Mullin Junior-Senior Banquet Big Success

The Eagle Editor and Postmaster M. Y. Stokes, Jr., attended the Junior-Senior Banquet at Mullin last Saturday night. This was one of the most colorful and beautiful that the Mullin school has ever sponsored, although the school is noted for artistic, interesting and lovely occasions of this kind.

Following is a description in detail from the Mullin Enterprise:

Saturday night at the school auditorium, the brilliant Junior-Senior banquet was held. It was decidedly one of the most artistic in years.

The rainbow in all its glorious colors reigned supreme. The decorations, table with its vari-colored candles burning brightly, the place cards and favors as well as the delicious menu, all in harmonizing colors of the rainbow.

Supt. Tolbert Patterson was the toastmaster and kept the banquet table one of joy and gladness.

Forest trees with all their spring attire in lovely shades of green enclosed the banquet hall, giving an outdoor garden effect.

Evening Dresses in Evidence.

The Juniors and Seniors were fairly-like in their pretty evening dress, and many of the faculty ladies were dressed up in the latest evening style, a group that any city might well be proud of and 20 of them fine, young seniors, worthy of commendation and the beautiful banquet, an honor bestowed upon them by the Juniors.

The pretty sophomore girls who were so efficient in waiting tables and so lovely in rainbow colors are no doubt seeing rainbows for 1940-41.

The toast by Marilyn Smith, Blanche Eidson and Clyde Smith were splendid and reflected credit to them and their school. Clifton Chancellor gave a fine verse benediction.

Songs by Catherine Miller and Dorothy McCown with Miss Katherine Baring at the piano were very much enjoyed.

The principal speaker of the evening, District Attorney J. R. Evetts of Belton, interspersed his address with wisdom and fun, the spice of life.

Menu.

Tomato Cocktail, Chicken Loaf, Wafers, Glazed Carrots, Corn, String Beans, Harvard Beets, Rainbow Salad, Buttered Rolls, Iced Tea, Brick Ice Cream, Sand Tarts, and Mints.

Program.

Major Lattimore Addresses Lions

A large assembly of Lions and guests heard Major W. C. Lattimore of Waco discuss America's defense plans in the Pacific at the regular meeting of the Lions Club in the Methodist church recreation room Tuesday night.

The Army officer took the position that the Philippines were more of a liability than an asset to America and that holding them nullified the Monroe Doctrine. Through the use of a map and diagrams, he presented a clear picture of the role of the American navy in the event of war in the Pacific.

The meeting was attended by the following out-of-town guests: Judge Few Brewster and District Attorney Jim Evetts and Court Stenographer J. H. Wagner of Temple and Belton; District Attorney Holvey Williams and Capt. Thos. C. Bain of Waco; Capt. J. E. Talley, Lieut. McKinley and County Agent Craddock of Hamilton; Major Mayo and Captains Houston and Leon Smith of Brownwood; and Lieutenants R. A. Wright, Jr. and T. J. Casbeer, Jr. of Lampasas.

A delicious fried chicken dinner was served before the program.

TEMPLE BAILEY writes THE DIM LANTERN

Frederick Towne, wealthy, arrogant business man, thought he could buy the love of attractive, unsophisticated Jane Barnes.

He couldn't understand her love for melancholy, despondent Evans Follette, who had always worshipped her. Towne could offer her everything Evans lacked—servants, a beautiful home and assured social position. But he didn't need her.

Temple Bailey's warm, close to life story, "The Dim Lantern," is one of her best. You'll thoroughly enjoy every installment. Read it IN THIS PAPER

Connally Portrait Presented at Austin

AUSTIN, Texas, May 2.—Here in the State Capitol where United States Senator Tom Connally of Marlin began his career of public service as a member of the Legislature, friends and admirers from throughout Texas gathered today to honor and pay tribute to him.

The occasion was presentation of a portrait of Senator Connally by Howard Chandler Christy which will be hung in the Senate Chamber, scene of the program, where it will remain enshrined through all the years as a cherished possession of the people of his native state, whom Senator Connally has served so long and well—first as a member of the Texas house of representatives, subsequently as county attorney of Falls county, then as congressman from the 11th district and finally as the junior member from his state of the United States Senate.

Pressure of duties attendant on the current session of Congress in Washington prevented Senator Connally from attending the program in person, but staunch supporters were present from far flung sections of the State, including an enthusiastic delegation from his home town and county who have watched with pride his growth from boyhood to the lofty stature of statesmanship.

Notables Participate.

Lieutenant Governor Coke Stevenson presided and the presentation speech was delivered by former State Senator McDonald Meachum. Former Governor Dan Moody spoke on the official career of Senator Connally and cited some of the outstanding legislative accomplishments of Senator Connally in behalf of the agricultural, livestock, and numerous other industries of Texas. Appropriate acceptance of the portrait was voiced by Senator Clint Small.

Included in the audience were many who have watched Senator Connally's work first hand in Washington; who know something of the tremendous amount of influence the junior Senator wields in the national capital to gain an outstanding position among a powerful Texas delegation that stands out as no other state delegation by virtue of ability and service that has placed them in such a commanding position.

Attention was called to the fact that Senator Connally has been especially active during the current session of Congress in behalf of humanitarian and economic legislation in general as well as being the sponsor of a number of important measures of particular value to the people of Texas whom he represents.

Streamlined Banquet For Junior-Seniors

Decorations of toy balloons and place cards in the form of airplanes set the streamlined motive for the annual Junior-Senior banquet of the Goldthwaite high school Thursday evening of last week, in the recreation room of the Methodist Church.

Mark Fairman presided as toastmaster. Superintendent A. H. Smith made the principal address which was spiced with humor. The class will and class prophecy were read, and the Juniors presented a novel skit in which various Seniors were cleverly impersonated.

Boy Scout News

Boy Scout Council Shows Progress

During the past months of 1939, Comanche Trail Council has shown an increase of 88 Scouts and 37 Cubs—making a total number at present of Scouts and Scouters near the 1,100 mark. Council officials hope to go over the one thousand mark for Scouts by the end of the year. Many boys have a desire to become Scouts, if given the opportunity. Men and money are needed to help carry on the work. More towns in the Council area are furnishing leadership and finances than during any time in the history of the Council. Many young men who have come up thru Scouting are now entering the work as volunteer leaders of units. The council, which is composed of Stephens, Eastland, Erath, Comanche, Brown, Mills, San Saba and Lampasas counties, recently received its incorporation papers from Austin.

Camp Billy Gibbons

According to records, the Comanche Trail Council camps more boys at the Council Camp per Scout population than any other council in Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico. This is largely due to the location and the ideal natural surroundings of the campsite. Also the efficient leadership that is given gratis by volunteer leaders each year goes a long way in making this camp a success. The dates are July 12 to 19 and 20 to 27.

Nazarene Church

Since hearing Dr. Gerald B. Winrod's talk Sunday night, personally, I feel there must be something done to build up moral principles and increase our spirituality. When we see what sin is doing for the homes and even our nation. We feel the time has come when God's people must stand out against sin and open the eyes of the people until they will see where the devil will lead to.

Paul said the Lord had called him to open the eyes of the blind and to turn them from darkness unto light.

Just one month and we will begin our Revival, but don't wait until then to go to church, we are anxious to have you attend the regular Sunday services as well as the Tuesday and Wednesday prayer services.

Texans Prominent At Methodist Meet In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Texas and other Southern Methodist leaders were prominent in the opening session of the uniting conference of three branches of American Methodism as the 900 delegates began their work. The high point of the morning was the reading of the episcopal address by Bishop John M. Moore, Dallas, one of the three joint commissioners on church union, who had to pause several times for the cheering of delegates.

Many Texans were named on the various committees which were created during the morning. The conference elected as its secretary the Rev. Lud H. Estes, Memphis, Tenn., who has served in that capacity for the last two general conferences of the Southern Methodist Church. Nat Harris, Waco, is a member of the committee to arrange the order in which the bishops are to preside over business sessions.

Others named to committees were the Rev. W. M. Pearce, Pampa, rules; W. W. Jackson, San Antonio, credentials; Dr. Humphrey Lee, Dallas, courtesies, privileges and introductions; Dr. Paul W. Quillian, Houston, and Mrs. T. H. Minga, Frisco, enabling acts and legal forms; Dr. J. W. Mills, Tyler, and M. A. Childers, San Antonio, judiciary, and Bishop Moore and Dr. E. B. Hawk, Dallas, business.

Practically all Texas delegates were present when the roll was called. The Rev. A. T. Walker, Huntsville, was seated in the Texas Conference delegation in place of Dr. S. S. McKenney, Tyler and Earl Huffor, Huntsville, was seated as a lay delegate in the same group in place of W. W. Fondren, Houston capitalist who recently died. Mrs. N. G. Rollins, Abilene, was seated for R. H. Nichols, Vernon, with the Northwest Texas delegates.

The Rev. E. E. White, Plainview; the Rev. J. Fisher Simpson, member of the West Texas Conference now on the staff of the Board of Christian Education in Nashville, and Merle T. Waggoner of Wichita Falls were among those named as tellers for the conference. The Rev. R. F. Curl, San Antonio, is one of the assistant secretaries to help count the standing vote.

Dr. A. J. Weeks, Dalas, editor of the Southwestern Advocate, will be in charge of a business session of the Southern Methodist Press Association, of which he is president, following a dinner on Thursday evening. Plans will be discussed for merging the organization with similar groups in the other branches which are uniting.

Several Texas bishops were among those designated to organize the standing committees.

Tips on Tuberculosis

AUSTIN, May 5.—Tuberculosis no longer ranks first among the major killing diseases—a position it formerly occupied not only in Texas but in the entire country. However, despite its now being seventh on the list in 1938, it continues to kill more persons between fifteen and fifty-five years of age than does any other single disease. And this is in the face of definite evidence that the majority of tuberculosis patients can be cured if the condition is detected early and proper treatment and living rules maintained, states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"While the treatment of the individual early case is of great importance, it is of equal moment, from a public health point of view, that the spread of infection to others be prevented. Such prevention is possible. A more concerted attack on this front would mean the saving of thousands of lives.

"In every case, when a diagnosis of active tuberculosis has been made, an investigation of the physical condition of the other members of the family should follow. It cannot be too emphatically stated that tuberculosis runs in families solely because it is communicable, the disease being usually transmitted through intimate and prolonged exposure to the 'open' case.

"It has been estimated that forty per cent of the tuberculosis cases that will develop within the next decade will be the result of close contact with others already infected.

"Routine examination of all high school children, isolation or hospitalization of the active case, discovery of the sources of infection, application of hygienic living principles, periodic examination for all adults, and a careful check-up by physicians and trained workers of all active cases and contacts represent an invaluable defence against the spread of tuberculosis.

They were Bishops A. Frank Smith, Houston; Ivan Lee Holt, Dallas; Arthur J. Moore, San Antonio.

Bishop Charles C. Seelman, former president of Southern Methodist University, announced Wednesday morning the joint commission on evangelism, of which he is one of the chairmen, will sponsor afternoon preaching service each day during the conference. Among the speakers announced are Bishop Smith, Houston; Dr. Forney Hutchinson, Tulsa, and Bishop Paul B. Kern, Nashville, former dean of the SMU school of theology.

Dr. Humphrey Lee, president of Southern Methodist University, spoke on American Methodists Look to the Future, on a radio program Thursday.—Dallas News.

Seasonal Jobs for The Farm

Among the more important seasonal soil and water conservation jobs being done by co-operators at this time are:

1. Broadcast seeding washes and draws in cultivated fields to cane or sudan or some other close growing crops so as to catch the silt and top soil brought to these low places by contoured rows. Some co-operators have carried a bucket of such seed on their planters to stop and seed such low places as they come to them in regular row crop planting operations. Cultivator plows are raised in going across these spots during one or two seasons and in this manner the field is leveled up and washes eliminated. This practice is especially necessary in "healing" washes where strip crops and contour cultivation with terraces are used.

2. Planting border strips of close grown crops, preferably drilled, so that run-off from each contour row will drain across them before going into the roadside ditch or other drain. In this manner much top soil which would otherwise go out the end of each row is held on the field. Strips should be at least 10 feet wide and permanent vegetation is, of course, the best for such strips.

Co-operators are urged to plant strip crops "plenty wide" so they will accomplish their purpose of slowing down the water and filtering out the soil that has been washed from the cultivated intervals above during times of heavy rains when the rows can not hold all the run-off and the water must move across the strips. Wide strip crops are especially needed just above the terraces in order to keep top soil from washing down against the terraces.

4. Constructing contour furrows during rainy periods in order to save moisture for the

Road Blind Cause of Acc

Insufficient maintenance is blamed for restricted sight on State highways, according to Llan Montgomery, Engineer.

The State Highway Bureau of Public Safety finished a survey of danger spots on highways. This survey of 357 important points of the interest of 948 points at which adequate view is ahead.

Of all the accidents, P. H. F. 6,023 were by trucks, 236 were by cars or roadside signs. The excavation here was also a danger spot.

These excavations are regarded as a danger to the safety of motorists. Montgomery, State Highway Engineer, says that the speed of travel has increased and the number of accidents has increased. It is estimated that in passing and overtaking a car, a car is in the path of a truck for a period of 10 to 15 seconds. This is a dangerous period, especially in the case of a truck, which is a large vehicle and has a long stopping distance.

The State Highway Bureau is now working on a plan to eliminate these danger spots. The plan is to excavate the road surface at these points and to install adequate signs to warn motorists of the danger.

This is the same treatment given at Glenrose, Texas. If I do not think your ailment curable, I will not take your case. ALSO ELECTRICAL TREATMENTS

I use seven treatments for a test. If you see no improvement after taking seven treatments, I do not insist on you taking more treatments. This is a treatment of Nature given in a scientific manner by following the nerves and stimulating the circulation. By the circulation the system is cleansed of all impurities. Another great feature in this treatment is we don't hold but a short time, as a rule from two to three weeks. In real hard cases about four weeks. The quickest results known to mankind.

I want 25 of the hardest cases in and around Goldthwaite. If you are a sufferer, don't fail to see Dr. Shoultz. I have had 19 years' experience.

SPECIALIZING IN PROSTATE TROUBLE AND HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

We, the undersigned Citizens of Dawson County, hereby recommend Dr. S. E. Shoultz as a Drugless Healer to the public anywhere, as we have had personal experience with him as a healer.

Drillers called the entire crew to the Wallace-Vickers Lund No. 1 oil test location on Thursday morning, and preparations are being made to run five and three-sixteenth inch casing.

Barring unexpected interferences the test will be acidized within from ten days to two weeks from this date. Indications are highly encouraging for pay production of oil from this well, which, if this proves out, will be the first producer to be brought in for Hamilton county.

Women Are Human Politician Believes

Democratic women of Texas who attended the regional conference of Democratic women in St. Louis, heard T. V. Smith, colorful Illinois Congressman-at-large, give his ten-point platform on women in politics.

Representative Smith, who regularly debates with Senator Robert A. Taft on the radio, and who is an author, an editor, and a professor of philosophy as well as a politician gave his stand as follows:

Smith is for more women in public life.

Smith believes women are human; he knows they are adroit. He thinks they are entitled to their share of fun out of politics. He urges they bear the equal share of political responsibility.

He thinks they should contribute to city, state, and nation their knowledge of economical housekeeping—and much more.

Smith wishes for and would work for equal number of women and men in public office through out.

He would see women ambassadors, more women in the cabinet, especially in posts connected with welfare and with war. He suspects women are more peaceful than men while peace is possible, but more deadly when peace with self-respect proves impracticable.

He would welcome a woman Supreme Court Justice, though he could not countenance packing the court with pulchritude.

He believes there ought to be some where a proper woman candidate for the vice presidency now, and soon one developed for the presidency.

Smith knows women are good for politics; he believes politics are good for women.

Texas Woodcarving to New York

Young woodcarvers at Texas State College for Women are now working on a statuette of a pioneer woman and child, by special request of Miss Marjorie Hillis, author of "Live Alone and Like It." She has a collection of figurines from all parts of the world.

Be An Early Bird!

Start planning now for egg production this fall. The fall for heavy sustained laying must be laid when chick is growing. Chick diseases are mostly in the intestinal tract and any irritation or infection of this tract will become impaired for digestive purposes. Scars develop where the irritation exists and this thickens intestinal walls. In this way the wall loses its efficiency for food material. How can a laying hen be expected and up to the strain of heavy production with a crimp-digesting machine? This explains why so many layers get breakdown or die of other reasons. Coccidiosis in growing chicks paves the way for a high death rate in laying flock.

To keep the digestive machinery in good order, keep chicks on MID-TEX feeds, which are properly fortified with minerals for health protection.

Bring us your POULTRY, EGGS, and CREAM. We appreciate your patronage.

Self Culture Club

Mrs. J. J. Stephen was hostess to the Self Culture Club on Thursday.

The May Day motif was carried out in the decorations. Cut flowers were beautifully arranged in the living room, while a May Pole with yellow streamers centered the lace-covered dining table.

During the business session, Mrs. W. C. Dew, the incoming president, named the standing committees for next year.

Miss Love Gatlin was leader for a program on Government and Topics on Communism, Fascism and Nazism and the three leading dictators were discussed by Mrs. R. J. Gerald, Miss Gatlin and Mrs. R. E. Clements. It was a timely subject from which much was learned.

The May color scheme was again in evidence on the refreshment plate with yellow May baskets of white daisies for favors. Guests other than club members included Meses. A. L. Whitaker, Paul McCullough, Moore, Crockett and W. P. McCullough.

The skull consists of 22 bones, 8 of which form the skeleton of the cranium and 14 that of the face.

Rock Springs

By Mrs. Eula Nickols

There wasn't any Sunday school, Sunday morning as some went to Ridge others went visiting and other had company.

Those who didn't go to Ridge Sunday to the Fifth Sunday Meeting missed a great treat. There was a big crowd present. Some came from Dallas, and several carloads from Lamkin in Comanche county were there. Everyone enjoyed the day. Ridge invited the next Fifth Sunday meeting to meet with their church again, which will be in July. There was enough food to feed the crowd and lots left.

There will be a school program Friday night by the four pupils. Let's all go early so we can get a good seat.

Mrs. Homer Doggett and Janiece from Coleman and Glenn and Dwight Nickols and wives and Mrs. James Nickols and James Wesley spent Sunday afternoon with their mother.

Jim Bohannon and family and some friends from Dallas spent Saturday night in the Roberts' home. They also attended the meeting at Ridge.

Oscar Gatlin and wife, Philip Nickols and Billie Ruth Daniel enjoyed the big dinner down on the river Sunday, planned by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis and Collier Ballard.

We are glad Mr. Hendrix is back home. We hope he will soon gain his strength back.
