EARL BALDWIN CHARGED MURDER

Abilene, Sept. 3.—The Sheriff's Department of Taylor county today received notice of the arrest of two people against whom the Grand jury last week returned bills of indictment charging murder.

Earl Baldwin, who is charged by indictment with the murder of Alf Cogdell, was arrested in Springfield, Mo., Monday, Sheriff Weir receiving the notification from the officers there to this effect today and he or one of his deputies will leave for Missouri tonight.

It will be remembered, Cogdell was killed in the second story of the building adjoining Leeson's Grocery store in December, 1910. Felix Jones surrendered to the officers, was later indicted by the grand jury, and tried in the district court sitting in Abilene, the jury returning a verdict of not guilty. Earl Baldwin was one of the principal witnesses for the defendant, it being alleged that he was an eye witness to the killing.

Sheriff Weir also received a message from the sheriff of Comanche county stating that he arrested J. T. Couch, acting on an indictment returned by the Taylor county grand jury last week. Couch is charged with the murder of a man by the name of Henderson, at the Epileptic Colony six weeks ago. Henderson was an inmate of the Colony when he died, and an investigation followed, but the matter seemed to have been dropped without complaint having been registered against anyone.

Uncle John and the Dummy.

Of course as a matter of fact J. R. Toombs of the Canyon valley is no relation, blood, politics or otherwise of the Merkel Mail but we have gotten to calling him Uncle John just like everybody else.

He is a jolly old timer and about the most gallant man in this whole country. He came to town one day last week with a bale of cotton just like he does nearly every day and wearing his cotton hat, a great big Stetson with wilted brim and smoking a cigar, he entered the dry goods store of Woodroof & Co. Immediately after entering he met one of the ladies of the store he knew well enough but she was togged in new wearing apparel, a new storm serge suit and a late style big black sailor hat with natural plumes. Uncle John bowed and reached for his headcovering. He got a good hold but the sweatband was loose and caught just back of and below his ears. It was an embarrassing moment but with a jerk the band ripped, released the hat and relieved the wearer, who said:

"Good e'ening."

There was silence for just another moment for the clerks could not hold in longer and Uncle John bought the treats for the crowd. She was a dummy lady.

O. M. Coggin was a visitor in Abilene Tuesday.

MERKEL AS A MARKET

It is a fact that our little town is the best place to sell cotton and produce and buy supplies in this section of the state and taking into consideration the location and natural advantages there is no reason that it should not grow in importance as a trading point. In the first place, we are in the heart of the best body of agricultural land as a whole in this section and about midway between Abilene and Sweetwater. Our town is little but loud in the buying and selling market and because our merchants and buyers have the advantage.

The selling price of any merchandise is made by the addition of the expenses of a business and a reasonable profit to the original cost. There is the secret of the success of our merchants. Their money will buy as much as any other merchant's and his expenses are less. On the prevailing basis of selling the price of rents and other expense in the larger cities would break the Merkel merchant before he got started. The low expense of rents and other items of operation give him the advantage in making the price and in these days the price is the biggest consideration.

In buying our merchants have the same advantage. They do their own buying and have no high salaries to pay which of course must be paid out of the business. Other merchants are more or less independent of the farming trade for they have other good sources of revenue but in our town our merchants realize their dependence upon his trade and are always willing to give them the highest prices for their cotton and products and then sell them goods for the lowest prices possible. This is a farmers town.

These facts are known to the people of this territory and those marketing cotton and seed at Merkel have received and are receiving the highest prices being paid in this part of the state. It will pay you to read the advertisements in our paper and make your dollar go as far as possible. Trade at Merkel and take advantage of the best bargains ever offered.

New Awning.

The West Texas Hardware Company, Jones' Barber Shop and G. F. West & Sons Grocery Store are in receipt of a new modern awning extending over their frontage on Front street. The improvement is quite an addition to the general appearance of that section of town and gives the stores a much better light on the inside from the fact that the upper windows are not obstructed.

$79,000 WORTH OF LAND SELLS HERE

Within the last three weeks $79,000 worth of Merkel country land has changed hands though the deals in which the Merkel land was sold amounted to over $80,000.

The Dallas News of Sunday in the State Brevities gave account of the transactions and in that way advertised the sale of Merkel country lands all over the state and other states. The first deal was closed when B. D. Rogers of Collin county purchased 1128 acres of the Noodle Creek Valley lands for a total consideration of $30,000. The land is north of Merkel in Jones county but is in Merkel's trade territory. The other deal was made between A. H. Murchison of Eskota and G. W. Turner of Meridian, Bosque county, wherein Murchison exchanged 1960 acres of Fisher county land about fourteen miles northwest of Merkel for a consideration of $49,000.

Miss Alice Williams of Abilene stopped off here Tuesday enroute home from Big Springs where she has been with her parents for some time to visit friends.

AMERICAN IS KILLED

Mexican Rebels Thrust Bayonet Through Victims Body.

MAN TRIED TO PROTECT FAMILY

Merkel Country Land Owner and Business Agent for Mormons in Mexico Brings The News of Depredations to Texas.

Monday morning O. P. Brown business agent for the Mormon colonies in Mexico brought the news to El Paso of the murder of an American citizen in Colonia, Pacheco the home of the victim Joshua Stevens. The following gives an account of the killing:

El Paso, Sept. 2.—Death at the hands of a rebel soldier was the fate of an American citizen, Joshua Stevens, while he fought to protect his two daughters in Colonia, Pacheco.

Two rebels visited the Stevens home. Stevens met the intruders with a shotgun and escorted them to the limits of his property. According to the story told by his daughters, one of the Mexicans drew a sword bayonet from his belt and thrust it into the American's body.

Stevens fired and fell dead over the man whom he had killed. The other Mexican fled.

The case has been investigated by Junius Rominy, president of the colonies. It is said to make the fifth murder of American settlers by rebels in the district. President Romney has issued a warning that no families return to the colonies until quiet is restored. It is declared that the federal soldiers strung out between Juarez and Chihuahua have not left the railway and that the American colonies are absolutely unprotected.

Mrs. G. A. Davis and daughter Miss Clara who have been here for some time visiting the family of W. M. O'Briant left for Dallas, Houston and Alice, Texas Monday where they will visit before returning to their home in Tennessee. They were accompanied by Miss Ruby Booth also of Tennessee who is seeing Texas with them.

J. W. Daniel made a business trip to Dallas this week.

SOCIAL CENTER MASS MEETING

On Friday night September the 20 at the tabernacle at 8:15 there will be a meeting of the citizens of Merkel and of the Merkel country, gotten up solely for their entertainment without cost to the individual and every person feeling an interest in affairs of their town and country is earnestly requested to be present at the gathering to hear the vocal and instrumental selections both in solos, duets and quartets rendered by an altogether local talent band.

There will also be short talks by prominent citizens along various lines of interest to the town and country. It will be well for the people in general to give this gathering their attention as it is of vast importance to every Merkel man and woman, boy and girl.

J. J. Russell and Jasper McCoy shipped two cars of cattle to Fort Worth Tuesday. Another shipment from here that day was made by S. A. Overton of Fort Worth who bought a car load of mules for the panther city market.

This afternoon the burglary case of the State of Texas against Bernardo Acosta, charged with burglarizing the Merkel Dry Goods and Grocery Store some months ago, was taken up and is now in progress. There were originally eight arrests on this charge but all have been freed of the charge except this one. This case will occupy the attention of the court the balance of the day.

Gilliland-Mims.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday a. m. Sept. 4, 1912 when Judge and Mrs. C. D. Mims gave their daughter, Ruth Maurine, in marriage to Mr. Charles Irving Gilliland of Fort Worth.

The Mims home on Oak street presented an early autumn scene. Back of the altar was a solid bank of trailing vines and evergreens in front of which was suspended a pure white horse shoe covered with white roses under which the bridal couple stood. Just preceding the ceremony Miss Ina Gilliland of Fort Worth sang "All for You."

Mesdames W. A. Scott and W. H. Dickson received the guests and ushered them into the living room where a gorgeous array of bridal presents were admired, each showing the love and high esteem in which this popular young couple is held at home and abroad.

At 10:30, the hour set for the wedding, as Mrs. Wesley Edwards rendered the wedding processional, Miss Maud Martin and Mrs. J. W. Hewatt of Fort Worth, a sister of the groom, led the way to the altar followed by the bride's father and mother. Then came the ribbon bearers, the brides little brothers, Masters Gordon and Dick Mims, paving the way to the altar for the bridal party. The little flower girls, Misses Evelyn Jackson and Louise Scott, were darling little fairies as they scattered rose petals from their dainty flower baskets, while with measured steps, in perfect time, came the dear little ring bearer, Miss Wilton Wade of Abilene, carrying the groom's gift to the bride, a diamond ring in the heart of a lily.

Rev. R. A. Clements awaited the coming of the bride and groom at the altar where he read the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony, Mrs. Wesley Edwards playing "Hearts and Flowers" very soft and low during the service. At the conclusion Miss Gilliland sang "A Birthday" as congratulations and good wishes were showered upon the newly wedded couple.

The guests were invited into the dining room where Misses Pet Sears and Winnie Warren, two charming young ladies, poured refreshing fruit punch from a bowl surrounded by greenery.

The bride in this pretty wedding is a sweet young girl and has been very popular in Merkel social and literary circles since coming here from Nacogdoches three years ago. She was charmingly attired Wednesday morning in a steel gray coat suit, French cut, trimmed in the moire collars and cuffs, with heavy braided buttons. Her hat was soft gray with white uncurled ostrich plume and a touch of green. The waist was hand-painted marquisette over shadow lace with a touch of green to match. Her handkerchief was of point lace made by her aunt in Tyler twenty years ago. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, sweet peas and ferns. The groom was attired in the conventional black with accessories to correspond.

Mrs. C. D. Mims, the bride's mother, wore a blue foulard trimmed in white ruby thread lace. Mrs. J. W. Hewatt wore a white coat suit with hat to match. Miss Ina Gilliland wore a blue serge coat suit trimmed in black and white bengaline with hat to correspond. Miss Martin wore a blue coat suit.

The bridal party was accompanied to the 11:38 east bound train by a number of friends who showered them with rice and good wishes. After a short bridal trip they will be at home to their many friends at 3011 Polytechnic Heights, Fort Worth.

The carnival at the Thornton building on Kent street Thursday afternoon and evening was socially a success, while financially a neat sum was cleared. Mrs. Doss Sheppard had charge of the big free show which was a musical treat. This show consisted of drills and choruses, the drill being pretty Japanese maidens in their native dress. In the choruses were the well-trained voices of Misses Genevieve Rust, Dorothy Lee Potter, Mary Reed, Leno Largent, Faye Allen, Zora West, Tommie Louise Coggin, Fannie Burroughs and Murtice Saffle.

The duet by Master Eugene Potter and little Miss Ina May Adams was splendid. The solos by Misses Jessie O'Briant and Leno Largent were most pleasingly rendered and greatly enjoyed. Judge W. T. Potter made a few well chosen remarks in the interest of the Merkel public library, complimenting the ladies who had charge of the carnival for an evening of pleasure.

The Scheidler orchestra furnished music before and during the carnival. The candy shop, the lunch counter and lemonade stand were all well patronized. Many visited the booth of the Japanese maidens which was beautifully decorated while a crowd was in the Old Curiosity Shop all the time. The Siamese Twins attracted the usual amount of attention. The Gypsy fortune teller in native dress was the center of attraction and told of many happy events to come. What the crowd failed to receive in the carnival can be more than made up in a year's reading in the Merkel Public Library. Membership tickets $1.00. New books will be in by the middle of the month.

The girl friends of Miss Lula Thornton gave her a farewell dance Saturday evening at the Thornton Building on Kent Street.

The Abilene Orchestra furnished delightful music which was greatly enjoyed by the dancers and their guests of the evening.

Those present were Misses Lula Thornton, Annie T. Daniel, Olga and Elma Sheppard, Jessie O'Briant, Bobbie Davis, Agnes Hall, Genevieve Rust, Mabel Collins, Juanita Young, Abilene; Essie Seat, Winnsboro; Susie Penn, Mary Reed, Hillsboro; Mamie and Carroll Rister. Mesdames Fred Bigham, Jno. G. Jackson, R. O. Anderson, Geo. L. Miller, E. M. Rust, Frank Hamm, J. W. Daniel, Deavenport Gaither. Messrs. Dem Rust, Dee Grimes, Olly Sharp, Homer Easterwood, Otti Coggin, Clayton Brown, James Guitar, J. E. Faucett, Parker Sharp, John D. Gaither, R. O. Anderson, John G. Jackson, T. B. Lucas, Dr. George L. Miller.

Stevens-Erwin.

Sunday Mr. T. Frank Stevens of Trent was married to Miss Anie B. Erwin of the same place at the home of the bride's parents near Trent. Miss Erwin is a charming and accomplished young lady of the Trent community while Mr. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Stevens, is a prosperous young farmer of the Trent country.

Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Faribault, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better.

Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble.

A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work.

For a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you.

Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by the constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
