ROOSEVELT TO CONSOLIDATE AIR FORCES

WASHINGTON, Mar. 14.—President Roosevelt, it was learned today, is planning early consolidation of the nation's military and commercial air forces under a single government agency.

Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, former air corps chief, is being considered to head the new setup. He has conferred with Mr. Roosevelt.

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh also is in the picture. He conferred several times with government officials over the week-end and has been named member of a board to investigate the army's operation of air mail service.

The consolidation plans would effect the war department, commerce department, coast guard, national guard, the advisory committee for aeronautics and part of the Marine flying corps.

Resumption of army air mail operation faced further delay today and Gen. Benjamin Foulois, chief of the air corps, started a tour of air mail routes in the eastern half of the country.

Texas Families Can Live 30 Days On Surplus Food

AUSTIN, March 14.—By the use of surplus commodities, Texas families will be enabled to go at least 30 days without feeling the pangs of hunger with CWA labor cut off May 1, announcement today said.

Figures released by Director C. Z. Crain, federal surplus commodity division, with the statement, show an average of 18,000,000 pounds of food has come to Texas monthly since the beginning of surplus food distribution. It is estimated 30,000,000 pounds will arrive in March.

Farmers Urged to Sign Corn and Hog Contracts by Mar. 17

All farmers in the Ranger area were today urged to come in to the Chamber of Commerce as early as possible and sign up corn and hog contracts if they have not already done so, as Saturday, March 17, is the last day on which these contracts can be signed.

Saturday has been designated as the last date for signing contracts all over the state and it was not thought likely that extensions would be made after that date.

The permit is dated March 10, but is retroactive to include the first issue of the paper. The order is signed by C. B. Eilenberger, third assistant postmaster general.

Precautions Taken To Prevent Robbery Of Ranger Bank

A representative of the Actna Insurance company was in conference Tuesday with officials of the Commercial State bank of Ranger, discussing plans for protection against a bank robbery. The frequency of bank robberies in Texas in the last few months has prompted insurance companies operating in the state to co-operate with banks in safeguarding funds.

The plan agreed upon, which is the same as that now in effect in many of the banks in the state, is simple and at the same time more effective than any system used by banks heretofore.

The bank will be open for business from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. each day except Saturday and from 9 a. m. to noon on that day. Anyone desiring to do any kind of business with the bank before 9 o'clock or after 2 p. m. must telephone the bank and notify one of the employees and he will be met at the door and allowed to enter the building. At all other times, except during banking hours, the doors of the building will be locked.

During banking hours only enough cash to take care of the current banking business will be kept outside the safe and all other cash will be kept under time lock. At certain hours the safe will be opened to take out or to put in cash. In that way the safe will be opened several times during the day for short periods and at all other times the major portion of the cash will be securely locked up in the safe. Anyone wish to cash a check of $1,000 or more will, therefore, have to notify the bank beforehand and they can get the cash out of the safe at the next period for transferring funds to or from the vault.

In this way no one will have to wait more than a short time before cashing a large check and at the same time the money will be carefully guarded.

Employees of the bank are using other precautions which will make it very difficult for the bank to be robbed without the public being notified.

The insurance representative said that the same plan had been worked out in connection with a number of other Texas banks and it was thought that it would not only cut down bank robberies but would materially reduce the amount of loot in case a bank is held up.

Letters Delivered After Two Years

STOCK QUOTATIONS ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE SHOW HOW BUSINESS HAS IMPROVED

A comparison of the prices of stocks, as listed on the New York stock exchange, which is considered a good barometer of American business, will show the upward trend of business during the past year.

One year ago the stock market was closed on account of the banking holiday declared by President Roosevelt, who had just taken office, but, for the sake of comparison, the market quotations, as listed in this paper on March 1, 1933, are used.

On March 1, 1933, American Can was selling for 52¢ and on March 13, 1934, it was listed at 100¢. United States Steel, another leader in the market, sold for 24¢ on March, and for 53¢ on March 13 of this year.

Some of the greatest advances were made by Fox Film, which rose from 1 1/2 to 16 during the year; Chrysler, which showed a gain of from 9¢ to 53¢; Underwood Elliott, which rose from 9¢ to 47 1/2. Other stocks up and down the list have made similar gains, the average being between something like 500 and 600 per cent.

Only one stock on the list carried show only a slight gain. It was United Corporation, which was one of the stocks that was brought up for questioning in the senate stock market investigation and in which J. P. Morgan & Co. and some of the customers of the firm were alleged to have formed pools. On March 1, 1933, it was selling for 6¢ and on March 13,

Applications Have Been Made For a Total of 6,680 Loans

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Application for more than $2,000,000 have been received by the recently organized production credit association in Texas, E. M. Garwood, of the farm credit association, announced today.

The applications from the start of operations through March 3, total 6,680, he said. Lending operations already have started and are reported satisfactory.

The associations in Texas have just begun their work, Garwood said. "I believe their early performance indicates they will meet the production requirements of Texas farmers and stockmen promptly and effectively."

Eastland Child Has Operation to Get Button From Lung
FORT WORTH, March 14.—Alfonso Gaeta, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Gaeta of Eastland, was dismissed from Methodist hospital today after a successful operation to remove a button from the child's lungs. The child sucked the button into his lungs while at play. A special instrument was used to extract the button.

Tickets For Elks Fights March 23 On Sale Saturday

Tickets for the Elks athletic card on March 23 will go on sale Saturday morning in the lobby of the Paramount Hotel.

Jack Dempsey, the Mauler from Manassa will make his only appearance in West Texas and his last appearance in the Southwest when he crawls through the ropes to referee. The Mauler is now in New York but will return to Texas in time to appear in Ranger.

Three wrestling matches and three boxing contests will be added to this all-star card.

One half of the double main event brings Verna "Kid" Lewis back to Ranger in a finish wrestling match with Bobby Davidson, the popular strong boy. In Lewis' last match here with "Tiger Billy" McEuin he broke his jaw bone in three different places.

"I understand this pretty boy Davidson has been defeating them all since I left Ranger," Lewis said when asked to wrestle Bobby.

"He won't be so tractive to the ladies when I get through with him," he added.

Two wrestling matches and twenty rounds of boxing will be added later in the week Promoter Dewey Pippin announced Thursday morning.

MR. AND MRS. JIM BARGSLEY CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY AT FARM HOME

Thursday, March 15 Mr. and Mrs. J. C. (Jim) Bargsley, who reside at their farm home on Ranger Route 3, near Lacasa, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with all their children, a number of grandchildren and a large host of friends present.

The couple was married on March 15, 1884 about two and a half miles from the farm on which they are now living by Rev. C. H. Ray, who is now living in Weatherford.

In 1875 Mrs. Bargsley, with her former husband, Mr. Hefley, came to Texas from Illinois and settled on the site of the present Bargsley home. Her husband was killed and Jim Bargsley, who lived with his father on the adjoining 160 acres, rented the Hefley farm and operated it for a time. The farm prospered and the young widow and Bargsley were married and settled down on the 160-acre farm on which they have made their home for the past 50 years,

COUNTY RELIEF PLANS BEING WORKED OUT

AUSTIN, March 15.—County relief administrators today set to work on the first step in the inauguration of a new relief program for Texas to replace CWA on April 1.

County administrators were instructed to classify types of labor now available among relief subjects in their districts, by state relief director Charles Braun.

The new program is to be established on a budget basis, but details of the plan were not available. It will be dependent on the type of labor for proposed projects, Braun said. He warned the 254 county administrators that each will be held responsible for work relief subjects complying with employment eligibility requirements.

Bankhead Highway Paving Is Accepted

Inspection and acceptance of the West Main highway concrete pavement project in Eastland was completed this week by the Division Engineer of the State Highway Department, Thursday.

Signs and markers have been changed which designate the routing have been made by workmen and the highway is open to traffic.

According to the division engineer, the contract constructors, Foenning Bros., transacted the work in a highly satisfactory manner, the product of which was a good example of highway workmanship.

John Parker, general superintendent of the job, and foreman of the Foenning Bros. company who were stationed in Eastland during the duration of the project have left for various other points where they will continue to follow the same line of endeavor.

INSULL IS A FUGITIVE IN GREECE TODAY

ATHENS, Greece, March 15.—Samuel Insull disappeared under the noses of the Greek police today when they sought to arrest him for deportation.

The director of police said Insull either had escaped or gone into hiding to avoid being deported. The disappearance was a startling turn in Insull's fight to escape deportation to the United States to face charges in connection with collapse of his utility interests.

The Insull drama, rapidly approaching a climax where Insull either had to take the Orient Express across Europe voluntarily or be ejected, was heightened when police surrounded his hotel apartment.

Twenty officers, headed by the director, invaded his quarters and found their quarry gone. The hall porter and three other servants were arrested for questioning. A wide search was started for Insull. He had defied the orders of the Greek government to leave by tonight's train at 7 o'clock.

The newspaper Acropolis said Insull had completed arrangements with an underworld gang dealing with clandestine travelers which would transfer him from Athens into the Greek countryside where he could not be found for arrest.

The chief of the security general said he believed Insull was still in Greece. There was a report he might have taken refuge with the famous monks of Mount Athos, where he probably could find haven.

Ringold Speaks On CWA and Its Work At Rotary Meeting

E. A. Ringold was in charge of the Rotary program Wednesday and spoke on the CWA and its accomplishments in this section. At the beginning Mr. Ringold said he was like the presidents of Cuba, first in and then out of office.

He said that many interpretations, mistakes and confusion had resulted, but that even so the CWA had helped the country out of one of its worst conditions.

In the Ranger territory, he said, 1,300 men had been given work for which $100,000 was spent in the past eight months. He mentioned the Ranger federal adult school, which was one of the first in the state to be recognized and which first employed 11 teachers, then added 12 more and at a later date added another 10. The highest attendance, he said, was 568.

Home building and home ownership are also being sponsored by the government whereby a man can occupy a small plot of land which will help him support himself and in the course of time can be his own.

He said that we must adjust ourselves to new conditions and the government would not be modified to meet us but that we must change to meet conditions.

He said that the government, like the towns were over-organized. He stated that there was a Lions and Rotary club where one club would suffice, a Chamber of Commerce and Retail Merchants Association where one would do the work of both, and too many churches of one denomination where one would be enough. He said it was up to each locality to work out its own problems.

In closing he stressed perseverance in getting the country and the towns back on a sound basis.

Dog Wagon Will Be Started On Monday

Roy Jameson, city secretary, today called attention to the fact that dog licenses for the year 1934 are due and that the dog wagon will be started on its rounds next Monday morning. All dogs found on the streets without licenses will be picked up, he said.

Licenses, which cost $1 for males and $2 for females, can be paid at the city hall. Only a few dogs have been licensed so far this year, it was stated.

NO REWARD FOR BARROW

AUSTIN.—Texas legislators who started out with a proposal to offer a reward for Clyde Barrow, notorious southwest desperado, "dead or alive," ended by offering no reward at all. The reward was in a supplemental appropriation bill which grew to such a figure that the whole measure was killed.

Commissioner Tells Voters How He Has Managed His Office

To the Citizens and Voters of Commissioner's Precinct No. 1, Eastland County, Texas: After serving you as County Commissioner for about fourteen months, and as I am now asking you to support me with your influence and votes for a second term, I feel that you are justly entitled to know the financial condition of the Precinct when I took charge of its affairs, and what I have done during the first year of my first term so that you may determine for yourselves as to my qualifications to handle its business.

When I took office on January 1, 1933, I found that the budget estimate of receipts for my Precinct for the year 1933 was $15,150.00, and that the Precinct owed approximately $19,000.00. This debt consisted of $12,436.67 in script warrants bearing interest and due on demand; $1,999.49 in past due invoices of tin culverts; and the balance in time warrants given for road machinery, some of them due in 1933 and the others in 1934. I paid about $9,000 on this indebtedness which left a balance of $6,150.00 of the budget estimate to expend on building and maintaining public roads. However, the actual receipts during the year amounted to $18,500 which increased the amount available for roads to $8,650.00. With only this amount of available funds I could not construct new roads or make any expensive improvements on the old ones and have sufficient cash for maintenance purposes. Consequently I used this money where in my judgment it was most needed. During my term of office no deficiency warrants have been issued and none will be except in case of extreme emergency.

The budget estimate of receipts for this year (1934) is $16,325.00. After paying the amounts due this year on these old obligations there will be an estimated balance of around $10,000.00 for road maintenance. I hope to be able to keep the roads in a better condition this year than I did last year.

If you think I am capable of taking care of the affairs of the Precinct in a businesslike manner and to your best interests, I hope to have your support in the coming primary election.

Respectfully,
HENRY V. DAVENPORT.

DESDEMONA

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Heeter were among the number of Desdemona people who spent the week-end in Fort Worth at the Fat Stock Show.

Frank Gee and family left Friday for their new home at Van, in the East Texas oil fields. Mr. and Mrs. Gee have lived here since boom days and have been interested in everything that was for the good of our town and they will be greatly missed by their large number of friends, all of whom wish them happiness in their new home.

Mrs. P. L. McBride of San Angelo, Mrs. G. W. Troxell and her daughter, Mrs. R. V. Logan, of Cisco, visited Mrs. Betty Vestal for a short time Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Vestal went home with them, where she is spending a week with Mrs. Troxell and family, and her aunt, Mrs. D. K. Scott.

Otis Moss of Lingleville, visited friends here on Tuesday night of last week.

On Thursday afternoon about 4 o'clock, fire broke out in the roof of the clubhouse of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club. A large number of ladies were in the building at the time enjoying the popular game. When it was discovered the fire had already burned a good part of the shingle roof and the rafters were nearly ready to fall. The ladies grabbed card tables and chairs and got out quickly, but not any too soon, as the roof soon fell. Mrs. C. B. Wood, who recently moved to Rising Star, had come back to attend the meeting and to fill her place as hostess for that afternoon. Mrs. Plummer Ashburn and Mrs. Wood Lee had kindly let Mrs. Wood use their silver spoons and forks for the party and they lost all of them. All of the chinaware belonging to the club was burned besides their pictures, curtains, etc., and there was no insurance on the building or furniture. The members have the sympathy of the community in their loss of the building and furniture.

Ralph Ludwick drove up to Breckenridge Friday afternoon and met his wife and baby son, Jack, who had been visiting her mother at Burk Burnett. Their many friends are glad to welcome them back to Desdemona. They are occupying the house near the Standolind plant that is known as the Earl Lane house, but which has been occupied several months by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson.

John Arnold and family attended the Stock Show at Fort Worth Saturday and Sunday. Other Desdemona people who were there were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lee and little daughter, and Miss Betty Lawrence and Mrs. Plummer Ashburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Parks and daughter, Gaynell.

T. H. Douglass of Fort Worth was here Monday on business for the Brooks Mays and Company, piano dealers.

The meeting of the "21" Study club on Feb. 27, was held at the home of Mrs. A. B. Henslee with Mrs. A. C. Robert assisting hostess. The president, Mrs. Roy Ashburn being absent on account of illness of her aunt who was visiting her, the first vice president, Mrs. A. B. Henslee, presided. After a short business session, Mrs. Henslee led the following program: "Mother Shipton's Prophecy," Mrs. J. E. Heeter; "Presidents As Inventors," Mrs. A. B. Henslee; "Life of Edison," Mrs. R. D. Wright; "New Uses of Natural Gas," Mrs. A. C. Moore; Piano solo, Kathleen Henslee; "U. S. Patent Office," Mrs. S. E. Snodgrass; "Robots," Mrs. Fred Welder; Reading, "Compensation," Mrs. Dave Parks. Questions, by leader. The hostess served delicious refreshments of pineapple salad, cheese toasted on wafers, white cake and coffee. Those present were: Mes. W. H. Davis, Plummer Ashburn, C. W. Malby, Fred Welder, Dave Parks, S. E. Snodgrass, R. D. Wright, A. C. Moore, J. E. Heeter, C. M. Bratton, Mattie Henry, John Mendenhall, the hostesses and little Kathleen Henslee.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nabers had a letter several days ago from their son, Edwin ("Rabbit") who has been working at Gladewater the past few months, saying he had a very narrow escape when the bunkhouse of the Glade-Tex Gasoline Co. burned one night. Edwin and his room-mate waked after the room was really blazing and escaped by breaking out a window. Edwin lost a new suit of clothes, some money and a number of personal articles. His many friends are delighted to know he was not hurt.

The sympathy of the community is being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Henslee on account of the death of their first-born, a son, who was born and died early Monday morning. Funeral services were conducted at the grave by Rev. Z. L. Howell, assisted by Rev. Z. C. Chambliss. The large number of friends who attended the sad rites expressed their love and sympathy both for the young parents and the grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Style McEntire and baby visited his parents at Comanche the first of the week. A. C. Robert returned Sunday from Van, where he had carried a truck load of furniture for Frank and Louis O'Dell, brothers, who were separated 48 years ago when their mother died, were reunited here by a mutual friend who had heard their stories and recognized a similarity of physical features. Once in the intervening time they had lived only half a block apart.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ashburn and daughter, Anita, drove up to Eastland Sunday afternoon. With a dog being "dognaped" in Chicago, and cats "catnaped" in Kansas City, that seems about the only way to get into the headlines. The kidnappings of people have become so boring.

EMERGENCY CROP LOANS TO FARMERS

Farmers are interested in regulations for making emergency crop loans from a $40,000,000 federal fund. Charles W. Sherrill is the manager of the southwestern setup serving the States of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona through the loan office at Dallas. A farmer may obtain such a loan if he cannot qualify for credit elsewhere. If he has a justified need for credit and if he is cooperating with the production control program.

The maximum amount to any one farmer this year is $250 and the minimum $25. Interest rate will be 5 1/2 per cent per annum. Local emergency crop loan committee will be named within the near future. Applications for loans may be made directly to the crop loan offices. A farmer applying for $150 or more must first make application to the production credit association serving his county. Emergency crop loans are entirely separate from and are not to be confused with production credit association loans, as the former is an emergency relief measure for this year only, to make available funds to those who cannot qualify for credit through the regular channels. Farmers who have a source of income other than farming are not eligible for emergency crop loans. These loans must not exceed the cash cost of growing crops during the year of 1934 for summer following and for winter wheat to be planted in 1934 and harvested in 1935. The loans may be made to purchase food for livestock in areas designated by the governor of the farm credit administration "as drouth and storm stricken" but this fund may not be used to make loans to replace work stock, or for the payment of existing debts, rents, taxes, or past due accounts. A reminder that "loans are to be made only to farmers who need relief to help carry on the basic farming operations necessary in making a living."

The emergency act imposes a very severe penalty for using loans from the emergency fund for other purposes not specified in the act and its regulations. Speaking of penalties, the regulations restrict the amount that may be loaned to the tenants of any one landlord in any one county to $500 and also restrict the amount that may be loaned per acre depending on the kind of crop being grown. All funds will be advanced to the borrower at the time the loan is made and not on a budget basis. A first lien may be taken on a crop growing or to be grown as security for the loan. Indeed, all loans are to be secured by a first lien on all crops during the year 1934. These loans are to be secured by a first lien on all crops during the year 1934. These loans will mature when the crops are harvested, and are available for sale.

No loan will be made to any individual "who has shown lack of good faith" in repaying food and seed loans made to him in previous years. In the case of loans to renters or share croppers the landlord will have to waive his claim to the rent or share of the crop. On the other hand all tenants or croppers benefiting from any loan to a landlord must waive their claims to the crop if the landlord is to receive a loan from the emergency fund. In each case the farmer is the applicant. If he is not eligible loans may not be made to his wife, unmarried children, members of his family or employees. All the regulations were made by S. M. Garwood, federal production credit commissioner of the farm credit administration, and have been passed on to the southwestern setup handled by Charles W. Sherrill through the crop loan office at Dallas.

Planting time is here. Those who are interested are advised that the federal agencies are ready for business. Applications can be made as outlined in the fore-going news editorial.

Cooking School to Provide More Fun And Less Drudgery

Like Napoleon's army, the whole world marches on its stomach—and when there are four or five in the family it's a very hungry stomach, too! But there is no use to bother yourself concerning this. Your kitchen can be the happiest place in the world, and your three meals a day can be cooked so easily that you can hardly believe it. There is more fun and less work in the 1932 kitchen, but meals are better than ever.

This is one of the reasons why this newspaper is bringing the Happy Kitchen to this city. It will be a compliment to the housewives of this vicinity, and they will enjoy every minute of it. The first session of the Happy Kitchen will be held Tuesday, March 20, and will continue for four days. The sessions will be held each afternoon at the Masonic building at 2:30.

The Happy Kitchen will be under the personal supervision of Mrs. Martha McDonald. When you see and hear her in her model happy kitchen you will immediately feel as thousands of other women who have seen her demonstrations that here at last is a woman who "talks" a housewife's language. During her stay here she will bring to housewives only those proved and workable recipes which experience and intelligence would choose for varying conditions.

Mrs. McDonald will show in the most simple manner just how to prepare many of these delightful dishes, how to balance menus, and how to serve the proper thing for the proper occasion. It is no easy task, even for those who have had many years of experience in searching out facts, to sift the useful from the mere novelty, as in cooking as well as in other arts there is a constantly flowing stream of new ideas coming from many directions.

Plan to attend every session of the Happy Kitchen school of Cookery.

Sept. 14, 1915, he joined the Canadian army to fight in the World War, swore allegiance to the crown, and thereby lost his American citizenship, immigration officers said. He failed an application to regain his citizenship.

PORT ARTHUR, Texas.—T. J. Wood of Port Arthur is the biggest liar in the city.

His story of mowing frog legs off an ice-covered lake won him the title in a liars' contest here.

Millions of bullfrogs about the lake (any lake) in 1898 jumped in about the time the water began freezing. As they hit the water it froze before they got through, leaving their hind legs sticking out.

Using a lawn mower he harvested 75 tons of frog legs and shipped them to France, Wood attested to win the title.

Three stone-tipped arrows were fired into the back of his head and a fourth into his spinal column at the base of the brain.

The murder occurred several hundred years ago.

MEDICAL ADVICE

If you want to
... relieve constipation gently and safely
... take the exact dose suited to your need
... avoid danger of bowel strain
—use a liquid laxative

Can constipation be safely relieved? "Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" declare thousands who have followed their advice and know.

You are not apt to cure your constipation with salts, pills and tablets, or any habit-forming cathartic. But you can safely relieve this condition just by gentle regulation with a suitable liquid laxative.

Why Hospitals use a liquid laxative

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit your individual need. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will it irritate the kidneys.

The right liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement, with no discomfort at the time, or afterward.

The unwise use of strong cathartics may often do more harm than good.

In buying any laxative, read the label. If it contains a doubtful drug, don't take it. If you don't know what is in it, don't chance it. The contents of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is stated plainly on the label; fresh herbs, pure pepsin, active senna.

Its very taste tells you Syrup Pepsin is wholesome. A delightful taste, and delightful action. Safe for expectant mothers, and children. Drug stores have it, ready for use, in big bottles.

THE TEST:

This test has proved to many men and women that their trouble was not "weak bowels," but strong cathartics!

First: select a properly prepared liquid laxative. Second: take the dose you find suited to your system. Third: gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving of their own accord.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the highest standing among liquid laxatives, and is the one generally used.

Information On Emergency Crop Loans Is Given In Interview

Q. (Mr. Salisbury): Now a few days ago, last Friday I think it was, the president signed the emergency crop loan fund. Is this fund similar to the feed and seed loan fund of last year?

A. (Mr. Garwood): Yes, Morse, the emergency crop loan fund is similar to the fund appropriated last year. The appropriation is smaller this year, however. Congress appropriated $40,000,000 for the 1934 emergency crop loans.

Q. Now, Mr. Garwood, I would like to ask you some questions about these loans. First, what is the maximum crop loan which a farmer may obtain this year?

A. The maximum is $250; the minimum is $25.

Q. For what purposes may loans from the fund be used?

A. The fund will be used to make loans not exceeding the cash cost of growing crops during the year 1934 for summer following and for winter wheat to be planted in 1934 and harvested in 1935.

Q. All right then, Mr. Garwood, but this question immediately comes up to my mind: Don't these emergency loans somewhat duplicate the loans being made by your production credit associations?

A. Not in the least, Morse. The emergency crop loans are entirely separate from and must not be confused with loans made by production credit associations. The production credit associations must make sound, well-secured loans on sufficient acceptable collateral. On the other hand, the emergency crop loan fund is an emergency relief measure, for this year only, to make funds available to those farmers who cannot qualify for credit through private lending institutions or through production credit associations.

Q. Upon signing the bill providing for the emergency crop loans of 1934 the president said he did so "on the theory that it is proper to tap off the crop loan system rather than to cut it off abruptly."

A. A useful purpose," the president continued, "will be served by aiding certain farmers who cannot yet qualify for crop production loans from the newly established credit associations. However, where farmers have security to offer this year they should be required to obtain the loans from the associations which have been established to give farmers a permanent source of production credit."

Q. Now, Mr. Garwood, where will the farmer apply for the emergency loan?

A. Farmers requesting from $25 to $150 may take their applications direct to the local county emergency crop loan committee. Farmers requesting $150 or more will first file their applications for loans with the production credit associations. If a farmer's application is rejected by a production credit association, a written statement of the rejection will be considered sufficient evidence that other credit is not available, and the emergency crop loan committee may then accept his application. That will also take care of the requirement that the farmer must be one who cannot get credit elsewhere.

Q. What other requirements must the farmer fulfill before he can qualify for these loans?

A. In addition, Morse, he must show that he is co-operating with the agricultural adjustment administration in their production control campaign.

Q. Now, how can he give proof of that?

A. In those counties where county production councils have been established the farmer will have to obtain from the council a statement that he does not intend to increase his acreage or production in opposition to the program of the agricultural adjustment administration. Where there is no county production council, the farmer will have to provide satisfactory evidence of his co-operation before he will be eligible for a loan.

Q. Now then, as I understand it, Mr. Garwood, the applicant for an emergency crop loan must comply with three requirements. He must have a justified need for the credit, he cannot qualify for credit elsewhere, and he must prove that he is co-operating with the agricultural adjustment administration in the production control for the crops that he raises. Am I right about these three requirements?

A. Yes, you are right, Morse.

Q. Mr. Garwood, I believe the farmers listening in would like for you now to state the purpose of these emergency loans in more detail.

A. I am glad to do it. The emergency crop loans may be used for paying the cash cost of planting, cultivating and harvesting 1934 crops. In the case of winter wheat, the 1934 crop will be the one planted in 1934 and harvested in 1935. The loan may also be used to pay the cash costs of summer following, where that practice is common.

Q. Now here is another question: Will you allow a farmer to purchase work stock with his loan?

A. No, the loans cannot be used to purchase any sort of livestock.

Q. Another thing, a good many of these farmers will have overdue notes and charge accounts. Will they be permitted to use the money borrow from the emergency crop loan fund to pay their debts?

A. We cannot allow that. The emergency crop loan is a relief loan for crop production and not a loan for refinancing. Loans are to be made only to farmers who have no other source of credit and who need help this year in financing the basic farming operations from which they earn their living.

Q. In other words, they can use this money for crop production costs, but a good many people would want to know would rent and taxes be considered part of the crop production costs?

A. No, Morse. This money was appropriated for the specific purpose of financing the planting, cultivating and harvesting of crops and the purchase of feed for farm livestock in drouth and storm ridden areas. A severe penalty will be assessed upon anyone using the money in any other way.

Q. Well now, Mr. Garwood, you stated that the loans can be used for financing the costs of planting crops. Will a loan be made before the crop is planted?

A. Yes, if a first mortgage on the crop to be planted is given to secure the loan. In some states, a crop lien may be lawfully made on crops not yet planted. In other states, a crop mortgage cannot be legally made until the crop has been planted, and in those states, the borrower must give a first mortgage on the crops to be planted.

Q. Well then, as I get it, in most instances these first liens on crops will be the only security the borrower gives?

A. Yes. In general, the loans are secured by a first lien on all crops to be planted, growing, grown or harvested during the year 1934, but the loans for summer following or for the production of winter wheat will be secured by a lien on crops harvested in 1935.

Q. Now, if a borrower is a renter or share-cropper, as most of them will be, will the crop lien cover the whole crop or just the cropper's share?

A. The lien must cover the whole crop. The landlord must waive his claim to the rent or his share of the crop in favor of the crop lien. We must have a lien covering the whole crop.

Q. But, Mr. Garwood, say this situation has come up: Suppose the landlord obtained an emergency crop loan?

A. In such a case, Morse, the tenant and share-cropper benefitting from the landlord's loan would have to waive their claim to the crops.

Q. A few minutes ago, you stated that the maximum loan to any one individual was $250. Now, would that apply to a landlord, for instance whose 10 share-croppers need $750?

A. No, the maximum sum loanable to the tenant of any one landlord is $500. The 10 croppers could not obtain more than $500 or $50 apiece.

Q. Some lenders as you know base their maximum loans on a certain amount per acre. Do you intend to restrict these crop loans in such a way?

A. Yes, we do. The crop loan must not exceed the cash cost of producing the crop. Consequently, our regulation set up a maximum amount per acre which may be loaned, but that amount depends on the crop to be grown. I won't discuss those amounts here, for detailed information concerning them may be obtained from the local committee which will handle the applications for loans.

Q. Now about the method of paying out the loans, that is, disbursing it to the borrower. Will the loan be paid out in a lump sum or will it be paid out to the borrower as he needs it during the year?

A. It will be paid in a lump sum at the time the loan is made.

Q. Now, suppose the borrower uses it for other purposes and has no money left for finishing his crop?

A. Well, he will have to look somewhere else for further help, for we are not going to make any additional advances after we give him the loan.

Q. Now about the interest rate. What is the interest on the loan and when will it be paid?

A. The interest will be 5 1/2 percent per year and will be deducted at the time the loan is made. Interest will be charged from the time the loan is made to the maturity date of the note.

Q. Yes, that reminds me, Mr. Garwood. How long do the loans run?

A. Well, Morse, that depends on the crop. The maturity date will be somewhere near the usual time the crop is harvested and sold. The borrower will be expected to repay the loan as soon as possible after it is harvested.

Q. Another thing has come in mind—there are certain recording and legal fees connected with these crop loans, I suppose, and who will pay them?

A. The fees on each loan up to $1 are paid by the farm credit administration. If the fees are more than $1, the borrower must pay the balance.

Q. I understand that some farmers have not repaid their 1933 seed and crop loans and a good many of their 1932 loans. Now, how about the farmers eligible for 1934 loans?

A. Well, that depends on the individual circumstances. If the farmer's failure to pay his loan was a result of crop failure, then he may be eligible for a loan this year. On the other hand, however, the farmer who has shown a lack of good faith in repaying feed and seed loans obtained in previous years will not be able to obtain a crop loan this year. Unpaid balances on feed and seed loans for two or more years which are not a result of crop failures will be evidence of lack of good faith.

Q. Well that is clear enough and fair enough, but can the farmer evade this regulation by having some member of his family apply for the loan?

A. No. The farmer is the applicant. If he is not eligible, a loan will not be made to an unmarried child, his wife or to an employee.

Q. You state that the applicant must be a farmer. Does that mean that he must obtain all his income from farming?

A. Yes, if an applicant has a means of livelihood other than farming he is not eligible for an emergency crop loan.

Q. Why, I am just about to run out of questions about the loans, Mr. Garwood. The next question is, when will these loans be available?

A. The emergency crop loan act has just before a law. Some time is required to prepare application blanks and to complete the organization of the county committees which are to handle the applications for loans. The application blanks will be ready within two weeks.

Q. Well, then you expect to have a committee in every county to receive the applications?

A. We may not have a local emergency crop loan committee in every county, but in most of the counties, especially where loan applications are expected to be numerous. The field men of the regional crop loan office will assist in setting up the local committees and the place where farmers can apply for crop loans will be announced in the local newspapers. Where the county committees are not organized, the field men will take the applications.

Q. Well, that leads me to ask you, Mr. Garwood, to tell these farmers listening in just how they can apply for these loans?

A. That's a very good suggestion, Morse. I will go slowly and I hope you farmers will listen carefully.

First of all, before you apply for loans, you must obtain a statement from your county production council, if there is one, certifying that you are co-operating with the production control program of the agricultural adjustment administration. If you have no county production council, you will have to give satisfactory evidence that you are not increasing acreage or production in opposition to the control program before you are eligible for a loan.

Those who need from $25 to $150 may apply direct to your county emergency crop loan committee for the loan, provided you do not have sufficient security to obtain the loan elsewhere, but if you need $150 or more, you must first file your application with the production credit association serving your county. If the production credit association rejects your application because you have inadequate security for a loan from that source, a written statement of the rejection will be sufficient evidence that other credit is not available and you may then submit your application for an emergency crop loan to the county emergency crop loan committee.

Q. Well, Mr. Garwood, I believe you have covered the regulations on these emergency crop loans pretty thoroughly. I wonder if you have anything else to add?

A. Yes, Morse, I want to make one more statement. The regulations we have discussed are those for the emergency crop loans and do not pertain to the loans of the production credit associations. The production credit associations are designed to make well-secured loans to farmers with ample security. They are to be a permanent source of production credit for farmers. On the other hand, this emergency crop loan is for this year only and is designated as a relief loan to farmers who are not yet able to qualify for loans through production credit associations. This 1934 crop loan is expected to be the last such loan.

They have selected to use the long sleeve shirt but have gone in for shorts for the year-round uniform. This sounds like a little bit English Scouting. Bare knee the year-round.

Father and Son Banquet

The scribe has just received some complimentary tickets to a Boy Scout banquet which will be held in Lometa March 22. The program is in charge of Scoutmaster C. W. Biggs. The banquet is in charge of Mrs. Bohning, one of the Scouts' mothers. A court of honor will be held in connection with the banquet. This promises to be a great time for the Scouts in Lometa.

"Still Going"

We were happy to have a report from troop 28 in Zephyr of which Phillip Locks is Scoutmaster, that their troop is going strong and will have a number of Scouts ready for second class in the near future. Charles Elliott is scribe of this troop and sent the report in.

Troop 2

Scoutmaster Dan Gill of Troop 2 held his first Dad and Scout banquet and get-together last Friday night at troop headquarters in the city hall in Brownwood. Herschel Newby who is father of two of the Scouts served as toastmaster. The meal was served by the Scouts. Five Scouts presented a theme on a competitive basis, the subject being, "What is a Scout?" Earl Baker, junior assistant scoutmaster of the troop took first place. The story is given below. Merlin Achor, scribe of the troop took second place. The prizes were five-year diaries. A number of talks from the dads, stunts, and songs composed the rest of the program.

Foye Jayroe was introduced as new assistant scoutmaster of the troop. It was suggested by one of the dads that they hold another such meeting sometime in the near future and invite the mothers to attend.

"What Is A Scout?"

What is a Scout? This is a question asked and discussed by many people every day and very few knowing the real meaning. A scout is not a member of a gang but a brother to a troop of boys who stand for the same ideals and morals as their forefathers who were Scouts of Yesterday. Yesterday—in the birth of our nation, the Scout stood for courage, bravery and reverence. Today in the growing of our nation, a scout stands for even more. He is an enlargement of the Scout of the past by being trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent. These—the 12 Scout Laws are the principal factors upon which his life is based, fashioned, and modeled. The Scout Oath and Scout Laws are taught when a boy enters scouting and takes his Tenderfoot test but in all of his advancement through Second Class, First Class, Star, Life and Eagle, he is reminded of these. It is not the larger things of life that count so much, but it is the small things that amount to the real glory of life. To be a man, a person must first be a typical boy; to be a sure enough boy he must be a Boy Scout. A true Scout is one who takes a keen interest in life and is respected and admired by every one. The genuine American boy is an active Boy Scout and the successful man of tomorrow.

Henry Davenport Again Candidate For Commissioner

Henry Davenport, Commissioner of Precinct 1, has announced his candidacy for re-election to the office he now holds. Mr. Davenport was elected to the office of commissioner of Precinct 1, which includes Ranger, Eastland and adjacent territory, at the election in 1932 and has been one of the most active members of the commissioners court since he took the oath of office in January, 1933.

The candidate is running for the office, basing his campaign on his record as a commissioner and is respectfully requesting the voters of Precinct 1 to give him an opportunity to serve them for another term.

His official announcement will be run at some future date.

CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

Henry Davenport announces today that he is a candidate for re-election to the office of Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, Eastland county, representing the people of both Ranger and Eastland. This district also comprises all the communities in this immediate area.

M. P. Zimicki Has Been In Bottling Business 13 Years

M. P. Zimicki of Strawn, who has been operating a bottling plant for the past 13 years, has one of the nicest plants in West Texas, which he invites the public to visit and inspect at any time.

He has just added four new trucks, which will be used in the distribution of his products, one of which will be used in serving the Ranger trade, for which he says he is very thankful.

"We have a Texas product," Mr. Zimicki said today, "made in Texas by Texas people and which originated in Waco. We also have all flavors of soda water, which is always bottled with the name 'Zim's' on the cap."

A Low Watermark Endangered Fish

STEUDEVILLE, Ohio.—Fish story or no, Capt. Joseph Green, superintendent of dam No. 10 on the Ohio river there, said recently that the river had been so low "fish had to stand on their heads and drink between cakes of ice." Rivermen reported the stream lower than at any time since 1907. Heavy ice, they said, made it impossible to keep river dams in place, accounting for the low stage.

SNOW IS SAWED
BARRE, Vt.—After a heavy snow storm, drifts froze in the streets so solidly that tractors or plows couldn't get through, so some of the townsmen cut the snow with cross-cut saws.

OUT OF THE MASS GROUP INTO THE CLASS GROUP

... for a few dollars more a month!

The 2-Door Sedan—List Price at Pontiac, Michigan, $725*

The whole ideal of American life is built around the philosophy that tomorrow must be better than today!

Day after day, we hear people say—"I'm so glad I decided to purchase a Pontiac Eight! It is such a satisfaction to feel that we have something more than mere transportation."

This extra measure of satisfaction, of course, is strictly a plus value when you buy a new Pontiac Straight Eight.

For, purely on the basis of what the car itself provides—it is the most logical car in America for anyone to buy.

First of all, Pontiac is a big car—with a wheelbase of 117 inches—and big, roomy bodies by Fisher.

It is powered by the great Pontiac "Speedway Eight" engine—one of the finest motors in use today.

It rides, with its new "Knee-Action" wheels, with amazing comfort on any road.

And, finally, it is one of the two most beautiful cars in America today—absolutely regardless of cost.

Certainly, it's a pleasure to own the new Pontiac. For it is unmistakable that the man who drives a Pontiac has gone out of the mass group into the class group.

And yet—it costs practically nothing to take this step. When bought on time payment, the difference between the cheapest cars and the Pontiac is frequently not more than a few dollars a month.

Come in for a demonstration of the new Pontiac. Let us show you how easy it is to step up to "Straight Eight" ownership!

Bennett's First For 20th Century

"Moulin Rouge," the romantic musical, starring Constance Bennett

EDMUND LOVE and SHIRLEY GREY, "MOULIN ROUGE" UNIVERSAL PRODUCTION

net in her first appearance for Joseph M. Schenck's and Darryl Zanuck's 20th Century Pictures, a United Artists release, comes to the Arcadia theatre Monday for two days.

Its story, based on a French stage success of the same name, will serve to introduce Miss Bennett in her first dual role, and as a singer of songs especially written for her by Harry Warren and Al Dubin, who composed the memorable hits in "42nd Street," "Gold Diggers of 1933" and "Roman Scandals."

Surrounding her is a cast which includes Franchot Tone; Tullio Carminati, stage star of "Strictly Dishonorable"; Helen Westley, one of the founders of the New York Theatre Guild, and a star in many of its productions; Andrew Tombes and Russ Brown, comedians in numerous New York stage shows.

The Boswell Sisters and Russ Columbo, famous radio stars are another attraction of the film. Miss Bennett portrays both the stage-struck wife of a playwright and Raquel, gifted but notorious French music hall artiste.

Sidney Lanfield, who directed "Society Girl" and "Dance Team" directed "Moulin Rouge."

The plot has to do with the efforts of Helen to convince her husband that she should follow a career rather than make a home for him. It accumulates complications which include the situation of the husband making gallant love to her while thinking she is Raquel, and so putting himself in jeopardy of a divorce suit.

The story gathers considerable dramatic momentum, and teters at all times between comedy and romance.

Its action, for the most part, takes place backstage of an important New York revue and in the Park Avenue penthouse of the actress Raquel.

Miss Bennett introduces two songs, "Coffee in the Morning and Kisses in the Night" and "Boulevard of Broken Dreams." Tullio Carminati sings "Song of Surrender."

Chorines trained in intricate modernistic dance routines by Russell Markert, who originated the Roxettes in Radio City Music Hall, appear recurrently in num-

Principles Back Of Cooking to Be School Subjects

More than 35 per cent of the average family income is spent for food, according to Mrs. Martha MacDonald, who will conduct the four-day cooking school for the Ranger Times at the Masonic hall.

On Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 2:30 p. m., Mrs. MacDonald will tell her audiences in Ranger just why every housewife should know the scientific principles back of every-day cooking.

"Whether the family income is large or small," she says, "cooking and eating must go on. The kitchen is the heart of the home, and it should be made a place of happiness. Dispositions are made in the kitchen; and why not happy dispositions?"

"The woman who goes to her daily tasks in the kitchen with boredom, is missing a great enjoyment that can be hers. She can turn her kitchen into a laboratory of creativeness."

"So long as the housewife must cook for the family or must at least plan the meals, why not get some fun out of it?"

In her cooking school, Mrs. MacDonald will teach the women of Ranger and the surrounding territory how to get fun out of the kitchen... how to have a "Happy Kitchen," which is the name she gives her model kitchen, used in the demonstrations.

Come and see this "Happy Kitchen" and hear this charming woman discuss in the most practical way the science of cooking.

Stop Tax Levies And Pay Back Taxes' New Slogan

FORT WORTH.—"Stop additional tax levies by paying back taxes now" was the slogan adopted here at the outset of a statewide program to encourage liquidation of delinquent taxes, which is to be sponsored by the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A committee composed of junior chamber leaders over the state was appointed to direct the educational campaign which will be conducted during the week beginning March 19. Every avenue to public contact will be employed in an attempt to sell delinquent taxpayers on the necessity of paying back taxes to forestall additional levies when the next legislature meets in Austin, Victor Bouldin of Mineral Wells, chairman of the junior chamber tax committee announced.

The governor has been asked to set aside the week of March 19 as "Delinquent Tax Week" and every mayor in the state will be requested to issue a proclamation in his city asking citizens, where possible, to meet their unpaid tax obligations. Persons financially unable to pay their taxes will not be included in the special request, Mr. Bouldin said, but those citizens who are able, and who have neglected to send in their checks, will be appealed to for assistance to the state and local treasuries.

The chairman pointed out that there are over 120 million dollars in delinquent taxes in Texas today. If this were paid, he said, the state and local governments could operate for a whole year without levying any ad valorem tax.

"Unless some of these old past due taxes are paid up it appears certain that our next session of the legislature will see greater tax burdens placed upon us in an effort to make up for the loss of the past few years," he said.

"The Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce realizes that something should be done immediately to reduce the outstanding tax debt and has adopted this method of showing the public why back taxes must be paid to save Texas from a situation that will endanger the future welfare and development of the state."

He pointed out that the program would not touch on reform measures and that the junior chamber would not take part in any political movement for collection or assessment of taxes.

Members of the state committee which will direct the campaign include: Mr. Bouldin, chairman; T. S. Cyrus, Corpus Christi; Roy W. McDonald, Dallas; H. A. Metcalf, Denison; Melvin Adler, Fort Worth; Sam Cobb, Harlingen; Lewis W. Cutler, Houston; W. R. Curtis, Longview; W. P. Abernathy, McKinney; Charlie Measels, Mexico; J. O. Gillham, Pampa; Bailey Peyton, San Antonio; Warren McDonald, Tyler; R. E. Mason, Vernon; Lud J. Lincoln, Waco; Don T. Haynes, Wichita Falls; Roland Welsch, New Braunfels; and Monte Wolford, Borger.

BARTER FOR LIQUOR

NEW ORLEANS.—A New Orleans liquor importing concern paid for the largest shipment of intoxicating beverages to pass over the border here since repeal of the eighteenth amendment—40,000 cases from Mexico—along with commodities, lard, onions, shoes, other wearing apparel and groceries, instead of money.

FIND WASHINGTON WILL TOPEKA, Kan.—The will made by George Washington's mother now is owned by Mrs. Alma Canfield of this city. One of the codicils of the will gave the first president her negro boy and all her land on Accokeek Run. Other slaves were distributed to the various heirs. Corbin Washington, her grandson, was willed her negro woman, Old Bet, her riding chair, and her two black horses.

After Years of Controversy Negroes Appear To Have The Right To Vote In Primaries

DALLAS.—The last bar to unreserved exercise of the franchise by negro voters has, at least in theory, been thrown down in Texas.

A recent ruling by a federal judge at El Paso, following U. S. supreme court rulings on the same subject, gives negroes the entree to Democratic primary elections, and the census today among political observers was that next July 28 will see unprecedented numbers of colored voters taking advantage of their newly declared rights.

Not since adoption of the 15th amendment to the federal constitution has the negro legally been kept from the polls at general elections. But since "the tragic era" of reconstruction following the Civil War the white majority in Texas has found means to abridge the negro's franchise to considerable extent.

In the days of "carpet baggers" and "Radical Republicans," who sought to exploit the negro vote to their own ends, the means was not a particularly subtle one. Clubs and guns in the hands of Knights of the Ku Klux Klan kept terrified former slaves in their cotton patches on election day.

Gradually, however, less direct action was taken. In East Texas in the '70s, after a white Republican, E. J. Davis, had been raised to the governor's chair on a wave of negro votes and a few negroes had been elected to the legislature, a novel technicality was effectively invoked.

When federal and state elections came simultaneously two ballot boxes were used in each polling place. Negroes were permitted to cast federal ballots but were denied state ballots. Thus the election of state officials was reserved to the whites without attracting the unfavorable notice of the federal government.

In 1902 the state adopted a constitutional amendment intended further to curb the negro who would vote. The amendment provided that before a citizen was qualified to vote in any election held in the state he must have paid by Feb. 1 of each year a poll tax of $1.75.

The majority of negroes in Texas, it was reasoned then, would not find it feasible to pay the tax. The following year, after practical politicians seeking the negro vote found a means to circumvent the intent of the amendment, a law was passed by the legislature making it a felony for one individual to lend to any other the $1.75 with which to pay the poll tax.

Subsequently cities with home rule charters adopted poll tax ordinances and recently the state attorney general's office ruled payment of municipal poll taxes also was a necessary qualification to exercise of the franchise in the state.

Prior to 1903 the question of negro participation in Democratic primaries was not an issue for the reason that there were no primaries. The state and local Democratic executive committee picked their candidates in their own conventions from which the negro was barred.

In 1903, however, Judge Alexander Watkins Terrell, a member of the state senate, and Thomas Bell Love, a young Dallas attorney serving the Texas house of representatives, drew up and pushed through the legislature the original Terrell election law, providing for primary elections.

Under the Terrell law a party was authorized to hold a primary election only when in the preceding general election it had polled 10,000 votes or more. Because of that provision the recent court ruling has little bearing on Republican politics in Texas. The only time the Republicans ever held a primary election in Texas was in 1926.

Terrell, who had served as U. S. minister to Turkey as an appointee of Grover Cleveland, and Love, who later became assistant secretary of the treasury in Woodrow Wilson's administration, were the pioneers in Texas election law-making. Love, at 64 an active member of the Dallas bar, is considered one of the state's leading lawyers.

sidered the foremost living authority on the subject. "In the early days of the Texas primary," Love told the United Press, "the matter of qualification of voters was left to the county Democratic executive committees.

"It was the general custom to place at the top of the ballot the words, 'I'm a white Democrat.' In some counties the word 'white' was left out. In a few, notably Bexar (San Antonio), negroes were permitted, even encouraged, to vote.

By 1907, however, the demand for a uniform "test" became so great that Gov. Tom Campbell persuaded the legislature to prescribe the sentence, "I am a Democrat," as the test to be printed on ballots throughout the state.

Despite this apparent liberalization of the attitude toward the negro voter, the primaries remained overwhelmingly in the hands of white Democrats except in a few communities where the negro population was in the majority.

By 1925, however, the legislature felt the need for an effective restraint on the negro voter. It amended the Terrell law by affixing a provision which read:

"In no event shall a negro be eligible to participate in a Democratic party primary election held in the state of Texas, and should a negro vote in a Democratic primary election, such ballot shall be void and election officials shall not count the same."

Dr. L. A. Nixon, a negro crusader for negro rights, made a test of the provision and the case was carried to the supreme court at Washington. The supreme court held the amendment unconstitutional.

In 1927 the legislature made another effort to preserve by law the Democratic primaries for white Democrats. It incorporated in the election statutes a provision which authorized the state Democratic executive committee to prescribe the qualifications for party membership and the qualifications for voters in the party's primaries.

At all state conventions since then the delegates adopted resolutions to the effect that only "white persons shall participate in the Democratic primaries."

A year ago Nixon won a fight carried to the United States supreme court which, in a decision written by Associate Justice Benjamin Nathan Cardozo ruled the statutory provision of 1927 unconstitutional.

But not until Feb. 7, this year was the supreme court's decision invoked in Texas. Nixon, who was barred from the polls when he sought to vote in the last Democratic primary, was in court again. Federal Judge Charles A. Boynton at El Paso ruled that negroes legally could vote in Democratic primaries in Texas and awarded Nixon a $5 judgment against the election officials who had refused him a ballot.

As a result of Judge Boynton's decision, political leaders are agreed, the long fight to keep negroes from the primaries is lost. As yet, no movement has been started to devise a new legislative means of accomplishing the purpose.

"Sentiment in Texas still is strongly against negro participation in Democratic primaries," Love declared. "The court rulings represent no liberalization of attitude within the state."

That the negro vote has acquired considerable significance since the ruling is indicated by the fact that no candidates for office as yet had expressed themselves concerning Judge Boynton's decision.

What the Democratic executive committee will do remains to be seen.

One member, John Davis of Dallas, believes the committee at its spring meeting will recognize the negro's right to the primary franchise.

"I am going to vote in favor of inviting the negro to cast his primary ballot," Davis said, "and I believe other committee members are in accord with me."

WHAT HAS HAPPENED

Ken Lane is directing a picture for the Premier Film Studios. Selma Forsell, the star, Forsell gets a bit of trouble over the script and leaves the studio—quite. Love is left with a half-finished film on his hands and no Swedish actress to fill Forsell's shoes. Only a Swedish actress will do, and Max Hopper, the producer, is frantic because he is steadily losing money while the film is on the shelf. He threatens to call the whole thing off.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Ken paled. "You wouldn't do that, Max!"

"Wouldn't I? Just watch me. With me, I got one motto. Never throw good money after bad. Already I got sunk in this picture over five hundred thousand dollars, and it ain't worth a nickel without a Swede."

"Okay, Max," said Ken. "I'll find you a Swede. I'll find one if I have to search twenty-four hours a day. I found Forsell, didn't I? Well, I'll dig you up another one just as good. Better, maybe. But don't call the picture off. You gotta do that for me. You know how I feel about it. It's the one picture I want to make. I've been fooling around with the idea for the last five years. Just marking time till I could get it lined up. Listen! I've turned out a lot of box office smashes for you, haven't I?"

"Yeah, sure," said Max.

"Uh-huh."

"Well, take my word for it. They were a lot of trash compared to this one. This is going to be a sensation. I know it. I feel it. Just as sure as you're standing there."

"And Garland?" Max ordered.

"You start a big publicity campaign. Kenneth Lane is looking for Swedes! Make 'em big."

"Okay, Mr. Hopper."

"Put a notice up in the studio that everybody look for a Swede to take Forsell's place. Everybody, understand?"

Girls commenced to call at the Casting Office—Swedes, almost Swedes, and those who had never heard of Sweden, all posing as daughters of Sweden. But none of them would do. Max and Ken paced up and down as one after another was interviewed during the two weeks of the search, while salaries went on. Max was still convinced that nobody but a Swede would do.

"Another truckload of Swedes just backed up to the Casting Office," said Nellie. "Should I wash them and send them in?"

"No, wait," said Max. "Any good faces?"

"Yes—good enough to wipe pens on," said Nellie.

"Well, come on," said Ken. "We might as well look them over."

"I've been looking them over for two weeks," Max made a grimace.

"What's the matter with that one?" asked the man, pointing out a girl.

"She's got beautiful eyes," he replied, looking at her from the rear.

"What's the matter with that one?" asked Nellie, pointing to another girl.

"She's got a mouth like a torn pocket."

Max suddenly looked off towards the door. "There you are," he said, as a Swedish girl entered.

"This is my evening, and you can tell Max I said so."

to send out a call for every Swedish actress in Hollywood. Tell them it's a chance of a lifetime. I'll see them all personally. Somewhere in that mob there's a new star waiting to be discovered." He walked to his desk. "As long as she's a Swede you can do anything you want." He pressed several buttons.

"And I hope you find her. I'll teach that Forsell a lesson. If you hadn't put her in pictures, she might have been a rubber in a Turkish bath."

"Nellie and Garland entered. "Oh, Nellie," said Ken, "tomorrow morning send out a call for every Swedish actress in Hollywood."

"And Garland," Max ordered.

"You start a big publicity campaign. Kenneth Lane is looking for Swedes! Make 'em big."

"Okay, Mr. Hopper."

lounge before the fireplace. It was after dinner. Ken put down his glass and shook his head.

"Will you please stop?" Gerry pleaded. "You'll worry yourself into a decline."

"I'm in one right now. I'm up to my neck in Swedes. They're in my hair. I've seen thousands of them in the last two weeks."

"Does she have to be a Swede?" Gerry inquired.

"Certainly not. I'm willing to settle for an Armenian."

"Then why don't you put your foot down?"

"If I did, I'd probably step on a Swede." He became serious. "No, Max has got his mind set on it and I might as well give him his way. After all, it's my fault that Forsell quit."

"Forget about it," Gerry urged. "Check your brains for the evening. You're going to the circus."

"No, no. I'm going back to the studio and look at more Swedes."

"Oh—darling! I promised Linda and Alan that we would go with them."

"Well, I sort of promised Max," Ken replied.

"I'm not going to let you go," said Gerry. "This is my evening, and you can tell Max I said so."

"You positively won't let me?"

"Not a chance."

"You're right. I ought to get my mind off that picture for a few hours. Tell me, dear, when are we going to announce our engagement?"

"I don't know."

"I don't know?" asked Ken, surprised.

"Darling, if I never see you now, what'll I be like after we're married? I'll have to move into the studio just to say hello to you once in a while."

"I'll be different," Ken declared. "I don't see why it should be, she retorted.

"Then why don't you take me on a six months' trial, like a vacuum cleaner?"

She laughed. "Marriage is serious, Ken. I want to be sure. I want to be convinced."

Linda and Alan arrived to break up the tete-a-tete, and the party left for the circus.

U. S. Army Buys An "Air Factory"

WASHINGTON.—In jockeying for a position on the tail of the enemy in the "next war," Army sky fighters will have no fear of the stratosphere. They will be provided with plentiful supplies of "homemade air."

The war department has purchased the first portable plant for the manufacture of oxygen to be built in this country. The huge "laboratory," virtually a complete chemical plant on wheels, has been placed in service at Wright Field, Dayton, O.

The new unit is mounted on a truck 32 feet long, eight feet wide, 11 feet, three inches high, and weighs, completely equipped, over 22 tons. Its chassis has 10 drive wheels, 12 forward speed shifts, and three reverse.

It is geared to produce 15 liters of liquid oxygen per hour, sufficient to fill six small vaporizers, used by Army aviators at high altitudes, each hour. The contrivance is mobile and may be commandeered for duty with aerial squadrons at any temporary base.

At high altitudes, the Department explained, a pilot cannot retain consciousness without an extra supply of oxygen. The new machine is equipped to furnish planes with extra oxygen for altitude flying on short notice.

During peacetime, the "air factory" will be pressed into service at outlying army airdromes, where commercial supplies of liquid oxygen are difficult to obtain.

English and German flying corps, it was understood, are equipped with similar plants.

Cancer Experts Praise the X-Ray

PHILADELPHIA.—An effective treatment for certain forms of cancer, recently announced from the Middlesex Hospital in London, has been used with gratifying results in the Temple University Hospital, Dr. William N. Parkinson, dean of the university medical school, said.

The treatment, known as the fractional X-ray method, was discovered by Dr. Coutard, a French scientist.

"We have followed the method here for the past three years," Dr. Parkinson said, "and have had very satisfactory results."

"It is not applicable to all cases of cancer. In fact, there are special types in which a few large doses of X-ray will accomplish more than a so-called 'Coutard series.'"

"We have used the method in cases of cancer of the tongue, esophagus, lungs and practically every part of the body, but it will be necessary to continue the work for several years before we will be certain which methods are best suited to each type of cancer."

MILKED COWS IN SLEEP
THREE FORKS, Mont.—A farmer, whose name the sheriff obligingly is keeping secret, registered a complaint that his dairy herd was being milked by marauders nearly every night. Deputies kept watch for several nights before they saw the farmer himself, in nightgown and carpet slippers, walk in his sleep to the barn, milk the cows, pour the milk into his pig-sty, and somnambulate back to bed.

PRISON HAS POULTRY FARM
LA TUNA, Tex.—The Federal Detention Prison here has its own poultry farm, with electric lighting and heating to keep the hens laying the year round. About 125 eggs a day is the yield, for use in the prison kitchen.

FROZEN FISH REVIVE
DEER LODGE, Mont.—Peter Hackensack set out to catch a mess of trout through the ice and came back with an aquarium. As fast as he caught them he tossed them onto the ice and they were quickly frozen. He testifies, with witnesses to back him up, that he took the fish home, put them into a tub of water while he had dinner, and an hour later found every trout alive and swimming in the tub.

A thorough scientific study at least reveals the fact that men are the weaker sex—as though women never knew it!

tied down. A former U. S. postmaster general, confronted with the same problem, had a simpler solution. He got a new car to fit.

RANGER IN 1922

The year 1922 might be called a year of law suits, because there was hardly a session of the district court at Eastland in which a suit was not filed by some Rangerite, against some Ranger company or against some project. Most of the suits were for large amounts of money. But there was plenty of lawlessness in the city and there were numerous changes in the office of chief of police, several serving for only a few days.

On Jan. 4, after dry raids in the city, Chief of Police Davenport offered $100 for every pint of liquor found in the city, but on May 22 liquor valued at $18,000 was seized in a series of raids and was dumped in the gutter in front of the justice of peace office.

Jan. 31, C. R. Thompson, drifter, was killed in a blast at a well, many charges of graft, fraud and mismanagement were instigated before the road was completed.

Jan. 31, C. R. Thompson, driller, was killed in a blast at a well, April 20 a blast wrecked the office of Wood & Co., with a loss of $30,000 and on June 15 Earl Baker lost his life in a well only 15 feet deep when overcome by gas.

The last day of January the city retired $45,000 in municipal bonds; Feb. 12 the high school bonds were sold and by April 3 merchants were paying off the scrip they issued when the banks were all closed, Henry Ford made a large deposit in the Peoples State bank on May 30, which gave the people more confidence in the financial situation here after the Ranger State Bank had opened on April 15.

Casinghead plants sprang up with several being installed; one by C. & S. which was started on Feb. 10; Feb. 18, building of two others was announced. The opening of the T. & P. Depot, scheduled for May 25, was postponed because of washouts along the line, but on March 12 the Masonic lodge announced they would erect a new building; Mar. 19 "crankless" telephones were in operation; April 11 contract was let on the high school building and on Oct. 22 announcement was made $1,000,000 would be spent on improvements on the Oil Belt Power company plant at Leon Lake.

Feb. 12 Charlie's cold drink stand was robbed of $300; on March 23 nervousness in signing a bill of sale caused arrest of three of a pipe stealing gang; March 31 raised bank notes made their appearance in the town; April 9, Earl Sober, alias Red Johnson, was wounded in a gun battle with officers; Aug. 22 a mad dog scare was in evidence; Aug. 27, Pearl Long, while on a liquor raid, was struck on the head and Leon Wilson was arrested; Sept. 22 Policeman E. L. Hargraves and Mrs. W. P. Torrans were wounded in a gun battle between the officer and her husband.

March 23 the first "wireless telephone" or radio was installed in the J. M. White store; April 12 the Lions club was organized with 31 members. On April 8 a tornado struck the east side, tearing down many rigs and houses. Several were hurt.

On Dec. 29 it was announced the fire loss had been cut 90 per cent from $400,000 the year before to only $35,000.

Heads Insurance Company

Charles F. O'Donnell, who has been elected president of the Southwestern Life Insurance company of Dallas.

Chas. F. O'Donnell New President of Southwestern Life

DALLAS, March 12.—At a specially called meeting of the board of directors held at the company's offices last week, Charles F. O'Donnell was elected president of the Southwestern Life Insurance company.

He succeeds the late T. W. Yardell, who was president from March, 1911, until his death one week ago. Mr. O'Donnell first became connected with the company in 1917 as a member of its legal staff. He was elected a director in March, 1926, later serving as general counsel. On Jan. 1, 1933, he took active charge of the Southwestern Life's investments as chairman of the company's finance committee, and since then has devoted practically all of his time to the company's affairs. He announced today his retirement from the firm of McBride, O'Donnell & Hamilton, and will assume his new position immediately.

The new president of the Southwestern Life is a native of Dallas county and a graduate of Texas university, class of 1907. He served as city attorney of Dallas from 1913 to 1917, leaving that position to join the firm with which he has since been associated.

Mr. O'Donnell is widely known in insurance circles of the state and nation. He is now serving his second successive term as president of the Texas companies, and he is the state vice president of the American Life Convention, an association of 150 western and southern life companies. He was recently elected a director of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, and is chairman of the committee which has submitted a plan for the reorganization of the county government.

The Southwestern Life is the largest and oldest of the group of life insurance companies domiciled in Dallas, and is the second largest in the entire southwest. It is now in its thirty-first year, and its assets amount to more than $41,000,000. The company has insurance on the lives of approximately 140,000 Texas policyholders, amounting to more than $258,000,000. It is distinctly a Texas institution, as it does business only in this state and invests all of its assets in Texas.

Pure Milk Best Food Says State Health Officer

AUSTIN—Pure milk is nature's most nearly perfect food, according to the Texas State Department of Health, and persons should be sure that the cows which produce the milk they use are in a healthy condition.

It is estimated that 2 per cent of all milk cattle have bovine type tuberculosis. Tuberculin testing of cattle will definitely prove whether the cow has tuberculosis. If a person owns their own cow, she should be tested, and if milk is being purchased, the purchaser should make sure that the cattle in the dairy he patronizes are free of his disease. These tests should be made each year, and if milk stock is to be purchased, they should be tested before completion of the sale.

About 25 per cent of all tuberculosis in children is of the bovine type—fatal bovine tuberculosis after the fifth year is rare. It generally attacks the lymph glands and bones. When not fatal, this disease, when it attacks the joints or bones, usually leaves the child crippled for life.

The CWA has created a fund to pay for the destruction of each tuberculin cow. Of course, the disease must be certified by an accredited veterinarian. The State Live Stock Sanitary Commission and State Department of Health are very anxious to control this disease. The former to improve the dairy herds and the Health department to protect the public health. Every one can help by demanding that the cows where they purchase milk be tuberculin tested.

Senate investigation reveals J. P. Morgan unloaded his airplane stock two weeks before the air mail contracts were cancelled. And they say that only a woman is ruled by instinct.

Contract Let for Ford Building At World's Fair

The general contract for erection of the Ford Exposition building at the Chicago World's Fair has been awarded to the W. E. O'Neil Construction company of Chicago, it was announced today by Mr. C. B. Ostrander, manager of the Dallas branch of the Ford Motor company.

Construction work, which already begun, is to be completed before June 1.

Fourteen hundred tons of steel will be used in the building, which will be 900 feet long and rise 110 feet at its highest point in a huge central rotunda.

Specifications call for 700,000 square feet of fire-resistant wall board, 1,600,000 feet of lumber, 5,000 yards of concrete and 160,000 square feet of tile flooring. The entire space reserved for industrial exhibits will be skylighted.

Large quantities of chromium metal work will be used in both the interior and exterior embellishment, in line with the conservative modernist motif of the architecture.

Fifteen bids were received. The three lowest were so close that two days were spent in conference between Ford officials and bidders before the award was finally made in the offices of Albert Kahn, Detroit architect.

W. E. O'Neil, president, and C. F. Trimarco, chief estimator, represented the successful company. The Ford building, which is to be one of the largest at the 1934 A Century of Progress will be situated on an 11-acre tract with a frontage of 1,100 feet on Lake Michigan. A five-acre park on the lake shore is a part of the general project, though this was not included in today's contract.

Failure to Plant Wheat Forfeits Year's Wheat Pay

WASHINGTON.—Farmers with wheat adjustment contracts, who do not plant any wheat for 1934, will not be considered as having violated their contracts, but they will forfeit the 1934 adjustment payments unless they receive waivers granted to cover such non-plantings under specified conditions, George E. Farrell, in charge of the wheat section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, announced today.

The wheat contract specifies that contracting farmers must plant at least 54 per cent of their base acreage for the years 1930 to 1932.

An administrative ruling on the non-planting in 1934 states that this will have no effect upon the 1933 payments made or to be made nor will it affect 1935 payments provided farmers plant the minimum acreage for that year. If a farmer plants less than his 54 per cent requirement for 1934, his 1934 payment will be in the proportion that his plantings are to his minimum requirement. Plantings for 1934 will be checked during the field inspection this summer. The ruling does not apply to farmers who could not plant this year because of a regularly established crop rotation practice.

The ruling also releases for payment certain 1933 adjustment checks which were held up because growers indicated on their contracts that they did not intend to plant wheat in 1934.

Provision for waiving the planting requirement in specific instances was made some time ago in a ruling by the wheat section which allows farmers to request a waiver of the wheat section through their county allotment committees.

Before a waiver for such non-planting can be granted, the wheat section must designate the county or the community as one in which unfavorable weather, a public calamity, an uncontrollable natural force, or an act of God, has produced such a general unfavorable condition as to prevent farmers from seeding or to make seeding plainly useless. Further, the producer's failure to plant must be due solely to these causes, and his request must have the recommendation of the county allotment committee.

Even so.. you can say Chesterfields are "not like others"

Not like others..

NO two people in the world look alike... act alike. So it is with tobacco... just like folks.

No two leaves are the same.

And it's the same with cigarettes... no two brands are alike.

Furthermore, not only are the tobaccos different, but the way the tobaccos are handled is different.

This, you can understand.

You know just as well as we do that no two manufacturers use the same kinds of tobaccos, or blend them or cross-blend them or weld them together in the same manner.

We do everything that science knows and that money can buy to make CHESTERFIELD as good a cigarette as can be made.

We hope you like them. They are "not like others."
