City Wants To Buy Large DDT Sprayer--No Money

Dairy Meeting Set In Carbon Friday Evening

Whether Eastland is ready to go ahead with an enlarged dairy industry will be shown at least partly Friday night when dairy farmers of the county will meet in Carbon to hear a discussion on an artificial insemination program for the county.

At least 1000 to 1200 cows are needed to set up such a program, said County Agent J. M. Cooper. A campaign will be started at the Carbon meeting, sponsored by the Eastland County Dairy Association, to sign up dairy cow owners in an effort to get the required number of cows in the program. Speaker at the meeting, to be held in the Carbon Agricultural Building at 8 p. m., Friday, will be G. G. Gibson, dairy specialist of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, College Station. Reason for the large number of dairy animals needed for the artificial breeding program is that technicians must be employed to do the work. In the Wisconsin dairy area, it is figured that 2000 cows is the ideal number for setting up such a program. Breeding fees pay the cost of the program.

A. Z. Myrick of Cisco is president of the dairy association, and R. Higginbottom, secretary-treasurer of the group, a Jersey breeder of the Kokomo community, is the one who invited the group to meet at Carbon.

The association officers invited all dairymen and others interested in the growth of the dairy industry to attend the meeting.

Classifications Hear Layton Tell Of Post Office Classification Boost

Facts on the Eastland Post Office's rise to first class status were told to Eastland Lions Tuesday afternoon by E. E. Layton.

He said that Eastland has the only first class post office in Eastland County, but that he had heard Cisco's post office will be raised to that status next year, if present volume is kept.

The change is automatic when post office passes $40,000 a year postal receipts.

Layton gave credit to Victor Armeluis' printing plant for a large part of the dollar volume of business that gave the local post office its higher rating.

The club elected Cornelius, president; Everett Plozman, vice; Pipkin and W. Q. Vermer, delegates and alternates to the International Lions Club Convention in New York the latter part of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. King accompanied their son, Doug, to Amarillo Tuesday for a check-up and other treatment for injuries received in a car wreck several weeks ago near Amarillo.

HELP OF PUBLIC IN GETTING CASH IS SUGGESTED

Purchase of a DDT fog sprayer to get rid of mosquitoes and flies, and help fight the infantile paralysis menace in Eastland, was considered by the City Commission at its meeting Thursday night of last week.

But the commission came up with its usual problems--no money in the till.

Members of the commission decided that the city, which is operating on borrowed money now against anticipated tax revenue, could put up a limited amount, perhaps $400 or $500, on the purchase of an adequate spray outfit.

But the balance of the money needed, an estimated $1000 to $2,000, depending on the type of sprayer purchased, would have to come from other sources.

Commission members felt that perhaps individuals and civic organizations would help raise the balance of the sum needed. The city would purchase the DDT spray, and would furnish labor to operate the sprayer, it was said.

Curtis Koen told commission members that he had found swarms of mosquitoes around the city dump, possibly hatching in water in tin cans there, and offered to put his bulldozer to work on the dump, covering the refuse with dirt. He estimated the job would take about 100 hours of bulldozer work, and offered to do it for $900, contributing $100 toward the job.

However, the commissioners said they didn't have the $900. The present spray outfit being operated by A. H. Brown just isn't large enough to do the job, the commissioners said.

Meanwhile, mosquitoes took over the city. Commissioner A. J. Blevins, Jr., said they were so thick at his place that his children had to go indoors before twilight. Flies and other insect pests grew thicker also.

And polio authorities kept stressing that although they were not sure flies and mosquitoes carry the dread disease, it's a good idea to keep them away, on the chance that they may be a factor.

Alexander Is Signed As Assistant Coach Of EHS Mavericks

James Alexander, athletic coach at Cross Plains the last school year, will be assistant coach at Eastland High School next year, it was announced after his election by the School Board Tuesday night.

Alexander received his B.S. degree at Abilene Christian College in 1947, and is a war veteran. He is married, and the father of a small daughter.

He will assist Wendell Siebert, who himself was assistant coach last year, and was elevated to head coach when Johnny Little took the Graham coaching post.

V.F.W. Golf Course To Open Saturday

The Karl and Boyd Tanner Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars miniature golf course will reopen for the 1948 season at 4 p. m. Saturday, it was announced by post officials this week.

The golf course is located at West Commerce and Ammerman streets.

It was announced that the course will operate until 11 p. m. daily. Many improvements have been made since the first season of operation a year ago, it was said.

Rockettes Win Game From Abilene Girls

With good pitching and hitting, the Willy-Willys Rockettes, girls softball team, Tuesday won from the Abilene Freelanders, 7 to 5, on Fireman's Field.

The Abilene team could get but two hits off Pitcher Lois Pe-tree, but several Eastland errors made the score close. Juanita Maynard and Betty Gann of the Eastland club clouted home runs.

Side Issues

By HENRY G. VERMILLION

Want to make some money? So do I. Listen to this:

A fellow who owns a farm near Mangum, a few miles south of Eastland, planted eight acres of watermelons. They grew and thrived. He perhaps fertilized them, I don't know; he may have cultivated them once or twice. Anyway, the other day he sold them in the field, for the buyers to pick and haul away, for $100 an acre. That's return on an investment.

There's gold in that soil, if you know how to get it out. But you can't mine it; generations of Americans have done just that, and moved away from gullied, worn out farms, seeking greener fields to mine and move away from.

Now there aren't any new fields.

This has been our week to have troubles at The Record. Like everyone else, we started a day late because of the holiday on the fifth; then Thursday our faithful old Linotype machine went haywire, all because a little piece of metal no larger than the end of a small nail broke off. We finally found the trouble and got it fixed, but by that time we were so far behind that at this writing long hours of after-midnight work face us. And if we're a little short on type this week, blame the Linotype machine that makes it; we've all been doing our best.

When my wife and I bought that big house with the big yard, I swore that the yard could go to weeds and pasture, and I'd let it; I wasn't going to be responsible for any yard that big, even if it was nice for the children to play on.

So that fellow you may have seen around my place pushing a lawn mower or operating a hoe was me, of course. Thus go the best of intentions. My wife shamed me into it though; the neighbors must have noticed that she was out working quite a while before I succumbed.

That big, hulking brute of a man, they probably thought. But the rains surprised me. The yard had been barren, with bald patches here and there, and I thought it incapable of much growth. Now it looks as if someone had sowed pasture grass on it and cultivated it with great care. One section of yard I'm just going to let grow, to see how rank it will get, unless my wife changes my mind. Which she probably will.

Will the Republicans elect Dewey as President? That's a question a lot of federal job holders are asking themselves, and perhaps doing a lot of shivering as they ask.

It has always been tradition that when a different party takes (Continued On Page Eight)

Ex-Gorman J.P. Dies, Funeral Wednesday

John T. Chapman, a resident of Gorman for 50 years before he left to live with a daughter in Oklahoma three years ago, died Monday at the home of a son in Holdenville, Okla., and was buried Wednesday after services in Gorman.

Mr. Chapman, known far and wide as "Uncle John," was 81. He served as justice of the peace in Gorman for over 20 years.

Gardens Of Eastland Offer Beauty After Summer Rains Bring Fresh, Lush Growth

Following the rains in recent weeks, Eastland gardens and lawns that had been barren or drooping took on lush, new life, and a drive through the city now would repay any beauty seeker.

Club women of the city especially invited attention to the beauty of the plantings on High School Hill.

Rail Worker Dies When Struck By Freight Engine

Death came swiftly Thursday to N. B. Steddum, 38, of Olden, Texas & Pacific Railway worker, who was struck by a west-bound freight train as he was operating a tamping machine on the roadbed near Brashear's Crossing, between Eastland and Olden.

B. L. Snodgrass, who was working with Steddum on the roadbed, escaped injury.

Justice of the Peace E. E. Wood who conducted an inquest, said that Steddum undoubtedly did not hear the noise of the train because of the noise being made by the tamping machine.

Steddum, married and the father of several children, was thrown about 60 feet, clear of the tracks, by the force of the impact. He was dead when Snodgrass reached his body.

Detputy Sheriff Frank Schlaepfer went with Judge Wood to make an investigation at the scene.

The accident happened about 7:40 a. m. Thursday.

New Plan Misses Local Court Races

Candidates for district judge in this area will not be directly concerned with the proposed constitutional amendment to change the method of electing judges of Texas Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The proposed amendment is based on the "Missouri System" which avoids the stigma of judicial counter-campaigning and mud-slinging. The system would try to keep the judiciary out of politics by having the judges appointed by the governor upon recommendation by a special board. The electorate would then vote "Yes" or "No" to the governor's choices. Candidates would not compete directly, however.

The plan to extend the system to the district courts has gained great impetus in Austin and on the campus of the University of Texas. According to the Summer Texan, University of Texas newspaper, R. W. Stayton, professor of law, sees in the amendment "a way to withdraw the judiciary from politics with obvious enhancement of its utility."

Professor Stayton would carry the Missouri plan down through the district courts, possibly giving districts a local option as to method of selection of judges of lower courts.

Sadler Is Delegate To Party Convention

State Rep. Harley Sadler, of Sweetwater, candidate for the state senate from this district, will leave Friday for the national Democratic convention in Philadelphia as a Texas delegate, he said this week.

Sadler said he will be out of the district until Saturday, July 17. He said he regretted leaving the district at this time, but felt honored at being a delegate to the national convention. His friends will campaign for him while he is gone, Sadler said.

Also, brief radio talks he has transcribed will be given mornings and evenings over local radio stations of the district while he is away.

Fine Crop Prospects Are Seen For County Following Rains

Geology Offices Are Opened Here By Dan Kralis

Opening of the first oil industry office in the newly named Petroleum Building in Eastland came this week when Dan Kralis, who resigned recently as geologist with the Lone Star Gas Company, leased four offices in the building and opened Petroleum Exploration Services.

The consulting geological office will specialize in geological investigation in West Central Texas, and will offer technical services locations and in supervision of drilling wells.

Associated with Kralis as geological assistant will be Mrs. C. Cooper, who also is resigning from Lone Star.

Kralis said he had been at odds with officials in immediate charge of the geological department of Lone Star "for some time," over his desire to expand exploration activities of the company to cover all of West Texas, New Mexico and the Gulf Coast. When help, materials and money for the extensive and expensive project were refused, Kralis resigned, he said.

Kralis, a graduate of Indiana University, has had geological experience in Alabama, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Canada, the Arctic Circle, Kansas, Oklahoma, the Rocky Mountain area, and Texas. He did research work at the Colorado School of Mines and taught geology at Denver University.

He is a member of a large number of technical groups, including the petroleum division of the American Institute of Metallurgical and Mining Engineers.

Kralis had already located the office at Cisco, he said, when "fellow Rotarians persuaded me to locate in Eastland."

Kralis said opening of the office will entail the expenditure of about $18,000, with more than half of that going into buying the 45,000 drillers' logs and 2500 electric logs needed to form the basis for geological charting of locations in West Central Texas.

Mrs. Lee had been quite ill for more than a week and died Saturday morning. She was 88 years of age, and the mother of eight children, all of whom attended the services Sunday.

Other survivors include 10 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Eastland Auto Parts To Have More Work

Eastland Auto Parts now is rebuilding motors for 19 Montgomery Ward stores in Texas and New Mexico, as a result of a trip to Chicago last week by Milton J. Gaines, owner of the local concern.

Gaines said officials of the big mail order and retail concern were quite pleased with the work his shop has been doing on rebuilding automobile motors for sale in Montgomery Ward stores, and the increased contract was the result.

More employes will have to be added to his force to take care of the new work, Gaines said. While on the trip, he took delivery in Detroit on a ton and a half truck, which will deliver the rebuilt motors.

C. G. Uffelman Drives Nail Into Foot

C. G. Uffelman, 209 East Valley, was treated for tetanus Wednesday after he stepped on a nail that pierced his shoe and nearly passed through his foot.

He was working on one of his rent houses when the accident took place.

The nail was dislodged only after Uffelman hammered on the board from which the nail protruded.

Assembly Of God Revival To Begin

Rev. Daniel B. Neel of Wilmer will conduct a revival at the Assembly of God Church, South Lamar and Sadosa Streets, July 11 through July 25.

The public was invited to attend the services.

Moisture Makes Farm Outlook Best In Years

Farm and ranch prospects in Eastland County, extremely poor until the recent rains, now are the best in several years, farmers, ranchers and agricultural officials said this week.

The rains came too late for vetch seed, for small grains such as wheat and rye, and for some early planted corn.

But they were just right for peanuts and for late planted corn, and for truck crops that were withering on the vine.

And they brought new life to brown and seared pastures. Joe Manning of Banner Creameries said Monday that most of the milk producers delivering to him had an extra can of milk every day beginning last week end, the result of greener pastures for grazing.

The rains, general over the county, assured a good crop of peanuts where the planting was early, and at least a fair crop of late planted nuts, farmers said.

County Agent J. M. Cooper said farmers told him that their early peanuts would make a good crop without more rain, and their late peanuts would make as good a crop as last year, or better, without any more moisture.

A Morton Valley stock farmer said his sorghum cane was suffering badly when the rains came, but that now he expected a bumper crop, and the same held true of grain feed crops all over the county.

Farmers were busy this week fighting weeds and grass that sprung up during the wet weather, and watching clouds form that held promise of more showers.

The rains were worth a whole lot more than the traditional million dollars to a large dry area that had apparently been threatening to turn to dust and blow away.

Hollis Bennetts Move To Abilene Home

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Bennett moved Friday of last week to their new home at 825 Vine Street in Abilene. They sold their home at 605 South Daugherty Street to Mr. and Mrs. Parks Poe, who have already moved to their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Poe sold their home, 207 West Sadosa Street, to Mr. and Mrs. Winston Boles, who had been living in an apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith.

Uncle Sam Says

What would you do if you learned that the worker next to you at the office or in the plant was taking home extra pay every payday and you could do the same? Your Uncle Sam needs only one guess. Well, the Payroll Savings Plan for Savings Bonds actually provides extra pay because it accumulates Savings Bonds for you which pay off at the rate of $4 for every $3 in 10 years. All you have to do is to authorize your employer to hold back a stipulated amount which he will hand back to you in a better form of money—money which earns interest—U. S. Savings Bonds. Savings Bonds are extra pay. For example, if you take part of your pay in Savings Bonds at the rate of $3.75 per week, the Bonds become $2,163.45 in 10 years.

MESS OF MISERY RELIEVED BY RETONGA

After Suffering Years From Gas Pains, Muscular Aches and Sleeplessness, Mississippian Finally Discovers Retonga.

"For years I was dealt a mess of misery by nervous indigestion, but that was before I discovered Retonga," declares Mr. John L. Jones, respected resident of 909 Grand Avenue, Meridian, Miss.

"Food in my stomach was torture," continues Mr. Jones. "It didn't seem to digest properly and felt hard and heavy in my stomach. After-meal gas pains were so sharp that they nearly doubled me up. I was made constantly miserable by muscular aches and pains and I had to take purgatives several times a week. I hardly knew what a good night's sleep was, and I felt so jittery and fagged out most of the time that it was a real effort to keep going.

"What grand and glorious relief Retonga gave me! Mealtime is a pleasure again and I eat heartily with no worries about excess gas and pains. I sleep like a log and have lots of pep and vigor once more. My constipation has been relieved, too, and thank goodness, those miserable aches in my muscles have quit nagging me. As far as I'm concerned, there's nothing like Retonga."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal, combined with Vitamin B-1. You can get Retonga at all good drug stores, including Eastland Drug. Adv.

Not So Very Long Ago—

SIDE ISSUES . . .

over control of the national administration, postmasters and other appointees are shoved out, and new ones installed of the right political complexion.

I asked Eastland Postmaster E. E. Layton the other day if he felt such would happen next January if the Republicans win. Since the last GOP administration, Congress has passed a new civil service law designed to stop such patronage boodling.

Layton said he wasn't sure; he didn't think the Republicans would change the law, but they probably could work out loopholes in it if they want to badly enough. The signs are, though, that they'll leave the thing alone, he thinks - and probably hopes.

Miss Sallie Day, who suffered a heart attack at her home Monday night, was quite improved Thursday, and relatives thought she would be able to sit up and perhaps have a few guests within the next few days.

THREE TAKE VACATION TOURING WEST

Little Rob Hall is staying here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sikes, while his parents are away.

MISS HASSELL SPENDS WEEK END HERE

Miss Linda Hassell, student at N.T.S.C. at Denton, spent the week end here in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hassell, 212 South Ostrum Street.

Miss Hassell had as her guest a schoolmate, Miss Doris Rogers, who spent the week end here.
