T. K. Maynard, 85, Who Learned to Drive When 76, Retires From Eastland Mail Messenger Duties

Sixteen years of service as mail messenger at the Eastland postoffice will officially close Friday for T. K. Maynard, 85.

Forty-five days ago Maynard gave notice of his resignation. He has held the mail messenger contract by three successful five-year bids.

When Maynard first acquired the contract, providing for carrying the mail to the postoffice and depot, he used a team and hack. In 1925 Maynard gave up his horse transportation and learned to drive a Model T Ford truck. He was 46.

"I've carried the mail long enough," Maynard commented this week. His work required him to awake and carry the mail at 4 o'clock each morning. Until the last year Maynard was able to perform his work, then he retained the contract and employed others to discharge his duties.

A peaceful man, Maynard was relieved in 1924 when Government regulations allowed him to do his work without a 'six-shooter' strapped on his hips. The Government required the carrying of guns for the protection of the mail.

"I've got my first doctor to call yet," Maynard will tell you if he's asked if he's ever been sick. He will explain, "I've called for other people, but never for myself."

Healthiness of the family is reflected in the fact that his mother lived to be 91 and his father to about 80.

Mrs. Maynard, the veteran mail messenger's wife, is 73. All of their children, seven, are living and in good health. Mr. and Mrs. Maynard's descendants include 26 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard, formerly Miss Mary Hatten, of a pioneer county family, were married at the present site of the Corner Drug Store in Eastland, February, 1881. The building in which they were married was used for a court house and also had been the location of a mill, Maynard said.

Before Maynard was married, he lived and farmed near the "Old Rock House" east of Eastland. The building was demolished about two years ago. Maynard recalls "batching" with other settlers of the early period at the house. George Kirk and Billy Hatten were remembered as two of the residents of the house.

He was born Feb. 9, 1851, in

Allred Speaking to Be After Session

AUSTIN—Governor James V. Allred will postpone any national campaign trips until the end of the present special session of the Texas Legislature. That will deprive Sen. Roy Sanderford of Belton, of an opportunity to serve as Governor. If the Governor were absent from the state, Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul, Houston, could make Sanderford Governor by crossing the state line, also.

Sanderford's accession would be because he is president pro-tem of the Texas Senate. His term would expire at the end of the special session, unless he should be re-elected for president pro-tem at interim. Senators Ken Regan, Peecos, John Redditt, Lufkin, and Wilbourne Collier, Eastland, each became Governor-for-a-day, while serving in the office of president pro-tem.

ROOSEVELT IS CAMPAIGNING IN MICHIGAN

By United Press
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 15.—President Roosevelt, beginning a one-day tour of Michigan, today told thousands who jammed Grand Rapids streets, that $500,000 in private capital has been put in construction work as a result of federal housing activities.

"Such a program of building new homes and remodeling old ones has meant business for your city," the president told his audience in this furniture capital.

He entered Michigan this morning, 25 minutes after Gov. Landon's special had departed.

At Chicago last night at least 200,000 tried to jam into the stadium where the president spoke. Inside the president blasted the republican leadership and claimed credit for "saving the system of private profit and free enterprise after it had been dragged to the brink of ruin by the same leaders who are now trying to scare you."

Texas Payrolls In September Were Slightly Higher

AUSTIN, Tex. — Employment and pay rolls in Texas during September made substantial gains over the like month last year and moderate gains over the preceding month, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research has found.

Reports to the Bureau from over 1,500 Texas establishments show a total of 79,773 employees, an increase of 7.5 per cent over September last year and 2.9 per cent over August. Average weekly pay rolls totaled $1,788,723, an increase of 8.9 per cent over September a year ago and 2.9 per cent over August.

Cities showing gains above the State average, in both number of employees and in pay rolls over September last year, included Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Dallas, Denison, El Paso, Houston, Laredo, Sherman, Waco, and Wichita Falls.

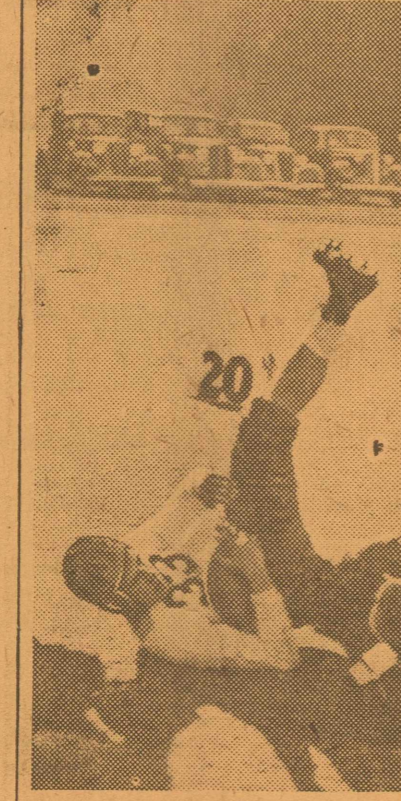

Industry groups making better than average gains were building materials, clothing and textiles, cotton oil mills, wholesale and retail distribution, food products, furniture manufacturing, newspaper publishing, petroleum refining, steam railroad car shops.

Houston Shipments By Water Higher

By United Press
HOUSTON — Port Houston earned $389,029.09 during the first nine months of 1936, reflecting the highest upturn in water transportation here within the past four years.

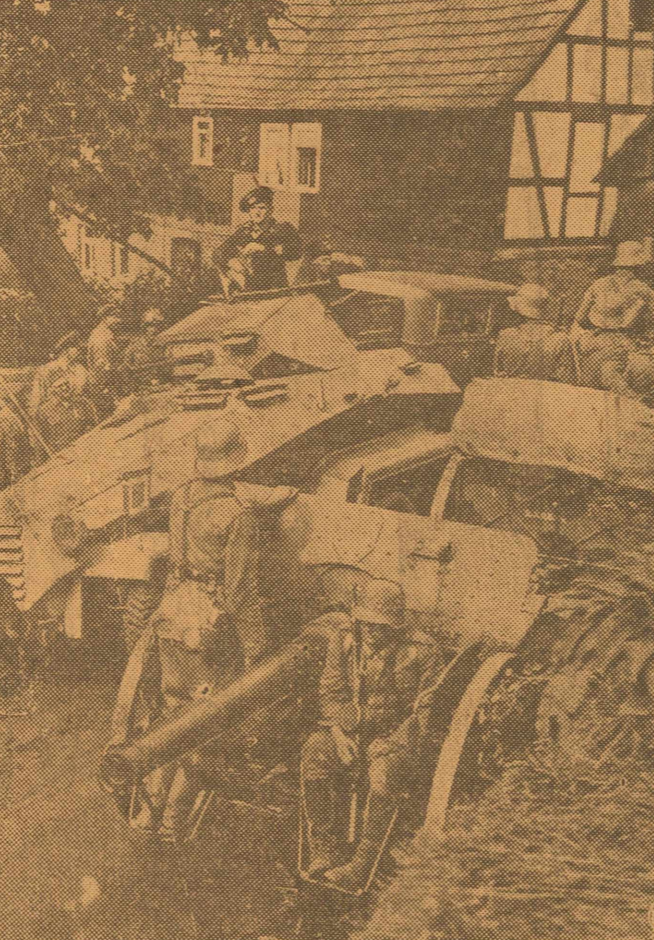

Earnings were reported to the Harris County Commissioners' Court by County Auditor Harry L. Washburn, who said September business was the greatest of any corresponding period since 1932.

Crashing Into the Picture

A newspaper photographer's life is filled with hazards, including such times as when he is the schnozzle of his apparatus into a football game. G. Felix, shutter snapper on the ground at right, was thrown for a 10-y. loss and a wrecked camera when Hal Harshon, U. C. L. A. back, crashed into him upon being run out of bounds as Washington whipped the Bruins, 14-0, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Tanks Rumble; War Re-echoes

The rumble of heavy tanks and armored cars, the gleam of helmets and gun barrels give German villagers a taste of war. This photograph was made as troops moved toward Hesse to take part in the most extensive military maneuvers in which the German army has engaged since the World War.

Some Legislators Have Short Names

By United Press

AUSTIN—A manual of the 44th Texas Legislature, issued this week, is the state counterpart of the Congressional Directory issued at Washington.

In it are listed members, committees, rules and other data. It reveals that many Texas legislators use as their complete names, what generally are abbreviations. Listed are Sens. Joe Hill, Henderson, Will Pace, Tyler, Will Martin, Hillsboro, and Jim Neal, Mirando City.

The House membership list includes: Pat Dwyer and Pat Jefferson, San Antonio; Lon Alsop, Carthage; Joe Caldwell, Asherton; Tom Copper, Lindale; Sam Hanna, Dallas; Fred Harris, Dallas; Gus Herzig, LaGrange; Alf Roark, Saratoga, and Jeff Stinson, Dallas.

Strangest name in the list is "Jap." That's all there is to it. There isn't any more. It's the Christian name of Representative Lucas from Athens. He believes it was a shortening of the name of Japhth, son of Noah.

Whitties Called For U. S. Cases

COMMUNISM CHARGE HALTS PASTOR'S TALK

By United Press

HOUSTON, Oct. 15.—Dr. James Workman of Fayetteville, Ark., a church official and one of two emergency campaign speakers barred from engagements at five Houston high schools, today denied any "communist leanings."

Dr. Workman, district superintendent of the Methodist church, and Dr. Robert Lovett, faculty member at the University of Chicago, were denied speaking engagements by J. O. Webb, director of Houston high schools.

Webb said that protests against the speakers that they had communistic beliefs had been filed with his office.

"We are fighting communism," Dr. Workman replied. "The movement for peace and the communistic movement are opposite."

Desdemona Man's Bid for Delivery Of Mail Accepted

C. H. Williams of Desdemona was the successful bidder for the mail messenger contract at the Eastland postoffice and will begin service Friday. Postmaster Frank A. Jones announced Thursday.

BULLDOGS INVADE WELSH FIELD FRIDAY AT 3 P. M.

Daylight Robbery Attempt Is Foiled

R. L. Gray, who gave an Oklahoma address to police, was held by county officers after what they charged was a daylight attempt to rob Kimbrell Hardware Store at Eastland Thursday morning.

Curtis Kimbrell, proprietor of the store, said he notices someone crawling from the rear of his building while he was in the front.

While questioning Gray, Kimbrell found checks and papers stolen from his safe. The checks and papers were found concealed in a bin and officers were called.

Deputy Sheriff D. J. Jobe filed the robbery complaint in Milton Newman's justice of the peace court.

Republican Call Roosevelt 'Kerensky'

By United Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—The republican national committee charged today that "President Roosevelt proved last night that he is the Kerensky of the American revolutionary movement."

Inflation will come if Roosevelt is reelected, the committee predicted, adding that "every owner of a life insurance policy, every owner of a savings account will see his savings evaporate."

Police Question Youths In Slaying

By United Press

FORT WORTH, Oct. 15.—Police today continued questioning two youths, aged 23 and 21, in connection with the beating early Wednesday of C. L. Johnston, middle-aged Cleburne world war veteran. A Fort Worth man told police the two youths also beat him severely when he declined to buy drinks for them at a local tavern. The witness bore signs of having been beaten over the head with a blunt instrument.

France Defeated In Diplomatic Move

By United Press

PARIS, Oct. 15.—France suffered a serious diplomatic defeat today and Germany a victory when Belgium joined the isolationist nations and concentrated on preserving neutrality in war complicating a situation already causing anxiety, and bringing nearer the certainty of a re-alignment which, at best, could only stir up a war and might bring one nearer.

Gray Approved For Barber Board

By United Press

AUSTIN, Oct. 15.—Governor Allred's appointment to the state liquor control board were confirmed by the Texas Senate today. All remaining appointments were confirmed, including L. E. Gray of Ranger, member of the state barber board.

The Senate committee on state affairs late yesterday reported favorably the House omnibus tax bill with numerous changes. The Senate added a 10-cent-a-gallon tax on gypsum, increased taxes on wine and taxed slot machines.

Rumor Says King Won't Be Married

By United Press

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Wallis Simpson's decision to divorce her husband, caused widespread speculation today as its effect on her friendship with King Edward VIII.

Sources said any suggestion King Edward might marry her was ridiculous. Ernest Simpson, the husband, scarcely figured in the gossip. He is living at the Guard's Club, while his wife occupies her new apartment.

Colony Boys Win, Girls Team Loses

The Colony boys basketball team defeated Parks 19 to 18 in a game played last Friday, it was announced today. The Colony team played a hang-up defensive game throughout.

The same evening the Colony girls' team was defeated by the Parks girls.

The Ranger Bulldogs invade Welsh Field Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the annual encounter with the Eastland Mavericks.

Although they won from Ranger last year, the Mavericks went into the game as underdogs and came out with the long end of the score, while Friday afternoon they take the field as heavy favorites to win over their much smaller, younger and less experienced opponents.

Although the game means nothing in the Oil Belt standings, a good crowd is anticipated for the game, for the two teams will be fighting to keep from being crowded down in the Oil Belt cellar, along with the Cisco Lobos.

The Mavericks have played four games this year, and although they have not scored as yet, they have a potential passing attack that may cause trouble, and their defensive strength is rated stronger than that of the Bulldogs, who have lost three games, two to class B teams.

Being young and light the Bulldogs have not, as yet, exhibited great offensive or defensive strength, though the team has been showing steady improvement since its first game and is developing rapidly. However it will likely be another year before the team's full strength is developed.

REBELS GAIN GROUND IN THE MADRID AREA

By United Press

The Spanish rebels have come within 25 miles of Madrid in the past 24 hours insurgent headquarters announced today.

This is the closest the nationalists rebels have approached to Madrid. They claimed the loyalists had abandoned more than 150 dead, two machine guns and considerable ammunition.

A loyalist counter-offensive on the front west of Madrid turned into a retreat which dispatches from Madrid indicated was disorderly.

Fearing the rebels might soon be at the city gates, the government intensified dissolving of fortifications.

Dispatches asserted that by the capture of two small towns, rebels had cut off the capitol's supply of coal, needed not only to heat homes, but to operate defense works.

Spoils System, Halting Progress, Must Go

They tell a story about the immigrant who was applying for citizenship papers and who was being tested as to his knowledge of American government. He was asked, "If you wanted to be a postmaster, whom would you ask for the job?"

The answer, of course, should have been "The president" — the idea being that the prospective citizen was supposed to know that the president appoints postmasters. But this immigrant knew his way around a little better than that. His answer was, "My district leader."

In that little story is the whole case for civil service reform. The immigrant was technically wrong, but practically right.

Government in America is a matter of favors, and the immigrant knew it. If you want to work for the government, it is far better to know the right man than to possess the right qualifications.

This, of course, is old stuff. Everybody knows it — even the immigrants who have been here only a few years. But we are rapidly getting to the point — if, indeed, we haven't got 'way past it — where this time-honored system is simply too expensive to be put up with any longer.

We seem to be fated to live in a society which entrusts more and more of its jobs to the government—city, state or federal. It is infinitely more important than it was a generation ago to have these jobs filled on the basis of merit. They touch our lives so much more closely than they used to. It is so much more necessary to get competent work out of the job holders.

Scribner's Magazine pointed out editorially the other day that the annual American tax bill now stands at $7,000,000,000, with small prospect that it will ever fall very much below that mark. The spending of this enormous sum, according to the editorial, is in the hands of a great army of government employees.

Isn't it, therefore, absolutely essential that young men and women of the highest type be trained for public service, to control this spending?

To train them, of course, isn't enough. Public service must be made attractive to them — not by higher pay, but by integrity, freedom from the spoils system, emphasis on efficient performance.

The young man who takes a government job must have the same assurance that can hold it as long as he does his work properly that he would have if he took a job in a bank, on a railroad, on in a newspaper shop.

We have heard some slighting comments of late about the horse and buggy age. The most expensive relic of that age still in use is the political spoils system.

Until we get rid of it, root and branch, in city hall, state house, and national capitol, we shall continue to be in the position of a man who is driving a one-hoss shay along the Indianapolis speedway while the Memorial Day race is on.

A Texas machine tells a man the mistakes he makes in driving. The subject must find it hard to refrain from saying "yes, dear."

WHEN male cowbirds ceased to give protection to their nesting territory, the females lost the instinct to incubate their eggs in a nest of their own. Since an egg in one location was protected no better than one in another, the birds began placing their eggs in the nests of other birds.

Q. When, where and for what purpose was Fort Tenoxtiltan maintained? R. P.

A. Tenoxtiltan, on the Brazos, near the present Burleson and Milam county lines, was a military post from about 1827 to 1832, maintained by the Mexican government "to protect the northern frontier of the colony from Indians and to promote settlement of the interior country on the Brazos."

Q. Who is called "The Mother of Texas?" W. K. B.

A. Mrs. James Long, wife of Dr. James Long, who headed the ill-fated Long expedition of 1821. When Long went on the expedition in the hope of recovering Texas from the Spaniards, he left her with her little daughter, Ann, and 25 men at Point Bolivar. The men deserted her one by one, leaving her, the child and a negro girl, to subsist alone during a winter of indescribable hardships and suffering. She finally despaired of Long's return and made her way, nearly starved, to Austin's colony in Fort Bend county, where she died in 1880 in her 83rd year.

Q. When was Bandera county organized and who were its first officers? O. B. J.

A. It was organized in 1856 with O. B. Miles, chief justice (county judge); William Curtis, sheriff; P. P. Pool, county clerk; Irvin F. Carter, tax assessor and collector. The first store, also used for a postoffice, was erected there in 1855 by August Klappenbach.

Q. Who taught the first school at Matagorda? J. J.

A. Johiah Wilburg, in 1828.

Q. Was James Bowie in the battle of Concepcion in October, 1835? H. C.

A. He rendered distinguished service in that battle, in which he was second in command.

Budweiser Beer Offered in Cans

Budweiser beer, long famous as a popular brand the world over, will be offered in cans for the first time to local residents at retail stores and taverns today. Shipments of the new can will be made from St. Louis to distributing points all over the country. While Anheuser-Busch follows a number of other breweries in placing its product in cans, it does so now with the assurance that use of the "tin" is practical and will in no way jeopardize the company's reputation for fine beer. Even though it is not the first to use the can, Anheuser-Busch was a leader in experimentation with the can as a possible container for beer on the retail market. As far back as 1927, and through the intervening period, its engineers have experimented in conjunction with the American Can Company, but not until very recently was the decision made to use the can—and only after its practicability was demonstrated. During the near-beer days of prohibition, company engineers advised against use of the can, declaring it was not suitable for the product. Equipment then, too, was inadequate. The lacquering process was not adaptable, for the beer came in contact with the metal to form iron salts. Anheuser-Busch refused to adopt the can at that time. Further experimenting continued, on a greater scale after prohibition was repealed and real beer came back. But Budweiser was not the first beer to appear in cans. As other beers were placed on the market in this type of container, Anheuser-Busch officials watched the response and results. Soon it became apparent that the time for can sales had arrived, the method was perfected and safe. Budweiser now sells in cans the same as it does in bottles. The Budweiser can is aristocrat in appearance. It is of a rich golden color with red and jet trimmings.

Shortest Solon Is Five Feet, One

AUSTIN—Rep. Harold Hankamer, El Paso, will soon lose his title as shortest man in the Texas House of Representatives. His five feet four inches is just three inches taller than the height of Roy Tennant, Jr., of Longview, who will become a member of the 45th House. Tennant visited the House recently. Speaker Coke Stevenson, Junction, called him and Hankamer for size comparison. Stevenson held out his arms horizontally. Both could pass beneath.

Smith purchased the 21 head of Hereford calves on November 30, 1935, at a cost of $380.62. At that time they had a total weight of 5,250 pounds. The calves were fed hay and cake for 80 days. The next 120 days the calves were put on small grain and native pasture with the cake continued. Then they were fed hulls, meal and ground maize heads for 50 days. They were finished for a period of 50 days on ground corn and cottonseed meal.

The calves were sold on September 25. Their total weight was 13,503 pounds, representing a gain of 8,252 pounds over a period of 300 days. They sold for $1,012.72, which left a profit of $317.00.

MARLIN—A yield of 44 bushels of corn per acre from a one-acre corn demonstration has been reported to W. L. Ross, Falls county agricultural agent, by Howard Haug, 4-H club boy. Howard sold the corn for 80 cents per bushel, making a total of $35.20 return on the acre.

Howard used yellow dent seed corn, selected from the barn from corn grown on the farm in 1935. After careful selecting and shelling the seed was treated to insure a better stand. The corn was grown on black land that had been terraced and was given good deep plowing in the fall, followed by clean level cultivation after the corn was up.

Guard Child's Eyes During "Eyestrain" Season

By Jean Prentice

Three-fourths of all a young child learns, say scientists, comes through the eyes. Prevention of eyestrain is particularly important during these early years.

STUDENTS, six or sixty years of age, need good lighting for better sight, better grades... and for less of that "tired feeling." And just as children need the proper size of chair and table for the comfort of their bodies when they study, so they need proper lighting for the comfort and protection of their eyes.

These facts are pointed out at this "eyestrain" season of the year by lighting scientists who have carefully studied light in its relation to sight.

No longer does the alert mother or father take it for granted that any kind of light is safe for home work. Research in the country's lighting laboratories has shown us differently.

Poor Light Causes Eye Defects Impaired eyesight is found in one out of five school children, two out of five college students and three out of five persons over forty. And we know that poor lighting has been a contributing cause to this regrettable condition.

By actual test it has been proved that home lighting is easier for children when studied under improved lighting, and that better grades result.

"All right," says mother. "I'll improve the lighting. But how?" First, have your lighting measured. It's being done these days as matter of fact as you call upon the thermometer for your child when she gets sick. Light is measured with a little instrument called a light meter. The meter may be carried about in your hand. A moving needle points on the dial to the amount of light you have (in a measurement called "footcandles"). Your lighting company can easily do the measuring for you.

In many homes only five foot-candles of light are found at the child's study table. Yet nature gives us at least 500 in the shade of a tree. Your child should have a minimum of ten for most textbooks.

Quality of Light Important But quantity of light has little value without quality. This means an even amount of general illumination throughout the room in addition to light from a study lamp. The eyes are thus not constantly forced to "change gears" as they look from light to dark.

Quality of light also means a good lamp. Ideal ones for your child are those approved by the Illuminating Engineering Society, a nationally known group of lighting men and eyesight specialists. The lamps are made in a variety of designs by a number of manufacturers. Their proper height, wide shade and inner translucent bowl generously distribute the light both up and down and over a wide area. The light is smooth and soft, and harmful glare is avoided.

And then watch your boy or girl study under one of these lamps! Or try it yourself.

are required to have Bachelor of Arts degrees to meet federal approval.

The Governor of Texas has no such degree. Neither has the attorney general, nor the director of old age assistance. "Why require it of men working for $150 a month and paying their own expenses," many a legislator asked.

The gauge of a college degree has figured in Texas affairs many times before. Most noted was a continuing effort to insert a requirement that the State Superintendent of Public Instruction have a college degree. The late S. M. N. Marrs, who was elected five times and served all but a few months of ten years, had no college degree.

He was recognized as one of the outstanding educators of the Southwest and was active in sessions of the National Educational Association.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By NEA Service

WHAT about an apple dessert for dinner tonight? Apples are abundant now, inexpensive, and it would be hard to name a fruit more generally popular.

Here's a way to prepare them that you may not have tried. Pare apples and mash to pulp, but do not cook. There should be one cup of apple pulp. Combine with 1-2 cup orange juice, 1-4 teaspoon salt and 1-4 cup powdered sugar. Beat the yolks of 2 eggs, then pour over them 1 cup scalded milk. Cool. Combine with the apple mixture. Add 1-2 cup finely-chopped pecans. Next, beat the whites of 2 eggs until stiff and dry. Stir in 1-4 cup powdered sugar and fold into the fruit mixture. Pour into six 6 ounce china or glass custard cups and freeze. Decorate with tiny apple jelly cubes just before serving.

Time for Brown Betty And there is always Brown Betty in October. But she reveals a different nature to different cooks. Here's one of her more charming moods. Peel, core and slice about 2 quarts tart apples. Butter a deep baking dish. Turn in the apples and dust with this spicy mixture: 3-4 cup brown sugar, 1-1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-8 teaspoon nutmeg and 1-4 teaspoon grated orange peel. Mix together

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Stewed prunes, light bran muffins, butter, raspberry jam, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Omelet with creamed vegetables, whole wheat toast, fruit gelatin, tea, milk.

DINNER: Grape and orange cup, Hungarian goulash, buttered noodles, cold slaw, apple pan dowdy, vanilla wafers, coffee.

Apple Pan Dowdy is another treat. Use 5 medium tart apples. Peel, core and cut into sections. Butter, rasp, arrange the apple sections over bottom. Sprinkle with 1 cup sugar, mixed with 2 teaspoons cinnamon. Dot with 1-2 tablespoons butter. Make a biscuit dough. Roll about 1-2 inch thick and cover the apples. Bake in moderate oven until brown, about 1-2 hour. Turn out, apple side up. Serve with hard sauce.

Texan Who Knew Grant and Lee Has Hopes of Being 100

By United Press

KIRBYVILLE, Texas — Joseph Culley, 82, retired blacksmith and lumberman, who as a boy knew Gen. Robert E. Lee, Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, and Gen. N. B. Forrest, hopes to celebrate his centennial before he dies.

He retired several years ago and now lives with his daughter, Mrs. Denny Newton. He takes life easily and says a liking for whisky will not endanger his ambition for longevity. He scorns soft drinks, but never gets intoxicated.

A pioneer of Southeast Texas, which is a Democratic stronghold, Culley said he had cast his ballot for every Republican presidential candidate since he reached maturity, and that he would vote for Gov. Alf M. Landon this year.

Both Federal and Confederate armies at various times during the Civil War used his father's farm in Tennessee for a camping ground, Culley said.

His most vivid recollection of the war was his resentment because Southern soldiers, hungry and poorly clothed, took all provisions they could find. His feelings toward them changed as time passed, he said.

Culley left Tennessee six years after the Civil War, going to Dallas. Later he worked in Austin, and migrated to Beaumont in 1876. He was married in 1885 and moved to this section.

ROILED steak, sizzling with butter and lemon juice—a low-cost treat to the H. C. L.! Do you think it's impossible? Not at all. Of course you don't use high-priced steak. You buy the common garden variety, chopped round. One pound will serve three persons. It must be fresh, ground, moist and fairly free of excess fat.

Shape the steak into a large fillet about one-half inch thick. Heat a heavy iron frying pan for at least five minutes before you put in the steak. Do not grease the frying pan. It must be very hot and absolutely dry. Then plank the steak fillet on the searing surface. Let it steam and sear and sputter for 3 minutes. Then, with a pancake turner, turn it over and cook the other side at high heat for 3 more minutes. That is all there is to it.

Season with Lemon

Remove carefully to a hot platter, dot liberally with butter, season with salt and pepper, and squeeze the juice of 1-2 lemons over it. Serve at once. You will be amazed at the flavor of this excellent steak.

You've saved on your steak, yet not cut down on your dinner value. So ask in three friends for an informal bridge luncheon tomorrow. Serve ham and eggs in pepper shells. Combine 3-4 cup cooked ham, finely chopped, with 1-3 cup dry bread crumbs, 3-4

BREAKFAST: Compote of stewed prunes, sliced bananas and sliced dates, corn bread, maple syrup, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Ham and eggs in pepper cases, buttered strips of whole wheat toast, canned apricots, chocolate wafers, tea, milk.

DINNER: Tomato cocktail, broiled round steak with lemon butter, mashed potatoes, scalloped broccoli, grated carrot and green pepper salad, green apple pie with cheese, coffee.

Peppers Hold Ham and—

Use 4 firm medium green peppers. Cut in half lengthwise, remove seeds and white portion. Parboil for 5 minutes. Drain well. Line peppers with ham mixture, building up sides to hold the eggs. Place pepper cases on attractive pie plate and into each pocket drop a raw egg. Dot each egg with butter and pour about 1-2 cup boiling water into plate. Bake in moderate oven until whites are firm—about 25 minutes.

Sport Glances. . . . .By Grayson

NEW YORK—Tom Canzoneri and Jimmy McLarin are about to do a fine job of rounding out their careers and heels at the same time.

Their return 10-round match at the Garden, Oct. 2, furnishes additional proof that fighting men seldom know when they have had enough.

Ordinarily, beat busters stick to their wearing trade for the wife and kiddies or coffee and cakes, but here we have the strange spectacle of two of the wealthiest products of pugilism pouncing each other for no reason at all other than more money.

Canzoneri's spectacular victory over McLarin last spring still lives vividly in the minds of New York ringworms and the second edition figures to attract a capacity turnout. Aside from that, no definite purpose is seen in reviving Tony and Jimmy.

McLarin was relegated to fisticuffs' scrap heap when Canzoneri dropped him four or five times and all but knocked him out in the memorable upset of several months ago. Canzoneri himself would have fallen down in another couple of rounds, and more recently appeared destined for retirement after being shorn of his lightweight wreath by Lou Ambers.

Motor to Abilene to Hear Gypsy Smith

Mrs. L. E. White, accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Johnson, motored to Abilene Wednesday evening, to attend the services now being conducted in union form by the world's famous evangelist, Gypsy Smith. The meeting is attracting state-wide attention and visitors from many miles are driving to the host city to hear the noted and most consecrated evangelist. The choir alone is composed of five hundred voices, and the meeting is proving most successful.

TIME and tough battles have extracted the inevitable toll from Canzoneri and McLarin. Canzoneri is the much more showman of the two.

Canzoneri and McLarin are both past 30 and have been hurling leather grenades since 1923. McLarin figures to win this trip, perhaps by a knockout. His Irishman won't be quite as rusty as he was the last time out, and

"The furniture business has made its strongest comeback hand in hand with the home-building industry," said Mueller. "During the depression we existed on replacements, but now new homes are stimulating purchases all over the nation."

Mueller and eleven other Grand Rapids furniture manufacturers recently visited the Southwest on a good will trip.
