Youth Says Kelly, Bates Planned Kidnaping

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

with BILL MAYES

Well, well, well. After several weeks of hard work—who's that laughing?—we have finally managed to get our favorite knothole unplugged, reamed out and otherwise improved so that we really believe that we can do some first-class peeping and find out a thing or two about this and that and maybe the other. The NRA has had our knothole so plugged up that we have taken nary a peep for some time, so naturally our eyesight is somewhat dimmed through lack of use and our fingers are more or less stiff from lack of work. But we will do our best.

Last night we casually mentioned to Coach Eck Curtis that we thought we would get this department working again today, or at least we would try. He seemed noticeably unmoved, but Willard Swaney gave three rousing cheers that encouraged us so much we got up earlier this morning so we could get to work on it.

Between getting out a paper, keeping score on soft ball games and falling in the pinches when at bat and mugging throws at first base, our time has been so taken up that the knothole was sidetracked for a while. Coupled with committee meetings of one kind or another and a few other duties that took our time but not our energy, we had little time left to write this stuff except at night and were too lazy to do that. And besides our wife has had us painting kitchens and things the past few weeks.

The coach gave us as much information as he had about the Stephenville high school Yellow Jackets. The team has won the Class B district championship two years in a row, which is something. The Yellow Jacket coach has been working out his squad for something like two weeks, or will have been by Saturday, when they play the Bulldogs here, so he asked permission of Curtis to use three or four who were stars last year and who are not eligible this season, in order that he could have his team in better shape to hold the Bulldogs. This permission was granted and a pretty stiff game is anticipated.

The next week the Bulldogs have their first real test when they play Coach Chapman's Lubbock high schoolers. Chap has had good teams and plenty of material since going to Lubbock and the team this year is supposed to be no exception.

Over Abilene way a good team is expected in spite of the fact that the squad boasts only one letterman. He is Frank Cogdell, regular halfback last season, and pretty good at that. He is to be supported by three other squaddies, Harold Ables, a center; Galbraith and J. C. Pennington. Galbraith is a familiar name around Abilene High, because if memory does not fail us he will be the third in a row to make the team.

The line will be plenty heavy. Loran Phipps is the largest. He weighs 260 pounds and will play at tackle. J. C. McDermoon, 175, is a promising end and will be aided on the other end of the line by Jack Black, who is pretty husky. Clarence Street, who has never played football, is slated for center and while these are just names at present they may become much more than that before the season is over because they weigh in at a figure that is staggering and will comprise the heaviest line the Eagles have ever boasted.

The backfield is supposed to be light. And like all light backfields it is supposed to be fast. It probably will be fast, even if it isn't so light. Prexy Anderson calls it a "featherweight affair," which probably means, by Eagle standards, that it won't average over 198 pounds. Their names are Johnny Brookshire, Scotty Strain and Gervis Galbraith, with a few pups striving manfully for jobs. We don't know whether the pups are mastiffs or grayhounds.

O'Riordan admitted his identity but denied his guilt.

TWO STATES BALLOTING ON REPEAL TODAY

By United Press
IDAHO AND NEW MEXICO, the 30th and 31st states, balloted today on repeal of the 18th amendment.

Impartial, conservative observers predicted they would enter the unanimous wet parade, which would make it necessary for repeals to obtain approval of only five states to end prohibition.

New Mexico was expected to be wet by three or two to one. Idaho was expected to return a lesser wet majority, although repeals claimed a 4 to 1 victory.

Congressional tax experts in Washington drafted new liquor levies designed to drive the bootlegger out of business when repeal became an actuality.

The proposed taxes would be so low as to allow good whiskey to retail at $1.50 to $1.75 a quart.

Cotton Planters And Congressmen Urging Inflation

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Ready for consideration by the president today was a resolution by the south's leading planters and legislators, urging an immediate monetary inflation program.

The resolution mentioned the sum of $400,000,000 in paper money as having been used successfully for inflation before.

Diplomatically the resolution hinted at a cotton planters' strike if inflation and 20-cent cotton was not forthcoming. The 200 conferees, after an all-day meeting, decided to give it to the president today.

David Lamson Is Given Short Stay

SAN JOSE, Calif., Sept. 19.—David Lamson, Stanford University intellectual convicted of murder of his wife, Allens, was granted a stay of execution today to permit attorneys time to prepare arguments in support of their plea for a new trial.

The judge granted the stay until 2 p. m. Friday.

Cotton Soars on Inflation News

By United Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The cotton market soared almost $2 a bale today as inflation sentiment was rekindled by reports from Washington.

The rise brought the market up more than $2 in two days.

Buying orders poured in from all quarters. Price fixing by mill interests was discouraged by activity in the Worth Street cotton goods market.

MERCHANTS TO PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR THIS FALL

At a meeting of merchants of Ranger and directors of the Chamber of Commerce, held last night, discussions were heard on a street carnival, trade extension campaign or other means of bringing the shoppers to Ranger.

After considerable discussion a committee was appointed by Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, president of the chamber of commerce, to go into the various plans, pick one and bring back their recommendations to the committee of merchants at some date later this week or early next week. The meeting is to be called as soon as the committee is ready to report.

Walter Harwell was elected as chairman of the committee, with J. C. Smith, E. R. Gentry, C. B. Pruet and Morris Bendix as members.

It was pointed out that the rodeos held in Ranger each second Monday in the month, had proved the best attractions for drawing crowds as much larger crowds were present on trade days last spring when a rodeo was held in conjunction than on any other dates.

Another suggestion that met with the approval of the merchants was a street carnival with an extended trade campaign to follow, lasting probably well through the fall and almost until Christmas.

Mrs. Alice D. True, secretary of the retail merchants association, announced that there was a balance to the credit of the trade expansion campaign of something like $35 in old accounts, $80 in cash and two cleaning and pressing books that had not been used. These could be utilized, along with supply of tickets on hand, so that the cost to the merchants of anything decided upon would be nominal.

The merchants present were unanimous in the belief that something of the kind should be done at this time in order to start the fall buying season right and to bring the buyers to Ranger as early in the season as possible and keep them coming to Ranger.

Following the meeting of merchants a meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce was held.

Those present at the meeting were Dr. P. M. Kuykendall, A. J. Ratliff, F. D. Hicks, Col. Brashier, E. R. Gentry, Mrs. Alice True, R. V. Galloway, W. B. Crossley, J. C. Smith, H. P. Earnest, W. C. Hickley, Roy Gilbreath, Bill Clarity, Ben Whitehouse, H. C. Anderson and J. A. Thrower.

Eastland Wins In Homestead Tax Case in 88 Court

A case of much more than the usual importance was heard Monday in the 88th district court by Judge Sam Russell of the 29th district court at Stephenville, acting instead of Judge B. W. Patterson, who was disqualified.

The case was that of the City of Eastland vs. Scott W. Key in which the city of Eastland was suing for $1,192.99 taxes alleged to be due the city on the Key homestead. The amount sued for included city taxes on the property for the years 1924 to 1931 inclusive.

The defendant, represented by himself, his son, Allen Key, and Frank Sparks, took the position that the city could not legally levy taxes against a homestead; that a tax rate of more than $1.50 per hundred should not be levied and that the Eastland city ordinance passed in 1928, which provides for a penalty of 10 per cent plus an addition of one cent per month until paid, is void. That in no event could the city recover any personal judgment against the taxpayer.

Judge M. McCullough represented the city of Eastland. Most of the day was consumed in the hearing. Judge McCullough and the city of Eastland emerged victorious. Judge Russell having held that the city could levy taxes against a homestead, but interest only at 6 per cent could be charged, no penalty being allowed. The court also held that a personal judgment could be taken against Key.

Judgment of the court gave the city the right to foreclose its lien for the full amount of the taxes and for cost and interest at 6 per cent.

The court also held that a tax rate of $2.50 per $100 could be levied in Eastland.

Compliance Board Is Selected For City of Ranger

Those named on the committee were: George Armstrong, employe in industry; Pleas E. Moore, employe in retail business; Sam Gamble, employe in industry; A. J. Ratliff, employe in retail trade; Mrs. Roy Jameson, representative of the consumers; L. H. Flewellen, attorney.

According to the regulations of the recovery administration concerning selection of the board, the attorney on the committee is to call a meeting and act as temporary chairman. At the meeting a permanent chairman is to be selected by the members.

Stock Exchange May Be Moved To New Jersey

By United Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Plans to establish a stock exchange in New Jersey as a protest against New York emergency taxes on stock transfers and broker profits, were pushed today with formation of a committee on organization of the New Jersey stock exchange.

The committee consists of representatives of 12 of the largest member firms of the New York exchange. A move to enlist other members was started immediately with letters to brokerage firms.

The stock exchange, while not officially identified with the proposal, was reported sympathetic.

SENATE MOVES TO AID IN THE RECOVERY ACT

By United Press
AUSTIN, Sept. 19.—The senate today moved to hoist the NRA blue eagle above the state legislative affairs.

Bills to revise the Texas anti-trust laws and enable the state to conform to the recovery program will be considered this afternoon.

The senate will sit as a committee of the whole with the house judiciary committee in considering anti-trust modification measures. A bill submitted by the governor would suspend the state anti-trust laws and the penalties they impose for the two years of national emergency and for 60 days thereafter.

Other proposed bills effect the state laws against combination and price fixing agreements less vigorously.

The house voted against additional topics of legislation for the special session today. With 62 yeas and 56 nays, a proposal for re-consideration of court redistricting was turned down.

Appointees to Be Voted Upon By Senate at Session

AUSTIN.—The Texas Senate which spent many weeks of the regular session of the 43rd legislature in a battle with Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson over confirmation of her appointees, will pass upon a new list of appointees at the special session.

Appointments made since the regular session and due for confirmation or rejection are:

Member and chairman of the state highway commission, John Wood of Timpson.

Member state board of control, Henry C. Meyer of Rockdale.

State Banking commissioner, E. C. Brand of Sweetwater.

Member state board of education, Ghent Sanderford, Belton.

Commissioner to assist the court of criminal appeals, Charles K. Kreuger of Bellville.

State auditor and efficiency expert, George Simpson of Corpus Christi.

State reclamation engineer, A. M. Vance, Austin.

Meyer, who does not look to be within ten years of his 72, has temporarily taken over the portion of the board of control work that was handled by Adrian Poole of El Paso when he succeeded.

That part is budget preparation and supervision of eleemosynary institutions.

Meyer has received many congratulatory messages on his appointment.

"I got one brickbat, too," he said. Then he displayed a telegram from F. J. Chudej of Austin, former president of the Ferguson Forum Publishing company. Chudej had been mentioned as possible appointee to the place given Meyer.

Chudej complained while the Bohemians had been loyal to the Fergusonians through all campaigns, appointments were going to the leaders of German-Americans who, Chudej said, had not stuck with Ferguson in the past. He mentioned specifically Meyer and Judge Krueger.

"But I can take it on the chin. I congratulate you," was Chudej's final word.

The office term of H. T. Kimbro of Lubbock, member of the state industrial accident board, expires during September. Should his successor be determined, that appointment would also be to the senate during the special session of the legislature for confirmation.

COY OAKLEY ON TRIAL IN CHILD'S DEATH

By United Press
SULPHUR SPRINGS, Texas, Sept. 19.—The second of two brothers, backwoods healers, went on trial here today in connection with the slaying of a 5-year-old child during a ritual held Christmas week last year in the piney woods of Cass county.

Eleven jurors had tentatively been accepted when the trial of Coy Oakley, older of the brothers, was resumed today.

Coy, 24, is accused of aiding his brother, Paul, during the ceremony which resulted in the choking of Bernice Clayton, paralytic daughter of Sherman Clayton. Paul was convicted and sentenced to 50 years in prison and has appealed his sentence to the criminal court of appeals.

Waite met public works officials of Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico in the office of Clifford Jones, regional director, here.

He made his promise to rush relief after riding over the parched plains in an airplane and after hearing John Shary of Mission, Texas, advisory board member, who is in charge of a survey of hurricane damage in the Rio Grande. Shary said the survey shows that more than $1,000,000 damage was done in Brownsville alone.

Texas Failures At A Low Ebb

AUSTIN.—There were only 33 commercial failures in Texas during August, 1933, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. The average for August, 1930, 1931, and 1932, is 72.

Liabilities of firms failing in August amounted to $765,000, with assets of $418,000 shown. Liabilities of firms failing in July totaled $732,000, with assets of $387,000, whereas liabilities of failing firms in August, 1932, amounted to $1,410,000, with assets of only $396,000.

TEXAS BOY IS A WITNESS IN KIDNAP CASE

Government Springs a Surprise on First Day of Its Trial Today.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 19.—A black-haired boy of 18 sat in the witness chair in federal court today and pointed out Albert L. Bates as the man he heard plotting the kidnaping of Charles Urschel.

Calmly, after shaking off his first reluctance to talk, young Gay Coleman, stepped down from the chair, walked over to where the 40-year-old desperado was seated and looking him squarely in the eyes, said "That's the feller there."

Those who plotted with Bates were George (Machine Gun) Kelly and his wife, both still fugitives, the youth said.

The sensational testimony from the government's first witness in the $200,000 kidnaping followed a bombardment of charges by U. S. District Attorney Herbert Hyde.

Coleman, of Coleman, Texas, told how he visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Coleman at Stratford, Okla., the morning before the day of the kidnaping, July 22.

The witness, who said his aunt is Mrs. R. G. Shannon, the accused woman in the Urschel trial and a relative of George and Katherine Kelly, said the two Kellys were at the Coleman home.

Friday night, Bates arrived, he said, in a sedan similar to that used in the kidnaping.

"It was Saturday evening at dinner that Kelly said they were going to have plenty of money and there was going to be a kidnaping in Oklahoma City that night. After that they left the house," the youth testified.

The government sprung a dramatic surprise when an old lady, lying in a wheel chair, was brought slowly into the courtroom as the second witness. It was Mrs. Coleman, 65, grandmother of Gay. She whispered answers to the questions.

THE CENTENNIAL

President Walter D. Cline of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce understands, he has written to Austin, that Governor Ferguson will call for a report of the Texas Centennial official board during the special session, as the basis of state action toward the Centennial, to which appropriations of state money were authorized by the voters.

Mr. Cline announced the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is recommending a comprehensive plan for the Centennial celebration as an all-state event. The organization proposed holding it on sort of a migratory basis; including, for the year 1936: San Antonio, in January and February; at Fort Worth in March; at Houston and Galveston during April, celebrating the all-important April 21, date of the San Jacinto battle anniversary; at El Paso during May; at Austin during June, commemorating education and cultural development and governmental features; at other points during July, August and September; at Dallas in October and November, with a general exposition.

The organization recommended a state appropriation of $500,000, conditioned that the various communities matching this amount.

It recommended that part of the gasoline tax during 1936—the surplus received from the exceptional volume of travel incident to the Centennial, be used to repay the state, and if any remained over, to repay the communities for sums advanced.

Mr. Cline's West Texas organization urged that the commission to have charge of the Centennial be set up at once. That naturally would be an expanded organization having for its nucleus the present official Centennial board of 21 members.

The plan has this significant feature: That Texas revenues from the Centennial itself, or from the gasoline taxes paid by those coming to and traveling in the state on account of the Centennial, be applied to pay off all public contributions to the Centennial.

The plan of holding the celebration seriatim, and on a migratory system like a circus may be a good one, and probably is. The Centennial does not belong to any section of Texas, and its time and place should be determined in the interest of the entire state, with all factors of distance, attraction of Texas and outside visitors, considered.

The legislature is charged with the duty of determining first whether the Centennial shall be held—and of course there will be a Centennial of some kind—then of determining "in what places" it shall be held; and of defining the nature, scope and form of the exposition; and by its grant of money, to measure the scale upon which Texas' 100th birthday celebration shall be held.

This special session, 30 months before the actual opening of the 1936 Centennial, is not too early to set the mechanism going.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

CHARLES R. LONG, publisher of the Chester (Pa.) Times and president of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' association, says:

"Only the World War era offers a comparison for the value of advertising to the country in a national crisis, as related to the importance of today's emergency.

"Millions of dollars are being spent by large and small business concerns, not only for direct sales results but for the education of the masses in the ramifications of the 1933 reorganization. And with that recognition of advertising as an instrument of rare value, there is a lesson for every newspaper reader to remember.

"Newspapers primarily are commercial institutions, but also possess a phase unlike all other business concerns. They are part and parcel of every reader's life, with the reader having a real share in their production. Advertising is a reproduction of the commercial life of the community, and without newspaper advertising business would wane and the readers would be denied an important part in their knowledge of the current affairs.

"It was here in the East that John Wanamaker first developed department store advertising that was to pave the way for the expenditure of untold millions in later years by the nation's merchants. Few of us realize the tremendous part advertising has played in the rise of the nation to the rare heights of boom times, and now advertising is still playing its tremendous part in reviving the nation's prosperity.

"Newspaper advertising not only makes money for the publisher, but for every reader, for the merchants and for the nation at large."

Texas Charters Show Increase

AUSTIN. — Charters granted during August to new firms permitting them to do business in Texas show slightly better than normal seasonal trend, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Bureau's report said.

Five of the 141 businesses chartered in August were capitalized at $100,000 or over, compared with six last month and four in August, 1932. There were 57 of the 141 businesses which showed capital stock of less than $5,000, compared with 53 such firms in July, 1933, and 56 in August, 1932.

Permits were granted during August to 20 out-of-state corporations to do business in Texas. This number is six less than July, 1933, and two more than August, 1932.

Return of Beer Brought Business To Many Towns

DALLAS.—Return of beer to Texas after 16 years' absence stimulated widely divergent trades headlining the week's business news.

Numerous branches of business benefited directly, as warehouse companies, motor truck and automobile distributors, hotel and household fixture and supply companies and novelty line firms.

One Dallas authority estimated from 50 to 75 new motor trucks were bought for beer distributors here. One company bought five large trucks, the 18 or 20 other large distributors buying trucks as large or with smaller load capacities.

The largest wholesale hotel and household supply company in Dallas reported two carloads of beer steins had been sold before the legalization of beer. Its line of counters, fountain equipments and similar stock was depleted quickly.

Newspaper, bill board and card advertising mounted quickly after sale of beer began.

In the novelty lines, companies handling steins, portable ice boxes and other drinking accessories reported good sales.

The business report, however, was not one entirely dominated by the return of beer.

FOOTBALL IN THE OILBELT

Coach S. J. Petty of the Eastland High School is fast regarding his charges into form. In their initial game Saturday afternoon with the heavyweights of the Decatur Baptist College. Although he has only a bare half dozen letter men from last year, as a nucleus around which to build a team the coach says the prospects are looking good and that he has a scrappy bunch that won't be whipped before the game starts.

The boys that are showing most promise at this time are Garrison, Tully, Gilkey and Simmons in the back field; Taylor and Maxwell at the end positions; Garry, Laney and Kitley at tackle; Kellett, Railey and Frost as guards and Cook, Allison and Baker at center, said Coach Petty. He says that the squad will not be handicapped much by injuries, although there is a possibility that Laney will not be in condition for service Saturday because of an injured knee. Sickness among the boys has hampered his efforts to some extent and some of them may not be in condition Saturday for this reason. Allison was out of school Monday and Tuesday because of illness.

Coach Petty realizes that in meeting the team from Decatur Saturday that he is possibly giving his boys their toughest assignment of the season for their first game. Decatur College has a strong team, having won the championship in their class last year. Twelve letter men of that winning squad are back this year. Besides these, high school stars from that section of the State make up the squad of 60 men. The squad is expected to arrive here Friday afternoon and take a workout on Maverick field.

The possible starting lineup for the Mavericks is as follows: Garrison, quarter; Tully and Simmons, halves; Gilkey and Railey, fullback; Taylor and Maxwell, ends; Garry and Laney, tackles; Kellett and Railey, guards, and Kitley, center.

The Decatur squad will be composed of 25 men all of which may see service during the game. The roster is as follows:

Bredlove	center	170	30
Keene	guard	185	31

A. & M. Will Have Light Backfield And Bruising Line

By STUART E. JONES

United Press Staff Correspondent

COLLEGE STATION.—A light, fast set of backs and a ponderous, bruising line will comprise the football machine to be thrown into the 1933 Southwest conference race by Coach Madison Bell of the Texas A. and M. college cadets.

A study of weights of the 57 candidates reveals the Aggie backfield, with the exception of 10-pound Ted Spencer at fullback, will be comparatively light and will average less than 165 pounds.

The Aggie centers probably will average around 170 pounds and the guards about 172 pounds, but here the weight chart will take a rise, for tackles will average 190 pounds and ends about 175 pounds.

The heaviest candidate for the team is 220-pound Wharton Jordan, tackle from Fort Worth, the only man to tip the beam at more than 200 pounds. Jordan was a letterman here last year.

Coach Bell has declined to commit himself concerning the team's prospects. The Aggies' season opens Sept. 23 against Trinity university and on the following Saturday they will journey to New Orleans to meet Tulane University on the schedule's tough spot.

Training has been under way for several days and includes two practice sessions and a "skull practice" period daily. Until the freshman squad is called out late this month, Bell will be assisted by Roswell Higginbotham, Frank Anderson, John Reid, H. C. (Dutch) Dillingham and Willis Nolan in addition to Line Coach Barlow Irvin.

When CHILDREN

- don't gain weight
- don't grow strong
- don't keep well

The stomach is not to blame when a child is finicky about food. Nor is every sluggish girl or boy constipated. Instead of a lot of medicine, give a little pure syrup of figs. You'll see a change in twenty-four hours! In a couple of weeks, your youngster will have the appetite of a young animal!

It's true, mothers, for it's Nature. California syrup of figs is bottled health for the little ones.

For Any Sluggish Child

Pale, sickly children whose tongues are always coated, and who are never really hungry, are suffering from stasis. That means a sluggish colon; a colon clogged with waste. They need the "California treatment." You can give this treatment yourself, any time, anywhere; it's simple. Every druggist has California syrup of figs all bottled, with full directions for a babe of two years or child in his teens. Its delicious taste makes it delightful to use; no child ever tired of it.

Start tonight, giving enough to cleanse the colon of every bit of poisonous waste. Then a spoonful or so, every other day, until the child's appetite, color, weight, and general health tell you all sluggishness or constipation has been conquered.

When a cold or severe sickness has sapped a child's strength and stamina, remember California syrup of figs.

IMPORTANT!

If you want to get real results, get the real California syrup of figs. Do not accept any bottle which does not say CALIFORNIA Syrup of Figs.

Better Light--- Better Sight!

The human eye is accustomed to the illumination of the sun, which is a thousand times as brilliant as the best illumination found in the home, yet many homes have less than a tenth of the light that should be used to prevent eyestrain. Better light means better sight, less eye fatigue and the endless troubles that can result from it. This is especially true with children whose young eyes are particularly susceptible to poor lighting. It is not possible to have too much illumination in a home, but it is frequently true that the average home has too much glare from improperly shaded lights. Lighting experts of the Texas Electric Service Company will be glad to consult with you without charge on the proper illumination of your home, both from the standpoint of beauty and utility.

452 High Schools To Participate In Football This Year

AUSTIN.—At the deadline for enrolling in interscholastic league football, a total of 452 high schools of Texas had indicated their intentions of participating in this sport, according to Roy B. Henderson, athletic director of the University of Texas League bureau. This is the largest football enrollment in the history of the interscholastic league in this state, Mr. Henderson said. Last year approximately 425 school participated.

Much of the increase this year is due to participation in the newly established "Conference C," which is composed of schools of 150 enrollment or less. There are 50 or 60 such schools that have signed for league football this year, some of which have formerly competed against larger schools in Conference B. Competition in Conference C will end with the determining of the district championships in the six or seven districts, yet, to be blocked out, whereas regional championships are determined in Conference B, and only Conference A, comprised of schools of 500 or more enrollment, goes to the state championship.

Establishment of Conference C fills a need that has been felt for several years for appropriate competition for small schools," Mr. Henderson explained. "Many of these schools have been competing with much larger schools, and have suffered the handicap of not having adequate material for such competition. Conference C will give them the opportunity to play against schools of their own size."

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON—General Johnson isn't the only "tough baby" here.

Perhaps he isn't even the toughest. Burly John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, is a contender Lewis has bullied and bulldozed his way through a career of absolute power in his big union, ruthlessly suppressing every hint of opposition. Lately he has signed up about 300,000 new members.

He walked over to Johnson the other day, shook his big finger under Johnson's nose and told the NRA administrator:

"Section Seven-A is all labor got out of the recovery act. You're not going to whittle it away!"

THE Labor Advisory Board was suddenly proving itself a whole bunch of tough babies. The group had Johnson on the spot after his public promise to "interpret" the act's labor clause in an attempt to clarify the open and closed shop controversy.

Remembering Johnson's past open shop affiliations, the labor men figured the "interpretation" wouldn't do their cause much good.

They felt it might help the automobile and coal industries get an open shop expression in their codes. Johnson wanted to know why they felt that way.

PRESIDENT GREEN of the A. F. of L. said he realized Johnson was under much pressure from manufacturers.

"I'm full of pressures!" Johnson exclaimed. "Get pressures from everybody. I'm a very

LABOR DAY TRAVEL UP

LINCOLN, Neb.—As a direct result of the abolition of child labor under the NRA, Nebraska schools, in the face of reduced stubborn fellow." But he promised that he would not say anything that would affect labor's position under the recovery act in any way. (One of his pressures was the threat by Lewis of a national coal strike.)

THE interpretation finally issued jointly by Johnson and Chief Counsel Donald Richberg formally erased the terms "open shop" and "closed shop" from the NRA official vocabulary.

But the issue—as it was and will be—ought to be defined. A "closed shop" is a place where only union men are hired. An "open shop" technically is a place where anyone may be hired.

Employers argue that an open shop gives them the privilege of hiring capable men on merit, regardless of whether they have union membership.

But labor says it always works out so that open shop employers discharge union men and hire nonunion workers. That prevents the building up of a union in the plant.

THE only important new thing in the Johnson-Richberg document, which nearly everyone has overlooked, is the NRA's promise, in cases where question arises as to whether employees are being represented by representatives of their own choosing, to offer an impartial investigation, and if necessary a secret ballot.

That means the NRA will act on legitimate complaints that labor isn't getting its rights as guaranteed by the act. Steel and some other industries are likely to be held up in the light of public opinion as refusing to accept the offer of investigation.

Eight Semester Rule Goes Into Effect This Month

AUSTIN.—Opening of interscholastic league activities in the next few weeks will mark the first year of operation of the new eight-semester rule of the league, adopted a year ago last spring but effective September, 1933. This rule is based on attendance in school rather than on participation in league activities, according to Roy B. Henderson of the University of Texas League bureau, and makes ineligible any participant in any league event, either literary or athletic, after he or she has been in attendance in high school eight semesters.

This rule is predicted on the belief that the interscholastic league is designed for the average high school boy or girl, and that such a student would be handicapped in competing with older, more experienced boys or girls.

The first application of this rule will be with the opening of league football this month.

Citizen... YOUR HELP IS URGENTLY NEEDED

We must count on your help to fight the Sales or Consumers' Tax Bill which is again being revived in preparation for a swift drive to enactment during the Special Session of the Texas Legislature!

There's a job to be done if you and your family and all citizens of Texas are to escape further hardship and distress in bearing the burden of new and increased taxation.

The home owner, the farmer, the salaried employee and the wage earner... the common people, the salt and bone of this great State, face a call for aid, necessitated because the "special interests," the proponents of "more revenue," are preparing to choke an additional heavy tax down our throats.

To fight and again defeat this monster which strikes at the very hearth and home of our people, the Citizens Anti-Sales-Tax Committee needs YOUR help. The citizens of Texas are now urged to act... OR FACE THE SUFFERING that will result if a Sales or Consumers' Tax is enacted into the Laws of the State.

We All Must Act Now!

The "special interests" are clamoring for the Sales or Consumers' Tax... a part and parcel of a nation-wide scheme to make the common people bear the chief blunt of taxation. It is their intention (the owners of many acres of land and other real estate properties) to shift many millions of dollars of their present taxes to the backs of the toiling masses.

Let's Finish the Job!

The several bills for new and increased taxation proposed at the last regular session of the Texas Legislature were defeated. But the "monster" is again being revived. So the Toilers of Texas again face the test—the ZERO HOUR! Our purses are thin, but we still have much that is worth protecting. And we can succeed in defeating this vicious menace ONLY if every citizen enters the fight and does his bit!

Our people today are staggering under the already heavy burden of taxation! Shall we stand idly by and let the proponents of "more revenue" further burden the masses with new and increased levies which are unneeded? It cannot be!

DERRICK SHADOWS By V. MARIE STEPHENS

Hollywood reminds us of Jack Spratt and wife... no fat, no lean... no single life, no married life.

Harlow has done it again... in the true platinum style.

No sentimental bells and veils and nervous jitters for the siren. They run to airplanes and a quick get-away in Hollywood... and, according to the film gossip, the quicker the get-away, the quicker the re-marriage.

Miss Harlow has, no doubt, felt the effects of many cruel blows and disappointments. Our attitude toward her is like the tide... a rise, a fall... and meaningless ripples and splashes.

Personally, she means little to us... as does the war in Cuba or China's reconstruction work.

But yesterday she made headlines and took our minds off the Urshel case... which was like going to the mountains for a day after the monotony of a life-time on the desert.

Where we writing of the kidnapping affair, we'd capitalize the words MONOTONY and BORED and DULL, and write "news" in italics.

But we're on Jean Harlow. She is a type. Any creature so classed is worthy consideration... notice... criticism.

Mice are nominal, save to the trap-maker... A mouse is not a type... it is a four-legged thing with ears and teeth.

It has none of the characteristics of the seal. The latter performs... whether trained or no. It performs unconsciously. It is an actor... the ability being inherent.

We have neither placed Miss Harlow on a block of ice, nor tossed a ball at her nose... but Jean Harlow is a type... the seal is a type.

Both have native ability... Both are trained... Both bring their producers money.

And we admire neither. But give both due credit for that thing called genius.

The seal gets a cry from the circus kids... The actress brings you groveling at her feet.

As for another marriage... that doesn't matter anymore. It is nominal... It merely told us the story.

Young ward school has charge of the classes instructed by Mr. Von Roeder.

MAGNOLIA IS WINNER OVER LONE STAR 7-3

Table with 5 columns: Club, P, W, L, Pct. Includes Magnolia (7-6-1-.857), Lone Star (7-5-2-.714), Elks (5-4-1-.800), Legion (6-3-3-.500), Times (4-2-2-.500), Lions (6-2-4-.333), Barbers (4-1-3-.250), Sinclair (5-1-4-.200), Rotary (4-0-4-.000).

The game toward which many have been looking for several weeks, Magnolia vs. Lone Star, was played Monday afternoon, with Magnolia winning 7 to 3 in six innings, when the game was called by umpire Thrower on account of darkness, though most of the fans and the Lone Star players protested vigorously because many games had been continued until much later before being called.

The ghost walks twice a month, and the players are paid according to the number of games in the season.

The Magnolia team started off by taking one run in the first inning, without getting a hit off Dan Long, who pitched a good game for Lone Star with ragged support.

One run was made in the fourth by Magnolia when Groves went to third on an error, Upton walked and Smith singled.

I read about Cardui and thought it would be a good idea to take it. I took eight bottles one time and six another. I felt much better after taking it and was able to sleep." If you are weak, run-down, nervous, take Cardui, for women.
