The happy occasion was celebrated on the 22nd of December, as that was the only time they could all be present. There was a Christmas tree with gifts for everyone, which was followed by a turkey dinner with all the trimmings. The evening was spent in taking pictures and re-viewing former happy events.

The Dallas and Abilene folks returned home Sunday evening, while Rex and family remained until Christmas morning, when they went to Celeste and Dallas, to visit with Mrs. Kendall's folks before going on to Camp Hood, where Rex will be superintendent of the chaplain work for the next two years. ### Methodist Church

Our thanks go to James Glasscock for the morning sermon on Dec. 29 on the meaning of Christmas, a very reverent and thoughtful message; and to H. W. Cox for telling us about "Playing God" on that evening, a most unusual and inspiring discussion. A good number of the M Y F members rode in Henry Moore's truck caroling that evening, after church, in which several had taken part. Thanks are also in order to the many who sent the parsonage family gifts and cards. Of the former, we don't know exactly who all of you are, but thanks. To Kathleen Spalding and Nancy Hinds, regular accompanists, to Don and Susan Cox, and Mmes. Lloyd Bailey, Henry Moore, and W. H. Jones, who helped us on call, go our thanks for the beauty of instrumental music. During the year we have had the beautiful program "Under the Evening Lamp," family night programs of other types, Sunday school sessions, vacation church school, two revivals. One whole page of the Informer could be used in thanking others and in listing things that have been done.

We look ahead to Jan. 22 as next Family Night program, and to Feb. 16-23, Week of Dedication, for a revival with James P. Patterson of Silverton as guest preacher.

Thanks to the Informer for wonderful help in publicity this year. A Happy and useful new year to all!
