Goldthwaite Home Gutted By Fire Friday Morning

Goldthwaite volunteer firemen braved sub-freezing temperatures last Thursday night to fight a fire at the Jerry Dellis home located on Reilly street, in Goldthwaite.

The alarm was turned in about 12:30 a.m. Friday and fire trucks sped to the scene, despite the heavy snow which had fallen during the day and which was falling at the time of the fire. The blaze apparently started with a wall-mounted gas heater, and quickly spread through the inner structure of the single-story home. The outer brick walls and a sheet-iron roof prevented water from the firemen's hoses from getting to the heart of the fire.

Firemen battled the fire until about 3 a.m.

LCRA Requests Electric Increase

The City of Goldthwaite was the recipient of a letter from the Lower Colorado River Authority this week, advising the city government of a forthcoming new "Wholesale Power Rate" which will be reviewed by city representatives at a luncheon on February 21 in Austin.

The city of Goldthwaite buys electricity at a wholesale rate from LCRA, and has for many years.

The power-generating company has already indicated in correspondence to the city of the very evident fuel problems faced in recent months. The continuance of this problem has forced the company to adjust the wholesale price of electricity upwards.

The letter stated that if LCRA is to meet increasing demands, a new generating plant must be started at a very early date.

All members of the government and administration of the City of Goldthwaite were invited to the luncheon to discuss the new contract, which will be amended so that the rate can be adjusted each year, after consultation with the City, to enable LCRA to continue to build additional facilities to meet ever-increasing loads.

STATE Capital NEWS
By BILL BOYKIN

AUSTIN, TEXAS — First formal step toward rewriting the patchwork 1876 Texas Constitution was finally approved by the Legislature and Gov. Dolph Briscoe late last week.

Briscoe lost no time in signing into law legislation authorizing appointment of a 37-member Constitutional Revision Commission when both houses finally agreed on terms.

The Commission, which will study the constitution and make recommendations to the legislature when it convenes as a constitutional convention next year, will go to work within 14 days after it is named. It has only until November 1 to complete its hearings, study and report to lawmakers.

Under the legislation, Briscoe will serve as chairman of the six-member selection committee to pick the study commission. Other selection committee members Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, Atty. Gen. John Hill, House Speaker Price Daniel Jr., Supreme Court Chief Justice Joe Greenhill and Court of Criminal Appeals Presiding Judge John Onion Jr.

Legislators served notice they want the Commission to be fairly and equitably representative of sexes, ethnic, social and economic groups and geographic regions.

Recommendations for membership already are pouring in from interest groups.

A majority vote of the House (76 members minimum) and Senate (at least 16) could reject the selection committee's choices of a commission slate.

A controversial provision of the legislation permits the selection panel to meet in secret (by majority vote) to consider its appointments — after first holding an open session and later meeting publicly for final, formal action.

SHIELD, LOBBY, BILLS ADVANCE — The proposed "free flow of information law" to protect newsmen from forced disclosure of their confidential sources of information to investigative bodies has passed the House with only a handful of dissenting votes.

At the same time, the House passed (with just 25 dissenting votes) a tough lobby control bill. Both measures are part of the reform package of Speaker Daniel who also backed amendments to the open meetings law and a measure to ease access to governmental documents in the public interest.

Sponsors of the shield law fought off five amendments to weaken protection against source disclosure.

The lobby control act, to be administered by a 12-member ethics commission, would require reports of lobbyists' activities, including gifts or loans of more than $50 in any month of a legislative session to legislators.

Both measures now advance to the Senate, where a somewhat less-enthusiastic reception is anticipated.

TEEN + AGERS ON JURIES — Under legislation approved by the House without debate, 18-year-olds can serve on all juries.

Representatives further passed a bill to extend until 1975-76 the deadline for school districts to go on the quarter basis.

COURTS SPEAK — A Fort Bend County man won reversal of a 35-year sentence for robbery by firearms when the Court of Criminal Appeals held a guilty plea is invalid unless the defendant is consequences of the plea.

State Supreme Court denied a writ of habeas corpus to a Temple man who was jailed after he refused to produce 47 magazines in an obscenity case in which he had been convicted earlier.

Court of Criminal Appeals held circumstantial evidence was insufficient to convict a Harris Co. man for heroin possession.

A Jefferson County murder conviction was also thrown out by the Court of Criminal Appeals because the defendant was not advised of consequences of pleading "no contest."

ETHICS CONFERENCE CALLED — Lt. Governor Hobby will invite about 150 representative Texans to discuss governmental ethics during a conference here late last month.

The Lieutenant Governor indicated he wants advice on what legislation to create a state code of ethics should contain. An ethics bill already has been the source of controversy in a House committee.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. John Hill advised Governor Briscoe the state cannot intervene to prevent abortion during the first three months of pregnancy.

Only during the last three months of pregnancy is state regulation possible under a January 23 U. S. Supreme Court decision, Hill wrote.

In another recent opinion, the Attorney General held that requirements for membership on the Texas Board of Examiners of the Fitting and Dispensing of Hearing Aids include a provision that one member be a licensed physician or surgeon specializing in otolaryngology and another be a trained audiologist — both actively practicing.

AIR'S CLEANER NOW — According to the Texas Air Control Board, air pollution has abated a bit.

Samplings over a two-year period indicated a slight improvement, a Board report maintained.

The Board further claimed its program of permitting polluters additional time to clean up the messes they make has been successful in obtaining voluntary compliance with standards.

APPOINTMENTS — Governor Briscoe recalled Maj. Gen. Thomas S. Bishop as adjutant general.

Bishop, who served 1962-1969 when he was replaced by Maj. Gen. Ross Ayers, awaits Senate confirmation as head of the Texas National Guard.

Briscoe also named Joe D. Carter as chairman of the Texas Water Rights Commission. Carter has served on the Commission since 1961. He was executive secretary of the Texas Water Development Board 1958-1961. He succeeds former Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, who served briefly by choice of former Gov. Preston Smith as chairman. Hardeman remains on the Commission. TWRC will open a Houston area office soon.

OIL OUTPUT DECLINE SEEN — While Texas oil production was at an all time high last year, it didn't keep pace with energy demands, and a decline is forecast for 1973.

A University of Tex. "Business Review" article cites early need for a deep-water port to handle energy imports for nuclear power plants. Dependence on foreign imports, writes UT's Dr. Francis B. May in the article should be temporary. May also suggests tackling problems of shale oil production, increasing on- and offshore drilling and solving environmental disadvantages of coal.

SHORT SNORTS — There were 355 new Texas industrial plant locations last year — just 56 short of the 1969 record.

The U. S. Office of Education cleared nearly $2.5 million in grants to aid Texas school desegregation efforts.

Attorney General Hill gave his strong backing to a new deceptive practices-consumer remedy act introduced in the House and Senate.

Upon returning from one of his searches for an honest man, Diogenes was asked by a friend, "Any luck?" "Fair," he replied. "I still have my lantern."

LOVE

We Americans misuse the word "love" to the greatest extent of any people in the world. It is not totally our fault, but we are guilty, just the same. In the same four letters, we can express the ideas of friendship, devotion, taste, smell, touch, etc. I love peanut butter and I love God just do not seem compatible.

Our motion picture people have taught our children and us to say "I love you" to someone, when we mean I like your body. We have taught our children to say "I love you" to us, because they know it pleases us, not because they really mean it.

In reality, there is only one kind of person who can experience real love in its purest form. He is a Christian. One who has not partaken in the wonderful, matchless love of Jesus Christ cannot say "I love you" and really know its full meaning and responsibilities. Those of you who are not Christians will deny what I have just said, but it is true. This does not mean that ALL Christians exemplify that true love, but they are the ones with the potential.

To really know God, and let God's love flow through us is to become a channel, not a lake or reservoir. A lake or reservoir just collects love, but a channel only gives love. The channel does not give it of its own accord, but it allows the water to flow through. It is the same with God and His love. A person who really loves, does not do it himself, but it is the Holy Spirit doing it through him. Valentine's Day is a pagan holiday, but we can make it Christian if we love others with God's love and not our own.

PROBLEM FABRICS

Shopping for drapery fabrics takes a careful consumer. Most fabrics perform satisfactorily, but about 10 per cent don't. About half of the complaints regarding fabrics are the result of dry cleaner or customer carelessness. These start when the consumer doesn't read labels and care information—or keep the information for easy reference. Performance depends on fiber, yarn, fabric construction, color, finish, surface design and components. Problems related to performance include brocade drapery fabrics. Some are heat sensitive and can't be satisfactorily cleaned. Another is stretch yarn used in construction of many draperies—it can be a cleaning problem when the stitching shrinks, stretches or wrinkles. Problems with fabric construction also include flocking. Often during dry cleaning flocking is destroyed. Other problems involve resin-bonded prints used in curtains, draperies, bedspreads and upholstery. For these dry cleaning is not recommended. They must be washed unless the label reads "to be cleaned with petroleum-solvent." Only then is dry cleaning satisfactory. Drapery fabrics of 100 per cent screen print, labeled "100 per cent cotton washable," create more problems when the home-maker takes them to the cleaners. Satisfaction in this case depends on the type of solvent used. Surface designs also deserve attention—sometimes they limit service-ability.

BY BOB POAGE
U. S. Congressman

WASHINGTON, JAN. 30—Legislation requiring the Administration to reinstate a program under which rural communities may receive grants to plan and construct water and waste disposal systems was introduced today by Chairman W. R. (Bob) Poage, D-Tex., of the House Committee on Agriculture.

The move was the latest in a series of steps initiated by Chairman Poage in an effort to reverse Administration orders terminating or otherwise curtailing a number of programs Congress had enacted to raise the standard of living in rural America.

In introducing the water and waste disposal program bill, Poage pointed out that only last year Congress had passed the Rural Development Act which, among other things, raised from $100 million to $300 million the amount of grant funds authorized to be appropriated annually to help communities construct such projects.

He pointed out that although Congress had actually provided $100 million for this program in fiscal 1972, the Administration only spent $42 million, and that even though $150 million had been provided by Congress for fiscal 1973 only $30 million had been spent when termination of the program was announced Jan. 10th. The Department of Agriculture has administered the program, and its proposed budget for fiscal 1974 starting July 1st contains no provision for its continuation. It is authorized under the so-called Poage-Aiken Act of 1965.

Since it has been in effect, said Poage, approximately 2,650 rural water and waste disposal systems have been assisted grant funds throughout the country.

"I simply cannot understand why the Administration would choose to destroy this program when rural America cries out for a better way of life," he added.

"I do not intend to stand idly by and watch the President deal this terrible blow to rural America. Our Committee will begin hearings on my bill and any other similar legislation on Monday, February 19th. Economy is one thing but unfair treatment of rural America is another matter.

"I had hoped that we would not have to get into such a struggle with the Administration, but we cannot afford to permit this President, or any other President, to sit back and pick and choose, selecting only those programs he personally likes for funding."

The Agriculture Committee currently is conducting hearings on a bill Poage introduced Jan. 15th to reinstate the soil conservation program known as REAP (Rural Environmental Assistance Program), which on December 28th was ordered terminated. On Feb. 5th, 6th, and 7th hearings will be held on legislation to restore the Farmers Home Administration emergency loan program, also terminated last December. Other legislation pending before the Committee would continue the operation of the Rural Electric Cooperative loan program across the country, and hearings on this matter will likewise be held at the earliest practicable date.

WASHINGTON, JANUARY 31—Legislation reinstating the Soil and Water Conservation program known as REAP (Rural Environmental Assistance Program) was approved today by the House Committee on Agriculture.

After three days of public hearings, the Committee, by a 26 to 8 roll call vote, with one member voting "present," ordered favorably reported a bill (H. R. 2107) designed to reverse the action of the Department of Agriculture, which on December 26 announced termination of REAP. The bill reported was one of 28 similar proposals introduced by 95 Members of Congress.

Committee Chairman W. R. (Bob) Poage, D-Tex., who introduced the bill January 15, described REAP, formerly known as ACP, as one of the most constructive and worthwhile programs ever authorized. It had been in effect since 1936.

The legislation makes no change in existing law other than to require the Secretary of Agriculture to implement the program heretofore established by Congress.

A chafing dish is simply a frying pan that has gone into society.

Health Checkups Vital To Insure Cancer Control

"Never before has the periodic health checkup been so important for cancer control," Mrs. Lois Hudson of the Mills County American Cancer Society Unit, declared today. "New advances in treating cancer with surgery, drugs, and radiation have dramatically improved the chances of the cancer patient to live out a normal life span," Mrs. Hudson said. "The key is finding the cancer before it has spread."

"Early detection is crucial in treating the disease because of its very nature," Mrs. Hudson pointed out. "Typically cancer begins as a localized condition, when just one of the body's cells changes character, begins dividing and becomes malignant. For a time, cancer cells stay together in one mass, but left untreated, they begin their fatal spread to other parts of the body."

Most Americans who get checkups depend on their private physicians, although a growing number are being examined under employer or health group programs.

In its early stage, cancer usually is painless, and you could have it without any obvious sign or symptoms. "Fortunately at this stage most cancers are highly curable," Mrs. Hudson said. "1,500,000 Americans living today who've been cured are proof of that. And another 700,000 treated in the past five years are alive and well." "Generally a complete cancer checkup will include a medical history, blood tests, urinalysis, and examination of the skin, mouth and throat, chest, abdomen, colon and rectum (including a procto); for women the breast and pelvis including a Pap test; and for the men the prostate," Mrs. Hudson said. "The regular health checkup is preventive medicine," Mrs. Hudson observed, "and it's a wonderful feeling when the doctor gives you a clean bill of health. But if there should be a problem, your doctor will have found it in time."

Wilcox & Head Electric
Raymond Wilcox — Johnny Head

1109 Parker — Phone 648-3133 Goldthwaite, Texas

We have no quarrel with the man who has a lower price. He knows better than anyone else what his product is worth.

THE CHEAPEST THING YOU CAN BUY . . .

Two elements, good roads, and the automobile, add new dimensions to living in America.

They give the average man a choice.

- He can live where he pleases and still—
- Live conveniently close to his job.
- Find a super-market nearby.
- Get the children to school.
- Drive with the family to church.
- Take advantage of outdoor recreation opportunities—golf, swimming, hunting and fishing, tennis, boating, family games.

It has been said, truthfully:
"Highways improve opportunities for work and leisure."
The versatility and convenience of an automobile supply the key to mobility which cannot be provided by any other means.

Keeping both cars and roads in good repair adds to their usefulness.

In Texas, the Highway Department spends an average of $1,500 a mile per year on road maintenance and service. The maintenance cost in 1972 ranged from $988 a mile for farm-to-market roads to over $9,000 for urban controlled-access freeways.

The overall total was about $95 million.

The cheapest thing you can buy, though, is good maintenance when you're trying to assure a real choice for the average fellow.

Science has brought us some really exciting new inventions. We list here but a few of the more important ones:
A knife that can cut four loaves of bread at the same time; it's called a four-loaf cleaver.
A dog food that tastes like a postman's leg.
Plastic song sheets for people who sing in the shower.
Round mailboxes for circular letters.
A special hair cream. It doesn't grow hair... it shrinks your head to fit the hair you've got.

Farmcast

Compiled From Sources
Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Sheep Production Declines... Stocks of Grains Show Ups and Downs... Citrus Planting Increases... Red Meat Production Reported... Three Commodities Above Parity.

Texas sheep numbers continue to decline. A nine per cent drop in numbers of sheep and lambs is reported compared to last year. Sheep and lambs totaled 3,214,000 head. Stock sheep are eight per cent below the previous year. Sheep on feed at 339,000 head were 15 per cent below last year.

The number of sheep farms also declined 500 from last year to now total 14,000.

Nationwide, the downward trend in sheep production continues. The Jan. 1 inventory of all sheep and lambs at 17,726,000 head declined five per cent during 1972.

STOCKS of wheat, rye and oats in Texas are above a year earlier while stocks of sorghum, corn, barley and soybeans are below last year's levels.

Wheat stocks in the state are estimated at 87,000,000 bushels, compared with 61,000,000 bushels in 1972.

Grain sorghum stocks at 233,000,000 bushels are down 43,000,000 bushels from a year ago.

Corn stocks at 25,800,000 bushels compares with 28,900,000 bushels a year ago.

Nationwide, stocks of the four feed grains—corn, oats, barley, and grain sorghum—are three per cent less than totals of last year.

CITRUS plantings have increased seven per cent above the previous year in the Rio Grande Valley. Licensed citrus nurserymen and private citrus nurserymen in the Valley report 206,000 citrus trees moved from nurseries to groves during the year July 1, 1971, to June 30, 1972.

The totals reflect new plantings in commercial groves. Of the total moved to groves, about 95 per cent were grapefruit.

DECEMBER red meat production in Texas is down nine per cent from the previous month but still 21 per cent above the December, 1971 figure. Cattle slaughtered during December totaled 260,000 head, or 47,000 head more than December, 1971.

Hog slaughter during December numbered 162,000, which is 14,000 below last month and 32,000 head less than December, 1971.

Sheep and lambs killed during December numbered 97,000 head which is 9,000 less than last month but 23,000 more than last year.

ONLY three commodities were above effective parity as of January 15, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes.

Oats, calves and sheep are above parity. Oat prices in Texas averaged $1.05 per bushel; effective parity is $1.02 per bushel. Calf prices at $52.10 per hundredweight compared with the parity ratio of $48.12. Sheep prices at $13.50 per hundredweight are up $2.30 over parity of $11.20.

Cotton continues to be in the doldrums at 20 cents per pound average with effective parity at 58.62 cents per pound. Eggs have shown some increase averaging 52 cents per dozen; parity is 56.8 cents per dozen.

SOME improvement in weather conditions have helped to speed up final 1972 harvest operations. Cotton harvest for the state is now more than 90 per cent complete.

Wheat continues to recover from recent freezing weather. Oats are also recovering from the cold weather.

There was a mix-up at a florist shop. Wrong cards were attached to two imposing floral wreaths. The one that went to a tailor moving to a new building read: "Deepest sympathy."

The one intended for the funeral of a leading banker read: "Good luck in your new location."

Society Steps Up Rehabilitation Services

Because of the steady growth in numbers of crippled children and adults in Texas, the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas has stepped up its rehabilitation services.

According to Glynn Collier,

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dean Dellis of Goldthwaite are the proud parents of a baby boy, Brian Dean, born Monday, February 5, 1973 at 8:38 a.m.

The little lad arrived at Brownwood Community Hospital and tipped the scales at 8 lbs. 14 ozs.

He has a big brother, Billy Joe, 4½ to welcome him home.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caldwell of Blanket and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dellis Jr. of Goldthwaite.

Maternal great grandmothers are Mrs. Clara Caldwell of Blanket and Mrs. O. W. Couch of Gustine.

Paternal great grandmother is Mrs. Ida Dellis of Goldthwaite.

who is the Easter Seal Representative for Mills County, 16,572 handicapped Texans received Easter Seal treatments during 1972.

"Despite medical scientific advances," Collier explained, "the ranks of the crippled are growing because of population growth, increased number of accidents and medical treatment which saves victims of crippling diseases who might not have lived in past years."

Quoting the annual report of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas, he said that 13 affiliated treatment centers are in operation in Texas. They include treatment and rehabilitation centers, sheltered workshops, recreation and educational programs, and many others.

"Through these programs," persons with a wide variety of handicaps receive the help they need to live normal lives," Collier said.

The largest group served includes those with major deformities of bones and joints, severe speech defects, cerebral palsy, arthritis, muscular dystrophy and multiple sclerosis and stroke. The Easter Seal Campaign, which provides funds for continuation of these services, begins March 1 and continues through April 22, Easter Sunday.

Four Mills County 4-Hers participated in a snow-covered San Antonio Livestock Show last week. The 4-Hers included Pam Lindsey, Bridget Meier, Brenda Geeslin and Randy Lindsey. These 4-Hers did a very fine job in showing their livestock and should be commended.

The placings of their steers: Pam Lindsey, 10th place Angus; Brenda Geeslin, 14th place Angus; Randy Lindsey, 8th place Shorthorn; and Bridget Meier.

Homeowners should order or purchase needed fruit and pecan trees as soon as possible to get the best pick of available supplies. It's also important to select varieties that are adapted to your particular locality. For peach and plum trees, select year-old plants that are three to five feet high. Apple and pear trees should be four to six feet tall. Pecan trees that are five to seven feet tall are best. Such trees will transplant easily and will become established more quickly. Excessively large, bare-rooted trees should not be purchased.

When buying fruit and pecan trees, always insist on disease-free stock. Select peach and plum trees that have Nemaguard rootstock (rootstock that has resistance to root-knot nematodes.) Trees perform best on soils that are well-drained and have good penetration by roots, water and air, so give special attention to the planting site.

An important operation following planting is the cutting back of the main trunk and side branches. Pecan trees should be cut back by one-third to one-half of their top growth (that portion above the ground level.) Cut back apple and pear trees to about 30 to 36 inches above the ground and peach and plum to about 24 to 28 inches.

If trees have side branches, remove all of these below the top 18 inches of the main trunk. Any side branches above 18 inches should be stubbed back to one to two inches. The main reason for pruning the top growth of nursery trees is to compensate for root losses that these trees experienced when they were dug.

In other words, the top growth needs to be balanced with the root system so that the roots can develop and become established.

All pruning cuts should be treated with a tree wound dressing as a protectant against insects and diseases. Pruning is also important during the years of fruit and pecan trees so that they will develop properly and take the desired shape.

Further information on selecting, planting and care of fruit and pecan trees is available at my office.

enrollment drive during this period as a part of a statewide effort to exceed last year's total of 136,943 member families. Mills County ended its 1972 year with 313 members.

DeWayne McCasland of Rt. 3, Goldthwaite, is president of the local county Farm Bureau. Membership Chairman is W. G. Bishop of Rt. 2, Goldthwaite.

The county president said farmers and ranchers need an organization more than ever before.

"We producers need a stronger organization to help solve problems in marketing, agricultural public relations, taxation, as well as other matters affecting our net incomes," McCasland said.

The text of the proclamation issued by Judge Egger reads: "Agriculture is vital to the economy of Mills County, our State and Nation. A large percentage of our citizens is dependent directly or indirectly upon agriculture for their livelihood. All of our people benefit from the productive efficiency of modern agriculture.

"Farmers and ranchers have learned to promote their industry through organization. Four out of five agricultural producers in this Nation belonging to a general farm organization are members of Farm Bureau.

"Farm Bureau is an independent, non-partisan, non-governmental voluntary organization of families united for the purpose of analyzing their problems and formulating solutions to those problems.

"Therefore, I, Cecil Egger, County Judge of Mills County, do hereby designate February 12-17, 1973, as FARM BUREAU WEEK in Mills County, and urge our citizens to give due recognition to this observance honoring the Mills County Farm Bureau.

"In official recognition thereof, I hereby affix my signature this 9th day of February, 1973. (Signed) Cecil Egger, Mills County Judge."
