WORLD OF DEMOCRACY IN SMALL TOWN GARDEN CLUB SPEAKER

and C. Morrison, Noted Park Town Planning Expert, Praises
Goldthwaite's Assets

There must be a balance in all things and the importance of the small town is being emphasized by C. Morrison, noted park town planning expert, before the Garden Club speaker here last night.

Mr. Morrison, who is a well-known authority on town planning, said that the small town is the backbone of the nation and that it is the responsibility of the town planner to make the small town a place where the citizen can live in peace and contentment.

He urged his audience to support the town building program and to make the most of the assets of their town. He said that the small town is the key to the nation's future and that it is the responsibility of the town planner to make the small town a place where the citizen can live in peace and contentment.

Mr. Morrison's appeal for the support of the small town is a timely one. In these times of economic depression, the small town is the backbone of the nation and it is the responsibility of the town planner to make the small town a place where the citizen can live in peace and contentment.

CONGRESSMAN C. L. SOUTH

Cash and Carry Sales Favored By Judge South

Judge C. L. South of Coleman, representative from the 21st Texas district, told members of the Brownwood Lions Club on Tuesday that he was in full accord with the president's plan to repeal the present neutrality act, the Brownwood Bulletin says.

Mr. South explained the setup of the neutrality act now in effect and told how it would be changed to permit any nation to purchase implements of war or foodstuffs from the United States on a cash-and-carry basis.

"Under the present neutrality act," Mr. South said, "the president must find that a 'state of war' exists between nations before he can enforce the neutrality act with its resulting embargo on the implements of war."

"The law should be amended so as to allow us to sell to all nations who can pay us and who come after the materials. If passed, England, France, Germany and Poland can come to America and buy anything and everything."

"It is highly important that we insist upon cash for these materials. It is possible that this war will be a long, drawn-out affair. If, after it has been in progress for a number of years and we have been selling on credit until the countries owed several billion dollars to this country, and it looked like the nations who had been buying from us would lose there would be let loose here a flood of propaganda that would drag us into the war."

No Responsibility
"It is easy to turn loose emotionalism at such a time. The big industrialists are not especially dumb and despite their patriotism I think they would do all they could toward getting us into a conflict to protect their investments."

"It is important that the purchasing nations carry away the materials in their own vessels. Then we have no responsibility if the vessels are sunk."

"Another thing. If we legislate neutrality, we become unneutral."

"If war could be prevented by the simple method of not selling supplies to warring nations, then we should not sell to them. But nations have been fighting since the beginning of time and there is no man who can say if we

AAA Cautions Against Planting Too Much Wheat

G. R. Goosby, local AAA secretary, has received a telegram from the Washington office of the AAA urging wheat farmers not to plant an increased acreage because of the recent advance in price due to war conditions.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace also warns against indiscriminate planting. His statement follows:

"I urge American farmers to proceed with their production plans as if the outbreak in Europe had not occurred."

"American agriculture is in a much better position to meet the shock of war than it was 25 years ago. As we have kept pointing out, the very machinery which farmers have used to adjust production to decreased demand in peacetime can be used in wartime to increase production if and when that becomes advisable."

"Some farmers, remembering high wartime prices, may wish to discontinue cooperation in their farm programs in order to expand the acreage of wheat and other crops. I would remind them that the average prices of wheat, corn, hogs and beef were lower a year after the World War started than they were in 1914. The course of prices for the months just ahead may not follow the pattern of 1914 and 1915. But present supplies of cotton, wheat, corn, meat animals, and many other commodities are large. There is little likelihood that any substantial increase in production of the major crops will be desirable, certainly not in the immediate future. In any case, the need for increases in supplies can be anticipated in ample time to make any necessary increases in acreages. The production of large quantities of agricultural commodities for which there is no satisfactory market could prove just as demoralizing in wartime as in peacetime."

"I would remind American farmers that the loans which are a part of the ever-normal granary are available right now to prevent price collapses. They can prevent such a disaster to farmers as befell cotton growers, for example, in 1914-15. . . .

"Since 1933, in contrast to the World War period, farmers in almost every county in the United States have organized themselves for quick action in dealing with problems of production, of conservation, of credit, and of rural welfare. These farmer groups, democratically elected to help carry on the agricultural adjustment administration, the Farm Security Administration, the Soil Conservation Service, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics — all working in cooperation with the

FIRST AID MEET

The local Scout Office has been informed by the Regional Office, that each Council in the Region will be expected to have its own First Aid Meet for 1940, which does away with the Sectional and Regional Meets. Each troop in the Council will participate in this part of the Scouting program, which will be held in the early part of 1940. All of the necessary material has been ordered from the Regional Office, and it will be sent out to the Scoutmasters during the month of October.

Goldthwaite School Makes Big Gains

As the local schools swing into the second week of the new term Superintendent Smith reports that everything is running smoothly.

The resignation of Mr. Rodgers, assistant coach and teacher of history, Mrs. Margaret Davidson, teacher of Public School Music, and R. M. Edgar, teacher of band, have been accepted. Each of these teachers went to what they considered more profitable looking employment.

There has been some rearrangement in the high school faculty effected. Mr. Bill Stephens has assumed the duties of assistant coach and Mr. Howard Crow has been elected a teacher in the high school faculty. Mr. Crow is a graduate of North Texas State Teachers College, where he majored in social science. He has been happily received by both student body and faculty members.

Miss Margaret Kingsbury, also a graduate of North Texas State Teachers' College, has been elected and has assumed the duties of public school music teacher. Miss Kingsbury is a major in public school music and comes highly recommended for the position she now holds.

The increase in enrollment required the addition of a teacher to the Grammar School faculty. Miss Doris Hill, of Albany, Texas, has been selected to fill this place and has already assumed her duties. Miss Hill is a graduate of Baylor University, where she majored in Elementary Education and did special work in History and Art.

The position of band director has not been filled but Superintendent Smith assures us that he is searching for a good man and feels sure that it will not be but a few days until he has a man on the job.

There has been quite a large increase in enrollment, as the following figures indicate: Last year at this time there was enrolled in the Primary department 115 students. This year that department has 158 students. Last year the Grammar school had an enrollment at this time of 191. This year the enrollment is 246. Last year the high school enrollment was 271. This year it is 299. Last year the total for the second week was 608. This year the total for the second week is 703.

Medical Society Adds Comanche At Lake Meet

More than 75 physicians and their guests from four counties met Saturday night at Lake Merritt, near Goldthwaite, for a barbecue, the first fall meeting of the Brown-Mills-San Saba Counties Medical Society.

The physicians have voted to include Comanche county in the association and hereafter the group will be known as the

The football season will officially get under way in Goldthwaite Friday night, September 15th, when the Goldthwaite Eagles meet the Killeen High school team on the local field. The Eagles have been working out as a team since September 1st and Coaches Cloninger and Stephens report their charges as coming along nicely for this time of year. Very few of last year's players being back the coaches have been confronted with the task of building this year's eleven from inexperienced boys. Of last year's team, Denson, Smith and McLean are hold-overs and are depended upon to set the pattern for the new men to follow.

Among the new men who show exceptional promise are Graves, Long, Ellis, Kirby, Head and Rose.

The will to win and give the game all they've got is evidenced this year all up and down the line, from the veteran players to the rawest recruit. Therefore, the Goldthwaite people can rest assured whether their team wins every game or not, their team played the game right up to the last whistle and put everything they had in to their efforts.

A big Pep Rally was held last night on the football field. There was a 15 minute work out by the team in scrimmaging, running through the plays, etc., to get the players accustomed as much as possible to playing under the lights at night. Various attractions for the evening include a band concert and speeches.

The Red and White team from Killeen is coached by Leo Buckley and his team will average about 148 pounds per man.

Brown - Comanche - Mills - San Saba Counties Medical Society. Inclusion of Comanche county into the society must be approved by the district councilor, then by the state board of councilors. Dr. O. N. Mayo, of Brownwood, is councilor for the Fourth District. He has approved the addition of Comanche county to the local medical group and said he felt sure the approval of the state board was a mere formality.

At the Goldthwaite meeting the doctors heard a technical program by Drs. V. E. Schulze and D. D. Wall, of San Angelo. The medical society will resume its monthly meetings, held the second Monday night of each month. The next meeting will be in Brownwood October 9.

The annual meeting of the Fourth District Medical Society will be held in Brady October 18. Dr. Mayo said today. Dr. W. H. Paige of Brownwood is president of the district organization and Dr. James Anderson of Brady is secretary - treasurer. — Brownwood Bulletin.

The Garden Club will have its first meeting Wednesday at 3:00 o'clock at the Yarrow Lodge at Lake Merritt.

Prisoners of War 'Somewhere in Poland'

In this photo, radioed from Berlin and passed by the Nazi censor, Polish prisoners are pictured, hands held high, following their capture "somewhere in Poland" after opening hostilities on the Polish border. German soldiers trot after the prisoners of war, their rifles ready for instant use in case of attempted escape.

Rock Springs
By Mrs. Eula Nickols

Our sympathy goes out to the Bohannon children in the passing away of their dear mother.
May God's richest blessings rest on each of them.

Brother J. C. Wade accepted the work for another year in this church. He and family are living in Brownwood, where he is attending college. We wish him success.

Earl Fairman has had another streak of bad luck on his farm.
His doe that was the mother of two young deer died, and his pasture caught fire last week again. It was a hard fight to get the fire out. It sure isn't safe to just throw a match or cigarette stub down in dead and dry grass.

School opened September 7th with four pupils. Mrs. Shirley Nickols is teaching the school.

The two Big Valley teachers are boarding in this community, one in the E. D. Roberson home, and the other in Woody Traylor's home. They both take school children to school.

We are very sorry our friend and neighbor, Mrs. Landy Ellis, has been real sick. At this writing she is better.

Mrs. Eula Nickols went over to Center Point to church Sunday morning. Miss Besse Hutchings accompanied her. To their disappointment the preacher failed to come. In the afternoon, Otis took the two ladies to visit with Will Taylor and wife at Live Oak.
They found Mrs. Taylor in the best of spirits and looking fine.

James Nickols and family moved out to his mother's last week.

Those from here who attended the association were E. D. Roberson and family, W. A. Cooke and Mmes. Pass, Roberts, Self and Nickols and Miss Johnnie Belle Circle.

Herbert Cooke and wife are visiting his father. They have had work in San Marcos. Herbert got his degree there this summer. He will teach in Indian Gap, where his school will start
October second.

J. T. Robertson is helping with suit and any persons claiming under the said defendants by any right acquired pending this suit; and the sheriff or other officer executing such order of sale shall proceed by virtue thereof to place the purchaser of the property sold under the same in possession thereof within 30 days from the date of the sale.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff have judgment for costs against all defendants except Service Bureau, Incorporated, and N. S. Woods.

NOW, THEREFORE YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED that you proceed according to law and seize and sell the hereinabove described property, as under execution, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment and satisfaction of the aforesaid sum of:

SIX THOUSAND SEVENTY and 20-100 ($6,070.20) Dollars, with interest thereon at 5 per cent per annum from March 8, 1939, until paid, also the sum of $30.12, costs of suit, together with the further cost of executing this writ.

And if the proceeds of said sale be insufficient to satisfy this judgment and interest with People must think the U. S. has declared war. They are staying in their hide-outs. They had better be visiting while they can.

Mr. W. Wilcox accompanied several of his relatives to the Renfro Dam Tuesday night and had a big fish fry.

Mr. David King, of Owens, is working for Ashley Weathers this week, cleaning out a tank.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kirk and Mrs. Jessie Whitley made a business trip to Hamilton Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Singleton and children and Geraldine Weathers visited in the Regency Community Sunday.

Mr. Horace Crawford and Fred Ethridge went fishing Saturday night at the Renfro Dam and they really caught the fish.

The Goldthwaite Eagles will play their first football game of the 1939-40 season Friday night with Killeen. Let's all go and have an evening of real sport and enjoyment. There is nothing better to do in the fall than to go and watch a lively football game, and this is going to be the starting point of a successful football season. Let's not disappoint those boys and ourselves.

We want to express our deepest sympathy to the parents, relatives and friends of our happy little school girl, Dorothy McCown, of Mullin, who has passed on to her future home with God. All who knew her had learned to love and appreciate her. She will be missed more than words can tell. May you, bereaved, lift your voices upward and seek peace from God—the beginning and ending of all things.

Billy Bates and Kenneth Hanson have returned home from visiting their relatives near San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilcox entertained a crowd of their relatives with a fish fry Tuesday night. I understand they had plenty of fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Sadering and Mrs. John Roberts came to services with Brother Wade Sunday evening. Everyone must have been gone as the crowd was very small. Brother Wade told us he had moved to Brownwood and would enter school there this term.

Mr. and Mrs. Oderine Renfro and son visited his mother, Mrs. B. F. Renfro, in Big Valley Sunday.

Geo. D. Brooks and Arthur Wilcox made a business trip to De Leon and surrounding towns Wednesday and Thursday, and while on their trip they purchased a peanut thresher.

Are There Any Questions?

Question: How can you make children behave when they are cross?

Reply: Dr. E. G. Osborne of Teachers College, Columbia University, says on this point: "As with so many problems of child behaviour that bother adults there is no simple answer to this question. Perhaps the crossness is due to incipient illness or to fatigue. If so, rest or quiet activity away from the stimulus of others is important. Punishment or scolding only makes for more trouble. Or the child may be feeling guilty or disturbed because of something he has done. If without pressure we can help him express what it is that is troubling him, he will usually 'become himself' again."

"Most often, however," Dr. Osborne says, "cross behaviour is the result of thwarting or interference with the child's needs or activities. He may feel that his parents do not really love him, that he is being treated as a baby, or that he cannot have or do something that others have or do. All this sort of thing is natural. Our job as parents is to help clear out unnecessary obstacles to our youngsters' happiness or to help them understand and accept unavoidable restrictions."

"One good thing to keep in mind is that meeting crossness with crossness is rarely effective. And seldom should one 'have it out' at the time when cross behaviour is being shown by the child. After the immediate disturbance has quieted down one is much more likely to get at the cause and to gain the cooperation of the child in plans to avoid future occurrences."

Question: Is enrollment in elementary schools declining?

Reply: Yes. Because of the falling birth-rate, elementary school enrollments declined 4.2 per cent from the peak of 21,278,593 in 1930 to 20,392,561 in 1936, the last date for which figures are available. The decline is continuing, and it is estimated that there will be almost 2,000,000 fewer children in elementary school in 1940 than there were in 1930. On the other hand, enrollments in high school are increasing.

DOIN' THE WORLD'S FAIR

(By Byron M. Fisher)

Turnstiles chattered in merrier swingtime than has been their wont during the last month or more, broad smiles replaced the worried frowns that had wrinkled the faces of Fair officials, and the grounds which had at times been almost deserted teemed once more with people during the last few days and that in spite of a sweltering heat wave. Several reasons were given for the sudden increase in attendance records across the top of the giant cash register in the Amusement Area, but probably the greatest contributing factor was the reduction in entrance fee from seventy-five to fifty cents for the week end, which brought New Yorkers pouring. The first "reduction week end" saw well over 400,000 people shell forth their ducats, whereas 125,000 per day had recently been considered a good week end figure. Succeeding days held up admirably, however, hitting above the 100,000 mark in comparison to recent 75,000 bands. During the first 66 days of the Fair (up until early in July), the average daily attendance was around 85,000. Average daily "gate" was roughly $65,000. And the total gate hit the $4,370,000 mark.

We have long wondered just what per centage of Fair-goers were from New York and what from out-of-town. Accurate figures aren't available, so we decided to do a little snooping. We came to the conclusion that either the out-of-town trade is as great or greater than the local, or else very few New Yorkers come to the Fair in cars. We went to a parking lot and picked out a dozen cars at random. Here's the tale of the license plates: Florida, Missouri, New York, Quebec, New Jersey, Iowa, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Alberta and Ohio.

Last week was "Farm and Home Week," and the conquerors of the soil were monarchs of all they surveyed in the World of Tomorrow. The festivities got away with the "wedding" of Laird Della, the prize bull from the Electrified Farm, and Miss Elsie, attractive young cow from the Borden Milk Exhibit. Much splendor attended the affair, one of the most outstanding weddings of the current social season. Miss Elsie was becomingly clad in a hide which had been carefully groomed for the occasion, while the groom wore an expression of bovine dignity befitting his exalted position in the Fair's livestock world. A series of interesting displays, ceremonies and tours had been arranged for the visiting rural folk. One hundred and fourteen "champion farmers" were honored by the Fair Corporation and signed the distinguished guest book. Each was a champion in some form of agriculture. They came from every corner of the United States. Thousands of Canadian farmers joined hands with their southern brethren of the sod in celebrating the week's events. One unusual contest on the program was a "duck for ducks" affair. Two hundred ducks were freed in the pool on Constitution Mall and the guests waded in and tried to capture them. Another was the weight-guessing contest. Farmers competed for prizes in guessing the weights of cattle, calves and horses. Addressed by distinguished agriculturists and dignitaries in other fields featured the week's program and emphasized the important rules played by farmers in the life of the nation.

If you want something distinctly different in the way of non-alcoholic fruit juices, try a glass of naranjilla juice. It's obtainable at the Ecuador Pavilion for a dime per bottle. Naranjilla is a small greenish fruit of the tomato family which grows in no other country but Ecuador, and there only at an altitude of 6,000 feet. It is very perishable and cannot be exported, but the juice is now being sent abroad by the progressive South American country. The juice is very sweet and very palatable, but aside from that we can't describe it. It's like nothing we've ever come across previously.

A lady came up to a New Brunswick booth attendant the other day and said: "I know New Brunswick. I'm from there. What do you mean by mentioning paved roads? There isn't a mile in the province." The attendant blinked. "My dear woman, practically all of the trunk highways are surfaced with the highest grade asphalt." She snorted. "And that magnetic hill you're talking about is silly. I'll bet you don't know what it's all about." The attendant explained the illusion which causes a motorist to think his car is "backing up hill" very carefully. After some more similar remarks the visitor broke down. "I guess you know your stuff, she admitted. "I was just trying to see if you were some Broadway cowboy who'd been hired for this job, or if you really were a New Brunswicker." Heigh ho! What will they try next on the harassed counter swain?

Fair officials have exercised the utmost care in keeping "fakes" of every kind out of the World of Tomorrow and the freaks on display in "Nature's Mistakes"—living, healthy animals born with some strange deformity—are all on the up-and-up. Most valuable is Dolly, a huge 1500 pound cow who has 2 heads. She breathes and sees with both heads, but can only eat with one of her mouths. Other unusual specimens include cats with only one pair of legs and which resemble kangaroos when standing erect, a horse with two sets of hooves on each foot, a cow with five legs, another with the tail half way up the back and another with the face of a bulldog. Dolly, incidentally, is said to be insured for $100,000.

Commercial vegetable acreage allotments are to be set up in about 125 Texas counties for 1940. No county will be asked to reduce below acreage planted to this crop in the county in 1939. The program, which will be voluntary, merely is intended to keep commercial vegetable acreage from expanding.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

Birds are being given considerable credit for the lack of grasshoppers in West Texas this year. Hordes of hoppers destroyed crops last year, but large flocks of Swainson's hawks and horned larks, as well as thousands of burrowing owls moved in on them and destroyed many of the pests, according to word received by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

Not only did birds destroy vast numbers of grasshoppers, but one game manager observed a flock of Swainson's hawks numbering more than 1,000 feeding on mature hoppers last week and also scratching and digging around in the ground. After the flock flew away he checked the large field closely and was unable to find any egg pods. Thus is shown another good reason why the wildlife of Texas should be protected and why it is worth millions of dollars to landowners as well as sportsmen.

Natural enemies of rattlesnakes continue to take their toll. The latest incident was reported by P. W. Krauter of Medina county, who recently observed a coachwhip snake crawling very slowly in a circle. Approaching closer, Mr. Krauter saw the snake make a quick movement. It grabbed a three-foot rattler about midway of its back and shook it, apparently breaking the rattler's back. After the venomous snake was dead, the coachwhip snake ate it.

Landowners clearing mesquite, chapparal and cedar from their lands should aid the quail crop by leaving numerous brush piles, rather than burning them. Many farmers and ranchers are doing that, it is reported by game managers of the Game Department and birds are moving in rapidly.

A grey fox, not satisfied with the two rats he had captured and was carrying away, pilfered a squirrel from Dr. C. M. Hall of Hico, he reported to the Game Department last week. Dr. Hall shot two squirrels and before he could reach them a fox came along, added one of them to the rats he was carrying and scampered away to his den in the hills along the Bosque River near Hico.

McCulloch county's State Game Warden recently observed a large number of vultures scratching up turtle eggs out of a large sandy beach on the San Sabá River and eating them.

If you have something to sell you have something to advertise.

Ice cream every day! Shucks, he'll DEMAND it, when he finds it costs practically nothing with a Servel Electrolux (gas refrigerator) in the kitchen. You'll keep that big ice tray full of ice cream, or frozen salad, or something all the time. There's a dilly you can stir up in 10 minutes, with whipped cream and pineapple and pecans.

Mrs. Leonard McNutt, of Tuxedo, Texas, says: "It sure is ideal for our country home; gives us ice, cold water, ice cream, frozen salads, fresh vegetables and fresh meats, EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR."

FRESH MEAT! Out on a ranch is where Servel Electrolux really makes friends. You don't need electricity—it runs on kerosene (oil), butane or natural gas. Just a tiny gas or kerosene flame—but it makes ice! Hard to believe, isn't it? But come on in and we'll show you—no wheels, belts, gears, compressors. No moving parts at all, in its whole freezing system. The ONLY automatic refrigerator with no moving parts. Nothing to wear! Nothing to make noise. Nothing to lose efficiency, and pile up big repair and operating bills.

L. J. Gartman Music House

Sales and Service Goldthwaite, Texas

W. M. Puckrus, Denton, Texas, says: "I have had my Servel Electrolux for 5 1/2 years, and have never been out one penny for service or repairs. I prefer Servel Electrolux to any other and as I have the upkeep of 6 ELECTRIC REFRIGERATORS, I feel I am qualified to make this statement."

And Mrs. Jess Prewett, Keller, Texas, says: "I've had mine 6 years, and have never had one thing done to it."

Sounds like it must cost a lot of money, doesn't it? How would you like to get one free? Well, Mrs. H. C. McMillan of Nocona, says, "I have saved enough on groceries to almost pay for my Servel Electrolux—and I don't see how I ever kept house 50 years without it."

And Mrs. Stella Williams, of Stamford, has actually kept books on her savings. She says: "Each month it puts in my pocket $2.25 which I save in leftovers. (Which she used to throw out.) I save about $2.00 a month buying week-end specials (beefsteaks); because they keep perfectly in my Servel Electrolux for a whole week. I save $1.20 a month on milk alone, that used to sour; and save a $4.30 ice bill besides."

Say, that's $9.75 a month! Is your husband too hard-headed to see what these figures mean? If he is, better haze the critter into our store next time you're in town, and leave him to us. He'll never miss the little down payment; and he'll be the biggest cheer-leader you've got, when you get him on that ice-cream diet. But come in now—don't throw away another $9.75 this month.

AAA Cautions Against Planting Too Much Wheat

state extension services — have had invaluable experience and training. Whatever the demands upon agriculture, the organized groups of farmers now in existence can move swiftly, in co-operation with government, to deal with them. For example, the AAA committees are equipped to act quickly to bring about either an increase or decrease in production, and to administer whatever program of action is called for.

"Not only are we organized better in the field of production; We have also gained valuable experience and improved organization in the marketing field. The marketing programs for milk, fruits and vegetables, the purchase and distribution programs, and the food stamp plan can meet the needs ahead much better than they were met in 1914. There can now be better planning, more effective farmer co-operation, and more efficient results in whatever action has to be taken.

"These facts must convince farmers that it will be possible to meet all demands for farm products, that it will be possible to avoid an over-expansion of our farm plant such as occurred during the World War period, and that it will be possible to cushion the shocks of the readjustment which will be inevitable if the present conflict continues over any lengthy period and on any large scale.

"So, again, I urge our farmers not to be swayed by the developments overseas. Their greatest contribution right now to their own welfare and the national welfare is to carry on just as before."

Brother B. F. Renfro, Sr., preached for us Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night. We had a great meeting and feel that the Lord was with us and bestowed great blessings upon us. Those baptized into the church were Mrs. Alvin Brown, of Regency, Mrs. Warren Freeman and Mrs. Albert Reid.

Miss Leola Kelso, who is attending a business college at Brownwood, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Kelso.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Calder, D. L. Cummings and Miss Leola Kelso had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rowell Sunday.

We are still getting our part of the hot, dry days, but are still living in hopes of rain.

About twenty women attended the quilting at Mrs. B. S. Lee's home. Everyone present worked hard and was served a delicious lunch.

Brother B. F. Renfro had dinner in the E. K. Woods home on Sunday.

Mills County Is Represented At W. T. C. C. Museum Institute

District No. 10 Booth at Abilene Institute

Thousands of people from thirty states have learned interesting and important facts about Goldthwaite and Mills county from the Diversified Agriculture display in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Resource and Museum Institute located in Abilene.

The District No. 10 booth, in which Goldthwaite and Mills county are included, is one of the most elaborate booths in the entire exhibit hall.

The display is proof that West Texas is not a one or two crop country, but shows that this section grows profitably many and varied products.

Mills county is shown as a leading producer of several of these products.

The district sponsoring the Diversification booth is known as the Heart of Texas and Hill Country area and is called in the title line of the booth, "The Country's Most Progressive Region for Conservation and Diversification."

Other counties in the district in addition to Mills are Coleman, Comanche, McCullough, Erath, Coryell, Burnet, Llano, San Saba, Gillespie, Blanco, Bosque, Brown, Lampasas, Hamilton, Mason and McLennan. The area of these 17 counties is larger than the state of New Jersey. The population of the district is 315,000.

Products featured in the booth in paintings, colored cutouts, photographs, and on a lighted, moving miniature waterwheel include turkeys, fruits, corn, poultry, dairy products, pecans, peanuts, watermelons, cantaloupes, oats and hogs.

In addition, the area is shown to have large production of cotton, livestock, wheat, wool, mohair, and feed stuffs. The section also has manufacturing and

Will Alaska Prove The New "Promised Land?"

Secretary of Interior Ickes' recently announced suggestion that Alaska be opened for colonization for American citizens and also "artisans now fleeing Europe" has aroused considerable interest and not a little speculation. On his recent trip to Alaska Mr. Ickes was convinced that the development of that country can be as proportionately important to our present economy as the building of the West in the 19th century, adding "it is a matter for serious national concern that Alaska, with a territory, climate and resources equal to all Scandinavia, now has a static population of about 60,000 as compared with a population of 13,000,000 in Scandinavia."

According to a recent report from the Interior Department, the resources of Alaska are very different from those of the United States and can be developed along lines that will not wholesaling establishments with net sales of $142,000,000.

Photographs and paintings also present the section as an ideal place for hunting and fishing.

A map showing the counties in the district is seen at the top of the booth. Paintings show industrial plants, beauty spots, livestock feeding pens, fruit and pecan orchards, peanut fields, and a dairy farm. Photographs show cotton fields and gins, orchards, irrigation scenes, feed fields, horses, hogs, and poultry.

The exhibit hall also contains individual panels of 95 towns, pointing out their special attractions. Goldthwaite is invited to install one of these panels without charge.

The WTCC exhibit hall, located on U. S. Highway 80, one of the most traveled transcontinental highways in the country, is visited daily by many out-of-state people — more than 10,000 from 30 states in the past year. It is a unique advertising and publicity medium for every town and county in West Texas, being the only exhibit hall of its kind in the world.

The hall was designed to give a complete picture of West Texas' vast resources, showing some of its history, its past growth and pointing out opportunities and possibilities for future development. The Diversification booth is one of ten booths in the hall, each showing a major West Texas resource. The other booths are devoted to cattle, wool and mohair, minerals, land, cotton and feed, oil, industries, wheat, and climate.

Thousands of additional tourists are expected to see the hall during the remainder of the summer and numerous school groups will visit the displays this fall.

compete with products of this country. The products of Alaska are in a large part the very products which we now import from Asia and Europe and their development will help to make the United States independent in the event of war. For example, in the northern territory there is tin, and it is a known fact that the United States imports most of its tin; there are enormous forests and it is a fact that three-fourths of the news print used in this country is imported. Also fishing and trapping would reduce the importation of fish and furs. Surely, it would seem that in our great possession of Alaska there is ample opportunity for men and women who have enough of the frontier spirit to be willing to undergo a degree of hard work and perhaps temporary deprivation in this new field of endeavor and opportunity.

Vacation over, the first fall meeting in Miss Scott's office found a large group of eager women ready for the work in hand. Mrs. Fred Reynolds presided and Miss Ruth Ervin read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Sixteen entrants brought two jars each (one fruit and one non acid vegetable) for the Ball canning contest. Miss Scott gave the score card and the ladies judged the entries, selecting the best in six groups. These will go to the county contest.

The next meeting will be with Misses Abbie and Ruth Ervin on Tuesday, September 26, at 2:30.

Present were Mesdames Davis, Sauters, Hunt, Burns, Winsor, Will Rahl, Curtis Long, Joe Long, Eacott, Horton, Marshall Reynolds and Schooler, Misses Abbie and Ruth Ervin and Miss Emma Scott.

Wages Go Up For WPA Hands

Monthly pay for WPA workers in Goldthwaite this month will jump from an average of $26.00 to $35.10 per month, thus putting them for the first time on an equal footing with WPA workers throughout the nation.

There are 39 men now on the roll, three having been dropped for completing 18 months service. This means about $320 a month more income for Mills county families since the increase became effective.

In many sections of the state WPA crews have been laid off to provide farmers with cotton pickers. Special efforts are being made by the administrators to prevent harmful competition between the WPA and industry and agriculture.

It has been pointed out that those who are now lucky enough to be included on the WPA rolls in Texas have a greater cash income than most farmers, besides having easier working hours.

FARM CHANGES HANDS

First Baptist Church

Rev. E. E. DAWSON, Pastor

The Fall of the year with its busy hum and refreshing atmosphere is upon us and it is pleasant to attend church and Bible School. People who attend church are happier than any other, and couples who attend church find less marital trouble and are seldom found in the courts. Boys and girls who attend Sunday School get into trouble less than those who do not attend. Just check upon the young people in this community and you will find the negligent homes have most trouble with the boys and girls. These facts ought to move parents to carry their children to the church services and encourage them in the study of the Bible.

Every once in a while some fellow will complain of the need of "the church cleaning up," and thereby justifying his staying at home. Take a close look and often you will find he or she has been in trouble straying from right ways and he is just trying to make excuses for his misdoings.

There is a place for everybody in our church life. Sunday School meets every Sunday and has a class for every age. The time is 10:00 o'clock. There is a B. T. U., and it, too, has a department that fits every age. It meets at 6:30 o'clock on Sunday evenings. There are two worship services every Sunday, at 11:00 in the morning and 7:30 in the evening. There is a W. M. S. that meets every Monday afternoon, affording women who want to work a channel, pleasant, profitable, inspiring. Everyone is cordially welcome.

PECAN WELLS SERVICES

Next Sunday afternoon there will be an important service at Pecan Wells and all members of the Baptist church there are requested to be on hand promptly at 3:00 o'clock. All others of the community are cordially invited to attend.

Planned Farming Responsible For FSA Loan Payment

W. Roy Tisdale, Farm Security Administration supervisor for Mills County, says that he is often asked, "How can the FSA make loans to farmers who can't get financing from any other source and actually get the money back, with interest?"

"The FSA is doing this right here in Mills County," he said, "and the answer is that our farmers are doing 'planned farming.' Each farmer has worked out a sound farm and home plan that is adapted to the size and character of his farm, to the size and ability of his family, and also to the inclinations and special talents of his family."

"More than eight million dollars have been repaid in Texas in the past three years by farmers who were once on the relief rolls or who were so close that no banker or merchant would give them credit," the supervisor continued. "More than 500 Texas tenant farmers have bought farms without any down payment, and none is seriously delinquent in his repayments."

"Planned farming is responsible for this remarkable record," the supervisor said, "and many farmers reason that if this farm and home plan will put a near-bankrupt farmer back on his feet, it will help also to put a more successful one on the road to still greater success. Mr. Tisdale said copies of the plan could be had by calling or writing to his office, or to the Texas Farm Security Administration office in Dallas.

He warned that the plan at first appears complicated, but that it is simple enough when taken step by step.

60th Wedding Anniversary

Thursday, Sept. 7th, marked the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wallace, of Mullin, a well known couple of Mills county.

They were married in Marion, La., Sept. 7th, 1879, moved to Texas in 1884 and spent four years in Fannin county, near Bonham. They moved to Goldthwaite in 1889 and later settled out in the Miller Grove Community, about five miles northwest of Goldthwaite, where they lived until about 1912 and at that time they moved to Mullin, where they now reside.

They had with them on this occasion their children: Boyd Wallace and family, of San Angelo; Leon Wallace and family, of Sterling City; Mrs. Gaudie Wallace Lonis, of Leander; Mrs. Jenna Wallace Johnson, of Brownwood; Grady Wallace and family, of DeLeon; Clarence Wallace and family, of Leander; Mrs. Dorsey Reed and children and Tom Wallace, of Mullin. Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wallace have 33 grand children and 5 great grand children, including triplet boys in the family of Leon Wallace, of Sterling City.

This couple has lived in Mills county the last 50 years and are well known to almost every person in the county, who congratulate them on having achieved such a long, remarkable, happy married life. They were both well and hearty on this occasion and look forward to several more years of happy wedlock. Mr. Wallace is 83 years of age and Mrs. Wallace is 78.

44 Million Dollar Texas Industry

College Station, September 14.—In poultry, Texas has an industry that grosses around $44,000,000 a year, and the state has come from nowhere in the national picture to rank fifth in number of chickens, fifth in total value of eggs produced, and eighth in value of poultry produced for market.

The industry, often forgotten because of Texas' predominance in the production of cotton and livestock contributes an annual gross equal to the sale of a million bales of cotton at eight cents per pound.

Texas poultry producers have an investment of $13,000,000 in their 24,000,000 chickens, and in 1938 took in $30,000,000 from sale of eggs, $8,500,000 from turkeys, and $5,000,000 from dressed poultry.

home demonstration agents have brought their flocks' average production up to 176 eggs a hen, as compared with the state average of 53.

About 75 000 Texas farm families have no poultry flocks, and with around 50 laying hens required to produce enough eggs for the average family, there is room for an additional 4,000,000 chickens without affecting the market or supplies.

Aside from improvement of breeding flocks and flock management, the big need is for improvement in quality. About one out of every four Texas eggs produced for market is inferior.

This high percentage of inferior eggs not only lowers the price for all Texas eggs but depresses the demand.

Early Turkeys

College Station.—Texas turkey producers, faced with at least one early Thanksgiving, have been warned to begin thinking about getting their birds ready for market.

"I have handled a number of Texas turkeys recently and found many of them thin," Geo. P. McCarthy, poultry husbandman of the Texas A&M College Extension Service, has commented. "If they continue in this condition until market time it will be difficult to dispose of them on the eastern market. Producers should start feeding their turkeys a complete ration by September 15 and have them on full feed not later than October 1. The recommended ration consists of a developing or fattening mash plus grain. Tender green feed will add to the finish of the birds.

Many turkey producers have found that it is a good practice to worm the birds before putting them on full feed. At the same time it may be well to vaccinate against pox, especially in localities where this has been a hazard around marketing time. McCarthy suggests the stab method in the web of the wing, and recommends the pigeon strain vaccine, which gives temporary immunity.

Birds wormed and vaccinated before October 1 will be completely over the treatment before marketing time.

EVEN IF THERE IS A WAR

Readers of the EAGLE who are old enough will remember that during the first World War of 1914 to 1918, business in this country moved along about as usual. In fact, after an initial paralysis, it began a steady improvement that finally culminated more than two years after the Armistice when cotton dropped from 40c to 10c a pound.

During these momentous years, people lived and died, babies were born, crops were raised and sold, businesses were started all much in the same way as they have both before and since.

Sensational newswriters and radio commentators have since combined to create the impression that the new war in Europe will be far worse in its conduct and in its results than anything else in the history of our puny planet.

But the men and women who died in our own Civil War from minie balls and starvation imposed by a drastic blockade loved life just as much as we do. American soldiers who were killed in France in 1918 are just as dead as any who may later lose their lives.

Spain has just emerged from a nightmare in which war took toll of civilians of every sex and age as ruthlessly as it did of men in the ranks. Nothing that Hitler or Goering may spring in Europe can be any worse than what they have rehearsed in Spain. Yet during the past three years Spain published and sold more books than during any previous three years in its history. Books, in fact, were written under shell fire and in bomb shelters and later read under the same conditions.

The truth is that homo sapiens is a pretty hardy branch of creation, and warfare is his accustomed milieu. At least three-fourths of the time covered by recorded history is characterized by warfare. The history of every nation shows that when it has gone for any appreciable length of time without foreign wars, it becomes peculiarly susceptible to civil wars.

We do not condone war in the least. We firmly believe that it is as antiquated as a means of settling international disputes as the sling of David is for winning battles. We long for the time when it will have truly disappeared.

But meanwhile instead of worrying so much over the decline of civilization let's concentrate on making our own little corner of the world a better place to live in.

ADVERTISING PECANS

Texas pecans are about to be presented to the nation in a comprehensive advertising campaign. The experience of the California walnut growers and orange associations has shown what tremendous response may be confidently expected from the widespread advertising of a product as meritorious as our pecans.

The greatest danger we foresee is that of presenting the actual facts about this toothsome delicacy without appearing to be guilty of gross exaggeration.

For in the deliciousness of its taste, the pecan stands unrivaled, and in nutritive value few, if any, other nuts can compare with it.

A great future is in store for this already important branch of horticulture when the many million of Northern and Eastern Americans who are now unacquainted with the taste of Texas pecans are encouraged to sample their peculiar goodness.

Country Editor Likes Texas Best

HENRY FOX, MADISONVILLE TEXAS, NEWSPAPERMAN, NOT IMPRESSED BY THE TOWERS OF MANHATTAN

The country's "best country newspaperman" likes his home town of Madisonville, Texas. (population 2,000), "because if you go into Will Black's barber shop without any money he'll let you pay later."

"Here in New York, they'd probably call a cop—people are so suspicious," added young Henry Fox, editor of the Madisonville Weekly Meteor, who consented to go to New York only because he won the trip, and 500, in competition with 4600 other rural journalists in the County Home magazine's fifth annual competition. He's been in New York before, and is not particularly impressed.

Fox's biggest editorial battle was with the local paper of nearby Frankston, edited by a girl, over a modernistic typographical make-up she instituted. They settled the argument by Fox keeping his style of make-up and marrying the girl.

Through cooperative housing, nearly 400 University of Texas students are receiving an education for the daily "room and board" expenditure of fifty cents. Students operate their own living quarters on a share-the-work basis.

when we got to 1.6 per cent of 12 settin' eggs, we give up, on account of we knew the only way to split a egg is to fry it first."

The editorials have been reprinted by daily papers all over Texas. Fox, 28, quit daily reporting on the Austin, Texas, Dispatch and bought the Meteor two years ago because he likes country life and weekly newspapering better.

Madisonville, he says, has four jail cells, full only on occasional Saturday nights; one cop, who also is in charge of the water supply; and the last time the Meteor had a full-page streamer headline was when they decided not to move the CCC camp away from there. No European crisis, no king-and-queen visits, and the biggest current issue is the federal-state oil conservation program.

Set a Mark to Shoot At

WHEN "SCHOOLBOY ROWE," once the ace hurler of the Detroit Tigers, left the training camp at Lakeland, Florida, this Spring he set a mark for himself. Out of the game because of an arm ailment last year, he has determined to make a comeback. On the wall of the clubhouse at Lakeland he scrawled the number 18, and under it he marked his name. He has set 18 pitching victories as his goal. "Next year," he said, "that will remind Ol' Rowe of what he hoped to do this year."

When a man has a mark to shoot at there is a sparkle in his eye and zest in his step. He knows where he is going and he is on his way. His mind is inspired by an ideal. His energy is focused on a goal.

A famous psychologist points out that the first step toward success is to have a Chief Aim. He suggests that we write out our Chief Aim and read it frequently—that we work and breathe and live and dream that Chief Aim until we make it come true.

Lynwood Rowe's Chief Aim for 1939 is 18 pitching victories. He will put all his heart and nerve and sinew into achieving that goal. Though he may not make a bull's eye, he will come much closer to it than if he had no mark at all. For greater success, for higher achievement this rule is a good one: Set a mark to shoot at!

MICAH: A MESSENGER OF SOCIAL JUSTICE

LESSON TEXT—Micah 3:1-12; 6:8. GOLDEN TEXT—What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?—Micah 6:8.

We demand human rights, social justice, and economic security. Corrupt judges and bribe-taking officials must be put out of office. Landlords must not squeeze every penny out of their tenants; loan sharks must be put out of business; the rich must not oppress the poor. The Church must have ministers with a real message and must share in the solution of the problems of humanity.

No, we did not copy that paragraph out of today's newspaper. It is the message that the prophet Micah preached more than 2,500 years ago. And what's more, he not only presented theories, but he knew how to accomplish his purpose of real social justice. It is time some of those who talk about this subject got back to the Bible and really learned how it can be done.

I. Social Injustice (3:1-10)

The inhumanity of man toward man is not something that just happened. There are fundamental reasons for such conditions, and they are the same in our time as in Micah's day. The responsibility rests squarely on the failure of our national and spiritual leaders to perform their God-given tasks.

1. Rulers without Judgment (3:1-4, 9-10)

The obligation of anyone who is given or who seeks public office is to know judgment. This does not mean only that he is to have a general knowledge of the law and its technicalities; he is to know justice in his very heart, to love it, and to see that it is always rightly administered.

The leaders of Israel had woefully failed, in fact had deliberately departed from the standards of God, and Micah exposed them in plain, dramatic, well-spoken words. While verses 2 and 3 are not to be taken literally, they do in striking figurative speech describe just what unscrupulous politicians do to an unsuspecting people.

2. Prophets with a False Message (3:5-8)

In such a day might one not expect God's messengers to have a word of condemnation for the leaders and of comfort for the people? Not only did they keep quiet about the sin and corruption which they saw about them, but they actually encouraged their prominent and wealthy "church members" in their sin by saying, "All is well." Such religious leaders have not altogether perished from the earth.

Let ministers of God be like Micah, who is described in verse 8 as a man of judgment and justice, because he was "full of power by the Spirit of the Lord."

II. Social Security (3:11, 12; 6: 6-8)

No, that idea was not discovered by the politicians of the 1930's. It has been in the plan of God from the beginning; in fact only in Him is there any real national, personal, or social security. Micah skillfully unmasked false security and revealed the way of true security.

1. False Security and Divine Judgment (3:11, 12)

When the heads of a nation "judge for reward" and its religious leaders "teach for hire" and its prophets "divine for money" (v. 11), there is no use to talk piously about God being with us.

The prophecy of verse 12 was fulfilled three times—by the Chaldeans in 586 B. C., by Titus in A. D. 70, and under Hadrian in A. D. 135. God always keeps His promise, even if the promise be a promise of judgment.

2. True Security and Divine Blessing (6:6-8)

God is not to be propitiated by the offerings of material things as a sacrifice or by any outward profession of piety. He looks at the heart.

Verse 8 is a remarkable and beautiful epitome of God's requirement of man, namely, justice, kindness, and humility; but note that this is the requirement of the law, and one which no man can possibly fulfill apart from Christ. It is evident folly for men to quote this verse as did the agnostic Thomas Huxley and others, to justify themselves for not responding to the claims of the gospel of Christ. Only Christ can make any man capable of true justice, constant kindness, and genuine humility. Only thus can we meet the demands of the law of God.

Real social justice and security will come only as there is a recognition of Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord by the leaders, by the prophets and by the people.

Self Abnegation

NEW DIM TERN By Temple BAILEY PUBLISHING CO. SERVICE

"Baldy, something has happened—and I've got to tell you." Tensely, with her hands clasped about her knees, she rehearsed for him the scene between Adelaide and Frederick Towne. And when she finished she said, "I can't marry him."

Towne, riding like mad along the Virginia roads.

"Utterly miserable." She stared before her. Then presently she went on. "I stayed up-stairs all the morning. Lucy and Edith have been perfect dears. I think Edith lays it to the announcement of my engagement tonight. That I was dreading it. Of course it mustn't be announced, Baldy."

He tried to laugh. "You are jealous." "No," she said, quietly. "It isn't that, although men like you think it is. A woman who has self-respect must know her husband has her respect. Her heart must rest in him."

He wondered why such things happened. Was all of life as sinister as this? Must one always find tragedy at every turn of the road? He had lost his youth, had lost Jane. And now his mother. Was everything to be taken away? Would there be nothing left but strength to endure?

Enclosed was a pink check. Towne blamed Adelaide furiously. Of course it was her fault. Such foolishness. And sentimentality. And he had been weak enough to fall for it.

He had had no lunch, so old Mary fixed a tray for him. He did not eat, but drank some milk. Then he and Rusty took up their restless wandering through the silent rooms.

didn't furnish the implements of war, there would be no war."

America To Suffer

"America will suffer ill effects from the present war. Involved nations will be exhausted economically and financially and our foreign trade will suffer."

"Wars do not settle difficulties. Treaties are harsh and unjust. The conquering nation places a gun against the stomach of the conquered nation. The time to settle difficulties is before the slaughter begins."

Unless a people are wiped off the map as a nation, treaties always take away the things that make up a nation. This runs into additional trouble.

Mr. South brought up the question of what America should do if the so-called democracies lose. "This is in the realm of the possible, but I don't think it will happen. I think the democracies have the backing to win."

How To Keep Pears Fresh

College Station, September 14—Cut pears when exposed to the air rapidly change from a blonde to a brunet fruit, so a safe-guard to pear appearance in canning has been suggested by Grace I. Neely, food preservation specialist for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

"If the pieces of fruit must stand, place them immediately into a solution of two tablespoons each of salt and vinegar to one gallon of water," the specialist advises. "Cook in boiling syrup for four to eight minutes, according to the size and hardness of the fruit. Pack into hot containers and fill with boiling syrup. Process containers of all sizes for 20 minutes in boiling water using plain tin cans or glass jars," she adds.

Pears will have a less astringent taste and will be finer in texture if harvested when mature but still green and permitted to ripen in a cool, dark, well-ventilated room, Miss Neely says.

Since pears are more plentiful this year, provident Texas rural homemakers are making preparations for adding containers of pears to the pantry shelf, the specialist comments.
