Stock Show Preview Slated For This Saturday

The annual Mills County Livestock Raisers' Association Show Preview will be held Saturday of this week, September 19, at the Agricultural barn in Goldthwaite.

Robert L. Steen, association president, stated that about fifty calves from Mills County will be on exhibit during the day. The various calf feeders will bring their calves to the barn early Saturday morning and they will remain there all day.

All calves will be on exhibit and will be led through the ring at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Everyone is invited to come down to the barn anytime during the day and to be present at 2:30 p. m., to see what feeders have and what the prospects are for Mills County calves for the local show and also the big shows of the state.

George Reese, county agricultural agent and Y. B. Johnson, Jr., vocational agriculture teacher, both have stated that boys feel they have in their feed lots some of the finest calves they have ever had. Mr. Steen also commented: "We have the best prospects this year we have ever had for prize show calves."

Bears On Prowl For Reindeer Find Grady And Jack Carothers Instead

It must have been quite a surprise for a couple of big bears when they invaded what they may well have considered a happy hunting ground with reindeer meat for midnight snack and found instead one Grady Carothers and his son Jack with blazing guns.

That is what happened last week Friday night up in Canada where Grady and Jack were camped for the night with their trailer load of Reindeer which they are bringing to their Goldthwaite ranch from Alaska.

They were awakened about midnight when two big bears invaded their herd of reindeer which had been staked out for grazing. It happened at mile post 335, just above Dawson Creek, from where Grady sent in one of his diary reports to the Eagle on their way to Alaska a few weeks ago.

According to information, given Mrs. Carothers by telephone Saturday, they discovered the bears going after some of the reindeers and Grady grabbed his gun and worked his way through the herd and shot one of the bears, but, failed to get him since they worked their way into the timber. Three reindeer were injured and Carothers told his wife that he expected two would recover and it looked like they would lose one.

After this happened they loaded their herd and started on their trip towards home.

Red Sox Defeat Stanley 4-2; Last Play-Off Game This Sunday

Goldthwaite Red Sox won the fourth game of the play-off Sunday to even the games with Camp Stanley at two each. The Red Sox came from behind in the early stages of the game to overcome a one-run lead and were ahead the rest of the game.

Even though Camp Stanley collected 12 hits and the Red Sox eight, it was a pitchers' duel most of the way.

Minor, who pitched for Camp Stanley, went the entire distance and pitched good ball.

Mistovich, Goldthwaite southpaw, gave up eight hits and two runs in the seven innings he was on the mound. Spoons, local hurler, did a fine job relieving in the eighth. With no outs and two men on bases he

Twenty-Five Graduates Attend First Reunion For Class Of 1924

By SIDNEY PASS
The 1924 graduating class of Goldthwaite High School held its first class reunion in Goldthwaite September 5 and 6. Twenty-five of the thirty-eight graduates were present.

Ex-students began arriving in town Saturday morning. Shortly after lunch the group began to assemble at Lake Merrett where the festivities came into full swing by late afternoon. Car by car and family by family the ex-graduates and a few others drove into the grounds where, by about 5:00 o'clock, the crowd had increased to ninety-six in number. James Alldredge and his family of Palestine, Texas, were the first out-of-towners to arrive on the grounds.

Renewing of acquaintances, guessing who was who after twenty-nine years, picture taking, and visitation in general consumed the afternoon.

About 3:20 p. m. John Jones of Mercury, Texas, arrived with the meat which he was donating for the occasion. The local fellows had the pit already filled with live coals. Soon the meat was turning into barbecue which was ready to eat by six o'clock. Serving started at once.

Local ladies—classmates and wives of classmates—had prepared salads and beans, and had baked cakes fit for a contest. And it was a contest—a contest to see who could eat the most!

PROGRAM: EVENING FEATURE

An informal program in the open was presented shortly after the feast. John Ross of Corpus Christi, president of the graduating class in 1924, opened the meeting with appropriate remarks, then gave the reins to Lucille Miller O'Brien who served as program director for the evening.

D. A. Newton was asked to give the invocation. Mr. Newton came to Goldthwaite as superintendent during the senior year of the class of 1924.

Mrs. O'Brien explained how the class reunion movement began. She called upon Frazier Henry, now a school executive in San Angelo, to lead the class in singing the old school song, and a number of other songs. Delton Barnett assisted.

Laura Featherston, now Mrs. Nolan Horton of Ponca City, Oklahoma, interpreted the class motto which had been written in Latin. The motto was "Not to live, but to amount to something, is life."

Robert Steen brought a few words of welcome. The response was given by Sidney Pass of Abilene.

Earl Summy made a brief talk in memory of the only deceased member of the class, Alvis Taylor. Attention was called to the remarkable fact that only one out of thirty-eight members had passed away during the twenty-nine years.

Pearl Casbeer of Austin read the old class prophecy which had been written twenty-nine years ago by Mabel Goode, now Mrs. Glynn Johnson of Aztec, New Mexico.

The remainder of the program was devoted to impromptu remarks by various persons. Mrs. O'Brien read humorous and sentimental notes from her old high school memory book. These brought laughs and refreshed memories.

Members of the graduating class moved into the club house about 11:00 o'clock for a business session. It was decided to hold another such reunion on Labor Day weekend in 1954.

ACTIVITIES CONTINUE SUNDAY

Eleven of the class members, together with their families, attended services and sat in a group at the First Baptist Church on Sunday morning. Some others attended other churches in the city.

Seventeen graduates and several other former class members, along with their families had lunch together Sunday at John Jackson's Hangar on the San Saba highway. Forty-six attended the luncheon.

Salvation Army Drive For Funds In Mills County Will Open On Tuesday

The Salvation Army, for the second year, will campaign to raise $500.00 in Mills County. The quota remains the same as it was last year, and the local Service Unit is now handling all local and transient emergency relief cases that are brought to the Unit's attention.

Lewis Hudson, local business man, said in accepting the Chairmanship of this drive, "I know of no other organization anywhere that can do so much with so little. We can help hundreds of people in many, many ways by raising only $500.00 in this county."

Warren Duren, County Chairman, said today that last year we were just getting organized and now that we have funds available we are helping whenever help is needed and there should be no problem in raising our quota of five hundred dollars in this campaign. There are no more collections by tambourine, and the people in Mills County are asked to contribute one time each year to this renowned rescue organization.

IT'S PART OF GROWING UP!

When four-year-old Johnny grabs a toy away from his younger sister, his mother probably will take immediate steps to correct him.

She may talk to him and explain what he did wrong — or, if it is a repeated offense, she may punish him — but whichever method she uses, her purpose will be to teach Johnny good manners.

Johnny's mother knows as do millions of other parents, that learning good manners is a part of growing up. She wants Johnny to be well-liked and popular when he gets older, and so she knows she must help him become well-mannered.

If Johnny's mother is wise, she will put just as much effort into helping him form safe traffic habits. It can be just as slow and painstaking a job as teaching him good manners. It can be even more important.

Learning safe traffic habits also is a part of growing up — indeed, how well the lesson is learned, and often does, determine whether a child will have a chance to grow up. Last year more than 4,000 children, killed in traffic, didn't get that chance.

Recognizing the importance of traffic safety for our future citizens, the Texas Safety Association and the National Safety Council are conducting a month-long program on child safety in September.

To this vital and worthy effort we would like to add our support, and this advice to parents:

"Teach your child safety as you would good manners."

Martin May Succeed Taft as Ike Adviser Cite Speaker's Ability To Work With Democrats

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—Congressional circles anticipate that House Speaker Joseph Martin (R), Massachusetts, is the most likely candidate to become President Eisenhower's closest Capitol Hill adviser now that Senator Robert A. Taft is dead.

While Martin will not infringe on the prerogatives of Senate Majority Leader William F. Knowland (R), California, he is expected to become an influential White House trouble-shooter when Congress returns next January.

Both Knowland and Vice President Richard Nixon will be preoccupied with the task of maintaining the precarious margin of control the GOP holds in the Senate and of preventing any disputes within the party itself. Martin has the temperament, the skill, the experience and the authority to carry the ball for the President and smooth the way for Mr. Eisenhower's legislative program.

The amiable New Englander is recognized as an adept compromiser and a shrewd parliamentary tactician. He is less likely to offend sensitive feelings than was Taft, whose blunt speaking dismayed even his most ardent admirers at times.

Another attribute which will serve Martin well in his trouble-shooting tasks is the fact that during the years the Republicans were the minority party, he developed a close, harmonious working relationship with the southern Democrats.

In a showdown on controversial legislation, Martin would be a valuable behind-the-scenes strategist in lining up southern support for the Eisenhower position.

SOVIET AIR MIGHT—Secretary of the Air Force Harold G. Tambo says there are 1,000 long-range Russian bombers in Siberia capable of reaching any place in the United States with atomic bombs. There are another 5,000 tactical planes in Siberia.

These warnings were made in a speech which received little circulation and little attention, but they added up to a grim warning that the United States is very vulnerable to a Soviet air attack.

Talbott did not say so, but the Air Force estimates that at least seven out of every 10 bombers sent to attack the United States, in the event of war, would get through United States defenses and be able to drop their bombs.

American officials are worried also by reports that the Soviet Union is training Chinese Communists to operate submarines, which are being turned over to the Red regime.

BATTLE LINES—The political battle-lines are now drawn for next year's congressional election campaigns. Both political parties are using the period of relative quiet in the capital—with President Eisenhower, the Senate and the House all out of town—to work out final strategy details.

Both the Democrats and the Republicans will center their campaigns on Mr. Eisenhower. The GOP will point with pride to the accomplishments of the administration. The Democrats will say that Ike could not have done it without Democratic support—as they already have in the party's Democratic Digest—and that the President's goals would have surely failed if he had to rely wholly upon his own party.

However, the Republicans are allowing their political foes plenty of room in which to sound their claims. The GOP believes it can puncture these claims easily when the time comes.

This belief is based on the fact that while the Democrats are saying they carried the President's program through Congress, they are also charging that Congress has accomplished next-to-nothing. To Republicans, this is a contradiction in terms—saying nothing was done, but that the Democrats were "responsible" for getting it done.

Following a contemplated shortage of water this summer, the city council has undertaken to drill a number of wells on the city property in the northern part of town.

It will be interesting to get the report of results when local bear hunters return from their trip to Montana in about two weeks. Hollis Blackwell, Walter Glenn "Spot" Saylor and Carl Letbetter left last week Wednesday for a two or three weeks trip which will take them to the territory north of Yellowstone Park where they will try their luck at bringing down some bear. A number of their friends are looking forward to their return and to learn about their experiences. Before they left we told them we are looking forward to a complete report of their activities and Carl informed us that they would bring not only a report but also some pictures of the bear they plan to bag. "I hope," said Carl as an afterthought to the statement about pictures. Well, let's hope they get their bear, each one of them.

night, we elected you as our president." Sid informed them that he was chairman for this year's event only and then in short order they made sure that he would stay in the saddle and elected him for next year. Sid, by the way, sent in a most complete report on the meeting and what transpired. His complete report appears on another page of this issue.

It has been reported that there was a lot of laughter on Saturday night when some of them brought out some of the finer arts of certain members of the class as exhibited during their high school days. The class oratorcy was read and then there was also brought to light some works of some of their prize poets of those days. Reports have it that one of our own local businessmen, none other than Robert "Bob" L. Steen, has the title, or was given the title anew, of being the class poet. If not the class poet, he was credited with at least being quite good in the finer arts. There was something about "The rat runs over the rafter," and "The girl I'm after," which was supposedly credited to Bob's writing ability, that brought back many happy memories to the group. Being a good scout he probably wouldn't mind telling you all about it if you care to approach him on the subject.

New Ways To Serve Sardines

By ALICE DENHOFF

SARDINES are good to eat as is, of course, but people with a bit of imagination and ingenuity like to take a favorite food and work it into various dishes. Sardines go especially well in salads, and so here are some ideas that smartly incorporate the interesting flavor of lightly smoked Norway sardines. Try them out. We think you'll find them easy to make and delicious. They're sure to bring compliments your way.

For a wonderful potato salad, perfect fare for summer lunches or suppers, combine 3 c. diced, cooked potatoes, one c. chopped celery, one c. sliced radishes, 2 c. hard-cooked eggs and 2 tsp. minced onion.

Mash with Fork

Mash a 3 3/4-oz. can Norway sardines and oil with a fork. Add 1/2 c. thick sour cream, tsp prepared mustard and 1 1/2 tsp. salt to sardines. Combine with potato mixture, mixing well. Set aside for an hour or so before serving. Garnish with contents of additional can of sardines for a really substantial salad. Serves 4-6.

Sardine-Vegetable Salad is different and delicious.

For 4 servings, combine 3 c. shredded cabbage, one large carrot, shredded, and 2 medium-sized apples, finely chopped. Remove sardines and oil from 3 3/4-oz. can of sardines and mash together with a fork. Add 2 tsp. cider vinegar, tsp. salt and 3/4 tsp. prepared mustard to mashed sardines. Combine with vegetables. Chill well before serving.

Simple Salad

For another salad idea, drain oil from the contents of a 3 3/4-oz. can of sardines. Wash 6 small tomatoes, remove stems and slice in thin slices. Wash one small cucumber and cut in thin slices. Arrange tomato slices on platter and cover with cucumber slices. Lay sardines on top. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper and 1/4 c. chopped water cress.

Now for a quickly prepared and excellent hot dish Drain oil from contents of 3 3/4-oz. can of sardines. Place oil in skillet and heat. Carefully place the sardines in oil. Cook over medium heat until sardines are lightly browned on each side. Place on platter and garnish with chopped parsley and lemon wedges.

Mullin Bulldogs Defeat Pottsville 37-0 In First Game Of Season

Mullin High School Bulldogs opened their 1953 six-man Grid season with a smashing victory over Pottsville last week Thursday night on the Bulldog field, winning 37-0.

The Bulldogs had complete control of the game from the time they received the kickoff until the end of the game.

Pottsville boys put up a good fight and showed lots of spirit and good sportsmanship but were unable to keep the Mullin boys from ripping through the line.

The Bulldogs gained 401 yards on the ground and completed 3 out of 7 passes for a gain of 40 yards. They made 17 first downs against their opponent's three.

Wayne Mosier right half, and Wesley Lee, left half each crossed the goal line one time and left end Harley Ethridge and right end Bill Lindsey each crossed the double stripe two times. Myron Hillman, quarterback, did the passing and punting. Big center Bob Edge and Harold Holden did a splendid job as well as W. H. Simpson, who did a fine job as defense center.

Others who turned in a good game were ends Joe Reeves, Doyce Anderson, Joe Don Ellis and Connie Simpson, backs Clinton Chesser, Jimmy Davidson and Ross Rowlett.

The Bulldogs expect more trouble next Friday night at 8:00 p. m., on the Bulldog field when they entertain the boys from Lohn.

Coach Raymond Williams says that from what he can find out the boys from Lohn are good and will be hard to beat.

School District Arranges For Student And Personnel Insurance

In a recent school board meeting it was decided that the school will again arrange for Student Insurance this year for continued protection of every student desiring such protection. Contract was entered into with Continental Life Insurance Company of Fort Worth, Texas, the same company that covered the school pupils last year.

Superintendent Jones reported that 191 students and teachers participated last year and paid in a total of $191.00 or $1.00 per person. Injury payments coming back into the school district amounted to $311.50 with the heaviest payment going to Roger Dale Schuman who was injured as he traveled homeward after a day in school. This payment to Mr. Schuman amounted to $303.00, a great relief to a family of an injured boy. Second largest payment was to A. Waddell of $32.50 for treatment of a broken arm. The amounts scaled downward to as little as $5.00 for skin breaks requiring stitches.

Blanks were given each student on Monday of this week, to be executed by parents of those wanting the coverage. Who will return the blank to the child's teacher along with $1.00 and the child will be covered for the entire school year while traveling to or from school and while at school.

This policy is similar to the insurance carried by the school on each football player but does not cover injury sustained in practice or scrimmage. The school carries the policy on each varsity player at a cost of $3.75 per boy. It is definitely understood that the school can be responsible only to the extent of the coverage of the policy. Any player may carry both policies and receive full protection while in school. Policy cost on football and all other sports was $191.25 and resulted in a payment of doctor and hospital bills in the amount of $372.15. Greatest benefit went to Chester Berry on a broken arm of $212.50 scaled down to as low as $5.00 for stitching skin breaks. Football coverage is with Security Life & Accident Company of Denver Colorado.

Please be reminded that a deadline must be met in returning the application blanks if your child is to be protected. Teachers, lunch room workers, bus drivers and other school employees are eligible to participate in this school policy. As a courtesy of the company, every child is covered for a period of 30 calendar days to allow time to get all applicants in to Fort Worth.

Doves' Diet Tips Hunter

Austin, Spec.— Texas hunters having trouble locating mourning dove targets were advised to watch for food and water areas used by the game birds.

The suggestion came from the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission. He noted that north zone hunters who know their dove diet have been having much better luck than those trusting to luck to locate the birds.

He said doves are very fond of weed seeds such as sunflowers and croton. They also like grain such as maize.

One handicap to the hunter since the rains came is that water is more accessible and thus the doves do not concentrate at tanks like they do in extremely dry weather.

Some hunters, who dress their own game, study contents of the birds' crop and then plan their hunting trips accordingly.

Ellis M. Sevier Funeral Services Held Thursday

Funeral services were conducted for Ellis M. Sevier, age 79, at the First Methodist Church, of Goldthwaite, September 10, at 3:00 o'clock by Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, pastor of the church.

Mr. Sevier was the son of the late B. P. and Sarah Ellis Sevier. He was born in Ellis County, Texas, January 2, 1874, and passed away September 9, after having been ill the past two years. As a young man he began work for the Goodnight Ranch and continued with that organization after it became known as the XIT Ranch. He had resided in Mills County the past 20 years, where he was a stock farmer until ill health prevented him from working.

He united with the Methodist Church in early life, and was also a member of the Masonic Lodge at Dalhart, the El Paso Consistory No. 3 of Scottish Rite Free Masonry, having advanced to the 32nd degree, and the Khiva Temple of the Mystic Shrine of Amarillo.

At the time of his death he was a member of the Goldthwaite Chapter No. 694 of A. F. and A. M.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Nellie McGuire of Denver, Colorado; a grandson, John McGuire, also of Colorado; and a sister, Mrs. Dan Yates, of Goldthwaite.

Interment was in the cemetery of Bethel Methodist Church under the direction of the Roy Wilkins Funeral Home, with the Masons in charge of the graveside service.

Pallbearers were: Leo Edleman, Oscar Burns, Charles Haenisch, John Hester, Loy Long and Roy Simpson.

PARENT PROBLEMS

The Child Who's A Slowpoke

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

SOME children entering the kindergarten or first grade, will often chew a finger, gnaw at the nails, some parts of their clothing or a pencil. Some children will be so jittery they won't be able to sit still. These children may annoy the teacher, and how very uncomfortable they must be themselves. Of course, few of them begin these practices on entering school. Usually they have been at them for a long time.

A mother writes of her child, four and a half: "She chews on anything and everything she can get in her mouth. Just recently it was a hole in her T-shirt, then it has been fingernails, greenery from out-of-doors, any kind of clothes, rubber bands, string, pencils, papers, anything hard or soft. She has done this since her baby days."

Still Sucks Finger
"She started sucking her thumb as an infant, and my doctor told me to stop it; when I tried to do so, she started on her index finger. I gave up then and to this day she still sucks that finger when bored or going to sleep. It's very aggravating."

And I'm at my wits' end at her slowpokeness. Please send me your bulletin, "The Slowpoke," in the enclosed stamped self-addressed envelope."

I did, also "The Nervous Child." And in about this way I answered her:

Please study these bulletins carefully. I hope you let up on urging her to hurry, especially till after she gnaws less and grows more serene and happy.

(Copyright, 1953, King Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

First of all, you should have this child very carefully checked physically by a medical specialist. Try to ascertain whether she is getting proper items in her food.

Problem Intensified
Since it's been such a long story over her sucking her finger and chewing things, it is easy to see how you have been annoyed by it and have nagged at her. This, of course, has only intensified the problem.

I don't believe you will get anywhere by attacking this problem directly. You will need to pursue a long program of working on yourself to be more relaxed and less annoyed at this child, and to cultivate more good fun with her, finding more ways to make her happy and celebrate her successes. I hope you also emphasize her playing with other children and learning to take care of herself; that you all keep your voices down and protect her from too much exposure to radio and TV.

Unfortunate Attitude
Your saying "It's very aggravating," indicates an unfortunate attitude on your part. She doesn't do this on purpose; she does it because she is so tense and jittery inside. Usually, she can't help it, and she won't be able to help it till she feels more comfortable and secure.

She needs more assurances of your affection by your tender tones, by the way you listen as she speaks, by the way you smile at her and make her feel that all is well and she's a worthy person. But don't look for results right away. Be happy if you see improvement after a month or two.

The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years

New Conoco Super Gasoline

with TCP

Boosts power as much as 15%! Increases spark-plug life up to 150%! Gives you extra gas mileage, too!

Here's the most revolutionary advance in motor fuels since the introduction of tetraethyl lead in 1922—new Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP, brought to you by special arrangement with Shell Oil Company. TCP is Shell's trademark for the remarkable additive originally developed for aviation fuels.

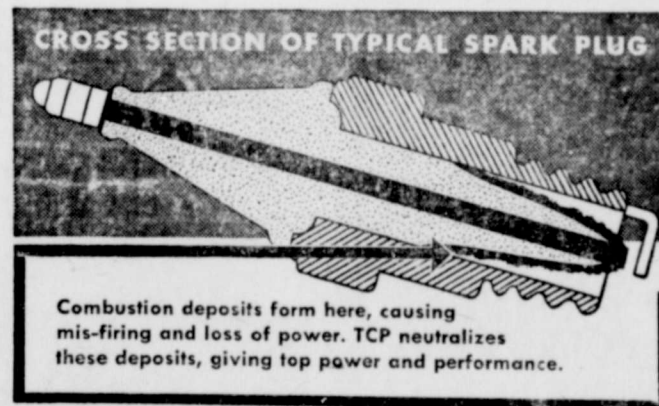

Now you can actually enjoy the benefits of an engine tune-up—just by changing to new Conoco Super Gasoline. Chances are, by the time you've finished your second tankful, you'll feel the increase in power. And you'll keep that extra power just as long as you use Conoco Super.

For Conoco Super with TCP is a new kind of gasoline. It overcomes the greatest single cause of power loss affecting most of the cars on the road today. Now, you can enjoy all the power that was built into your car.

Why you need Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP

In the average automobile, the by-products of fuel combustion constantly build up deposits on spark plugs and in combustion chambers. These deposits can "cheat" you of power in two ways. First, they actually short-circuit your spark plugs. This causes mis-firing. Second, deposits in the combustion chamber get red hot and cause the fuel to ignite before it should. This is called pre-ignition or "wild ping." The effect of fouled spark plugs and pre-ignition is a loss in power and a waste of gasoline.

© Patent applied for by Shell Oil Co.

Combustion deposits form here, causing mis-firing and loss of power. TCP neutralizes these deposits, giving top power and performance.

How TCP works

TCP is a special chemical additive which is added to Conoco Super Gasoline. It was specifically developed to overcome the loss of power and fuel caused by combustion deposits. TCP neutralizes harmful deposits on spark plugs—your plugs spark as they should. It prevents deposits in the combustion chambers from causing pre-ignition—"wild ping" is controlled. Thus, every time you fill up with new Conoco Super, it's like getting your spark plugs cleaned and your engine tuned-up.

TCP helps your car, whether new or old

If you are driving a new car, with a high-compression engine, you need Conoco Super Gasoline to keep your car delivering all the power that was built into it. It will actually increase spark-plug life up to 150%. If you drive an older car, with tens of thousands of miles on the speedometer, Conoco Super can restore much of the "new car" performance and power you've been missing.

Yes, a great new era in motoring is here for you. Drive into your Conoco station today and fill your tank with new Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP. You'll feel the difference by the second tankful!

Questions and answers about New Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP

GWIN - DALTON CLEANERS GOLDTHWAITE

News Of The Ebony Community

By CLEMENTINE WILMETH BRILEY

Another week of drouth has been our lot, and added to our calamity has been the lack of wind to turn the windmill. Stock water is very low on the Briley farm, and if the wind will not blow, we shall soon have to drive our cattle elsewhere for water.

News from the Regency oil well breaks the monotony. Stanley Reeves came by the Briley home Saturday evening hunting some calves that had strayed from his pasture. He said the oil well had completed its contract by drilling 2,002 feet. At about 1,140 ft., they passed through two oil-bearing strata that might make a paying well. He had his information from Johnny Humphries, who had been working on the well.

Sunday afternoon the Dwyer-Briley trio went to Regency to visit Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eger. Henry said a picture of the oil well showed the two oil-bearing strata, and also another stratum at the bottom of the well. The promoters are having the well plugged back to the second oil stratum, then they plan to shoot it. He says people from everywhere have been flocking there, and promoters are talking leases and royalties. Wednesday, September 15, was set to shoot the well. Also a rotary rig from Odesa is down about 700 ft. on the Philen place.

Charles Henry Griffin of Lockland Field, San Antonio, came last week with his sister, Mrs. Ed La Rue, of San Antonio, to spend the weekend with her folks.

Clayton Egger of Houston spent the weekend at home. Stanley Reeves said that Mrs. Reeves, who has been visiting in Oklahoma for sometime, would be at home Monday. Mrs. Wade Ann Harbor and Bobby Joe Wood, both of Regency, left Sunday for Lubbock to enter Texas Tech.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cawyer and Edna Dwyer, then went on to Abilene where they left Edna to enter her senior year at Abilene Christian College.

Mrs. Edna Dwyer and Mrs. John Briley attended a meeting of the Winnie Davis Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the lovely home of Miss Cora Posey at Indian Creek Friday. Mrs. Alexander gave a history of interesting facts connected with "Why Winnie Davis was called The Daughter of The Confederacy." The ladies served lunch on Miss Cora's large screened porch. After lunch Mrs. Dwyer, Mrs. Briley, Mrs. Ollie Willson, and Miss Maggie Grady visited with Mrs. Irene Reeves a few minutes in her nearby home. We found her mug as a bug in a rug, with plenty of room, and everything fixed up pretty. On our way home we patronized the Indian Creek store and came by the post office for a money order and a visit with our old friend, Mrs. Edna McClung, Post Mistress.

On our way to Indian Creek Friday we saw Frank Crowder and John Holder finishing up to the pavement one strand of fence for the Mills County part of the Brownwood-Richland Springs road right-of-way.

The first reunion of the descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Josh Philen Sr. and the late Mr. and Mrs. Bob Philen, who were citizens of Ebony, was held Sunday, September 6, at Coggin Park in Brownwood. Those attending the reunion included: Mr. and Mrs. Josh Philen and

News Of Chappell Hill

By PEARL CRAWFORD

We mountain folks were made happy about four o'clock Sunday afternoon when the little gale blew in. Our windmills had been standing still almost four days and nights. Some livestock had suffered for water. We hardly had enough water to do the cooking and dish washing. We drove our livestock to the Stark ranch to a dirt tank and hauled water for house use and flowers. O. A. Evans and Floyd Daniel gave us a helping hand.

Bill Partin and B. F. Humphries were also on the list of being scarce of water. In the valley the windmills just kept running.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Daniel and Mark were made sad Friday at noon when their little hound pup was run over by a car on the highway in front of their house. The puppy was carried to Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Daniel, who gave it first aid. At last report it was on the road to recovery.

Friday the electric repair man was on his way to the Mrs. O. C. Weatherby ranch. We have new neighbors to move in soon.

O. A. Evans helped Mr. Duffner stack feed last week. A. L. Crawford and Bill Partin took turkeys to the market last week.

This scribe visited Mrs. F. H. Tiemann Wednesday afternoon and enjoyed some home made ice cream with Mrs. Tiemann, R. J. and Alvin G.

Bill Partin was a Sunday dinner guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Partin.

Mrs. A. L. Crawford spent last week taking care of her mother and sister, Mrs. R. A. Stevens and Miss Loia.

Mrs. Avery Manner and Pearl Crawford visited at the Stevens home last Monday. O. A. Evans was a business visitor at Mullin Saturday afternoon. On his way he called in the Bob Reynolds home.

Henry Iler combined maize for A. L. Crawford last Tuesday. The wedding bells rang for Junior Humphries and Billy Faye Hastings on Monday of last week.

J. C. Bramblett was a recent guest of his parents, Mr and Mrs. C. M. Bramblett.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Daniel and Mark visited Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Daniel Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Shipman were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sutherland Friday.

A. L. Crawford and William G. attended the ball game at Goldthwaite Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Shipman of Arizona, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Shipman and family of Brady and Mr. and Mrs. Stone Shipman and daughters, also of Brady, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Shipman.

W. P. Oxford visited F. H. Tiemann Friday.

Guests in the B. J. Crawford home Sunday and during last week included: Mrs. Pearl Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schindler of Bangs, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G., Bill Partin, and Bob and Alford Cockrum. Mr. Cockrum told us he had visited William Cline at Caradan and found William on the sick list. The Clines and Cockrum brothers are former residents of this community.

We were sorry to hear about Mrs. J. W. F. Wiggly getting her arm broken in a fall. We were happy to learn she is recovering nicely.

Marion and Alford Cockrum attended the Ellis Sevier funeral at Bethel Thursday afternoon. Mr. Sevier and the Cockrum boys were neighbors during their childhood. Ellis had a host of friends in this community. We wish to express our sympathy to his sister, Mrs. Mollie Yates and sister-in-law, Mrs. Ida Sevier.

Class Of '24

After lunch the majority of the class drove to the high school building which had been opened through the courtesy of J. T. Jones, present superintendent of schools. A lot of fun was experienced in going through rooms and looking at desks where the former students had sat as seniors twenty-nine years ago.

Earl Summy and Nina Steen Summy invited the group to their lovely home just west of the school grounds. A couple of hours of wholesome fellowship were enjoyed there, with the closing event of the nearly two day reunion of the Class of '24.

CLASS MEMBERS ATTENDING

away, Pearl Casbeer, Millard Cockrum, Laura Featherston Horton, Hulon Fletcher, Florence Gray Hallum, Verna Hall Miller, Frazier Henry, Nolan Horton, Norman Jackson, John Jones, Myra Kuykendall Kyle, Wesley Linkenhoger, Lucille Miller O'Brien, Sdney Pass, Annie Richardson Roberts, John Ross, Leta Simpson Taylor, Robert Steen, Lute Stephens, Earl Summy, Walter Summy, and Lucille Welch.

Others attending not graduates, but who had been classmates at certain times were Delton Barnett, Leon Baker, Alva McGowen Dalton, Vivian Glover Powers, Lona Kerby Tuiolos, Bowie Long, Lawrence Weathers, and Johnnie Harper. Claude Hearne, another former Goldthwaite student, came.

Two other former teachers besides Mr. Newton attended the reunion. They were Mrs. Mohler Oglesby (Johnnie Belle Harrison), and J. W. McCann.

OFFICERS ELECTED
A brief business session was conducted at the luncheon on Sunday at which time Sidney E. Pass of Abilene was chosen president of the '24 group. James T. Alldredge was elected vice-president; Walter Summy, Goldthwaite, was made treasurer, and Pearl Casbeer selected as secretary.

Earl Summy was appointed as local arrangements chairman for the 1954 reunion. All other local '24 graduates will be members of his committee. Pearl Casbeer was appointed as program chairman for the next meeting.

LOCAL COMMITTEE PRAISED

Robert Steen of Goldthwaite, together with the other local graduates, are due a hearty vote of thanks and appreciation for the splendid degree of success attained throughout the reunion. The entire Saturday afternoon and evening scheme of arrangements were well planned and systematically carried out. All members of the home town group were constantly on the alert to be gracious and to extend every act of hospitality possible. The visiting classmates and members of their families are deeply grateful for every courtesy shown by the home town classmates.

Family Gathering At Eula Nickols Home

Mills County Baptists Take Part In "A Million More In '54" Drive

Churches of the Mills County Baptist association will observe Preparation Week for "A Million More in '54" September 20-27, it was announced today by T. C. Chaney, of Mullin, associational Sunday school superintendent.

This special week is the kickoff event in the campaign of Southern Baptists to enroll a net gain of a million people in Sunday school in the coming year.

Evening sessions will begin at the Goldthwaite church Monday, September 21, at 7:45 and continue through Friday. A new book, "The Pull of the People," by J. N. Barnette, will be used as a guidebook for study and planning during the week. A book, "The Faith We Share," will be taught for Elementary Sunday school workers.

Action that the churches will take is expected to be along the following lines: organizing additional Sunday school classes; expanding the Sunday school ministry to babies; expanding the Sunday school ministry to people unable to attend because of old age, illness, or Sunday employment; adopting a plan to locate people not enrolled in Sunday school and assign responsibility for their enlistment; adopting a program of weekly visitation; and organizing one or more branch Sunday schools.

Goal of the churches of Mills County Baptist association in the campaign is a net Sunday school enrollment increase of 20 per cent. Present associational enrollment is 961. Total Sunday school enrollment of the Southern Baptist Convention is 5,491,096.

Drouth Feed Program Ends For Mills County

According to announcement Wednesday of this week Mills County is included in the group of counties that have been taken from the list of those who are to receive further emergency drouth feed.

The state committee had previously suspended temporarily a large number of counties before the announcement from the Department of Agriculture in Washington declared them taken off the list altogether.

Mills County PMA office manager, A. G. Henderson, stated that a total of 38 cars of feed were delivered in this county. Of this number three were 25 cars of pellets, eight cars of meal, four cars of corn and one car of oats.

All applicants that had been approved received some feed while the large majority received feed twice under the program.

W. C. Mathis of Winters and J. B. Sullivan of Scottsboro, Arizona, who left Goldthwaite in 1893, visited friends here last Friday.
