Congressman Fisher Gives Resume Of Work Of Late Eightieth Congress

Congressman O. C. Fisher will speak over the Brownwood radio station, KBWD, tonight (Friday) 7 to 7:30 p. m. and will give some of the accomplishments and highlights of the Eightieth Congress.

Congressman O. C. Fisher of the Texas 21st District was in Goldthwaite Monday of this week to attend the barbecue, and went on to Lampasas, where he spoke at 3 o'clock that afternoon at the dedication of a new park. Gov. Jester and Cong. Lyndon Johnson were also speakers there.

Mr. Fisher expects to be back in Mills County before the election in the interest of his campaign. He outlined some of the main accomplishments of the 80th Congress.

The strong peace-with-security policy the Administration has been following got strong bipartisan backing from the 80th Congress, reports Congressman O. C. Fisher upon his return from a busy six months in Washington.

While expressing hope our stepped-up preparedness program will deter the Russians and prove to be a positive force for peace, Fisher warned against complacency at a time when the Soviets are building up a tremendous military machine and have been gradually extending the iron curtain.

"We know from experience that strength is the only language the dictators understand", he added.

Congressman Fisher is making a series of reports to the people on the highlights of the recent session and expects to visit in each county in the district in the near future.

Representative Fisher listed some of the highlights of the session as follows:

- 1. The doom of the isolationist and appeasers was spelled out.
2. The Reciprocal Trade Act was extended.
3. More was done for expansion of rural electrification than has been done in a similar period in history. Soil conservation, so vital to our Nation's economy, received further encouragement.

CONG. CLARK FISHER

4. Highway aid was continued for two additional years. About one-third of this is earmarked for farm-to-market roads.

5. The agriculture program was extended for another year.

6. A number of bills were enacted improving the rehabilitation program for war veterans, including an increase in subsistence allowances for students, an increase in the ceilings for on-the-job trainees, and an increase in benefits for widows and orphans of deceased veterans. The Courts Martial system was overhauled, designed to improve equal justice and assure fair trials.

7. A housing bill, giving veterans preference in the purchase of war housing units, resuming the insurance on home mortgage loans, and authorizing RFC to set up a secondary market for GI loan obligations, was enacted.

8. Government costs for the next year were cut by nearly $2 billion under budget requests.

Representative Fisher expressed disappointment over the failure of the Senate to act on the Tideland bill, the Mundt-Nixon bill to further curb Communism, and the measure to repeal Federal taxes on oleomargarine. All of these passed the House, he pointed out.

He opposed the so-called Civil Rights bills, and said they pertain to subjects the States, and not the Federal Government, should deal with.

Gospel Meeting At Church Of Christ To Start Here Tonight (Friday)

A Gospel Meeting will begin at the Church of Christ in Goldthwaite, Friday, July 2, and continue through Sunday, July 11. Services will be conducted twice daily: Morning services at 10:00 a. m. and evening services at 8:15 p. m. Each service, except Sunday morning will be held under the open air tabernacle just south of the church building.

For many years the Church of Christ has been importing an Evangelist to conduct the summer meeting, but this year it was thought best by those in charge to use "home forces". Mr. M. E. Blake, the local minister of the Church of Christ, will do the preaching and Mr. Lon Wright will direct the song services.

Mr. Blake came to Goldthwaite the first of last June and has done some very fine work in the church and in the community. He has established himself as a Gospel preacher as well as a Christian gentleman. Mr. Blake has been a useful citizen in Goldthwaite and came recommended from Longview, where he lived before coming here as such. Since coming to Goldthwaite, Mr. Blake has preached the Gospel fearlessly and with persuasion, and according to him, he will preach the Gospel in this meeting, "knowing nothing, save Jesus Christ and Him crucified".

The singing will be under the leadership of one of the best song directors in this part of the state. Mr. Lon Wright is very capable, and "sings with the Spirit and the understanding." The public is invited and all will receive a Christian welcome.

Johnson Visit And Barbecue Draws Crowd Of 2,500 Here Tuesday Noon

A crowd estimated at 2,500 assembled at the old baseball park just west of the Auction Barn at noon Monday to see Lyndon B. Johnson, candidate for junior United States Senator, land in his helicopter make an off-the-record talk, and then partake of an old-fashioned barbecue-beans luncheon that had been prepared by Mills County Johnson supporters.

The helicopter was delayed at San Saba and arrived here at 12:20, and Johnson dropped his hat at 500 feet above the crowd. "This is the 112th time I have thrown my hat in the ring from the air in the last three weeks," he told an Eagle reporter. "This hat has traveled farther in the last three weeks than most of my opponents have traveled since January 1."

Stores in Goldthwaite were all closed before 12 o'clock and everybody was down to see the landing. After his address Johnson ate barbecue with some 2,500 others, and then rested here until 2:30, when he took off for Lometa and Lampasas. At the latter place he spoke at 3:30 at the dedication of a park. He gave a major address at Temple Monday night and another at Brownwood Tuesday night, which was broadcast over Station KBWD. Other night stops this week were at San Angelo Wednesday night, Lubbock Thursday, Abilene Friday and Kerrville Saturday.

The Congressman was met here Monday by his 21st District campaign manager, J. Edward Johnson, and many other prominent Brownwood people. In his talk, he called no opposing candidate's name, but said five per cent of the people, millionaires, on one side, and five per cent, Communist, on the other were pushing from each end and if the 90 percent in the middle didn't watch out they might get squashed by these two organized minorities. He said that two self-appointed labor leaders met in a Fort Worth hotel room last week and endorsed one of his opponents. He said he was for the laboring man, but didn't want the AFL endorsement and wanted the endorsement of ALL the people.

The candidate predicted he would win the race without a runoff.

Johnson took a slap at an opponent's campaign pledge to bring government back to the court houses.

Not all functions of government can be solved at the county court house, the candidate said. He cited the Hoover Administration as government on the court house level.

It was a "do-nothing" administration under Hoover, Johnson continued. He reminded his ranch country audience that, under Hoover, goats sold for two bits each, calves for three cents a pound and the wool market was shot all to pieces, and he asked if that is the kind of government the people want.

CONG. LYNDON JOHNSON

Johnson continued to win editorial endorsements from newspapers both large and small. The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, describing him as "youthful, energetic and experienced," and that his promotion to the Senate would be "well deserved, and . . . calculated to pay rich dividends to the people of Texas."

Johnson continued to win editorial endorsements from newspapers both large and small. The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, describing him as "youthful, energetic and experienced," and that his promotion to the Senate would be "well deserved, and . . . calculated to pay rich dividends to the people of Texas."

Johnson kept demanding that Coke Stevenson, his chief opponent, "tell the people the truth" about the deal that resulted in Stevenson's being selected as the candidate of the Texas Federation of Labor. Pointing out that Stevenson has "refused to make any promises to the people," Johnson demanded to know, "What promises did he make to the labor bosses who endorsed him? What promises did he make to the millionaires in the ritzy Houston Club who are supporting him and having their pictures put on the front page of the newspapers with him?"

The hard-hitting Congressman said "it will be interesting to see how long this candidate can play both ends against the middle."

Johnson continued to win editorial endorsements from newspapers both large and small. The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, describing him as "youthful, energetic and experienced," and that his promotion to the Senate would be "well deserved, and . . . calculated to pay rich dividends to the people of Texas."

Johnson pointed out that "the people of West Texas need something done about conserving their water and soil. They need support prices on their mohair. They need blacktop roads and rural electrification. And they will vote for a man who will help get those things for them."

Red Sox Played Randolph Field Team Here Last (Thurs.) Night

The Goldthwaite Red Sox, having won all but three of its games played this year and having won all of its games in the Heart of Texas League, was scheduled to play its toughest game of the season here at Municipal Baseball Park last (Thursday) night. Reputed to be the best semi-pro baseball team in Texas, the San Antonio Randolph Field team made of all college athletes was to come here last night to play a matched game with the Red Sox. Y. B. Johnson will pitch and Larry M. Casland will catch for the Sox. Randolph Field team was a runner-up in the State Finals last year.

No games are scheduled for Goldthwaite during the next week. The Red Sox go to DeLeon Monday to play the last game in the Heart of Texas League.

On Thursday night of last week, Fort Worth Army Air Base fell to the locals here, 11 to 4, in a game that was interspersed with much arguing.

Last Saturday night the Red Sox met their third defeat of the season to date, when Howard Payne College of Brownwood romped in 12 runs while the Sox were making 8. However, Dale Reid and Charles Conradt, scheduled to play in the game, were waterbound at the Boys Scout camp and could not get here.

A large crowd saw the Red Sox run over Burnet here Wednesday night to the tune of 15 to 7. Dale Reid on the mound with McCasland behind the plate, were backed up by good fielding.

THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

M. D. LOWRY, Pastor PASTOR'S PARAGRAPH: There is no life but that is tempted to evil. Life is full of disappointments. More often than not, it seems, things will not come right, and we are ready to say with our inability to make things as we would like them, we, in our weakness, are often tempted to drown our disappointments, sins, and failures in alcohol and in the pursuit of hectic pleasures of the moment. We never escape the feeling, however, that it is a life dedicated to God that will give us what we actually seek.

In the program of the Church of Jesus Christ we may be aided in finding what we seek to the enduring satisfaction of ourselves and others.

Three of the greatest stars in all Hollywood have been assembled for "Daisy Kenyon," the latest Twentieth Century-Fox romantic drama that opens next Tuesday at the Melba Theatre. Joan Crawford, the Academy Award winner of two years ago, enacts the title role with Dana Andrews and Henry Fonda costared with her. Together Elizabeth Janeway's best-seller who fate brings together in a love that only two can share.

"Daisy Kenyon" deals with an independent career woman who life and love had trapped. Young gay, yet lonesome, Daisy Kenyon hungers for love but finds it next to impossible to clarify in her heart the inevitable choice between the smooth-talking, rich and polished New York lawyer and the lanky, but adoring ex-G.I.

Otto Preminger of "Laura," "Fallen Angel" and "Forever Amber" fame, was assigned by Darryl F. Zanuck to both produce and direct "Daisy Kenyon." He visualized Dana Andrews in the role of the married lawyer whom Daisy had long known, yet feared. Andrews, whose outstanding work in "Boomerang" and "The Best Years of Our Lives," had made him one of the most sought after actors in Hollywood, readily accepted. Preminger also persuaded Henry Fonda, whose top flight performances since the return from service rated him at the forefront, to take the other key role in "Daisy Kenyon."

WANDA HOBERTZ, EMORY MUEHLBRAD WED PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

In a candle-light ceremony Friday evening, June 11th, in the Zion's Lutheran Church of Priddy, Texas, Miss Wanda Hobertz, daughter of E. A. Hobertz of Priddy, Texas, became the bride of Emory William Muehlbrad, son of Rev. A. H. Muehlbrad, also of Priddy, Texas.

The groom's father officiated and vows were exchanged before the altar beneath an archway of honey-suckle and white roses. The archway was banked by bridal arrangements of gladioli and daisies.

Miss Malinda Niemann played a program of nuptial music including the familiar strains of Schengrin's Wedding March and the Bells of St. Mary's.

The bride wore a white satin and lace dress with a long train, designed with a sweetheart neckline. The veil which drew beyond the train of her gown as she marched down the aisle, consisted of lace which matched the gown. She carried a white Bible, topped with white carnations from which streamers of tiny ribbons bearing sweet-peas streamed forth.

Miss Rubeline Schlee, maid-of-honor, wore a light-blue taffeta gown with a corsage of white carnations. Misses Edeline Hobertz and Avelyn Hobertz wore pink and green taffeta gowns, respectively, also with corsages of white carnations. Flower girls were Karen Keesler and Sharan Ann Penkert, cousin of the groom. They wore gowns of white net over satin and carried white baskets of white and red rose petals. Ring-bearer was Leroy Niemann who carried the white satin pillow for the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. Clyde Kunkel, cousin of the bride served as best man and ushers were Delvin Muehlbrad, brother of the groom, and Leonard Penkert of Rosenberg, Texas, cousin of the groom.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, the huge wedding cake was the center of attraction during the informal wedding supper served to the numerous wedding guests, many of whom were from out-of-town.

The bride was a recent graduate of Priddy High School. Her husband, a veteran of two years in the Navy, attended Priddy High School, Texas Lutheran College and at present is attending Daniel Baker College. He will receive his BBA degree from the University of Texas next spring.

Our WASHINGTON Letter
By Congressman O. C. FISHER

PECAN OUTLOOK

One of the basic money crops in southwest Texas is pecans and, like mohair, the market for pecans has been unstable and the future uncertain at the moment.

The Department of Agriculture informs me that an average price of 18c was paid for seedlings last year and that shellers accumulated a considerable surplus. Presently, a survey is being made to determine the amount of pecans, as well as walnuts, almonds and filberts, on hand in warehouses. With that information, a forecast will be made later in the summer of what the supply picture will look like, added to the current crop prospects.

The forecasters claim they will then be able to estimate the price prospects, based upon the normal consumption balanced against the supply.

The pecan market in Texas at this time is quite depressed. Bill Millican, of Bend, in San Saba County, who is a leader in the industry, says the average price is now probably around 8c, which is entirely too low, considering the cost of production.

The School Lunch program uses a considerable amount of pecans each year, and we are urging that an even larger amount be used during the next school year. Some surplus pecans may find a place in the foreign aid program, though none are listed in pending requests. New listings are made quarterly, and I have been assured our pecan surplus will be kept before those who administer the program.

There may be good reason to have pecans included in the Government support program if the price does not stabilize. The Government purchase of peanuts resulted in very little, if any, loss to Uncle Sam, yet has been a big help to the growers. Already southeastern pecan growers and some shellers have been urging a Government program, and so have Oklahoma growers. Texas growers will hold their annual convention at Seagun on July 13, and will likely discuss their market problems at that time and make recommendations.

If the Government should undertake to support pecan prices, the amount paid would probably range between 60 and 90 per cent of parity. Right now, the parity on seedlings is about 24c. Sixty per cent would be around 5c a pound. During the past year the Government bought some walnuts at 51 per cent of parity and some filberts at 49%.

Jones Valley H. D. Club

GOLDTHWAITE H. D. CLUB MEETS

The Goldthwaite Home Demonstration Club met June 22 in the home of Mrs. Allen Ross, with Mrs. Floyd Sansom co-hostess. We sang "Together" and then roll call was answered with everyone giving their wedding anniversary and how many years they had been married.

Available library books were distributed to members. "Mama's Bank Account" has been added to our library. Council Delegate gave her report naming some new officers and giving Council budget. The budget was adopted. Mrs. Ellen Nickols was appointed assistant reporter and Mrs. Ellen Galloway, Exhibit chairman. We are happy to have Mrs. Galloway for a new member. Mrs. Haensch gave a very helpful talk on "Sewage and Garbage Disposal."

Mrs. Sansom presented ten children in a mock wedding ceremony. Norma Sue Ross sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Sansom at the piano while the wedding party marched in. Miss Patricia Guinn acted as bride, Master Fambrough as groom, and Master Galloway preacher for this occasion. The three-tiered wedding cake was served to eleven members, Mrs. Haensch, two visitors, the ten children, and Miss Ella Hintz, who is to be our new agent. We regret that Mrs. Haensch is retiring, but we are sure we are going to like our new agent very much and expect Mrs. Haensch to become one of our regular members.—REPORTER

Johnson Best Choice For Senate Post

HE IS A "DOER"

He Knows The Job

IN THE elections of this Summer, Texans will choose a United States Senator to succeed the retiring W. L. O'Daniel.

What this really means is that Texans will employ a man to represent them in the Upper House at Washington on a six-year contract; and, politics being as they are, give him an option on future terms if he does a good job on his first one.

Indications are that either Congressman Lyndon Johnson, or former Gov. Coke Stevenson will be the successful candidate. There will be other names on the ballot, but it is generally conceded that either Mr. Johnson, or Mr. Stevenson, will be elected.

It is pertinent, then, to look carefully at these two men; at the record each has written for himself in public office—and also to assay the future possibilities of each as a member of the U. S. Senate.

If Mr. Johnson, at 39, makes as good a Senator as his record in Congress indicates he will, he has an expectancy in the Senate of at least four terms—conclusion of which would find him only 63, a youthful age for a U. S. Senator. On the other hand, should Mr. Stevenson be elected this year—and make a much better Senator than "sitting tight" record indicates he can—his expectancy in the office would be two terms, the conclusion of which would find him in the middle seventies.

Seniority is highly important in the U. S. Senate and as Texans ballot this year they must take into consideration the future, as well as the present. Certainly a man who already knows his way around the maze of Washington departments, divisions and bureaus; who already has friends and supporters in the Congress, and who gives promise of giving energetic service for many years to come, is to be preferred over a man in Congress and who, at best, has only a relatively few active years ahead of him.

From every angle, Lyndon Johnson is the best choice available as Texans set about to fill the Senate vacancy. We hope for, we shall unceasingly work for, his election and we believe South Plains voters will join others in Texas to give him a whacking majority at the polls.

HE IS YOUNG

He'll Make A Good Senator

BUT TEXAS' problem in selecting a U. S. Senator is quite different from the one the state faced in filling the Governor's chair in the era of the Stevenson administrations. In the Senate, Texas wants a man who can and will do a great deal more than simply "sit on the lid." Texas wants a man who will—and who knows how to—"carry wood and water"; who is progressive and active.

Therefore, it is our opinion that Texans should send Lyndon Johnson to do the Senatorial job. We think Lyndon Johnson is the best available choice for the next six years and, just as firmly, we believe he is the best choice for the future.

Mr. Johnson, 39 years old, is rounding out a sixth term as a member of the national House of Representatives from the Austin district. During his 11 years in Washington, he has marked himself as one of the more energetic and capable members of Congress. Not only has Mr. Johnson been a very good representative of his own, 10th, Texas district. He also has been helpful in serving all of Texas and in sponsoring legislation beneficial to the entire country. He has been a "doer." He has proven himself fair to both business and labor, and a staunch and active friend of the farmer and the ranchman.

Mr. Stevenson is 60 years old. He served more than two full terms as Governor of Texas in an era during which a majority of Texans wanted a Governor who would "sit on the lid" and foster no important policies or practices in state government. This, Mr. Stevenson did admirably well. At least, most Texans, along with the Avalanche-Journal thought so and still think so.

Mills County Veterans' Vocational School

A very important philosopher who lived in an early age of our civilization once said, "There is a time for all things," or some such statement as that and as we believe in that philosophy our distributive education classes took a little time out after the class periods were about finished, on Wednesday night of last week for a little celebration. As a token of appreciation of the friendly cooperation and class work of these two classes under Mr. R. H. Williams and Mr. J. Oscar Swindle, a watermelon party was arranged by the instructors. In addition to the members of the two classes we had as honor guests Mr. Roy Bird, State Supervisor of T. and I. for this district, and Mr. E. D. Robertson, Co-ordinator for the Mills County Vocational School. The meeting was the last class period for Mr. Swindle in the capacity of instructor—hence the importance of the occasion. This is probably the reason why everyone seemed to have such a delightful time. At any rate, all seemed to enjoy themselves to the "fullest" and we believe every member of the classes made good grades that night, even the co-ordinator and supervisor.

With sincere thanks to all the employees and students, also to the good people of Goldthwaite and with best wishes for the vocational school, this correspondent wishes to say not good-bye but yours truly.

PUBLIC OPINION
By OTHO LOYD CRAWFORD
(The following is an editorial on Public Opinion written by Otho Loyd Crawford in December of 1946, in his first semester at John Tarleton College. He graduated from the Goldthwaite Schools with the class of 1946)

I would define public opinion as the thoughts of the people of a nation, state, or country on any subject and the expression of their thoughts. Public opinion is usually thought of in terms of the public's opinion on the political and domestic issues of the day. Public opinion is very powerful sometimes, and at other times it is at a very low ebb. Public opinion is the most democratic method of people influencing their government. When it is functioning it is the most powerful thing in the world. It can do things that statute laws, constitutions, documents, treaties, and international laws cannot do.

In the Greek city-states the people met in mass meetings and made their laws directly. In this way their opinion affected the laws directly and immediately. The government of the Greek city-state was the most democratic of all times; each individual had the opportunity to express his opinion. As civilization progressed and governments were conducted on large scales this method became impractical. Then the representative system was adopted. The people in small districts elected fellow members to represent them in the state or national capitol which was many miles away. This method is not as direct as the mass meeting. The representative is many miles from the people he represents. He must listen to all his constituents and decide what the majority favors or disapproves. In other words, he listens to the public pulse or public opinion.

We have the representative system in the United States, and as a result of that, not enough public opinion. The American government would be much better conducted if people made their opinions felt more. The only practical way of corresponding with a representative is by letter or telegram. Many people never take the trouble to write their Congressman, and then they complain about the way things go in Washington. The same is true of many people who do not vote. One old timer, when asked if he voted, replied, "No, I do not want to take any responsibility for what happens in Washington." The people who do take the trouble to write their Congressman are the minority that usually want special favors. A big propaganda campaign was necessary to sell the people on the necessity of the war. There are many organizations that try to influence public opinion. Thousands of pamphlets, booklets and radio speeches are made each year. Newspapers print editorials and influential men write columns in the papers daily in this attempt. Considering all of these attempts public opinion is generally dead on most issues. When public opinion is alive it is not felt, or it is directed in the wrong way.

The remedy is not easy. To actually remedy this evil one must start with the individual. It is the individual that makes up the public. Too often the importance of the individual is underestimated. Education is the only way we can ever impress upon the individual the necessity of assuming his full duties of citizenship. If you fulfill your duties as a citizen you vote and make your opinion felt after carefully studying both sides of the issue. The citizen writes his Congressman and asks the Congressman how he feels on issues of the day when he comes up for re-election, instead of saying, "Good old O'Daniel, I will vote for you anytime you will run." The citizen does not read Life magazine and formulate his opinion, but he reads other sources of information and intelligently makes up his mind. He does not let prejudices, race, or personal dislikes influence his decision. The main cause of lack of public opinion is that people do not care; they think that just one individual will not help matters. Because you, the individual, have not intelligently and unprejudicedly formed an opinion and made that opinion felt is the reason things are going badly in Washington today.

Democracy is based on public opinion and on every man having his own opinion. The Greek city-state was the best example of Democracy that there has ever

SCRIPTURE: I Kings 22:1-40. DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalms 138:1-4

Micaiah, A Prophet of Israel

Lesson for July 4, 1948

WE BEGIN a new series of studies this quarter—a series of lessons based on less known Bible characters that have much to offer us.

Such a character is found in Micaiah, about whom we learn in I Kings 22:1-40.

Ahab, king of Israel, planned an expedition to recover the city of Ramoth in Gilead, which the Syrians had taken.

He invited Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, to join him. Ahab relied upon his court prophets to predict victory; but Micaiah, the prophet of God, whom Ahab had shut up in prison, when he was summoned, at the insistence of Jehoshaphat, told Ahab the truth—the unpleasant truth—which subsequent events verified.

Brave enough to tell the truth. The first blessing in the study of this obscure Bible character, Micaiah, is to discover a man who was brave enough to tell the truth when he knew it was unpopular.

It is always the best policy to tell the truth, though there be many in today's world who deny this principle. It is not enough to say that we will tell the truth because it pays. That is true, but it is a by-product of doing what is right.

One must tell the truth because it is right to tell the truth. Men swear with their hand upon the Holy Bible that what they testify is the truth and nothing but the truth. But alas, such men often tell anything but the truth. They have been carefully coached to evade the truth.

Micaiah told the truth, because he was speaking for God. It hurt him, but it must needs be the truth he spoke to Ahab.

TRUTH DISREGARDED. Ahab scorned the words of Micaiah, and ordered him thrown back into prison. But scarcely had the prophet of God been thrust again into prison, until Ahab was bleeding to death in his chariot.

Men not only take their own lives in their hands when they disregard the truth, but, like stubborn Ahab, they bring grief to countless others. Had Ahab heeded the words of truth which Micaiah proclaimed, Ahab might have lived. Indeed, had Ahab heeded the words of truth, he might have recovered Ramoth, and more besides.

Truth may appear forever on the scaffold, wrong forever on the throne, but time always proves a hard taskmaster to the man who regards wrong instead of truth.

THE SOURCE OF TRUTH. GOD is the source of truth—all truth. If we miss this, we miss the lesson of the lesson. Note the words of the golden text, "As the Lord liveth, what the Lord saith unto me, that will I speak," said Micaiah.

Let us remember that it was God speaking through his prophet. Ahab could not have doubted that Micaiah was speaking what God had told him to speak. But Ahab did not want to hear the truth. He wanted to hear pleasing words that would encourage him in his evil plan.

God speaks the first and the last word on every subject, because God is truth. "I am the truth," said Jesus. And he went on to say, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

THE PENALTY OF DISOBEYING THE TRUTH. HORRIBLE, indeed, was the penalty which Ahab suffered for disregarding the truth. The way of the transgressor is hard—always hard. The wages of sin is death. Be sure your sins will find you out.

Take down your cherished books of history. What do they say to you? That the straight line of truth is the only safe way in which to walk. It is applicable for the individual, for the family, for the community, for the nation, for civilization.

Thus every great prayer must be, "Thy will be done." God's will is the way of truth. Micaiah declared it. Every true prophet must declare it. It is the only way to peace and joy in this world.

On Believing. All over the world now there is a reaction from the superficial talk that it does not make much difference what a man believes. We have learned our lesson. What a man believes makes a world of difference not only in what he does, but what happens to him.

HOMEMAKING PROGRAM EXTENDED

The homemaking department of Goldthwaite High School has, at the request of the local school authorities, been approved by the State Board of Vocational Education for a twelve months' program. This means that, except for a two weeks' vacation, the homemaking teacher will be in the community throughout the summer. This will also make possible a more extended program in homemaking. Girls who are enrolled for credit in summer experiences will be able to receive more assistance on their problems. Adult homemakers, out-of-school youths, and others who are interested may receive help on their problems by attending demonstrations and workshops.

During July the girls taking summer experiences will come to school on Thursday for group meetings. A meeting of the Future Homemakers will be held July 16 at 3 p. m.

Each Friday in July, a workshop will be held in the homemaking department, from 9-12 and 1-5 o'clock. Anyone desiring to use the facilities of the department is welcome to come and bring her problems. The pressure cooker, water bath canner, sewing machines, buttonhole attachment, and other machine attachments, such as zipper foot and seam pinker will be available for use in the department. The homemaking teacher will be present to assist with the use of equipment, and up-to-date charts, magazines, and bulletins will be available. If you have a piece of furniture you wish to upholster, a lampshade to be recovered, or any similar problem pertaining to the home, bring it to the workshop. It is more fun to work with other people! You must furnish all materials used. For large or complicated problems, such as upholstery, it is advisable that you contact the teacher in advance, in order that you may bring all necessary materials. Miss Fouse may be contacted in the department on Thursday and Friday, or by calling 171-J before 9 a. m. Remember this is open to former, present, or future homemaking students, out-of-school youth, and adult homemakers.

This is definitely an advancement in our school program, and the local school authorities are to be commended for this step forward.

ROTA-CAP my laying flock both spring and fall. Dr. Salisbury's ROTA-CAPS offer extra value because they contain Rotamine and remove large roundworms and intestinal capillaria worms as well. Heavy infestations can certainly reduce egg production so that's why I give ROTA-CAPS, a successful individual treatment. Try it on your flock.

FOR WIS-ON VACATION

Trainee-printer at office, his sister, Mrs. Ed. brother, Truman Wednesday afternoon to visit Mrs. sister. They expect to weeks.

Announcement

Announcements are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Mattie Jo Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green of Center City, to A. C. Kincheloe of Star. The ceremony is to take place at the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, July 3.

Mrs. Frank Oltrogge and son, John Edward, came Saturday afternoon for a short visit with Mrs. Emma Oltrogge and Miss Minnie who accompanied them to Priddy for a few days' visit in the Frank Oltrogge home. Mrs. Emma Oltrogge and Miss Minnie returned to Goldthwaite Monday afternoon.

Miss Minnie Oltrogge is spending a two-week's vacation with her mother, Mrs. Emma Oltrogge, and other relatives.

Sunday guests of Miss Nina Sunny were; Miss Mary Hardin of Hunt, Kenneth Karger and Charlie Kholes of Boerne.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Palmer attended an old settlers fandango at Albany last week.

CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE MAKES STATEMENT

In my announcement as a candidate to represent Mills and Comanche counties in the Texas Legislature I definitely stated that I would not make a personal canvas. I did not mean by this that I would not enjoy doing so. If there is anything I like it is people—I would like to meet you all. It has ever been my desire to be of service to the people of my section.

No one knows just what and how many problems will face the next legislative session but it is now apparent that an expanded farm to market road program will be one of them. Ours is largely a district of rural homes. Few things mean as much to rural homes as paved farm to market roads.

Another is that of Erosion, both soil and human erosion. Soil erosion can be materially retarded with graders, bulldozers and crops. Human erosion is much more complicated and should command the best thought of all good citizens. In this field the superintendent of our prisons and a prison board of a dozen or more competent men who have given serious consideration to the system tell us that our prison system is a losing institution financially and a disgrace morally. They feel that they can rehabilitate it and put it on a paying basis financially and a decent basis morally at a cost of $4,000,000. If they can it would be the best purchase the State of Texas ever made.

Water conservation is another problem that means much to practically all Texas. In so far as I know there have been no definite plans for relief worked out. It is a question worthy of our best study. And there will likely be submitted plans by different groups that engineers consider adaptable to their particular section.

A constitutional amendment repealing what is known as the "ceiling" on amount that may be expended by the Welfare Department on dependent children, blind and needy aged. I would favor the submission of this amendment.

As stated in my original announcement—All men must stand equal before the law. I will not knowingly aid or support any measure or plan that would aid or favor any man, group or organization at the expense of any other man, group or organization.

Be assured that I shall deeply appreciate the support of the good citizens of Mills County.

J. R. EANES,
Candidate to Represent
104th District.

HILLSIDE MISSION

By LIDA BYRNE

What wonderful works hath been wrought, especially in this hill country where all nature takes life for granted in its natural, tranquil beauty, where the sunsets are unsurpassed, where the flowers take on a more vivid hue than in some other localities, and where the fruit partakes of elements that make it more delicious in flavor. Where were those elegant peaches a year ago? Where were those big, juicy watermelons a year ago? Some people may say they came from nowhere, that they were just formed in the atmosphere and that they are nature of which we all agree, but who makes nature?

"Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth." Psalm 46:10.

"And why take ye through for the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: And yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?" St. Matthew 6:28,29,30.

"He saureth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: That he may
