SWEST SCHOOL OF PRINTING OFFERS GOOD CHANCE TO LEARN TRADE
In this issue we have a classified ad from Southwest School of Printing, one of two schools in the United States exclusively training young men and women for the printing trade. The restrictions of the printing trade unions on the number of apprentices trained has already reduced dangerously the number of trained men. This artificial shortage is further aggravated by the draft taking many men out of the trade.

Unemployment Compensation Should Remain Under Control Of States

By GEORGE C. HESTER

The complete federalization of Unemployment Compensation will be proposed soon according to dispatches from Washington "Trial balloons" on the idea already have been sent up although final details have not been announced.

It is politically expedient these days to parade anything under the defense banner. Actually, it will have nothing to do with defense, and at best, a doubtful and unpredictable bearing on inflation.

We need have no doubts, however, about some other results of such a measure. With one bounding leap it would centralize in Washington the complete control and direction of all unemployment compensation systems which the states have built up over the past five years along the lines best suited to local needs and conditions.

It is little wonder that business groups of several states already are sending up resounding protests. Perhaps no state has a greater stake in the issue than has Texas. Its system is one of the best, and what is still more important, this system as it now operates represents several years of actual experience with business and labor in this area.

FACTS ABOUT THE TEXAS SYSTEM

The Texas unemployment system today is operating on a payroll tax that averages about 1.3 per cent of payroll. All of this is paid by the employer. Under the merit plan the rates vary on all employers with eight or more employees from one-half of one per cent to four per cent of payrolls.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN?

Now what would happen if by one stroke all state participation is brushed aside and complete control is centralized in Washington? In the first place all business with one or more employees will in all probability be incorporated in the new program.

What would happen with the entire system of experience ratings, under which existing payroll taxes are calculated, is a matter of speculation at this time. How the vast number of smaller employees, with no experience ratings, could be incorporated without jeopardizing the entire system of merit ratings, is still another unanswered question.

Another point of considerable consequence is that Texas employers today have a reserve balance of nearly $65,000,000 in the national treasury. This represents the monies accumulated from their payroll taxes over and above all benefit payments up to date.

Federalization, of course, would mean that this vast sum now held in trust to the account of Texas employers, would be swallowed up completely and thereby lost to Texas and its employers to whom it rightfully belongs.

Even more important, however, are the implications involved in the centralization of these programs which by previous understanding belongs to the states and certainly are operated as efficiently as any national board could operate them.

Please correspond with me if you live in or near Goldthwaite and want a piano for Xmas. I have a bona-fide bargain in a lovely small size spinet piano, latest model, now stored in your vicinity. I will sell it at a real sacrifice rather than haul it back to San Antonio. This is a real bargain for some one. You can save money if you mean business and will act quickly. Easy terms. Write or wire me for full information where piano may be seen without any obligation on your part. R. N. Cate, credit manager, San Antonio Music Company, 316 W. Commerce St., San Antonio, Texas.

HUMAN BODY IS LIKE CAR—BOTH NEED FOOD TO GIVE THEM ENERGY

Our body is often compared to a car, and in many respects it is like a car. For example, a car has many parts and each part has its function, and therefore must be kept in the best condition. This is true of our bodies, also. A car burns fuel and makes energy and heat. So it is with our body. While a car needs oil and grease to keep it in condition, so the human body has a daily need for food materials which will keep the body in good condition.

In the article published by the Future Homemakers last week, there was a list of foods given, called the Texas Food Standard. This list of foods consisted of foods necessary for the well-being of all Texans.

Perhaps there are some few who do not fully understand the importance of the right food to our bodies. Looking at food purely from the nutritional standpoint, we find that there are three main reasons why our body needs food: 1. For building and repairing body tissues, or to make us grow. 2. For fuel or energy—to make us go. 3. For regulating and protecting. Let's go back to the Texas Food Standard and see just how the foods listed there can meet the body needs for food.

Milk (a food rich in protein) helps us to grow, repairs body tissues, protects us from disease and gives us energy.

In meats we find more protein. Their actions in the body are similar to those of milk, in that they make us grow and go. If your diet cannot afford at least one serving of meat a day try substituting cheese, nuts, or dried beans and peas.

Potatoes each day will be a good source of energy. By including one serving of green or yellow vegetables plus another vegetable in the diet, you know that different parts of your body will grow and you will be getting your regulating and protecting foods.

Fruits, as well as vegetables, are very important sources of vitamins. They serve as appetizers and laxatives, and strengthen our bodies.

Whole grain cereals, as important sources of vitamins, are needed because of their energy value, as well as regulating ability.

Eggs can again be classified with the group in which we find milk and meat. Some sweets are needed each day for fuel.

HOW TO MEET DRIVING EMERGENCIES

When a tire blows out—if a tire bursts, do not apply the brakes nor throw out the clutch until the car has lost almost all its momentum. A front tire blowout may cause you to lose control of the steering wheel unless you are holding it firmly. In the case of a blowout of a rear tire, a sudden application of the brakes, at high speed, may cause the car to turn over.

When right wheels strike a soft shoulder—in this emergency a fast-moving car is likely to swerve and turn over. The driver should hold the steering wheel tightly, remove his foot from the accelerator, and allow the engine to reduce the speed of the car to a safe point before he applies the brakes, throws out the clutch, or attempts to steer back onto the hard surface.

When going too fast around a curve—Every time a curve is rushed, centrifugal force acts to push the car off the road. When the driver realizes he is going too fast, his first thought is to apply the brakes. This is dangerous and makes the car more difficult to control. The brakes should be used before reaching a curve.

When going down a steep hill—Before starting a dangerous descent, a car should be put into second or, if the hill is long and very steep, into low gear. If further retardation is necessary, apply the brakes intermittently. To stop a car on a steep grade the brakes should be applied gradually up to the point of locking the wheels.

GOLDTHWAITE BOY TAKES ARMY BAKERS COURSE

Pvt. Forrest W. Wilkens has been chosen to attend the bakers' and cooks' course at Camp Beauregard, La., according to an announcement from headquarters of Third Armored Division.

Pvt. Wilkens is assigned to Machine Gun Company, 32nd Armored Regiment (L), a part of the 3rd Armored Division, commanded by Major-General Alvan C. Gillen, Jr.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilkens, of Goldthwaite.

Water is important to the body because it carries food to all parts of the body; it is necessary for the elimination of waste products; for regulation of body temperature; and it is an aid to digestion.

Are you taking as much care of your body and its machinery as you are of your car?

Improved SUNDAY Uniform International SCHOOL LESSON
 By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D.
 Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

Lesson for December 7

THE NATURE AND WORK OF THE CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—Acts 2:41-47; Ephesians 4:11-16.
 GOLDEN TEXT—Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it.—Ephesians 5:25.

The church, which is so much the center of life for Christians, is not as well understood as it should be. We have come to regard it as just one organization among many competing for the attention and interest of men, when it is really a divine, living organism established by Christ as His Body and representing Him in this world. Our lesson presents significant truth for both study and teaching. The church is

I. A Fellowship of Believers (Acts 2:41-47).
 The church is made up of those who are saved (v. 47), those who have received the Word by faith and witnessed a good confession of their faith in Christ (v. 41). This is a fact to be remembered in a time when there is so much laxness in receiving members into the church. It is not a religious or social club. It is not a rallying place for those who wish to work for some economic, political, or social project. It is not a gathering of good people who wish to share common interests.

The church needs to cleanse its rolls of all unbelievers, all hangers-on, and get back to the purity which it had when only those were received who were manifestly "added" by the Lord (v. 47).

Such folk have many interests which bind them together in fellowship, devotion, and service. The early church was interested in sound doctrinal teaching (v. 42), an excellent thing. They had fellowship in prayer (v. 42); we need that too. They had gladness of heart (v. 46); do we not need a renewal of the song of the Lord in our midst?

They had such fervent love for each other that they established a communal system of sharing with one another, something which God had never commanded and which apparently failed with them, for it was later abandoned. But the point is that they really did love each other and thus showed their true discipleship (see lesson of last Sunday).

II. A Center of Christian Ministry (Eph. 4:11).
 The church is God's chosen depository for spiritual gifts, among them being the special ministries mentioned here. The Holy Spirit calls men as He chooses. Blessed is the church which recognizes His choice of teachers, evangelists, preachers, and leaders and gives them liberty to serve the Lord in their calling.

It is God who calls men for these various activities in His vineyard. Self-appointed or man-chosen leaders and preachers are destined to fail, but God's men may be assured of His blessing and power.

III. A Place of Spiritual Growth (Eph. 4:12-16).
 The purpose of the gifts of the Spirit is the edifying and building up of believers. A church should always be evangelistic in its efforts. The pastor should be a soul-winner, but essentially his ministry is to so edify and instruct believers that they may go out and win others to Christ.

Verses 13 to 16 tell us how this "perfecting of the saints" moves forward. There is unity of the faith and a growth in knowledge, a steadiness which keeps believers from being led astray by error or the cleverness of men. Thus kept from drifting, and being steadily enriched in knowledge of the truth, the believer grows up to spiritual manhood.

Do not miss the beauty and helpfulness of verses 15 and 16. Like the body "fitly framed and knit together," the church of Christ is to be a perfectly co-ordinated organism, every member performing its perfect service in building up the body in love for the glory of its Head—Christ.

This figure of the Church as the body of Christ and the working together of the members for the glory of the Head is further developed in I Corinthians 12, which the reader is urged to consider, especially verses 12 to 27.

Watching to See
 With the Christian who takes the deep true view of his religion as a guide in all earthly matters, material or spiritual, there is never any feverish, blind-alley skirmishing in the face of threatened ill. He just waits vigilantly, trustfully, upon God, ready to do His will the moment it is made clear to him. "I will watch to see what He will say to me." Watching to see! In those telling words lies the whole secret of the thing that mystifies non-religious folk so completely—the inviolate calm and courage with which real Christians meet the worst adversities that can befall them in the world.
