Millions Paid To Cotton Farmers

College Station, September 28.—Texas cotton farmers, who are getting their 1939 price adjustment checks at an exceptionally fast clip, are reaping the fruit of simplicity.

B. F. Vance, assistant state administrator, said more than $7,521,454 in 1939 cotton payments had been certified for payment in the last three weeks, and that most of the remaining 13 million dollars due of this series of checks in the state probably will be paid by the middle of October if the present rate of disbursement keeps up.

More than 12 million dollars has been paid out to date in the 1939 cotton price adjustment program.

Main factor in the speedy service, Vance explained, is the use of an exceptionally simple application-for-payment form. It records what the farmer has done to qualify for payment.

As many as 8,500 of these forms have been audited and certified here in a single day, and rarely has an application spent more than 3 days in the state office before going to the disbursing agency in Dallas, Vance added.

"The accuracy which has characterized the work in county offices has been helpful," Vance said. "And of course the simple application form would not have been possible had there been any fundamental changes in the farm program, from 137 to '39, as there had been from year to year during the program's previous history."

District Court Convened Monday By Judge Brewster

The regular term of District Court of Mills County was begun September 25th, Monday, with Hon. Few Brewster, judge of the 27th district, presiding, and Hon. Jas. K. Evetts, district attorney, present.

R. M. Haynes is foreman of the grand jury. Other jurors were H. H. Cockrell, Carl Letbetter, Thom Huckabee, W. P. Duren, Enoch Godwin, Landy Ellis, Ed Rost, A. E. Egger, M. T. Burnham, D. D. Henry and C. W. Batchelor.

Ten indictments were returned by noon Tuesday and the jury adjourned. Judge Few Brewster left for his home at Temple Wednesday night. He will return next Monday.

Criminal cases have been set for Monday. The jury commissioners appointed were: O. H. Yarborough, L. W. Wigley, Lee Walton to select names for the grand and petit jury panels for the May term of court.

Jury Refuses To Break Will In Guthrie Case

A hotly contested legal battle in which relatives of Mrs. James Guthrie, of Mullin, sought to break her will in which her estate was left to her niece and the niece of her deceased husband, closed at ten p. m. Wednesday. The jury found a verdict for the proponents of the will who were represented by attorneys J. C. Darroch, of Brownwood, and Ed Gilliam, of Goldthwaite.

The contestants were represented by O. C. Fisher and Hardean, Hughes and Wilson, of San Angelo. A previous trial at the preceding term of court resulted in a hung jury.

Cotton Referendum Set for December 9th

College Station, September 28.—Faced with a tremendous cotton surplus, 800,000 Texas cotton farmers are invited to go to the polls, December 9, to cast their votes in a South-wide referendum to decide whether cotton marketing quotas will be in effect for 1940.

In setting a national marketing quota of approximately 12 million bales during the marketing year beginning August 1, 1940, Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace pointed out the quota was mandatory under the Agricultural Adjustment Act when total supplies reach 107 per cent of the normal supply.

The supply of cotton on hand August 1 amounted to 25,500,000 bales, according to the Department of Agriculture, or 140 per cent of the "normal" supply of 18,200,000 bales.

Unless the cotton farmers themselves vote for continuance of quotas, they will not be in effect next year, Wallace said. The quota for 1940 is the same as for 1939 which was approved by 84.1 per cent of the producers in the referendum last year.

Regardless of the outcome of the referendum, conservation phases of the Agricultural Conservation program will be continued.

Of the producers voting, at least 75 per cent must favor continuance of the marketing quota for it to remain in effect.

"Marketing quotas are meant to supplement the conservation program by assuring farmers planting within their acreage allotments their efforts to adjust supplies will not be nullified by non-cooperators," George Slaughter, chairman of the State Agricultural Conservation Committee, pointed out.

If marketing quotas are in effect, a non-cooperator will be required to pay a penalty of three cents per pound on all cotton sold in excess of the marketing quota set for his farm, Slaughter explained. Farmers planting within their acreage allotments will be able to market all their cotton without penalty.

In a recent opinion, Federal Judge James V. Allred, of Houston, declared marketing quotas were legal in the first suit to reach the courts testing their legality.

Safety Signs Asked For County Roads

Austin, September 28.—The Texas Safety Association this week asked county commissioner courts to earmark a small portion of their forthcoming bond redemption funds for the erection of warning signs, similar to those on state maintained highways, at recognized danger spots on lateral roads.

"A statewide survey covering the first six months of this year reveals the alarming fact that fatal accidents increased 121 per cent on secondary unmarked roads over the same period in 1938, while a 9.5 per cent reduction was recorded on properly marked highways," George Clarke, executive secretary of the Association, pointed out in his letter to each county judge in the state.

"Obviously the county commissioners' courts are anxious to apply their pro rata share of this approximately nine million dollars to the most urgent and beneficial purposes. Expenditure of a small part of the fund for the preservation of lives and property of local motorists would return unestimable dividends to each community. This conviction of the Association is based on previous experience.

"Proof that warning signs of sharp curves, narrow bridges, intersections and other traffic hazards mean a big difference in the vehicle death ratio is shown in a statistical study showing that in Texas the secondary road has a ratio of one death for each four persons injured while the ratio on properly marked roads is only one to eight and in cities where maximum protection is provided, the death ratio drops one to thirteen," he concluded.

Monday, October 2, will be observed as Trades Day in Goldthwaite, and in this same issue of The Eagle will be found the advertisements of merchants who are offering special bargains for the day.

With the World War sending prices of most staple articles of merchandise skyrocketing, the special prices offered Monday are doubly valuable. No one knows what the same articles will cost even one month from Monday, but judging from the past two weeks, they are sure to be higher.

Special attendance prizes are also being offered by the merchants as an added attraction.

Band Will Play at Wood

States Marine Band musical order of the world, the "Band," is commencing its season in Goldthwaite. The band will play at the Wood on Monday night, September 29, at 8 o'clock. The band is composed of 12 members and will be directed by Mr. J. W. Smith. The band is a part of the States Marine Band and will be playing at the Wood on Monday night, September 29, at 8 o'clock.

Mills County Man Boomed For Governor

Raymond Brooks, astute political commentator of the Austin Statesman, suggested Monday that Homer C. DeWolfe, former Goldthwaite attorney, is being discussed as a possible candidate for governor next year. Brooks wrote:

"Homer C. DeWolfe, former member of the legislature from Goldthwaite, then assistant attorney general with Atty. Gen. James V. Allred, now is a member of the state board of education, and a lawyer engaged in general practice at Austin.

"Reports that he is being discussed as a candidate for governor, recorded here recently, echo back so that it is obvious they were not just the casual mention of a name.

"It seems probable that a group of unknown extent may be doing a rather extensive job of discussing DeWolfe for the race and of feeling out sentiment among friends of the group. This much is certain, that the discussion is not inspired personally by DeWolfe. He hasn't had anything to say on the subject.

"Beyond suggestions of individuals, there has been the usual mid-season talk about 'coalition' and 'fusion' tickets for 1940.

C. C. Collier's Dairy Is Entirely Modern

Grade A milk produced in complete accordance with the rigid sanitary requirements of the Texas State Board of Health is now being produced here in Goldthwaite by Collier's Dairy. This week the EAGLE Editor, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin, had the pleasure of inspecting this model, electrically operated dairy.

Being on the REA line, the dairy makes use of electricity in a dozen ways, from milking the cows to cooling and bottling the milk.

Even the milking tubes are sterilized by electricity.

There are 32 fine, healthy cows in Collier's herd. When milking time comes, they are led into the cement-floored, spotlessly clean milking barn. The cow's udders are carefully washed before the electric milking machine is connected, and there is no possibility for the milk to become contaminated in any way as it is piped through the cooler and is bottled in sterilized bottles and placed in a huge electric refrigerator until delivery time.

It is a decided asset to Goldthwaite to have this fine dairy located here and it is a satisfaction to be able to buy Grade A milk with full knowledge that it is worthy of the name.

Cotton Crop Light Again This Year

Despite perfect picking conditions, the Mills County cotton crop it now appears will be very little larger than last year's record low crop.

To date only about 175 bales of cotton have been ginned in Goldthwaite and indications are that the total will not exceed 300 bales.

Paper To Fight Mounting Taxes

Tax bills paid by the people of Texas during the 1938 fiscal year amounted to $6 a week per family, according to a new State-wide publication, The Taxpayers Digest, a preliminary number of which was issued this week.

The new semi-monthly publication, described as a "Texas journal of accurate news and pertinent comment relating to the public revenue—local, State, and national," is published by The Taxpayers Research Bureau, Dallas, with Peter Molyneux, widely known Texas editor, author, and economist as editor. Booth Mooney, of Dallas, associated with M. Molyneux in the publication of The Texas Weekly, is associate editor of the paper.

Mission of the new tax newspaper, according to Mr. Molyneux, is to help the average man to study and understand the fact that the Texas tax bill has been growing steadily during the last 15 years, and is still growing.

"The revenue of the state government of Texas raised by taxation during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, amounted to $111,650,527," Mr. Molyneux said, "and that of all the local governments of the state amounted to $120,683,286. The Taxpayers Research Bureau estimates the federal taxes paid by the people of Texas during that year as not less than $221,000,000. This is given as an extremely conservative estimate, but assuming it to be approximately correct, and adding it to the total of state and local taxes, it appears that the total tax bill of the people of Texas for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, was not less than $450,000,000.

On that basis the people of Texas during that year paid the equivalent of approximately $6 a week per family in Texas. And a large percentage of the people of the state paid that amount or much more," he concluded.

System of Gauges To Help LCRA In Operation of Dams

Fort Worth—A system of river and rain gauges new in the southwest will help the Lower Colorado River Authority operate its four dams with maximum efficiency in the interest of flood reduction and power production when the $22,350,000 Public Works Administration project is completed next year.

Now installed and maintained by the U. S. Geological Survey and the authority are 13 river gauges measuring the foot second flow of the lower Colorado and its tributaries. The cost of maintaining these gauges is relatively high since they must be constantly checked due to changes in the river channel.

The gauges, PWA engineers said, are shortly to be supplemented in some cases by radio signaling devices which will automatically inform the offices of the authority in Austin of changes in river stages.

In addition to the river gauges 34 rainfall gauges have been established in the lower Colorado watershed and report regularly to Austin. Some of the gauges are 300 or more miles away from the authority's dams.

ARE THERE ANY QUESTIONS?

(This information service on education is brought to you by special arrangement with Teachers College, Columbia University, New York City. Questions on education may be submitted through this newspaper.)

Question: Should girls in junior high school engage in all the sports that the boys do?

Reply: Because the muscular strength of girls is from 20 to 40 per cent less than that of the average boy of the same age and size, and because girls have generally smaller lungs and hearts, physical educators believe that great care should be taken to prevent harmful excessive activity. Basketball, hockey and other sports where there is an unusual amount of running or competition are likely to involve excessive activity. If these sports are engaged in, they should be informal with rests whenever the participants become tired.

On the other hand, there is no evidence for the statement commonly made that girls should not engage in such sports as high jumping or broad jumping where there is a certain amount of landing shock.

Experiments are being made in modification of boys games and sports for the use of girls. These modified sports should be particularly applicable to girls of junior high school age.

Question: The pupils in my classes in Civics are studying occupations so as to make more intelligent choices of lines of work when they graduate. Please tell me where I can find information about the conditions, requirements, and rewards in the following fields: Radio, Diesel Engine Operation, Interior Decoration, Aviation.

Reply: There are a number of books and pamphlets which set forth the conditions found in these occupations. Pamphlets at slight cost may be obtained from the following: Institute for Research, 537 Dearborn Street, Chicago; Occupational Index, Inc., N. Y. University, Washington Square, New York City; NYA offices in various states.

Standard bibliographies relating to various occupations are: "Books About Jobs" by W. E. Parker, American Library Association, Chicago, 1936; "Occupations and Vocational Guidance; A Source of Pamphlet Material" by Wilma Bennett, H. W. Wilson Co., New York, 1936.

Question: My six-year-old son is ungovernably wild at home especially with his four-year-old brother. I have spoken to his teacher for advice, but she tells me in surprise that he is amazingly shy in school. What can I do to bring about a more normal behaviour for him at home and at school?

Reply: In all probability your son's behaviour arises from jealousy of his younger brother. Jealousy is very common when youngsters of the same sex are as close in age as your two boys. One would need to know a good deal more about the relations of the boys to give a definite answer, but all the earmarks are present. Even the shyness at school may be a reaction based on feeling of inadequacy arising from his feeling about the younger boy.

In order to remedy this, an understanding of the relationships of the boys is of first importance, says Dr. E. G. Osborne of Teachers College, Columbia University. Is the younger lad more attractive, more intelligent, has he been given more attention by members of the family and others? These and many similar questions are the ones which must first be explored. If a clear picture of these relationships can be built up and some indication of the feeling between the two boys secured, then parents are in a better position to

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

Austin, Texas, September 28th.—Despite a drouth which reduced the range, deer are going to be plentiful and in good shape when the hunting season rolls around November 16, early reports to the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission indicate.

Deer are increasing annually in the Lone Star State. In fact, their numbers are so large in some sections that there would have been a shortage of food for them even had there been no drouth. This condition has existed over a period of several years and Game Department biologists, after considerable research have reached the conclusion that the deficiency of food has brought about smaller deer. Many persons had expressed the belief that inbreeding was the cause.

Deer are afflicted with several diseases and are victims of ticks, but investigations being carried on by the Game Department biologists indicate that malnutrition is the cause of most of the deaths to Texas deer, although it was believed by many that ticks were the direct cause of fatalities.

All in all, and in spite of the drouth, deer appear to be in excellent health this fall and are spreading into several counties in the State which had not raised them for many, many years.

How'd you like to catch a 208 pound gar? That is the thrill Verdell Childers, of San Augustine got recently while fishing in the Angelina river. The gar is the largest reported in Texas.

The Texas Game Department's campaign to get oil companies to return the salt water their wells produce to the ground is gaining steady headway, the Director announced. More than a dozen companies are now following that practice. When all of them adopt the plan, Texas will have more fish in its streams, the Director pointed out.

Sportsmen in most regions of Texas are taking advantage of a bumper crop of doves this season and early indications are that the Lone Star State's nimrods who thrill at following a good dog are going to have better quail hunting than in a number of years.

Albinos continue to show up in Texas. The latest is a snow-white skunk which has been seen by several persons in Crockett county, the warden for that region reports. Several persons have been within two yards of the animal and they believe it does not boast a single black hair. As yet, no one has been venturesome enough to catch the decide what should be done.

It may be that the six-year-old needs to be given more responsibility so that he feels "grown-up" and won't be so strongly in competition with his brother. If there are playmates of his own age available, he should have opportunity to play with them. Some parents try too hard to have brothers and sisters always together. Special trips on which only the older boy is taken may help to restore a more wholesome feeling about himself. The main thing is to see that no feeling of competition arises between the two boys. If one can avoid comparison, can see to it that each child has sufficient opportunity for expression of his interests and abilities, and can provide a calm and affectionate atmosphere, such behaviour will usually disappear or at least be modified.

Dame Nature has many unusual ways of aiding her children, but one of the most unique is reported by the Game Department's chief aquatic biologist. The alligator snapping turtle gets part of its food through subterfuge. It sinks to the bottom of a stream or lake and while remaining perfectly quiet, extends its tongue, which has an appendage closely resembling both in size and color an earthworm. Fish swim along, spot the "worm" and seize it, being in turn grabbed by the turtle, which makes a meal of it.

Out-of-state hunters who purchased only $2 resident hunting licenses during the last two years are the object of a quiet investigation started by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission recently. The campaign to save Texas game for Texans or force out-of-state sportsmen to pay in proportion for the game they get through the purchasing of a $25 license, as the law directs, is beginning to bear fruit. Now all persons who hunted on any of the 1,400 licensed game preserves in the state the last two seasons are being checked and charges have been filed against many out-of-state residents who have cheated Texas' sportsmen through their purchasing of a resident license or none at all.

Some of these illegal hunters have been taking their limit of deer or turkeys on one shooting preserve, shipped it out of the state and then going on to another preserve to get more, the executive secretary pointed out.

If they shipped the game out of the state, the Federal government can bring them back to Texas under the terms of the Lacey Act, which regulates interstate shipment of wild game. Under that act they can be made to pay a maximum fine of $1,000

Only Good Chickens Are Dead Chickens, Bus Passenger Learns

An air-conditioned bus, bound for Louisiana, liberally posted with signs prohibiting transportation of pets and livestock, was idling along in East Texas when there came the familiar "cut-cut-aw-cut" of a chicken. The bus driver pulled off to the side of the road.

"Who's carrying that chicken?" he demanded.

"It's me, boss," a Negro passenger said. "Can I take him if he's daid?"

"Yes, if he's dead. Otherwise both you and the chicken unload."

The negro took the paper sack in which he had the rooster and stepped outside.

"All right, boss," he said as he returned a few seconds later. "He's daid now."

By Mrs. J. M. Oglesby

Brother Hester preached Sunday at the morning hour and announced plans were being made whereby we will have services at the Methodist Church two Sundays in each month, instead of one. For some time the Baptist people have had half time and all recognize that on church days attendance at the Sunday School increases. Mr. John Leach, father of Mrs. Jack Welch, died at his home in the Pecan Wells community last Saturday and was buried in the cemetery at that place Sunday afternoon. We deeply sympathize with the family left to mourn his untimely death. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Aldredge dined with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robertson Sunday in the Live Oak community, and in the afternoon all visited Mr. T. Robertson at Rock Springs. Prof. and Mrs. Huggins returned Sunday from Waco, where they held a ten day singing school. They expect to attend the Coryell County Singing Convention at Mother Neff Park, south of Oglesby, next Sunday. Fayne Coffman is attending A. & M. College and is well pleased with his work. Miss Wilma Lee is beginning her second year at Howard Payne and is well pleased, except for the fact that she is lonely without her old school mate, Miss Hulda Carter. Hulda is in Houston with her sister, Mrs. Price and family. J. P. Booker and son, Tom, and family, are preparing to move back to their place here next week. Mrs. Walter Simpson spent Thursday with Mrs. J. M. Oglesby. Bill Elliott and family are at home after spending some time with his brother in Goldthwaite. Mrs. J. M. Geeslin visited Mrs. Thos. Atchison Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blackwell, James Owens and John Mohler Oglesby visited in the Hollis Hendry home Sunday. We were delighted to meet our old friends, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Rock Springs
By Mrs. Eula Nickols

Brother J. C. Wade preached two good sermons Sunday morning and Sunday night. He and his family spent Saturday night with J. F. Davis and wife. They dined Sunday at noon with Mrs. Maggie Traylor. They ate supper with Jack Robertson and wife. They left for their home in Brownwood after church Sunday night. Our neighbor, J. T. Robertson, is still staying in bed. Lots of his friends came to see him last week and Sunday. We were sorry to hear that Dr. Campbell lost his crib of corn by fire last week. Also sorry Barton Keese's home burned early Sunday morning. Monday afternoon C. H. Ford and wife, Mesdames Tas Renfro and Glenn Nickols, from town, and Miss Besse Hutchings, from Center Point, visited in the Nickols home. The ladies helped to quilt. Several of the neighbors visited in the Robertson home on Sunday. Ira Aldredge and wife and Walter Robertson and family, from Center Point, and Jim Tullios and wife and father, from Mullin, also visited in the home. Mr. Parrish went to Big Valley to church Sunday and Sunday night. Billie Ruth Daniel spent Sunday in Big Valley with some of her friends. Mrs. Mary Faulkner is having her fence fixed. She is putting up net wire. R. C. Terry is doing the work. J. T. Stark and Gordon Salters completed Mrs. McClary's cabin at the lake this week. We hope to get our telephone line fixed soon. Since Earl Fairman is fixing his fence along where our line was tied to some of his posts, we are not bothering central at all. Jack Kirby from town ate dinner with Jack Robertson and wife Sunday. James Nickols is helping Otis Hutchings to weatherboard his house this week. M. R. Circle and wife, Mrs. Shipman and Sam Self and wife spent Sunday with Dewey Bohannon and wife in Big Valley. They reported lots of fish for dinner, besides other good eats. Shirley Nickols and wife were dinner guests in Mrs. Maggie Traylor's home Sunday. They ate supper with Mrs. Nickols. Landy Ellis and wife visited in the J. F. Davis and J. T. Robertson homes Sunday. Alvin Oglesby and family brought fish and squirrel to Carl Woods' Sunday for dinner. That is the kind of company to have—when they can bring in the food. Ebert Pierce is being missed by his parents and friends since he has gone off to school. V. D. Tyson, Jr., and family and Dorothy Tyson visited Saturday morning in the Nickols home. Roth Robertson, from Big Valley, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Oliver Traylor. W. A. Cooke and son, Horace, and grandson, visited in the Koen home Sunday at Caradan with Herbert and wife. George Hamett and family, from Munday, Texas, spent Saturday night in the Stark home. They had been in Austin to see his parents. His father is in bad health. Last Friday Otis Hutchings took his sister and Mrs. Ira Hutchings and Mrs. Eula Nickols to Brownwood. They enjoyed dinner with Mesdames Bettie Bouden and Kate Baird and son. In the afternoon they all had their fortunes told, which was very thrilling. It makes them all want to live longer, as bright as things are ahead for each one of them. C. O. Stark and family, from Center Point, failed to find the Self family at home Sunday afternoon, so they visited in the Roberts home. V. D. Tyson and family, from Center Point, and Dwight Nickols and wife, from town, visited Sunday afternoon with James Nickols and family. Saturday night W. A. Cooke and children, Joe Davis and family and Mrs. Eula Nickols and C. O. Stark and family, from Center Point, visited in the Stark home. Star
By Mrs. Dora Goode

Its lovely weather now. No rains sufficient yet for fall greens. Cotton season is on, gins running, everybody snatching lint. And that brings to memory a time that is made real as I see cars and trucks of home folks go by laughing and singing to the cotton fields. Cotton picking is always a happy time for talk, laughter and fun, and health, in the open, gathering the fleecy staple. A tragedy happened in our garden the other day. A large tomato worm was busy trimming up a tomato plant when a blow fly, sauntering along, spied him. The fly suddenly put on his brakes, banked a bit, nosed dived and made a puncture on the back of the unsuspecting worm. In quick reverse action the fly wheeled away, but made a sudden dart again at the worm as it doubled to avoid attack. The combat kept on fiercely, the worm scrambling from limb to limb. All the while the gardener, looking on, wondered if the fly was getting dinner or hunting a nest. Unable to decide he ended the misery of the much punctured worm. We don't have so many birds this fall. Seems nearly all have gone. Maybe they have a premonition, like the golden breasted swallows of California, who broke a record leave in 100 years this year. A son has recently arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clary. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Witty, of Del Rio, and James Witty, of San Antonio, are visiting home folks. Mrs. John Shelton, of Daisetta, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. T. E. Hamilton. Olin Langford and family, of Goldthwaite, and Earnest Langford and family, of Brownwood, were visitors at the home of Fred Langford. The quarterly conference was well attended Sunday night from the various points on the charge, and Dr. Cooke preached a wonderful sermon on "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God."

HUDDLE

By The Bench Warmer

That was Bob Cassels who intercepted the Bear Cat pass on the third play of the second half last Friday night, and young Bob knew what to do with himself, judging by the way he tucked the ball under his arm and went for that goal line for the Eagles' second touchdown and making the score 13 - 0. The distance was 30 yards and he made it untouched, thanks to one resounding block by left end Alton Rose.

That little touchdown via the interception route proved to be one of the two big breaks of the game for the Eagles and, needless to say, they made the most of both.

The other big break came after DeLeon's offense was checked on the 10 yard stripe when Darwin Denison, kicking from behind his own goal line, got off a booming punt that went over the Bearcat safety man and with a good roll amounted to about 75 yards. Soon after this the Eagles recovered a fumble and went on to pay-dirt in a series of downs. A beautifully executed pass on fourth down from McLean to Smith got the first six points. The identical play was also good for the extra point.

The DeLeon key man, Ash, lived up to his advance notices by being a constant threat, and a very busy night by the Eagle ends was all that kept him from going to town.

On defense the outstanding player for DeLeon was their right tackle, whose name we think was Kay, but we can't be sure of that as the DeLeon coach went to the trouble of changing the numbers of his players prior to the game.

It is a hard task to designate the individual stars for the Eagles as the entire crew gave a good account of themselves. The team-play was evident as in the first game and playing as such they are the scrappiest bunch of kids Goldthwaite has ever had. To mention a few of the Eagles and not take any credit from all of the others, we would name Aubrey Smith as the most consistent player on the field for the night. From his signal calling post he turned a game that was a beauty, both from a defensive and an offensive standpoint. Taking in a lot of territory, we would say the best game of his high school career thus far, and may he have many more nights as he had last Friday. We remember this lad going in as a freshman when hardly big enough to fill out his football suit. He has come a long way since then by hard work and consistent efforts and we feel he is one of the best players turned out by the local institution since they started playing football.

As the outstanding lineman, we nominate Sammie Graves, 135 pound guard, who asks no quarter and gives none. His breaking through the Bearcat front wall on the 10 yard line and throwing the ball carrier for a loss was only one of the high spots of his play.

The best end on the field was Alton Rose.

The most improved player over past performances was reserve tackle Elvin Head, who packs a lot of pounds and is learning how to use them.

Charley McLean, although handicapped from the first half on, showed the Bearcats some side stepping and broken field running they won't forget for a long time.

The Eagles got a breathing spell this week end by having an open date in their schedule before taking on the strong Methodist Home team of Waco here next Friday night, October 6th. This Methodist team defeated Hamilton last Friday night 13-0.

There will be a game here this week, however, on Saturday night, when the reserves or "B" team plays Lometa High School at 8 o'clock. This game will give the local fans a chance to see the future stars of the Eagles in action and will be a good contest

Garden Club Met Wednesday, 20th

The Goldthwaite Garden Club met Wednesday, September 20th, 1939, at 3:30 o'clock, for its first regular meeting of the year at the Yarborough Lodge at Lake Merritt.

During the course of the business meeting, the club gave a rising vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fairman for a gift of $25. to the Commissioner's Court for the purchasing of the $100 electric pump installed on the court house lawn to assist in the beautification project, to Fairman and Company for the discount on the same pump that amounted to $42, and for getting the chairs to and from the court house lawn for Play Night, September 8th, and to Mr. M. Kessler for arranging the lights for the same occasion.

Mrs. John Berry and Mrs. L. E. Miller reported interesting facts of the Heart of Texas district meeting held at Brady September 13th. Between 150 and 400 Brady citizens heard Mr. R. C. Morrison, director of the Southern Town Institute, during the luncheon hour at Hotel Brady. Goldthwaite was represented in the "highway" table decorative theme by a miniature replica of rose garden on Fisher Street.

The 1939-40 Garden Club calendars were given to each member and a round table discussion of the past year's work and accomplishments and of the coming year's work, followed.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, refreshments were served to these members: Mrs. Kate Marshall, L. E. Miller, W. E. Miller, Mamie Windsor, Mac Horton, R. V. Littlepage, H. B. Johnson, J. H. Randolph, Jim Cochran, Luther Rudd, R. M. Thompson, Bruce Burnett, Earl Clements, Jim Weatherby, John Berry, J. J. Stephen, O. H. Yarborough, J. Palmer, Fred Stephens, Marsh Johnson, and Misses Ruth and Abbie Ervin and Emma Scott.

Junior Forum

The club met in the home of Nettie Ruth Brucks, Wednesday, September 20th.

Eighteen members were present and one visitor. The attendance showed that someone had been working. Twenty-one is the limited enrollment. Let's try to have 100 per cent present at the next meeting.

It was decided that the club shall meet on the first and third Wednesdays of the month.

A short business meeting was held and a recorder's assistant was elected.

Get High Priced Eggs This Fall Here's How . . .

1. Be sure to house pullets ten days or more before laying begins.
 2. Have laying house clean, well-ventilated and roomy (allow four square feet per bird.)
 3. If housing conditions are good, do not allow the birds to range, for a later change to confinement often lowers production.
 4. Do not put pullets with older hens.
 5. Be sure to have plenty of feeder and water space. Keep feeders full of our MID-TEX EGG MASH at all times. This mash furnishes a rich supply of the hard-to-get minerals. On such a mash your pullet flock can do its best for the WHOLE SEASON, free from molts, colds and costly death losses, due to nutritional breakdown.

"I hope that the United States will keep out of this war. I believe that it will. And I give you assurances that every effort of your Government will be directed toward that end. As long as it remains within my power to prevent, there will be no blackout of peace in the United States."

—President Roosevelt. (Address to the Nation, Sept. 3, 1939)

TWO-FACED

Frank E. Gannett, newspaper publisher of Rochester, N. Y., is one of the most persistent and severe critics of President Roosevelt, but he does not allow his politics to interfere with his business. For example:

POLITICS

With great emphasis Mr. Gannett, who publishes 15 newspapers in New York State and one each in Connecticut, New Jersey and Illinois, in a recent speech declared: "We find ourselves in a worse position than when President Roosevelt took office," although on that day every bank in the country was closed. "Restore," he implored, "that surging FREE America we once had." Basing his demand on his personal fear that the great, middle class "faces destruction" because of New Deal policies, Mr. Gannett last winter solemnly called upon President Roosevelt to resign.

On August 10th, in a statement cheering the defeat of the self-liquidating loan bill, he said: "His (Mr. Roosevelt's) spending program... proved a trade failure. It... burdened all business activities, checked recovery and endangered the whole future of our constitutional government." (Mr. Gannett also is the head of the National Committee to Uphold the Constitution.)

Commenting on this contradiction Charlie Michelson, Democratic press chief, pointedly remarks:

"The public will see something even more significant than repudiation in the Gannett full-page ad. of what Candidate Gannett invariably claims in his political and constitutional addresses to American voters. That is the emphasis on what gets into 'coffers' without thought to what gets into the stomachs of the unemployed destitute. That phase of 'Roosevelt-ruin' has no appeal to reactionary Republicans in whatsoever form they address the public."

NOT MUCH DIFFERENCE

The Editor has received through the courtesy of Olmsted-Kirk Company, Texas paper supply house, a reprint of "The Arkansas Traveler," printed at Conway, Arkansas, on July 20, 1876.

This issue is noted because it contains a graphic account of the massacre of General Custer and his soldiers by the Sioux Indians on the Little Big Horn and the death of General Santa Anna, the conqueror of the Alamo, in Mexico.

This was the year that Tilden and Hendricks were nominated by the Democrats for the presidency and vice-presidency, and the editorial page of the Traveler "pours it on" President Grant and the Republican candidate, Hayes. In the announcement column of the paper is a full list of candidates from president down to county

BUSINESS

But nine days later, in its issue of August 19 and as Mr. Gannett was continuing his warnings that the Roosevelt Administration was ruining business, Editor and Publisher, organ of the newspaper publishing industry, carried a full-page advertisement of the Gannett newspapers which repudiated the charge of the publisher. "Prosperity Headlines Are Rolling Out From Rochester, N. Y.," is the heading over this tribute to improved business under Roosevelt. Some samples of headlines from the Gannett Times Union and Democrat and Chronicle: "Power Sale Hits Record," "Department Store Sales Up," "Business Gains on Three Fronts," "Business Climb Continues as July Shows Steady Gains," etc. Then prominently displayed in the Gannett ad is this proud announcement: "Award of Federal Government contracts to five Rochester and Area manufacturers GUARANTEES no August letdown." Also: "The Food Stamp Plan initiated in Rochester May 16 (by the U. S. Department of Agriculture), to increase sales of surplus farm products, had poured $478,473 into the coffers of Rochester food merchants by July 31."

Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt Sees No Signs of Un-Americanism

One of the most travelled citizens in the country, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, has seen no evidences of subversive or un-American activities.

"One can, of course, always hear stories of Communist and Fascist meetings and activities," she says, "but it does not seem to me that these groups have any real hold on the people."

Mrs. Roosevelt declares she is not "foolish enough" to believe it impossible for these groups to increase, but thinks there is little to fear from their influence "if all of us make an effort to live our democracy day to day."

Writing on her monthly question and answer page in The Democratic Digest, publication of the Women's Division, Democratic National Committee, the President's wife says she has seen all kinds of places, people and conditions, and in her opinion the number of Communists has "not increased greatly in the past few years." Only on rare occasions, after a lecture, has she been asked a question which might indicate the questioner belonged to a Communist group.

The condition of migratory workers might be improved by organizing these workers so it would be possible to know in advance the approximate number coming to any locality during any harvest season, the First Lady writes in answer to another question. Mobile schools and better camp conditions could then be provided.

In the case of industrial workers, Mrs. Roosevelt suggests "better cooperation between state and Federal employment services to give better opportunities for finding work" and an improvement of skills of the workers.

England is said to be about ready to invade Egypt. The French author, George Sand, has created a sensation in Paris by wearing male attire and smoking cigarettes.

And all this took place more than sixty years ago!

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for October 1

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

THE INFANCY OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 2:13-23. GOLDEN TEXT—And they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.—Matthew 1:23.

Looking forward to an experience in life which promises to be both interesting and profitable always brings a glow of expectation. Something of that spirit should pervade the Bible schools of our land as they begin a six-months study in the Gospel of Matthew.

Consideration of our Lord's life properly starts with the story of His birth, but we reserve that for our Christmas lesson. Today we stress the manner in which the Child Jesus was received into the world. Men then as now, were either for Him or against Him. God had only one attitude, that of loving protection and preparation of His Son for His ministry.

I. Christ in the World of Men.

The world of today is far different from that of the first century, but the difference is all on the outside. Almost breath taking have been the developments of modern civilization, but these have not changed the heart of man. He still fears and hates and fights and sins. His attitude toward Christ is unchanged. There are still only two classes of people in the world—those who have received Christ and are saved, and those who have rejected Him and are lost.

1. Against Christ. How do men show their rejection of God's Son? Just as they did at His birth, by: a. Fear. Herod was afraid lest the coming of this one should result in the loss of his ill-gotten gains. His anger and fear made all Jerusalem afraid. b. Indifference. When the Wise Men asked where Christ was to be born, the priests and scribes knew exactly where to find the facts in the Holy Scriptures, but having done so, they relapsed into utter indifference. They had no interest in the fulfillment of the prophecy. c. Hatred. Herod poured out the violence of his heart by killing the first-born. He was the first of many who have raged against the Christ in futile anger. d. Sorrow. The tears of the mothers of Jerusalem but foreshadowed the weeping and wailing which characterizes Christ-rejection both in time and eternity.

2. For Christ. Thanks be to God, there were those in that day who were for Christ and, like those who follow Him today, they showed: a. Spirituality. Men have marveled that the Magi knew of the birth of Christ. They must have studied the prophecies of the Word and been responsive to the teaching and moving of the Holy Spirit. Can we say as much for ourselves? b. Interest. Not content to know and to marvel, they shamed the priests of Israel by their persistent interest in this great thing which had come to pass. c. Love. They brought themselves in worship and they brought rich gifts from their treasures. You can give without loving, but you cannot love without giving. d. Action. They came. They persisted until they found the Christ. Then they listened to God and protected His Son by not returning to Herod.

II. Christ in God's World.

Men had brought sin and ruin into the world. They had rejected His Son, but God still ruled and we see Him protecting, preparing, and fulfilling prophecy through His Son.

1. Protecting. Men may hate and seek to destroy God's Son. Satan may inspire them with ingenuity and cunning, but see how the Eternal One speaks to Joseph in dreams, how He prepares a place of refuge in Egypt and ultimately in Nazareth, where the boy Jesus may increase in wisdom and stature and favor with God and man.

2. Preparing. God knows of the days of public ministry which are ahead and above all, of that day when on Golgotha's hill Christ was, in His own body, to prepare salvation for you and for me. God is not taken by surprise. He moves forward to the completion of His plan with the stately tread of eternity.

3. Fulfilling. God also sees to it that prophecy is fulfilled. We read in verses 15 and 23, "that it might be fulfilled," and in verse 17, "then was fulfilled." God's Word is always sure, for He makes it so. His infinite and eternal faithfulness guarantees the fulfillment of every prophecy, yes, and of every promise of His Holy Word.

Tenant Farmers Best Credit Risks

If any other governmental lending agency has made a better collection record than the Farm Security Administration, that record has not been published.

This agency completed its first two years of operation July 1, 1939. During those two years, it made 6,100 loans to tenant farmers for buying land and paying for improvements. There has been only one foreclosure. That was in the case where the borrower died and his widow was not in a position to operate the farm.

There have been only a few delinquencies. Payments thus far are ahead of maturities.

Credit for such a marvelous record must go not alone to the lending agency for its exercise of sound discretion in making the loans, but to the tenants. The record is sufficient to show that among tenants there are many who appreciate government aid, and who are capable of making a farm of their own profitable.

Beginning July 1, the Farm Security Administration had $40,000,000 to lend to tenants during the current fiscal year. About 7,000 more loans will be made this year.

Texas Has Greatest Frontier Museum In The Nation

While on our vacation last week, the senior partner of the News visited his old friend at Bandera and went through his Frontier Times Museum, the largest and most complete single collection of Texas and American frontier relics in existence.

The writer knew J. Marvin Hunter at Mason, Texas, when his father published the Herald there, and learned to set type in that shop with him. That was oh, a good many years ago. Mr. Hunter has about 15,000 separate items in his collection and the number is growing daily.

How An Editor's Hobby Built A Museum

FRONTIER TIMES MUSEUM, owned and managed by J. Marvin Hunter, at Bandera, Texas, had its beginning in 1927, starting with just a few relics of the old days. At first there was a rawhide bottom chair made in 1880 and an old double-barrel shotgun used by a Texas pioneer. It was quartered in a small room 8x8 feet, in a country printing office. Other relics were accumulated and in a year's time the collection had grown so that the little 8x8 room had to be enlarged to 8x26 feet. And still it grew until 1933, when a handsome fieldstone building 20x40 feet, was erected on Delightful Hill, one block north of the court house in Bandera. Funds for the erection of this building were made possible through the publication of a book which was sold at $1 per copy. It was thought at that time that a building 20x40 feet in size would be large enough for a long time to house the relics and curios which J. Marvin Hunter is collecting, but this proved to be a mistaken idea, for there was such hearty response to his call for these things that additional room was soon needed, and Mr. Hunter, in keeping with his first plan to raise funds, published another book, which he sold at $1 per copy and raised sufficient funds to build an addition to the main building, the addition being 24x40 feet in size. This addition was completed in September, 1934. In 1935, still another addition, 16x40, was built and in 1938 the front of the building was extended to 100 feet in length by building a room 24x60 feet, and at this time the entire museum building of four large rooms has a floor space of about 4,000 square feet.

Built of native fieldstone, and of a semi-Spanish type of architecture, it is a beautiful structure. In its exterior walls are curious and odd formations of stone, stalactites and stalagmites from caves, fossils, petrified wood, crystallized and agatized formations, vari-colored stones from over the county, and stones from historic places. Four beautiful red granite columns adorn the main entrance to the building.

In the Museum you will find the old time spinning wheels, ox-yokes, side-saddles, cooking utensils, guns, pistols, garden tools, old chairs and furniture, branding irons, bridles, bridle-bits, spurs, rawhide lariats, hobbles, and many other things which helped to develop the frontier and now belonging to a forgotten age; mounted eagles, deer heads, owls, squirrels, birds, Mexican lynx, badger, Gila Monster, a Texas Longhorn head with spread of 8 feet, a two headed kid, a pig with eight legs; prehistoric relics of all kinds, including basket work from the Big Bend region of Texas, flint arrowheads, spearheads, skinning knives, metates, molinos, etc. Decorating the walls of the rooms of the Museum are photographs of Texas Rangers, peace officers, Indians, outlaws, desperadoes, frontier characters, old buildings, frontier forts, etc. There are snakeskins, bear skulls, prehistoric bones, and hundreds of interesting things to hold the attention of all visitors, so many in fact, that they cannot be enumerated here. Of particular interest is the Charles Fagan Collections of South American items, which includes a shrunken human head from the savage Jararo tribe, also a shrunken head of a wild dog of the Ecuador jungles, an iguana lizard, a porcupine fish, a wooden idol from Easter Island, a pair of copper Sonquistador saddle stirrups, lace from the lacewood tree, rubber novelties from Jamaica, a carved calabash from Peru, an Inca hat from the ancient city of Cuzco, a collection of pre-Inca items taken from a buried city in Peru, some vegetable ivory from Ecuador, a wonderful collection of butterflies, necklace made of alligator teeth, a young boa constrictor's skin, a Chimu-Hueca jar 700 years old, hardwood weapons of the Jivaro, and many other very interesting things.

There are hundreds of things in Frontier Times Museum that will take you back to the days of your childhood. For instance, here you will find a display of green coffee, and parched coffee, with the old time coffee roaster, and the coffee mill; and there is a rack of buggy whips; and sev-

HERE ARE INSTRUCTIONS FOR YOU WHO MUST GO TO FIRES TO GET THERE QUICKEST

Someone who evidently was at Pecos the other day when that town's fire department, after being troubled with public reaction to fire alarms, distributed a tongue-in-cheek "What To Do In Case of Fires," this morning tacked a copy of the pamphlet on the bulletin board of central fire station in Lubbock.

It read: "As soon as the alarm starts sounding, jump into your car and get it started."

"While you are backing out of your yard have your wife look for smoke so you will know which way to go."

"If you have two cars have some other member of your family bring the other one with all possible speed. Thus, you can park one on each side of the street at the scene of the fire. This will enable your neighbor, who should be right behind you, to park in the middle."

"Whatever you do, don't fail to get to the fire before the fire truck does. (This is imperative.)"

"In case you are late and cannot get right up to the fire dash madly back and forth on the street in the vicinity."

"In case you are the first one there and find yourself hemmed in by the cars of other idiots, it is wise to suddenly decide you have to leave there."

"This can be easily done by going ahead, and madly backing up a few times until you finally run over the hose. This important move should always be accompanied by continuous blowing of your horn."

"Don't pay any attention to the firemen. If they get in your way, run over them. They are just there through curiosity, while your presence is important."

"At a recent fire, there were 46 automobiles assembled at the scene. A section of hose was ruined by one or more halfwits driving over it. That's the good old spirit."

"And before you leave, don't fail to make some snooty comparisons of the fire department with one you saw in L. A. or some other city you may have once visited."

It goes without saying the above message to the public was by a volunteer fire department.—Lubbock (Texas) Avalanche.

Census figures indicate that 121,000 of 24.2 per cent of Texas farms have no milk cows; 75,127 or 15 per cent have no poultry; 215,317 or 42.9 per cent have no gardens; and 418,796 or 83.5 per cent have no orchards.

eral old time soda pop bottles; and a buggy tongue; and churns; and an old Washington hand printing press used in printing a newspaper at Castroville in 1880; and there's mustache cups, shaving mugs, trundle beds, little brass-toed boots, fascinators, celluloid cuffs and collars, and many, very many, other things this present generation does not use.

It's worth coming a long distance to see this wonderful museum. So many people who think of Bandera as just a small town entertain the idea that this is a small museum, too. But when they come to see it they are astonished that so great a collection of interesting things has been assembled here. —Coryell County News.

Art and Civic Club

Time: Saturday, September 23, 1939, 12:30 p. m.

Place: Home of Mr. and Mrs. Maston Fribble.

Event: Annual President's Luncheon of the Art and Civic Club.

Credit for one of the most unique and charming luncheons ever given by this federated club goes to the entertainment committee, Mesdames C. C. Ragland, J. J. Stephen and C. A. Eacott, our hostess, Mrs. Maston Fribble, whose reception suite was fragrant with lavender sweet peas, and our leader, Mrs. Owen Clements, who built her program on Beauty and Fashion from the magazines Vogue and Harper's Bazaar.

The T-shaped table was centered its entire length with lovely toilettries, costume jewelry, scarfs, miniature hats and figurines. The menu, served buffet, was tagliaraine, pickled peppers, olives, celery, hot rolls, stuffed tomatoes, iced tea, lemon sherbet and angel food.

Previously each member and the associate members, Mrs. Walter Fairman and Mrs. V. C.

Bradford, had been assigned the name of some famous costume designer or cosmetician to impersonate, so the place cards bore the names of these celebrities and clever cut-outs with the program on the reverse side.

The invocation was given by Mrs. A. H. Smith. Mrs. C. A. Eacott led the club collect and federation song. Roll call was answered by a short sketch of the character each represented. Mrs. Jon Schooler, retiring president, presented the gavel to the incoming president, Mrs. Lewis Gartman, who responded in her gracious manner.

Mrs. W. P. McCullough presented Mrs. Schooler with a handsome gift box of Colonial Toilettries (old spice) in appreciation of her efforts in behalf of the club during her term as president.

The following invitation to the Clara Driscoll Day program at Austin, October 4th, 1939, was read by the corresponding secretary: "Please urge every one of your members and your local citizens and your mayor to come to Austin and help the Federation not only to honor Clara Driscoll, but familiarize themselves with the objectives and accomplishments of this great group of organized womanhood." The program for the day is: Coffee honoring Clara Driscoll at the Crystal Ball Room, Driskill Hotel. Through the courtesy of Mrs. O'Daniel, the executive mansion will be open to all visiting club women until 5 p. m.

A reception at Texas Federation Building, in Austin, 3 to 5 p. m.

An evening reception at 8 p. m., unveiling of Clara Driscoll's portrait, closing with an old-fashioned collegiate candle lighting.

Breeder-Feeders of the Nation will be honor guests at a banquet under the auspices of the State Fair on October 10. It will be in recognition of the rapid progress of the industry in Texas and in honor of the bringing to the State Fair of the American Hereford Show, its first time south of Kansas City. The Fair is assured the greatest assemblage of livestock in its history.

Rev. E. E. Dawson, Pastor

Next Sunday is the first Sunday in the month and also in the Quarter. Therefore, many special matters may well move every member to be on hand. For example, there is the start on this last quarter of the year, and our beginning of the study of the life of Christ, than which nothing can be more interesting to Christians. Then it is the time for the quarterly celebration of the Lord's Supper. In view of this special event, all who will be asked to bring lunch and we will spread it and eat together at the noon hour. We especially invite the Nebors Creek, Rattler, and South Bennett members to be with us for the Lord's Supper, and for the noon lunch. Bring just whatever you may have and like and we will put it all together and enjoy a meal together.

At 2:00 p. m., the Deacons will have their regular monthly meeting.

And here is the schedule for the day: Sunday School at 10 a. m., Worship at 11 a. m., Training Union at 6:30 p. m., and the evening Worship at 7:30 p. m.

Everybody is cordially invited to any and all of our services. We love to have guests.

Nazarene Church
Mrs. Pearl Keeton, Pastor

We were sorry to disappoint our people last Sunday morning in not being able to have the cradle roll service as we had planned, but we had to rush our boy to a hospital in Brownwood to have a broken arm set and it seemed we could not get back for the service Sunday morning. However, we are glad we can report a good time Sunday night.

But, we plan to have the cradle roll service next Sunday morning which we meant to have last Sunday. We appreciate the promises of the fathers and mothers who promised to bring the babies again next Sunday.

Sunday School at 9:45. Message at 11:00. Subject, The Goodly Heritage. N. Y. P. S., at 7:00. One of the special features of this service will be Life's Railway to Heaven, by Miss Mary Horton and we feel it will be greatly enjoyed by all who hear her. Message at 8:00 by the pastor.
