RANGER ALL SET FOR BIG TRADES CARNIVAL

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

with BILL MAYES

Three cheers for C. C. Davie and a pat on the back for Eck Curtis. Or vice versa, or something. Yesterday when we were hard at work—believe it or not—we received an envelope containing a season pass to all athletic contests in 1933 which reads "Admit Bill Mayes, Jr., and wife (Ranger Times)" and is signed by C. C. Davie, registrar, and Eck Curtis, coach. That should give us a vantage point from which to view and report the Bulldog-Maverick clash next Saturday afternoon.

And, before we forget it and before it is too late, we want to print, for the first time since we can remember, the following standing of the Oil Belt, which shows Brownwood in the lead. It reads like this:

Team	P.	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Brownwood	1	0	0	1,000
Breckridge	1	0	0	1,000
Ranger	0	0	0	.000
Abilene	0	0	0	.000
Eastland	0	1	0	.000
Cisco	0	1	0	.000

In the meantime the Texas Rangers from the Ranger Junior College will be playing their first conference game and their first game at home when they meet the Decatur Baptist College from Decatur at Lillard field Friday afternoon of this week. The Rangers have made a good showing thus far, taking on McMurtry College of Abilene and Sul Ross of Alpine, both games being played away from home. Both games, which were in a conference of larger schools than the Junior College, ended in 0 to 0 ties. This was a remarkable showing for the Rangers, as they were scheduled to be the underdogs inasmuch as they were supposed to be playing out of their class entirely, just like a class B high school team playing a practice game against a class A school.

The Rangers were more or less crippled in the Sul Ross game, however. One of the Browns, we don't know which and probably wouldn't remember if we did, got a broken arm. It was not anything serious, we heard, as it was the small bone in his arm, but it is enough to keep him out of the game for some time, we imagine. However, we remember seeing Rex Clark, now working in the backfield at T. C. U., when he got a broken arm in the Eastland-Cisco game in 1930, then ran 65 yards for a touchdown against San Angelo and repeated to score against Abilene and made most of the Eastland gains against Ranger later in the season.

It was one of the Brown twins who got his arm broken it might be one way of telling them apart. Which might be a break for some of the teachers at Junior College. We never thought of breaking the arm of one twin so they could be told apart, but it might be a tip for mothers of twins.

We heard that Dick Murray injured a hand and Steed hurt a hip, but we are not so sure about that. We went out and watched the Rangers practice yesterday and unless we were mistaken Steed was out there working out as though nothing had happened to him. We didn't notice Murray around, however, though he may have been.

Incidentally, we noticed that the Rangers were taking a good workout. The backfield plays seemed to be clicking well, even for practice, and the line was working like it looked like it should.

If the team is not crippled to badly it should be able to go places, even if the Decatur team is the one which won the conference title last year and is back this year with 12 lettermen and an almost intact team. The Baptists will probably outweigh the Rangers in the line and may have a little more weight in the backfield, but it is doubtful if they will have more ability, provided the Rangers get together on their plays like they do. They are determined to do

Heads Catholic Women Council

National Council of Catholic Women will be headed for the next three years by Miss Annie S. Hooley, above, of Kansas City. Miss Hooley was elected president at the St. Paul convention of the organization.

MRS. KELLY AND MOTHER TAKEN TO PEN TODAY

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 17.—Katherine Kelly, queen of a shattered bandit gang, and her mother, Mrs. Ora Shannon, went unrepentantly in grand central station today as they continued their journey to prison. Armed guards hurried Mrs. Shannon through the streets of Memphis to Shelby county penal farm, where she began a life sentence for participation in the abduction of Charles Urschel.

Mrs. Kelly, tears streaming down her cheeks, left for Cincinnati to serve a similar sentence in the same crime. Mother and daughter pledged to each other to be model prisoners, embraced and kissed. Then they were separated.

They were taken secretly from an Oklahoma City jail last night and brought here.

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 17.—Sentences were to be imposed today on Cass Coleman and Will Casey, among the last of those arrested in the Urschel kidnaping. Coleman confessed and Casey was convicted of conspiracy of harboring Kelly and his wife.

PROBLEM STUMPS COURT
SAGINAW, Mich.—A deaf mute was arraigned before an armless judge on larceny charges here recently. Judge Arthur Clements was puzzled. He couldn't converse in the sign language because he had no arms. And Zealand Hartman could neither talk or hear. An interpreter was obtained, however, and Hartman was bound over to circuit court.

HOMESTEAD BOARD WILL AID IN RELIEF

AUSTIN, Oct. 17.—A state organization to contact and work with federal forces in establishing subsistence homesteads was perfected here today.

State agricultural Commissioner J. E. McDonald was made its chairman. At a meeting of more than 100 persons here today, Dr. C. Taylor, representing the federal administration, explained the plan of the federal government to use $25,000,000 in the establishment of such homesteads and the steps necessary to secure them.

Speed was urged in order that land selection may be made and soil be prepared for spring crops.

DR. THOMPSON WAS WARNED ABOUT ATTACK

LEESVILLE, Ala., Oct. 17.—Dr. E. L. Thompson, pastor of the Mount Auburn Christian church in Dallas, whose mutilated body was found near Pleasant Hill yesterday was "urgently advised to be careful" in preparing his defense to a federal charge of sending obscene matter through the mails. Sheriff E. L. Edwards revealed a letter found in the pastor's personal effects to his wife, warned him of attack. Friends of the pastor here, where he spent his young manhood and in Shreveport where he was pastor for 10 years, assert the charges were "trumped up."

The fight the minister led against vice in Shreveport resulted, it was said, in the accusations.

A number of the deceased man's family told the United Press today that "as far as we are concerned the facts point to murder." Substantiating the assertion, the minister was never known to own a revolver or gun of any type, that papers he was carrying were burned or destroyed. The gun was found clutched in the pastor's right hand. A wound believed to be a bullet mark was found on the left side of the head.

His brother, an attorney, said the file of paper prepared by Dr. Thompson contained information which would not only have cleared the minister of the charges but would have made revelation of corruption in North Louisiana.

Urge Changing Highway Route Through Cisco

AUSTIN, Oct. 17.—Re-routing of the west entry of highway No. 1 into Cisco and use of relief funds for graveling the new route was suggested by the state highway commission today to Eastland county Judge C. L. Garrett, and J. E. Spencer, of Cisco.

The committee promised to aid in the purchase of materials if the plan is followed. By bringing highway No. 1 into Cisco on the south side of a cemetery, most of the sharp corners in the present route would be eliminated, it was pointed out.

620,000 Returned To Work In Sept.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Return of more than 620,000 persons to work in September is indicated by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, Secretary of Labor Perkins announced today.

"This increase in employment does not represent the total number of persons returned in all the branches of industry, she said. She estimated that re-employment of 620,000 constituted a payroll gain of $10,000,000 weekly.

Man to Testify About Job Sales

WACO, Oct. 17.—R. H. Burk of Whitney was expected to appear before the district court grand jury today to volunteer information concerning alleged selling of state jobs in McLennan county.

THREE GUESSES

Want Bare Facts Told in Court

Nudism faces an important test in the courts when Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ring, leaders of the nudist camp in Allegan county, Mich., face trial in Allegan Oct. 23 on indecent exposure charges. The Rings, shown here with their daughters, Frances, 15, and Andrese, 5, spurned the state's offer to dismiss the case in return for a promise to take nudism forever from Allegan county.

Germany's Withdrawal From League Of Nations Viewed With Much Alarm Throughout All European Countries

Editor's Note: The following article on the broader aspects and possible repercussions of Germany's resignation from the League of Nations was written by Webb Miller, European news manager of the United Press, who for 17 years has covered all important international conferences. He at present is in New York.

By WEBB MILLER

(Copyright 1933 by United Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Final collapse of the great plans for establishment of a new world order as the outgrowth of the World War is hastened by Germany's resignation from the League of Nations and rupture of the disarmament conference.

Hope for a new post-war world system upon a world parliament to settle international conflicts peacefully instead of by slaughter, and hope for universal disarmament, international co-operation, arbitration of disputes, and treaties of conciliation and non-aggression are dealt a shattering blow.

Attainment of the aims for which millions marched into the "war to end war" and died seems more hopeless than at any time since the armistice.

Danger of eventual war is greater today than at any moment since 1918. Nearly 8,000,000 men in the world war are armed and in training for war—millions more than in 1914. Nations are spending hundreds of millions of dollars more now in preparation for slaughter than ever before in history. More terrible and effective means of killing have been invented.

Today there are more potential causes of wars than ever before as a result of re-drawing the map of Europe by the Treaty of Versailles. Bitter economic wars throughout the world are breeding real wars. Repudiations and defaults of international debts are creating new hostilities. The police of depression of the vanquished by the victor has engendered hatreds which will take generations to wipe out.

In the considered opinion of the writer who has been on the scene continuously since the Great War, the world is facing the most dangerous crisis of this generation. Germany's withdrawal has served as the detonator of explosive conditions which have steadily accumulated since the minute the war ended.

Only the coolest and effective statesmanship can avoid catastrophe and eventual European war. Germany's action paradoxically, may transpire to be the best thing that could have happened at this time. It may serve to shock public opinion and statesmen into squarely facing the dangers of the world situation and achieving reduction of armaments and rectification of injustices which rankle the defeated nations.

Hitler's abrupt abandonment of the League of Nations and the disarmament conference has shaken

RANGER WILL CLOSE STORES ON NOV. 11TH

At a meeting of merchants of the city and members of the trade expansion committee, held in the office of the chamber of commerce Monday night, those present voted unanimously to close all stores in Ranger all day Saturday, Nov. 11, in celebration of Armistice Day.

The question was brought up at the committee meeting, at which a number of merchants were present, at the request of Mrs. Alice D. True, secretary of the Ranger Retail Merchants Association, who stated that a number of the merchants had asked her whether or not the merchants intended to keep the stores closed.

Felton Brashier, J. C. Smith, Walter Harwell, E. R. Gentry and other merchants present, spoke briefly on closing, each stating that they believed the stores should close as practically everyone in town would be going to the Ranger Cisco football game at Cisco that afternoon, or would be attending the various programs being sponsored by the American Legion and other organizations.

New Relief Body Will Be Named

AUSTIN, Oct. 17.—Personnel of a new relief commission was expected to be named today following Governor Ferguson's approval late yesterday of the $5,500,000 state relief bond issue, authorized by the special session.

The governor has one member to name, the lieutenant governor and speaker of the house three each.

Committees Get Good Response On Fund Drive

Five committees of workers, each committee composed of two men, were busy today visiting each merchant in town to solicit funds and merchandise for the trades carnival, which is to begin Thursday of this week.

Each merchant was being asked for $2 in cash and $1 in merchandise. Reports early today were that the committees that started work early this morning were meeting with splendid response in the campaign for funds.

Those on the committees were W. C. Hickey, W. W. Carlin, H. C. Anderson, J. B. Barnett, J. J. Kelly, J. B. Heister, W. N. McDonald, Bill Clardy, E. R. Gentry and Ray Fesmire.

ARCHEAOLOGISTS PLAN HUNT

PHILADELPHIA.—A party of archaeologists from the University of Pennsylvania will go to Persia as part of a joint expedition with the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. The group will excavate near Teheran, the capital of Persia.

SALE OF OIL BELOW LOW PRICE BANNED

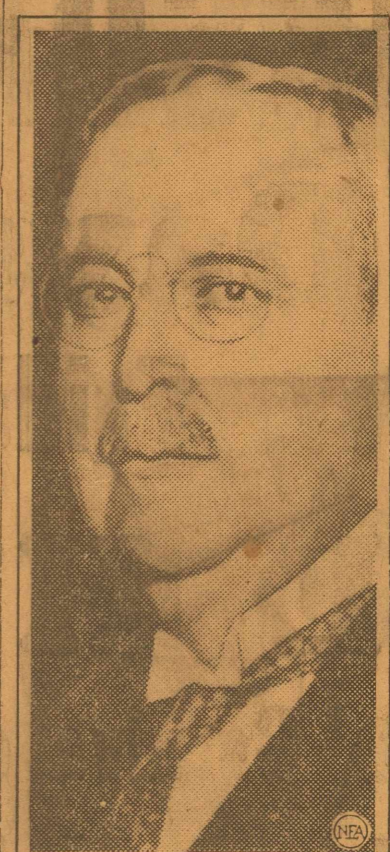

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 17.—Price fixing was added to production control today in the government effort to stabilize the oil industry.

The sale or purchase of crude oil, gasoline, and other refinery products, below minimum levels prescribed in an order of oil administrator Ickes, will constitute an act of unfair competition in violation of the recovery law and the petroleum code after December 1.

Prices established by the oil administrator's order, effective December 1, included the mid-continent area, Oklahoma, Kansas, North and North Central and Central Texas on a scale of 87 cents for crude oil below 25 degrees gravity to $1.19 to 40 gravity and above.

Ickes warned producers today he would curtail interstate shipment in those states which have not reduced production since Sept. 8, to the quota set by his administration.

Pecora to Quiz Ex-Bank Chief

One prominent target for the withering blasts of Ferdinand Pecora, chief counsel for the Senate committee investigating stock market and banking practices, probably will be Albert H. Wiggin, above, former president of the Chase National Bank, New York. Wiggin, it is forecast, will be called soon to the witness stand.

GERMANY MAY RE-ENTER THE LEAGUE SOON

GENEVA, Oct. 17.—Germany is prepared to start negotiations for a return to the League of Nations and the disarmament conference, German quarters indicated today.

It was regarded likely formal negotiations would be deferred until after the election on Nov. 12, when the country will be asked to back the government withdrawal. League officials saw it probable the Oct. 26 meeting of the disarmament conference would adjourn at once until after the election to permit more time for private negotiations.

Reports of German readiness to negotiate followed a United Press report from Rome that the German, British and French ambassadors have started informal conversations, whose tenor was not revealed.

"Uncle Jno." Norton Celebrates His 67th Birthday

EASTLAND, Texas, Oct. 17.—"Uncle Jno." Norton celebrated his 67th birthday Sunday with a dinner attended by all but one of his children and their families. The dinner was given at his home on North Walnut Street and was a very enjoyable affair.

Those present, in addition to Mr. Norton and his wife, were: O. J. Tarver, wife and three children; Jack Weatherford, wife and two children; Claude Maynard, wife and one child; Homer Norton and wife; Olen Norton, wife and three children. E. L. Pryor of Eastland, a brother-in-law of Mr. Norton, was a visitor. Ed Norton, a son who resides in East Texas, was unable to attend.

Criminal Cases Set For Trial

The following criminal cases appear on the last of cases scheduled for trial this week in Judge Geo. L. Davenport's 91st District Court: E. W. Tilley, forgery; Vernon Watson, driving while intoxicated; Marian Weedon, perjury; Robt. Thompson, theft; Jack Boman, disposing of mortgaged property. Upon failure of the defendant to appear the court forfeited the bond in the case of Marian Weedon. The case of R. W. Tilley was dismissed on failure of identification. Robt. Thompson's theft charge case was on trial Monday and Tuesday.

PLANS MADE FOR BIGGEST FREE PROGRAM

Free Horse Races, Boxing, Tickville Band Are on The Schedule.

Ranger is all set for the biggest trade expansion program put on in this section of the country in many years beginning Thursday afternoon, Oct. 19, and continuing through Saturday, Oct. 21.

At a meeting of the chairmen of the various committees, held at the office of the Chamber of Commerce last night, Chairman Walter Harwell named 10 men on five teams of two each to solicit every business man in town and secure $2 in cash and $1 worth of merchandise to be used in staging the celebration. This money will be used to augment the fund already held for this purpose.

The celebration will open Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock with horse races at the Haugland airport. Wade Swift, chairman of the racing committee, announced at the meeting that the track was being prepared and would be ready by early this afternoon. He stated that a number of entries had been received in the ladies' race and some five or six entries would be secured for the free-for-all race, at which prizes will be offered. So far, he said, no entries had been received for the Shetland pony race, though it was thought that four or five entries would be received before race time.

The first race on the program will be for ponies under 13 hands high. The entrance fee will be 50 cents and $5 in cash will be added to the purse, which will be split, 50 per cent for the winner, 30 per cent for second place, and 20 per cent for third place.

The second race will be a ladies' race with a $1 entrance fee and $5 added to the purse, which will be split the same way as in the pony race.

The last race will be a free-for-all, with a $5 entrance fee and $15 added to the purse. Only two will be in the money, first place receiving 70 per cent of the purse and second place being given 30 per cent.

Band concerts and the merchants' carnival will begin at 7 o'clock Thursday night, with plenty of amusements to be found on the midway, which will be located on Main street between Rusk and Austin. The street will be roped off Thursday and will be closed to traffic for the remainder of the week.

Friday afternoon the Ranger Junior College Texas Rangers and the Decatur Baptist College will play a conference game at Lillard field. This will be the only feature on the program for which an admission is to be charged. This is expected to be one of the best football games to be played in Ranger this year as the Baptist have an exceptionally strong team, as has the Junior College.

Saturday, of course, will be the big day of the three. All afternoon free gifts from the merchants will be given to the visitors and that night the American Legion Tickville band, under the direction of Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, will perform, following which free boxing will be staged on the street arena, which is to be built for the purpose. Stores in the city will remain open until late Saturday night in order to take care of the needs of the visitors.

The Times, which has printed and is now distributing 6,000 four-page circulars, which were worked up without taking any of the money from the general fund, is today carrying a double-page advertisement of the carnival, which will go into every home along a rural route out of Ranger. In addition the Times has donated, without cost, as its part in the publicity campaign, a full page advertisement in the paper calling attention to the big trade carnival. These papers went out this afternoon to every home on a Ranger rural route and will aid materially in bringing in the crowds.

Epworth League Interesting Meeting

"Watching the World Grow Smaller," was the interesting subject for Epworth league discussion, at their Sunday night session held in the Methodist church, with Marshall Coleman, president, in charge.

The song service was led by Miss Mary Frances Hunter, with Miss Clara June Kimble at the piano.

Hymns called for were "Jesus is Calling," "The Fight is On," and "The Church in the Wildwood."

The program was led by Miss Carolyn Doss, and sub-topics of the general subject were presented by Ralph Mahon, Miss Joan Johnson, and Miss Lurline Brawner.

Hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," and benediction in union, closed the meeting attended by Misses Virginia Stewart, Joyce Newman, Frances Harrell, Mae Gates, Maxine Coleman, Catherine Garrett, Edith Meek, Carolyn Cox, Joan Johnson, Kathleen Cottingham, Carolyn Doss, Lurline Brawner, Mary Frances Hunter, Clara June Kimble, Margaret Fry, Betty Perkins, Ralph Mackall, Roy Taylor, Wendell Seibert, Clyde Chaney, Orvel Harrell, Raymond Pipkin, Parker Brown, Bob Sikes, John Hart, Rex Gray, Hiram Childress, Boyd Tanner, Richard White, Fred Davenport, Billy Satterwhite, Marshall Coleman, and R. L. Perkins Jr.

High School Assembly Program

The assembly program of the Eastland high school, presented Monday from 11:30 to 12 noon in auditorium, had a number of guests in addition to the body of students.

Miss Joan Johnson, member of the public speaking class, prefaced her introduction of the speaker, Mrs. J. M. Perkins, by telling of the many things Mrs. Perkins had accomplished in club work.

Mrs. Perkins' subject dealt with A Century of Progress, the contrast between the Columbian exposition in Chicago of 1893, and the development between then and 1933, in scientific achievements, travel and transport, and other great leaps made in the passing years to the present state of accomplishment.

The travel and transport building was described in detail, as well as the great hall of science, and the marvelous scientific inventions.

The speaker's talk was very interesting, and was greeted with hearty applause.

Mrs. Perkins, a favorite of the student body, was president of the High School Parent-Teacher association last year, and helped do many things for the betterment of the high school.

Baptist Training School

The meeting of the Baptist Training school, Sunday night in the church was not only for the purpose of the regular session, but also brought the announcement of the training school for the Baptist Young People's union, in connection with a joint study course for the Sunday school, and Junior B. Y. P. U., which will open next Monday night, 6:30 o'clock, and will be held each night inclusive of Friday.

The program proper of the B. T. S. meeting was directed by Terrell Coleman and opened with a song service, with Mrs. O. B. Darby chorister and Mrs. W. E. Mahaffey, pianist in charge.

Prayer by Mrs. H. A. McCandless prefaced the secretary's report, presented by Miss Winifred Pentecost.

The program was in charge of Miss Irene Williams of the senior department and the subject stressed the importance of a complete program in B. Y. P. U. work.

The preface was given by Miss

Irene Williams, and topics by Della Webb, Allan Williams; Fog Thomas and J. R. Carlisle.

There were 54 members present.

The Training School

General director of the Baptist Training school will be Rev. O. B. Darby, pastor of the Baptist church, and assistants, Terrell Coleman, director of B. T. S., and Mrs. Frank Lovett, chairman for Women's Missionary union work; Dr. J. H. Cozad of the First Baptist church of McKinney, will teach "Our Lord and Ours."

This book is specially prepared for this class of training school work.

Dr. Cozad will give an inspirational address each evening to all classes, between periods.

This study will be taught seniors and adults. Intermediates, "Meaning of Stewardship," Juniors, "Studying for Service," by Mrs. Robert Webb, teacher.

The primary will have missionary stories by Mrs. John Williams.

Dr. Darby announced that the intermediate teacher is to be selected.

The general public is invited to all classes and addresses.

This study course is to lay the foundation for the budget of 1934.

Dr. Darby stated this week is set apart for this study to help the church people know God's plans for financing His Kingdom's work.

Committee Meeting

All those members of the Music Club of Eastland who have been appointed to a chairmanship in the entertaining of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, are notified by the president of the club, Mrs. E. C. Satterwhite, that they are called to meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, at the home of the general chairman of arrangements for the convention, Mrs. J. M. Perkins.

There is little time left to perfect plans for the convention, which will be held Tuesday, Nov. 7, and Wednesday, Nov. 8, in this city, possibly at the community clubhouse.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Bula B. Comellee was a Dallas visitor Monday and today, in connection with business concerning the Comellee theatre.

Reagan Coleman, of Refugio, Texas, came Saturday for a week's stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson were Fort Worth visitors Saturday to Monday.

Rotary Club Has Good Attendance

EASTLAND, Texas, Oct. 17.—The Rotary club had almost a perfect attendance at their luncheon Monday on Comellee roof, there being only one member absent.

F. V. Williams, president, conducted the meeting. Program committee, J. E. Lewis and Roy Speed, was presented, and Lewis gave a classification talk on practical application of the power and light business.

"Andy" Anderson, past district governor, was a guest.

The club introduced a new member, J. L. Chance, who, with his family, has recently moved here from Ranger.

Ben Hamner and Frank Roberson were appointed program committee for next Monday.

The song period was enjoyed, led by Julius B. Krause, with Miss Clara June Kimble at the piano.

Eastland South Ward School Has Good Fire Record

A. W. Hennessee, chief of the Eastland fire department, is getting many favorable reports on the fire prevention program put on in the city, particularly in the schools, last week in connection with National Fire Prevention Week.

At the South Ward school the students put on a demonstration obtaining results which Mr. Hennessee believes establishes a record.

Mrs. A. C. Simmons is principal of the school and has had charge of the fire drills the students have been putting on from time to time in order to be ready for an emergency caused by fire.

Chief Hennessee attended the demonstration and reports that the entire student body cleared the building, closing all windows, and doors in both the classrooms and the halls as they went, in one minute and 50 seconds. Not only this but they came out in regular order, each class remaining to itself, and the entire body remaining in formation on the school grounds after emerging from the building.

Children Attending School Touring World On Steamer

HOUSTON, Tex.—A sea-going primary school is the latest achievement of Capt. T. Kamiashi, master of the Japanese steamer Buenos Aires Maru, here on a "round the world voyage."

Capt. Kamiashi has already been decorated by both the Japanese and Argentine governments for "unusual courage and judgment beyond the necessity of duty." He is the ship's schoolmaster.

Pupils of the school are about 250 children, sons and daughters of 1,250 Japanese immigrants being taken from the native land to Brazil on the present voyage of the Buenos Aires Maru.

The ship is probably the only one in the world which employs teachers under a principal for a shipboard school. T. Jibu, a noted professor from Kobe, is "dean."

The captain is "president."

Below decks there are three classrooms. The largest, a spacious compartment, is fitted with desks like an American classroom.

Each day the vessel is at sea the children are assembled on deck for pre-breakfast calisthenics. After breakfast, they attend school. Subjects taught include the three R's, geography and history.

Capt. Kamiashi himself collects orchids. Thirty rare varieties from South American jungles make an exotic floral bower in his cabin. He is taking them back to Osaka, where he has a large greenhouse.

WHO'S WHO In the Supreme Court

that reminds me...

Saw a litter of puppies this morning. Just born last night. Watched the mother for quite a while. She would look up at those who seemed interested, turn around about three times and then—well you know what happened—they got their wherewith. No growls, because she knew she was among friends. Funny, isn't it. Confidence. Not afraid. Just realizing that nobody was going to hurt those puppies. And you know that's a good idea. People should be that way. Many of them are, but in the business world... only in the business world, mind you... folks are running around for fear that somebody will hurt them. And the fact of the matter is, lots of them do.

Greatest pride of Charles Evans Hughes, chief justice of the United States supreme court, shown here in a new photo, is the speed with which opinions are handed down in the nation's highest tribunal, keeping the court's docket up to date.

Why in the God's world someone hasn't confidence enough in his goods to miss a sale every once in a while to have a satisfied customer, we don't know, but it's the truth. And we believe that every reader of this column, whether customer or business man or woman or not will agree with us.

Uncle Billy Niver Seeks Lost Horse

W. C. "Uncle Billy" Niver has lost his horse and is looking for someone who has seen it.

Uncle Billy described the animal as being a dark bay mare weighing about 1,200 pounds. He is offering a reward for its return.

TINY WOODEN SOVIET PLANE

MOSCOW.—A small wooden monoplane—a more expensive to produce than a good motorcycle has been developed at the Novocherkassk aviation factory. It is made entirely of pinewood, covered with birch veneer, and carries two passengers. Its maximum speed is 140 kilometers and its cruising distance is 700 kilometers.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

This column, "Behind the Scenes in Washington," is being conducted by Willis Thornton during the vacation of Rodney Dutcher.

BY WILLIS THORNTON

WASHINGTON.—You don't often hear the NRA spoken of as America's Two-Year Plan, but that's what it really amounts to.

As the NRA crystallizes into the permanent organization that will carry on for the two years of its present legal tenure (and as the idea becomes accepted more generally that it will go on and on after that), two courses of development are open:

One is the more or less complete socialization of industry under the complete control of this federal bureaucracy.

The other is to make the NRA a referee in the battle of competitive industry, the maker of the rules, and the referee of the battle, who is to prevent biting, gouging and hitting in the clinches.

RIGHT now it looks as though the latter view prevails. Industry is being organized so that each may administer its own code. Establishment of "compliance boards" is to help in that. And how much nicer "compliance boards" sounds than "enforcement boards!"

Two years of this plan ought to show whether industry is willing to "fight fair," and whether the gains in eliminating child labor, unfair competition and sweatshops, will be enough. If not, the next Two-Year Plan may be more like that first alternative—and the machinery will be ready.

FRIENDS report that Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt spent some of her time in New York recently in starting to do her Christmas Shopping Early. . . . Postmaster of Alexandria, just outside Washington, got a money order for $1 the other day. . . . It was from one of the Bonus Army of 1932 whom he had helped at that time. . . . came from a Conservation Camp in California. . . . When Mrs. Isabella Greenway, Roosevelt friend, comes back to Washington this winter as a congresswoman, she'll have a unique distinction: A sister of her late husband, John Greenway, stands in Statuary Hall at the Capitol as one of Arizona's most distinguished sons. Retired Bank Head Paid $100,000 a Year

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The Chase National bank was revealed today by senate stock market investigators to be paying a salary of $100,000 a year for life to Albert H. Wiggin as retired head of the bank and its securities affiliates.

He retired as chairman last January and later as a director and member of the executive committee.

YOUTH'S TEETH IN PAL'S HEAD

IONIA, Mich.—Missing teeth are hard to find when they are in someone else's head, Bobby Schaefer has learned. Bobby and a playmate, Edwin Schneider, ran into each other recently. In the mishap Bobby had two teeth knocked out but he could not find them. A physician was summoned, and he located the molars imbedded in a deep wound on Edwin's forehead.

CANADIAN COAL OUTPUT UP

MONTREAL.—Production of coal in Canada during August, 1933, totalled 3,381,801 tons, an increase of 21.3 per cent over the August, 1932, output, but a decline of 20.1 per cent from the five-year average for the month of 1,104,131 tons. Bituminous coal production in August amounted to 783,905 tons, sub-bituminous coal, 131,195 tons, and lignite coal, 116,715 tons.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

AN OLD MAN'S TESTIMONY: I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the fight. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness.—2 Timothy 4: 7.

COL. WILLIAM J. DONOVAN IN THE PICTURE

Col. William J. Donovan of New York was a war hero. He is known the nation over as an able lawyer as well as one of the most outstanding republicans of the empire state. He was one of the advisers of Herbert Hoover when that somewhat distinguished Californian was secretary of commerce and later president of the republic. He was the nominee of republicans of New York for governor of the empire state of the East in 1932. It was then that Alfred E. Smith, "The Happy Warrior," of that period, turned his knives on Donovan and scalped Donovan as scientifically as any Sioux warrior ever scalped a captive. Now the Colonel is not only in the picture but he is under fire. Payment of $100,000 counsel fees to the attorney who was an assistant attorney general under the former republican administration for his work in behalf of the Black Diamond steamship lines has been brought to the surface by the senate investigating committee. Isn't a barrister entitled to his hire? He represented the Black Diamond lines. His clients bid on government vessels. Their bid was accepted. Donovan received his fee. Now what are the grave and reverend senators going to do about it?

Business was business in the good old days. Donovan was a high ace in the upper circles. Political high aces always bob up in the political world where the grazing is good and the fees are tempting. This applies to democrats as well as republicans. Congress will be in session in December. There will be something doing all luring the winter and 1934 summer months. There is no peace under the skies of the world. Peace is found in the graveyard and the graveyard alone.

BUTTER SURPLUS TO BE TRANSFERRED

An early transfer of millions of pounds of butter "to the tables of those in want" seemed likely, according to the last reports from the capital of the nation. Harry L. Hopkins is the head of the emergency corporation. The purpose of this organization is to close the gap between over-production and want. There is said to be a butter surplus ranging between 50,000,000 and 100,000,000 pounds. Col. Hopkins believes that a one cent a pound tax on butter fat would raise more than enough money to take care of the oversupply or huge surplus. He hopes to get the butter at prices around 15 cents a pound or less. Farm officials believe that it would take only a few weeks to consume 100,000,000 pounds of butter if families on relief rolls were given quantities "proportionate to the quantities the ordinary family would consume."

There is a bitter winter coming. According to the high aces of labor organizations and the high aces of the farmers and livestock producers it will be necessary to feed ten million men, women and children in the 48 American commonwealths. Well, in the 150-years history of the republic the safe and the same meaning the wise as well as the humane, have faced all crises in the life of the republic and in every instance the ship of state has sailed into port with the flag flying triumphantly and rats never deserting the grand old craft. America is coming through the crisis.

It is often said that the world is in a muddle and no one nation can cure its ills. Moreover, no single nation, no matter how great, can at the present time benefit at the expense of others. It seems that every nation is in the same fix—some a little worse off than others—but all more or less inflamed as never before with the evils of unemployment.

In many cities an active campaign should be put on to sell the home city to the home people, and then all get together and tell the world about it.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

Since the World Economic Conference adjourned, most nations seem to be swinging around to individual efforts and negotiations in order to realize a solution of their own problems.

Some countries have established an economic bloc to face another economic bloc, with the hope that this will solve the riddle and get the wheels of industry moving again.

This is but the natural outcome of the policy of capturing the other fellow's market, made with cheap goods, made by mass production and the keeping of one's own territory clear from invasion by a high wall.

The giving of greater value to the purchaser and the cheapening of money so as to attract other nations to buy are methods of piercing a competitor's armor.

THE VERY FIRST LADY

Forgotten Sweetheart

By MARY RAYMOND

BOB WESTON, son of a millionaire, comes to Memphis in connection with a textile plant under construction for his father's company. Bob and JOAN WALKING fall in love with each other but BARBARA COURTNEY, society girl, schemes to take him away from Joan.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XVII

JOAN was dressing to go to the "Night Cap Club," and wondering why she did not feel more elated. She had always wanted to go to the club and now, when Jim Warfield had invited her, there was a lump in her throat and a pain about her heart.

"You look very sweet," Mrs. Warfield said, coming into the room and surveying Joan with approving eyes. She liked the simple black gown that made her slim girl look even slimmer, admired the way the cloudy hair was drawn back simply, admired Joan's red lips and gray-blue eyes. A few minutes later Joan met Jim's approving glance and it was a bit of balm to her sore, young heart.

They reached the hotel and made their way to the mezzanine floor. Jim nodded carelessly to several acquaintances, greeting them with a friendly smile. He checked their wraps and guided Joan toward the Italian room.

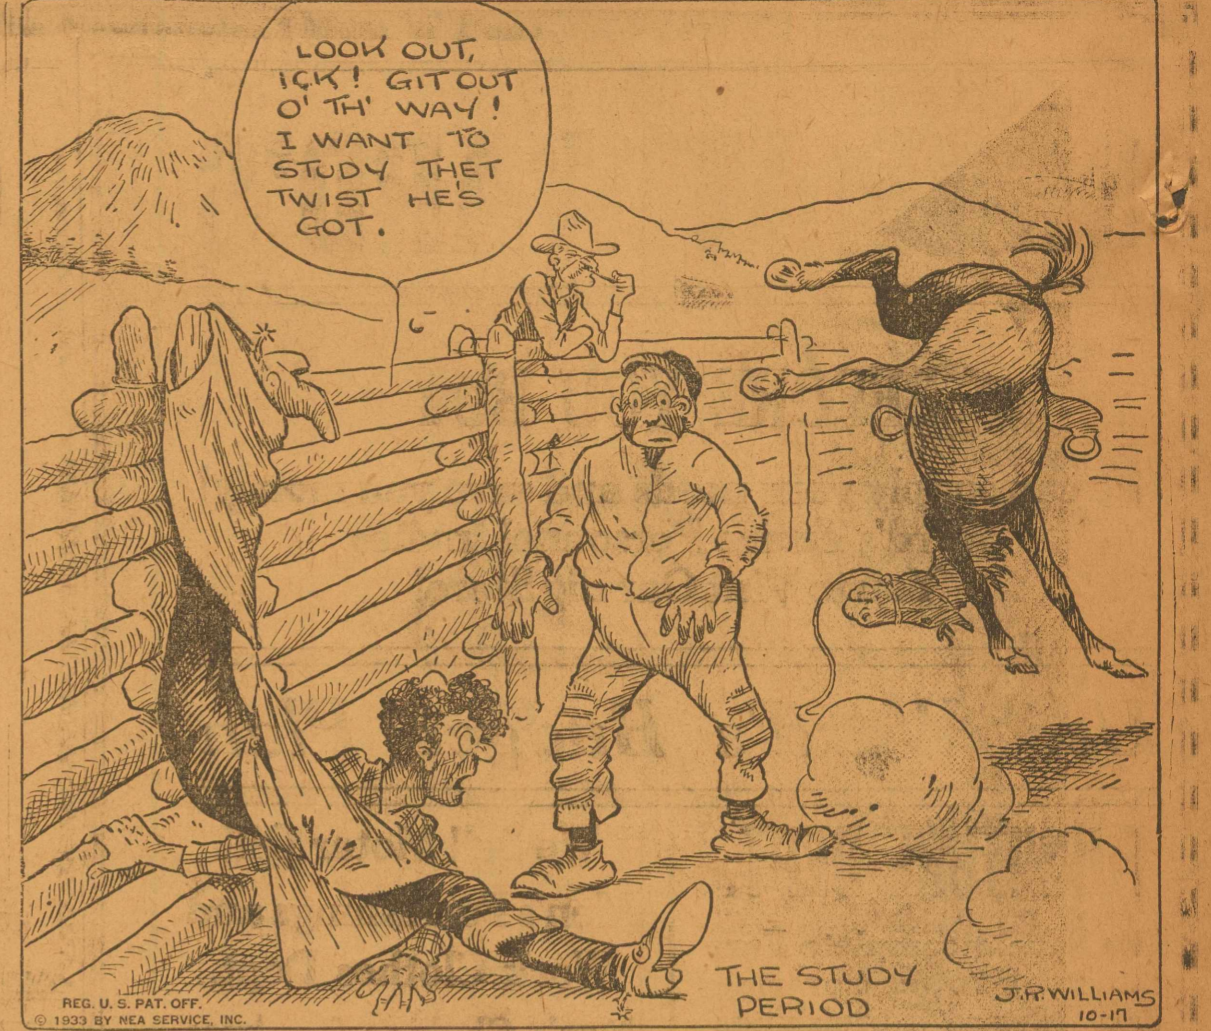

She thought the scene was like fairyland. Colored lights under little glass squares on the floor gleamed softly in contrast with the dresses of gorgeously gowned girls, floating in the arms of men in informal evening attire. Waiters in bright coats moved swiftly about the tables. The room seemed to be swimming in color. It was dazzling, glamorous.

Jim, leaning across the table, said, "You don't know how sweet you look in that black dress. Joan, like a little girl in a room full of nymphs and driads."

He added, "There comes Weston and the dazzling Barbara, spreading disaster in the guise of sweetness and light. What a fool Weston is!"

ELEVATOR IRKED SOLONS $189 for window shades for their private offices, the House adopted a resolution requesting Senators to stop such expenditures. The House became particularly wrathful over Senators' desire for a private elevator.

Why the Sudden Change to Liquid Laxatives?

Doctors have always recognized the value of the laxative whose dose can be measured, and whose action can be controlled. The public, too, is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that a properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after. The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys. The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is at all druggists. Member N. R. A.

Bible Study Discusses Two Books
 The Bible Study of the First Christian church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. H. C. Anderson in charge of the review of Genesis and Exodus. Mrs. Carl Hill, 1009 Vitalious street, was hostess for the afternoon.

Social Club to Meet
 The Lone Star Social club will meet Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. J. L. Turner, Mmes. Turner and J. B. Rayfield, co-hostesses. The afternoon will be devoted to business and social activities.

First Baptist W. M. S. Hears Royal Service Program
 The mission society of the First Baptist church, Mmes. Hugh and Lee Russell, co-hostesses, met yesterday in the regular monthly royal service program.

The Wide-Awake circle, Mrs. Walter Reimund, leader, had charge of the program, with Mrs. James Cozby offering the Bible study. She chose her subject from the parable of the ten virgins. Others on the program of "Activities in South America" named Mmes. C. E. Hutchings, W. A. Lewis, and Glenn Curry.

Mrs. Reimund, accompanied by Mrs. F. P. Brashier at the piano, entertained with mandolin music. A Hallowe'en motif was carried out in all decorations and the refreshment hour. Pumpkin pie and coffee were served to Mmes. E. A. Kirk, W. A. Lewis, W. S. Barton, T. S. Fountain, C. B. Pruet, G. W. Thomas, L. C. Keel, Nannie Walker, Walter Murray, M. L. Parks, F. P. Brashier, T. L. Parks, C. E. Hutchings, Lee Mitchell, W. M. Weber, James Cozby, Hugh Russell, Walter Reimund; Miss Lillie Ringold; and children, Anthony Lewis III, Minnie Sue Thomas, Catherine Ruth Keel, Berline Parks, Marion Lee Hutchings.

Methodist Women Continue Book Study
 The mission society of the Methodist church continued the study of the book, "Christianity and Industry in America," yesterday, with Mrs. Stanley McAnelly in charge of the presentation.

Mrs. Roy Jameson spoke on "Industry in America," an excerpt from the American Legion monthly.
 Mrs. B. A. Tunnell read the devotional for the afternoon.

Members present named: Mmes. Stanley McAnelly, Fred Warren, Herbert Stafford, R. R. Stafford, McCoy, E. K. Smith, Turner, C. D. Woods, Mills, A. J. Ratliff, M. H. Hagaman, Leslie Hagaman, Strong, I. N. Griffin, Roy Jameson, A. N.

Larson, J. T. Killingsworth, and Harry Bishop.

Church of Christ Ladies Meet
 The mission society of the Church of Christ met yesterday in a quilting and Bible study at the church. There were 23 members present.

Rev. D. W. Nichol, who has been in Corsicana in a 10-day meeting, returned in time to conduct the Bible study, taken from the book of Romans.

Members of the society will meet Thursday at the church for an all-day quilting and covered luncheon.

Y. W. A. Announces Industrial Work

The Young Women's auxiliary of the Central Baptist church will meet this evening at the church in an industrial hour. Members are requested to come to the place of meeting from work or as soon thereafter as possible. It is the purpose of the organization to complete gifts for the adopted missionary at this time.

State Nurse Working in Eastland County

Miss Beatrice Lott, state advisory nurse, working with the state department of health, is located in Eastland county for one month.

At the present time, Miss Lott is completing preliminary work, speaking before the various parent-teacher associations and interviewing officials interested in work with school children from the standpoint of health.

It is hoped that regular work with school children throughout the county can be begun soon.

Mrs. Reid Hostess To Mission Society

The Woman's Missionary society of the Central Baptist church met yesterday with Mrs. J. L. Reid, Breckenridge highway, hostess. The afternoon was spent in mission study, under the subject of "Stewardship." Mrs. W. E. Mitchell was responsible for the program, with Mrs. J. E. Ogg reading the devotional.

Mrs. Dan Neville discussed "The Word of the Hour," followed by "Fighting" by Mrs. H. H. Stephens.

Mrs. Roy Baker related "The Stories the Dollars Tell."

According to authorities, the afternoon was one of the most complete of recent meetings.

Junior New Era Club Hears First Program

The Junior New Era club met Monday evening in the colonial room of the Gholson hotel in the first program meeting of the year.

Following routine business and committee reports, Misses Maxine Henderson and Lillian B. Strain introduced the program on "Trains: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow."

Filling the vacancy left through the leave of absence granted Miss Sue Dean, Miss Jimmie Morgan was voted to membership in the club.

The club has chosen the study of "Current Events" for the year. All programs will be arranged accordingly.

Y. W. A. to Meet With Miss Baskin

The Young Women's auxiliary of the First Baptist church will meet this evening at 7:30 at the home of the president, Miss Vashfi Baskin. The organization will pack the Christmas box to be sent to Miss Reagan, and officials urge all members to be present.

Fourth Grade Has Chapel Program

Latest Americanized version of the Bible buries the story of the creation in the middle of the book. Well, the Lord wasn't so pleased with us, either.

Woman Took Cardui Got Rid of Pain
 "I had a pain in my left side about a week," writes Mrs. T. C. Stewart, of North Little Rock, Ark. "Then it went to my right side. I would cramp and feel like I could not stand it. I asked my husband to get me a bottle of Cardui and let me try that. After a few doses, I seemed easier, rested better. I kept it up. I continued taking Cardui for a while. I cannot begin to tell how much good it did me, and how glad I was to be rid of the pain."

Auto Parking Lot Replaces Famed Inn

By United Press
 MONTREAL, Canada.—One of Montreal's most famous historic landmarks, the old St. Lawrence hall, famed internationally as a hostelry par excellence, noted for good foods and comfortable accommodations for 72 years, is no more.

Brick by brick a demolition company has carted away the old-moded hostelry here.

No greater example of "the old giving place to new" can be given than the passing of the St. Lawrence hall. Where royalty in the person of the late King Edward VII dined and made merry on his visit to the city in 1861, a parking station for automobiles will soon be opened.

Carrier Pigeon With Siberia Band Found

By United Press
 VISALIA, Calif.—A carrier pigeon, bearing a leg-band marked "Siberia, 1931," was captured here the other day.

The bird was believed to have flown, during the past two years, across the Bering Sea, over Alaska and Canada, and the United States, to Central California.

It was turned over to the California fish and game patrol, which was attempting to obtain more information regarding it.

Vermont Lake Boasts Floating Islands

By United Press
 WHITINGTON, Vt.—Sadawaga lake now has two picturesque floating islands.

Resembling a huge ship with trees as high as 30 feet for masts, a large island has shifted its position considerably in the lake over a period of years.

Now, as result of a recent heavy storm, a three-acre section has broken off the main island and gone floating by itself.

FALL FAILED TO INJURE BABE

By United Press
 DETROIT.—Wallace Graham, 19-months-old, was none the worse for a two-story fall from the home of his parents here recently. The baby was rocking in his chair near a window when he rolled over the windowsill and fell to the ground. He suffered no injuries, hospital attendants reported.

FRENCH OLIVE BRANCH OUT

By United Press
 PARIS.—France has decided to abandon her symbol of peace and the Olive Branch on her stamps and honor the memories of three of her great citizens, Victor-Hugo, Paul Doumer and Aristide Briand. The Hugo stamp will appear this month, Doumer in November, and Briand shortly thereafter.
