INVESTIGATION OF TOM HICKMAN PROPOSED

Rev. T. E. Bowman New Pastor of the Methodist Church

Rev. J. M. Bond, who has been pastor of the First Methodist Church of Ranger for the past two years, was transferred to the First Methodist Church of Weatherford at the annual conference of the church, held at Brownwood the past week.

Rev. T. E. Bowman was assigned to the Ranger church. Other assignments of this district include the reappointment of Rev. E. R. Stanford to the First Methodist Church of Eastland; Rev. J. M. Culpepper, who has been at Olden, has been assigned to the Springtown church of the Weatherford district; Rev. W. E. Anderson was reassigned to the Strawn church, and Rev. E. D. Conway, who was in the Ranger circuit for more than a year, was transferred to Florida.

In addition to being pastor of the First Methodist Church of Weatherford, Rev. Bond was appointed as advocate of the Weatherford district.

Mel-Roy Accepts Challenge of Local Lumber Company

Mel-Roy, a veteran of the World War, and world famous magician, has accepted the challenge of the Burton-Lingo Lumber Company to escape from a heavy packing box constructed in the local firm's own carpenter shop.

This box and lid may be seen in front of Swaney's Pharmacy. In order to make sure that Mel-Roy uses this box any one who wishes to place personal marks of identification on both the box and lid will allow a committee from the audience to nail him securely in this heavy packing box and declares that he will escape in less than one minute and that he will display the box intact immediately after.

J. Free Miller, manager of the Paso Robles Theatre, Paso Robles, Calif., writes: "I have had the good fortune to play Mel-Roy, the magician, at the Paso Robles Theatre recently for two days. I have played Alexander, Keller, Carter the Great and Thurston and can truthfully say that Mel-Roy is far ahead of these four magicians put together. I personally guarantee his performance as the best I have seen in my 25 years in the real show business."

The faculty of the Colony school will present "Thru the Keyhole" Thursday evening Nov. 14, in the high school auditorium at 8:00 p. m. A small admission charge will be made. The proceeds of the play will go toward the school athletic fund.

When a selective tax with the exemptions was outlined the governor said he was against it. "I do not know just what would be called a 'selective' tax," he said. "I would not approve one that merely omits the tax on food and clothing costing less than $5."

Possibility of failure of taxation at the present session was discussed by the governor. Such failure will not cause calling of an immediate third session, he indicated.

Mussolini's Pet Has Pet, Too

While her father molds the destiny of Italy, and her two big brothers and brother-in-law risk death in their planes over Ethiopia, Anna Maria Mussolini is apparently the picture of serenity as she plays with the family pet in her northern Italian home. She's 11 Duce's youngest child.

State Education Chief to Attend Teacher Meeting

State Supt. of Education L. A. Woods will attend the county teachers institute in Eastland Dec. 6 and 7, County Superintendent C. S. Eldridge announced.

State Supt. Woods will lecture the institute Friday from 11 to 12 o'clock.

Other invitations have been extended to prominent educators and will likely be accepted, according to Supt. Eldridge.

Miss Opal Gilstrap, deputy state superintendent, is planning to attend the institute.

A feature of the institute will be instruction to teachers on penmanship and improved methods of writing. Miss Irene Prewitt of Austin will lecture and demonstrate the improved methods of penmanship, Eldridge stated.

EASTLAND CAR WRECK INJURES SEVEN PEOPLE

One Eastland resident received a broken rib and four others received minor injuries in an automobile accident about two miles west of Eastland on the Cisco highway Sunday night.

Miss Lillian Smith sustained the broken rib injury when a car in which she was riding with Miss Marjorie Spencer, Eastland, and Dick Middleton and Bill Alsop of Olden hit a vehicle with occupants from Abilene.

First aid and other treatment was rendered at the Payne hospital in Eastland for the Abileneans, Paul Kay, Van Roberts and Weldon Johnson. The Abilene group were enroute to Ranger.

The Eastland automobile was headed toward Cisco when the accident, which damaged both machines considerably, occurred.

It was not known definitely how the accident occurred.

Churchman Tells Jury of Assault

An assault in which he was chased from his residence by Dick Pennington of Gorman was related by Rev. R. E. Bowden, Gorman Church of God pastor, to jurors Tuesday morning in 91st District court.

The trial is the second for Pennington on a charge of assault to murder. The first resulted in a hung jury.

Rev. Bowden testified that Pennington, failing to gain entrance at his back door, came into his home by the front entrance, despite his efforts to prevent the entrance.

Wielding a knife which once, Bowden testified, cut the pastor's thumb, Pennington chased him from the parlor, through the bedroom and kitchen and finally to a neighbor's residence.

The morning session Tuesday was punctuated by objections of L. R. Pearson, attorney for Pennington, of what he termed testimony of Bowden which was hearsay and called for conclusion.

Mrs. Pennington was given entrance into his home, Bowden testified, when he thought the husband was chasing her.

Judge G. L. Davenport admonished the defendant to allow his attorney discuss the case when he questioned a witness, D. G. Neal, also of Gorman: "What is it you've left undone?"

The defendant's question was in connection with interrogation by Pearson that Neal had done everything to aid in the prosecution of the case.

Neal admitted he was a prejudiced witness.

The Gorman pastor testified that Pennington had threatened, "I'm going to kill you."

The alleged skirmish was July 2. Jurors are B. B. Shirley, W. S. Maxwell, J. M. Pennington, R. A. Richardson, R. J. Taylor, E. R. McCracken, A. H. Love, W. L. Harrison, G. D. Underwood, E. D. Harbin, and T. L. Overbey.

Announcements of the date for the meeting would be made at a later date, the announcement said.

Supreme Court Veteran Is 79

Reaching his 79th birthday Nov. 12, Associate Justice Louis D. Brandeis, of the U. S. Supreme Court, shown here in an interesting character study, is nearing 20 years of service on the nation's highest tribunal. His lucid reasoning and liberal attitude have been a shining mark in the court's deliberations. He is today the oldest member of the body. Brandeis' influence, through his writings and contacts with younger men, has spread far beyond the court chamber.

Armory Robbery Case Dismissed

ABILENE, Nov. 12.—A case charging theft of personal property from the United States in which the late Raymond Hamilton, Clyde Barrow, Bonnie Parker and Joe Palmer; Henry Methvin, under death sentence; and Hilton Bybee, sentenced for life, all notorious desperadoes, are named defendants was dismissed here Monday in federal court. The case was dismissed on motion of United States Attorney Clyde Eastus.

The indictment was returned in connection with a raid on the Texas National Guard armory at Ranger in February, 1934.

Board of Stewards Meeting Postponed

Announcement was made today that the meeting of the board of stewards of the Methodist church, which was called for tonight at the church, had been postponed until the latter part of this week or early next week.

The meeting was postponed in order that the new pastor, Rev. T. E. Bowman, could be present for the meeting and it was not known as yet whether he would be here in time for a meeting this week or not.

Announcements of the date for the meeting would be made at a later date, the announcement said.

The ministers of Ranger are requested to meet in called session on Wednesday, Nov. 13, in the study of the First Methodist church. The purpose is primarily to arrange for the community Thanksgiving service, and any other business that may come before them.—L. B. GRAY, chairman.

Announcements of the date for the meeting would be made at a later date, the announcement said.

Bank Conditions Show a Decided Recovery Trend

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 12. Bank deposits and portfolios reflect evidence of great recovery. President Roosevelt told members of the American Bankers Association today in a letter read by Jesse Jones, chairman of the RPC.

"I have watched with great interest the continued improvement in banks throughout the country in the past two years. I am gratified as I am sure every member of the American Bankers Association is gratified, to know that all banks are now in a strong position and I hope they will take full advantage of the new banking act and provide credit when it can be done on a sound basis, to business and industry, and to real estate," he wrote in his letter.

W. G. Williamson Last Rites Held

Funeral services for W. G. Williamson, 75, resident of Eastland county for 28 years, who died at the home of a son, O. H., seven miles north of Eastland Sunday, were held Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. K. C. Edmonds of Ranger officiated at the services in the home of the son, O. H., and burial was in the Eastland cemetery.

Mr. Williamson was proprietor of the Eastland Drug store and was a large landowner. He was born March 24, 1860.

Survivors include the widow, seven sons, J. L. B. L. G. O. H. A. W. D. F., all of Eastland; and M. D. Williamson of Troup; and one daughter, Mrs. L. Owens, Eastland.

Pall bearers were R. N. Grisham, Clyde L. Garrett, Tom Preslar, J. F. McWilliams, J. H. Davis, G. C. Kimbrell.

Hammer Undertaking Company of Eastland was in charge.

MUSSOLINI IS SCORNFUL OF ALL SANCTIONS

Mussolini in his latest defiance of the League and its sanctions, has offered to take on all comers among the nations in economic warfare.

The belligerent Italian dictator has notified some 50 nations that if they adopt the League program of penalties Italy will retaliate with penalties designed to hurt them more than they hurt Italy.

There is an implied threat the economic balance of the world will be upset and recovery retarded.

Probably as a sample of what he can do he has decreed that Italy cannot sell goods to France, her economic ally, except for cash. There is a boycott, in effect in Italy against buying foreign goods, especially English, in Italian shops.

The situation, therefore, is due to get worse instead of better after Monday when League penalties go into effect. The tension in Europe is likely to increase.

The atmosphere is one of hostility in which some incident might occur to precipitate a conflict.

Masons to Confer Fellow Craft Degree In Ranger Meeting

Announcement was made in Ranger today that a Fellowcraft Mason's lodge would be held to-night at 7:30 at the Masonic temple on Elm street. All Masons in the district are invited to attend. Visiting Masons will be welcome.

On Thursday night of this week at the temple Dr. J. Stuart Pearce of Cisco will be the principal speaker at the Masonic educational rally, held once each month in co-operation with the Grand Lodge program of the state.

Dr. Pearce is well known over the Oil Belt and will bring a message of interest to the community. The public is cordially invited to attend all these educational meetings.

Processing Taxes Bring Little Money

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Failure of the treasury to collect more than $150,000,000 in processing taxes since the start of the current fiscal year on July 1, today offered serious threat to the federal government budget plans.

Because of the loss in revenue the treasury reported total revenues in the first 120 days of the fiscal year to Nov. 9 were slightly under the same period of last year, although the budget calls for a $670,000,000 gain for the full fiscal year.

Baptist Workers Meet In Ranger

About 200 pastors, delegates and laymen of the Cisco district of the Baptist church met at the Central Baptist church of Ranger Tuesday in a workers' conference.

Rev. Sparkman delivered a sermon during the morning session, with a meal served by the ladies of the church being served at noon.

A large number of pastors from over the district were in attendance, with Rev. Hugh Blair, county missionary, having a part on the program.

An even larger attendance was anticipated for the afternoon session.

Subscribers Who Miss Paper Should Call Before 6 P. M.

In order that all readers may receive their papers daily the Times is starting today with a new service.

In case you do not receive your paper by 6 o'clock each day, phone 224 and one will be sent out immediately. In case you do not receive your paper by 8 o'clock on Sunday morning, phone 224 and one will be sent. It will be too late to call after 6 p. m. on week days and 8 a. m. on Sunday, but a call before either of these hours will bring your Ranger Times.

In paying your subscription to the Times, be sure the carrier boy has his cards so you can see him punch your card. In this way it saves both time and complaints.

Because of the cold weather and the rain which fell throughout the morning and most of the afternoon Monday, the Cisco-Ranger football game, scheduled to be played Armistice Day, was postponed until Friday afternoon, Nov. 15, by agreement between the officials of the two schools.

Only one game has been scheduled for the week-end, with Breckenridge playing at Sweetwater on Saturday, Nov. 16, so there will be no conflicting engagements in the Oil Belt when the game is played this week-end.

The Loboos have been primed for the Bulldogs since early season, when it was apparent that the Ranger game presented the only chance the Loboos had of a district victory, while the Ranger team has been revamped and improved considerably since its disastrous defeats throughout the season, and Coach Moore is hopeful that the changes made in the team will give the Bulldogs enough punch to score a victory over their ancient rivals.

At Breckenridge Monday afternoon the Buckaroos won a one-sided game from the Abilene Eagles in a game played in extremely cold weather, the Buckaroos, powerhouseing their way through the Eagle line to a 26 to 0 victory. The victory by the Buckaroos tied the record, made by the same team in 1929, for the most decisive defeats the Eagles have sustained in modern football history.

The Buckaroos had but one game, that with Ranger, between them and the district title, and feel confident of taking the district honors without much trouble, because of the poor showing made by the Bulldogs to date.

A larger crowd is anticipated for the game at Cisco next Friday, if the weather is good, than would have been present Monday afternoon and since both teams have another week in which to iron out their weaknesses a better game is anticipated.

Winters' first foray into Texas had claimed one life Tuesday, but government forecasts predicted the cold wave would abate by Wednesday.

Adolph Cardona, 35, of Houston, died from exposure during a ride in an open truck. He complained of a cold and during the 15-mile ride ceased talking. Upon arrival he was unconscious and died a short time later.

The temperature failed to go as low as expected Monday night. Dallas had a minimum of 35 degrees.

Amarillo and Abilene reported the coldest weather in the state with a reading of 28 in each city. Clear skies and heavy frosts were reported at both places.

San Antonio and El Paso reported temperatures of 34, Austin and Del Rio 36, Brownsville and Galveston 42.

SUSPENSION URGED IN A RESOLUTION

Allred Said the Commission "Did It's Duty" After Move Started in the House.

AUSTIN, Nov. 12.—Investigation of the Texas Public Safety commission and suspension of Ranger Captain Tom Hickman, colorful veteran of the service, was proposed in the house today by Rep. Sam Hanna, Dallas.

Time for consideration of resolution expired before a vote was reached.

Earlier Gov. James V. Allred told newspaper correspondents he thought the safety commission "did its duty" but declined other comments on Hickman's case.

Hanna's resolution, signed also by Fort Worth's representative, Clarence Farmer, met stiff opposition. Vote on it may be reached tomorrow.

It asked appointment of a three-member committee with $300 an investigation fund.

"It has become common knowledge that Tom Hickman, Ranger captain in the service of the Texas Public Safety commission, has been notified of his discharge for reasons beclouded in mystery and which has given rise to many rumors, striking at high public officials, baseless of otherwise."

Hanna said Hickman reported "frank prominent men" in his fruitless raids on a gambling spot near Fort Worth. Several nights later two other Rangers raided the place and confiscated gambling equipment. Hanna cited other instances reported of "dissension in the Safety Department but said "I don't want to call any names."

Appealing from the industrial accident board, Sam W. Garrett has filed suit in district court against Hartford Accident & Indemnity Company.

The plaintiff seeks $2,750 for lung injuries allegedly received while unloading lime two and one-half miles west of Ranger when it employ of the Lone Star Gas Company, Aug. 14, 1934.

The case was originally filed in an Eastland county district court, transferred to Abilene federal court, then dismissed in the latter court without prejudice to plaintiff before its refiling in Eastland.

Subscriptions to Be Increased On First of the Year

The management of the Times Publishing Company has found it necessary to increase the subscription rates on all papers sent through the mails, the increases being small and taking effect on Jan. 1, 1936.

The announcement is being made today that effective on the first of the new year all mail subscriptions will be $3 per year for the Ranger Daily Times and $1.50 a year for the Eastland County News.

This increase was made imperative because of increased postal rates, the management announced, and because of increases in the cost of white paper.

The announcement is being made at this time in order to allow ample time for those receiving their papers through the mail to renew their subscriptions before the increased rates take effect.

The Times Publishing Company has consistently decreased subscription rates from year to year during the period of low publication costs, passing on to the reader the small decreases in the price of paper stock, and now that increases in the cost of publishing the paper have come up from time to time it has become necessary to make a small increase in the subscription rates.

The new rates and increases do not affect the subscribers who receive their papers from the route boys, the price for their subscriptions remaining the same.

WOMAN WRITES LETTER URGING "MERCY DEATH"

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 12.—The plea of a young woman, apparently doomed to lifelong misery that her life be ended "in the name of mercy," fell on deaf ears today.

The Erie county medical association to whom the woman, Miss Anna Becker, 34, addressed the plea, said it would be unable to comply with her request for a physician to bring her a "merciful death."

The plight of Miss Becker, who was injured in a traffic accident more than two years ago, was brought to light today.

"Two years ago I suffered injuries in an automobile accident, the most serious of which is incurable. I am constantly in pain and have nothing left to live for. I want to die."

"In the name of mercy I ask you to appoint a doctor to take my life. A competent physician could kill me with less pain than I endure in an hour."

"I am not only in agony myself, I am a burden to my friends. I have no money to pay my bills. I can never be sure where my next meal will come from. This decision was not made hastily. For 749 horrible days I have thought of death and would have taken my own life long ago if I had the courage."

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—No one here who knows the legal racket is taking the American Bar Association's inquisition into tactics of the American Liberty League lawyers' committee very seriously.

Leadership of the A. B. A. is commonly considered to share the general viewpoint of the Liberty League boys. If the New Dealers observe anything less than a whitewash of the league committee operations as an unofficial "supreme court," and its offers to advise anyone who considers himself a victim of a New Deal law, they'll consider it a moral victory produced by A. B. A. worries about public opinion.

Nevertheless, clear-cut issues as to ethics are being raised. And it's a distinct development in American history when the young New Deal lawyers—led by the ex-Frankfurter pupils, many of whom have had enough experience in Wall Street to know what it's all about—attack the expensive pundits of the Wall Street bar with charges of chicanery, champerty, ambulance chasing, and other brands of sleazebagism. Lawyers seldom give their game away like that.

THE latest charge of government lawyers is that distinguished leaders of the bar—the type who wouldn't touch a case for less than $100,000—are advising public utility holding companies to refuse to comply with the law by registering with the Securities Exchange Commission by Dec. 1.

At a recent secret meeting, it is alleged, John W. Davis—attorney for J. P. Morgan and the Edison Electric Institute—urged utility executives not to register, asserting that their refusal would give him a "psychological advantage" in fighting the act in the courts.

Such backstage tactics by lawyers, Washington knows, have been in vogue for years. But never before has any group of informed lawyers undertaken to expose them.

The president of the American Bar Association is William L. Ramsom, attorney for the Consolidated Gas Co. of New York. The secretary is William P. MacCracken, the lobbyist who once served time in jail for contempt because he obstructed a Senate investigation.

THE best photograph of the Roosevelt smile yet made was taken by John S. Thompson of NEA Service, Inc., at the White House on the occasion of the president's broadcast for the human needs campaign.

You're likely to see a lot of the photo during the campaign, as the Democrats probably will reproduce it profusely. So you may be interested to know what produced the smile and what F. D. was saying.

Al Nesensohn, Thompson's colleague, was trying to get a "little act."

"Give us a gesture, Mr. President!" he asked.

"I never gesture!" replied Roosevelt, breaking into a big laugh.

WHICH reminds one of a celebrated progressive senator who was in the White House when Joe Davidson was sculpting his bust of the chief executive.

Davidson's bust showed firmness, character, integrity, idealism, and most of the other virtues you'd like to see a president have.

Senator — looked at it closely and then remarked, with fervor: "Jo, I hope you're right!"

TERRACES INCREASE WHEAT PRODUCTION
By United Press
DALHART, Texas. — Terraces and contour farming not only provides the Panhandle farmer the best protection against destructive wind erosion but over a ten-year period will pay for his land, according to Harley A. Daniel, acting director of the Goodwell experiment station.

A ten-year experiment, closing this year, shows wheat production has increased and average of 31.8 bushels per acre by terracing. When the terrace gain in grain per acre was multiplied by the average annual price of grain, based on the Kansas City market, the total calculated increase in per-acre income was $23.33. Figures on increased production were learned by measuring yields on terraced soil with those on adjacent unterraced land.

Terracing costs on the Dalhart Soil Conservation project average, says H. H. Finniell, regional conservator, 77 cents per acre, (exclusive of labor which can be supplied by the farmer). Quoting Finniell further, Daniel says extra cost of cultivating contoured land is from 20 to 50 cents an acre per year. Taking the top of 50 cents, that means in ten years that terracing and contouring costs the farmer $5.77 extra, while his production nets him $23.33. Net gain per acre is $17.56.

Terracing and contouring, by holding moisture where it falls, assures a vegetative cover for all parts of the field against wind erosion.

Odds Always Opposed Marital Happiness

Comes now a college professor who has been looking into the state of holy wedlock, and announces that the chances are two to one against a life-long happy marriage for any given set of newlyweds.

The professor—Dr. Lewis M. Terman of Stanford University's psychology department—has studied 300 marriages. Of these, he found that 100 developed into the "happy ever after" stage, another 100 brought definite unhappiness to one or both parties, and the third hundred resulted in divorces.

So he deduces his odds and hands out the result, for the dismay and guidance of ardent young folk who may be contemplating matrimony.

It is typical of the present age, perhaps, to believe that there is something new in a set of figures like these.

Whether we did it through over-much reading of sappy novels, through too much staring at saccharine moving pictures, or simply through a process of wishful thinking, we do seem to have persuaded ourselves that a marriage ought to glide along with the utmost smoothness.

If it doesn't, we pity ourselves intensely and audibly; and if that gets us nowhere we decide that the other party to the domestic equation is an impossible person and a no-good, and we go hiking off for the nearest divorce court.

By looking on marriage through the eyes of romantic 16-year-olds, we leave ourselves utterly unable to meet the inevitable disillusionment; and so we roll up one of the most remarkable divorce records in all history, and when some professor soberly announces that the chances for a happy marriage are only one in three we are shocked and saddened.

What we need to understand is that, while these chances may be slim, they are probably as good now as they ever were or ever will be, and that no one who deserves to be called an adult ought to let such odds worry him.

We get out of marriage just about what we put into it. If we are men and women enough to accept the disillusionments, the petty annoyances, and the occasional quarrels as part of the game and rise superior to them, we can make a go out of marriage—and, in the end, discover that the effort was worth making.

The reason our divorce rate is so scandalously high is that too many people enter into marriage in the spirit of spoiled children, ready to pick up their toys and quit at the first sign of trouble.

So the chances are two to one against a happy marriage? Well, they are at least that great against a happy outcome to any other form of human endeavor. If we would simply realize that fact in advance, and guide ourselves accordingly, we would get along a great deal better.

Soviet husband with 168 wives given 10 years in jail. Authorities undoubtedly reject his plea to make it longer.

8,780 Killed By Automobiles In State In 10 Years

AUSTIN.—More than 8,780 deaths due to automobile accidents have been reported to the State Bureau of Vital Statistics during the past 10 years.

births and deaths reported. The yearly total increased from 433 in 1925 to 914 automobile deaths in 1935, an increase of 481, or more than 100 per cent.

The GOLDEN FEATHER

by Robert Bruce

BEGIN HERE TODAY JEAN DUNN, secretary to DONALD MONTAGUE, lawyer, delay her answer when BOBBY WALLACE, automobile salesman, asks her to marry him.

BOBBY WALLACE hunched himself back of the stunted, soot-blackened bush and held himself motionless with a tense effort that made his muscles ache.

Then, at last, the rumble of the engine grew louder as the car went into gear; the light swung slowly past him as the car turned to drive to the gate at the front of the encircling fence, and at last he was in darkness again.

THE ground where Bobby stood was full of clinders and little stones, and it was hard to walk without making a noise; but with infinite care Bobby tried to draw nearer.

cause during the same months for 1935. During the first eight months of this year 71 counties made no report of fatal automobile accidents, but these counties include only 484,870 people, or slightly more than 8 per cent of the state's total population.

Of the 1,094 automobile deaths this year 42 of the victims were children under five years of age, 76 between 5 and 14, making a total of 118, or 10 per cent of all deaths due to this cause.

Club Program
Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, members of Child Study Club No. 1 will hear an interesting program at the home of Mrs. O. G. Lanier, Pine street. The session will be presided over by the newly elected president, Mrs. Brown Bradley.

Couple Married Monday to Make Home in Weatherford
Miss Lavada Fenner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Fenner, whose home was Thurber until a few weeks ago when they moved to Weatherford, became the bride of Mr. V. E. Kemp of Weatherford, Monday, the ceremony performed at the courthouse at Fort Worth, with the Rev. Mr. W. B. Jordon officiating.

The bride wore a smartly fashioned navy blue frock with matching accessories. A small group of friends made up the wedding party. Mrs. Kemp is a graduate of Thurber High School, later attending the Turner Business College at Ranger. She held a position with the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company prior to her departure from Thurber.

Mr. Kemp was born and reared at Weatherford and is the son of Mrs. Silas Kemp. They are at home, 134 Spring street, Weatherford.

County Meeting of Christian Endeavor Reveals Interesting Reports
The county-wide union meeting of the Christian Endeavor was held in Eastland at the First Christian Church Sunday afternoon. The session opened with the hymn, "He Keeps Me Singing," led by Miss Florine Richardson, president of the Eastland County Endeavor, with Miss Mary Helen Childs at the piano. The standing of the Eastland County Endeavor in the state contest was shown that Eastland had reached the fifteenth place with 1,450 points.

The next union meeting will be the Second Sunday in December at the local First Christian Church, at 3 o'clock.

Miss Mildred Matthews, active worker, was elected first vice president. The program was in charge of Miss Nadine Porter of Ranger, who opened with the congregation singing "I Will Be True," followed by "What a Friend."

Miss Mary Helen Childs of Ranger offered the scripture reading. Outstanding talks were given by Rev. W. A. Richardson, pastor of the First Christian Church of Eastland, on "Adventures in Life," Roland Hill of Cisco, "What It Means to Be a Christian in Social Life," Mrs. Naomi Huckaby, "What It Means to Be a Christian, at Home, at School, and Abroad."

CARDUI DURING MIDDLE LIFE

While she was going through the change of life, Mrs. Susan Price, of Hallsboro, N. C., was "very weak at times, and had to go to bed," she writes. "I couldn't sleep well and didn't have an appetite. I was so nervous, I was always looking for something bad to happen. I read of Cardui and took it. It helped my nerves so much and gave me strength and built me up. I took Cardui off and on for two years. . . I have recommended Cardui to other people, hoping they would be helped and giving strength, as I was with this good remedy."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

The theme song of the international convention, "We Choose Christ," was followed by report of treasurer, Bud Winston of Cisco. The attendance was splendid, with many members of the church as guests.

Texas Rangers Will Guard Centennial Central Exposition
DALLAS. — Texas rangers, among the most colorful law enforcement figures in the world, will guard the Texas Centennial Central Exposition and will patrol the grounds both on foot and on horse if plans of the exposition's management committee materialize.

The management committee, headed by R. L. Thornton, discussed with Capt. Tom Hickman of the Texas rangers, Chief of Police R. L. Jones and acting Mayor D. R. Graham. The committee also discussed a proposal for the erection of a Texas ranger building of logs, to furnish the atmosphere of 100 years ago when the ranger force was organized, and to establish a regular troop of rangers here during the centennial exposition.

Tentative plans for the Exposition's police force, which, at the peak, will number about 150, calls for the appointment of each man as a Texas ranger. They will be costumed appropriate to the general idea of the appearance of a Texas ranger. Some of them will be mounted on horses rigged in

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer
TODAY came a card announcing an auction sale of antiques to begin at ten o'clock in the morning with "lunch served on the premises." I can't miss it. There's no telling what time I'll get home with an uneasy conscience and a cartful of things. I probably had no business to buy.

Fortunately the date of the sale is far enough ahead for me to make necessary preparations. The best way to overcome my sense of guilt is to serve my family an unusually good dinner that night, but it takes advance planning to get dinner on the table in half an hour after you step into the kitchen.

This is the way I shall do it. In the morning I'll get my salad ready so that all I'll have to do will be to take it from the refrigerator and put it on the table. The dessert will be made and put in the ice-box to chill.

Quick Cooling Vegetable
I'll have a vegetable that will cook in twenty minutes, such as cauliflower, or I'll cook one in the morning and reheat in its sauce or seasoning at the last minute.

If I have potatoes, I'll cook them in the morning and reheat in a cream sauce.

Fish, as it is packed and shipped these days, can be cooked with practically no preliminary preparation. Oysters are a standby for last minute dinners. Oyster stew, escalloped oysters, creamed on toast, en brochette, baked with macaroni, pigs in blankets—all these oyster dishes are delicious and nourishing and can be on the table in thirty minutes' time.

Liver, link sausages, pork tenderloin, beef tenderloin, broiled hamburger and other chopped meats, thinly sliced veal and the smoked pork products that can be broiled or pan-broiled all can be quickly prepared and cooked. And there are always steaks and chops. Here's the menu for a quick meal:

Monday's Menu
BREAKFAST: Halves of grapefruit, cereal, cream, shirred eggs, crisp oven toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Liver and bacon sandwiches, head lettuce with French dressing, fruit tapioca pudding, milk, tea.
DINNER: Veal stew with dumplings, cabbage and pepper salad, mince pie, milk, coffee.

Tomato juice cocktail, savory macaroni, creamed cauliflower head lettuce with Parisian dressing, caramel custard, vanilla cookies, milk, coffee.

The savory macaroni is prepared and put in its baking dish all ready to pop in the oven just long enough to be heated through. The lettuce is washed and put in the vegetable pan in the ice-box and the dressing is mixed and put in a bottle for a final shaking before serving.

Savory Macaroni
Five ounces macaroni, 3 quart boiling water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 pound cheese, 1 cup chopped Brazil nuts, 2 cups canned tomatoes, salt, pepper, sugar.

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and blanch. Arrange in a buttered baking dish, baking in alternate layers with nuts and thinly sliced cheese. Rub tomatoes through a coarse sieve and season with salt and pepper and sugar. Pour over macaroni mixture and bake twenty-five minutes in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.), or until the cheese is melted.

the trappings of the west. The proposed ranger building would be located in the southwestern corner of the exposition grounds. It would have dormitories as quarters for the troops of regular rangers and would include a corral for horses and pack trains.

Old time rangers would be invited to make the building their headquarters as long as they desired to attend the exposition. A section of the structure would be devoted to a museum of Texas

THIS BRACKET CHANGES THE POSITION OF THE WIRES TO CUT OUT CROSS TALK. LET'S SEE IF WE CAN MAKE IT CHEAPER AND BETTER.

THESE NEW HEAVY SNAPS ON HIS SAFETY BELT HELP PREVENT ACCIDENTS.

LET'S SEE HOW THE NEW IMPROVED CLIMBERS ARE HOLDING OUT.

HOW CAN WE MAKE THIS POLE LAST LONGER?

THERE ARE A DOZEN MEN ON THIS POLE!

How the headquarters staff of the Bell System aids the lineman at his job of giving you good telephone service.

When you're clinging to the top side of a telephone pole in a stiff gale, there's small time left for experiments in saving time and saving money.

A good lineman has his hands full with the work he's got to do.

But experiments are important if telephone service is to be improved, and its cost held low. So the Bell System employs men whose job it is to make them.

Some of them work on the headquarters staff of American Telephone & Telegraph Company, parent company of the System. Some are research scientists at Bell Laboratories, the "invention factory" of the System. In the factories and purchasing offices of Western Electric, Bell System supply unit, others transform the ideas of the research workers and engineers into the actual equipment needed to do the job.

While it may seem that the lineman works alone, his invisible companions on this pole are the men who have worked out his problems for him in advance... men of the laboratory, staff engineers, skillful fashioners of equipment.

The constant stream of new inventions, ideas and methods which these men produce for us*, as one of the 24 operating companies of the Bell System, has helped us do two things:

It has helped us give you better telephone service.

And it has made it possible for us to provide that improved service without increased cost to you.

*Engineers and executives of the Southwestern Company adapt these developments for actual, day-to-day use in the work of handling your telephone calls.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else, 25c.
