, it cannot endanger others. Locomotive engineers must likewise undergo years of arduous experience and must prove their physical and mental competence and responsibility before being entrusted with a train—yet a train operates on tracks, and has no traffic congestion problems. Still, in most states, we allow anyone, whether he be competent or incompetent, careless or reckless, of good habits or bad, to drive a car on crowded arteries of travel, where the slightest error of judgment may cause a death! It is an undeniable fact that a considerable percentage of the people now driving should either be denied the privilege of being forced to undergo a period of training to make them abler, safer car operators. Some of these people are physically incapable of driving properly. Many more are mentally incapable, congenitally incompetent, or reckless. And the toll is 35,000 lives a year. We will never solve the accident problem until we adopt a drivers' license regulation that will keep the incompetent and reckless driver off the public roads. No man has a "right" to drive until he can show definitely that he is worthy of the "privilege" of being allowed to drive.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Armstrong have returned after a week spent in Corpus Christi with her mother, Mrs. Em Wilson, and other relatives. They report Corpus Christi on a wonderful boom since striking oil there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson and her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Hendry of Coleman spent Thursday with relatives here.

Mrs. Dora Morris spent the afternoon with Frank Kirby and family last Sunday at Lometa.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Toland spent Wednesday in Fort Worth. They had the pleasure of hearing Gipsy Smith deliver one of his famous messages and said it was well worth the trip.

Mrs. Mary Johnson of Goldthwaite and her daughter, Mrs. Carl Wood of Big Valley were pleasant callers at the Eagle office. Mrs. Wood reports her mother-in-law, Mrs. John Wood of California, made them a recent visit.

Mrs. Rufus McKinney returned Wednesday night from Waco, where she has been at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Jeff Bates, who underwent an operation there. Mrs. McKinney reports her mother improving.

V. C. Bradford of The Eagle office, accompanied by Rufus McKinney, went to Gatesville Wednesday afternoon to be present at a pre-nuptial dinner given by his wife for his brother, Johnnie Bradford, and Miss Ruth Raby Franks, who were married early Thursday morning and left on a wedding trip immediately. Mrs. Bradford has as guest, returning with her from Gatesville, her mother, Mrs. R. S. Farmer, and sister and her husband of New York, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brodie. Mr. Brodie went on to Austin to visit his people while here.

Miss Catherine Crook of Priddy called at The Eagle office Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson of Big Valley went to Temple last Sunday, where Mrs. Robertson entered Scott & White Sanitarium for a major operation, which was performed on Monday and the lady at last report was recovering nicely.

Mrs. Eli Fairman was carried to Temple last Sunday for treatment in Scott & White Sanitarium. She has been ill for several months and it was thought best by her family to have special treatment in the sanitarium. Her special nurse, Miss Gertrude Kauh, is with her, and her son, Wilbur Fairman, and wife accompanied her and will remain some days. Last report from her is that she is doing nicely and all her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Austin.—Miss Fay Featherston of Goldthwaite has been cast in one of the roles in "The Villain's Revenge," one-act melodrama to be given April 9 by the Wesley Players, dramatic group at the University Methodist Church, Austin. This group is composed of University of Texas students.

Mrs. Fred Martin is enjoying a visit in Corpus Christi with her sister, Mrs. H. Caldwell, and her friend, Mrs. Carroll Lowrie, who with her son, Jeff, spent Easter here with Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Priddy, parents of Mrs. Lowrie, and Mrs. Martin returned to Corpus with them.

ART & CIVIC CLUB MET IN M. Y. STOKES HOME

Mrs. M. Y. Stokes, Jr., was hostess Thursday, April 1, to the Art and Civic Club and a number of guests. Mrs. W. G. Saylor very graphically revived Robert Sherwood's Idiot's Delight, the Pulitzer Prize drama for 1936. Her review was followed by a musical program.

The Rosary, Louise Gartman; vocal duet, Mmes. R. Littlepage, F. Bowman, accompanied by Miss Robert Elizabeth Littlepage; Melody of Love, Dorothy Nell Rudd; Witches Dance, Laurence Morrison Stokes; accordion solo, Melmoth Young Stokes III.

At the conclusion of the program guests were invited into the dining room, where a delectable tea table awaited them. The table was centered with a bowl of flowers from which slender varicolored tapers protruded decoratively. Mrs. Marvin Rudd presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. J. K. Beery served the salads. Mrs. Paul McCullough, Mrs. Lucile Fairman, Dorothy Nell Rudd and the hostess' son, Melmoth, also assisted in the dining room.

The personnel included the Art and Civic Clubs and the following other guests: Mmes. R. E. Clements, J. D. Brim, Rufus McKinney, Robert Littlepage, Frank Bowman, D. D. Tate, Mildred Cockerill, J. C. Mullin, H. B. Johnson, Marvin Rudd, Walter Fairman, Lucile Fairman, Harry Allen, J. K. Beery; Misses Robert Elizabeth Littlepage, Lillie Martin, Dera Humphries, Louise Gartman.

S. E. C. CLUB

The club met with Mrs. Glenn Nickols Tuesday afternoon. Tat were present. Mrs. Homer Doggett and Janece, Mrs. C. H. Ford and Mrs. P. G. Palmer were visitors. We were glad to have the visitors, the two members would have been lonesome without them. We hope those that did not come will have an awful good excuse for not coming. I think we meet with Mrs. Boos-ter Berry our next meeting for an all day quilting. Mrs. Nickols served cheese-it and cakes.—XXX.

SAVING LAND

200 county agents in this state last year supervised the terracing of four million acres of Texas farm land, according to The Earth.

They were assisted by the 4-H club boys as well as their fathers.

That four million acres is quite a saving for 1936. For many years the soil conservation and fertilization have been in practice in some Eastern states.

These states did not begin the work until forced to it by poor, depleted, badly washed land. Gulleys and ditches decorated once valuable land. The result in a few years after terracing was a marvelous improvement. Human nature is so constituted it's difficult to learn by other's experience. So all the states, one by one, have learned or will learn by experience the value of terracing and soil conservation and many individuals will not learn until their washed soil has written for them the story of soil depletion.

Oakland, Cal.—Morton J. Bierce went to sleep, the police report said.

His automobile hit a street-mail box.

The box flew 30 feet and crashed through a store window. The automobile careened into a power line pole.

Bierce awoke uninjured. That's all, the police report said.—Temple Telegram.

Totem of Last Chief

An Indian totem pole near Ephraim, Wis., marks the grave of Simon Onanguisse Kahquados, last of the ancient line of Potawatomi chieftains who ruled over the Wisconsin finger peninsula for centuries. Kahquados died in 1930 at the age of 79.
