Jay Partin Wins District Award In Soil Contest

The Mills County candidate for the Texas championship as the best ex-GI Conservation Farmer advanced this week to the regional competition, after having scored against Brown County's entrant. The Mills County standard bearer is Jay Partin, who lives one mile south of Priddy.

The award as the best ex-GI Conservation Farmer in the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District was won by Mr. Partin at a meeting in Brownwood last Monday afternoon. The meeting was attended by Ben R. Day of the Goldthwaite Soil Conservation office, by representatives of the Production Credit Association, County Agent George Reese, the Brown County Agent, representatives of the Conservation Supervisors of Mills and Brown Counties, and by a representative of the Farm Home Administration.

Mr. Partin was entered in the competition originally as the candidate of the Mills County Veterans Training School. The competition is sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Now that Mr. Partin has won the District award, he will be screened through a regional contest and if he wins there, he will go into the all-Texas State competition. He was selected on the basis of the soil conservation record that he established while he was in training under Instructor M. B. Harrison. A full report on Mr. Partin's soil conservation practices was published on the first page of the March 31 issue of the Eagle.

Concrete Poured For Dew Library Foundation Base

Construction work on the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library has proceeded to the start of erecting the framework.

Contractor M. F. Horton has finished pouring the concrete for the library's foundation and the forms were being removed late this week. Mr. Horton said that work on the framework would proceed late this week and next week.

The Library, which has received the resources of the Goldthwaite Public Library, is to be a brick-veneer structure of colonial style in the Williamsburg tradition. In addition to library facilities, it will have a meeting room for clubs and other organizations and a well-equipped kitchen.

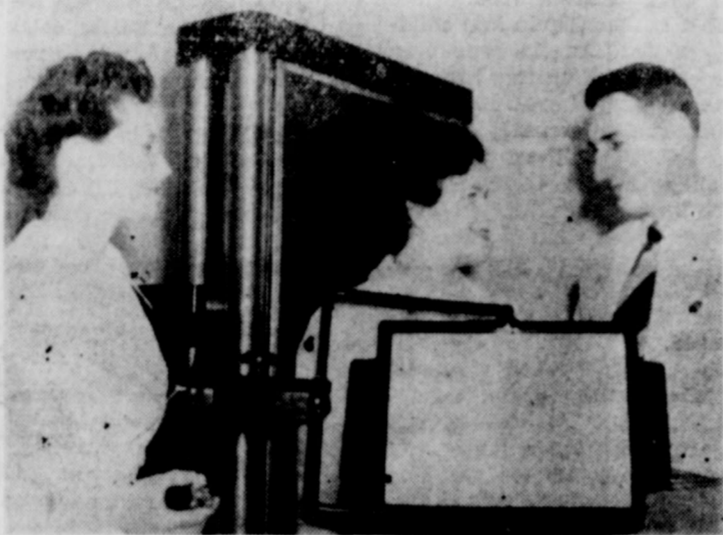

The Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library is being built just north of the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite with funds bequeathed to the Municipal Council by the late Mrs. Dew.

Red Cross Fund Now Tops $2,300

Latest returns from the Mills County 1950 American Red Cross fund campaign, as announced this week by General Chairman Warren Duren, show that of a quota of $2,600.00, the amount raised totals $2,317.58.

In addition to the contributions reported in the Eagle last week, Mr. Duren said that since then, $17.70 had been received from the Mt. Olive community, Lowell E. Burkes, Chairman; and $43.85 has been received from Prairie, Ralph Duren and James Aldridge, Chairmen.

Big Talent Show Friday Night Offers Tip Top Entertainment

The old Eagle, who has been in "show business" himself, went to a rehearsal this week of the Lions Club Talent Show and he certifies that there will be fun and entertainment in good measure at the Goldthwaite School Auditorium at 8:00 o'clock Friday night. In fact, tonight's Talent Show is so good that you should want to pick up your tickets early.

Ticket Salesman H. E. Patton announces that the tickets are on sale at the Production Credit Office on the north side of the Square. Reserved seats sell for 75 cents. Unreserved seats for adults are going at 40 cents and admission for children will be 20 cents.

The Eagle doesn't want to tell all about the show before it goes on the boards, but here is a sampling of what you will be able to see and hear at the School Auditorium Friday night:

Mrs. Louis Glass will appear as the Larry Parks of Goldthwaite. You all know what that must mean to Al Jolson. Dr. C. C. Sadler will appear as the Rudy Vallee of Mills County. In fact, the good Doctor's rendition of "My Blue Heaven" and "Harvest Moon," would make Rudy moan.

There will be an acrobatic dance by Margaret Reese. As if that weren't enough, there will be a tap dance number by three of the cutest little ladies you ever saw — Betsy Glass, Sarah Jane Cockrum and Janelle Jernigan. And the diminutive Caryn Glass will be up there tapping solo behind the lights like an old trouper.

In a couple of piano-vocal novelties, Mrs. Raymond Little will hippy-hop into "Chattanooga Shoe Shine," and there is good reason to suspect that she will put 'em in the aisles with "All Because You Kissed Me Good Night."

The school band, composed of youngsters and some who are older, will demonstrate their progress under Director M. D. Wolfe, and the Junior Schubert Choir, directed by Mrs. Sam Sullivan, will give the audience "Just An Old Fashioned Garden," and "Oh, What A Beeyuteeful Mawnin'."

Cubscoutmaster Ben R. Day has organized the Cubs to the point where they do a finished job on a Lion Hunt, all in pantomime, but with enough slapping to dispose of any lion. Janelle Jernigan in her solo "Little Miss Muffett, Sat On A Tuffett," may well steal the show, and there will be some remarkable piano numbers by Martha Carolyn Graves and Lathan Jernigan, and some fine

Four Remain In Race For Sheriff As Cooksey Quits

The number of candidates in the Mills County race for Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector was reduced to four this week with the withdrawal of Jack R. Cooksey of Mullin.

Mr. Cooksey said that he was withdrawing from the campaign to elect a Sheriff because of financial inability to continue.

"I wish to take this opportunity to thank those who have pledged their support," Mr. Cooksey said in making his withdrawal announcement. "I regret that I have to withdraw. As to the four remaining candidates, I will not attempt to recommend a choice. All of them are friends of mine and I say: May the best man win."

With the withdrawal of Mr. Cooksey, the roster of candidates for Sheriff now adds up to C. F. "Stub" Stubblefield, E. B. "Gene" Turbiville, W. W. "Bill" Fox, and O. H. "Oma" Shaw.

Mr. Cooksey issued his announcement last Wednesday.

The remaining candidates in the effort to obtain the nomination for Sheriff, Tax Assessor-Collector are subject to the July 22 primary election.

Last month there was another shift in the political preliminary sparring when E. A. Duren of Mullin dropped out of the competition for election as County Commissioner, Precinct 3.

The Goldthwaite Grammar School was well represented at the District Interscholastic Meet at Llano today, Friday.

Hooray!

The weather is simply wonderful in Mills County. There was rain late Wednesday night. It rained, a nice gentle, soaking rain after midnight, Wednesday. There was some more rain early on Thursday morning. Harry Allen's gauge in Goldthwaite recorded the rainfall as a bit better than 1/4 inch. Out Roy Lee Hill's way, three miles southwest of Star, Herman Ford reported 1/2 inch of rain. The beautiful part of the weather news was that it looked like more rain as the Eagle went to press.

Mostly Smoke

The Goldthwaite Volunteer Fire Department late Wednesday responded to an alarm from the area near the First Baptist Church. The cause of the summons was a scrap fire in an alley behind the home of Mrs. Willis Booker.

H. B. GILBERT JOINS TRENT STATE BANK AS VICE-PRESIDENT

H. B. Gilbert, formerly of Dallas, has been elected a Vice President and member of the Board of Directors of the Trent State Bank and already has assumed his duties, it was announced this week by E. T. Fairman, President of the bank.

Bible Class Has Record Turnout Of 137 On Easter

The Downtown Men's Bible Class on Easter Sunday set an all-time high attendance record of 137 for the usual Sunday morning meeting at the Meiba Theater at 9:30 o'clock.

Twenty-six men who never had attended the Downtown Men's Bible Class before were enrolled as members. The previous record attendance was 90, so 47 more than the prior record attended the Class last Sunday.

One of the features of the meeting was a solo by F. P. Bowman, who sang "God Give, eth," by R. E. Clements. The words and music for "God Give, eth" were written by Mr. Clements in August of 1948. It was the first song he had composed. It is scheduled to be played on the chimes of the First Baptist Church next Sunday.

Another feature was the presence of Bert and Calvin Weathers, who sang hymns in duo to Calvin's guitar accompaniment. The appreciation of the Classmen was shown by repeated requests for "more" by the Weathers Brothers. Calvin also led the Class in a very moving prayer. The lesson, by Teacher W. B. Wooster, was on the 20th Chapter of St. John. Mr. Wooster also referred the men to reference to the Resurrection in Revelations.

As usual, under the leadership of President Delton Barnett, the Class voted a number of helpful deeds, including food for persons in need, flowers for the ill and assistance in repairing storm damage.

Song leader W. C. Frazier urges all interested to read about the Class Singing this Friday night on another page of the Eagle.

Open Or Open, Brad?

When V. C. Bradford opens his big, new Western Auto Associate Store on the east side of the Square Saturday he will offer door prizes that include $25.00 in merchandise, an electric fan and an electric iron as first, second and third prizes, respectively. The prizes will be awarded at seven o'clock Saturday evening. Brad's store already is and has been open but on Saturday it will OPEN.

Mr. Fairman said that Mr. Gilbert, who has had a long and successful career in banking, will devote his full time to the affairs of the Trent State Bank, thereby further increasing the facilities and services of a financial institution that long has enjoyed a fine reputation, both in and out of Mills County.

For many years, Mr. Gilbert was a national bank examiner. He established a most commendable record and his long experience and his constant study of social and economic problems will bring valuable assets not only to the Trent State Bank but to this community as a whole, Mr. Fairman said.

"The Trent State Bank is fortunate in having obtained Mr. Gilbert's services, not only because of his seasoned record in banking, but also because of his personality and his understanding of humanity," Mr. Fairman added.

Mr. Gilbert has asked that the clients of the Trent State Bank, and the members of the Mills County community as a whole, call on him at the bank to become acquainted and to discuss their problems with him. In addition to his responsibilities in the functioning of the bank, Mr. Gilbert said, he intends, as time permits, to make as many personal visits as possible to Mills County business establishments.

After his secondary education in preparatory school Mr. Gilbert majored in business administration at Dickson College. His undergraduate work was followed by post-graduate studies at Harvard University, Columbia University and at Southern Methodist University, where the emphasis of his studies was on sociology, economics and law. He also pursued studies in journalism.

For a number of years Mr. Gilbert's banking activity was in the 11th Federal Reserve District. Additional experience included posts in Atlanta, Boston and St. Louis. He has traveled widely, thereby further equipping him for the constructive activity he has started at the Trent State Bank in Goldthwaite.

County Passes School Bus Aid On To The State

Transportation reports for the four Mills County schools have been filed on schedule in Austin, it was announced this week by Judge L. B. Porter, who is Superintendent of the Mills County Department of Education.

For children transported 65 per cent of the time or more, Judge Porter said, the County will be reimbursed $49.50 per pupil.

Filing of the reports, Judge Porter said, was made possible by the efficient work of his office staff and by the cooperation of Superintendents H. E. Patton of Goldthwaite, Wray B. Williams of Mullin, Leroy Beard of Star, and T. M. Cash of Priddy. State aid in the transportation of school pupils is of the utmost importance to Mills County taxpayers, Judge Porter said.

WHAT LIES AHEAD IN MILLS COUNTY

On other pages of this week's Eagle there are two news stories of fundamental importance to every man, woman and child who lives in Mills County. One tells of the achievements of C. E. Schwartz and his wife Gertrude on the 147 acres that they have been making highly productive in Priddy. That same story tells of the plans of Charley and Gertrude Schwartz for the immediate future. The other story tells of recognition that was given to Mills County boys and girls by the Fort Worth Star Telegram in its Ranch and Farm News of Sunday, April 2.

In Houston, when we began gathering information about Goldthwaite before ever coming here to see what there was here, we were told that Goldthwaite was a "nice place" but that it "never would be any bigger." That was discouraging, because it is a natural, economic law that there is no such thing as standing still. If communities stagnate, they go backwards. If they do not stagnate, then they can go the other direction, which is forward. Despite the gloomy outlook for Goldthwaite that was poured into our ears in Houston, we came here for a look. We found that there can be a wonderful future for Goldthwaite and Mills County. How bright that future will be depends upon how many people among us are going to work industriously, with intelligence and with vision as Charley and Gertrude Schwartz are working on their leasehold at Priddy and as they will work when they move into their own on the K. W. Witty place, which will become the Schwartz place. Our future depends upon how many of our young people stay right here to apply the "know how" that is told about in Frank Reeves' Article, entitled "Feeding Champs in Mills County," on page four of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's Ranch and Farm News of April 2.

Our economy has not matured. Production from the land in Mills County can be increased vastly. There can be a higher standard of living in every home in the County. Unless production is increased, unless everybody continues to strive toward an ever-better way of life, the merchants and the traders on and off the Square in Goldthwaite, may just as well shut up shop. The bank, the Eagle, the mercantile establishments and the service organizations that are here want expansion; they want a greater degree of prosperity — they not only want, but must have, a flourishing economy.

The basis for that economy is the activity on our farms and ranches. The ingredients for an expanding economy are here. First, there is the land itself. Then there are the people who tend the crops and raise the livestock. And there are such useful and powerful instruments as the Soil Conservation Service, the 4-H Clubs and the Future Farmers of America, the Rural Electrification Administration, the increasingly better roads and a host of other factors. There are merchants and business men and providers of service who understand our basic economic challenge and who are ready to contribute all they can toward an expanding economy. There are other factors such as communications and transportation, markets and supplies and equipment.

But the most important factors are the people. If the examples of Charley and Gertrude Schwartz, if the examples of youngsters who feed champions in Mills County are followed by enough others, the future here will be very bright. We still are pioneering in Mills County and we can make tremendous strides forward in a relatively short time if we meet our present-day challenges as the original pioneers met theirs. Charley and Gertrude Schwartz are doing just that—so are our 4-H Club boys and girls. Anybody who says that we have a "matured economy" is a quitter. Anybody who lets go unchallenged any such statement as the one that Goldthwaite "never will be any bigger," doesn't deserve to share in the benefits for which so many are striving. There will be no quitters and no persons with a defeatist attitude if all of us, each in his own way, follow the example set by Charley and Gertrude Schwartz.

DOWNTOWN MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

We believe that the all-time record attendance of 137 at the Downtown Men's Bible Class in Goldthwaite on Easter Sunday ought to be a cause for rejoicing by the entire population of Mills County. Many more lives than those of the men who were there will have been affected by the fact that they were there. Make it 150 next Sunday, men! The 26 men who were present for the first time should repeat, and take 26 more with them.

A disastrous fire Saturday seriously damaged the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sullivan on Fisher Street. The house had been struck by lightning in the thunderstorm about day break. It was recess time on Capitol Hill last week, as the House folded for the annual 10-day Easter pause. The omnibus annual appropriation bill was interrupted by the Easter delay and debate thereon will be resumed when the House reconvenes on the 17th. The resulting capitol dullness was in part offset by the annual outburst of the cherry blossoms. This festive occasion brings around a half million visitors to the Potomac. It looked like a natural this year the three-day blossom period coinciding with Easter Sunday.

Of interest to raw fiber producers is the comparison of consumption during 1949 with the preceding year, just announced. The consumption of all individual fibers decreased from 1948 to 1949, with the single exception of the non-cellulosic man-made fibers which increased by 21%. Cotton consumption declined 13.4% from 1948 to 1949, or by 596,400,000 pounds, and thus showed the greatest poundage decrease in individual textile fiber usage over the past year. Cotton consumption last year was about at its 1939-40 level.

Scoured wool consumption during 1949 (apparel class plus carpet class) totaling 515,500,000 pounds, was 27% or 189,000,000 pounds less than 1948 but nevertheless was still 28% above its 1939-49 average. Of this total, apparel class wool consumption at 353,900,000 pounds was 42% below the record year 1946 and 29% lower than 1948; however, this 1949 consumption was 17% larger than the 1939-1940 average of 302,900,000 pounds. As regards carpet class wool, consumption in 1949 was 22% lower than the record of 207,900,000 pounds consumed in 1948, but was still 60% greater than the 1939-1940 average of 101,000,000 pounds.

The 1949 consumption of rayon at 991,400,000 pounds declined from the previous year for the first time since 1936 and was 14% below the record high of 1948 at 1,149,500,000 pounds. But this 1949 consumption nevertheless was slightly greater than in 1947 and was more than double the 1939-1940 average of 470,000,000 pounds.

Two history-making cases were argued before the Supreme Court here last week, dealing with segregation. The Henderson case was one and the Sweatt case (from Texas) was the other. Decisions are expected by around the first of June.

The Henderson case deals with the right of the States to require negroes to use separate cars in railroad travel, but of equal quality, while the Sweatt case results from the demand of a negro for permission to enter the University of Texas law school. Our Attorney General, Price Daniel, argued the case, and earlier in the week made a vigorous defense of the Texas tidelands claim. The latter may be decided in a couple of months.

In the segregation cases, the negro appellants insist that, regardless of the relative quality of the school or railroad facilities, the separation laws should be struck down. Sweatt contended that even though Texas built and provided a negro law school, and even though it is just as good as the one attended by whites—or even better—the Court should make it mandatory that white schools admit negroes as a matter of choice and discretion on the part of the students.

The cases attracted a lot of attention in Washington and the decisions are being watched by their precedent-making significance. If the Supreme Court holds with the negroes, it appears that the same rule would apply to all schools, from pre-

The Eagle's
By The Editor

Perhaps Eagle readers who do not have time for careful perusal of the daily newspapers will be interested in the printing last Sunday of several Goldthwaite stories by the Dallas Morning News. The Dallas News last Sunday reported on the birthday of the Goldthwaite Fire Department, on the Lions Club Talent Show that will be staged at the School Auditorium tonight, Friday, on the action of the Goldthwaite Public Library and the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library in pooling their resources, and on the sad passing of John T. Heathery. For his part, the editor is glad to have news of Goldthwaite and Mills County published abroad, for he is proud of Goldthwaite and, most especially, of what we can be here.

Here is a bow, too, to the Lometa Reporter, whose Publisher, E. C. Lowe, was a recent welcome caller at The Eagle's Aery. Mr. Lowe went back home and wrote graciously of his visit in the Lometa Reporter. The editor appreciates your kind compliments, Mr. Lowe, but in this matter of geographic locations, it is Lometa that is some 20 miles from Goldthwaite. Up here, we are not anything from anywhere—other places measure their distance from us! The editor, having eaten almost everything in various places somewhere at some time, hereby calls Mr. Lowe on his proffer of a meal of Jack rabbit. Further, Mr. Lowe, after all of our talk of the importance of "names in the news," and the desirability of trying to have them spelled right in print, the editor hopes you won't mind being twitted over having spelled the editor's name wrong in the Lometa Reporter. You got the "Bud" okay, though.

At the Fairman Company's Open House last week Brian Smith, all dressed up in a Piggy Wiggy apron and cooking in public, turned out to be a good ad lib actor as well as a gastronomist. When Brian heard that Mae Houston, International Harvester Company home economist, preferred onions to Mr. Smith's mushrooms on her broiled steak, our own Peripatetic Historian said to Miss Houston, in the presence of the assembled multitude: "Lady, onions will build you up physically but they sure will tear you down socially."

Brian Smith also provided reminder last week that the American Red Cross works all the time. That is something we need to remember all the time, and not just during fund-raising periods. After his public exhibit of his culinary artistry and in his capacity as Executive Secretary of the Mills County Chapter of the American Red Cross, Brian Smith last week drove 105 miles in Mills County on a Red Cross mission in response to a call for assistance that originated in the Panama Canal Zone. The mission was accomplished.

A Mills County resident that did not get counted when Census Enumerator Kathryn Wilson was making her rounds was a jugged butterfly that was raised from a cocoon by Walter Fairman. Mrs. Wilson said that census enumerators are neither counting nor chasing butterflies. The editor wants to know if Mr. Fairman has yet figured out a butterfly diet.

The editor was informed so long ago as last Monday that spring had arrived in Mills County. Underneath

Hockersmith-Cook Vows Exchanged In Lovely Candlelight Ceremony

Before a fireplace in fern and chrysanthemums in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hockersmith, of Midway City, California, Miss Betty Ann Hockersmith and Thomas Cook, son of Mrs. Madeline Cook of Goldthwaite, exchanged vows February 4, in a candlelight ceremony performed by Rev. Kenneth R. Boyd, pastor of the Westminster First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Hockersmith gave his daughter in marriage in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends.

Miss Hockersmith wore a street length dress of royal blue taffeta, complimented with white accessories and white carnation corsage. Attending as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. William Peterson, wearing rose taffeta with white accessories and carnation corsage.

James Hazleton was the groom's best man. Mrs. Hockersmith wore a gown of black, with pink accessories and camellia corsage.

Mrs. Kenneth Hardman sang "Thru the Years" and "Because", accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Holmes at the piano.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of H. B. high school.

Mr. Cook graduated from Goldthwaite High School in 1947.

After a brief honeymoon they are at home at the Burkett Apts., Westminster Avenue, Westminster, California.

grocery business. He established the present Archer Geo. (another free plug) on its present site in 1915.

Just as last Sunday's party was about over, Mrs. Archer made it known that she was put out because the guests had not sung "Happy Birthday" to her. So the party put back into the Hangar and there was a "Singing." Those who sang, claim that Mrs. Archer was satisfied with the rendition. The guest of honor herself was not available for comment.

Mrs. M. E. Archer's Children Try, But Fail, To Snafu Party

Mrs. M. E. Archer celebrated her 76th birthday anniversary last Sunday amidst a controversy between Jane Hamilton and Leonard Archer over credit for the birthday cake and, sad to relate, with Mrs. Archer having to ask her children to sing "Happy Birthday" to her after they had forgotten to do it. Tut, tut, tut!

Mrs. Archer's birthday actually was last Monday, but it was celebrated on Sunday with a party at the Hangar that was attended by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hamilton, Leonard Archer and Mrs. Ellen Cockrum. Mrs. Archer's other children, who were not able to attend the party, are Mrs. Ellis Morris of Evant, and Mrs. M. L. O'Quinn of San Angelo.

Generally speaking, the party was a success despite a shot over Jane Hamilton's bow by Ellen Cockrum. Somebody wanted to know why Benny Benninger of Portland, Ore., in writing to the Eagle of April 7, had not mentioned Mrs. Cockrum. The Lady Ellen scored a direct hit with her reply that "I had not been born, yet, when Benny was in Goldthwaite in 1916."

Mrs. Hamilton, 29, insists that she made her mother's birthday cake—angel food—but Leonard Archer, obviously seeking some free advertising, claimed it came from his grocery store in the form of a "mix." Anyway, Mrs. Hamilton, who is conservative in such matters, put six (6) candles on the cake, which was inscribed "Happy Birthday, Mother."

Mrs. Archer, a native of Tennessee, first came to Goldthwaite in 1898. Her late husband, M. E., who died in September, 1948, was associated with the

INVITATION

Senior girls of the Goldthwaite High School have been invited to the annual high school day at Mary Hardin-Baylor college at Belton on April 15.

Senior girls from approximately 80 other high schools in the central Texas area also have been invited.

Art And Civic Club

The Art and Civic Club met in the home of Mrs. Jesse Moreland in its regular meeting Thursday, April 6th., with Mrs. George Gilbert as co-hostess.

This was the annual Texas Day Program and the subject was: "What Mills County Offers Youth." The subject that the Club has for the entire year is OUR COMMON INTEREST: YOUTH.

Three speakers presented a panel as follows: What Mills County has to Offer Youth Industrially—Mr. Y. B. Johnson; Agriculturally—Dr. T. C. Graves; Culturally—Mrs. W. E. Cantrell.

The industrial and agricultural possibilities of Mills County at this time were ably presented by the speakers. The Club expressed its appreciation for the work and interest of the speakers both in the County and in the young people of the County. Dr. Graves' own program of land improvement and experimentation with grasses is very well known in the state as well as his work among Boy Scouts and other interests.

Mrs. Cantrell pointed out that the over-all Culture pattern of the County is composed of both the economic and social opportunities offered to young people, and that the aim should be to present both in such an attractive form that our young people will be interested in returning to live in the County after graduating from school.

Mrs. T. C. Graves, Mrs. Bruce, Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Warren Duren were guests of the Club.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cooner were in Austin last week attending business.

Elizabeth Ince Is Royce Duncan Brown

Elizabeth Ince became Royce Duncan Brown on Sunday, April 9, in an evening ceremony at the First Baptist Church, Goldthwaite, the bride, the groom, the officiating minister, L. Emery, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Luther Springs, Mrs. Stockton Prayer, and Mrs. M. A. Wilton, Jr. and children.

The bride, Elizabeth Ince, Goldthwaite, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Duncan Brown. She is a graduate of the Goldthwaite High School and is currently attending the University of Texas at Austin.

The groom, Royce Duncan Brown, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Duncan Brown. He is a graduate of the Goldthwaite High School and is currently attending the University of Texas at Austin.

The ceremony was officiated by L. Emery, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Luther Springs, Mrs. Stockton Prayer, and Mrs. M. A. Wilton, Jr. and children. The groomsmen were Mr. and Mrs. Royce Duncan Brown.

brides. She wore pink net finger tip gloves and also a head-dress of pink net. Her bouquet was pink carnations.

Woodene Sparkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sparkman of Odessa, was the flower girl. She wore a pastel green organza dress with a hooped skirt and carried a small bouquet of pink carnations.

The candles which illuminated the altar were lighted by the bride's nephews, Billy and Richard Jones.

Mrs. Ince, mother of the bride, wore a navy sheer dress with navy accessories. She had a pink carnation corsage, and Mrs. Brown, mother of the groom, also wore a navy dress of Benberg sheer and navy accessories. She had a red carnation corsage.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The table was overlaid with a white lace cloth and adorned with fern. The three tiered cake, decorated with pink roses and a miniature bridal couple, and crystal appointments completed the decor. Mrs. Harold Roberson served cake and Miss Carol Ward poured punch.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for a short wedding trip. The bride changed to a suit dress of tangerine linen and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Some of the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Wolfe, Pat and Tommy, and Mr. and Mrs. James Brown all of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wilton, and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wilton, Jr. and children, Mr. Duncan, the bridegroom's grandfather, all of Richland Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slack of Abilene, Mrs. Algie Ross and daughter, and Mrs. Lloyd Litton, all of Brownwood, and numerous others.

John Stough Points The Way Toward Permanent Productivity

Last month John Stough, who became the Work Unit Soil Conservationist in Goldthwaite in 1942, made a speech at the Bangs Community Institute. Mr. Stough, who remained here until 1946, spoke on the assistance that the Soil Conservation Service renders to, in our own case, the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District.

In his speech, Mr. Stough said that if we, as a nation, are going to meet the demands for the conservation of our soils and men, then all of us must have a mind to work and follow "our present-day Nehemiahs." Because of the basic significance of Mr. Stough's speech and the application of it that ought to be made to the personal lives of all of us, the Eagle reprints the speech in full. The following is by John Stough:

The people of our nation have come to know that we must conserve our soil if we are to have continuous, abundant agricultural production. And, we have learned too, that it must be efficient conservation—the kind that will keep our land permanently productive.

In turn, soil conservation requires intelligent use and maintenance of our land resources. This may mean terracing to hold soil and conserve rainfall—it may mean proper use of our pasture grasses if we want to have and keep the good grasses which will produce the most pounds of beef, wool or mohair. It may mean adding a soil improving crop to the rotation in order to increase soil productivity,—or it may mean seeding grass on abandoned cropland, or land that has ceased to pay a profitable return.

We as soil conservation technicians realize that when a group or an individual asks his soil conservation district for assistance and the District in turn asks us to help him, we know that he has a problem and a desire to do something about it. We have come to know that effective soil conservation requires a plan—a workable, practical layout of the farm showing what needs to be done and what can be done in every field and pasture. It is at this point that effective planning takes place by walking over the farm or ranch with the landowner, field by field, pasture by pasture, discussing each problem with him on the ground and developing plans for treating each acre according to its needs, and the desire of the landowner. We endeavor to assist the landowner only in doing those things which he can not do for himself in the development of this plan and at the same time we try to lead him to realize that there is no substitute for quality and thoroughness. An effective workable plan meets the desire of the landowner as well as treating each acre according to its individual needs and each acre, according to its individual capabilities. Each acre of land, like each human being, is different.

The trained soil conservation technician has learned that half-way measures will not do the job. Each conservation measure applied to the land is designed to support another one, and the conservation work on one farm is carried out with an eye to the next farm. This viewpoint is essential, for erosion has no respect for boundary lines. Gullies do not stop at fence lines and neither do dust storms.

We are finding one of the most promising things your district is doing to get permanent conservation applied on the land is utilizing the advantages of neighbor groups. An example of these neighbor groups is the Salt Branch Group. This local type of farmer cooperation is being used here in your district for speeding up the program of planning, applying and maintaining conservation.

Essentially, the Soil Conservation Service is a corps of trained, experienced specialists in soils, plants, animals and land use, organized to work cooperatively with farmers out on their land, chiefly by supplying technical assistance, all the way from planning the work to helping with its application and maintenance. And too, the service carries on, in cooperation with the State Experiment Stations, throughout the country, a program for the development of new and better methods of conservation and for getting immediate, practical answers to questions that are constantly arising.

Erosion is a major threat to the prosperity and the very life of the country. Some people regard erosion as a cancer in our agriculture, because where erosion is permitted to go on unchecked for a very long time, the standard of living soon goes down. Around the world, since the beginning of history poverty has followed in the wake of erosion. Therefore, I say to you the conservation of soils and water is one of the imperative jobs of America.

There is no political, economic, social or scientific disagreement about this fact. Fertile soil is a matter of national concern. Louis Bromfield expressed his concern as follows: "We know now that poor, worn-out land, makes not only poor crops and scrubby cattle, it makes poor under-developed, under-nourished people as well. The great problem of American Agriculture is the decline of human stock through the decline in fertility and mineral content of the soil itself. 'Poor land makes poor people', is a saying every American should have printed and hanging over his bed."

There are a number of men in our own District who have somewhat the same feeling—for example, George Goss and Buck Means who preceded me on this program. It is these men and others like them who are helping us overcome our present situation. I am reminded of the situation which faced the Jewish people after their release from Babylonian captivity. The people knew the wall around Jerusalem must be rebuilt but the task seemed so enormous they could not muster the courage to begin. They dreaded the job and put it off for 68 years.

The prophet Nehemiah arrived on the scene and through skill and unmatched leadership convinced them of the necessity for doing the job. He created a desire within them and then led them in the task. The job was accomplished in 52 days. Biblical history records the statement, "And they built the wall, for the people had a mind to work."

So, I say to you that if we as a nation are going to meet the demands for the conservation of our soils and men, we must all have a mind to work and follow our present day Nehemiahs, and when you and I do that, the job will be done in record time.

Gertrude And C. E. Schwartz Succeed In Fine Partnership

By H. R. Ekins

In two years, after having started from scratch, Charley Schwartz of Priddy, in a wonderful partnership with his wife, the former Gertrude Tegemoller, has provided an inspiring example of what can be done in these parts to contribute to the greater prosperity and well-being of everybody.

This reporter believes that by application of hard work, knowledge and team play on a farm and ranch in Mills county, we can have a permanent here. He was with T. Fairman, the growth-potential in the upshot of the President State Bank took to see for himself that Charley and Gertrude had come, in a fine place, which they will be able to call their own, and where they will carry on, on the basis of the experience gained on their present leasehold.

His wife, Gertrude, is Charley Schwartz's only help, but last year they raised 18,000 fryers in the poultry department of their place. They realized an average profit of 10 1/2 cents per fryer. Charley knows about production costs; he knows that starting with a chick he has to provide about eight pounds of feed per chick to come up with a 2 1/2 pound fryer. But he doesn't pretend to know it all; he reads and studies and he makes it his business to learn from his own observations.

When the banker and reporter went to call on Charley Schwartz he was engaged busily in the management and care of 484 hens, 1,184 pullets and 113 cockerels. The birds, all White Rocks, are for breeding stock, and Charley and Gertrude Schwartz already have sold the eggs before the future layers are big enough to lay them. Even on his present place, Charley has been able to raise about half of his feed, and even when he had some cotton, he traded seeds for feed. He has found time for sidelines, such as taking in orphan calves, which were fed by Schwartz cows, and then sold at a profit. Charley had some cattle around, and sometimes he has some hogs. He hasn't overlooked any bets so far, and he aims to branch out some more, when he gets on the K. W. Witty place.

The reporter noticed that Charley and Gertrude Schwartz's house was the abode of self-respecting persons. They had some poultry houses and other structures that Charley had put up himself. His animals and his birds showed signs of intelligent care. He had just had tests for pullorum, and out of 865 birds, only three had been affected. He was past the first danger point with his chicks and he was all set as to what to do if later coccidiosis appeared.

The credit of Charley and Gertrude Schwartz at the bank is good. They have disproved the unwarranted crack that "Texas promises everything and gives nothing." What Charley and Gertrude Schwartz mean to all of the rest of us is brought out on the editorial page of this week's Eagle. Charley Schwartz didn't have to wander to find the bluebird of happiness. He has shown that work and brains and the partnership of a good wife will do alright within sight of his own birthplace.

Local Army Unit Reorganizes For More Efficiency

Details of the new streamlined Army Organized Reserve Corps program were announced today by L. A. Sparkman, commanding the 4847th V-Mail Detachment here.

The new program, designed to improve the efficiency and readiness of the Reserve, is now being put into effect. Sparkman, who emphasized that the new program is dependent on the availability of funds.

Under the new program, the ORC will have three principal subdivisions: The Active Reserve, The Inactive Reserve and the Honorary Reserve.

The Active Reserve will be divided into two parts: (1) the Organized Reserve, which will include all members assigned to troop basis units plus personnel needed upon mobilization to augment Regular Army units and staff agencies; and (2) the Volunteer Reserve, consisting of individual officers and enlisted personnel needed to increase the Army of the United States in the event of mobilization.

The 4847th V-Mail Detachment will come under the Volunteer Reserve.

Fairman Organ Is Dedicated At Baptist Church

The Fairman Memorial pipe organ and chimes were dedicated at the First Baptist Church last Sunday night although the designer and builder, Dr. Robert Markham of Baylor University in Waco, was unable to be present.

More than 700 pipes went into the construction of the organ, and the chimes in the Church tower can be heard easily at a distance of approximately two miles in any direction. The organ has a two-manual control with both interior and exterior chimes. The console, also made by Dr. Markham, matches the other woodwork in the Sanctuary.

The organ and chimes, presented by Walter Fairman, represent a memorial to the late Stella Prater Fairman, who for many years was active in the First Baptist Church. Family members who were present for the dedication included Mr. Fairman, Mrs. Myra Clark of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Youngblood of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Taylor of Nevada. They were week end guests of Mr. Fairman.

In his address of dedication, the Rev. Joseph L. Emery, Pastor, eulogized the late Mrs. Fairman and said that her chief interest "always had been with this Church, that it might always be an outstanding example to all men of what real Christianity is." Brother Emery expressed appreciation of Mr. Fairman's generosity.

Dr. Markham was unable to attend the dedication because of illness. Mrs. Emery, the Church organist, played an organ recital following Brother Emery's dedicatory message.

Mrs. Sarah White of Lampasas is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Perkins of Star. A recent visitor to the Perkins home was Mrs. White's son, Robert White of Lubbock.

Ranchers Hear Turney Discuss Range Practices

Forty-seven farmers and ranchers from all parts of the Mills County portion of the Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District heard Henry Turney, Range Conservationist from Dublin, tell about the possibilities of range and pasture development in this area at the meeting of the Goldthwaite Farm and Ranch Group on the night of April 6.

Mr. Turney pointed out the strategic location of this area between the forested lands of East Texas and the dry, short grass country of West Texas.

In this rainfall belt, he said, the climate and soils will support mid-grasses which are well adapted to economical livestock production. He recalled the stories of old-timers who remembered that the grass in the country grew "up to the stirrups on a horse".

Turney then outlined the practices that could be carried out on range land and pastures. Proper management of native grasses is the best practice for rangeland, while tame pastures can be fertilized, renovated, mowed and overseeded with clovers.

The group saw slide pictures of different range conditions and good conservation practices that ranchers are using to increase the beef production on their range land.

After the meeting, F. R. Baird,

Stockton Daughters Home For Eastertide

Virginia Stockton, who is a teacher in the post school system at Randolph Field, and Elizabeth Stockton, a student at STSTC at San Marcos, visited during the Easter season with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Stockton of Goldthwaite.

Kenneth Campbell of Fort Worth visited over Sunday with his mother, Mrs. S. S. Campbell, who is recuperating from injuries she received when she fell and broke her leg. She is doing nicely.

Mrs. O. C. Weatherby had as Easter guests her sons and their families, Lester of Fort Worth, and Roy from Goldthwaite.

rancher in the Payne Gap community, and Mr. Turney who owned ranches in New Mexico. Mr. Baird said that most ranchers stocked their range land with 25 to 30 cows per section in that country while Mr. Campbell ran only 10 per section. Turney asked Mr. Baird which one made the most money. Mr. Baird replied, "Mr. Campbell was the only rancher who didn't go broke during the depression".

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

The value of deep-rooted perennial grasses in native ranges is evident from the observations made last week by the technicians of the Soil Conservation Service as they checked pastures that were deferred last year with cooperating farmers and ranchers. On the Priddy ranch, King Ranch, Texas, is making a vigorous, growth. In his deferred range, the native grasses such as little bluestem Indian grass, and grama have put green leaves in spite of the weather and are furnishing ground for grazing. Last summer's drought has given the native grasses a chance to develop deep root systems and to regain their vigor. The additional litter on the ground helps to catch and hold the much needed moisture.

Mr. Schuster has a vigorous growth of native grasses which can depend on if the weather continues. Many farmers consider their deferred pastures as insurance in case of emergencies. Mr. Schuster has in order to improve the pastures in order to improve the range and stand of his better pastures.

On the T. C. Graves' ranch the little bluestem is making a vigorous early growth. His seed plot of native grass will make seed this summer with a little help from the weatherman. Harding grass is a deep-rooted perennial winter-growing grass that Dr. Graves is observing on his ranch.

The Madrid Sweetclover is holding its own, especially the second years growth. J. H. Priddy and Ray Priddy are watching the fine growth their clover is making. The sweetclover on Charlie Swindle's farm is looking good. R. C. McCollum's Madrid Sweetclover is coming out from the deep-rooted crowns for the third year from one planting. Of course, he has a good volunteer crop of clover, too, and he has not plowed the land in three years. R. C. McCollum also has a deferred pasture that is green now.

Farmers and ranchers are faced with two problems. One problem is how to hold the water on the land and get it in the soil and the other is how to utilize the water after it gets in the soil. A good cover on the land, grass, vetch, clover or crop residues will protect the soil from raindrop splash and will allow the water to seep into the soil. Deep-rooted perennial grasses not only make a good cover for the land but they can utilize the available moisture because of their extensive root systems and long growing season. Madrid Sweetclover opens up the land so that water can enter the soil and it draws water from the subsoil if necessary. Vetch has proven its value as a cover crop and also its benefit to the crops that follow.

Mrs. Charles Frizzell attended the meeting of the Southwestern States Telephone company Wednesday of last week at Brownwood.

OES Chapter Being Organized At Star

A Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star now is being organized in Star. It will be instituted on the night of May 4.

Chief officers of the Chapter, which probably will be named Star Mountain, are Mrs. Edna Horton, Worthy Matron; Paul Horton, Worthy Patron; Maureen Soules, Associate Matron; John Soules, Associate Patron; Mrs. Florence Sheldon, Conductress; Mrs. Lenis Lee, Associate Conductress; Mrs. Ethel Neighbors, Secretary; and Jim Soules, Treasurer.

Christine Ince Honored With Pre-Nuptial Shower

Miss Christine Ince, bride-elect of Royce Brown of Richland Springs, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Thursday afternoon, April 6, from 1:30 to 6:00 o'clock in the home of Mrs. M. F. Horton with Mrs. Finis Rascoe as co-hostess.

In the receiving line were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Earnest Ince, and two sisters, Mrs. Finis Rascoe and Mrs. Douglas Jones. Miss Carol Ward poured tea, Miss Shirley Kline presided at the bride's book, and Mrs. Calvin Sparkman of Odessa received the gifts for Miss Ince.

Hillside Mission

Decorations of bridal wreath and red verbenas were carried throughout the receiving rooms. Miss Ince and Mr. Brown were married Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite.

SCHOOL BOARD

The School Board for the Goldthwaite Independent School District met at the High School last Monday night. Secretary S. H. Rahl said the meeting dealt with routine matters only.

Worry cannot alter conditions and often troubles which seem to be unsurmountable, can be ironed out in time, especially if one depends upon Providence for guidance. Proverbs 3:3, 6 says: "Trust in The Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths."

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Summy had their daughters, Miss Lilian Summy of Waco, and Miss Nina Summy of Boerne, home for the Easter holiday.

 "I have some good reports to blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, San

TRIBUTE

With the death of Mr. R. C.
 Johnson, another of our stalwart pioneers passed on to his reward.

Coming as he did, a young man from Georgia he had a contribution to make to the cosmopolitan lore and customs of Texas.

He married Miss Julia Bird and together they established a house which sheltered not only their own four children but many others. For several years an orphan nephew, Carl Taft, made his home with them, and after the death of their daughter, Hattie (Mrs. Pate Maborn) their seven grandchildren made the Johnson home their headquarters. Oft times some young man who helped farm, lived with them and after they came to Nabors Creek it was with them the local school marm found lodging and board. Guests were always welcome; so many came to partake of their generous hospitality.
 Mr. Johnson considered his word his bond.

Mills County, Texas, and the Nation has lost a good man, a good neighbor, and a good citizen.

Washington News

Even though the counting of noses just began on April 1st, the Census bureau has already made its predictions. One thing sure is that some tremendous shifts have taken place. The biggest increase is forecast for Oregon, where since 1940 the number has jumped by 59.3%. Next is Nevada with an increase of 56%, California with 53.6%. Texas upped its total by 17%, while five states are due to show decreases. Those are Mississippi, Oklahoma, Nebraska, North Dakota and Montana. The national average gain will be 13.4%, the Census experts predict.

A few chuckles were heard in the cloak rooms last week when old Drew Pearson whose accuracy is usually taken with a grain of salt up here, writing of Rep. Gene Cox of Georgia, described him as a "poker-playing partner of the Speaker (Sam Rayburn)". What caused the chuckles was the well-known fact that Sam Rayburn not only doesn't play poker but actually doesn't know one card from another!

New Sweet Feed Mixer At H. E. Moreland's

A new, shiny red, sweet feed mixer, the only one in Mills County, went into operation last week at H. E. Moreland and Son, on the south side of the Square in Goldthwaite.

The contraption, which is a marvel to behold, mixes molasses with feed at the rate of sixty 100 pound bags per hour. Backing up the mixer, which pours out dairy and sweet feed, is a tank that holds 40,000 pounds of Molasses.

The Eagle paid a visit to the new facility and became convinced the trip was worth it just for a whiff of the aroma.

CHAPPELL HILL—

(Written For Last Week.) By PEARL CRAWFORD

And suddenly its Spring; all nature takes wings, and eyes are opened to the recurring miracle of life. Warm breezes brush the earth to open buds and renew the ripple of the stream.

Instinctively, birds fly in search of season to build their nests. They are sure to have it full on new "chirp chirps" and sing a welcome to the first flower that peeps through the ground.

The fragrance of new growth is exciting and your own heart sings as you tackle new jobs.

Albert Schuman of Priddy presented this scribe two multi-colored cards, all dressed up for Spring. Thanks to you Mr. Schuman.

Mrs. Roger Smith and Mrs. Bill Partin have turned the pages of yesteryear and are enthusiastic about the new Spring hair do.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Evans received a nice flock of baby chicks Saturday.

B. J. Crawford visited N. C. Karnes Tuesday, another sign of Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Conner, Dorothy and Mary attended church at Mullin Sunday.

Mrs. Bill Partin and son were dinner guests of Miss Pearl Crawford Thursday.

Mrs. Roger Smith and Mrs. Knowles called at the Crawford home Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevens, Mildred and Edwin and Miss Pearl Crawford visited Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Calloway and family of Houston visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Calloway during the week. Dan and his family were on their way to their new home in the state of Kansas. Dan grew to manhood on his daddy's farm. He has a host of friends here who wish them happiness and success in their new home.

A host of neighbors gathered at Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hardgraves last Tuesday when their home was destroyed by fire.

At last the little house is still. To dream a house's dream. And darkness comes to dim the hill.

Without a window gleam. For nights are not as once they were.

The last wild fire is dead, And pillow lies in dust That heid the bowed head.

Sue Nora and Claudie Ann Leverett of Brownwood were Sunday guests in the Claude Eacott home.

He hopes that will be good news for the advertisers and he hopes that all of you will agree with him that it is good for our community to have a number of people away from here interested in what goes on here. Maybe if we realize that we are being looked at by eyes other than our own it will be incentive to work harder and to make Goldthwaite a better and more prosperous city.

Thank you, Madame Postmaster. The New Boss is grateful for an idea for a column. He hopes that the next time your skirt gets caught in the archives, you will lift the lid before trying to pull it out. By the way, it does your toe no good to kick the archives.
