Next to watermelon, there's nothing this scribe likes better than home made ice cream. Tonight from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, the youth of the First Methodist Church are to serve home made ice cream and other refreshments on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephen, 101 East Lens Street. The proceeds are for a worthy purpose. The youths have been working for several weeks mowing lawns, doing housework, etc., with all money going into a special camp fund. Later in the summer, the young people of the church plan to attend Camp Glen Rose. You can be assured that I'm going to be at the Stephen residence sometime tonight for some of that good home made ice cream and help the Methodist youth out in their fund campaign at the same time.

J. B. Shores, director of Public and Employee Relations of the Texas & Pacific Railroad, has written an excellent treatise on "Ideas," in a recent issue of the railroad's magazine "Topics." The article says, in part: "Still water serves no useful purpose. Running, it turns wheels generates power, and creates willing servants for millions of people. "Life is like that. Action gets results. Inaction accomplishes nothing... not even a few honest mistakes. "It is what we do that counts, not what we profess to believe or claim we are going to do. "So it is with ideas that come to us from time to time. Undeveloped, they are worthless; developed, they may be capable of producing comfort and happiness for millions."

It won't be long now until football will be in the air, and the Mavericks will have a first class turf on which to play. The school has hired boys to keep the field mowed and watered, and driving by the other day, the turf looked to be in excellent shape from the highway.

Derby Sidelines: Roger Burdick, of the Burdick's Texaco Service Station on East Highway 80, had some special gummed stickers carrying a picture of Old Rip, which he presented customers. He still has a few left, and if you haven't one for your car, drive by this afternoon and get one before the supply is exhausted... Been wondering what happened to all the toads after the Derby Saturday night. Well, a local rancher, plunked down $5. (100 toads at five cents a head) and took the reptiles home with him. Don't know what he wanted with them unless he has a choice ant bed that he would like to get rid of. Field Scout Executive Steve Potts and wife among the square dancers having fun. Mrs. Potts graciously offered to give this scribe a few lessons, but an afraid tripping the light fantastic is a little out of our line.

Tanner Thanks Derby Workers

H. J. Tanner, manager of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, has expressed his appreciation to all local citizens who had a part in making the first annual Eastland Old Rip Horned Toad Derby July 16 a success. "The citywide cooperation was splendid," he said.

Sixteen Killed In Germany Blast

Ammunition stored in a bunker of the wartime German Seigfried line at Preum, Germany, exploded, killed 16 people, and destroyed a large town. Rescuers remove the body of one of the 16 victims. (NEA Telephoto.)

STREET FIGHTING FLARES THRU GUATEMALA CITY

GUATEMALA CITY, July 19 (UP)—Street fighting flared through Guatemala City early today when loyal government troops and tanks fought off an attempt to seize the capital by Revolutionary Army Artillery Forces. Observers heard the constant chatter of automatic weapons and the occasional roar of artillery shells exploding in the streets. Loyal Army planes patrolled overhead. Other explosions, believed to be bombs, were heard.

The government of President Juan Jose Arevalo appeared to be in control of the situation but a group of three loyal political parties issued a statement saying "the government is in serious danger."

The revolution broke out yesterday after the week-end assassination of Col. Francisco Arana, Chief of the Armed Forces, and Col. Jorge Barrios Solares, Secretary of the Army.

Both officers were shot to death at Amatitlan, a resort town 12 miles outside the capital, on Sunday. Congress met in emergency session in the national palace yesterday and proclaimed a state of seige.

The sound of gunfire was heard in the National Palace while congress acted. The state of seige included suspension of constitutional guarantees.

Government officials said an artillery regiment commanded by Col. Hernandez joined the revolutionary movement and attempted to seize the city.

The air force, police and presidential guard units remained loyal to the government, these sources said. They said government forces still controlled the big Matamoros Military Camp on the outskirts of the city.

4 EASTLAND YOUTHS BACK FROM 'DREAM' VACATION

Four Eastland young men returned this morning from a "dream" vacation trip. They traveled a total of 4,300 miles in the 10-day trip to California at an expenditure of only $75 each.

Making the trip were: James Reid, manager of Pipken's Piggy Wiggly Store; Wendell Armstrong, assistant cashier of Eastland National Bank; Howard Brock, Texas University student; and Boyd Franklin, Eastland High School student.

The trip was made in Reid's 1948 Plymouth automobile, that averaged 21 miles to the gallons and used no oil. Taking cots and bedding, they slept out in the open with the exception of three nights.

Science spots en route to California and back were visited, with the vacationers running into 121 degree weather at Las Vegas, Nev. and a temperature so cold at Yosemite Valley in California, that a swimming session had to be postponed.

Parker Judge Confers With Highway Dep.

AUSTIN, Tex., July 19 (UP)—County Judge Joe Dodson of Weatherford was expected today to confer with Texas Highway Department Investigators concerning charges that Parker County has issued some $24,000 in illegal license plates to out-of-county residents.

State Highway Engineer Dewitt C. Greer said he was informed that Dodson would come to Austin to discuss the car tag situation.

Parker County, Greer said, apparently has been issuing license plates to non-residents of the county in a "flagrant violation" of the law.

Issuance was made particularly, he said, to Dallas and Fort Worth drivers.

In all, Greer said, an estimated $24,000 in license plates has been issued to non-Parker County residents.

The State Highway Engineer explained that the practice is drawing off revenue which might normally go to the state.

After a certain amount in license plates has been raised by a county, he said, the state is cut in on revenue above that amount.

The state shares in revenue mainly from larger counties, Greer added. Since Parker County allegedly issued plates to Dallas and Fort Worth residents, it drained off money in which the state would have shared, he said.

Sultry Weather Back In Texas

Sultry weather returned to virtually the entire state today after a brief respite from a heat wave.

Several points reported readings of 100 degrees or more yesterday with Presido in its usual spot with 107. It was 104 at Salt Flat, 101 at El Paso, Laredo and Wink, and 100 at Fort Worth, Childress, Wichita Falls, Mineral Wells and Dalhart.

Overnight, the low was 63 at El Paso and the high minimum 81 at Galveston. Generally, the minimums were in the middle 70s or higher.

Only showers reported to the Dallas Weather Bureau were .31 inch at Houston; .04 at Beaumont; .03 at Salt Flat and .02 at Galveston.

FBI Not After Atomic Director

EL PASO, Tex., July 19 (UP)—A hotel clerk said today that a missing Atomic Laboratory Official stayed here three days, but the State Police and F.B.I. here said they are not trying to trace him.

A clerk at the Fisher Hotel said H. Tracy Snelling, Information Director of the Los Alamos Atomic Energy Laboratory, registered at the hotel Thursday.

Snelling's wife in Los Alamos reported Snelling has been missing since last Wednesday.

Snelling registered together with an elderly man, Abler Bourland, the hotel clerk said. Both left about noon Saturday, he said.

The clerk described Bourland as elderly and almost blind. Both registered as residents of Albuquerque, N. M.

Authorities at Los Alamos said Snelling has had access to a limited amount of confidential Atomic Information and expressed concern over his disappearance.

They believed his disappearance resulted from personal affairs and was unconnected with his job, however.

Both Police and FBI Officials here said they have not been called into the search for Snelling.

To Attend Cisco Revival Tonight

Regular prayer meeting services will be dispensed with at the Eastland Church of Christ tonight and the congregation will go in a group to Cisco and attend a Church of Christ revival.

The local congregation is asked to convene at the church at 7:30 o'clock, Bro. Claud C. Smith, minister, stated.

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE FRANK MURPHY DIES

DETROIT, July 19 (UP)—Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy, early new dealer and close friend of the late President Roosevelt, died today at Henry Ford Hospital.

He was 59. The red-headed jurist, who during his political career came to grips as much as man with the ills of civilization, was found dead in his hospital bed at 6:45 A. M. CST.

Death was caused by a heart attack. His body was found by a nurse on her routine morning rounds. Doctors said his condition was "all right" last night.

Murphy, former Michigan Governor and Attorney of the United States, had entered the hospital about four weeks ago for a check-up. He had registered under an assumed name. His presence in the city was not generally known.

Appointed by the late President Roosevelt, his elevation to the High Court Feb. 5, 1940, climaxed a long period of public service that began as an Assistant Federal District Attorney in 1919.

His family was not with him when he died. The medical cause of death was given as coronary thrombosis.

Murphy was one of the first important public officials to espouse the principle that caring for the unemployed was a national responsibility. To him, as Governor of Michigan, fell the responsibility of dealing with a new technique in American Labor Relations — the sit-down strike.

He had scarcely taken office in 1937 when the sit-down epidemic

Automatic Tax Board Meets

AUSTIN, Tex., July 19 (UP)—The State Automatic Tax Board meets today to impose a 30-cent ad valorem tax for general revenue purposes.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert yesterday released valuation figures on which the board would impose the property tax.

The figures showed a total for 1949 of $5,295,992,054 (B), an increase in valuation of $146,253,199 (M) over the previous year.

The 51st Legislature actually set the 30-cent rate, and today's meeting was described by the Governor's office as "perfunctory."

Since the rate was not set last year, re-levying of the tax meant that the tax rate for 1950 would be higher than at present.

The rate will total 72 cents per $100 valuation, ux with 30 cents of the 72 cents going to the general revenue fund, 35 cents to the state's school fund, five cents to the college building fund and two cents to the Confederate Pension Fund.

Sidewalk Sitters Demand Election

WHITNEY, Tex., July 19 (UP)—Voters in this small Central Texas town will be asked to decide July 30 whether a 29-year-old park bench should be removed from the city square.

The 25-foot long bench was removed from the square recently by police on orders from Mayor Fred Brasham, who said some of the older citizens who "rested" in the square made fresh remarks to women.

A petition, signed mostly by women, charged the bench was unsightly.

Italy's Top Communists Accuses Anti-Communists

Palmiro Togliatti, Italy's top Communist, addressing a crowd of 2,500 in Rome, accuses anti-Communists of wielding a weapon forged "in the dark ages of Italy." This was a reference to the Vatican's decree excommunicating Communists and their sympathizers from the church, although Togliatti did not specifically mention the decree. Denies Slack In Army Enlistment

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 19 (UP)—Recruiting officials at Fourth Army Headquarters, Fort Sam Houston, spiked reports today that enlistments in the Armed Forces have declined sharply and that it may be necessary to start drafting personnel.

Col. J. T. Traywick, Jr., pointed out that recruiting goes in cycles. We were in a slump about the first week in June, but we finished the month with flying colors.

"We did a swell job during the month in all the five states of this area," he said.

The five states are Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico.

Traywick said there was no indication of any immediate revival of the selective service system, adding that there was no apparent need for it.

If the draft is effected again, he said, it will be on a nationwide basis and "we'll get our orders from Washington."

He pointed out that there has been no quota system for the draft in operation since last January. The problem in Air Force Recruiting, according to Traywick, is keeping enlistments under a ceiling rather than up to a quota.

However, there now is no ceiling on enlistments in the Army.

In Austin, Col. Paul Wakefield, State Director of selective Service, said his office had no indication that drafting would be necessary in the near future. He said his office would get a 60-day notice whenever inductions were needed, and no such notice had been received.

Hatton Buys Blooded Jersey

COLUMBUS, O., July 15, 1949—J. S. Hatton, Ranger, Tex., has purchased the registered Jersey Noble Sport Shorty, the animal comes from the herd owned by A. F. Beck.

The purchase adds to the steadily growing number in this area. Dairymen buy because of the high quality of the milk produce.

Purebred Jerseys are registered by The American Jersey Cattle Club which has its national headquarters in Columbus, O. Several programs are available through The American Jersey Cattle Club to help breeders get the most profits from their Jerseys.

PRESIDENT'S SECRET MEET NATURE TOLD

WASHINGTON, July 19 (UP)—Chairman Brien McMahon of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee confirmed today that last Thursday's secret Presidential parley concerned Atomic relations with Great Britain and Canada.

The Connecticut Democrat said his committee will discuss these relations, involving the interchange of Atomic information, in a conference tomorrow with the state department, the National Military Establishment, and the Atomic Energy Commission.

This meeting, McMahon said, will explore "problems which lie ahead in our relations with the United Kingdom and Canada in this field."

McMahon's statement was the first official utterance about the secret conference called by President Truman at his Blair House residence last week. The conference was attended by the country's highest Diplomatic, Military, Atomic, and Congressional Leaders—all of whom refused to say what it was about.

It had been learned, however, that the Blair house conferees discussed the crisis that has developed in atomic foreign relations as a result of British progress toward the goal of bomb production. The British want more information from this country and a bigger share of Atomic materials available to the wartime allies.

McMahon's statement said: "Following on the meeting at Blair House, at which congressional leaders (including ranking members of the committee) were present, the joint committee on Atomic Energy plans to meet in closed session... to explore with the department of state, the national military establishment and the Atomic Energy commission the continuing problem of our relations with the United Kingdom and Canada in the field of Atomic Energy."

"At the present time, the three countries are cooperating in a limited number of specifically defined areas of information, as well as on matters of raw materials supply."

"At the meeting Wednesday, the committee will discuss with the three agencies most directly concerned the problems which lie ahead in our relations with the United Kingdom and Canada in this field."

It was assumed that McMahon issued his statement with the approval of President Truman. McMahon previously had said that any statement on the meeting would have to come from the President.

Powell Talks To Rotarians

Emmett Powell, local Triple A Official, discussed the government's price support program on agricultural products, at the Monday noon meeting of the Eastland Rotary Club.

The speaker defended the price support program from recent criticism in the press and elsewhere, terming such criticism as "propaganda".

Powell outlined a proposed Department of Agriculture direct subsidy program.

Pearson Grimes was program chairman for the day.

President W. K. Cowan announced that $100 was made by the Rotary Club on the "Calvade of Laffs" concession at the Eastland Old Rip Horned Toad Derby. Special recognition was made to Hubert Westfall for work on the Derby.

Hoffman No. 1 Watt on the South 40 of the Watt lease on which the Jay and Parker Company drilled their two good wells, started off with a 15 inch hole—and are drilling ahead, after having set their surface casing. This morning or late last night they were 340 feet under the surface. The holes they are beginning with indicate that they may want to use them, as Mr. Hoffmann was heard to remark, "If we don't find something at the 3000 foot depth, we will be set so we can go on to China if we want to." Both present drilling operations, you will note are being set with a much larger opening hole than the usual 10 3/4 or 8 5/8 inch casing which they have been setting for surface casing in these Marble Falls wells. Something's brewing.

BUG FRIGHTENED SINGER MAKES A FINE COMEBACK

DALLAS, Tex. July 19 (UP) —Now that she knows Texans can take it, singer Kaye Ballard will pull it punches tonight in insulting a Lone Star audience. Showing no outward fears last night, yankee-born Miss Ballard stood on the State Fair Casino Stage and let it be known she was plenty tired of Texas.

There was applause, Texas-style, instead of ripe tomatoes. Even the Dallas Chamber of Commerce liked it.

The song was "I'm Tired of Texas," a jingle that speaks none too well of questionable virtues of the state. An ordinary yankee voicing such sentiments, even in song, would have something for more unpleasant to take back to the union country.

But Miss Ballard won her audience. "It's too cold, too hot, too, it's really got to go back to Mexico," she sang.

"Texas shakes me, aches me," Miss Ballard sobbed as a ballet troupe of the plot found out after two days of "soot in the face" that it was still in Texas, Amarillo, to be specific.

The song, part of the score of "Look, Ma, I'm Dancin'," the Casino's current starlight operetta, was written by Hugh Martin, who soldiered at Camp Hood, Tex. during the late war.

The Dallas audience, proud of its symphony orchestra and other instruments of culture, did not react unpleasantly when Miss Ballard mentioned in the song something about being "callous and full of malice toward Dallas."

Then Miss Ballard threw a kiss at the audience and said, "I love it."

She admitted before curtain-time that she didn't know whether she would come out alive.

"You know, when Nancy Walker sang that song in the New York production, she got hundreds of nasty letters from Texans calling her more names than Texas has square miles," said Ted Materna, Chicago Television Producer and Miss Ballard's finance.

"It would be a shame to die in Texas," Miss Ballard said. "I love the state so. Really I do. Those are just a lot of words I sing."

Comedian Sings Despite Fly

DALLAS, Tex. July 19(UP) —A sputtering comedienne today laughed off an insect incident that was almost as nerve-racking as the one which broke up a show Sunday night.

Nanette Fabray became hysterical Sunday at the open-air casino when a June Bug flew into her dress. The show, "Bloomer Girl", had to be called off.

A fly flew into Patricia Bright's mouth on the same stage last night while she was doing an imitation of Katherine Hepburn singing "Don't Fence Me In." "I just went 'poof!' and it went out," Miss Bright said.

More than 5,000,000 acres of arid and semi-arid lands in western states are under irrigation.

Guard Withdraws From Florida Terror Town

GROVELAND, Fla. July 19 — (UP)—National Guardsmen assigned to protect the negro community here withdrew early today after a night of terror in which three negro houses were burned by armed white mobs.

But it was learned that the 75 Guardsmen bivouacked nearby in an officially undisclosed spot in case rampaging gangs seeking vengeance for the rape of a white woman cause further violence.

Capt. Jimmy Herlong, Commander of the Guard detail that was rushed here last night, said early today that his men were "no longer at the scene."

As the rifle-bearing Guardsmen threw a protective cordon around the negro district last night, a leader of the aroused mob of white men warned Herlong to "get the hell out of town."

Herlong said he and his men withdrew from Groveland about 1:30 A. M. it was reported that they were released by Sheriff W. V. McCall, but Herlong would not confirm this.

He said any other announcement would have to come from McCall, who was not immediately available for comment.

Decatur Intends To Tell Public About The Town

DECATUR, Tex., July 19 (UP)—Two large signs will be reminding tourists passing through this small Texas town that this is where the old crapsshooters chant, "Eighter from Decatur" got its start.

The city council voted unanimously to post signs at both ends of town on Highway-81, replacing a battered old sign erected 15 years ago.

The new signs were approved despite objection from ministers and church-goers who didn't think Decatur should be famous for the reason.

Others, however, pointed out that tourists who stopped to have their pictures taken shooting dice in front of the sign often lingered spending money in Decatur.

One filling-station owner suggested putting it in neon to stop some of the night traffic.

Townsfolk explained that the "Eighter from Decatur" business started before the turn of the century when a negro girl named Ada lived in this seat of Wise County.

Ada was a sumptuous girl who brought piercing wolf-whistles from negro cowpunchers.

Whenever they shot for an eight point they'd yell for "Ada from Decatur, the county seat of Wise."

But northerners insisted on pronouncing Decatur the way it was spelled and the chant soon developed into a cry for "Eighter from Decatur."

40-Year Old Car To Roll In Rodeo Kick-Off Parade

An automobile, 40 years old and still able to travel, will be in the parade Wednesday afternoon, opening day of Ranger's annual homecoming and Junior Chamber of Commerce rodeo.

But the one who was to have occupied the historic car as the guest of honor will not be there.

Gov. Beauford Jester, who died suddenly last week, had promised to take part in the parade and, in anticipation of the occasion, the car's owner had had the machine put in tip-top shape. The automobile is one of the first 2,200 of a make which has sold million of cars and belongs to L. R. Pearson, attorney, oil man and former legislator.

In practice spins, the venerable car has been attracting attention, with its right-hand drive, brakes on the outside and the thrashing-machine roar of its motor as it attains a speed of 10 miles an hour.

Judge Pearson will drive the car in the parade — but the seat beside the driver will be empty, in tribute to the guest of honor who can not be here.

NEWPORT, N. H. (UP) — There's more than one way to skin a cat or to get one out of a treetop. The perennial problem of firemen has been solved by the local department. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Almarastiano found their son, Michael, Virgil, at the bottom of two steps leaning from a screened porch into the living room.

A physician said the child had lost its balance, and in falling struck its head on the sharp corner of a step.

The Almarastianos are political refugees from Rumania, and arrived in this country nine months ago, shortly before Michael Virgil was born.

In an unofficial straw vote of district water users yesterday, water district number one of Harlingen balloted 656 to 114 in favor of the project.

EDINBURG, July 19 (UP) — The polo patients count at the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis Clinic here stood at its lowest in months today.

THE sides of the Buick Roadmaster convertible have been further ornamented with a functional sweep spear molding which starts as a triangular section just ahead of the front wheels and extends through the door panels to the end of the rear fender, adding beauty and protection along the length of the car. ISLAND OF ESCAPE

THE STORY: Bea Cosgrove, unsatisfied that one of her companions on Spruce Island, Lily Warren, committed suicide, has been carrying on an investigation. Henry Gough Harding, owner of the island, has told her his reasons for wanting to escape the world and establish a "New Eden." He has been in search of a woman like his mother, he says, and wishes to create a "living museum" to his. Harding asks Bea if it would be wise to ask Mollie Stark to be his wife. Mollie, shipwrecked there a few days before, seems to Bea to be dim-witted and mercenary, but it is obvious she has Harding under her thumb. Bea conceals her thoughts and tells Harding he must answer the question himself. As Bea leaves Harding she passes through Mollie's room. Mollie sneers at her.

XXV
MABEL JONES had outdone herself in the production of indestructible pancakes, and the breakfast bacon still held traces of mold on the raw spots between chars.
Harding stood up at last. "I'd like to talk to you, Miss Stark," he said. He smiled at her and the smile remained forgotten on his face.
Mollie jumped to her feet. "Well I don't want to talk to you! I won't talk to you. Not after what you've done!" She raced to the tower room and slammed the door behind her.
Harding strode from the room in silence. Mabel Jones began clearing away, rattling dishes to cover Nona's humming of "Happy Days Are Here Again."

Bea Cosgrove found him at the sheep pen, arms resting on the barrier. He looked at her blankly.
"How many sheep are there supposed to be?" she asked.
"There were 20," he said. "Miss Cosgrove, what's the matter with her this morning? I don't understand it. I wanted to talk to her, ask her to marry me, and she acts like she did. Do you know what she's doing?"
"She's jealous. She was awake when I came down from the tower last night. She saw me."

of the funicular. "I don't get it," he said. Bea did not answer.
When they had put a half dozen pieces of rock in the gondola both were dripping.

Miss Cosgrove took hold of the starting lever as she had seen Harding do. She hesitated, then moved it. The car moved silently out into the growing light. She held her breath until it dipped over the steeper part of the incline and disappeared from sight. She knew it could still be seen from above, or from the upper windows. Anyone's idle curiosity, or a chance look in the right direction could spoil her plan.
"I didn't come here to watch the little cars run," Fred snarled. "And your pal Harding'll be sore if he sees you playing with his train."

"Yes," she admitted. "If he sees."
"But it's in plain sight."
"Wait," she ordered.
They stood in silence until the other car popped over the edge and moved silently toward them. There was a sharp click as it hit the automatic block. The lever moved by itself. The car stopped.
"All right," Fred said slowly. "It stops itself."
"There wasn't enough blood in the gondola where Lily was found. There's a wet spot back in one of the storerooms where something was cleaned up. There is a hand truck for moving anything—heavy."

Sillwell's eyes were glittering. "A shot wouldn't be heard back in the tunnel. The cars are in sight only two minutes."
"You've been earning your dough," Fred said. "It's a chance, though, that someone would have seen."
"What's the difference?" Sta asked. "The person who started the car wouldn't have had to stay."
Fred nodded thoughtfully. "And Harding said he searched all four of you women when you came ashore here?"
"That's right," Bea said. "He found my gun and threw it away."
The man nodded as if already aware of the fact. "It's enough I've got him now."

TRUMAN AT CHICAGO FOR BIG SHRINE CELEBRATION

CHICAGO, July 19 (UP) — President Truman comes here today to address the Diamond Jubilee Convention of the Shrine and to review the organization's colorful parade as its most distinguished member.

The President also will witness a public ceremony at which silent star Harold Lloyd will be elevated to Imperial Potentate, the highest office in the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

Mr. Truman leaves Washington about noon and arrives here between 2 and 3 P. M. A committee headed by Mayor Martin Kennedy was on hand to greet him and accompany him to Soldier's Field, for the speech and parade.

Shrine officials emphasized that Mr. Truman was making his speech as "President of the United States rather than as a Shriner." He has been a member of Kansas City's Ararat Temple for holding a public ceremony elevating Lloyd to the high post. Previously, the rites were always secret.

The President, who planned to stay overnight, also was using his trip as a chance to inspect the Democratic party's political fences in the Midwest.

Between his afternoon appearance and the evening dinner, he was scheduled to attend a reception hosted by Chicago's Democratic Party Leader, Jacob M. Arvey. The reception gave the President an opportunity to discuss party matters with Arvey, Kennedy and many other Midwestern Political leaders who were in Chicago to attend the Shrine convention.

The President's speech this afternoon of about 20 minutes duration, was scheduled to be broadcast by the Mutual and American Broadcasting systems.

A throng of 100,000 Shriners, their families, and Chicago residents paid $1.50 and $2.00 for seats in the big classically-designed Lake Shore Stadium to hear Mr. Truman and to watch the Big Shrine Parade.

—ELECTRICALLY!

Either an electric refrigerator or an electric home freezer is an extremely valuable asset in any home but the combination of the two multiplies their individual benefits many times over.

For perishables which don't lend themselves to solid freezing—milk, eggs, beverages, left-overs, jellies and the like—an electric refrigerator is the complete answer to the food storage problem. For berries, fruits, meats, poultry, game birds and animals, vegetables and other important food items, the electric home freezer provides ample protection over long periods of time.

Together, these two—the electric refrigerator and the electric home freezer—form an unbeatable food-storing combination.
