THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

VOLUME FORTY-EIGHT

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, —FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1942

NUMBER FORTY

Saturday May 30 Is Victory Day For Mills County Folk

Food Display Being Planned To Show 'Food For Freedom'

Saturday, May 30, is Victory Day in Mills County. Everyone is invited to attend and exhibit anything they have relative to this day.

There will be many exhibits around the Court House Square which will include the following:

1. Flower Show.
2. Vegetable Show.
3. Livestock Exhibit.
4. Red Cross Exhibit, which will include some posters, glossy print pictures and other literature depicting Red Cross activities.

In addition to the above exhibits, there will be a free picture show from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Final plans have been made for Mills County Victory Day celebration to be held in Goldthwaite on Saturday, May 30. Each community is urged to prepare a booth to exhibit all types of food and feed.

"Deep in the Heart of Texas" is the theme for the occasion, and patriotic colors are to be used in decorating. The livestock will be exhibited on the street behind the courthouse. From ten in the morning until six in the afternoon, the local theatre is open to the public free of charge.

Everybody is invited to come and make Victory Day a success for Mills County. In addition to the above attractions, the Goldthwaite Garden Club is having a flower show.

VISIT THE RED CROSS BOOTH ON SATURDAY

The public is cordially invited to visit the Red Cross Booth at the Victory Food Show in Goldthwaite on Saturday. Our local chapter has been very active and there will be on display a part of the work that has been done. Some garments that have been made in the sewing room will be on display. Various reports and pictures will be open for your inspection. If you are not an active member of the Mills County Red Cross Chapter, you are missing a great opportunity to serve your nation and your fellow man.

Visit the Red Cross Booth and then plan to take an active part in the work of this great international organization.

LIBERTY LIMERICKS

A cheerful old mammy named Hannah, Who'd lived eighty years in Savannah Said—"Sho'nuff, I'll buy Defense Bonds, 'cause I Am in love with the Star Spangled Bannah!"

Help buy the planes and tanks needed to smash the Axis! Save with U. S. Bonds and Stamps every day.

A Message From

The Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of America

Not by machines alone will we win this war.

Unitedly, unstintingly, and without interruption or delay, we have solemnly promised to give our men a mounting tide of guns, tanks, planes and ships.

We shall keep that promise, and one promise more—that we shall preserve for them, wherever they may be, and without regard to race, creed or color, the moral and spiritual values of the democratic ideals and freedoms for which they now are fighting.

Because the USO is unitedly dedicated to that high purpose, and because that high purpose is a vital part of the job of winning this war, the USO should be supported by everybody—cheerfully, generously, and now.

Very sincerely yours,

(Signed) FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

Most of the Mills County Communities have completed the Quota given them. Goldthwaite has not reported a full quota—please turn in yours to help. All communities and amounts reported will appear next week. Please let's finish this drive.

N. E. STOCKTON, Chairman, Mills County USO Campaign.

NORMAN CHESSEY IS MISSING IN ACTION

Mrs. Carl Featherston received word last Saturday morning that her nephew, Norman J. Chessier, is missing in action in the Philippines. The War Department regretted they could not give his father, J. M. Chessier of Brownwood, any further information, but said if the Japanese government will communicate with our government it would give the information as to whether he is a captive or a casualty.

Norman really is considered a Mills County boy, as he spent the biggest part of his life at Mullin. He is a grandson of the late John S. Chessier, who served the county 16 years as district clerk just before his death.

Another Brownwood boy listed as missing in action in the Philippines who is well known to a lot of Mills County people, especially around Ebony and Elkins, is Paul Whitely, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whitely of Brownwood. Mr. and Mrs. Whitely have two more sons in the war zone.

NEW RADIO SERMON SERIES

Every Sunday at 8:30 a. m. Dr. M. E. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Shreveport, La., former president of the Southern Baptist Convention, will conduct a series of "Spiritual Life Services" on the 50,000-watt Radio Station KWKH, 1130 kilocycles.

RIP VAN WINKLE WAS A LUCKY MAN

When Rip van Winkle woke up and wandered back to the old home town, he was neither recognized nor remembered. He found his wife gone, his daughter married, his native village remodeled, and America independent. He had slept clear through the Revolution!

Nevertheless, Rip was a lucky man, because we'd never have known about him to this day if Washington Irving hadn't written him up.

Any business institution of industry that is contemplating hibernating from advertising during World War II might well consider the plight in which Rip found himself. For after this war even a Washington Irving — if you could find one — might not be able to bring back into public favor a once popular story name.

IT ALWAYS pays to advertise!

LONGER CAR LIFE TO BE OBTAINED BY CONOCO PLAN

PONCA CITY, Okla., May 27.—A new service to motorists, designed to prolong the life of motor cars and make tires last longer, is being introduced by Continental Oil Company thru its local dealers, it was announced here today by Will A. Morgan, company advertising manager.

"The new service," Mr. Morgan stated, "will be announced to the public in a series of advertisements to start this week in the Goldthwaite Eagle.

"Knowing that regular inspection and proper lubrication are absolutely vital to the long-life of cars now operating, dealers in Conoco products throughout the country are organizing Once-A-Week Clubs among motorists, with the idea of making thorough checks of each car on regularly specified days every week. Conoco dealers will keep careful records of tire serial numbers, grease and oil change periods, and all information necessary to the proper servicing of the car. They will remind motorists when lubrication and other services are needed, and will do everything possible to help the motorists get the maximum life from their cars at the least possible cost and trouble," Morgan said.

All Conoco dealers in the Goldthwaite territory are cooperating in the plan, it was announced.

METHODIST NOTES

Rev. Glenn Flinn was guest speaker at the Methodist Church Sunday and brought a forceful message on the fact of the "betrayal of our youth" by educating them altogether in worldly matters and leaving God out.

Then on Sunday, the 17th, a most impressive dedication service was held by the pastor, Rev. B. A. Myers, in which a beautiful golden cross was unveiled and dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Annie Trent Little by her son and daughter, Raymond Little of Goldthwaite and Mrs. Clyde Weatherby of Hamilton.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

The vacation Bible School begins at the Methodist Church at 8:45 Monday morning, June 1. All children from 3 years of age to 14 years of age will be included. Be sure and be on hand for registration promptly at 8:45 a. m. We invite all children not attending any other Vacation School to come with us. There will be Bible study, story telling, manual training and recreation for all.

B. A. MYERS, Pastor.

STAR ITEMS

By MRS. DORA GOODE

Texas weather, or maybe it's some other bodys weather, is still on the damp side. Goodness knows when any farmer is going to be able to get into his field, and garden stuff is wasting because we can't get to it. In fact all this garden truck, that is what the hail skipped, is getting a death of sickness wading in water so much. What fruit we had was mostly knocked off the other day when one of those ice storms I mentioned recently came across our landscape. But we've got so much to be thankful for, in that our homes haven't been blown away by a cyclone, or terrible floods taken their toll, as in Pennsylvania.

Miss Ione Waddell, who is working in Brownwood, was home over the week-end to visit her parents and to attend commencement exercises.

Mrs. Vera Cox and son, Ben Dale, of Brownwood were visitors with homefolks over the week-end. Mrs. Josie Mae Cox and children returned to Dallas with them to join her husband, J. C. Cox, who is employed there.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Fuller and son Ausellin of Brownwood visited Sunday with Mrs. Fuller's mother, Mrs. Lonnie Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Estine Hamilton and children of Winters were recent visitors in our midst.

Grandmother Garrett has been quite ill recently. A daughter, Mrs. Hill Roberts of New Mexico, and a son, L. Garrett of Arizona, have been at her bedside during the past week.

Mrs. Lonnie Baker has been sick too the past week.

School closed last week. Those graduating this year were: Donald Goode, valedictorian; Jewell Collier, salutatorian; Charles Edgar Waddell, Laverne Day, Golden Witty, Nelma Stephan, Leroy Harper, Wanda Ising.

All teachers have been re-elected for another year.

SCALLORN

By MRS. ORA BLACK

Sheep shearing is in full swing out our way. Fleeces are lighter in weight than for several years.

Gardens are coming slow; with so much rain, everything seems to be on the standstill except grass and weeds.

La Delle Casbeer and Jane Black were included in Mrs. Smith's class who entered a musical recital in Austin one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Fields of Adamsville visited Wednesday in the Frank Hines home.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker of Chadwick visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. Johnston.

Mrs. Walter Henry is visiting this week in Lampasas with her son, Chester, and family.

Earl Blake of Camp Bowie is home over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henry and children visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carcher O'Bannon.

Rayford Davis who is with the U. S. Navy and has been stationed at San Diego for the past few months, stopped over for a visit with the writer. Accompanying him were his young son Pat of Ballinger and a niece, Louelle Clark of Cleburne. Mr. Davis is being transferred to Norfolk, Va., where he will resume his work on a battleship as a metalsmith.

After spending a month at their home here, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Laughlin returned Sunday to California. Miss Rachel Ford accompanied them for a summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Laughlin and Mrs. Cora Ford shopped in Lampasas Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Eckert called Tuesday evening on Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie D. Ford.

CENTER CITY

By Mrs. J. M. OGLESBY

Rainy weather continues. The farmers wonder when they can finish planting their fields.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to all those who have lost their loved ones by death. Seems so many are going away.

J. T. and C. S. Owens attended the funeral of E. B. Anderson in Goldthwaite last week. They have been friends for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Walton received a card from their son, Myron, stating four words: "Arrived at my destination." They felt sure he had sailed since he didn't write as usual. We pray him God's protection and a safe return with world-wide experience.

Mrs. Hubert Coffman received two letters from her husband last week. He is well, but she doesn't know where he is.

Mrs. Biddle is not feeling as well as usual. She has lingered on for a long time.

Mrs. Henry Hudson is reported doing nicely after a serious operation in a Temple hospital.

Chester Head returned home from Killeen Monday where he has been working.

Jim Hamilton and family visited Hardy Collier and family after church Sunday.

The Covington girls and Miss DeAlva Viriden of Pleasant Grove visited their Grandmother Collier and attended church services Sunday.

Bro. Elles preached two fine sermons Sunday. The morning service was especially good. He was accompanied by his wife and baby.

Supt. J. T. Owens is very glad to have the new R.E.A. lights in the church. He eagerly turned them on Sunday to show how well lighted the church and how convenient the pulpit light is. All are glad to know both churches are enjoying the lighting system and services at night should be well attended.

Joe Allen accompanied L. J. Gartman on a business trip to Waco and stopped with us a short time Tuesday. I was very glad to hear of my old schoolmate, his daughter Malissa, who is now in Washington, D. C.

Shelby Langford is working for national defense in Tulsa, Okla., and is doing fine.

Medford Langford, who has been working in California for a long time, is visiting his family in the R. E. Lee home.

The H. D. Club met with Mrs. Archie Collier last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Marvin Collier and Miss Ima were visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hamilton received a letter from their son, Elbert, in San Diego, Calif., saying he is transferred to this locality June 13 and he and his wife will be here soon.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their kind

USED CARS AND HOW TO KNOW THEM

CUSTOMER: Both these cars appeal to me, but...

SALESMAN: You won't find a better second-hand car anywhere than either of these. Wonderful buys!

CUSTOMER: If I only knew how the engines had been treated... what oil the ex-owners used.

SALESMAN: This one, I don't know. But this red job I happen to know had nothing but Conoco Nth motor oil from its first mile!

CUSTOMER: Well, why didn't you say so! Conoco Nth! I'll take the red job, of course! First of all, whoever owned that car knew what was best for a car when they used Conoco Nth. With Conoco Nth in the crankcase, I'm sure the cylinders and moving parts were protected by OIL-PLATING—lubricant that doesn't all drain down at every chance, but stays on the job.

SALESMAN: Well, that'd sell me the red one.

CUSTOMER: Why, man, Conoco Nth can help keep an engine so clean of sludge and carbon that it easily ought to mean good long life. I'm going to cash in on this car's value—and keep on using Conoco Nth.

You can cash in, too. Cash in by getting all the engine life and good oil mileage that are winning sensational sales success for Conoco Nth oil. See Your Conoco Mileage Merchant today! Continental Oil Company

4-H CLUB WORK

Emogene Cornelius of Lake Merritt is poultry demonstrator in her club. She is doing her part in the "Food For Freedom" campaign by the effort and enthusiasm she is putting forth in caring for her flock of chickens. She bought 113 day-old chicks seven weeks ago for $11.50. She now has 99 healthy chicks which average around two pounds each. While Emogene was in school her family helped her take care of her flock, but now she has the entire responsibility of daily cleaning and feeding. Her only difficulty was that of the chickens' tendency to eat each other. She added some extra green feed to their diet and gave them more range and the trouble ended. Emogene's feed bill has been $10.50. However, she figures that her flock is worth $45 already, at the present price of fryers. She plans to keep her chickens for home production; so Emogene is not only learning how to raise chickens, but she is increasing the family food supply. Four-H Club work is profitable.

GARDENING

With the abundance of moisture in the soil now, the garden season can be extended at least 30 to 60 days if new plantings are made immediately. In some cases this will mean digging up a few vegetables that have gone beyond the edible stage, such as lettuce, beets that are too large, tough mustard greens, and oversized radishes. The same space can be planted back in these vegetables for mid-summer production.

Six hundred sweet potato slips for each member of the family should be set out. This will mean about one-third acre for the average family. Tomato diseases are beginning to show up. Early blight starts with small brown or black spots on the bottom leaves of the plant. In a few days the area will become yellow and the bottom leaves will shed. Dr. P. A. Young, in charge of the Tomato Disease Laboratory at Jacksonville, advises a spray using 1 lb. basic copper sulphate, 1 lb. calcium arsenate, and 25 gallons of water. Apply when the first fruits are about one-fourth inch in diameter. This spray will also aid in preventing tomato fruit worm damage. If basic copper sulphate is not available, you can use commercial Bordeaux mixture at the rate of 8 pounds in 50 gallons of water; or cuprous oxide 1 lb. to 50 gallons of water. Where heavy dew occurs, Bordeaux dust may be used instead of spray.

THE BERRY PATCH

Keep down the sprouts that are showing up in the middles and around the mother plants. When these new canes are 2 1/2 to 3 feet high, top them to encourage side branching and increase yield next season. A butcher knife is a convenient tool to whack off three or four inches of the tops. When the berry crop is picked take the old plants out at once and work the ground thoroughly. If these things are done, good berries will be produced every year.

THE ORCHARD

Mother Nature does the job of thinning the fruit in the "May drop" and "June drop" when peaches and plums are almost the size of a 50-cent piece. This occurrence is merely nature's way of adjusting the fruit crop to the available supply of moisture and plant food in the soil. Sometimes the trees are too optimistic as to the load that they can carry, and the orchard owner must thin the fruit himself or harvest a large number of small inferior fruit. It pays to remove the fruit to a spacing of six inches apart in order to insure large, well-formed fruit and trees that are not overtaxed. To protect the fruit from disease damage until harvest time, they should be sprayed with 3 pounds of wettable sulphur to 50 gallons of water.

LETTUCE CROP

The current lettuce crop is estimated at 8,000,000 crates. Nutritionists think so well of leafy green vegetables, the family to which lettuce belongs, that they recommend a serving of at least one green vegetable a day. Green lettuce is a good source of caroten, which the body can change into Vitamin A. It also contains some Vitamin B-1, riboflavin, and Vitamin C, and is a good source of iron and calcium. The thinner and greener the leaf, the better source of iron and caroten the lettuce is. After the lettuce is brought into the kitchen, wash and drain it, and store in a covered vegetable pan. The following recipe will make tasty, old-fashioned wilted lettuce:

Put about one quarter cup of fat, or bacon fat, into a heavy skillet, adding to the hot fat a small, chopped onion. Cook the onion until it turns yellow, then add one-half cup vinegar. When heated, add two quarts of garden leaf lettuce or shredded head lettuce. Cover and heat until the lettuce is wilted. Season with salt and pepper and serve hot with bits of crisp bacon added if available. Or try it cooled and served as a salad.

TOMATOES

Civilians will have difficulty in buying processed tomatoes over the grocery counters this fall and winter. An abundant crop in Texas is indicated, but advanced orders from the Quartermaster General's department of the United States Army will absorb practically all of the 100 million cases of tomatoes processed in the nation this year.

In view of this, every patriotic housewife should collect and get in readiness immediately every available jar or tin container, and see that sealing supplies for these are on hand. They should use the hot water bath method for processing tomato products, and supply themselves with some kind of efficient juice and puree making equipment so that as many persons as possible may have tomatoes some way every day unless citrus, melon, raw cabbage, or strawberries are available as substitutes. Ripe or green tomatoes are a rich and cheap source of Vitamin C which prevents bleeding gums, loose teeth, sore joints, and loss of appetite and weight. Ripe tomatoes have abundant Vitamin A which guards against "dry eye" and night blindness.

SUBSTITUTING FOR SUGAR

By observing several simple rules, homemakers successfully can substitute honey or molasses for part or all the sugar required in their favorite recipes.

Hazel Phipps, extension service specialist in food preparation, says the characteristic flavors of molasses and sorghum make many foods more delicious. Both vary in moisture and acidity, she says, so the amounts she recommends for sugar substitution are "approximate."

It takes about 1 1/2 cups of molasses or sorghum to equal one cup of sugar in sweetness. Each cup contains approximately one-fourth cup of water so the liquid in a recipe should be reduced in proportion. In products which are leavened, about one-fourth teaspoon of soda should be used for each cup of molasses or sorghum.

Miss Phipps gives this precaution: Molasses and sorghum burn easily, so the temperature for baking should be lower than the temperature for baking mixtures made with sugar.

Rules for substituting honey for sugar are quite similar. Mixtures with honey brown easily and high heat changes the flavor of honey, so cooking temperatures should be lowered. A cup of honey gives approximately the same amount of sweetness as one cup of sugar, so the exact amount may be substituted. However, each cup of honey, like molasses, contains about one-fourth cup of liquid, so the liquid requirements of the recipe should be reduced one-fourth cup for every cup of honey used.

The specialist's final advise is: Use approximately one-eighth to one-fourth teaspoon of soda per cup of honey in baked products such as cakes or quick breads.

THANK TEACHERS FOR SUGAR RATIONING

OFFICE OF THE TEXAS RATIONING ADMINISTRATOR,
Box K, Capital Station
Austin, Texas, May 19, 1942
TO: Texas Public School Administrators

We want to take this opportunity of expressing our sincere appreciation for your untiring and efficient service in the War Rationing Registration Program. Without the wholehearted cooperation you gave, the program could not have been the success it was.

For your information, we might state that on the first day of registration, the day that Washington was exceedingly interested in to see whether the people were taking to the idea or not, Texas was second only to New York in total registration.

Please express to your teachers our sincere appreciation for their co-operation, inasmuch as we will not have the opportunity of thanking them personally.

Thanking you again and extending the thanks of our respective office staffs, we are,
Sincerely yours,
L. A. WOODS,
State Superintendent of Public Schools.

MARK MCGEE,
Texas Rationing Administrator.

Judge Edward Bache Anderson

The life history of Judge Anderson may be briefly stated in the facts his birth and marriage and parenthood and moves. But the sum of all his good deeds would be hard to describe, because they would add up to so great an amount. He was born in Anderson County, Texas, on August 6, 1867, and removed to Bosque County with his parents when three years of age. The family settled at Nord, near the present town of Clifton, and there he grew to maturity, and as a young man taught the home-community school. His education was in the district school and at Meridian. He likewise read law at Meridian and was admitted to the bar while there in 1891.

Soon after admission to the bar, Judge Anderson came to Goldthwaite, and for fifty-one years has lived here, sharing in all the community life and making a worthy contribution to its affairs. It was in 1896, on Christmas Day, that he married Ellen Sims, the Rev. Mr. Hawkins performing the rites. Judge and Mrs. Anderson have had three children, the first dying in early infancy, the second, Eloise, becoming a young woman before her death; and Mrs. Emily Gilliam, wife of E. B. Gilliam, Jr.

Judge Anderson was a noble churchman, holding fellowship in the Baptist Church since soon after his coming here in the early nineties, this church being the only one he ever belonged to. For many years he has served as a trusted deacon, and for a quarter of a century served as superintendent of the Sunday school. In his relationship to his fellow churchmen, he was always a conciliator in strained situations, and his counsel was always greatly respected. His support was unflinching in financial ways and in regularity of attendance. Only serious illness kept him from his post of duty.

The community is bereaved in the going of Judge Anderson, as well as his devoted family. His kindly helpfulness will be missed; his sturdy support of good causes will be sorely missed; his mature judgment in all matters will be missed. In fact, on every hand this honored citizen and noble Christian and affectionate friend will be missed as few departing ones can ever be.

I cannot say, and I will not say that he is dead,—he is just away!

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand, He has wandered into an unknown land, And left us dreaming how very fair It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you—O you, who the wildest yearn

For the old-time step and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead—he is just away!

Thus would James Whitcomb Riley express our feelings about this noble man and friend.

Active pallbearers at Judge Anderson's funeral—O. H. Yarborough, F. R. Hines, Grover Dalton, F. P. Bowman, W. P. McCullough, Walter Fairman.

Honorary pallbearers—J. A. Hester, H. G. Bodkin, G. W. Jackson, G. R. Goosby, W. E. Miller, C. D. Bledsoe, W. P. Weaver, J. H. DuBose, R. E. Clements, Few Brewster of Austin, Dr. J. M. Campbell, E. T. Fairman, Lewis Hudson, T. F. Sansom.

R. V. Littlepage, E. A. Obenhaus, J. C. Street of Lubbock, Kelly Saylor, Jeff Priddy, Omar Weatherby, Luther Rudd, J. H. Frizzell, J. C. Darroch of Brownwood, J. H. Baker of San Saba, L. B. Ashley, J. A. Allen, W. D. Clements, W. P. Woody, Henry Martin.

Ushers—T. F. Toland, John A. Jackson.

Resolutions Of Appreciation

Resolutions of Appreciation of E. B. Anderson, Adopted by the Men's Bible Class of the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite, Texas:

RESOLVED: First, that in the death of Judge Anderson the class has lost one of its most devoted, consecrated members, one who was faithful in attendance and ever ready to support the efforts of the class in a better knowledge of the Scriptures and every Christian enterprise;

Second: That the church has lost one of its most valued members and a noble deacon; the town and county one of its most valued citizens;

Third: That we extend to his devoted wife and the other relatives our sincere sympathy in this their hour of sorrow, and commend them to the Lord and Savior whom he loved and trusted;

Fourth: That we bow with submission to the will of our Heavenly Father and feel sure we shall meet Brother Anderson again in that "Sweet By and By";

Fifth: That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family and one also furnished the Goldthwaite Eagle for publication.

Macalee Long left Sunday for San Angelo, where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. Cas. Bledsoe.

LIVELY CONTEST SEEN IN CONGRESS RACE

The formal filing of his application for a place on the July primary ballot by District Attorney O. C. Fisher of San Angelo ensures a lively contest for the Congress post now held by C. L. South of Coleman.

Fisher has already sounded the keynote of differences with the incumbent. He has pointed to his disagreement with Congressman South's opposition to revising the Neutrality Act, and also to South's votes against building 5 major battleships, 9 cruisers, 23 destroyers, 9 submarines and 950 naval aircraft.

It will be recalled that Mr. South was elected over Carl Runge in 1934 by a narrow margin. South has not had a real test since then.

Fisher, who is a native of the Hill Country, having been reared in Kimble County, has in recent years been quite a favorite with the voters at San Angelo and surrounding counties. He has served successively as county attorney, state representative, and is now in his sixth year as district attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hodges spent Sunday afternoon in Austin with their sons, Aubrey Smith and Marvin Hodges, Jr., who are students at the State University.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. T. Sites of Burnet spent a few hours Monday evening in Dr. J. B. Townsend's home.

Wartime Transportation

Cattle on the hoof, grain on the farm, minerals at the mine, oil at the well, goods at the factory—these cannot help our soldiers or our people until delivered where they are needed.

Our job is to "Keep 'Em Rolling"

Santa Fe is eager to do its full share of this huge wartime transportation job, military and civilian; throughout our territory. Years of careful operation, maintenance and expansion conditioned Santa Fe facilities for just such an emergency. But to meet every demand, existing equipment must be used to the limit!

You Can Help, Too

Last year you shippers did a lot to increase efficient use of existing freight equipment. Now we ask your continued cooperation to that end by doing these things:
• Make every car you use carry a maximum load • Save every hour you can in loading and unloading cars • Order cars only for your actual current needs.
Your help will help us do a better job for you, as well as for Uncle Sam, whose needs must come first in war.

THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

By W. P. WEAVER

It was a great privilege for me, a buck private, to sit among the doctors at the Southern Baptist Convention at San Antonio last week. These doctors are great companions and are divided into three classes. The first class are the secretaries and members of the various boards. The second class are the pastors of churches and the third class are the "Here Am I" group.

The attendance at San Antonio was below that of recent years on account of the emergency. More than 4,000 delegates registered and many others attended the night sessions. The largest crowd came to hear Dr. George W. Truitt. Many drove over 100 miles to hear his address.

Dr. Truitt is the most popular and most loved Baptist preacher in the South; in America; in the world. Yet he never tries to make people believe he is a great preacher. He is eloquent, a zealot, humble and never rails against any individual or group.

Day sessions were largely given to reading and adopting reports presented by the various boards pertaining to the many activities of the convention covering both the home and foreign fronts.

Every meeting of the convention has a slogan posted above the platform. This year it was "A debtless denomination before 1945." If they receive as much in contributions in the next two years as they have in the last two they will reach their goal.

It was a harmonious meeting though they had a few arguments which were marked with a spirit of brotherly love. One of these controversies was over the application of 30 churches in California that had withdrawn from their state convention and organized a Southern Baptist State Convention. The application was received.

Another argument was had when it was proposed that full-time church workers have the same status before draft boards as ministers. It lost.

And a difference of opinion prevailed when the radio broadcasting committee suggested that $25,000 be taken from the Foreign Mission Board to pay for the radio program. It was pointed out that in the past the radio had brought in more contributions than it cost. It carried.

The report on the New Orleans Hospital brought out that

Rains continued to fall abundantly and interfered with the working of crops and hindering sheep shearing.

Rain and impassable roads interfered with church attendance Sunday. However it did not faze Johnnie Dwain Griffin of preschool age, who rode horseback by himself and came to Sunday School.

The labor shortage is tragic in this part of the country. Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Egger moved to Brownwood Saturday, leaving the Wilmeth farm without a workman.

Homer Reeves has been hauling grain from West Texas for us folks who didn't raise enough chicken feed last year.

Miss Brammer was out from Goldthwaite last week explaining the human chain of communication to Mrs. Cecil Egger.

S. L. Singleton, who has been staying with his children in San Angelo for sometime, is now at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Griffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Egger and Mrs. Edna Dwyer made a business trip to Brownwood Monday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lloyd Neal and baby of Indian Creek came Friday afternoon for her mother, Mrs. Lula Kelly, who has been spending a few days with her friend, Miss Dolly Reynolds.

Mrs. Paul McClung and little daughter, Martha Nell, of Ardmore, Okla., arrived by auto at the Wilmeth home Friday afternoon. They will spend a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmeth, while her husband holds a series of meetings in Idaho.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ketchum returned to her home in Brownwood Friday after spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Gene Egger and her son, Alvin Ketchum.

It was necessary to greatly enlarge the building to take care of the sick from the many army and navy bases located near New Orleans and to care for the victims of submarine sinkings, and had refused the offer of government aid in keeping with their doctrine of "separation of church and state."

At 11:30 Wednesday, Pat. M. Neff, the newly elected president delivered a ringing address after which he was presented the historic gavel. He responded in a few well-chosen sentences and the convention adjourned, the delegates wending their way out of the hall to the strains of "Onward Christian Soldiers" played by the great pipe organ.

JUST A PUSH—

Do you complain much? I mean do you grumble? And what all is the trouble? The world's present disaster is too extended and our own little discomforts and feeding our poor souls on selfish desires.

Recently a friend related to me a most pitiable case of dire need. I call him a friend because he is a constant friend to the needs of others. The case was an aged disabled mother and in the home with her only a badly crippled son. The son had dragged himself about the place in trying to procure something for the two to eat until his knees were worn and bleeding. This is a condition here in our own county. If and when the present world ordeal is once over this friend wants a new type or kind of organization. He wants a club or committee whose business it shall be to prosecute and convict any one who is able to be up and going if he is heard to grumble. I should have said if he or she is heard to grumble and I guess you and I want on the committee so as to save our own scalp.

God our Creator is so related to the human family that He smiles approvingly when kindness and generosity is from a human heart to others. Also when we wrong or misuse someone He is displeased and sinned against.

There is a class of sins which is directly against God and not intended or thought of as against our fellows. Not long since a man said to me "Profane language is the most prevalent sin of our times." One my argue, "God is above injury; he's independent; taking His name in vain can't harm such a being."

That is true as to his person but his kind loving relation forbids any one defiling his own character by using any holy person or holy thing carelessly or irreverently. He requests each human life to be built on high moral standards.

He who uses God's name in vain can't atone for such sin by honesty and generosity to their fellowman, neither can they buy off the severe penalty by telling the Judge of all earth that they meant no harm.

I am sure that he who uses God's name in profanity would not hesitate on reflection to tell the people he is a fool. I believe our people have that much honesty. God bless the people and also stop this bloody war.

Tuesday Study Club

Mrs. Earl Fairman entertained the Tuesday Study Club at the beautiful lodge on the Fairman Ranch, which is west of town. The luncheon marked the end of the club year.

The main room of the lodge was decorated with spring flowers which are typical of this section of the country. It was here that card tables, covered with gay Mexican linens, were placed. A most delicious and dainty three-course luncheon was served to twelve club members and a few selected guests.

After the luncheon a short business session was held. We discussed plans for the coming year and gifts were presented to Mrs. Raymond Little and Mrs. Maston Pribble.

14 Women Complete First-Aid Class

Fourteen women have completed a First-Aid Class and are candidates for the advanced course as soon as conveniently can be arranged. They are: Mrs. E. T. Fairman, Mrs. Nora Berry, Miss Anne Coleman, Mrs. Dan Callaway, Mrs. Booster Berry, Mrs. Travis Griffin, Mrs. Roy Simpson, Mrs. Capple Mooreland, Mrs. Charlie Booker, Mrs. Hulon Fletcher, Mrs. Goosby, Miss Adeline Little, Mrs. Letris Sullivan, and Mrs. Carl Featherston.

They enjoyed a social hour last Thursday evening and presented Dr. J. J. Stephen, their teacher, with a nice gift, a desk lamp. Mrs. Earl Fairman presented the gift to Dr. Stephen and thanked him for his faithfulness to the class.

Star H-D Club

The Star Home Demonstration Club met at the school house on May 22. A vegetable plate lunch was prepared by the club members. We found out we could prepare and serve a lovely meal without meat and very little sugar.

After lunch Miss Brammer gave us a lecture on defense work. Recipes were exchanged by club members. Then came the cooker testing. Some fifteen cookers were tested, taking most of the afternoon.

Those enjoying the meeting were Mesdames M. M. Lee, L. A. Cook, Harmon McCasland, L. J. Teague, Will Patterson, Charlie House, Hardy Collier, T. L. Adams, O. Z. Cox, Tolbert Patterson, John Hamilton, W. L. McCamy, Miss Hattie Barr, Miss Brammer and Miss Lucille Lee. Our next meeting will be at the school house again on June 4.

Mrs. Tolbert Patterson was a new addition to our club. We are always glad to have new members and visitors are always welcome.—Reporter.

Doggett-Holmes

Miss Estelle Doggett and Stewart Holmes of Austin were married in Coleman last Saturday night.

Mrs. Holmes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doggett, and will be remembered here by many, as she attended school here for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will make their home in Austin.

Goldthwaite H-D Club Meet

The Goldthwaite Home Demonstration Club met in regular session in the home of Mrs. Lila Crawford May 19.

After ten minutes of lively recreation in which each member introduced the member to her left and described her with three funny adjectives, the roll was called.

Council report was given and plans made and committee appointed to arrange our booth at the County Market which will be on the square Saturday.

The program was then taken over by Miss Brammer who so ably demonstrated the canning of acid vegetables and fruits. She showed posters showing the value of tomatoes in our daily diet and emphasized home canning of all the vegetables we could, especially tomatoes and fruits. "If you don't can, dry all you can," she said.

Our club will sponsor a booth at the Market Saturday, May 30, which will be on the Goldthwaite square, and we request that every Goldthwaite woman exhibit something in it, canned, dried, preserved or some form of food to show WHAT WE are doing to help win this war.

All exhibits must be at the booth by 9 a. m. Saturday.—Reporter.

Scallorn H-D Club

On Thursday the H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. Ora Black. This was rather an interesting meeting as plans were discussed for the Victory Day demonstration which will be displayed in Goldthwaite Saturday, the 30th. A committee was appointed to get in readiness the material for our garden and flower display. This will be a booth in connection with other booths of the different H. D. Clubs of the county, as well as the Garden Club of the city.

Another interesting feature of the afternoon was that of kraut making demonstrated by the president, Miss Greta Sue Hines.

There were 13 members present. We were glad to have the following visitors meet with us: Mrs. Elmer Berry, Mrs. Guy Walker and Mrs. Earl Blake. In serving refreshment the scheme was carried out in school lunch fashion, each bag containing a sandwich and cookies and an all-day sucker tied outside the bag. Punch was served with the lunch.

Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Terrell Casbeer.—Reporter.

PRAIRIE

Sgt. Melvin Bowden of Goodfellow Field was here this weekend to attend the funeral of his pal, Sgt. Franklin Timmins, in Zephyr. He also visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bowden, and his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bowden and Weldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Card Johnson of Sanderson and son Bailey of A. and M. are visiting his mother, Mrs. W. C. Johnson, and her father, J. W. Bailey, and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith spent Monday in Brownwood and visited their daughter, Mrs. Lee Dell Cornelius.

We were sorry to hear that Kirk Jenkins was carried to a Brownwood hospital Sunday. He has been ill four weeks. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Miss Ema Nell Smith of Brownwood visited her parents this past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bowden, Mrs. J. E. Smith and Ema Nell spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Adams at Zephyr.

Mr. and Mrs. Cord Johnson and Bailey, Mrs. W. C. Johnson and Agnes attended the graduation exercises at Early High Monday night. Mrs. W. C. Johnson's grandson, John Bell Nesmith, finished there.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Bowden, Mrs. J. E. Smith, Weldon and James Ray attended the graduation exercises at Mullin Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Patrick visited Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnson Sunday night.

A large crowd attended the homecoming at the church Sunday. All report a splendid time. Several children of the Orphans Home were there to sing.

Howard Ethridge was in this community this week. He is working in Dallas and was called here for examination.

SPRING

I love the Spring with all the flowers,

Birds and bees and April showers,

Sparrows chirping and blue birds singing,

Boys all playing and school bells ringing.

I love the spring, with the cool wind blowing,

With winter over and no more snowing;

The days are warm and the sun shines bright,

With the sky so blue and the clouds so white.

I love the Spring, with the fields plowed new,

The fresh green grass all wet with dew;

Of all the seasons I could call—I love the springtime best of all.

—C. R. Wood, Jr.

This poem was written by a 9-year-old boy, C. R. Wood, Jr., who goes to school at Paluxy, near Bluff Dale, Erath County. He is the grandson of Mrs. R. L. (Bob) Harris of Mt. Olive Community.

Nabors Creek H-D Club

The Nabors Creek Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. J. H. Plummer Thursday, April 21. There were six members and two visitors present.

The president, Mrs. J. M. Wrinkle, called the house to order and after ten minutes of recreation, minutes were read and roll called by the secretary, Mrs. C. T. Wrinkle. The club discussed and made plans for every one to attend the Victory Day April 30.

Mrs. H. B. Curtis prepared dishes to illustrate methods of cookery and uses in food combination, and Mrs. A. R. Kauhns and Mrs. H. S. Davenport demonstrated how to make kraut.

Miss Brammer will be with us at our next meeting, and everyone is invited to attend.

Those present were Mrs. J. M. Wrinkle, Mrs. C. T. Wrinkle, Mrs. H. S. Davenport, Mrs. H. B. Curtis, Mrs. J. H. Plummer, Mrs. A. R. Kauhns, Mrs. J. S. Kauhns, and Mrs. T. R. Bankhead from King, Texas, and Mrs. Cowen from Iraan, Texas, were visitors.—Reporter.

GARDEN CLUB

The Goldthwaite Garden Club had their last meeting of the season in the beautiful new home of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Stephen, with Meses. Stephen, Epperson, Weatherby and Malcolm Jernigan as hostesses.

The home was decorated throughout with pink polyantha roses and Queen Anne lace.

In the business session, the president, Mrs. Jim Weatherby, turned the meeting over to the incoming president, Mrs. John G. Berry.

Three new members were elected to membership in our club: Mrs. Carlos Patterson, Mrs. Guy Walker, and Mrs. R. M. Patterson.

An interesting program was led by Mrs. Earl Fairman. Mrs. J. M. Campbell and Mrs. R. E. Clements gave talks on control of plant disease and insects.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Stephen graciously conducted us through her house. Delicious refreshments were served to 28 club members and one guest, Mrs. T. C. Graves.—Reporter.

WATER AND SANITARY ASSN. MEETS, BROWNWOOD

The regular monthly meeting of the Pecan Valley Water and Sanitary Association was held at Hotel Brownwood last Thursday night. A steak dinner was served to 15 members and guests.

Dr. C. W. Kelly gave a very interesting discussion of water and some of its peculiar properties. Lt. Col. A. W. Sweet gave a short talk on water systems in South America. He described the most modern and most medieval water systems in South America.

The association voted to hold its next monthly meeting at Coleman June 11.

Those present were: Sparks Bigham, Glenn Nickols, Goldthwaite, Earl Eaton and J. E. Ray, Coleman; H. M. Booker, Richland Springs; Lewis Jordan, W. F. Brunkenhofer and Edward Geeslin, Brady; George H. Nealey, Albin Sulak, B. L. Guthrie, Harold C. Young, J. E. Williams and Dr. C. W. Kelley, Brownwood; and Lt. Col. A. W. Sweet, Camp Bowie.

Mullin News

From Mullin Enterprise

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. G. Chambers were among the friends from here and W. A. Triplitt and family of Pompey to attend the funeral of Sergeant Franklin Timmins of Zephyr Sunday. He died following an appendicitis operation at Lowery Field, Colo. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Timmins, substantial citizens of Zephyr.

Mrs. Ida Rutledge and son of Brownwood are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Roberts.

Alfred Denson of Brownwood was a week-end guest of Mrs. Denson, who is at the telephone company now during the illness of Mrs. M. R. Wylie.

This has been a generous month with moisture. Four inches fell Friday night. A hail and wind struck south of town on Cap Williams, Bill Wilkins and the Mrs. Ben Chesser home all received hail. The Chesser house had several windows damaged by hail and the house was moved several inches from the chimney. This house was remodeled last year. Corn was damaged.

Mrs. M. R. Wylie is at home recuperating from a severe throat trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Wylie have an apartment for a brief time in the editor's home.

W. L. Smith and family spent the first of the week in San Angelo with Mr. and Mrs. Claude

Lee. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ratliff, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reynolds of McGregor were week-end visitors here.

Mrs. W. T. Fisher is convalescing from a severe illness at her ranch home. Her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Duren, has been with her during the illness.

J. S. Kemp and son, E. A., made a brief trip to Brownwood Sunday. It's news when J. S. Kemp leaves his own cheery fire side, for seldom he goes from Mullin. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jeffers of Longview returned home Sunday after a week's visit with Mrs. W. W. Mosier, Lewis Sawyers and others.

News has come that Miss Alice Fisher of Washington, D. C., has been transferred to Chicago. It would have been wonderful had she been transferred back to one of the cities in her native state, so her many loved ones could often see her.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Mills were happy to have all their children home for the week-end. Pvt. Wilson Mills from Camp Barker, Miss Mildred Mills from Marfa, Mrs. A. D. Ethridge from Waco, and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Steele from Brownwood.

What men have done can still be done,

And Shall Be Done Today

SAD, YET PROUD, Uncle Sam thinks of all the soldier dead of wars gone by. The faces of men who fought in the Mexican War, Civil War, Spanish-American War, and World War 1 pass in review. And now to that ghostly parade are added the heroes of World War 2.

AMERICANS EVERYWHERE feel sadness for the lives lost, but only pride when they think of the righteousness and justice of the cause for which these soldiers died, and for which they die today. Liberty is the name of that cause. In the past Americans have recognized the basic truth of Daniel Webster's words, "God grants liberty only to those who love it and are always ready to guard and defend it." Today we are asked to defend that cause once more. And we shall succeed, for what men have done can still be done, AND SHALL BE DONE TODAY!

An Ancient Story With Modern Parallels

By GEORGE C. HESTER

The school year is racing toward its finale. It will soon be "Goodbye Mr. Chips" for the Senior classes of our high schools. This is no Commencement message. It is just a story gleaned from ancient history, but one with modern parallels which all will recognize.

It is a story of the children of Israel in the long ago. They had just escaped from Egyptian bondage by their dramatic flight across the Red Sea. Before them lay Canaan, the Promised Land. And Moses, their leader, sent out twelve men to spy upon the Promised Land and bring back their reports to him.

After forty days these men returned and reported their discoveries. "It's a rich land," they said, "abundant in fruit and flowing with milk and honey. But it is a land of walled cities," they added gloomily, "and inhabited by strong men, such as the giants sons of Anak, in whose sight we are but grass-hoppers."

Such were the prospects before the children of Israel. Translated into other settings, its parallels in one form or another confront every generation.

The young graduates today face the most uncertain and chaotic world of modern times. The best thing that can be said of their education is that it will serve as the clouds of smoke by day and the pillar of fire by night to guide them toward the Promised Land of a better world, a world where men and women can dwell in peace and safety—where they can live their own lives as they wish—a world where the shackles of fear, poverty, ignorance, hatred, and intolerance have been broken forever.

First, there were the tender-hearted who feared to go ahead. "Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt," they said. "Wherefore hath God brought us into this land? Let us return to Egypt."

These people were the defeatists of that generation. Another group among them, took the opposite view. They thought only of the luscious fruits, the milk and honey—and ignored the walled cities and the giants that must be conquered. Furthermore, they ignored the commands of God. They thought only of going and possessing the coveted things of life in defiance of both difficulties and the Divine commandments. As a result, they were smote down and destroyed.

These were the impractical visionaries of that generation. They desired to progress, but they refused to face realities.

The third group took a still different position. They had no longings for the flesh-pots of Egypt and they preferred not to return. They would like to possess the Promised Land, but had no desire to face the hardships and sacrifices necessary to secure it. They preferred to depend upon the Lord to do everything for them. If the Lord wants us to occupy the land, it is his responsibility to see that we get there, they reasoned. Let him first work a few miracles such as earthquakes to shake down the walled cities and bring pestilences to kill the giants who would oppose them. Otherwise, we'll just camp here and wait for something to happen. Perhaps, some day the miracles will occur. Then when the Jordan River is low and easy to ford, the weather is fair, and everything being favorable, we will stroll over into Canaan and settle down to enjoy the fruits with the daily dessert of milk and honey.

These were the cowards and weaklings of that day. They believed in "faith without works" and were weak of spirit and cowardly at heart. They were ever looking for something to happen. The Lord owed them a living. If alive today, they would probably be asking the government to take care of them and make everything easy and pleasant for them.

Caleb and Joshua led the fourth and last group. They pleaded to go forward. The land is ours, and with the aid of the Lord can take it. It will be a hard fight, but the reward is worth it. They believed it could be done and were willing to try.

These were the realists of that generation—the men who would push forward regardless. But they were stoned with stones by the others—a fate that often befalls the leaders of any great forward movement.

Such are the attitudes of human beings. Each generation has its Promised Land, stretching out into the future. Before it can be reached, however, there are always obstacles to overcome—the walled cities and the giants who oppose them.

It is ever thus. Life offers little for those who refuse to pay the price. The Promised Land is just a potential inheritance, a gift.

There are no times for the defeatists, no day for cowards and timid weaklings or those of little faith. There is no place for aimless nomads who would prefer to wander in the wilderness, afraid to turn back, and too timid to face what lies in the distance beyond.

We must follow the lead of the rational optimists. "It will be worth the fighting and sacrifice, but the price is worth it, and with the aid of the Lord, we can win."

TEXAS BOYS WIN IN 4-H FARM ACCOUNTING
Two 16-year-old Texas boys have won high honors in the 1941-42 national accounting contest supervised by the Extension Service. They are Jack Wiley of Young County, named a southern sectional winner in farm accounting, and Ismael Rangel of Frio County, winner of sectional honors in the crops phase. State Boys' Club Agent L. L. Johnson previously had designated the two clubsters highest scoring in the state. Both boys receive an all-expense trip to the 21st National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November, provided with all other awards in the contest by the International Harvester Company.

LOOKING BACKWARD

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

(From Eagle Files, June 2, 1917)
W. C. Urbach's residence, destroyed by fire Sunday night about 9 o'clock. Nothing was saved from the building, and there was no insurance.

Hugh McCullough spent the early part of the week with friends in Liberty Hill. Deputy Sheriff Clifton of Star was here Monday, having been in the chase for the escaped prisoner, who was captured near Center City.

Dr. S. A. Lowrie went to Austin last Sunday in response to a telegram informing them of the death of his sister, which occurred early that day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bryan left Wednesday for Rogers to visit their son, Elias, who is telegraph operator at that place.

At eleven o'clock Thursday night, May 29, a crowd of girls met at the home of Mrs. J. N. Keese for a "Banking Party" in honor of Misses Ruth Thorpe and Roxie Gaddis, who move away soon.

T. S. (Red) Davis, who was convicted of burglary at the last term of court here and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, broke jail Sunday afternoon and remained at large until about noon Monday, when he was re-captured by Sheriff Burnett and posse about three miles southeast of Center City.

Dow Hudson is another of the Mills County boys who is making good. He graduated from the State School of Pharmacy at Galveston Thursday and immediately entered upon his duties as prescription clerk at the Star Drug Store in Galveston.

State Department Health Notes

"In any war the future of children must be safeguarded so that they can live and share in the freedom to follow," declared Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"They must be nourished, sheltered and protected, even in the stress of war-time production, so that they will be strong to carry forward a just and lasting peace.

"Our American Republics sprang from a sturdy people yearning for tolerance, independence, and self-government. The American home has emerged from the search for freedom. Within it the child lives and learns through his own efforts the meaning and responsibilities of freedom.

"Both as a war-time responsibility and as a stepping-stone to our future and theirs, all citizens should join together in—

- 1. Guard children from injury in danger zones.
2. Protect children from neglect, exploitation, and undue strain in defense areas.
3. Strengthen the home life of children whose parents are mobilized for war or war production.
4. Conserve, equip, and free children of every race and creed to take their part in democracy."

TRIBUTE TO GOLDTHWAITE AND MANY FRIENDS I MET

I came a stranger to your little town,
And searched the streets both up and down,
For a home in which to rest my weary heart,
And seek new friends in a world apart.
I found this home with a welcoming gate
And a garden and yard which seemed to wait
For my eager hands and heart to serve them well.
Yes, here was my home where I would dwell.
Now I know why I came and why I stayed,
For I had found where children played,
And friendly neighbors who would say,
We are glad you came, and hope you stay.

BACKGROUND OF ROGER W. BABSON

ROGER W. BABSON

American business has no more inspiring personality than Roger W. Babson, internationally-known business commentator and investment adviser. An outstanding feature of his philosophy has been his life-long insistence on the importance of religion in business.

Born in 1875, reared in an old-fashioned atmosphere of hard work and hustle on a farm in Gloucester, Mr. Babson went to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Upon graduating in 1898, he turned instinctively to financial and business activities.

His exertions, however, undermined his health; he contracted tuberculosis and he was sent West "as good as dead!" It was while he was convalescing from this dread malady that he worked out some of the possibilities and problems of business statistics.

That was forty years ago. Today his weekly statistical and financial reports are read by thousands of businessmen and his research work is carried on by a large staff of workers.

Mr. Babson founded Babson Institute for men; and, in cooperation with Mrs. Babson, developed Webber College for Women—both nationally-known educational institutions. Here young men and women may concentrate more in the fundamentals and less on the frills of business.

To millions of newspaper readers, Mr. Babson is best known by his familiar weekly stories on business which appear in more than 400 papers throughout North America. Of unbounded energy, Roger W. Babson has probably done more than any other man to bring statistics to life, to instill a broader vision in businessmen, and to publicize the ups-and-downs of the business cycle.

WHAT'S AHEAD?

By ROGER W. BABSON

A short summary of the past 100 years shows that with all our wealth, legislation, and brains, we have found no preventative for business depressions. Government spending is now approaching 113 million dollars a day. Soon it may be 200 million. The effect of this upon business and stocks, in spite of taxes, should, before long, be bullish. Even after the war ends, we must continue to arm. We will rebuild much of the property of the world that war has destroyed. New industries, led by plastics and chemicals, have a great future. Furthermore, air express, freight mail, and passenger transport companies may cause a great new foreign and home trade which, in event of a post-war slump in other lines, can again put us on our feet.

But why continually resort merely to war or other material things to pull us out? How many more depressions will it take to teach us that only a spiritual awakening will prevent these unemployment slumps from repeating? The younger generation is daily proving in their sacrifices that they are far from soft. The least we oldsters can do is to preserve their heritage and make sure these younger minds are governed by the right spiritual motives. The set-up today and for some time to come, economically, politically, and spiritually lies up the alley of our children and grandchildren. I am confident that our future will be safe and profitable only if they will put God's will first.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FRIDAY: THE DAY OF SUFFERING

LESSON TEXT—Mark 14:32-34, 44-46; 15:1-5. GOLDEN TEXT—Not my will, but thine, be done.—Luke 22:42.

Suffering such as no man ever faced came upon our Lord in the night between Thursday and Friday as He prayed in Gethsemane. Hatred and condemnation were poured upon Him as He went through the mockery of false trials on Friday. The important events of last week's lesson had taken place, the precious words of comfort and assurance had been spoken, and now as midnight brings the darkness of night to its deepest hue, the Son of Man goes alone into the depth of the garden where we see Him.

I. Sorrowful unto Death (14:32-34)

This Scripture portion uses many words to convey the depth of His soul's agony, as though it were impossible to express it in the faulty medium of speech. So it is, for our Lord here experienced something far more serious than a dread of physical death. He was not a coward. He was not afraid to die. But now His soul was about to have put upon its spotless sinlessness the stain and dishonor of the world's sins.

As Krummacker says: "Something approached Him which threatened to rend His nerves and the sight of it to freeze the blood in His veins." Little wonder that He was "sorrowful even unto death" (v. 34). It should break our hearts to see His loving heart break!

Since this was the road the Master trod, should not His servants tread it still? Service for Christ may fall for passing through deep and chilling waters, but never as deep or as cold as those of Gethsemane. Jesus took with Him into the garden the three who were closest to Him in the circle of disciples. He counted on their fellowship and sympathy in His hour of anguish. Merely to have them near Him, to know that they were there to watch and pray even though they could not share His holy burden, was to be a comfort to Him.

How ignominiously they failed. The spirit was willing (v. 38), but the flesh took the upper hand, and they slept! He was alone with His father when He prayed that if it were possible the hour might pass from Him, but in true and beautiful submission said, "Not what I will, but what thou wilt."

II. Betrayed With a Kiss (14:44-46)

To betray the one who had done nothing but good, who had loved him and served him even in the washing of his feet, this would have been far more than one could have expected of even the sin-blackened heart of a Judas. But he filled the measure of his ignominy to overflowing by betraying his Lord with the sign of affection—a kiss.

We know that we may not stand on the same ground as our Lord even here, for, whereas He had done nothing to merit betrayal, we at our best are not able to stand forth without fault. Nevertheless, great is the hurt when we face the betrayals of life. It may be one whom we have befriended, who has seen the object of our loving thought and care, and who in the hour when he thinks or avenges some fancied wrong strikes us in the back, even as he smilingly professes to be a friend. Shall we be embittered in our soul and give like for like? God forbid! Let us rather say as Jesus did to Judas, "Friend, wherefore art thou come?" (Matt. 26:50).

III. Condemned by Hatred and Towardness (15:1-5)

We have only a partial picture of the betrayal of Jesus in our lesson, but it is typical of all that took place, for it reveals the hatred-inspired false witness of the Jews, which, combined with the cowardice of Pilate, resulted in His being condemned to death. Pilate was convinced of His innocence, but because of the pressure by Jewish leaders he was in a difficult position. He was afraid to follow his convictions, feeling that it was more expedient to yield to the will of the populace. So he lost his great opportunity to write his name large among the heroes of history.

Many there are who follow in Pilate's steps. They know what they ought to do with Jesus, but fearing the comments of friends or the possible loss of earthly advantage, they let Him be crucified afresh by their unbelief.

The Jewish leaders and those whom they had misled hated Jesus with a malicious hatred which made them relentless in their determination to destroy Him. Now they had their quarry at bay and they were determined to close in for "the kill."

They have their present day counterpart in those who have so long rejected Christ that they have become embittered against Him.

MARINE IN AUSTRALIA WRITES HIS BROTHER

The following is a letter from Chas. Botts to his brother Bill. Chas. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nat McGirk, and is with the U. S. Marines in Australia:

Dear Bill:
I'm fine and enjoying myself. I don't think you saw me exercising although I did a lot of marching in it. I haven't got either package, but I'm expecting them on the next ship.

The pictures were good. I can't hardly believe you are as fat as mother says you are, although the pictures show it. I really was glad to get the letter with everybody writing in it. The Marines like the part Benny Davis wrote and I'd like for everybody in school to hear about it. It follows:

Hi, Buddy,
I hope you are having a good time. I wish I was over there with the Marines, but I am not old enough so the only thing I can do is buy defense stamps to help you and all the rest knocking down Japs as soon as they pop up. Yours Friend, Benny Davis.

I want to thank again all the people that wrote in the letter. I wish I could tell you more, but where I am I can only say certain things. Well, guess I'll close now. Lots of love.

BUDDY.

B. F. GREENWOOD, Jr., WRITES LETTER HOME

Dear Cousin:

I appreciated very much your card, and I'm ashamed of myself for not answering sooner, but I'll have to put up my old plea of being too busy. Days or hours don't mean a thing, for we work seven days a week and sometimes seven nights a week too, but fortunately we do have about one Sunday a month off to catch up on our rest. Boy, does that day look good. We had Easter Sunday off and I took advantage of the opportunity to go to services here. It wasn't exactly church in the usual sense, being held in the barracks by the army chaplain, and rather informal, but I enjoyed it nevertheless. It was the first time I had attended since I've been here. When the weather gives me the opportunity I want to attend church in the Methodist Mission, in Unalaska. In case you don't know, Unalaska is our neighboring town, on Unalaska Island, across the bay.

While back I went skiing one Sunday, the first time I'd ever tried it, and while I can't honestly say that I'm a skier, I did have a good time. All that snow on the mountain was a new experience for an old Southerner like myself. I think I can honestly say that while the snow is fun, I can better appreciate our sunshine and hot weather for a change. I could use some of it now. It really hasn't been unpleasantly cold up here—it's a surprisingly temperate climate for this far north. There is plenty of wind and rain that gets monotonous at times.

I never tire of the scenery here. There are mountains on all sides, and on a clear day we can see Mt. Makushin, an active volcano in the neighborhood, smoking like a house afire. Once in a while she gives us a few earthquake tremors, but it isn't enough to bother.

All in all this isn't a bad place, except that it's too far from Texas to suit me. I'll sure be glad when I can get back there. Do let me know how all of you are getting along. Love,

B. F. GREENWOOD, Jr.

A LETTER FROM LUTHER FAULKNER TO HIS PARENTS

Trinidad, British West Indies May 30, 1942.

Dear Homefolks:

I have already written once today, but after I mailed it I went to church. Our chaplain said we should all write home, and I thought my other letter sounded like a business letter or something.

I will tell you about what I saw at the monastery. I walked up it. At the foot of the hill were houses which natives lived in. There was also a cotton experiment station. They have cotton that grows on trees here but this was like the cotton at home. I will go on up the hill now. The way up is a few native huts. There are also oranges, limes, coconut, etc., on the trail. As I am entering I go through a gate. First you see the guest house. It is a large two-story building with a few guests on the balcony. You can see it in the pictures.

Now you enter a small room. A priest rings a bell and a fellow comes to show me the place. In the meantime, in the first room I bought the pictures I sent you. When the fellow comes to take me around, the first thing he shows me is a library. It has books consisting of religious centuries. In this library is a reading stand where they pray as they start to read. We leave here and go to the place where they eat. In there is a place where the head of the monastery reads while they are eating. The fellows who hold the lights positions sit in a certain place. This is all old furniture in here. They have an elevator down to the kitchen, and they bring their food up on it. He now takes me to the room where the students learn the carpenter trade. They have a large power machine to make their electricity. They make all the furniture they use at the monastery.

The next building is where they make honey. They have a machine which turns around and around to put honey in the combs. The last thing he shows me is the bees. They have five hundred hives. The honey they get here is sent to England. The fellow said that they did not get to send it very often because of the war. This wall you see in the picture is just the rock that was there with the holes on each side. They are still adding to this place. You can see half of Trinidad from here. There are a lot of beautiful flowers up here also.

Now, ladies and gentlemen, this ends the show of another of Private Luther G. Faulkner Adventure. Ha, ha. I do get a lot of exercise out of these trips and enjoy them very much.

I am going to Piethi Lake soon. It is a wonder of the world, and Wilma, I know I can get a parrot for three dollars but some fellow told me you had to pay about $21 to keep them in quarantine when they get to the States. I have seen a few of them. They are larger and a lot prettier than the ones at home. They have long, beautiful tails. If I make the cadets maybe I can come home on a plane and won't have to put the bird in quarantine.

I hope I get my birth certificate and diploma this week. Brother Ferguson wrote me a long letter with the recommendation. I don't know whether I told you or not, but I sent one-tenth of the money I have made in the Army to the church at home.

I guess you will get the $20 allotment in April. I may have it raised to $35 if we start getting $42. I will probably send 40 or 50 home next month. I hope you buy a defense bond with it all.

I hope you get my package soon. I wish I could have gotten it there for Mother's Day, but I was thinking of my mother and always will.

Your son and brother,

LUTHER.

TOM HUFSTUTLER'S GRANDSON REPORTED MISSING IN ACTION

Corp. RAYMOND HUFSTUTLER

The following article appeared in the recent issue of the Hamilton Herald-Record. Corp. Raymond Hufstutler is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Tom J. Hufstutler, and was born on their ranch 12 miles south of Goldthwaite. Mr. Hufstutler said his grandson had been in the Marines for four years, and had taken active part in all the fighting in the Manila Bay area since war broke out. He says he can't believe that his grandson is dead. Following is the article:

The grim tragedy of war struck close to home again this week when, for the second time, a Hamilton boy in the service was reported missing in action.

A telegram from the War Department received Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Hufstutler informed them their son, Raymond, 21, a corporal in the Marine Corps, had been missing since the fall of Corregidor.

"The Commandant U. S. Marine Corps," the telegram read, "regrets to advise you that according to the records of this headquarters your son, Corporal Raymond A. Hufstutler, U. S. Marine Corps, was performing his duty in the service of his country in the Manila Bay area when that station capitulated. He will be carried on the record of the Marine Corps as missing pending further information. No report of his death has been received and he may be a prisoner of war. It will probably be several months before definite official information can be expected concerning his status. Sincere sympathy is extended to you in your anxiety and you are assured that any report received will be communicated to you promptly."

LT. GEN., U.S. MARINE CORPS.

A bare thread of hope exists that Corporal Hufstutler may have been taken prisoner by the Japanese or may have escaped somewhere into the islands not yet occupied, since no positive report of his death has been received.

The parents and four young sisters, who make up the family group residing in Hamilton were grief-stricken over the report. The girls are Dorothy, Hazel, Juanita and Greta. Another brother, Marvin, 26, is with the U. S. Army in Northern Ireland, having been in service a year this past April. A third, T. J., lives in Dallas.

Last Word Christmas

Last word received by the parents was a telegram from the Philippines, received here Christmas Eve Day. The message was the first from the boy since last June.

Raymond passed his twenty-first birthday last January, and has been serving in the Marine Corps almost four years. He was born in Mills County, about 12 miles south of Goldthwaite, but most of his life was spent in the Union Community, where he received his schooling.

The family now resides in northwest Hamilton, and his father is employed at the Korney Service Station across the street from the Hamilton Market Place.

NAVY HAS CHANGED ITS SLOGAN FOR WAR

"Join the Navy and See the World" is an old Navy recruiting slogan which has resulted in enlistment of many adventuresome youngsters, but the modern slogan now getting the job done is "Join the Navy and Complete Your Education or Learn a Trade While Freeing the World," navy recruiters at Abilene have declared.

Evidence of effectiveness of this new slogan is hundreds of coupons returned to Navy recruiting stations by Texas high school seniors asking for information on how they may enlist and continue in college while training for a commission, or enter immediate service with

ENLISTED MEN CAN GET IN AIR CORPS

Sgt. William J. Hess, Army recruiting sergeant located in the Brownwood Memorial Hall, said this week that during the next six weeks a large number of the men enlisted would be sent to the Air Corps for ground school training. Young men who are interested in getting in the Air Corps should take advantage of this opportunity, he said.

Sergeant Hess said there were also a large number of vacancies open for enlistment in the Engineer and Signal Corps for men with special qualifications in construction and radio repair work. Men between the ages of 18 and 44, single or married who are citizens of the United States and who are in good physical condition are eligible for these vacancies.

Sergeant Hess will be glad to furnish any one with further information if they will call in person or write to the Army Recruiting Office in the Memorial Hall in Brownwood.

JUDGE HOWELL COBB TO REPORT FOR ASSIGNMENT

According to a Brady news dispatch, Judge Howell E. Cobb, district attorney of the 35th Judicial District, is entering the service of his country, tendering his resignation to Gov. Coke Stevenson after serving as district attorney for the past 17 months. His resignation is effective June 1, and he will report to the United States Army Air Corps at Randolph Field May 29, for assignment as a first lieutenant in some administrative capacity.

Judge Cobb will be a candidate for re-election this summer, having already made application to have his name placed on the ballot, and stated that he would appreciate the support of the voters in the judicial district composed of McCullough, Coleman and Brown, in the coming election.

Howell Cobb is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hez Cobb, former residents of Goldthwaite, and attended Goldthwaite High School.

Official U. S. Treasury War Bond Quotas for June

The above map of the country shows the War Bond Quota by states for the month of June totalling $900,000,000. Everybody every pay day is expected to invest at least ten per cent of his income in War Bonds to aid in financing America's offensive against the Axis powers. The ultimate quota for the nation will be on a basis of one billion dollars per month effective in July. This sum is necessary to provide for all-out production of planes, guns, ships and munitions adequate to arm our fighting men with the tools necessary to win the war.

MILLS CO. FARMERS ASKED TO JOIN FARM BUREAU FEDERATION

To Farm Leaders in All Texas Counties: With all the difficulties facing farm families in 1942 and during this all-out war, they must be assured of a fair price for their products. This will materially help our entire war program.

Parity prices for our products is all that the Farm Bureau Federation has ever fought for—NO MORE and NO LESS. This demand is NOT INFLATIONARY. Parity is a comparison and not a price; therefore, if other prices (wages and profits) are controlled, then farm prices based upon parity are controlled.

As you know, farmers have a price floor of 85 per cent of parity for a few products. This is the highest guarantee granted by law. We also have a price ceiling of 110 per cent of parity in the present price control law.

The range from 85 per cent floor to 110 per cent ceiling can only average near 100 per cent of parity, considering market changes from day to day and month to month.

Now—the big issue facing the people is this: The President and certain members of Congress have been advised by other groups to advocate 100 per cent of parity ceiling for all farm products.

They propose to revise the present limit of 110 per cent... leaving the farmer without a chance to average 100 per cent of parity prices... and labor's band plays on... and each manufacturer will be assured $25,000 NET income if he can make it.

Ed O'Neal and Farm Bureau leaders from all state Farm Bureaus will fight harder for 100 per cent parity for agriculture during the following weeks than ever in history. Their forces in all states are being lined up. Their strength and the results will be directly measured in the number of members who are willing to pull together for a square-deal.

This is an urgent matter—we must have your co-operation and your neighbor's support to demand and receive fair play for all farm families. We believe you are deeply concerned.

If you are interested in becoming a member and help protect the farmers' rights, see A. A. Downey, Hobart Priddy, or Tom Graves and ask them to give you a membership. The fees are $2.00.

Very truly yours,
 J. WALTER HAMMOND,
 President, Texas Farm Bureau Federation.

MELBA THEATRE NEWS

"BAHAMA PASSAGE"
 Realism in the production of motion pictures reaches a new height with the filming of Paramount's Technicolor romance, "Bahama Passage," co-starring Madeleine Carroll and Stirling Hayden.

To transfer to the screen Nelson Hayes' best-selling novel, "Dildo Cay," Producer-Director E. H. Griffin transported forty men and women of the Paramount Company to the tiny island of Salt Cay in the British West Indies, 4,000 miles from Hollywood. Along with them went Technicolor camera equipment and enough food and housing facilities to set up a miniature tent city. This was done so that the picture might have for its setting the original locale chosen by the author for his widely-read story.

Judging by what is heard about "Bahama Passage," the trip was well warranted. The story concerns the romance between a girl who has been around and a man who hasn't. Madeleine Carroll, lovely sophisticate, comes to the island with her father, newly-hired overseer. Hayden, having hired the man only at the insistence of his neurotic mother who fears the native blacks, does his best to make life so unpleasant for Madeleine and her father that they will leave. Madeleine, however, falls in love with Hayden and it is determined that he will love her, too.

"SON OF FURY"
 In the five years that Tyrone Power has been on the screen, he's given many stirring portrayals,—but his latest, "Son of Fury," the story of Benjamin Blake, surpasses them all.

Based on Edison Marshall's best-selling novel, "Son of Fury" has everything—swashbuckling adventure, action on the high seas, torrid romance in the South Sea islands, realistic fights. The story is laid in the early 1800's, and depicts the adventures of a nameless urchin who must go through life battling the world for his birthright. It is the blazing history of a man who rises from stable boy to ruler of a South Sea paradise, and who deserts this paradise to claim his name.

"Son of Fury" marks another step forward in the career of Miss Gene Tierney, whose portrayal of the exotic native girl is her best to date. As the langorous Tahitian beauty, she makes it doubly hard for Power to return to his native England—and who would blame him for not leaving!

George Sanders, Frances Farmer and young Roddy McDowall complete the top featured cast and each turns in a well-rounded performance.

The rank of captain in the Navy corresponds with that of colonel in the army.

The Navy is urgently in need of all types of construction workers. Pay ranges from $36 to $99 per month, plus board, lodging, clothing and medical care.

AMARILLO EDITOR TO MAKE OWN GRADUATION TALK

Amarillo, May 21.—John McCarty, editor of the Amarillo Globe-News, will be graduated by West Texas State College at Canyon Sunday—and he will make his own commencement talk.

The newspaper business got in McCarty's way when he was a junior in the college, but he kept plugging at his college work. When he was on an announced "vacation" a few weeks ago, he was "cramming" for the finals, and Sunday he will get his bachelor of science degree. He will make the commencement address to himself and 128 others. Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the college, said he presumed this would be the first time a college man ever made his own commencement address.

McCarty is 40. His 17-year-old daughter, Evelyn Jeanne, a Globe-News reporter, will get her high school diploma four days after dad receives his degree. The McCarty's also have two sons.

Mr. McCarty is a cousin of Mrs. Walter Simpson of Goldthwaite.
