RETAIL MERCHANTS SIGN AN AGREEMENT TO COOPERATE ON EXTENDING CREDIT ACCOUNTS

The following agreement has been signed by retail merchants operating in the city of Ranger:

"We the undersigned retail merchants of Ranger, Texas, enter into this agreement, this 14th day of April, 1934, and bind ourselves upon our honor, collectively and individually, to abide by the following terms, to-wit:

"1. That we will not open a charge account with anyone who owes a 'past due' account to another merchant. 'Past due' in this instance meaning an account that has been reported to the Retail Merchants association as being 90 days past due as hereinafter set forth.

"2. That we report all accounts to the Retail Merchants association that are 90 days past 'due date.' 'Due date' meaning date account was to have been paid as agreed upon between merchant and customer. Also that we will report all repossessions, whether automobile, furniture, radios, etc.

"3. That before opening an account with any customer we will get in touch with the Retail Merchants association, and ascertain the standing and rating of said customer, and abide by the information thus obtained as above mentioned.

"4. That we will discontinue selling a customer on time who has an unpaid account or 'past due' account, as reported by the Retail Merchants association. For instance, if Mr. A. is buying from Merchant B and C. The account at both stores is satisfactory over a period of months; later Mr. A. fails to pay Merchant B, and the account becomes 90 days past due date. Merchant B reports the account to the Retail Merchants association, who notifies other merchants, including Merchant C. Merchant C then discontinues selling Mr. A. on open account.

"5. That this agreement shall be binding until voluntarily dissolved by written notice by the signer to the office of the Retail Merchants association, Ranger, Texas.

Most of Farm Loan Money Has Gone To Indebtedness

HOUSTON — Ninety-five and two-tenths cents out of every dollar of farm mortgage loans by the Federal Land Bank of Houston and Land Bank Commissioner to Texas farmers and ranchmen since last June have been used in refinancing indebtedness it was shown in a study made by the Farm Credit administration.

A total of $67,390,400 of loans was made in Texas from June 1, 1933, through March 31, 1934. Estimates based on the study made indicate that $64,149,705 was used for refinancing.

The classes of creditors to whom the proceeds of these loans were paid, the approximate total received by each class, and the proportion of each class to the total, in terms of cents of the loan dollar, are as follows:

Commercial banks, $7,992,340 or 11.8 cents; banks in the hands of receivers and conservators, $202,172 or 0.3 cents; insurance companies, $13,249,194 or 19.7 cents; joint stock land banks, $9,625,931 or 14.3 cents; tax authorities, $1,766,331 or 2.6 cents; merchants, $67,390 or 0.1 cents, and "others," or creditors not separately classified, including mortgage companies, private mortgage lenders, retired farmers, and many others to whom farmers owed debts, $31,276,347 or 46.6 cents.

Approximately $3,240,695 or 4.8 cents of the loan dollar of loans made from June 1, 1933, through March 31, 1934, were used for other purposes than the refinancing of farmers' indebtedness. Of this, $1,049,482 or 1.6 cents of the loan dollar was used for the purchase of land and equipment, the construction or improvement of buildings, the redemption or repurchase of land foreclosed, and for general agricultural uses, including the provision of capital, while the balance, $2,191,213 or 3.2 cents, was used for various other purposes, such as for the purchase of stock in national farm loan associations, for loan fees, etc.

agreement, we affix our signatures here below:

Copies of Credit Agreement on Hand For All the Signers

Merchants who signed the credit agreement, which appeared in the Times Tuesday, can get copies of the agreement by applying at the Retail Merchants Association office, where several hundred copies are on hand.

Mrs. Alice D. Truse, secretary, urged all merchants who wanted additional copies to get them as soon as possible in order that they might be distributed to all who will need these extra copies.

Last Sunday Was A Red Letter Day For Ranger Church

Last Sunday, April 29, was a red letter day for Presbyterians in Ranger. The installation of Dr. L. B. Gray as pastor was the feature of the morning hour of worship. Rev. Herbert G. Markley of Breckenridge preached a very fine sermon appropriate to the occasion. Rev. J. A. Owen, of Albany, presided and gave the charge to the minister, while W. H. Cook, ruling elder from Breckenridge, gave the charge to the congregation. Miss Maxine Henderson was the pianist for the day, and Miss Marjorie Maddocks the soloist both morning and afternoon. Her morning number was a beautiful rendition of "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go." Flowers were furnished by Mr. Golden and Mr. Surbrook, and others.

In the afternoon the Fifth Sunday conference for Presbyterian young people was held in the church. Delegations were present from nearby churches, and the program carried out as previously announced. Albany had the largest delegation with more than 25 present. Supper was served to 50 or more on the lawn back of the club rooms. The address of Gordon Weir, of Abilene, was the feature of the evening session. His sermon on consecration was helped with illustrations of daring deeds done by men and women who put first things first. It touched the hearts of all present, and led them to decide for more purposeful living. The next meeting will probably be in Cross Plains.

Staff and Colony Will Have Services

The messages to be delivered at the Staff Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at Colony district schoolhouse Sunday night at 8 o'clock, will be on the subject, "Yes, mother, when I think of thee," 'tis but a step to Calvary."

The preacher, Ephraim D. Conway, makes special mention of the efforts put forth by Christian workers in endeavoring to carry on the Sunday school work for the church. This is God's work. Parents are invited to come and bring their children to Sunday school. "A wise son maketh a glad father; but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother... despiseth his mother."

Last Rites For William Hargus Were Said Monday

Funeral services for William H. Hargus, 38, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. (Berry) Hargus of Eastland and who died Sunday at Stephenville, were held at the First Methodist church of Eastland at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon and were attended by numerous friends and relatives of the decedent. Rev. J. M. Bond of the First Methodist church of Ranger conducted the funeral services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Thomas of Hico.

William Hargus was born May 3, 1896, in Eastland and spent the majority of his life as a boy and young man in Eastland. He saw service in the United States army during the World war and was stationed in Europe for a length of time. In 1926 the decedent was married to Miss Faye Morgan of Hico. For the past few years he had made his home with his wife on a ranch near Hico. Ill health was his lot for several years before his death.

At Noon Monday the Booster class of the Methodist church served luncheon at the home of Mrs. Claude Boles to out of town friends who were in Eastland to attend the funeral and members of the decedent's immediate family.

Active pallbearers were Earl Bender, W. H. McDonald, Steele Hill and H. E. Wood.

Honorary pallbearers were Johnny Farmer, Ray Connally, Lyle Golden, Conrad A. Theis, Earl Harrison, Marvin Hutchings, Homer Woody, Earl Lynch, John Arnold, Bernard Oglet, Barton Gamble, Walter Homer, Cole Hooper, C. L. Lynch, Roy Meador, Bill Blair, Luther Tunnels, Dan Blue, Garland Tunnel, Cyrus B. Frost, Clyde Garrett, R. E. Sikes, John Nix, Tobe Morton, Boyd Dawson, Aaron Dawson, G. E. Cotton, Dick Brown, Bebe Scott, Ross Crossley, Lewis Crossley, John White, Frank Day, W. M. Martin, Ed T. Cox Sr., Will M. Wood, P. L. Harris, Tom Amis, E. E. Layton, P. B. Bittle, Clarence Ray, S. D. Phillips, Webb Grubbs, J. O. Earnest, Richard Peagon, W. P. Palm, Joe Weaver, and W. K. Hyer.

Flower girls were Mrs. Janey Woody, Wilma Farmer, Lois Leeth, Joy Hutchings, Maurine Theis, Elly Golden, Lorene Arnold and Lilly Mae Atkinson.

People who attended from Hico were Mrs. I. M. Hutchings, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leeth, Ray Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Atkinson, Mrs. Milt Wallace and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold, Mrs. J. D. Ditz, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Theis, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Connally, Mr. O. E. Meador and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Atkinson, Mrs. Lily Mae Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Golden and Purse Bolton.

Survivors include his widow, his parents, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Hugh Hardean, Killeen; Gilbert Hargus, Electra; Garland Hargus, Corpus Christi; Mrs. Claude Boles, Miss Valera Hargus and Jule Hargus of Eastland.

The passing of the decedent leaves a blight of sorrow and regret upon his many friends and relatives.

Texas Pioneer Is Dead at Abilene

ABILENE, May 2. — Samuel Nelson House, 83, early settler in this section died of heart disease at his home here early Monday.

Native of Georgia, House came to Stephens County, Texas, in 1877. He operated a mail route between Breckenridge and Albany, later lived at Albany, Baird and Cisco. While a resident of Callahan County he attended the first sale of town lots here that marked the beginning of Abilene. Previously he had promoted the "town" of Gould City, Callahan County, in the hope the site would be on the new Texas and Pacific Railroad.

He is survived by his wife, four children, three sisters and eight grandchildren.

Oil Field Workers To Meet In Ranger

Oil field, gas well and refinery workers of this section have been called to a meeting to be held at the Odd Fellows hall in Ranger tonight at 8:30.

G. H. Runyon, representative of the international organization, will be the principal speaker at the meeting, which has been called by Ranger Local No. 225.

IT PAID TO BE THIN
WAPPING, Conn.—There are times when it is convenient to be "skinny." At a supper given by workers of the Federated church, the charge was a penny for each inch of waist measure.

ANOTHER SPY RING REVEALED IN EUROPE

(Copyright 1934 by United Press)
PARIS, May 2.—Another sensational spy case in France was revealed today when secret police announced officially they had arrested as a spy George Sybert, a former Polish colonel, now allegedly a member of the German spy service.

Sybert carried a German passport under the name of Grotto, and also used three other names. He tried to establish relations with high French officers, police said, offering to lend them money but really attempting to purchase military documents.

A French officer informed the secret police, who then shadowed Sybert. A Frenchman then handed him "planted" documents and Sybert was arrested with the evidence in his hands, police said.

Sybert, police said, told them he was assigned by his organization to the post formerly held by a former French army officer who was arrested as a spy at Belfort today. Other arrests may be expected in the Sybert case, it was intimated.

Church of Christ Gospel Meeting Announced Today

D. W. Nichol, minister of the Church of Christ, has announced a gospel meeting, which is to be conducted at the church from May 4 to May 13 inclusive.

C. C. Gobbel of Olney, a forceful preacher, will be in charge of the services, which will be conducted each morning from 10 to 10:45 and each evening from 8 to 9 o'clock.

Rev. Gobbel will bring Bible truths in the spirit of love and will have clear, forceful sermons at each service.

The public is extended a cordial invitation by the pastor and the entire membership of the church to attend as many of these services as they can.

Employment and Payrolls of State Have Improved

AUSTIN. — Employment conditions in Texas continue to show marked improvement over the corresponding period a year ago, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. For the week ending April 14, reports from 3,938 Texas establishments show a gain of 16.4 per cent in the number of workers employed and a rise of 15.5 per cent in payrolls in comparison with these same firms during the corresponding period last year.

An increase of 1.2 per cent in payrolls and less than 1 per cent in the number employed occurred in these establishments between March and April.

Cities in which the increase in the number employed was above the average in comparison with April, 1933, were: Port Arthur, San Angelo, Dallas, Austin, and Wichita Falls.

Spanish War Vets To Elect Delegates To State Convention

Members of Camp Sam McKinon of the Spanish American War veterans are to meet in Ranger Friday night for the purpose of electing four delegates to the state convention, which is to be held in Brownwood May 6, 7 and 8, it was announced today by R. H. Hansford.

All Spanish American war veterans have been urged to attend in order that they might vote on the delegates that will represent the camp at the convention next week.

Rhode Island Puts Ban On Nudists

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Roger Williams founded the colony of Rhode Island as a land of liberty, but the state apparently doesn't intend to interpret the founder's sentiments as a welcome to Nudists.

A bill passed by the senate would make nudism in any form a criminal offense.

It was prompted by reports that a nudist colony was about to be established on the shores of Narragansett Bay.

Spanish War Vets To Meet May 6th At Brownwood

(Special Correspondent)
BROWNWOOD, Texas, May 2. The thirty-fourth annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans will be held in this city May 6, 7 and 8. The largest attendance in the history of the department of Texas is anticipated according to reports from Department Commander Wayne C. Shearer of Sherman, who has informed the local committee of Joe Wheeler Camp that Commander in Chief William A. Armstrong of Racine, Wis., will attend the meeting. Chief Justice C. M. Cureton of Texas, member of the national legislative committee, will attend, as will Chief Justice Edward S. Matthews of the supreme court of Ohio. John C. Foley, department commander of the department of Arkansas will also attend. Dr. Luke B. Stephens of Paris will be here to hold the annual banquet of the Texas Roosevelt Rough Riders. Senator J. W. E. H. Beck of DeKalb and Senator W. E. Thomason of Nacogdoches are other distinguished veterans who will be in attendance. The remnant of the famous Thirty-third Volunteer Infantry that captured Aguinaldo will hold their annual banquet. Also the Twenty-third, Twenty-eighth, Forty-fourth and Forty-fourth Infantry, all classed as Texas regiments, will meet again, besides the First, Second, Third and Fourth Texas Infantries and the First Texas Cavalry of 1898 will hold annual banquets. The Thirty-third Infantry was commanded by the late Col. Luther Hare of Sherman, and the regiment is commonly referred to as the "Fighting Thirty-third," which, in some manner, was engaged in practically all of the major engagements in the Philippines, as was also the Twenty-third. Judge Edward Marsh of Eldorado, Ark., will be another distinguished visitor.

Joe Wheeler Camp of Brownwood is making preparations for a large gathering and entertainment has been provided on a big scale. Fort Worth probably will be in the race for convention city in 1935. The national convention meets in San Antonio in 1935, the first time such a national meeting will be held in Texas.

Disappearance of "Pretty Boy" Is Worry To Police

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—Oklahoma officers are speculating on the possibility that Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd may be trying to "go straight."

To feature such an event, the imagination would have to be stretched to the breaking point, and it is equally hard to believe he is dead, or so badly wounded he no longer can terrorize the southwest.

However, the southwest's "phantom desperado" has vanished completely from the observation of officers.

He has been reported seen several times, the latest only a few weeks ago by several Weatherford high school girls, who said he gave them a ride to school.

Late in 1932, Floyd had his last brush with officers when former Sheriff Ery Kelly, of Eufaula, was shot to death at Bixby. Kelly had dedicated himself to the capture of Floyd, and purchased a new machine gun in anticipation of a battle. It was reported Floyd was wounded when Kelly was killed.

In June, 1932, he was shot at Stonewall by C. M. Reber, ballistics expert of the state crime bureau.

Reports last year were that Floyd had been seen in his favorite haunts in the notorious Cookson hills of eastern Oklahoma, near death from his wounds and his once robust body wasting away.

He recovered somewhat, and two months ago was seen near Sallisaw, his home town, walking with the aid of a crutch and cane, officers report.

Since 1929, Floyd has been hunted like an animal. Three of his companions, including the notorious George Birdell, who was slain by a negro banker at Boley, have been shot down.

Some officers are inclined to believe Floyd may be trying to go straight. They point out he came from a respectable family, which moved from Georgia to the Cookson hills when Floyd was a child.

Government Deficit Is Below Budget

WASHINGTON, May 2. — The government deficit on April 30, with 10 months of the fiscal year elapsed, amounted to $3,334,444-123 or less than half of President Roosevelt's budget estimate for the entire fiscal year, the treasury reported today.

Morton Valley Junior Class Has Big Banquet At School Building

The junior class of Morton Valley gave their annual banquet honoring the seniors on April 18th at eight o'clock in the hall of the high school building.

The hall and table were decorated effectively in cowboy style, representing the last round-up. Deer horns, steer horns and guns adorned the walls. A miniature Texas steer and two small chuck wagons, surrounded by mesquite and cactus were used as center pieces.

Lewis Smith, principal of the school and sponsor of the junior class, acted as toast master. Marvin Tarver, junior class president, welcomed the seniors and guests. Ozelle Marlow, valedictorian and senior class president, responded. Odessa Peoples, salutatorian, gave a toast to the school, "Home on the Range," "The Last Round-Up," and "Auld Lang Syne," were sung, which completed the program.

The food was served in three courses by the sophomore girls. In the picture at the extreme end of the table is Mr. Lewis Smith. On the right, from the back to the front, are Marvin Tarver, Ina Mae Reik, Mrs. Sam Jones, Ozell Marlow, and Edward Sewell, not showing; Wayne Carter, Nannie A. Smith, Tina Wright, Tom Butler, Mrs. Nannie A. Smith, Mr. Sam Jones, Florence Davis, Inez Pickett, Mrs. Lewis Smith, not showing.

On the left, from back to front are: Horace Sneed, Sylvia Baggett, Edith Sneed, J. B. Baggett, Burton Tankersley, Imogene Cowan, Mintie Westfall, Odessa Peoples, Thelma Strum, Buster Maddening, Nona Diamond and Mrs. Zella Mae Butler.

J. A. Johnson, formerly of Abilene, has accepted a position as Chevrolet salesman, and is now connected with Anderson-Pruet, Inc., agents for Chevrolet automobiles in Ranger.

Mr. Johnson stated today that his family would move to Ranger as soon as the school year ends at Abilene.

The new salesman is no stranger in Ranger, having been here a number of years ago as a salesman in the Boston Store. In the past few years he has been a representative of the Hicks Tire and Rubber Company and was more recently in charge of the tire and accessory department of the Thornton department store of Abilene.

When interviewed today he stated that he was glad to be back in Ranger again and was glad to see so many of his old acquaintances. He has issued a special invitation to all his friends to visit him at his new location and renew the friendships.

He is already actively engaged in selling cars for the company, having assumed his duties this week.

Rev. Nicols of the Church of Christ preached the funeral, which was at the home.

Mrs. Mace Oylar Dies At Home In Thurber

Word was received Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Mace Oylar, about 60, who died at her home in Thurber after an illness that had lasted for about five years.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Tuesday afternoon at 3:30, with interment in the Davidson chapel cemetery.

7,000 POLICE ON LOOKOUT FOR MEETING

CHICAGO, May 3.—One of the west's most notorious outlaws today was reported to be rushing toward Chicago—his route marked by Wanton gunplay—to join forces with John Dillinger.

Clyde Barrow, the Texas terrorist, to whose bloody deprecation a half dozen lives has been charged, was believed headed for Dillinger's hideout here.

With him, it was reported, were Bonnie Parker, his cigar-smoking sweetheart, and another outlaw.

A "shoot to kill" army of 7,000 police and federal agents, realizing that a union of Dillinger and Barrow probably would spread more deaths in the wake of the Hoosier outlaw's manhandling, put new vigor in their search for Dillinger.

The officers' belief that Dillinger was in Chicago was based on the finding of his bullet-marked, blood-stained car on the North Side yesterday. There was proof it had been abandoned by the killer.

There also was speculation Dillinger might be near death or seriously wounded.

The theory that Barrow might head for Chicago to throw his lot with Dillinger's gang against the massed forces against the law unless headed off was supported by information in possession of the federal authorities.

Alvin Karpis and Arthur Barker have been identified as followers of Dillinger. Both also were members of the Barrow gang when it cut a swath of lawlessness through Oklahoma, Texas and the southwest.

Truck Load of Loot Found at Merriman

Eastland county officers and Ranger police recovered a truck load of automobile casings and inner tubes believed to have been stolen a short time ago from a filling station at Miles, Texas. The loot was found in a pasture near Merriman.

Two men were arrested and turned over to officers from Miles to face charges there in connection with the theft of the recovered loot.

McDonald Invited to Washington Dinner

Wm. N. McDonald, who was chairman of the President's Ball committee of Ranger last January, which staged the ball to secure funds for the Warm Springs Foundation, has received a letter from Henry L. Doherty, national chairman, inviting him to a reception in Washington May 9, at which time the check for the fund will be presented to President Roosevelt.

A formal dinner will be held at the Hotel Shoreham at 7 p. m., May 9, at which time the check will be presented to the president.

Two Good Events Are Scheduled On Elks Card Monday

Benny Wilson, who is well known in Ranger both as wrestler and promoter, will appear on the Elks card again next Monday night when he takes on Jimmie Murphy, tough grappler from Detroit, Mich. They will appear in one of the two main events on the card.

Low Kodrick, the sensational "little giant" from Austria, will meet Joe Fisher of San Angelo in the other finish bout.

These two wrestlers are among the best in their divisions in this section of the country and the two main events will bring together on one card four of the most outstanding wrestlers that can be obtained in any arena in the southwest.

Additional boxing and wrestling matches are to be secured before Monday and will be announced at a later date.

Sued Company For Shock Machine Injury

SPOKANE, Wash. — McCoy Owen sued an importing company for $2,600 after he sat on a bench in front of the company office and received a shock from a "shocking machine."

Owen claimed he dislocated a kidney and had a constant pain in his leg after being "juiced" in the trick chair.

Miss Grace Fuller, who turned on the current, testified there wasn't enough power to hurt a child.

"FAST BECOMING THE TENANTS OF THE BONDHOLDERS"

A statewide organization of taxpayers is known as the Industrial, Commercial and Agricultural conference of Texas. C. A. Jay is its executive vice president. "There is always hope for the taxpayer so long as the press continues to champion actively his cause," is one of the slogans of the Texas conference. Another slogan is: "If the control of the press should ever pass into the hands of the tax spenders the last hope of the taxpayers would vanish." Now the question asked is important to all Texans, "Do you want your taxes reduced?"

These facts or figures are passed on to the reading public: "Many Texas taxpayers are alarmed for fear the federal government is incurring debts it will be unable to pay; but they are utterly unconcerned about the larger problem which lies at their own doors. If the federal government immediately increases its public debt $10,000,000,000 to cover emergency relief and recovery expenditures, if you deduct from this debt the collateral loans to be made through the R. F. C. and other similar agencies, the credit position of the federal government at the end of this fiscal year will be approximately as good as it was at the end of the World War period. But state and local governments present an entirely different picture. At the end of the fiscal year 1933 the outstanding debt of the state and local governments was approximately $14,000,000,000 more than it was 20 years ago. Do you know that in the year 1933 state and local government in Texas expended 15 times as much as the federal government collected from Texas in income tax? Do you know that under the present organization there are 8466 different units of government in Texas with authority to levy taxes and incur public debts? These are some problems right at your own door which demand attention. At the rate we are going we are fast becoming the tenants of the bondholders.

This is the plan of action proposed by the conference: Every county in Texas should have a public expenditures committee with membership selected from the various taxing units in the county. It should be the duty of this committee of taxpayers to work with public officials in the county, the city and the school district to bring about economy in the expenditure of public funds. It should be the duty of this committee to see that every unit of government prepares a budget, holds a public hearing on it and lives up to it after it is adopted. "If you, Mr. Taxpayer, want economy in the expenditure of local funds, you can have it, but you have got to work for it."

Pass it along to all the candidates, major and minor, state and district and county and local who are appealing for the votes of Texans this year. Yes—"The Ballot is the thing."

MAYOR LAGUARDIA A PERSISTENT SEEKER FOR TROUBLE

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia, the Moses of the reformers of New York, is a persistent seeker of trouble and usually finds it. This is his latest: "Lawyers have done more to hinder the advance of civilization than cancer or small-pox." This fiery apostle of reform who has an international reputation will not be re-elected mayor of the greatest of American cities. A politician, a successful politician, should avoid vitriol and use vaseline.

Governor Wants to Leave Office with State Paying Cash

AUSTIN, May 3.—Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson's ambition to go out of office with the state restored to a cash basis will be realized, her husband-advisor predicted today in the Ferguson Forum.

"The present administration reduced appropriations $15,000,000," the Forum said. "Had the preceding administration not left to this administration a deficiency of about $19,000,000, the state would today be out of debt as a result of its policy of economy."

"However, at the end of this administration's fiscal year the state will be restored to a cash basis, but it will be almost impossible to leave much money in the treasury, as in former administrations, because of deficiencies inherited."

State Treasurer Charlie Lockhart placed the remaining state general fund deficiency at $4,940,125.

Cummings Appeals For Better Forces To Combat Crime

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Attorney General Homer S. Cummings appealed today for more men, armored automobile, radio facilities and more machine guns to capture such criminals as John Dillinger.

"Dillinger would have been trapped in Wisconsin," Cummings said, "if the department of justice was modernized."

Cummings said he wished 200 additional special agents, 70 accountants, some armored cars, a two-way radio system for communication among radio scout cars, machine guns, and certain types of rifles.

RICHARDSON CASE REVERSED BY THE COURT

AUSTIN, May 2.—The court of criminal appeals today reversed and remanded the case of Charles F. Richardson, sentenced to life imprisonment on a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of his son, Elga, Jan. 1, 1934.

"The record in its entirety leads inescapably to the conclusion that the appellant in this case had been prejudged," the court held after pointing out the widespread publicity given the slaying.

The high court held Richardson's trial could not have been fair because all the jurors had heard the slaying discussed previous to their hearing sworn testimony in the trial.

The court affirmed a year's sentence given Buster Harvel, Stephens county, on a charge of attempt to commit arson April 5, 1933, following a price feud between Breckenridge cleaners and pressers.

"Full Feeling" After Meals

Here is how Thedford's Black-Draught proved helpful to Mr. Archie W. Brown, of Fort Green, Fla.: "I have taken Black-Draught when I have felt dull from over-eating or eating too hurriedly," he writes. "Small doses right after meals rid me of gases and heavy feeling. I am a great believer in Black-Draught."

Sisters Are Together After 56 Years Apart

STEPHENVILLE, Texas.—Mrs. Annie Clack, 70, Stantonville, Tenn., and Mrs. Jasper Lee, 87, Stephenville, sisters, are together the first time in 56 years. Mrs. Clack is the youngest and Mrs. Lee the eldest in a family of eight sisters.

Mrs. Clack came here to visit her sister because Mrs. Lee has been ill for several months. They are becoming acquainted in the home of Mrs. Lee's daughter, Mrs. Frank Potet, who is past middle age.

Houston Home Loan Office Very Busy

HOUSTON, Tex.—More than four times as many loans per day are being closed by the Houston office of the Home Owners Loan Corporation than the average for the 200 offices of the nation, Manager Brady Steele has announced.

The office here set a new record for loans closed with 65 completed April 24 for 184,859.

To April 24 the Houston office had closed 2,548 loans amounting to 6,821,168 since it was opened last fall.

Lone Star Blocks Highway Building With Injunction

STRAWN, May 3.—Construction of State Highway 193 which was scheduled to begin this week has been indefinitely postponed because of a suit for injunction filed Monday by the Lone Star Gas Company. The suit was filed against the State Highway Commission and other officials to enjoin them from building this highway according to its present designation which crosses the property of the Lone Star Company just east of Gordon.

Possibility that this action may even cause the loss of this highway was expressed by members of the local highway committee today. The contract for grade and drainage was let several weeks ago by the Highway Commission and the contractor has been awaiting a work order before beginning actual construction. This work order will not be issued until the injunction suit filed by the Lone Star Company has been settled, according to the engineer in charge of construction.

If a long legal fight prevents the use of available funds in the building of this highway, other funds may not be available when the matter is settled and the opportunity of securing this valuable road may be gone, according to the local committee.

The injunction proceeding came as a surprise to those interested in the effort to secure this road. Negotiations with the Lone Star Company officials in Dallas in securing right of way led to a promise that a 100 foot right of way across this property would be donated, it was said. When deeds were prepared, officials of the company said that a 100 foot right of way was not available but that an 80 foot roadway would be donated provided the Highway Commission would accept it. This proposition was finally accepted by the district engineer of the state department but when the new deed was prepared, the company's representatives stated that no right of way would be granted unless court proceedings were instituted.

This led to a condemnation proceeding in the county court where special commissioners awarded damages to the company in the sum of $1036.40, from which the company has appealed.

The injunction application will be heard before District Judge Sam M. Russell in Palo Pinto, Saturday morning, May 5.

Hard Winter Hit Isle Royale Moose

LANSING, Mich.—Ravaged by hunger and bitter weather, the once great herd of moose on Isle Royale has been thinned near to extinction according to reports reaching the Michigan conservation department.

Returning from a winter flight to the densely wooded island in Lake Superior, Roland Pierson, Muskegon flier, and Russell J. McLaren, of Grand Rapids, reported seeing only two live moose. They said they counted nine dead animals and found but few tracks in the deep blanket of snow.

Hoiger Johnson, Chippewa Harbor fisherman, who has lived on the island 30 years, estimated that 90 per cent of the herd had died this winter. The herd has been estimated variously at from 300 to more than 1,000 animals.

Make stakes for beans and tomatoes of a good quality wood. Cedar is fine for this purpose, and will last years longer than ordinary soft wood stakes.

Every garden should have an herb garden. Plant sage for the beauty of its foliage as well as for its flavor. It is an excellent gray-leaved plant for the flower garden.

$10,000 REWARD

COSHOCTON, Ohio.—A poster offering 10,000 reward for the capture, dead or alive, of the James boys, Jesse and Frank, was discovered on the wall of a tumbled-down farm shack near here. The document, yellowed with 50 years, had been covered with wall paper, which, apparently, had helped preserve it.

New York should try to have Samuel Insull land there, rather than Boston, so as to give him a typical Broadway welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Stover and their son, Fred Stover, of Houston, drove down to DeLeon on business Thursday. Fred has a good position with the Humble Oil & Refining company at Houston. He came on Wednesday and left Friday just a short time before his brother, Rev. Sherrod Stover, came in from Fort Worth and on Saturday another brother, Carroll Stover, came from Wichita Falls and stayed until Monday. On Sunday, Sherrod preached at the Baptist church, both in the morning and at night in the place of Rev. Z. C. Chambless, who is holding a revival at Best, Texas. The night service was especially interesting, not only on account of the good sermon preached by this young preacher but on account of one of the congregation being Mrs. Louise Lookingbill, 91 years old, who is the grandmother of the preacher. "Grandma," as she is lovingly called by almost all who know her, has been a cripple many years and is seldom able to attend church.
Mrs. Roy Ashburn and Mrs. I. N. Williams drove up to Ranger on business Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alread and two small children visited at Gorman Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Bruce drove over to Gorman Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jake Graham spent the week-end at Comanche with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McEntire.
W. C. Kellum Sr., of Jonesboro, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. A. C. Robert and family Sunday. His other daughter, Mrs. Joe Thompson, her husband and baby, Joe Ann, came down from Ranger and spent the day with the Robert family. Mr. Kellum lived here several years and Mrs. Thompson was one of our most popular teachers and not only relatives but their many friends are always glad to see them.
The "21" Study club met Tuesday afternoon of last week at the clubhouse. On account of a threatening cloud and showers of rain the attendance was smaller than usual but some important business was transacted and the program was quite interesting. The program for Better Homes Day was led by Mrs. C. W. Maltby, who gave a description of spring cleaning at the white house during the Hoover administration. Mrs. Arnold Anderson read a splendid poem on "The Woman With the Hoe," a parody on Edwin Markham's "The Man With the Hoe." Mrs. Plummer Ashburn gave a very helpful discussion of "The Control of House Insect Pests." "In the Garden of Tomorrow" was beautifully rendered as a violin solo by Mrs. W. H. Davis with her daughter, Mrs. Aaron Henslee, accompanist. Those present were Mmes. Roy Ashburn, W. H. Davis, C. W. Maltby, Plummer Ashburn, W. C. Bedford, Mattie Henry, W. E. Barron, Arnold Anderson, Aaron Henslee, S. E. Snodgrass and A. C. Robert.

The W. M. U. of the First Baptist church met Monday at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Roy Rushing for a social. As the guests came they registered and wrote their favorite recipe, after which the book was presented to Mrs. Roy Rushing. After an hour of games the refreshments committee served a delicious plate lunch consisting of sandwiches, olives, cheese wafers, cake and ice tea. Those present were Mmes. G. W. Tate, W. B. Hilliard, D. B. Parks, S. T. Stover, Dewey Jones, D. D. Lewis, Louise Armstrong, H. H. Williams, R. A. Brown, S. J. Roberts, Wiley Powers, Ferrell Lewis, R. L. Black, Ellis Rouse, Rollie Acrea, Hugh Abel, and the hostess, Mrs. Roy Rushing.
Rev. Z. L. Howell and wife and their daughter, Miss Lois Howell, returned Monday afternoon from a visit of several days with two daughters at Greenville, two sons at Dallas, and other relatives in East Texas. They were called to Greenville by Rev. Howell to preach the funeral of an old friend.
B. H. Reynolds, R. O. Jackson, S. L. Murphy, and Buddy Knox, who have been here the past few weeks, pulling casing, spent Sunday at their homes in Breckenridge.
Officers of the Eastern Star chapter went to Ranger Wednesday afternoon to practice a march which they will put on at the school of instruction to be held there on Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Short and children left Thursday for their home on a ranch near Brady after a visit of several days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rouse. They were called here by the serious illness of Mrs. Short's brother, M. T. Rouse, who underwent a major operation at the West Texas Clinic and Hospital at Ranger on Monday of last week. His many friends are glad to know he was able to be brought home Sunday. The Shorts formerly lived here and still own their home and a farm here. Their many friends were glad to see them again.
The Methodist Missionary society met at the church Monday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the new president, Mrs. I. N. Williams. The devotional was led by Miss Mollie O'Rear, after which Mrs. Gifford Acrea presented a program on stewardship. The members were delighted to have Miss Nell Robert play a beautiful piano solo. Those present were Mmes. W. E. Barron, Gifford Acrea, Z. L. Howell, G. S. Bruce, S. E. Snodgrass, Tom Alread, W. C. Bedford, I. N. Williams, A. C. Robert and Miss Mollie O'Rear, and Miss Nell Robert.
John Hammond of Comanche came up Monday and took charge of the Sanitary Market so the owner, G. S. Bruce, could go on a fishing trip.

The Methodist W. M. S. held their dime social in the home of Mrs. W. T. Stubblefield Monday from 2:30 to 4:30. Opening song, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," led by Mrs. Ussery, with Mrs. Clyde Brymer at piano. Prayer by Mrs. Ussery. Scripture reading by Mrs. T. G. Jackson. Song, "Come Thou Almighty King," sung by Mrs. M. A. Walker. Poem, "It Can Be Done," read by Mrs. Lillie Boles. Contest games with two-minute talks, imaginary or real, given by each one present was quite an amusing feature of the pleasant event, which was enjoyed by 17 women who stood and sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." Each one left feeling the spirit of the song in their hearts, looking forward to greater work in the society.

F. R. McLellan, aged 58, died Saturday in a Denison hospital, where he had been since November. Mr. McLellan was the agent of the M-K-T railroad here for a number of years and attended to duty up to his going in November to the hospital. Carbon Trading company undertaker was called Saturday to bring the body to Carbon where his three children live, Mrs. Marvin Guy, Mrs. Cyrus Justice and one son, Jack McLellan, have the deepest sympathy of the entire town and communities. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Sunday at 4:30 p. m. by Rev. M. A. Walker, followed by burial in the local cemetery.
Carbon high school seniors enjoyed the Simmons university fete at Abilene Saturday.
Miss Gladys Palmer, teacher of home economics in Carbon school, in company with Mrs. J. L. Wilson went to San Antonio Thursday, taking the Carbon contestants who entered the home economics rally. Ruby Nell Bean for flower arrangement; Arlene Hines for select children's toys; Arleta Campbell for select play suits; Margaret Wilson for tailored dress. While the girls did not win any prizes, they expressed their thanks and appreciation of so wonderful trip and not the least discouraged in their work.
Irvin Boone and Dennis Allen were home last week from the CCC camp at Stephenville.
Mrs. W. F. Gilbert, who was visiting here last week, left for her home in Jayton Sunday. While here Mrs. Gilbert and her mother, Mrs. Stubblefield, visited Mrs. C. B. Braden in Stephenville.

Mrs. B. F. Lovett, who for several weeks has been visiting her daughters, Mrs. Jimmie Maness and Mrs. Clarice Battles of Overton, returned home Monday with Mmes. Maness and Battle, who will visit relatives here a few days.
Mrs. A. H. Harrison has as her guest her mother, Mrs. J. W. Kense of DeLeon, who will make her home with Mrs. Harrison and another daughter, Mrs. Rogers, who lives in DeLeon. Mr. Kense died April 9, which we regret to learn. Miss Loyce Rogers of DeLeon was visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. H. Harrison, last week.
Oshorn Burns and baby, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Carter and daughters, all of Okla.
Mr. Arvil Adams of this community has gone to Eastland to play baseball with the Eastland team.

Trade Ultimatum Delivered to Japan
LONDON, May 3.—Great Britain presented to Japan today what was understood to be a virtual commercial ultimatum in an effort to halt the encroachment of Japanese trade against the empire.
The Japanese ambassador and the commercial attaché of the embassy visited Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, at 4:30 p. m. Runciman was understood to have handed them a memorandum setting forth the British attitude.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL
And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral waters, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.
For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.
It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Oil Production In State 23 Per Cent Greater Than 1933

AUSTIN, Tex.—In considering the increased production of crude oil in the United States since the beginning of 1934, as compared with the production for the corresponding period in 1933, a few percentage figures may serve to give a more definite picture of what is happening in this part of the oil industry.

Elmer H. Johnson, regional economist in the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, pointed out in his monthly survey of the petroleum industry.

"The estimated daily average production of crude oil in this country for the week ending April 21, 1934 is almost 23 per cent greater than that for the week ending April 22, 1933," Mr. Johnson said. "This expansion of production is being paralleled by the greater activity that has become manifest in field operations and in field developments throughout the entire oil producing territory of the United States."

"This expansion of operations, and particularly the expansion in producing oil fields, is not uniform by any means. Texas, for instance, which has been furnishing for some month more than 40 per cent of the national production, was producing during the week ending April 21, 1934, almost 42 per cent of the total crude oil for the country; for the week ending April 22 a year ago this state was producing a little more than 36 per cent of the national output. Moreover, it is important to note that the daily average production of Texas is now 41.6 per cent greater than it was a year ago. Certainly this increase is one of vast significance to Texas as well as to the oil industry."

"Furthermore, in the week ending April 21, 1934, the three East Texas fields—Lathrop, Kilgore and Joiner—furnished more than 48 per cent of the entire Texas output. And it should be noted that the East Texas fields have increased their output by more than 158 per cent over that of a year ago."

Diabetics In Texas Should Be Cured

AUSTIN.—Diabetics should not die, and yet they do and more of them most every year, stated Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer, while speaking of the disease that is known as diabetes. The reason for most of these deaths is that the patient has not studied his disease.

Acid poisoning—diabetic coma—has been the diabetes greatest danger, but with the use of insulin it should now no longer occur. Coma comes because patients overeat and break their diet, and thus neglect to keep their urines free from sugar. Coma comes during acute infections, whether general, like pneumonia, tonsillitis, grip, or during local infections such as carbuncles and abscesses.

Another diabetic danger is gangrene which most commonly attacks the feet and often begins with injuries to the toes which become sore, because they were cut or bruised particularly when they were not clean. Diabetes is becoming more frequent because it is a disease chiefly of middle life and old age and today people are refusing to die young and so are living to die old. If one does not die of tuberculosis or diphtheria, it leaves more to die of diabetes and cancer, and hence the mortality from these diseases is rising. It is not contagious, it can be controlled by diet and insulin along with common sense and exercise, and if you have it you know you are in good company because so many famous people have had it too.

But if you don't want it, you stand a good chance of escaping it if in middle life you keep your weight at what the insurance companies with their weight tables and life tables have shown to be the best for longevity, namely a few pounds below the standard weight for age and height—in other words above 40 years of age be thin rather than fat.

Dams Will Give Work to 100,000

SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—Employment for more than 100,000 men would be provided in development of four dams in the White River Valley of the Missouri and the Arkansas Ozarks, under a bill introduced in Congress by Rep. John F. Miller, Arkansas, sponsor of the plan believe.

The vast development would dwarf work done in the Tennessee River Valley, according to Miller's backers.

The bill provides for flood control, reforestation, navigation, conservation of marginal lands, and industrial, agricultural and hydroelectric development.

Work could be started this month on the Table Rock Dam north of here in Taney County. The proposed dam would be 168 feet high and capable of generating 50,000 horsepower. It would cost about $20,000,000.

The other three dams in the Arkansas Ozarks could be constructed for $43,000,000 it was estimated. The largest of the three is the Wildcat Shoals project in Baxter and Marion counties. It would be 225 feet high and could develop 62,000 horsepower. The other two projected dams are on the Norfolk River, four miles above its outlet, and on the Buffalo River, two miles above the mouth of Rush Creek.

Cabbage and cauliflower plants should be transplanted in the cool part of the day. Late afternoon is a good time.

Make a sowing of corn every two weeks, so that you will have a constant supply at the height of its goodness.

Vegetables Keep Best In Garden

The garden is a better place to keep vegetables fresh than the refrigerator. The economy of a garden is seldom considered from this viewpoint but it is an important one. There is no waste from storage. The vegetables are kept at their best quality while growing. They may get over-matured if left too long in the soil but they keep where they grow, and only a quantity sufficient for a meal need be gathered, leaving the rest to remain in tip top condition for another day and another meal.

A garden saves a lot of room in the ice box and provides better quality vegetables than can possibly be gathered from the refrigerator or from the cold storage plant of the grocery. Home-grown vegetables do not suffer as do market supplies from wilt from being left in the sun and they are not passed through hands of whose cleanliness and sanitary condition there is grave suspicion.

Home-grown vegetables are cleaner, of best quality, and a real economy.

Clean spinach for the baby is the incentive for many a garden start. The wilted and sand-laden greens often on sale at the green grocers cannot compare with the fresh, crisp leaves that may be gathered in the back-yard patch from a nickel package of seed plus a little healthy exercise in the way of spading up space to plant it.

But proper diet for the baby is no more important than proper diet for the adult and although it is usual to treat a baby with more consideration than a grown-up when it comes to food, there is no good reason for doing so from a strictly hygienic standpoint.

Start a vegetable garden this year as a measure of health and economy. If it is no more than a spinach patch it is that much clear gain. Tomatoes may follow the spinach and two staples of the menu are provided for the season.

Try a row of cultivated mustard for greens. It is worth growing even if it sounds like a weed. Lots of leaf to it.

Changes Urged In Labor Laws

BATON ROUGE, La.—Ratification of the federal child labor amendment is included among seven bills that the Louisiana Department of Labor and Industrial Statistics will sponsor when the legislature convenes May 14, Commissioner E. L. Engerrand, head of the department announced today.

The recommendation suggests the following legislation changing existing laws or enacting new ones that deal with labor problems:

One—Ratification of the federal child labor amendment and prohibiting the employment of any child less than 16 years old in industrial pursuits.

Two—The creation of a state industrial insurance commission to enforce the workmen's compensation act, and possibly to have charge of compulsory compensation insurance.

Three—Legislation setting up a compulsory eight-hour day and 48-hour week for women in all lines of employment except domestic labor and farm help.

Four—To amend the compensation laws to provide an exact legal definition for the word "wages."

Five—Legislation to make it compulsory to report industrial accidents to the labor commissioner.

Six—Amendments to the existing labor department law to permit an increase in the number of inspectors and an additional appropriation sufficient for the maintenance of a state free labor bureau.

Seven—Amendments to strengthen the laws requiring employment on state and municipal public works to provide that every employe—except supervisors and office help—must be a bona fide citizen of Louisiana.

Kiddies Delighted With Comic Murals

PHILADELPHIA—Thanks to the GWA, the anesthetic room for children at Jefferson Hospital has become a place of youthful delight.

Paid with federal funds, Peter Protis, a mural painter, has covered the walls with comic sheet characters, and the ceiling with airplanes, birds and dirigibles.

There is Popeye, springing across the wall, and the Big Bad Wolf ready to blow away the home of the Three Little Pigs. Spark Plutz is kicking up his heels, and even little Orphan Annie smiles from a corner.

ON ELECTION BOARD FORTY-EIGHT YEARS

EUGENE, Oregon.—S. W. Harpole of the Goldson district near here sortied when he read of a Wisconsin man who claimed a record with 47 years service on an election board. Harpole declared he had served on the Goldson election board for 48 years, was clerk of the school district 37 years, and postmaster 22 years.

TRY A WANT-AD!

RANGER IN 1929

On Jan. 1, 1929, at a meeting of the county commissioners, in a stormy session, it was voted to have Eastland Hill paved. This was the last session at which Judge Ed. S. Pritchard presided, being relieved by Judge Clyde L. Garrett at the next session. The same day the Ranger schools reopened after the Christmas holidays, in spite of the fact that there had been a serious flu epidemic, which was abating.

Jan. 6 the Ranger banks reported deposits of $1,182,237.99. Jan. 9 the Morris tract gasser extended the gas pool at Frankell half a mile. The same day burglars robbed the Walker-Smith wholesale grocery warehouse, taking five cases of cigars, valued at $350. The next day Silliman Evans spoke before a joint meeting of the Lions and Rotary clubs, coming to Ranger by airplane and inspecting the Ranger airport.

Jan. 14 joy-riding car thieves were active. Three automobiles, stolen from Ranger citizens, were found the next day at widely separated points, out of gas, but undamaged. The next day a Mexican laborer was killed by a Texas & Pacific train at Tiffin. Jan. 16 the Texas Electric Service company announced a reduction in domestic and commercial rates.

A Bible-reading marathon was started at the First Methodist Church, with members of the congregation taking turns at reading the Bible. The start was made at 7:30 p. m. and readers relieved one another during the hours of the night.

Jan. 18 a parcel post cow-testing association was formed, whereby samples of milk mailed in would be tested. Jan. 20 it was announced the Strawn road from Blundell to the Hamon Kell tracks would be widened and improved. Jan. 20 Mrs. T. C. Weeks was severely burned when her clothing caught fire as she was standing in front of a gas heater at her home.

The first day of February two trainmen were injured when a freight engine and 16 freight cars left the track at Colony curve, between Ranger and Olden. Feb. 6 H. H. Hasha, alias Earl Renois, who had been captured when he robbed the narcotic case of the Paramount Pharmacy, Dec. 2, 1927, went on trial in federal court at Fort Worth.

Feb. 20 E. A. Ringold resigned as city tax collector and assessor. F. O. Dean, who was appointed to take his place, also resigned, his resignation being dated May 1. Feb. 26 it was believed that a gang of score robbers, including the gang that robbed Walker-Smith in January, was broken up when three men were arrested.

March 3 Dr. A. N. Harkrider was elected grand exalted ruler of the local Elks club; March 4 the A. & P. grocery store was robbed of between $600 and $900 in cash when thieves entered the building through a window which they broke open. March 6 John Fickenworth lost his leg when he fell under a Texas & Pacific train near the depot. He was riding a freight and fell under it when he left the train here. The next day Dawson C. Crabb was instantly killed when he was caught between a 12 inch main line gate and a concrete box and was crushed to death.

March 12 the Commercial State Bank was designated as the county depository and March 14 a company of Ranger stockholders took over the Fitecock gin, renaming it the Ranger Gin company. March 17 county officers shot a man who was alleged to have stolen an automobile from P. O. Hatley, principal of the Hodges Oak Park school.

March 21 the district Rotary convention met in Ranger and March 25 the Ranger Choral club won first place in the interscholastic girls glee club contests at Denton.

Third Man to Go On Trial For Murder

By United Press

LUFKIN, Texas.—Roy Crusack of Galveston will be tried here May 7 for murder in connection with the slaying of C. E. Canler, aged Zavalla resident who was beaten fatally at his home during a robbery.

Bernard LaCoume and Glenn Warren, both of Galveston, received death sentences for the Canler slaying at their trials here during the last term of court.

CHURCHES

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

L. B. Gray, Pastor
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; S. B. Baker, superintendent. On this first Sunday in May, should not everyone be in the Bible school, studying how to make the best life possible? Bring your children.

Morning worship, 11 a. m. Sermon by the newly installed pastor on "The Church for the Present." Let us make full-time a reality in our Christian service.

Evening worship, 7:45 p. m. "A Great Day in Capernaum," will be the pastor's theme.

Christian Endeavor, for all young people, 7 p. m., sharp. Herbert Rapp, president.

Session meeting for all elders and deacons, 2:30 p. m., Sunday. Ladies Auxiliary, Monday, at 3 p. m.

You are cordially invited to the Little White Church on the Hill for work and worship. We are starting on a new era, and the failure of any member to faithfully perform his part will diminish the success of this company of God's people by just that much. God has a right to expect every man to be in his place at the hours of worship.

OWNED GUN MADE IN 1250

SANDUSKY, O.—A carved gun, made in 1250 A. D., and found in an inmate of the county infirmary here, is in the keeping of Theodore A. Hilt, a hotel manager. The owner, who refuses to give his name to infirmary officials, says the weapon was handed down from generation to generation until it came into his possession. Hilt was asked to "keep" the gun, the owner explaining that although for a time he slept with it, he is afraid it will be stolen.

Women who take CARDUI have found that severe monthly pains have been relieved and that by continued use of it for a reasonable length of time their strength has been renewed and their general health improved.

"I am glad to speak a few words for Cardui, the medicine I have taken for a weak, run-down condition, for bad pain in my side and back and for irregular periods," writes Mrs. Roy Chandler, of Cusseta, Ala. "Cardui straightened me out and I felt 100 per cent better. It certainly helped me."
Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Cisco Man to Be West Texas Manager For Maury Hughes

CISCO, May 2.—Will St. John will leave shortly for Fort Worth where he will be in active charge of the west Texas part of the campaign for Maury Hughes for governor. St. John will be located at the Hughes West Texas headquarters in the Worth hotel.

St. John only recently returned from a tour of the Panhandle country where he said he found a strong sentiment for Hughes. Hughes opened his campaign in McKinney last Saturday.

Justice Peace Turns In His Excess Fees

HOUSTON, Tex.—Claims that he is the only justice of the peace in Texas who turned in excess fees earned in 1933 have been made here by Justice Campbell R. Overstreet.

He turned in 4,640.79 to the county in addition to his salary of 12,500. Justice Overstreet is second vice-president of the state Justice of the Peace and Constables Association. He made his claims after a survey.

Former Ranger Man Dies at His San Antonio Home

According to a telegram received by Sanford Dean today, C. R. Brock, died at his home at San Antonio this morning. The decedent formerly lived here for a number of years and many Ranger friends will be saddened to learn of his passing on.

Services are to be conducted at the Methodist church in San Antonio Friday afternoon, after which the body will be sent to Ranger, arriving here at 11:45 o'clock Saturday morning. Rev. J. W. Bond will be in charge of the service to be conducted at the local Methodist church immediately following the arrival of the deceased.

MANY GOLF FEES CUT

CINCINNATI.—Municipal golf course fees for 1934 have been slashed drastically here. Courses, heretofore, were operated on a profit plan, but rates were cut this year in order that public links might be continued. Fees of $15 for men and $10 for women have been approved.

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep...Vigor...Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. They should pour out thru the bladder 3 pints of fluid a day which contains 4 pounds of waste matter. If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This dangerous signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS — a doctor's prescription — which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes. Your common sense will tell you that this is impossible. Treatments of this nature may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS — the old reliable relief that contain no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

Theatres Have Outstanding Films For the Coming Week

A week of really outstanding screen entertainment has been announced beginning today by B. E. Garner, local city manager of the Arcadia and Columbia theatres which are operated by the Paschall-Texas interests. Carefully selected short subjects have been booked in addition to the feature films which make the entertainment complete in every detail.

The picture starting the week Friday is "Bottoms Up," featuring John Boles, Spencer Tracy and "Pat" Paterson. It is a story of a beauty contest winner who being brought to Hollywood was left stranded, and later with good luck and the help of three coniving rogues she finally gets into the studio and becomes a star. This is the latest musical hit of the year with John Boles taking the singing role and Spencer Tracy at his wisecracking best.

This picture contains four song numbers that promise to be hits. They are "Waiting at the Gate for Katy," "Turn on the Moon," "Little Did I Dream," and "I'm Throwin' My Love Away."

This picture is followed up by "Harold Teen," starting at the Arcadia Sunday. The film features Hal LeRoy, the famous tap dancer, who was taken from the Broadway stage to make this picture. Co-starring with LeRoy in this film is Rochelle Hudson, whom you will remember in "Mr. Skitch" and "Dr. Bull."

The short subjects on this bill include Ruth Etting in "Torch Tango," a 20-minute musical short. A Paramount News concludes the bill which plays at the Arcadia Sunday only.

The really big picture of the week comes to the Arcadia Monday and Tuesday when May Robson, Warren William and Glenda Farrell will be seen in "Lady for a Day." These three stars are supported by seven others making it a 10-star cast. Liberty gives this attraction four stars and says it is one of the outstanding pictures of the year. This already complete bill includes a Sterling Holloway comedy, "Born April First," and a Popeye cartoon, "Wild Elephinks."

Saturday, the Columbia shows the latest release of Jack Hoxie, "Outlaw Justice," which promises much fast shooting and hard riding. Another chapter of the Buck Jones serial, "Gordon of Ghost City," and a Betty Boop cartoon concludes the bill. Sunday, the Columbia is booked with "Be-loved," featuring John Boles who will be remembered for his splendid acting in "Only Yesterday." This feature is supported by a 20-minute comedy featuring Harry Langdon and a one-reel musical short subject.

Hal Le Roy Was Dancer at 4 Years

Having danced his way into the hearts of even the most blasé Broadway theater audiences, Hal Le Roy is proceeding to dance into the heart of America, through the medium of his first motion-picture starring role, in which he personifies that most engaging of all comic strip character "Harold Teen" in the Warner Bros. comedy smash which is soon to be shown here.

Le Roy is a remarkable young man. At an age when most boys are just beginning their careers, Hal Le Roy is already at the top of his profession. Still in his early twenties he has been a headliner in the Ziegfeld Follies—a distinction he achieved in the space of a year—a star in the Broadway musical sensation, "Strike Me Pink," and is now under contract to Warner Bros.

His motion picture success seems assured, as his performance as the star of "Harold Teen" found such favor that Warner production executives immediately cast him for an important role in "Wonder Bar" along with such established stars as Al Jolson, Dolores del Rio, Kay Francis, Ricardo Cortez and Dick Powell.

While Le Roy's rise seems sensational—from the time he was asked—a practically unknown dancer—to replace an actor suddenly taken ill, to be one of Ziegfeld's big stars, his success is due to unceasing work and preparation.

When the call came, Le Roy was ready to answer. From the age of four he had been dancing. His mother was his mentor and his teacher from the first. It was her long ambition to see her son grow up to be a successful theatrical star. She worked with him, planned for him, and schemed for him. She died without ever having seen him make her dreams come true.

"Without my mother I'd never have gotten anywhere," is Hal's tribute to her. "She made me practice, coached me and worked out dance routines for me."

ARCADIA GETS OUTSTANDING FILM MONDAY!

Odd Monikers Are The Real McCoy

Perhaps no queerer collection of character-names has ever been assembled in a motion picture than those in "Lady For A Day," the Columbia comedy-drama coming to the Arcadia Theatre. This is from the famous story by Damon Runyon.

"Apple Annie" is the central figure in the photoplay. She is an aged personage who vends her wares on the Great White Way. Among her friends is "Dave the Dude," ace gambler of the region. Dude's handy-men include "Shakespeare," a dumb egg; "Happy," his secretary; "Cheesequake," "Weasel," "Mallethead," "Harry the Horse," "Steamboat Jackson," "Mexicali Mike," "Smiley Rogan," "Downtown" and "Steak-o-Wheats."

"They're odd names, yes—but they are not inventions," said Runyon, discussing his story. "I have known characters bearing those monikers, and many others just as queer, along Broadway or at the racetracks or gambling joints."

"Their last names? I wouldn't know a one of them! And I don't believe a single individual in a group such as I have portrayed would know the family handle of a single other individual. One tag, if it's picturesque enough, is always sufficient for these gentry."

Prominent Men to Attend Reserve Officers Banquet

The program of the Oil Belt chapter, Reserve Officers Association of the United States, which is to be given in the form of a dinner dance in the Colonial ballroom of the Gholson Hotel in Ranger on the evening of Friday, May 11, calls for several prominent visitors from out of the city.

Lieutenant W. J. Danforth, district governor of Lions International, will be one of the speakers of the occasion. Capt. C. C. Patterson, convention manager of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, former secretary of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce and president-elect of the Reserve Officers Association of the state of Texas will be present and formally present the charter to the chapter. Major J. Stuart Pearce of Cisco, chaplain of the Department of Texas, will likewise have a part on the program.

Other guests will include Captain Samusson, unit instructor of the organized reserves from Fort Worth; Major George M. Bostock of Dallas, and the guest of honor, Colonel Frederick R. DeFuniak, chief of staff of the 90th division from San Antonio. Invitations have likewise been directed to General John J. Hulen, commander of the 36th division, and Major General Johnson Hagood, commanding the Third United States Army.

It is estimated by the invitation committee that approximately 150 guests will be present upon this occasion, including some thirty-five of forty reserve officers and their ladies. A splendid program has been arranged by the committee, which includes among other things, several specialty acts by visiting artists.

Second Largest Telescope Being Built For Texas

AUSTIN.—With respect to studying the physical nature of the heavenly bodies, the McDonald Observatory of the University of Texas, now being constructed on Mt. Locke in the Davis Mountains of West Texas, will occupy an outstanding position in the astronomical world. Its 80-inch telescope will rank second in size to the 100-inch glass of the Mt. Wilson Observatory in California.

Dr. Otto Struve, director of the Yerkes Observatory of the University of Chicago, said that the McDonald Observatory telescope will be as powerful as the Mt. Wilson telescope for the photographing of nebulae and distant universes. In this connection it is interesting to note that through a co-operative arrangement the McDonald Observatory will be operated by a staff of scientists from the Yerkes Observatory, including Dr. Struve as director.

It was largely through the personal investigation by Dr. Struve that the site on Mt. Locke, about 50 miles from Alpine and 10 miles from Fort Davis, was selected. The establishment of this observatory comes through the generosity and interest in astronomical science of the late W. J. McDonald of Paris, Texas. He bequeathed to the University for this purpose a fund which is now approximately $1,000,000.

To Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president of the University of Texas, the project is of the deepest interest, and he has been devoting much thought and time to directing the work of making the observatory a reality. Dr. Benedict took his doctor's degree in mathematical astronomy at Harvard University and taught astronomy at the University of Texas from 1899 to 1927. He conducted the negotiations with President R. M. Hutchins of the University of Chicago, and Director Struve, by which the two institutions during a period of 30 years will pool their resources for the development of astronomical research.

KEEP YOUR HUSBAND contented at home

Kelvinator will help

Men, we've noticed, are pretty particular when it comes to anything about the house that they want to use. There's the matter of refrigeration — running short of ice cubes at just the wrong time — or of there being insufficient food for a "snack" when the "boys" drop in. You won't have those troubles with the 20th Anniversary Kelvinator because there is large food storage capacity and, when it comes to ice cube production, it's the most efficient that you've ever seen. And those are only two of its fine qualities. We suggest that you come in and let us demonstrate. It's easily the finest electric refrigerator on the market to-day. (K-1985-A)

MARCH DEPARTMENT STORE SALES IN TEXAS CITIES NOW SHOWING A BIG INCREASE

DALLAS, April 30.—Stimulated in part by pre-Easter buying, the March sales of department stores in large cities were 38 per cent larger than in February and exceeded those of the corresponding month last year by 58 per cent, according to the monthly business review of the 11th federal reserve district.

In connection with the heavy increase scored over the month of March, 1933, attention was called for due allowance which should be made for the effect of the bank holiday on that month's retail trade activity.

Heavy and widespread rains, which materially improved conditions in agricultural and livestock industries throughout the district, were other outstanding developments in the review.

In the wholesale trade, a substantial demand for merchandise was in evidence. The increase exceeded the previous month, and that of March, 1933, by a wide margin.

Although a stronger demand was visible in some parts of the district than in others, a general undertone of confidence appeared to be maintained, the review said. Prices were steady in most lines during the greater part of the month. However, a seasonal recession of 3.0 per cent in sales was reported by wholesale dry goods firms.

Contrary to the usual upward tendency in March, the demand for groceries at wholesale last month was decreased by 4.2 per cent as compared with February. The volume of distribution was only 13.5 per cent larger than in the corresponding month last year, whereas in the preceding month there was a similar increase of 40.7 per cent.

Collections were reported well sustained during the month.

Agricultural and livestock prospects were bettered as a result of the general rains in March and the first half of April. However, in much of the West and Northwest Texas sections there is still a deficiency in moisture due to the effects of the prolonged drought.

In the eastern half of the district, spring planting operations have been retarded by the wet soil resulting from frequent rains, the report said.

Small grains were reported showing considerable improvement due to favorable temperatures and better moisture conditions.

Condition of the Texas crop was reported at 62 per cent of normal as compared with 50 per cent a year ago. In heavy producing sections of northwest Texas the crop condition was reported somewhat spotted due to moisture deficiency. Planting of corn is nearing completion in most sections of the district, the review stated.

Commercial vegetable crops suffered from the effect of adverse weather conditions during March, and there was too much moisture for the best progress of most crops.

Range prospects in all sections of the district were improved, stimulated by favorable temperatures and plenty of moisture. Livestock came through the winter in fairly good condition and reports indicated the stock was taking on flesh. The report said Texas lamb crop would be below normal. The condition of early lambs is poor and losses have been heavy during the winter. The report placed the condition of Texas ranges at 74 per cent of normal as compared with 81 per cent a year ago.

Receipts of cattle at the Fort Worth market during the month were larger than in either the previous month or the corresponding month last year. The receipts of hogs and sheep were moderately larger.

A slight though gradual increase in member bank borrowings at the Federal Reserve Bank was noted during the month. Debits to individual accounts during March at banks in this district totaled $554,766,000, as against $513,474,000 the previous month, and $356,697,000 a year ago.

Cotton consumption for textile mills in Texas was on a slightly lower level than a month earlier, the review said.

Crude oil produced in this district during March aggregated 31,775,000 barrels, which compares with 27,384,000 barrels in February, and 29,773,000 barrels in March a year ago. The output of Texas fields during March averaged 995,500 barrels, being 47,250 barrels larger in excess of the daily yield during February, and 64,000 barrels larger than of the same month last year.

Construction activity reflected a considerable improvement. Valuation of building permits issued at 14 leading cities in the district during March amounted to $988,507, as compared with $966,642 in the previous month, and $946,341 in the corresponding month last year.

Reserve Officers Planning Social Function In Ranger

Plans are under way by the Oil Belt Chapter, Reserve Officers Association, for their first annual get-acquainted party in the form of a dinner-dance to be held in the Colonial ball room of the Gholsion Hotel in Ranger on the evening of Friday, May 11th.

Arrangements under the direction of Capt. Wayne C. Hickey of Ranger, Majors R. A. Larner of Eastland and J. S. Pearce of Cisco call for a banquet at the beginning of the program and a well arranged and informal dance following.

Dr. W. J. Danforth of Fort Worth, prominent after dinner speaker, who is very active in the ranks of reserve officers, district governor of Lions International, Spicy and wholesome entertainment features will also have a prominent part on the program.

After the banquet, entertainment in the form of dancing, bridge and other games will be provided to serve the individual tastes of the guests. According to the program committee, nothing will be left undone to make this a most pleasant and worthwhile affair.

For all reserve and former officers of the United States army, navy and Marine corps and their ladies, and also friends of the reserve officers who are residing in the Oil Belt.

Blanton Advises Loan Applications Must Be In April 15

In a telegram received from Thomas L. Blanton, congressman for this, the seventeenth district, Mr. Blanton asks that all farmers be advised that applications for emergency crop loans must be received by the farm credit administration before May 15.

This is in keeping with instructions sent Milton Newman, chairman of the Eastland county committee, by Charles W. Sherrill, regional manager for Texas, for emergency crop loans.

No Dairy Reduction Contracts Planned

County Agent J. C. Patterson has received official notice that there will be no dairy reduction contracts and no peanut reduction contracts.

He has also received definite information that there will be no payment on cotton reduction contracts before sometime in June.

ROAD RELIEF WORK IS STILL BEING BLOCKED

AUSTIN, May 1.—Texas' quest for an $8,900,000 emergency road relief fund for drought and hurricane-stricken counties, was still blocked by conflicting federal, state and highway requirements today.

State Relief Director Marie Dresden said she had received no instructions from Washington to unravel the tangle. Reports said Col. Lawrence Westbrook, now in Washington, was sending such instructions.

The impasse comes over the amount of money that may be spent for materials. The PWA has made an allotment to supply material cost up to 30 per cent of the total cost of the project. Only 10 per cent of state funds can be used for materials under the Texas relief act. Together they provide 40 per cent.

Miss Dresden said she saw only two possible ways out of the tangle: development of projects that will not require more than 40 per cent of the funds for materials, or a change in the limitations now put on material expenditures.

Co. Administrator Explains Why Bill Not Paid Promptly

Eastland county merchants having accounts to be paid through the Eastland county relief organization are asked by H. E. Driscoll, county relief administrator, to be patient if they are not paid as promptly as heretofore.

Mr. Driscoll explains that on April 20 he went to Austin and secured a grant for $5,000 with which to pay these accounts, but in making out the check the state treasurer made it out and certified it to H. E. Driscoll, chairman Eastland county relief board, and since Mr. Driscoll is not chairman of the relief board the check had to be returned for correction before it could be cashed and for this reason the payment on merchants claims have been temporarily delayed.

Armon Shannon Refuses Stage Offer

AUSTIN, Tex.—Armon C. Shannon, young son of R. G. (Boss) Shannon, paroled when others indicted in the Urschel kidnaping were sentenced, has turned down an offer to appear in a show and is now farming.

The youth was paroled to M. W. Burch, Decatur, chief of legal investigations of the Texas Highway Commission. Burch has sent Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaughn the first of the semi-annual parole reports he will make on Armon's conduct.

He has a crop of 55 acres in cotton, corn and sorghum. Besides, he raises a truck crop for home consumption and sale. His father sends him $15 a month. Of this $7 goes for groceries and $8 for stock feed.

Armon recently engaged in a fight, Burch faithfully reported to the federal judge, but it was with outsiders who were attempting to manufacture beer on Boss Shannon's place.

"A few weeks ago," Burch reported, "some traveling road show offered Armon a job and before giving them his answer, he wrote for my advice. As a result, he did not join the company but remained on his farm with his family."

Burch said he believes young Shannon is trying to profit by his mistakes and become a good citizen in his community.

C.W. Blacklock Is New Owner Ranger Feed Grinding Mill

C. W. Blacklock, who recently sold the wholesale Magnolia agency to J. E. Meroney, has purchased the Ranger Feed & Grinding company, next door to the Exide Battery shop on South Commerce street and has taken over active charge of the business.

Mr. Blacklock stated today that he was going to remodel and put in a first class feed and seed store. He will have a large line of garden and field seed at all times and will have a complete line of feed for all purposes.

He invites his many friends in Ranger to call on him at his new location and to see him when in need of seeds of any kind or ground feed.

Extensive Changes In Oil, Gas Setup

CISCO, May 1.—Extensive changes in the set-up of the oil and gas division of the Texas railroad commission go into effect today, it was learned here.

Locally, the re-organization ordered by R. D. Parker, chief executive officer of the division, means combining supervision of the Eastland conservation district with that of the west central Texas proration district in the hands of Omar Burkett has been in charge of the latter work for many months. He will continue headquarters at Eastland.

Haskell, Throckmorton and Young counties will be detached from the west central Texas proration district and attached to the north Texas area, with headquarters at Wichita Falls. No counties are to be added to the west central area.

Brown, Coleman and Runnels counties, now with the Abilene conservation district, will be joined to the San Angelo district. Callahan county, now in the Olney conservation area, will be attached to the Eastland conservation district. The remainder of the Olney conservation district will be joined to the Wichita Falls conservation administration.

Burkett, including both proration and conservation duties, will have supervision over a total of 29 counties.

Oil Field Workers To Meet on Friday

A mass meeting of oil field, gas well and refinery workers has been called for Wednesday night, May 2, at the Odd Fellows Hall in Ranger. The meeting will start at 8:30.

G. H. Runyon, international representative of the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America, will be the principal speaker at the meeting.

The meeting has been called by Ranger Local No. 225.

Test Tube Babies Cause Comment

NEW YORK, May 1.—Childless married couples and young men sought information today regarding New York's test tube babies and doctors discussed the possibility of a laboratory to further the practice of artificial impregnation.

The interest was aroused yesterday by disclosure that a dozen test-tube babies live in New York. A proposal for a clinic, it was learned, was placed before the marriage consultation center of the community church several months ago and met with the support of at least one of its medical directors.

Dr. Frances Seymour, woman specialist, who has brought 13 test tube babies into the world in the past two years, also approved the idea.

New Cotton Blight Found In Arizona

WASHINGTON.—After years of rigid quarantine restrictions designed to keep the boll weevil of the southern states out of the cotton regions of Arizona, entomologists of the Department of Agriculture announce the discovery in that state of a "brother" of the planter's nemesis.

The weevil of Arizona is so closely related to the boll weevil, it is reported, that only experts can differentiate between the two.

Before the new insect's attack upon Arizona cotton and its subsequent discovery, entomologists found that it had lived upon the Thurberia plant—a woody shrub of the southwest which, bears pods resembling cotton bolls.

Insect experts say this newly discovered weevil is a double menace in that it may invade a cotton territory free from the boll weevil or possibly inter-breed with the boll weevil to produce a hybrid more injurious to cotton than either parent.

Border Patrol to Have Armored Cars

JUAREZ, Mex.—Mexican customs guards along the Rio Grande in the future will travel in machine gun equipped armored cars, Alejandro Bernal, customs chief, has announced.

Four cars were ordered to protect guards in combat against border smugglers.

Foils Kidnapers, Frees Victim

Two kidnapers are in jail because Mrs. Dock McKee, shown above, ready for action, marched out of her husband's filling station at Winfield, Texas, put the gangsters to rout with her gun, and then freed Charles Kella, Fort Worth, after she heard him beating on the rattle seat where he was imprisoned. A posse later captured the pair.

Governors' Powers Strictly Limited

AUSTON.—A governor may be the "chief executive" in name but has surprisingly little to do with the actual running of state affairs, it was brought out in recent court arguments here.

It was during trial of the quo warranto suit over who is entitled to sit as a state relief commissioner. The President's power to remove at will was cited. Then it was pointed out that there is a wide difference in the federal and state set-up.

The President is really a "chief executive." Federal departments are directed by officials whom he names as cabinet members. In Texas the governor directs little. Elected officials head most of the departments. An elected board controls railroads, oil and gas. Elected officials are not subject to the governor's direction.

In fact, except for the pardon power, right to convene the legislature, right to veto its acts, right to issue deficiency appropriations and will some vacancies, a governor has little to do.

Building Permits Holding Their Own

AUSTIN, Tex.—Total building permits during March as reported by the secretaries of the chambers of commerce in 35 Texas cities were $1,243,000, against $893,000 for the same cities in February and $1,248,000 in March, 1933, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. During the first quarter permits aggregated $3,139,000 against $3,228,000 during the corresponding period last year.

These data relate to private construction and do not include projects under the Federal relief program.

Red Cross Aids the Victims of Cyclone

W. C. Hickey, representative of the Red Cross in Ranger, today received $30 in checks for relief of those whose property and homes were damaged in the cyclone at Cross Roads recently.

These checks were being distributed today to those who were deemed as needing relief by the Red Cross.

LEARNED ENGLISH QUICKLY PAINESVILLE, Ohio.—Joaquin Carranza, the 11-year-old nephew of Senorita Mathilde Carranza, assistant professor of Spanish in Lake Erie college here, came to the United States at the beginning of the present school year. In those eight months, he has acquired a working knowledge of the English language and has been promoted from the first grade to the fourth, then later, to the fifth.

Dave Jones Dies at His Home In Gordon

Word was received in Ranger Tuesday of the death of Dave Jones of Gordon, who died at his home Monday after a long illness.

Details concerning his death and burial were scarce, but it was stated the funeral would be held in Gordon Tuesday afternoon at 2:30.

The decedent had been a resident of the Gordon community for a number of years and was well known throughout that section of the country.

ONE SEVERELY WOUNDED AND SEVERAL HURT

LAKE CHARLES, La., May 1.—Shots rang out here today in the strike of 4,000 Texas and Louisiana dock workers, leaving one man critically wounded here and several others injured.

A free-for-all fight followed an attempt of non-members to break up a meeting of 300 members of the International Longshoremen's association.

Murphy Mumfrey, union member, was shot in the head and rushed to a hospital in critical condition.

Fifteen shots were fired during the battle, officials said.

Lake Charles is the only Louisiana port affected by the strike.

MORE THAN 50% LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE in the NEW Firestone HIGH SPEED TIRE FOR 1934

The new Firestone High Speed Tire for 1934 is the greatest tire Firestone has ever built. With its wider, flatter tread, greater thickness, deeper non-skid, more and tougher rubber, and greater non-skid contact with the road, you get more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

This new development is made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping, whereby the cotton fibers inside the high-stretch cords are soaked and coated with pure liquid rubber. This provides greater strength, safety and blowout protection.

Firestone engineers pioneered and developed the first successful balloon tire in 1923, and it is only natural that Firestone would lead in the further development of tire construction to meet the demands of the high-powered high-speed cars of today.

The new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934, have already proved their worth by constant testing on the Firestone fleet of test cars over all kinds of roads and highways throughout the United States.

Firestone High Speed Tires are further subjected to the most severe tests known on the greatest proving ground in the world—the Indianapolis Speedway. In fact, Firestone Tires have been on the winning cars in the annual 500-Mile Indianapolis Race for fourteen consecutive years—conclusive evidence of Firestone's outstanding leadership in tire development and construction.

OLDEN

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Olden High school Junior-Senior banquet, held in the roof garden of the Connellee hotel in Eastland, Thursday night, April 26, was one of the prettiest and most appreciated affairs of the season. The three tables including two arranged parallel and seating 18 couples each, and the speakers table seating six were decorated in a color scheme of black and white and gold. Black and white being the senior colors and black and gold the high school colors. On the center of each table stood a French doll about 20 inches tall dressed in black cap and gown and holding a diploma tied in black and gold. Around the hem of her gown yellow roses twined, and a graceful spray of fern and yellow roses extended in gentle curves from the center to each end of the tables. Place cards were small baskets of yellow roses with gold wrapped handles, the gold bow at the top holding the name cards. Favors were black caps with yellow candies on gold lace dollies. Programs were in black etching on white and with the silhouette in black of a lady in cap and gown. Judge Hickman, the guest of honor, Mrs. Hickman, Superintendent Collins, Mrs. Collins, Thompson Pickens and A. B. Gibson sat at the speaker's table. Judge Hickman made an excellent talk which was greatly appreciated and enjoyed. A. C. Gibson, president of the junior class and toastmaster, introduced the speaker and called on various ones for toasts. The program was as follows: Invocation, S. J. Smith; "The Flowers," A. C. Gibson; "The Birds," Sidney Suplever; "The Garden," Superintendent Collins; "The Gardener," Thompson Pickens; song, "An Old Fashioned Garden," ensemble; address, Judge Hickman; remarks, Freshmen, Sophomores and visitors; prayer, Clyde Hunter. A lovely three-course dinner was served consisting of half Texas grape fruit supreme, celery hearts, broiled minnet sirloin steak maitre d'hotel, new peas in butter, baked potatoes, head lettuce and tomato salad with thousand island dressing, strawberry sundae and coffee. Weekly Sunday School Lesson

Jesus Acclaimed as King

Text: Matt. 21:1-46
The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for May 6.

BY WM. E. GILROY, D. D., Editor of Advance

The triumphal entry into Jerusalem has become celebrated in Palm Sunday. Our thoughts have been given to this recently, so that we come to the study of this lesson with the preparation of the Lenten season.

The description of the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem seems to have a unique place in the Gospel story. We find Jesus on different occasions seeking refuge from the opposition and the persecuting spirit of the multitude.

We find him, for the most part, avoiding the thronged public places, giving his greatest teachings to individuals and to small groups as he wanders through the fields, as he sits by the side of the well, or as he reclines in some home where he has been invited to supper.

In many of his public appearances we see him confronted with opposition and denunciation. A few days after the events described in our lesson, we see him in a very different procession, to the Cross, being spat upon and reviled as he walks under its burden.

How does it come in our lesson, therefore, that we have this contrasted incident? Here, as he rides toward Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, the people cast their garments in the way and throw palm branches in his path, crying, "Hosanna, blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."

We can hardly account for the changing scenes, but the contrast is one that has been by no means lacking in other periods of history and in the lives of great leaders and teachers.

History records so many cases where the man who has the plaudits of the throng today is suffering of the guests remained for dancing until 12 o'clock.

Those attending the banquet were Judge Hickman, Mrs. Hickman, Superintendent Collins, Mrs. Collins, Thompson Pickens, Maxine Henderson, S. J. Smith, Mrs. S. J. Smith, Eunice Hamilton, Fred Certz, President of Olden school board, Mrs. Gertz, C. I. Hyatt, Mrs. C. I. Hyatt; seniors, Sidney Suplever, Ruby Curry, Hazel Hunter, Mildred Kirby, Hazel Woods, Mary Ford, Catherine Stanton, Roy Britt, Mary Lillie Young, D. M. Collins, Earl Connell; juniors, A. C. Gibson, Frances Hunter, Elzo Gullett, Lena Norton, James Robertson, Elmerle Stanford, Lamar Whizevant, Vernon Patterson, Mary Louise Wilson, Elizabeth Everett, Eloise Morton, Arlean Belcher and Frances Edwards. Sophomores elected by their class to represent the class at the banquet, Jean Adams and Howard Adams; representatives of the freshman class, Helen Adams and G. W. Curry.

Chas Sertzer of Dewey, Okla., and John Sertzer of Cisco stopped in Olden to visit L. V. Ford Wednesday. They were on route to their leases in the East Texas oil fields.

Members of the Olden High school senior class went to Abilene Saturday to attend the basket dinner and program given by Simmons college for visiting senior classes from surrounding towns.

Maxine Henderson presented her pupils in musical recital Tuesday night at the Methodist church.

the violence of the mob tomorrow, or the man who is acclaimed as the very savior of his nation today was harried and driven by the mob but a few years earlier.

In our own day we have seen a rather notable example in the rise to power in England, during the war period, of David Lloyd George, although in another war, the war of England against the Boers, Lloyd George was the object of the vengeance of a mob, which threatened even to hang him.

PROBABLY the chief teaching of this lesson arises out of this contrast and its emphasis upon the instability of the mob. The greatest need of the man who would discern true values, and who would always see things aright, is to get that sense of discriminating judgment that is not swayed merely by outward events or by inward passions and emotions.

When we can observe some man who is subject to abuse and contumely, and can find in him some element of goodness that bigotry and prejudice have failed to see, we have put reason above the sway of passion and ignoble influence, and have come into the realm of moral values.

It is not so easy to attain this as would appear on the surface. It is, in fact, the hardest way of life, and it demands life's sternest and supreme discipline. Fortunately we have the discipline and the power of Christ to help us attain to spiritual discernment.

The man who is truly of the Christian spirit brings to life a sort of touchstone, in which the spirit of Christ in others is revealed. He can see in the prophet who is spurned and denounced and persecuted the true man of God, if God indeed be there.

It is easy to throw our palm branches in the way, but it is more difficult in the hour of Calvary to be able to discern the living Christ in the dying victim of human cruelty.

A large crowd attended and reported an excellent entertainment.

Mrs. Dick Canafax who visited in Millsap the first of the week returned Wednesday.

Mrs. Gorman Morton, Mrs. Carl Crone, Mrs. Henry Collins and Olive Stephens were Eastland visitors Thursday afternoon, arranging the table decorations for the junior-senior banquet at the Connellee hotel.

SCOUTS BUILD CABINS

KLAMAZOO, Mich.—Kalamazoo Boy Scouts have turned time backward about 100 years in the construction of eight troop cabins patterned after the pioneer type of wilderness shelter. All cabins will be erected to look as rustic as possible. To emphasize the pioneer effect, many of the buildings will be equipped with doors of the "latch-string" type. Whenever possible, old-fashioned tools will be used to help the necessary lumber from solid timber. Work will be supervised by the boys' fathers.

JAN. 14 HICCUGHS STOPPED SPRINGFIELD, O.—Hiccoughs which had weakened Dorothy Floyd, 18, since they first seized her Jan. 14, finally stopped recently. Physicians, unable to diagnose the cause of the attacks, were uncertain whether her relief would be permanent.

Revision of School Curriculum Is Task Of Many Teachers

HOUSTON.—Revision of high school curriculum to prepare children for a world in which leisure will be a major consideration is the task before educators, according to Dr. Edison Ellsworth Oberholtzer, new president of the department of superintendence of National Education association.

Dr. Oberholtzer, superintendent of Houston schools for the past 10 years, looks upon his election to the highest office of N. E. A. with great concern.

Pioneering has past, he said, and it will be the duty of high schools to prepare children for wise use of the leisure time that will become such an important part in living.

Public school training may be lengthened, Oberholtzer ventured, to meet the new economic situation. Thus educated men and women would enter the field of competitive business much later and be in it a shorter time, taking several years from social readjustment to leisure time.

"It will be more and more our high responsibility to help prepare the future men and women for this new world of labor and leisure, with the latter taking more and more time," Dr. Oberholtzer said. "We need culture more than ever."

He believes children should be trained to think more in terms of helpful work for the common social good and less in terms of material success.

Necessary as this change is, he said, those who make the new school program are "betwixt the devil and the deep blue sea." On the one hand is the need for the new curriculum to adjust children to the new world of greater leisure, and on the other hand is an economic pressure demanding curtailment of the very activities introduced to meet the social demand.

Dr. Oberholtzer has two courses for high school students here. One is for those who plan to continue their education at institutions of higher learning. The other is for those who will end their training with a high school diploma. The latter is a general course, designed to round out an education as nearly as possible during the four years.

But, he said, in face of the fact that only 50 of every 1,000 high school graduates ever enter college it is difficult to induce students to take the general course offered. Parents must become aware, he declared, of their changing conditions and of the new world into which their children will be turned.

Cabinet Closeups

CLAUDE A. SWANSON, Secretary of the Navy

By WILLIS THORNTON

NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON.—The secretary of the navy, in these modern days, needn't be personally a sailor, for the navy, like the army, has aspects of big business that are not less important than going to sea.

Secretary Swanson, though not a sailor, has always had an interest in the navy, as all good Virginians have. The great base at Hampton Roads makes naval affairs a home problem to Virginia.

And when you rise through the House of Representatives to the governorship and into the Senate in Virginia politics, you know something of naval affairs, especially if you add long service on the naval affairs committee, as Swanson did.

Little time need be devoted to the regular extra assignment to the Smithsonian Institution and the Arlington Memorial Amphitheater Commission, but the navy secretary's assignment to the Council of National Defense and the Executive Council entails more definite responsibilities.

In these days of oil-burning ships, it is natural that the navy's civilian head should be a member of the Federal Oil Conservation Board.

Two dependencies, Guam and American Samoa, which are navy-administered, fall under the secretary's jurisdiction; as do the Naval Observatory and the Hydrographic

Office, which makes maps and surveys which aid navigation.

Perhaps even more than the army, because of its great mass of expensive equipment, the navy is a business job. The huge ships and dockyards, the maintenance and repair of the great battle fleet and the supplying of its needs, as well as the experimenting and planning for future ships, all must be carried on under the eye of the secretary of the navy.

Old-fashioned and courtly in manner, Swanson was born in Swansenville, Va., 71 years ago.

Next War Will Be Like the World War

FORT WORTH.—Despite the general opinion, the next war will be very much like the World War, believes Major General William R. Smith, former superintendent of West Point military academy and now superintendent of the Sewanee (Tenn.) military academy.

In face of recent inventions and the increasing usage of the airplane, the next war will not be "fought in the air," General Smith said. General Smith was a commander in the World War.

"Men must meet men face to face on the battlefield before one army can defeat another," he said. "When men are confronted with too powerful a force, they dig in. The only way to route them is to send other men to dig them out." General Smith gave his views on the next war during a visit here recently in the interest of the institution which he heads.

OLD LOCOMOTIVES TO GO

EUREKA, Cal.—Two locomotives which were puffing from Humboldt County's redwood forests 50 years ago, hauling logs from which early Californians hewed a great western empire, are about to fall before the march of progress. The locomotives, constructed in 1880 by the Baldwin Locomotive Works, will end their periods of service as scrap steel to be used in reinforcing the mammoth San Francisco Bay Bridge, wrecking company officials announced.

SHINGLE NAIL HELD BONE

VACAVILLE, Cal.—A shingle nail held Frank Weber's ankle bone together for 24 years after it was broken in 1908, it was disclosed here recently when Dr. Middleton P. Stansbury performed an operation to remove the nail. Weber was forced to seek medical attention when the nail caused an ulcer to begin, he said.

Garden and Yard Hints From Club Women of County

Canning Equipment

Canning equipment must be in perfect order to obtain the desired results in canning is the experience of Mrs. Lee Burkhead, farm food supply cooperator of the North Star Demonstration club. One cannot be too careful when using the pressure cooker and sealer. Both the cooker and sealer should be kept in good condition at all times. The check should be made on both often enough to know that you will have no trouble. If you do not know the way to check up on the equipment, see the merchant you purchased from, an experienced home demonstration club member or the home demonstration agent. Accidents are caused by neglecting this and carelessness on the part of the person operating the equipment, never know all about the operation, let others tell you and profit by their knowledge. I have operated the pressure cooker and tin can sealer for the last eight years and have had no trouble in any way. The women of the North Star Club have done the same. Demonstrations are given from time to time during the year by club members or the home agent and should be attended by the women using the equipment. There is danger in any thing if the proper methods are not used. The pressure cooker is safe. Check the equipment today or get some one to do it for you so that you may know the points to watch at all times.

Cans to Use for Preserving Food

Mrs. Lula James, farm food supply cooperator of the Ranger Co-Workers club gives this information on the use of different kinds of cans for different products. Many people still feel they should use the enamel cans for all products. The sanitary enamel has not been baked on the can under high enough pressure to stand the long processing needed for the non-acid vegetables such as corn and peas and when used will flake off into the product. If you want enamel cans for these products use the C-Enamel, which is a lighter color and has a dull finish. The sanitary enamel is a bright and shiny finish. The following rule should be followed: C-Enamel should be used for sulphur-bearing foods, such as corn, cabbage, chicken, hominy, peas and succotash. C-Enamel is not recommended but has been successful for lima beans, beets, carrots, corn on the cob, mixed vegetables for soup, pumpkin, squash and spinach. C-Enamel should not be used for any product which is acid, such as fruits, including apples, berries, cherries, pickles, tomato products.

Foundation Pattern

Miss Malta Turner, wardrobe demonstrator for the Peak home demonstration club, gave the foundation skirt pattern making demonstration to the club at the home of Mrs. P. C. Larkin. Miss Turner stated that fourteen of the women attended and all are interested in making and using the foundation pattern, not only for themselves, but plan to make one for the girls in the families. One member stated she is to make the waist pattern for her nine year old daughter. Miss Turner stressed the need for keeping the threads straight up and down and straight across when making the pattern and when cutting the garment.

Materials for Making Foundation Pattern

New bleached or bleached domestic should be used to get the best results when making foundation patterns is the experience of Mrs. D. M. Jacobs in the demonstrations she has started with her club members of the North Star home demonstration club. If you feel you can't afford to buy the new material, then use sacks or a fairly good sheet, but starch with a thin starch and iron. When using the old materials cut in skirt and waist lengths and be sure to iron only one way with the threads in order to keep them straight and have the least trouble with getting and keeping them straight with the pattern when cutting.

Foundation Pattern School

A foundation pattern is a simple pattern which fits the individual as perfectly as possible. Nineteen home demonstration club women, clothing demonstrators of the clubs of the county, met in Eastland Monday and Tuesday, in the basement of the Methodist church and made the foundation patterns. This school was conducted by Mrs. Dora E. Barnes, Clothing Specialist, Extension Service, College Station, Texas. Mrs. Barnes made two patterns showing the women the steps in the pattern, the first day the waist and the sleeve, the second day the skirt, collars and how to make patterns from the foundation one. Then the women divided into pairs and made patterns for themselves, measuring and fitting each other. These patterns were later checked by Mrs. Barnes for corrections before they were completed by the demonstrators.

As a result of the school the nineteen women will have dresses that will fit and will be able to make the dresses in much shorter time because they will not have to take the time on the fitting they have to do when using a different pattern for every dress. These patterns can be changed as to design, but the fit is still there. Fourteen clubs were represented at the meeting by the following women:

- Romney, Mrs. H. H. Harrelson, Mrs. Gil Walker.
- Carbon, Mrs. L. J. Hazlewood, Mrs. Overton Stone.
- Peak, Miss Malta Turner, Mrs. Erwin.
- Bullock, Mrs. Ellis Cooper, Mrs. B. R. LaMance.
- North Star, Mrs. D. M. Jacobs, Mrs. Lee Burkhead.
- Reich, Mrs. Elbert Ezzell, Mrs. W. E. Morris.
- Word, Mrs. C. M. Britain, Mrs. C. E. Graves.
- Ranger, Mrs. Louis Pitcock, Mrs. Holmes.
- Olden, Mrs. O. M. White.
- Bass Lake, Mrs. Floyd McCormick, Mrs. Calvin Swan, Mrs. Henry Capers.
- Flatwood, Mrs. Burl Turner, Sabano, Mrs. Edwin Erwin, Mrs. J. S. Erwin.
- Elm, Mrs. Young Gregg, Mrs. J. R. Files.
- Friendship, Mrs. E. M. Oney.
- Miss Blanche Brown, Harpersville; Miss Fontilla Johnson, home demonstration agent, Sweetwater; Miss Emma Gunter, home demonstration agent, Colorado; Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, College Station, Texas.

These demonstrators are to give foundation pattern making demonstrations in their clubs and help the club members with the making of the individual patterns.

Nude Dash Across Street Gets Student In Hands of Law

STEPHENVILLE. — A quick dash across the street and back caused a John Tarleton College football star to be dismissed from college and to be faced with court charges.

The gridster, who would have been eligible to play on the Plover team this fall, took a shot at winning $3, but the naked truth of the thing got him out of college and into court. He ran across the street in front of his boarding house with as little clothes on as a nudist would wear in August.

Residents of the neighborhood objected, the landlady objected, the college authorities objected.

Taking a group of students on a wager, the star athlete undressed, slipped on a robe and went down stairs. On the porch he left his robe, and he got back in the robe until he had taken a mad dash across the street and back.

Officers said charges of indecency had been filed, but they would not disclose the student's name.

62,388 Units Were Delivered In April By Chevrolet Co.

A total of 62,388 units were delivered by Chevrolet dealers during the first twenty days of April according to W. E. Holler, general sales manager of Chevrolet Motor Company. Sales for the year through this period total 235,332 units as compared to 154,526 units in the same period of 1933, making the period 152 per cent of the corresponding period in 1933.

Sales reported for the twenty days of April are more than 180 per cent of the corresponding 1933 April figure of 34,354 units.

Retail deliveries of commercial cars and trucks continue to gain; 16,224 trucks were delivered during the April period, which triples the 1933 figure of 5,304 units for the same period. Sales in the commercial field have shown steady increases. Mr. Holler pointed out, and at the close of this April period had reached a record figure of 73,619 units for 1934.

German Recalls Origin of Bock Beer In Spring

HOUSTON.—Bock beer signs with goat heads, to old imbibers the first real harbinger of spring, derived from a German glass manufacturer's name and not from any drinking habit of goats.

That is the explanation of Frantz Brogniez, Belgium brewmaster here whose formula for making beer has been handed down from father to son for two centuries.

European brewers made their beer in the late fall and winter months, Brogniez explained, taking the first of draught about May—the first beer of spring. Some called it "May beer."

The dark, heavy beer was served in conical glasses made by the Boch Glass company, Brogniez recalled. Hence many called it Bock beer or simply "boch."

In Germany the word "boch" means "goat," he explained. Consequently it became the custom to tie a goat outside beer gardens to advertise that bock beer season had arrived.

Substitution of the "k" for the "h" in the spelling is an American variation, Brogniez said.

GULF WINS MORE "HILL TESTS" THAN 32 GASOLINES COMBINED

Will your car have more power on any one gasoline? HERE'S YOUR ANSWER..

Gulf tested a total of 33 gasolines on famous American hills—12 hills in localities from Massachusetts to Georgia—and here is what they found...

The power of different gasolines varies widely! And of all 33 gasolines, Gulf is uniformly best. 7 out of 12 times, it propelled a car and load up mountain grades farther than any other gasoline tested!

It won more hill tests than 32 other gasolines combined! Prove it! Drive into a Gulf station, fill up, and test the power of That Good Gulf for yourself!

HOW 33 GASOLINES RANKED (IN ALL TESTS TO DATE)

All gasolines tested, except a few "third grade" brands, sold for approximately the same price as That Good Gulf. Each brand is denoted by a letter.

Walled Kingdom of Kennedy to Have Its First Highway

SARITA, Tex.—The Walled Kingdom of Kennedy soon will have its first highway, the Duke of Duval has promised and in the Rio Grande Valley the duke's word is his bond.

Kenedy county's barbed wire enclosed acres have never been traversed by a highway. Residents of the lower valley have fought for years to get a road through the county which became known as the Walled Kingdom.

But, the owners of the King Ranch, which spreads over nine counties wanted their Kenedy county domain intact. Senator Archie Parr, the Duke of Duval county, fought every effort to force a highway through Kenedy.

"I and the owners of Kenedy county are ready for the road to be built," Parr announced recently at Raymondville. "We want it done without delay. We will help you all we can."

To the people of the valley that is assurance enough. In the past Parr's promises have been gilt edge.

With that simple announcement a 24-year battle ended.

Robert J. Kleberg, manager and part owner of the King Ranch for 47 years, opposed the cutting up of the county by highways. When he died in 1932 his son, Robert J., Jr., carried his father's desires as manager of the ranch.

Parr was a friend of the elder Kleberg and that friendship continued into the new generation. Whatever the Klebergs desired was Parr's legislative program.

That devotion to the Kleberg family goes back nearly half a century when Parr, now 73, came to the main land from his Matagorda Island home and staked his savings in cattle. Drought ruined his grazing land and his cattle were starving.

The Klebergs saw Parr's plight and invited him to bring his stock on their Kenedy county pasture where the cattle remained during the two-year drought.

The Klebergs had many reasons for wanting their virgin lands untraversed. It is the only county in Texas unincumbered with debts, it has the lowest taxes in the state and its acres are showing profits.

With roads through the county the solitude of the 1,335 square miles would be broken, motorists would frighten the cattle and throw out cigarette stubs that might set the grazing lands afire; wild game would be shot and there would be competition from buses for the railroad in which the Klebergs own an interest.

During the long years residents of the lower valley have driven 50 miles out of their way in going to or returning from Houston—around the Walled Kingdom of Kenedy.

At the last regular session of the legislature a bill was introduced to force a road through the county. The bill passed the house but was killed in the senate when Parr passed word along to his friends.

That action cost Parr many votes, residents of the valley declared.

Because they do not want to hurt their friend politically and because they had rather give the land than have it taken away from them the Klebergs canged their minds.

And so the Walled Kingdom of Kenedy, last stronghold of solitude in the 1,200,000-acre King Ranch, will be opened to public travel.

The next move is a connecting highway in Mexico. A 192-mile road from Matamoros to Victoria, Mexico, would save 142 miles between Houston and Mexico City, one group supporting the road pointed out. But the road would not go through Monterrey and would take the traffic from the Laredo and San Antonio highway.

Another battle looms with the close of the old Kenedy county war.

Another battle looms with the close of the old Kenedy county war.

New Tire Gives 50 Per Cent Longer Non-Skid Mileage

The Firestone fleet of test cars running day and night over all kinds of roads and highways throughout the country, 12 months in the year, have proven the worth of improvements in the new Firestone High Speed Tire for 1934, which gives 50 per cent longer non-skid life, according to Al Tune, Firestone dealer of this city.

"Five major improvements mark the new tire," Mr. Tune said,—"flatter tread, wider tread, deeper non-skid, greater thickness, more and tougher rubber. These are made possible by the Firestone patented gum-dipping process which soaks and coats the high stretch cords with rubber to give greater strength, safety, and blowout protection.

"In addition to the road tests over all kinds of roads, through mud, on slippery highways, across deserts, and under all kinds of conditions, Firestone tires are subjected to the most severe tests known, on the greatest proving ground in the world—the Indianapolis Speedway. During the past 14 years Firestone tires have been on the winning cars in the annual 500-mile Indianapolis Race, and engineers have proven the worth of compounds, design, blowout protection, and rugged endurance.

The outstanding improvements in the new tire result from developments by the staff of more than one hundred chemists and tire engineers in one of the best laboratories in the world—the laboratory that enabled Firestone to pioneer and develop the first successful balloon tire in 1923.

"The improvements apply also to the Firestone Air Balloons which provide traction and added riding comfort with low-swung style, with wheels in color to match your car.

"The 'tires of champions' are available for your car," Mr. Tune concluded "with the new improvements which give you the greatly increased safety and non-skid mileage."

Nebraska G.O.P. Booms McCarl As Presidential Hope

M'COOK, Neb.—Old guard republicans here are booming J. Raymond McCarl, former tenor in the S. treasury, as a prospective leader to carry the party banner in the 1936 presidential elections.

Although more than a year has yet to elapse before the country once again elects its national executive, Nebraska republican leaders are on the alert for evidence that McCarl might be considered. Advice from Washington and the east, in their estimation, have signified that McCarl's prospects are not remote.

Nebraska old line republicans have received trumpet blasts of Ogden Mills with noticeable coolness. The "pleasure trip" of the former President Hoover through the middlewest, while not reaching Nebraska, failed to stir up any enthusiasm here.

Mention of McCarl's name, however, usually is well received. His supporters here point to his mention recently in industrial control reports, issued by the James True Associates at Washington, as indicating that his name actually is being considered.

Citizens here, who were intimately acquainted with McCarl trace his liberal attitude to his long association with Senator George W. Norris, leading exponent of the liberal gospel in the United States senate. After his graduation from the University of Nebraska school of law in 1903, McCarl returned to his home here to try his first case before the then Judge Norris. The trial formed the basis for a long friendship.

When Norris went to congress as a representative for the first time, he took McCarl with him as secretary. The young man's flair for politics soon was discovered and utilized by his party leaders in the capital. In 1920 he was named by the republican national committee to direct the party's national congressional campaigns.

The returns from the congressional elections that year was a smashing victory for the republicans, consolidated McCarl's position.

Largely as a reward for these services, he was summoned by President Harding after the general accounting division had been created and the position of comptroller general was open for the first time. McCarl accepted the president's offer of the position and began his 15-year term in 1921. Full extent of his power in official Washington is indicated by the fact that no president is empowered to remove him from office no matter how many official toes he may step on in his authority to "blue pencil" all expenditures, large or small, in the federal services.

Indian Mounds Found at Shiloh

WASHINGTON.—On the Civil war battlefield of Shiloh, an expedition of CWA workers, directed by Dr. Frank H. H. Roberts Jr., of the Bureau of American Ethnology, Smithsonian Institution, has unearthed a group of Indian mounds of marked historic interest.

Located on a high bluff above the Tennessee river, the group is believed to have constituted an ancient refuge and ceremonial center. Within a radius of two miles, it was pointed out, are sites of six once-populous aboriginal villages.

Well protected on three sides by high bluffs and on the fourth by a palisade fence, the group is believed to have been a center for worship, refuge from floods, and civic government. Remains of what probably was an ancient temple were uncovered on one building site.

Larger mounds, Dr. Roberts said, disclosed no artifacts or skeletal material—a distinct peculiarity. However, under smaller mounds, traces were found of approximately 30 houses and, Roberts added, one small mound contained the flexed remains of 30 skeletons.

Date or identity of the tribal inhabitants has not been determined, although it is believed they were proto-Muskogean, from whom evolved the highly cultured Indians encountered by the first white explorers in the Gulf states.

YOUTHFUL CHARIOT DRIVER

POMONA, Cal.—Ten-year-old Harold Smith, son of the trainer of horses at Kellogg Institute of Animal Husbandry probably is the youngest chariot driver in the business. AUTO ODDITIES

(1) To test the steering gear of a new bus, Lee Daniels drove it sixty miles per hour and another man shot out the front tire. Daniels did not know when the tire would be shot out, but in spite of that kept perfect control of the bus and did not go off the road. (2) The automobile industry due to the change from open to closed cars, has increased its use of plate glass to such an extent that it now uses 60 per cent of the yearly output of plate glass. (3) Due to the increased number of cars on the road and to a diversion of traffic through the Holland Tunnel has increased over 1,300 per cent in four years.

PLAN TO EXPLORE CAVE MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich.—Skull Cave, located here and believed to contain skulls of mysterious origin, is to be explored by scientists under the direction of the Island State Park commission. Belief that human bones are buried in the dark recesses of the cave is based on the writings of Alexander Henry, famous fur trader, who hid there from the Indians in 1763. He wrote that "human bones and skulls covered the floor." Modern historians believe they may be remains of Chippewa Indians killed in a raid by the Hurons, a rival tribe.

Luckies are always in All-Ways kind to your throat

so round, so firm, so fully packed—no loose ends that's why you'll find Luckies do not dry out

We like to tell about the finer tobaccos in Luckies—the choicest Turkish and domestic, and only the mild, clean center leaves—they taste better—then "It's toasted"—for throat protection. But we're just as proud of the way Luckies are made. They're so round and firm, so free from loose ends. That's why Luckies "keep in condition"—that's why you'll find that Luckies do not dry out—an important point to every smoker. Luckies are always—in all-ways!—kind to your throat.
