Manufacturer fights back against rumors

by John Cordson

Fighting tough markets is one thing, fighting rumors is another. Missy's Manufacturing in Post, already coping with a summer slow down, is battling back against rumors that the two year old business is closing its doors.

"The rumor around town that we quit is not true," said Missy's production manager Dave Brown. "That rumor needs to be squelched. Missy's is here to stay."

Brown said the clothing manufacturer is gearing up for an October resumption of activities.

"Missy's will start back by October 1 and we should be in full production by October 15," said Brown.

Missy's which produces primarily sporting attire such as baseball uniforms, cheer leading outfits shorts and sweat suits also manufactures some medical garments. When the production floor is going full tilt, Missy's employs 48 people.

Brown said the slow down that started in early June and eventually led to the temporary layoff of Missy's staff

"The layoff is temporary," said Brown. "They are due to the economy, schools not purchasing and the general recession in the area."

"We're disappointed the workers aren't working right now," continued Brown. "We're trying to get everybody back in here and for us to keep growing."

Even with the employees laid off, Missy's has not been completely idle this summer. Missy's owner and Dave's wife, Martha Brown, has been a one woman task force finishing up a number of smaller orders.

"It gets real lonely in here with nobody else in here," said Martha Brown in the cavernous building that once housed the old Piggly Wiggly grocery store.

Missy's is an independent contractor, supplying large wholesalers which in turn supplies some of the major retail outlets in the region. Missy's largest customer is Capital Industries which counts Wal-Mart as one of its retail customers.

Dave Brown said the next largest customer will be Missy's itself as the Post company will be marketing its own line of sportswear direct to wholesalers.

"This year our next biggest (customer) will be the Missy's Athletic Line," confirmed Brown.

The slow down that idled Missy's during the summer months also affected other clothing manufacturers in the business. Brown said some companies have even contacted him asking if Missy's wants to purchase some of their inventory as they try to move unsold items to relieve cash flow problems.

Things are starting to turn around though for the industry as order buyers appear to be lining up for future purchases.

"Everybody is jockeying for position with one of the big companies," said Brown of the anticipated influx of business.

The Browns also want to dispel another myth surrounding Missy's, that the company does not do small orders.

"For the local area I don't mind doing the smaller orders," said Martha.

She also said that during slow periods like the company is just coming through, smaller orders provide business.

"When we're running busy its tough (filling some of the smaller orders) but when we're slow like this, 25 is 25," said Martha.

The Browns are particularly interested in cultivating a local market for their products. Dave said that if they have a question on whether or not Missy's can help them, local people, business' or the schools need just ask.

"If somebody local asks, I will work with them," confirmed Dave.

Another venue in the local market Missy's is trying to capture are the shops on main street. Dave said Twins Fashions currently stocks one of Missy's baseball style shirts. The two color (black and white or black and gray) shirts sport a Bold Gold Antelope emblem. A quick check at Twins revealed a good supply of the Bold Gold shirts are available as the high school football season gets underway.

Run-off election this Saturday

Post voters in ward 5 will go to the polls this Saturday, September 11 to decide who they want representing them on the city council in a special run-off election. The run-off was made necessary when the August 14 city-wide election failed to give either candidate a 50 percent majority of the votes cast.

Larry Mills, the incumbent received the most votes in the election, garnering 91 votes while challenger John Butterfield received 73. A third candidate in the newly created ward, incumbent councilman Jim Schooter was named on 59 of the ballots.

Voters will cast their ballots at the 4-H Show Barn on Highway 84 northwest of Post.

Organizers gearing up for Founder's Day celebration

by Laura Puma

In 1987, some 80 years after C.W. Post founded this unique community, the city of Post received the prestigious designation of a Main Street City and gave birth to the annual celebration of Founders Day. How appropriate that Post should make this unique list of historical cities on the year of its 80th birthday.

What does it mean to be called a Main Street City? Perhaps any town with a main street could call themselves a Main Street City. Not so! The Main Street concept was developed by the National Trust for Historic Preservation, who established a National Main Street Center in 1980, with Texas being among six states chosen to participate in the initial program. In 1981, the Texas Main Street Project became a part of the Texas Historical Commission.

Since its inception, the Texas Main Street Project has accepted applications each year from cities with under 50,000 populations and selects five cities annually as they work to revitalize towns across Texas. Receiving this official designation requires extensive planning and preparation. As stated in the original resource report for Post, from the Texas Main Street Project in July 1987, the goal of the project is to encourage economic development with the context of historic preservation by using sound management and private sector techniques.

The citizens of Post and Garza county have cause to be thankful, to the local businessmen and women who gave endless hours of their personal time to insure this distinctive title would become reality for the city of Post. "The local merchants got together to help the business district survive," explained Jan Crawford, owner of Jan's gifts who was the first chairman of the Main Street City Advisory Board. Town meetings, budgets, approvals and lengthy reports were only a small part of the process. Several conditions and commitments had to be met before the designation could be granted.

Upon earning this designation, one of the conditions was that the city and the private sector must agree to hire and fund the salary for a full time Main Street Manager and to continue this practice for at least three years to follow. With the cooperation of the private sector and the city this funding was acquired and the extensive interview process began. The first Main Street City Manager was the very capable Melissa Cunningham. Initially, a resource team from Austin visited the downtown area of Post and in an extensive report made in depth observations and creative recommendations resulting in the many important improvements the advisory board and manager have implemented.

A major recommendation of the resource team was to have an annual celebration for the people of Post and Garza county. Patty Kirkpatrick, also part of the original task force and owner of Danish Imports explained, "We needed a celebration to tie in Main Street city and promote our western heritage." Together the Post Merchants Association and the new Post Main Street Advisory Board came up with a Founders Day Celebration.

Founders Day has been an important annual extravaganza the second week of October for the past six years with countless hours devoted to insure its success every year as more and more local people get involved and the activities grow. This year is no exception and is shaping up to supercede all the masterfully planned celebrations to date.

As the festivities draw near, this column will be exploring each phase of the great celebration and sharing the many special events you and your family can look forward to again this year, October 13th through 17th. Mark it on the calendar and plan to enjoy it all. The city will be filled with folks from all over coming to participate in the official Post Founder's Day celebration.

Other resource team recommended changes are for the historic preservation of the wonderful old buildings downtown; however, some of the changes have included beautification and cleanup programs, which are continually being implemented, and some architectural possibilities to preserve the original structures. The city will continue to direct its energy for the preservation of its past for the protection of its future as an official Main Street city.

After the initial three year period and completion of some of the early projects, including the completion of the attractive grassy downtown median and the unique downtown sound system supplying soothing country music as folks stroll from shop to shop, the managers job has been scaled down to meet the needs of Post. The position of Main Street city Manager has now become a part time salaried position.

Managers have changed over the last seven years; however, for the last two years the Main Street manager has been the very talented and vivacious Barbara Hardin, who is also the President of the school board and just happens to be the lovely wife of the First National Bank of Post President, Charles Hardin.

An advisory board of dedicated volunteers works along with Barbara and is made up of twelve successful Post business people. This active group is headed this year by Victor Ashley, acting as Chairman. Victor, besides being dedicated to the Main Street projects is the executive director for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service under the United States Department of Agriculture here in Post.

Other energetic dedicated members of the advisory board include Ruby Williams, Wanda Mitchell, Charles Hardin, Delores Redman, Maxine Conoly, Tim Tatum, Joe Harris, Joyce Strubhart, Dee Justice, Pat Bilbo and Charles Wallace, who is this year's chairman of C.W. Post 1993 Founders Day. The advisory board also includes ex-office members which include Mayor Jim Jackson, the acting city manager, Delbert Rudd, the outgoing chairman, Patty Kirkpatrick, Giles Dalby represents Post Economic Development Corporation and Postex, See "Founder's day" on page 4

Post's future Cultural plan updated

by Emma Burnett, Locals Director: Texas Arts Council

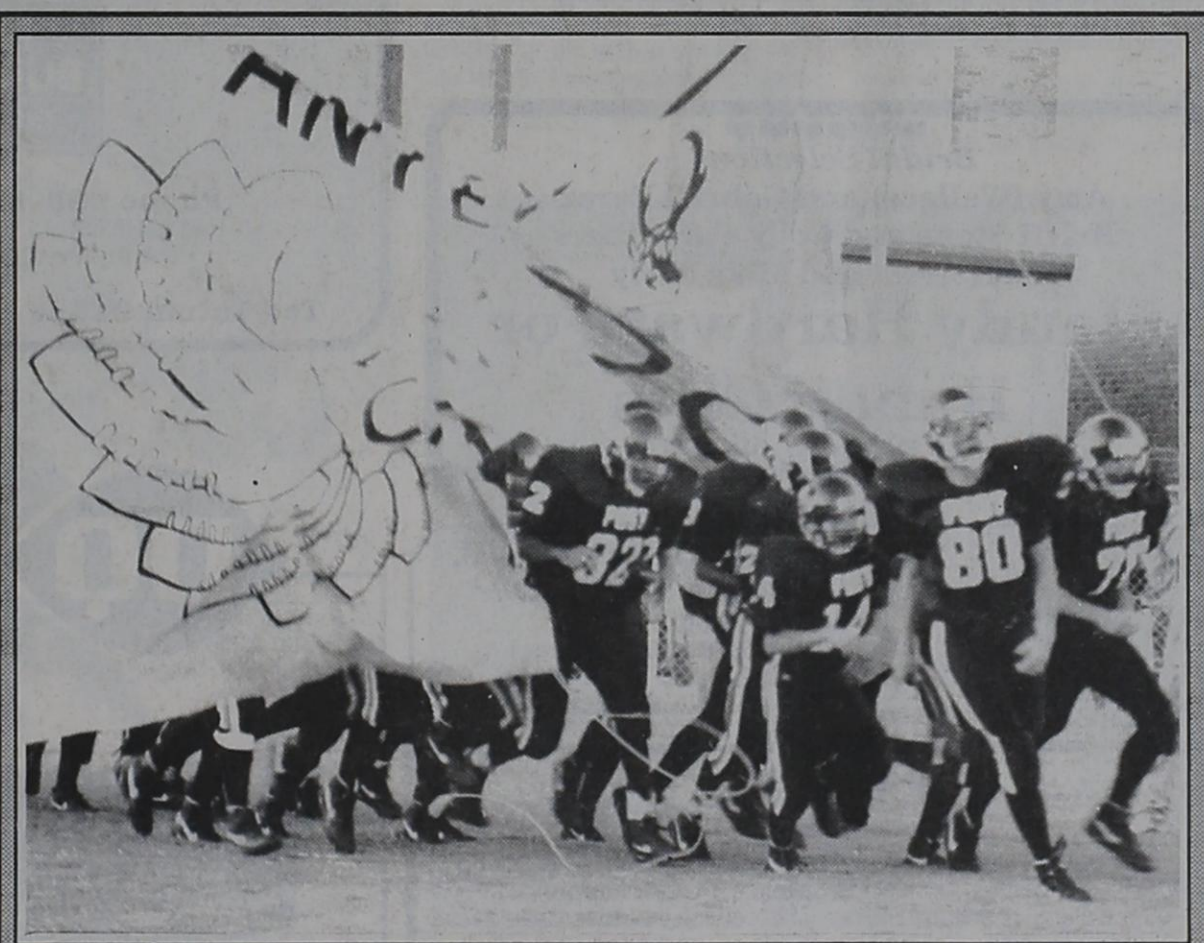

Post's decision to plan for the future came to some extent from looking at history - both recent and past. From the standpoint of history, Post is one of the first planned communities in the United States. Perhaps the inspiration to continue the planning that C.W. Post began in 1907, was triggered by the establishment of the Caprock Cultural Association (CCA) in 1982. Among its earliest accomplishments, the CCA collaborated with the Post Art Guild to take over the old Algerita Hotel, (circa 1908), re-claiming the vintage building for its current use as the Algerita Arts Center. The excitement created by the opening of the Algerita Arts Center motivated a group of Post citizens to approach the Council or assistance in developing the Garza Theatre which now attracts busloads of people from across West Texas to its performances. In 1992, the CCA purchased and rehabilitated the building in which its offices are currently housed. Restoration and adaptive reuse of the Tower Theatre and a number of other historic structures on and off Main Street are an integral component in the development of the Post Cultural Plan. In 1987, Post became a member of Main Street, an economic development program that utilizes historic preservation principles.

Materials gathered and residents interviewed

The Interviews: Over the past several months a good many Post citizens have been interviewed, and sometimes pursued, by staff members of the Texas Arts Council in an effort to accumulate a broad spectrum of perceptions and inclinations on the current cultural life in Post. The objective of these interviews has been to conclude what is and is not available and/or accessible, what the preponderance of the residents want and believe is appropriate for Post, and to hopefully discover several distinct visions and ideas for Post for the next decade and century.

A preponderance of the interviews have been completed, thanks to the assistance of the staff and board of the Caprock Cultural Association.

Bold Gold begin 1993 season with victory

THE POST BOLD GOLD ANTELOPES began their 1993 football season last Friday, September 3 in Post with a convincing 33-0 drubbing of the Abernathy Antelopes. See the sports section on page 3 for a run down of the game.

Fiestas Patras festivities begin Friday

By week's end, the Los Mexicanos Unidos organization will have chosen a new queen for the 1993 Fiestas Patras celebration. The two queen candidates for the September 10-11 fiesta, Melonie Valdez, Christina Soto have been vying for the queen's title for the past two months. The queen is chosen by how much money she raises during the contest. This includes donations and other money making projects. The candidates are also questioned on what they received from the contest.

The local celebration that observes Mexico's independence from Spain in 1810 comes to a head this weekend with the choosing of the queen and other fiesta activities.

The celebration officially gets underway September 10 at 8 p.m. at the Post Community Center with the Caprock Cultural Association.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (SWBT) is asking the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) for approval to offer Caller ID service in Texas. This service includes Calling Number Delivery, Calling Name Delivery and Anonymous Call Rejection (ACR). This service will be deployed statewide on a staggered, city-by-city basis, over a period of years in Texas in association with residence, business single and multiline services, but not PBX, Centrex or Plexar services, where facilities are available. Caller ID is an optional service which allows a subscriber to see date, time, and the phone number (Calling Number Delivery) and/or name associated with the number (Calling Name Delivery) of most direct dialed local calls and some select long distance calls before the telephone is answered. Anonymous Call Rejection is a Caller ID service which permits a subscriber to automatically reject calls from callers who have blocked their number/name. Per-call and per-line blocking will be available when the service is deployed. Detailed information on Caller ID service and how to block will be sent to each customer in their telephone bill during the next few weeks.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in this proceeding should notify the PUC before October 6, 1993. Other parties may seek to also obtain Caller ID service in association with PBX, Centrex and Plexar service. A request to intervene, participate or receive further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the PUC Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221, teletypewriter for the deaf. ## 'Lopes strike gold against Abernathy in win

by John Cordson

Post Bold Gold head coach Dwayne Osborne couldn't have scripted a better beginning for the 'Lopes 1993 gridiron season. All the 'Lopes did against the visiting Abernathy Antelopes last Friday was score five touchdowns, kick a field goal, turn Abernathy away from the Bold Gold one yard line and post a shutout en route to a 33-0 season opening win.

"The kids did a great job, I can't say enough about them and they've worked hard for us," said Osborne.

The 'Lopes from Post dominated the 'Lopes from Abernathy in every major statistical area of the contest. The Bold Gold amassed more than 300 yards total offense while holding Abernathy to 178 yards total offense. Senior running back Tim Bell rushed 14 times for 133 yards. Quarterback Jim Riley Simpson added another 81 yards through the air completing four of seven. All told, the 'Lopes dented the Abernathy defense for 335 yards.

The mettle of the 'Lopes was tested early. Abernathy, after recovering a Bell fumble on the second play of the game, pounded the ball down to the 'Lopes one yard line behind the running of quarterback David Carver and 200 pound fullback Jeremy Mansanales. The middle of the Post defensive line stuffed Carver on a fourth and goal from the one.

What followed pretty much settled the outcome of the contest. Behind the running of the cat-quick Bell, Simpson and wingback Brad Lawson, the 'Lopes proceeded to march the ball 94 yards downfield to the Abernathy 5 yard line. The drive stalled and after a loss to the 10, Lemuel McDonald put the 'Lopes on the board with a 25 yard field goal in the opening seconds of the second quarter.

"That was really the turning point of the game, we stopped them their and

Bold Gold tackle Tigers this Friday

by John Cordson

Post travels to Slaton this Friday night, September 10 to take on the 3A Tigers. Kickoff is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Slaton comes into the game off of a 14-14 tie with Shallowater on the Mustang's home field in the season opener for both clubs.

Slaton was led by tailback Oskar Solis, a 155 pound junior, who gained 148 yards on 30 carries.

Slaton led 14-6 late in the game only to see Shallowater drive 90 yards for a touchdown and two point conversion that knotted the score.

The Tigers from Slaton led by Solis amassed 205 yards on the ground. Slaton quarterback Chris Hammons added another 120 through the air.

Roderick Ferris scored once for Slaton while Solis provided the other Tiger's score on a one yard run.

leaping grab to put the 'Lopes up 15-0. Both point after attempts failed.

"We just kind of did that to loosen them up," said Osborne of the 'Lopes' passing attack that broke the game open.

Osborne said Abernathy was putting nine up on the line of scrimmage trying to stuff the 'Lopes at the point of attack.

The Bold Gold took this lead into the locker room at the half. Osborne changed things up offensively at the start of the second half, inserting sophomore Alvin Reed in Bell's place in the backfield. Reed, a bruiser at 210 pounds provided a change of pace from the quicker and smaller Bell (145 pounds). The move paid dividends as Reed carried in from a yard out on the 'Lopes first possession of the second half.

"We've got a bunch of guys back there that can go," said Osborne of his backfield depth.

Reed's run gave the 'Lopes a 21-0 lead. Bell added the final two touchdowns for Post on runs of 49 and 17 yards.

Defensively, the 'Lopes were dominate. Take away the Abernathy drive that stalled on the Post one yard line and the 'Lopes kept their visitors bottled up for most of the night. What yards they did get came up the middle as Abernathy pounded the ball into the interior of the Post line with Mansanales and Carver doing most of the damage.

"We knew it'd be tough and that they were going to have to pound it down and if we could get the lead they weren't going to beat us doing that," said Osborne.

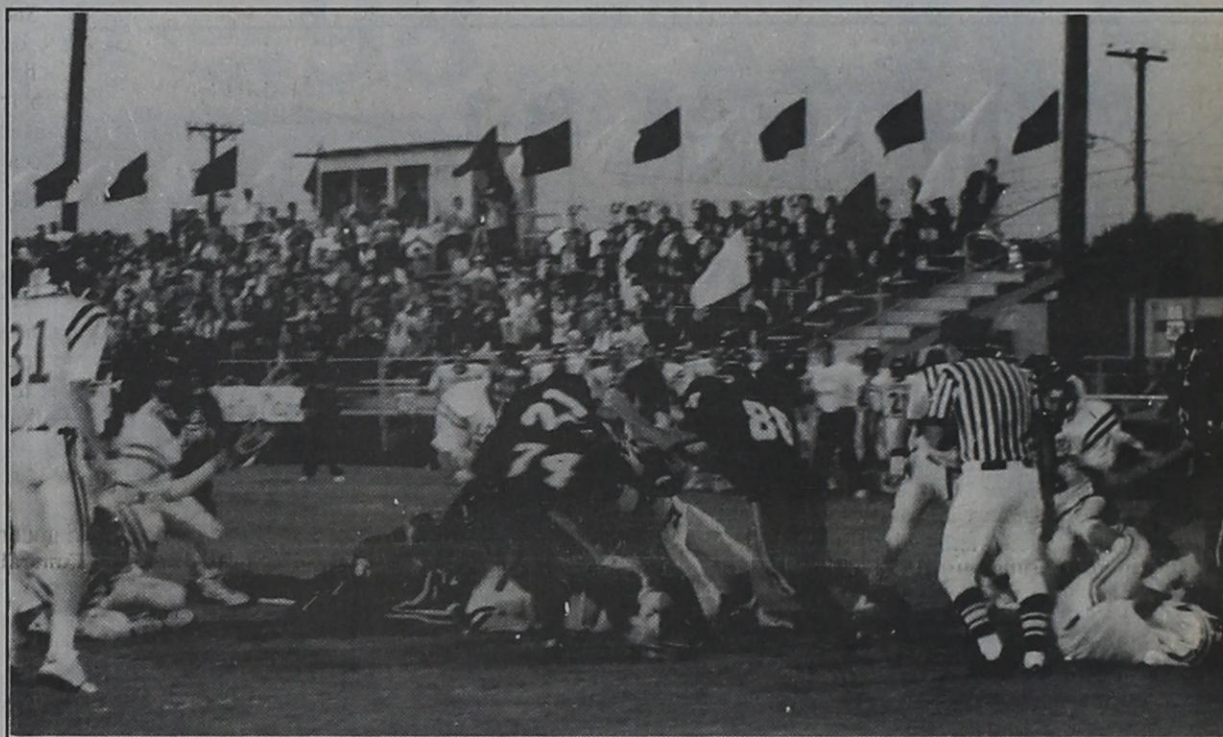

Linebackers McDonald and Russ Bird were the stoppers in the middle. When Abernathy tried to go around the ends, Post's team speed strung the play out until the shock troops could get there and stop the play for little or no gain.

The defense, along with posting the shutout, nearly added a touchdown of its own. Sophomore safety Bodie Simpson picked off a Carver pass at the Post 40 yard line in the closing moments of the second quarter and returned it for an apparent touchdown. The play was called back to the Abernathy 30 yard line on an illegal use of hands penalty against the 'Lopes. Post ran one play before the half ended.

"We still have a lot of work to be good, as good as we need to be," said Osborne of the season opening win. "As long as we keep playing as a team, we're going to be all right."

JV trounces Abernathy

The Post Bold junior varsity 'Lopes opened their season last Thursday, September 2 with a convincing 30-16 romp past the Abernathy Antelopes in Abernathy.

The junior 'Lopes scored four touchdowns in the big win. Saul Martinez put the 'Lopes first points of the season on the board, scoring from three yards out on the Bold Gold's opening drive. B.J. Hart added the two point conversion.

The scoring drive covered 54 yards in 14 plays.

Hart and Julian Aranda teamed up for the 'Lopes next score. Hart hit Aranda for a 53 yard touchdown strike. The point after attempt failed.

David Quintana capped a seven play, 48 yard drive with a nine yard run. Hart added two more points on the conversion.

Raymond Garza closed out the 'Lopes scoring with a three yard plunge. Garza also added the two point conversion.

According to junior varsity coach Mitch Rasberry, offensive standouts included Corey Cruse, Sammy Zubia, David Norman, Jay Childers, Jeremy Josey, Jerry Crawford and Julian Aranda.

"These guys opened some big horse for our backs to run in," said Rasberry. Defensively Rasberry said "Everyone who played got after it and really pursued well."

Stats for the game showed teh young 'Lopes gaining 192 yards on the ground on 40 carries. The passing attack netted another 110 yards on five of seven for a total of 302 yards for the game.

The 'Lopes defense held Abernathy to 180 total yards, with only 23 coming through the air.

'Lopes 1983 season reviewed

(Editor's note: This year marks the tenth anniversary of the Post Bold Gold's fine 13-2 season that saw the 'Lopes advance all the way to the state 3A semi-final game before losing to the eventual state champion. Through the pages in upcoming issues of the Post Dispatch, the highs and lows of this season will be re-lived. Each week, the Dispatch will carry excerpts from the articles written by former Post Dispatch publisher Wes Burnett on the Post Antelopes' march to glory.)

Blazing speed, tenacious defense and superior physical conditions made the Post Antelopes look like repeat district champions as they dominated the Roosevelt Eagles Friday night 41-6 in the opening game for both teams at Roosevelt.

The Antelope defense held highly touted Eagle running back Ira Johnson in check, as the 'Lope offense did what is has proven in the past to be best at -

DIGITAL CELLULAR EXTENDED COVERAGE AREA

There is an easier way to roam free on the range

Back in the early days, you probably decided to buy a cellular phone to make it a little easier to roam free on the range. Little did you know that there was a whole new set of boundaries to stumble across. Your cellular company wouldn't let you cut across another coverage area and receive calls without an extra roaming fee. And you had to remember every roamer access code for every coverage area you crossed. Soon, people were looking for you, and you couldn't be found. Your face was plastered on a wanted poster in your office because you gave the wrong code to your secretary. People actually said they wanted to 'ring your neck'.

Today, things are different. Digital Cellular has introduced a way for you to 'roam free' on the South Plains of Texas. As a Digital Cellular customer, you can roam in our Extended Coverage Area and receive your calls without additional roaming charges, daytime tolls or access numbers. Regular air time rates do apply.

So now, whether you're roaming across the range from Friona to Sterling City, or Haskell to Odessa or even in downtown Lubbock, Digital Cellular is putting you on the line for less. Less hassle. Less cost.

scoring. "We are really pleased with the way we handled the football," coach David Thompson comments about last Friday's 41-6 opening with Roosevelt. The Antelopes collected 440 yards total offense and held the Eagles to a meager 123 yards.

Defensively, the coach praised James Brown for his 12 tackles and credited Giles Dalby and Gilbert Perez with being in on nine tackles with Curt Greer hitting on eight. Ricky Moore picked off one Eagle pass.

The 'Lopes rammed 281 yards rushing and 163 passing at the Eagles, while allowing only 113 on the ground and 10 in the air for the opponents.

Melton Williams led the rushing game with 124 yards on 19 carries and 2 touchdowns, followed by Daniel Gonzales with 92 yards on 5 carries and 2 touchdowns, Giles Dalby with 38 on eight carries and one touchdown and Felix Bustos with 22 yards on 3 carries.

Quarterback Joel Kirkpatrick connected on 5 of 8 passes for 163 yards and 2 touchdowns, finding L.D. Harper for once 74 yards, Charles Johnson once for 50 yards, Milton Williams twice for 35 yards and one touchdown and Daniel Gonzales once for 4 yards.

'Lopes vs Amarillo River Road The Post Antelopes' defense proved stout enough to secure a 29-12 win Friday night over Amarillo River Road in Plainview.

Although the Wildcats controlled the football for much of the second and third quarters, giving the 'Lopes a solid test on defense, the Bold Gold struck twice in early minutes of the game and put the game out of reach in the fourth period.

River Road came to Plainview to avenge the two losses they suffered to Post last year, and the Wildcats showed they could get first downs.

A key turning point in the contest came in the third quarter, with Post leading 13-6 and River Road on the move.

Wildcat quarterback Aurelio Campos slipped through Antelope defenders over left tackle and race 51 yards into the end zone but the play was called back on a clipping penalty and the Wildcats could not get another shot, driving the ball to the Post 22 before turning it over on downs.

The Antelope break came late in the third quarter as the Wildcats punted from their own 46 to Milton Williams on the Post 30, where he called for a fair catch. An over-eager Wildcat tackled Williams drawing a penalty to the 45.

On first down, quarterback Joel Kirkpatrick handed the ball to Williams over right tackle, and he shook loose from two would-be tacklers, crossed over the middle and left Wildcat defenders on the ground as he went 55 yards.

The 'Lopes had 332 total yards offense, 259 on the ground and 73 in passing and allowed 123 rushing and 155 passing for River Road.

Milton Williams carried the ball 21 times for 211 yards, 3 touchdowns and 2 extra points.

Giles Dalby carried the ball six times for 30 yards and Daniel Gonzales picked up one yard on four tries.

Experts offer advice for good homework habits

For young children, settling in to a good homework routine is the best lessons they can learn.

"Homework begins as early as kindergarten and first grade," said Dr. Florence Eddins, a child psychiatrist at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. These early years are the time for parents to lay the foundation for good study habits.

Eddins believes children's experiences in learning basic skills taught in the early grades will set the tone for how they perceive the rest of school.

To begin a homework routine, she recommends that parents teach by example.

"When it is time to do homework, sit nearby with some work of your own," Eddins said. "This way you give your child an idea of how to do homework."

Flexibility is the next key in creating the right homework environment. Eddins cautions parents to remember that what works for them may not be right for their child.

"A child's attention span is much shorter," she said. "You may need uninterrupted quiet to get work done, but your child may need short breaks."

Eddins warns parents not to let struggles arise over these differences.

"Some children may like music or television in the background or may need a play period before settling down to work," Eddins said. "The important thing is to experiment and learn what works best for your child."

As homework guidelines are established, Eddins encourages parents to let the child play a key role in the decision-making process.

For example, if a parent feels that listening to music is becoming detrimental, Eddins suggests talking it over with the child and trying homework without music for a week to see how it goes.

"If your child has trouble establishing a good routine, help them set time limits for completion," Eddins said. "Gradually you and your child will find what works best."

Homework success also depends on good communication between the parents and teacher. Parents should learn what the school expects of the child and of the parents.

Licensed Vocational Nurses Association to meet Sept. 13

Licensed Vocational Nurses Association of Texas, Lubbock Division 18 will meet September 13 in the Arnett Room of St. Mary of the Plains Hospital. Since this is a workshop everyone is encouraged to pre-register or be present by 5:30 p.m. to register.

Marsha Long, R.N. of OSHA will present a workshop on "Airborne Blood Pathogens". She has presented a program before, but this is an extended session and much more information will be presented by Mrs. Long.

Since this is a workshop three (3) classroom hours of continuing education will be earned by those attending. These are very important hours because for license renewal nurses must have at least ten (10) classroom hours. Classroom hours can only be obtained through workshops. A charge of $15 will be made for non-members and $5 for members of L.V.N.A.T. will be made.

All nurses are encouraged to attend the meeting of Division 18. This is your professional organization. We are here to help you get your continuing education and information about your professional organization. L.V.N.A.T. and Lubbock Division 18.

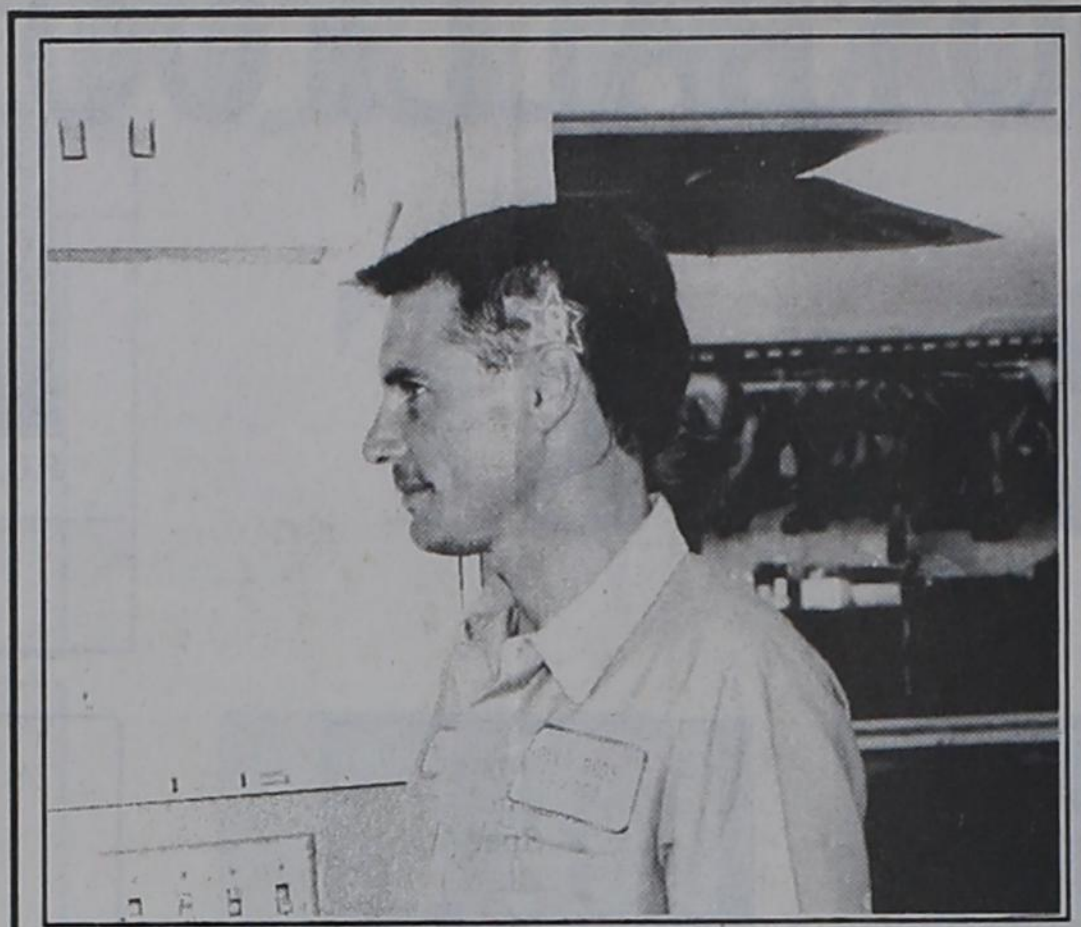

For further information contact Melvena Coverdell at 828-4565.

Artists to present exhibits at mall

Cowboy spirit a cut above

MARK HOLLY showed his "Cowboy" spirit prior to the Dallas Cowboys season opener by cutting a star and painting a number 8 onto his scalp.

The move didn't help as the defending Super Bowl champs were dumped 35-16 by Washington.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 21 proposes a constitutional amendment that would abolish the office of county surveyor in Jackson County. The amendment also provides for the powers, duties, and functions of the county surveyor to be transferred to the county officer designated by the commissioners court.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment abolishing the office of county surveyor in Jackson County."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 57 proposes a constitutional amendment that repeals article XII, section 6, of the Texas Constitution, which currently provides that no corporation shall issue stock or bonds except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received, and that all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment repealing certain restrictions on the ability of corporations to raise capital."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 22 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the commissioners court of McLennan County to call an election to abolish the office of county surveyor. The office of county surveyor will be abolished if a majority of the qualified voters of McLennan County voting on the question favor the abolition. If the office of county surveyor is abolished, the amendment requires the maps, field notes, and other records in the custody of the county surveyor to be transferred to the county clerk of McLennan County. After abolition, the amendment also grants the commissioners court of McLennan County the authority to employ or contract with a qualified person to perform any of the functions that would have been performed by the county surveyor if the office had not been abolished.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county surveyor in McLennan County."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 19 proposes an amendment to article VIII, section 13 of the Texas Constitution that would modify the provisions for the redemption of real property sold at a tax sale. The amendment deletes current language in article VIII, section 13 that allows the legislature to provide for the sale of property without trial to pay for delinquent taxes. It also states that the deed to the new owner vests a good and perfect title subject only to redemption as set out in this amendment or impeachment for fraud. Language is added limiting application of the current two-year redemption period to former owners of residence homesteads and land designated for agricultural use sold for unpaid taxes. When property is sold as the result of a suit to enforce collection of unpaid taxes, the amendment would allow the legislature to limit redemption to property used as a residence homestead or designated for agricultural use at the time the suit was filed. The amendment creates a second type of redemption for former owners of real property when property is neither a residence homestead, nor designated for agricultural use. These owners would have a six-month period in which to redeem their property by paying the amount of money paid for the property, including the Tax Deed Recording Fee, all taxes, penalties, interest, and costs paid plus an amount not exceeding 25 percent of the aggregate total. The amendment applies to redemption of properties sold at a tax sale for which the purchaser's deed is filed on or after January 1, 1994. For redemption of properties sold at a tax sale for which the purchaser's deed was filed before January 1, 1994, the former law is applicable and remains in effect.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to modify the provisions for the redemption of real property sold at a tax sale."

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 34 proposes a constitutional amendment that adds a new section 49-b-2 to article III of the Texas Constitution. This new section provides that, in addition to the general obligation bonds authorized to be issued and sold by the Veterans' Land Board (the "Board") by sections 49-b ($950 million) and 49-b-1 ($1.3 billion) of article III, the board may provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the state in an amount not to exceed $750 million to provide financing to Texas veterans. $250 million of the bonds authorized by this new section shall be used to augment the Veterans' Land Fund (the "Land Fund"). The Land Fund shall be used by the Board to purchase lands situated in Texas owned by the United States government, an agency of the United States government, the State of Texas, a political subdivision or agency of the State of Texas, or a person, firm, or corporation. The lands shall be sold to veterans in quantities, on terms, at prices, and at fixed, variable, floating, or other rates of interest determined by the Board. Lands in the Land Fund that are offered for sale to veterans and that are not sold may be sold or resold to the purchasers in quantities, terms, prices, and rates of interest determined by the Board.

New section 49-b-2 creates the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund II (the "Housing Fund II"), and $500 million of the general obligation bonds authorized by the section shall be used for the Housing Fund II. The Housing Fund II is a separate and distinct fund from the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund (the "Housing Fund") established under section 49-b-1 of article III. Money in the Housing Fund II shall be administered by the Board and shall be used to make home mortgage loans to veterans for housing within this state in quantities, on terms, and at fixed, variable, floating, or other rates of interest determined by the Board. The principal of, and interest on, the general obligation bonds authorized by this section for the benefit of the Housing Fund II shall be paid out of the money of the Housing Fund II. The principal of, and interest on, the general obligation bonds authorized by section 49-b-1 of article III for the benefit of the Housing Fund shall be paid out of money in the Housing Fund. If there is not enough money in the Land Fund, the Housing Fund, or the Housing Fund II, as the case may be, available to pay the principal of, and interest on, the general obligation bonds authorized by this section or by sections 49-b or 49-b-1 of article III, there is appropriated out of the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year an amount that is sufficient to pay the principal of, and interest on, the general obligation bonds that mature or become due during that fiscal year.

If the Board determines that assets from the Land Fund, the Housing Fund, or the Housing Fund II are not required for purposes of the fund, the Board may transfer the assets to another of those funds or use the assets to secure revenue bonds issued by the Board. The revenue bonds shall be special obligations of the Board and payable only from and secured by receipts of the funds, assets transferred from the funds, and other revenues as determined by the Board and shall not constitute indebtedness of the State of Texas or the Board. The Board may issue revenue bonds from time to time, which bonds may not exceed an aggregate principal amount that the Board determines can be fully retired from the receipts of the funds. The revenue bonds shall be sold in forms, denominations, and in installments, and bear a rate or rates of interest as the Board determines.

The general obligation bonds authorized to be issued by the Board by this section or by sections 49-b and 49-b-1 of article III shall be issued and sold in forms and denominations, on terms, at times, in the manner, at places, in installments, and shall bear a rate or rates of interest the Board determines. The bonds shall be incontestable after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing issuance of $750 million in general obligation bonds to augment the Veterans' Land Fund and the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund and to fund the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund II."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 31 proposes a constitutional amendment relating to the duties of trustees of local retirement systems which provide retirement and related disability and death benefits for public officers and employees and that do not belong to a statewide retirement system. The amendment provides that the

Rep. Counts endorses Proposition 2

State Representative David Counts has endorsed Proposition 2, a proposed amendment to the Texas Constitution that would authorize limited exemption from local property taxes for property that is used to control or reduce air, water, or land pollution.

"Proposition 2 helps small and large businesses meet the rising cost of compliance with federal and state anti-pollution laws," Counts said. "It will save jobs and clean up the environment."

The Texas Air Control Board estimates that more than 60,000 small businesses are affected by new federal clean air standards. To comply with these standards will cost more than $1 billion in capital investments, operating costs, and administrative expenses.

"Small businesses like dry cleaners, service stations, auto garages, and bakeries will bear the brunt of tougher environmental standards," said Counts. "It's a 'Catch-22' situation. If they don't comply, they lose their business and workers lose their jobs. However, because money spent on environmental compliance doesn't make the business more profitable, businesses have a hard time raising the necessary capital to invest in pollution control equipment."

Proposition 2 will help save this problem by reducing the ultimate cost of installing pollution abatement expenses with lower taxes in the future. Proposition 2 does not take effect until January 1, 1994, so no property currently being taxed would be removed from local tax rolls.

"Proposition 2 does not cost local governments a single penny, or require any state or local tax increase in the future," Counts added. "It is a win-win situation for businesses, employees, and government. Proposition 2 preserves jobs, keeps local tax bases strong, and promotes a cleaner, safer environment."

Proposition 2 is supported by a broad coalition of business groups, organized labor, environmental interests, and state and local officials. During the recent session of the Texas Legislature, it passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 141-3, and the Texas Senate by a unanimous 28-0 vote.

For more information about Proposition 2, contact the Clean Texas Coalition, 114 West 7th Street, Suite 625, Austin, Texas 79708, (512) 482-0095.

board of trustees of such a system shall (1) administer the system of benefits; (2) hold the assets of the system for the exclusive purposes of providing benefits to participants and their beneficiaries and defraying reasonable expenses of administering the system; and (3) select legal counsel and an actuary and adopt sound actuarial assumptions to be used by the system.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing that the trustees of a local public pension system must administer the system for the benefit of the system's participants and beneficiaries."

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 23 proposes a constitutional amendment providing that any person accused of a violent or sexual offense committed while under the supervision of a criminal justice agency of this state or a political subdivision of this state for a prior felony may, after a hearing and evidence substantially showing the guilt of the accused, be denied bail pending trial. If the accused is not, however, accorded a trial within 60 days from the time of his incarceration upon the accusation or indictment, the order denying bail shall be set aside unless a continuance is obtained upon the request of the accused. In the amendment, the term "violent offense" means murder, aggravated assault (if a deadly weapon was used or exhibited during the commission of the assault), aggravated kidnapping, or aggravated robbery. The term "sexual offense" means aggravated sexual assault, sexual assault, or indecency with a child.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment permitting the denial of bail to certain persons charged with certain violent or sexual offenses committed while under the supervision of a criminal justice agency of the state or a political subdivision of the state."

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 13 proposes a constitutional amendment that amends article VII, section 17(a), of the Texas Constitution to provide that, of the $100 million currently appropriated by that section for the use of public institutions of higher education during each fiscal year, those institutions may also utilize this money to pay for acquiring, constructing, or equipping or for major repair or rehabilitation of buildings, facilities, or capital equipment used jointly for educational and general activities and for auxiliary enterprises to the extent of their use for educational and general activities. For the five-year period beginning on September 1, 2000, and for each five-year period thereafter, the legislature, during a regular session that is nearest, but preceding, a five-year period may, by a two-thirds vote of the membership of each house, increase the amount of the $100 million constitutional appropriation for the five-year period. The amendment also reflects name changes that have been made to some of the institutions of higher education for which such funding is available. The amendment adds the Texas State Technical College System to those institutions eligible to receive such funding, but limits its allocation of the annual appropriation to 2.2 percent of the total appropriation each fiscal year. The amendment also provides that each governing board authorized to participate in the distribution of money under article III, section 17, may also issue bonds and notes for the purposes of refunding bonds or notes issued under that section or prior law for the purposes of acquiring capital equipment, library books and library materials, paying for acquiring, constructing, or equipping or for major repair or rehabilitation of buildings, facilities, other permanent improvements, or capital equipment used jointly for educational and general activities and for auxiliary enterprises to the extent of their use for educational and general activities. The amendment deletes language in article III, section 17, which authorizes the legislature to designate a single agency to issue such bonds or notes in lieu of the governing bodies, and to transfer to that agency the authority to collect and pledge notes to the payment of such bonds and notes as directed by the governing body of each eligible institution. Funds appropriated under article III, section 17, may not be used for the purpose of constructing, equipping, repairing, or rehabilitating buildings or other permanent improvements that are to be used only for student housing, intercollegiate athletics, or auxiliary enterprises.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment relating to the amount and expenditure of certain constitutionally dedicated funding for public institutions of higher education."

PROPOSITION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 45 proposes a constitutional amendment that adds a new subsection (e) to article III, section 49-h, of the Texas Constitution. The new subsection provides that, in addition to the amounts authorized by subsections (a) ($500 million), (c) ($400 million), and (d) ($1.1 billion) of section 49-h, the legislature may authorize the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds and may use the proceeds of the bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions, including youth corrections institutions, and mental health and mental retardation institutions and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of those corrections and mental health and mental retardation facilities. The amendment also provides that the provisions of subsection (a) of section 49-h, relating to the review and approval of bonds, and the provisions of subsection (b) of section 49-h, relating to the status of the bonds as a general obligation of the state and to the manner in which the principal and interest on the bonds are paid, apply to bonds authorized by this amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds payable from the general revenues of the state for projects relating to facilities of corrections and mental health and mental retardation institutions."

PROPOSITION NO. 15 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 37 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the county commissioners court of a county to call an election to abolish the office of county surveyor. The office of county surveyor is abolished if a majority of voters of the county voting in the election approve the measure. If the office of county surveyor is abolished, the maps, field notes, and other records of the county surveyor are transferred to the county officer or employee designated by the commissioners court.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to permit the voters of a county to decide, at an election called by the commissioners court, whether to abolish the office of county surveyor in the county."

PROPOSITION NO. 16 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 44 proposes an amendment to article III, section 49-(b) of the Texas Constitution, which currently limits the principal amount of bonds outstanding at one time for the Texas agricultural fund to $25 million and for the rural microenterprise development fund to $5 million. The amendment would raise the principal amount limit for the Texas agricultural fund to $100 million. The amendment would also make the principal amount limit for each fund apply to the total principal amounts of both bonds and notes issued or sold rather than just the principal amounts of bonds outstanding at one time.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing up to a total of $100 million in bonds and notes to be issued or sold to finance the Texas agricultural fund for providing financial assistance to develop, increase, improve, or expand the production, processing, marketing, or export of crops or products grown or produced primarily in this state by agricultural businesses domiciled in the state."

Notice of Public Hearing on Tax Increase

The Garza Memorial Hospital Board of Directors will hold a public hearing on a proposal to increase total tax revenues from properties on the tax roll in 1994 by 7 percent. Your individual taxes may increase at a greater or lesser rate, or even decrease, depending on the change in the taxable value of your property in relation to the change in taxable value of all other property.

The public hearing will be held on Sept. 16, 1993, 7AM at Garza Memorial Hospital FOR the proposal: Jack Alexander, David Tyler, David Nichols, Zoe Kirkpatrick AGAINST the proposal: PRESENT and not voting: ABSENT: Becky Warren

The statement above shows the percentage increase the proposed rate represents over the effective tax rate that the unit published on August 25, 1993. The following table compares taxes on an average home in this taxing unit last year to taxes proposed on the average home this year. Again, your individual taxes may be higher or lower, depending on the taxable value of your property.

	Last Year	This Year
Average home value	$ 25,000.00	$ 25,000.00
General exemptions available (amount available on the average home, not including senior citizen's or disabled person's exemptions)	$ 0.00	$ 0.00
Average taxable value	$ 25,000.00	$ 25,000.00
Tax rate	.115 /$100	.135 /$100 (proposed)
Tax	$ 28.75	$ 33.75 (proposed)

Under this proposal taxes on the average home would increase by $ 5.00 or 7 percent compared with last year's taxes. Comparing tax rates without adjusting for changes in property value, the tax rate would increase by $ 5.00 per $100 of taxable value or 7 percent compared to last year's tax rate. These tax rate figures are not adjusted for changes in the taxable value of property.

Farmer-Stockman Show set for October 12-14 in Lubbock

When all of the cotton, corn, sorghum and forage crops to be harvested during The Farmer-Stockman Show are added together, they amount to a fair-sized farming operation.

More than 500 acres of them will go into the bin during the three days of the show--October 12-14 just outside of Lubbock. And that involves some tight scheduling.

Not only is careful planning needed for the harvest itself during the show, but it was also needed back in the spring when planting took place. With thousands of farmers looking on, there's not much room for error.

Nevertheless, all seems to be heading in the right direction. Up until now there have been no unusual weather problems. Rain has been favorable and insect attack has been manageable.

The show is unlike any other farm event that has ever been held in Texas or the Southwest. It will all take place outdoors on 800 acres of the Lubbock city farm one and a half miles east of Loop 289 on East 50th Street, Farm Road 835. And the emphasis will be on working--harvesting of crops, tillage, planting and live cattle handling demonstrations.

Right in the middle of all this activity will be a 54 acre tent city housing hundreds of exhibits ranging from tractor manufacturers to machinery suppliers, seed companies, chemical organizations, universities, governmental organizations and commodity groups.

But a particular focus will be placed on the working demonstrations each day. While a lot depends on the weather between now and then, show manager Farris Hightower says most everything still appears to be on track.

Corn has been maturing well and should be dried down to under 20 percent moisture by mid-October. The crop has had some corn earworm infestation, but not at a threshold level. For that reason, no pesticide applications have been made. Approximately 120 acres of this grain will be harvested during the show, about a third of it each day.

Some 240 acres of grain sorghum will be harvested. A yield estimate right now comes to about 7,000 lb. per acre. Bird feeding has been something of a problem. Balloons and butane guns have been used to try to minimize it.

About 200 acres of cotton will be stripped. Excellent warm weather and timely rain has supplemented on-site irrigation. A yield estimate puts it at about one and a half bales per acre. Irrigation has been curtailed in order to promote development of early bolls and reduce setting of late ones. Defoliation is planned for late September.

All crops were planned on 40 inch rows.

A tentative schedule is for corn to be harvested from 9 to 10 a.m. each day during the show, grain sorghum from 10 to 11:30 a.m. and cotton from 1 to 3 p.m. In each case, tillage and planting demonstrations will be held following harvest.

Detailed information on demonstration schedules will be available at two information booths on Central Avenue, the show's main street, and at the show office just east of Central Avenue, between Third and Fourth Streets.

The 54 acre Exhibit field will be laid out like a miniature city near the center of the farm. Demonstration field areas will surround it on the north and east.

Show hours will be from 7:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. each day. An overnight camping area will be available on the grounds for self-contained recreational vehicle units. Show admission will be $3 for adults. Those under 18 will be admitted free.

Crownation Dance. The money the candidates have been raising is counted and the new queen is announced. The new queen is then crowned on Saturday, September 11 at 11 a.m. prior to the start of the event's annual parade.

The celebration shifts out to the Post Stampede Rodeo Grounds at 12 noon where a number of Mexican food booths, games, music and other activities will take place. Among the special events includes a washer pitcher tournament coordinated by MP Gomez.

Beginning at 4 p.m., the youth show gets underway. There will be three age groups of young people performing cultural dances. Included in this year's performance will be a young Christian youth leader by the name of Lanny Lee. From 6 p.m. until the close of the celebration at 1 a.m. will be a time for dancing. The dancing starts with two groups from south Texas and a local group.

"The most important thing LMU does not want to forget it to thank everyone here in our community for all the help, support, donations and sponsors," said

Irene Ammons, president of Los Mexicanos Unidos. "Because we could not have made this dream come true without the support of our community."

Ammons added a special thanks to the Post Stampede Rodeo board of directors for the use of the rodeo grounds.

She went on to say the money raised through the organization is used to help sponsor youth activities and provide elderly with items they might not otherwise have during Christmas.

"We fix fruit baskets with a small gift (such as socks or house shoes) and our vice president Luis Abraham dresses as Santa Claus and we go and deliver," said Ammons.

She said everyone is welcome to come and join in on the festivities. There is still time to sign up for the parade and food booths.

"We invite everyone to come out to the rodeo grounds and have fun on the 11th," said Ammons.

Persons wishing to help or who need more information may contact one of the following Los Mexicanos Unidos board members: Ammons, 495-3455; Louis Abraham, 495-2057; Nora Ratke, 495-4006; or Josefena Serrano, 495-3756.

Public safety officials ask drivers to use caution in school zones

Texas Department of Public Safety officials are asking all drivers to begin thinking about the safety of school children as the beginning of a new school year commences.

The first few weeks of school can be the most dangerous since motorists are not mentally prepared for the lower speed limits in school zones and the activities of the kids around the schools.

Every year there appears to be an unnecessary rash of accidents caused by drivers who fail to follow safe driving habits for stopped school buses. Texas state law requires drivers on the same roadway as a school bus that is stopped to load or unload students, to also stop until the bus driver has turned off the flashing red lights. This law applies unless the vehicle is separated from the bus by a divided highway with a median strip.

Remember, this time of the year presents safety problems for both the school children and the driver. Many youngsters are attending school for the first time and others might be going to a different school where they are unfamiliar with local traffic conditions.

Let's all work together to make this a safe school year for our children by observing the speed limits in school zones and be alert for increased pedestrian traffic in neighborhoods at the beginning and ending of each school day.

A promise made is a debt unpaid.

September 8 proclaimed National Literacy Day

With a goal of drawing more attention to the fact that one-third of American adults are functionally illiterate, Wednesday, September 8 has been proclaimed National Literacy Day. According to the Texas Adult Literacy Laubach (TALL), a statewide literacy network of 58 affiliates, illiteracy is the root cause of many of society's problems, solving the illiteracy problem would lower crime, joblessness, and accidents.

Only three other states have a higher number of illiterate adults--Texas ranks 47th.

Over 33 million Texas adults are unable to fill out a job application.

Over 90% of all those individuals in Texas prisons are functionally illiterate.

Of all chronically unemployed adults, 75% have difficulty reading and writing.

Sixty-seven percent of Texas employers report difficulty locating candidates for technical and skilled positions.

Every Texan who can read and write could be a volunteer tutor to help someone who wants to learn. Contact your local Literacy Council or contact TALL by writing to P.O. Box 2152, Austin, Texas 78768-2152.

Tax 'n Facts

by Terri S. Cash, CPA

WHO NEEDS A WILL?

Just about anyone who owns anything and/or has children whose future should be planned ought to have a will, yet more than 60 percent of American adults die without one. Without a will, assets are distributed according to state law and administered by someone appointed by the court. Your assets and your heirs deserve better.

Only with a will can you decide who gets what and how remaining assets are to be handled. A will establishes the preferred process for carrying out your instructions, names an executor and--exceptionally important in families--appoints a guardian for minors. (Get the guardian's permission in advance; choose someone your age or younger.)

Do you need a professional's help? Maybe not, but it's usually a good idea, and the fees are often more than saved by the tax-saving advice they give. Estate tax rates are extremely high, so good planning is essential to pay no more than necessary. The will should be signed in the presence of witnesses with no interest in it and reviewed every three to five years or when there are major changes in your life.

Card of Thanks

To our many friends and family, we would like to express our love and appreciation for all the support, love, food, prayers, visits and phone calls during the illness and loss of our beloved husband and father L.E. We have been gone for many years, but lasting friendships never waives when people need love and support and you people of Post again have shown how to be where you are needed most. We want to especially thank all the ladies of the community for all the food brought to Pete and Sissy's house before the services and the food prepared and served by each one at the church. A special thank you to Patty Kirkpatrick, Bro. Brooks for the beautiful services and to Hudman's for all their help. You will always be in our prayers and thoughts. Many thanks and God Bless each of you.

Department of Public Safety offers recruit school

The Texas Department of Public Safety is accepting applications through September 30, 1993 for its January 1994 recruit school. This is the first opportunity in three years for men and women who want a law enforcement career to join the agency.

Following 22 weeks of intensive training, successful applicants will be commissioned as state troopers for the Texas Department of Public Safety, charged with enforcing traffic laws on rural Texas highways. Troopers investigate accidents, recover stolen vehicles and other property, seize illegal drugs, apprehend wanted persons and perform a variety of other law enforcement duties.

After four years with the Department of Public Safety, troopers will be able to compete for promotions within the Traffic Law Enforcement Division, which includes services such as Highway Patrol, Drivers License, Safety Education, License and Weight and Motor Vehicle Inspection. Promotional opportunities eventually will be available in other DPS areas, such as Criminal Law Enforcement-Narcotics, Criminal Intelligence, Motor Vehicle Theft, Polygraph and the Texas Rangers

The Department of Public Safety will consider applicants who are at least 20 years of age and have either 60 hours of college credits or prior military or law enforcement experience. U.S. Citizenship, a Texas Driver's license and a willingness to accept assignment anywhere in the state are also required. An applicant must successfully complete a written examination, a physical exam, an agility test, oral interviews and a thorough background investigation before being accepted.

For details on this challenging career opportunity, contact your nearest DPS office.

Can anyone find fulfillment

"I hate my work!" the writer of Ecclesiastes writes (2:18). So many people today find themselves in the same predicament. Eventually, everyone learns that the rewards of his or her labors are limited. Too many people stop enjoying their work when they discover a job. Work will simply not supply all of your needs.

What do you do after you make that discovery? There are two alternatives: one, you can live with disillusionment and lapse into self pity and self-hate. Or you can learn from experience how to find fulfillment from your every day job.

Know What to Look For (2:24)
One reason persons miss fulfillment in their work is because they do not know what fulfillment is. Work fulfillment is much more than productivity and payday. It also includes a mixture of loving and being loved, being useful, risking change, and accepting ones strengths and limitations. True fulfillment involves doing tasks that honor God, serve others, and provide personal satisfaction all at the same time. By the time Americans reach retirement they have invested 125,000 hours of their lives in daily work. This statistic is true for all who devote a minimum of 40 hours per week to their jobs. That represents misery if that work is not fulfilling. Salary is not always the most important factor—seek that which is meaningful in your life both individually and for your community.

Feel Deeply About It (2:22-24)
Choose work that will provide internal satisfaction. The way to fulfillment is not only pleasurable but painful. The pursuit of fulfillment can be a frustrating, frightening, and disappointing experience; it can also be an exciting and satisfying one when you reach your goal. Henry Ward Beecher said: "Any man can work when the stroke of his hand brings down the fruit rattling from the tree to the ground; but to labor in season and out of season, under every discouragement, by the power of truth—that requires a heroism which is transcendent."

Decide to Pursue It (2:24)
Deciding to do something involves action. Often obstacles stand in the way. But you must do what you can to reduce these obstacles and get closer to your dream. One Friday morning, an eager young man from Stanford University stood before a businessman, seeking part-time employment. The businessman said, "All I have need for is a stenographer." "I'll take the job," said the young man, "but I cannot come to work until Tuesday." Upon reporting for work the employer asked him: "why could you not work until today, Tuesday?" the young man answered, "Because I had to rent a typewriter and learn to use it on Monday!" (That man was Herbert Hoover). A desire is essential for a winning work. People can work because of a demand, but they only in their work when there is a desire to work. The work which wins the approval of God is born of desire, and perseverance. Webster worked thirty-six years to produce his first dictionary. If you think appear job is hard, consider the poor conductor of a train in Wales who has to call out the name of this station on his line: Llanfairpwllgwyngllgogerchwyrndrobwlllatysiliogogoch. (The tickets at this station are six inches long and are sold as souvenirs according to the Associated Press.)

Accept God's Support (2:25)
There must be a dependence on God if people are to win in the work-place. The Lord never intended us to work alone, utilizing our own resources but in dependence upon Him. With God's help some of your work will outlast you. Some of it may even serve as a foundation to a greater work which others who follow will do. Some of your best work will go unrecognized—even by you. But it will provide you with lessons in eternal life. In addition, one MUST develop the attitude of gratitude. A famous organist was to give several concerts using a pump organ. The belows of the organ were pumped by a young boy while the organist played. After the concert, the boy said to the organist, "we played good tonight." "What do you mean," said the organist, "I played, not you!" The next evening the organist sat down to play, depressed the keys but heard no sound. "PUMP," he whispered to the young boy. "say WE" was the reply.

In short, if real satisfaction is what you desire, consideration of God's plan will bring it about in your life.

What Rosie Ment To Me
by Laura Rodriguez

Rosie was a special kind of lady. She always had that special something about her I could never think of one moment that she thought of herself before others. When you were sad she always made sure you were laughing about one of her jokes because that is the way she was. She was a beloved daughter, beloved wife, beloved mother and a very sincere friend. I know we will always have a special memory about her, Rosie never was the one that would never hurt only in herself if she was hurting. You never knew it. She left her three children and her husband for us to cherish, Rosie was kind to others. Her heart was filled with joy and laughter, we hurt, we cry, only because we don't understand why it had to be her. But in our hearts we will always treasure her within our mind, body and souls forever and ever.
