Naval Talk Again May

 Make U. S. the GoatThere is going to be a handsome new naval disarme world are pulling back their cuffs so as to be ready fo another round of the qrand old game of dealing Sam three small ones off the bottom of the deck.
A disarmament conference right now would seem to ment on earth that has the remotest intention of reducing things are due to happen, and if the American delegates ren't careful they are likely to come home wearing bar els in place of pants. or some two centuries, is all set to make enormous addiions to her fleet. The coming elections are expected to result in victory for the Conservative party, and this party that fully a billion dollars will be spent on British warships that fully a billion dollars will be spent on British warship and airplanes in the immediate future.

Japan, likewise, is all for building. The Japanese in on parity-in simpler words, they are going to have a fleet as big as Americas no matter who says no-and beto have some uncomfortable and interesting moments.
For London and Tokio are likely to work together.

The British want the world's greatest fleet. For selfish peace, international justice, and the rights of small nations. The British will point out that neither America nor Japan is a member of the League of Nations.
The League may need naval power to carry out its pro-gram-as, for instance, in the case of Italy. It will be up to Britain to supply the ships. Therefore, Britain must ave the preatest of all fleets, and it will be sheer selfishess for America to want one equally large. the Japanese are interested in parity with the United States, not with England. In return, the British can support the Japanese position. And the American delegation will have to play a lone hand if it tries to argue for continuance of the existing fleet ratios. However the cards fall, he is due to lose. Under the bother to go to London at all. FRECKLES and HIS FRIENDS-By Blosser
