INTEREST IN CARBON AREA IS STILL HIGH

Work of cleaning out the J. O. Fox & Son's No. 1 J. H. Vaughn, an offset to the C. L. Mahaney No. 1 A. S. Jackson well in the South Carbon pool in Eastland county, is progressing satisfactorily it is understood. Until the hole is cleaned and storage provided, it will not be definitely known just what the production of this well will be. Every indication is, however, that it will be equally as good a producer as the Mahaney well. The Fox came in Monday morning following a shot in the Caddo line.

Dobbs Oil Corporation's No. 2 Thomason, located on the east half of the S. H. Key survey, bids fair to be the next well in this pool. Gallagher & Lawson's No. 1 R. C. Morris on the P. S. Hardy survey, which is a south offset to the C. L. Mahaney, is not far behind the Dobbs' No. 2 Thomason in depth.

A possible two mile extension of the South Carbon pool is seen in the fact that a 1,000 acre block formed around the H. I. Stapp estate, formerly the Berry Flemming estate, is being pooled for a test.

Corn Crop Loans Of Government Hiked

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Agriculture Department today fixed the 1940 corn loans to farmers at 61 cents a bushel.

This loan represents a four-cent increase over the loan allowed corn growers during the last growing season.

Boy Meets Dog

Young Larry Windsor, 14, of Republic, Wash., was a happy lad, and Trixie was a happy dog when they were reunited in New York after Larry flew 2500 miles from Spokane to retrieve his lost pet. The reunion is pictured above, with Stewardess Cleo Masterson watching. Trixie got locked in a freight car loaded with lumber, made an involuntary two-weeks trans-continental trip without food or water. Larry wrote to all consignees whose lumber had been on the Republic siding. Trixie was found in a shipment for A. C. Crombie, who arranged for the boy to fly to New York.

One Million Texans Dependant Upon Government for Their Subsistence Social Welfare Survey Discloses

DALLAS, Tex.—One million Texans are dependent on governmental aid for subsistence, according to a survey compiled by a committee of the Texas Social Welfare Association.

"There are at least 80,000 families either on or below the starvation line," said Miss Gaynell Hawkins of Dallas, committee chairman.

The report was made for the benefit of Texas cities which intend to ask the state legislature at the January session to cooperate with local governments in providing relief.

Texas is one of 12 states which does not aid local governments with relief funds.

"Since the middle of the depression we have told the world that Texas is the bright spot of the nation" the report says.

"Yet in Texas today more than a million people must look to government—federal, state or local for subsistence. Of this million, at least half have less than enough to supply their wants at even the minimum level of health and decency."

The report begins with an editorial reprinted from the Dallas Journal of Oct. 3, 1940 pointing out that adequate diet is essential to civilians as well as soldiers in the preparedness program.

Data for the report was obtained from 230 of the 254 Texas counties, covering the 21-month period from September, 1938, through August, 1939.

"The month of April, 1939, is fairly representative of the finds of this study," the report states.

"At that time, 93,938 family heads and single individuals were working on WPA, 53,159 were certified to WPA, 12,197 families were receiving direct relief, and 105,128 individuals were receiving old age assistance."

Texas Fire Deaths Show A Big Drop

AUSTIN, Texas.—A sharp decline in the number of fire deaths during the months of September and October was reported today by Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner.

The monthly average through August, had been approximately 32 deaths, but only 47 Texans were burned to death during September and October. "This report reflects a great deal of improvement, but the record is far from perfect," he said. "Our most dangerous fire-death months are upon us, and I want to impress upon every person the importance of exercising caution, particularly in the homes."

The number of fire deaths for the first ten months of the year totalled 337. The leading causes of fatal burns were standing too close to open fires, improper use of gasoline, lack of proper exits, explosions.

STRAWN PLAYS TITLE CONTEST ON THURSDAY

STRAWN, Nov. 20.—Probably one of the most exciting high school grid games in West Texas will be unreeled here tomorrow afternoon when Coach W. T. Head's Strawn High Greyhounds and Coach Connor Horton's Clyde High Bulldogs, both undefeated and untied in conference play, clash for the Division 1, District 12-B schoolboy title.

Titleless since 1927 when a Red and Black eleven won the old District 4 championship, Coach Head's Strawn High aggregation has been going through stiff drills this week in preparation for their tilt with Clyde here Thursday.

School officials have indicated that advance ticket sales for the Thanksgiving Day grid classic—the only big battle to be waged in Palo Pinto County that day—have already hit the ceiling and a record crowd is expected to pack the field for the starting kick-off which has been set for 2 o'clock.

Information from Clyde indicates that between 250 and 300 Bulldog fans will follow the Clyde eleven here for the game.

With exception to the fact that the visitors slightly outweigh Coach Head's Red and Black machine, the two teams are well balanced and evenly matched. The Bulldogs have amassed a total of 144 points during their four conference tilts—and their opponents have been held scoreless. The Strawns have stacked up 151 points in four conference battles and have been scored on but once for 6 points.

Physically Fit Men For Draft Expected To Be Only Half

DETROIT.—Dr. F. A. Gordon, president of the American Osteopathic Association, has warned that fewer than half America's men of military age are physically fit now for "rigorous outdoor life and labor in training camps."

"Unless we devise some plan or way to put our civilian population in proper physical condition," he told a Michigan convention of osteopaths "we can look forward to a repetition of our World War experience, when more men died than were killed in action or died of wounds, and the civilian epidemics that seem to accompany mobilization or spread from war-torn countries."

Dr. Gordon, a Marshall town, Ia., resident, noted measures now planned by the public health service and groups of doctors, but said:

"The public will expect and insist that our system of military medicine be allowed to expand to include methods of diagnosis and treatment for such things as influenza that were highly effective and available to civilians but denied to men in uniform during the World War."

Two Men Die On Way To Brownwood Camp

BROWNWOOD, Nov. 20.—Two men died today on highways leading to Camp Bowie, both apparently the victims of heart attacks.

Guy Calens of Plainview, who was believed to be seeking work at the camp which is still under construction on the outskirts of the town, was the first heart attack victim found today.

Zach Osborn, a carpenter, who has been at work on construction work at the camp, was found dead in his automobile, which had struck a telephone pole after Osborn apparently suffered an attack while driving to the camp.

Father Of Ranger Women To Be Buried

J. H. Culpepper father of Mrs. B. S. Lemma and Mrs. John Barnes of Ranger died at his home in Vernon Tuesday night, according to word received here today. Mrs. Lemma and Mrs. Barnes had been at the bedside of their father the past few days. Lemma and his children left today to attend the services.

Funeral services were scheduled to be held at Tolbert Wednesday afternoon at 3:30, with burial in the Tolbert cemetery.

Gov. O'Daniel May Be Ranked With Gov. Hogg On Special Session View

AUSTIN, Texas.—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel very likely will go down in the books as the first Texas governor since James Stephen Fogg who did not call a special session of the legislature.

Every other governor since Fogg has called special sessions and those who served more than one term have called special sessions of the legislature in each term. Governor O'Daniel shows no inclination to follow their example.

Since the regular session of the 23rd Texas Legislature, which was held from Jan. 10 to May 19, 1893, there have been 22 regular sessions of the legislature and 50 special sessions.

Former Gov. Dan Moody holds the record for calling the most extra sessions of one legislature. He called five special sessions of the 41st legislature and one special session of the 40th legislature. But in number of days during one term that a governor has had the legislature in session, his record has been exceeded by both Gov. Ross S. Sterling and Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson.

The 42nd legislature which met while Sterling was governor, was in session a total of 215 days, and the 43rd legislature with Mrs. Ferguson as a governor sat for a total of 257 days. The 41st legislature with Moody as governor sat 202 days.

The reason both Mrs. Ferguson and Governor Sterling had more days of legislative session than Moody, though they called fewer special sessions, is that when Sterling was in the governor's office a change had been made in the state constitution that extended the length of a regular session of the legislature to 120 days. Before that time a regular session consisted of 60 days. Special sessions then and now more than 30 days.

The 35th legislature had four special sessions in 1917-18, two of the sessions being called by Gov. James E. Ferguson and two by Gov. W. P. Hobby, who became acting governor and then governor when Ferguson was impeached. The postwar year of 1919 had two special sessions as well as the regular session and there were two more sessions called by Governor Hobby in 1920.

The record of governors with the number of special sessions since Governor Hogg's day is:

Chas. A. Culbertson, to terms, two special sessions.

Joseph D. Sayers, two terms, three special sessions.

S. W. T. Lanham, two terms, three special sessions.

T. M. Campbell, two terms, five special sessions.

O. B. Colquitt, two terms, four special sessions.

James E. Ferguson, one term

Marfa's Municipal Utilities Are Making Money For City

MARFA, Tex.—Once a city that depended upon windmills for its source of water supply, Marfa now has a money-making, municipally-owned utility system.

Under the leadership of progressive, civic-minded citizens and Mayor Henry Coffield, Marfa erected a butane gas system four years ago. It was so successful that a city water well was erected shortly afterwards. Both ventures prospered beyond the Marfians' fondest expectations.

The city has an adequate water storage of 350,000 gallons. Water is supplied by only two wells. An elevated tank, a high stand pipe and an underground storage tank have been constructed.

From a beginning of 50 or 60 water meters there are now 580 water meters.

The Marfa water system is allied with the army's system at nearby Fort D. A. Russell to give the army added fire protection should any emergency arise.

The gas system has had success comparable with that of the city water venture. There are 250 gas meters in Marfa and one gas rate reduction has already been granted. A sinking fund is being established to provide for plant replacements and improvements.

Relief Clothing Is Received In Ranger

Mrs. Waurine Long, head of the Ranger relief office, stated today that clothing orders for relief clients were now on hand, and were being distributed today and Thursday.

All who have turned in orders for clothing have been urged to obtain their bundles of clothes not later than Thursday of this week.

ANSON GAME IS SET FOR 7:30 ON THURSDAY

Time for the Ranger Bulldog-Anson Tiger football game, to be played in Ranger, has been set for 7:30 p. m. Thursday, it was announced today by Coach H. G. Jennings, after a consultation with school board officials and the coach of the Tigers.

Time for the game was set at night because of several other games in this vicinity which had previously been scheduled for Thursday afternoon, and because it was believed that the weather would be mild enough to be comfortable tomorrow night.

Other games in this part of the country include the District 12-B game at Strawn between the Strawn Greyhounds and Clyde, the game at Brownwood between the Stephenville Yellow Jackets and the Brownwood Lions, which will determine the Oil Belt championship, and the game at Breckinridge with Mineral Wells, which will have no bearing on the championship, but which is expected to draw a large crowd.

The Bulldogs have been practicing hard all this week, in the hopes of earning at least one victory this year, a feat that was considered impossible at the start of the football season, and which has been a waning hope as the season progressed.

The Tigers will be the favorites, as they have a slightly heavier team and one which has had vastly more experience, a team that has won most of its games and against which only a few touchdowns have been scored this season. No team has yet made more than 12 points against them this year.

The Bulldogs, on the other hand, while playing against much stiffer competition than have the Tigers, have been scored upon almost at will, and have made but 12 points all season.

Coach Jennings, while still somewhat doubtful about the outcome, declares that it is not impossible for the Bulldogs to win, and has, like the team members, hopes that an upset victory might be scored.

"At any rate," Jennings says, "the fans who come out for the game are due to see a much better contest than any the Bulldogs have played to date."

Instead of dividing the team into two units, Jennings plans to put the best team possible on the field, and to make only such substitutions as prove necessary during the game, in an effort to give the Bulldogs every opportunity to prove whether or not they can win.

HUNGARY IS NOW MEMBER OF THE AXIS

Hungary joined the Rome-Berlin axis today as German bombers attacked the British war industries in what the Nazis called a mere beginning of concentrated attacks, which are to be continued on a large scale.

It was estimated that 500 German planes dropped a million pounds of bombs last night on Birmingham, Britain's second largest city, but the United Press correspondent said that many factories were running today and that the damage done was "less than might have been expected." Many casualties resulted from the raid, however.

Adolf Hitler today made diplomatic preparations for an axis offensive through the Balkans where the Greeks are reported to have continued their successes against the Italian invaders. The Greeks said that eight Italian planes were shot down by British fighters in one battle and that encirclement of the Italian base at Koritza "continued with success."

Unconfirmed reports said that many Italian troops and considerable equipment was interned in Yugoslavia when the fascists tried to march through that country to attack the Greeks from the rear.

Turkish sources were pessimistic, hinting that Germany was trying to make Bulgaria send its army against the Greeks.

'Prepare Against America' Posters In Tokyo Warn

TOKYO, Nov. 20.—Red and black posters warning, "Prepare against America," appeared throughout the city today.

The posters read, in smaller type, "Listen to the bell on the eve of the world war." They were especially numerous in the vicinity of the United States embassy.

The national patriotic party had put them up during the night. Newspapers, meanwhile, assailed the United States and Great Britain in connection with rumors that they had signed a secret military treaty with Thailand (Siam).

Nichi Nichi said: "Thailand's demands on French Indo-China for the recovery of lost territory might be justifiable, however the reported Anglo-American pledge of assistance to Thailand is nothing but their cunning means of turning Thailand into a bulwark to defend the security of Burma and the Malay peninsula, and to check Japan's southward advance."

Asahi said: "We must warn Thailand she has only one course to take—participation in Japan's construction of a greater east Asia prosperity sphere. What we are most concerned about is the danger of Thailand being tempted by Britain and the United States."

Newspapers Are Scored by AFL Meeting Speaker

Sol Rosenblatt, counsel for the Democratic National Committee, criticized American newspapers today for their attitude toward President Roosevelt. Rosenblatt was a speaker before the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

Rosenblatt also told the Federation members that Mr. Roosevelt's re-election proved that democracy was equal to any emergencies.

"It is a vote of confidence," he declared in his speech at the convention in New Orleans.

At Atlantic City, scene of the convention of the Congress of Industrial Organization, Sidney Hillman of the defense council revealed that he now is trying to put "into line" behind the defense program the Ford Motor Company and the Bethlehem Steel Corporation.

Bombers Sold To British Today

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The United States has released to Great Britain 26 "four engine" bombers, described as a different type from the flying fortresses.

The new bombers were being completed for the United States Air Corps, the army announced.

Home Guard—Proceed With Caution

In the heat of the election, few people noticed that Congress on Oct. 21 passed an act authorizing the setting up of "home guard" units in the states.

The idea, of course, is to provide some sort of a force which could be used as a substitute for the national guard as the guard's units go into the federal service and, in many cases, leave the state. It has been Congress' thought, evidently, that it would be unwise to leave states without some force which could be called out in case of fire, flood, or national disaster, of riot or internal disturbance, or of concerted sabotage of manufacturing or producing facilities.

The basic idea is probably all right. But any activities of this kind ought to be carried out only in a completely responsible manner. The country wants no amateur vigilantes trooping up and down the land, acting on whatever sort of wild hunch seems to them a good idea at the time. We are not at war, and there is so much the less excuse for any of the acts of terrorism that were perpetrated in 1917-18 in the name of "home guarding."

Private organizations, no matter how patriotic, should not be allowed to organize or support any such forces. They should be public forces, completely organized, trained, and controlled by the army, subject as the army is, to proper civilian authority.

In fact, it would not be a bad idea to raise any such force by the draft, just as the regular army is raised. That would insure that home defense, as well as national defense, be entrusted to a cross section of the nation's people, and not overweighted by any single economic or political group. It would insure that the burden of such service would be evenly distributed.

Only completely responsible and properly trained officers should be placed in charge, and all activities should be subject to control and review by public civilian authority. Only thus will any home guard activity be properly geared to accomplish what it is meant to accomplish, and nothing else.

Cotton farmers throughout the country will vote Saturday, December 7, 1940 on whether they want marketing quotas on the 1941 cotton crop.

Cotton farmers have elected to use quotas for the past three years, thus controlling the supply of cotton produced and thereby tending to raise the market price of cotton.

PREFABRICATION MIGHT BREAK UP DEFENSE HOUSING JAM, REDUCE SMALL HOME PRICES

BY BRUCE CATTON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Prefabricated housing might—just possibly—break the log jam in defense housing and help knock down small home prices all along the line. Experts see in pre-fabricated housing an ideal answer to the need for vastly increased, but largely temporary, housing accommodations in certain defense production areas.

They recall the famous Pert Wayne experiment of a few years ago, in which serviceable five-room houses were put up for around $900. Since WPA labor was used, this doubtless was under any price private industry could be expected to meet; nevertheless, the houses came in pre-fabricated panels which could be erected in one day—and which, after the need was gone, could be knocked down in another day and moved to any spot where they were needed.

UNIONS STYMIE CONSTRUCTION
FILES of the anti-trust division of the Department of Justice are eloquent about some of the things that have stymied pre-fabricated housing. Take the experience of the Gunnison Manufacturing Corp. at Belleville, Ill. Gunnison builds pre-fabricated houses. Its plant in New Albany, Ind., is a C. I. O. shop. Recently it got a contract to put up one of its houses in Belleville.

At Belleville it couldn't get a contractor to handle the job, nor could it hire any A. F. of L. union workers. Hence it brought in its own crew of C. I. O. men to do the job. When the materials were shipped in, local workers wouldn't unload them at the freight station, and local haulers would not handle them. When, finally, the materials were got to the lot, pickets swarmed around and there were daily fights and near-riots. Efforts to get police protection failed. Justice Department finally moved in and indicted a lot of people—local building materials dealers, local unions, and the chief of police. Gunnison was then able to go ahead and build the house. But the case illustrates the kind of problem the pre-fabricated house encounters.

What the anti-trust division would really like is a concerted move to revise building codes, rewriting them in terms of tests rather than in terms of specific materials. This would safeguard the public and at the same time remove the restraints which do so much to bar pre-fabricated and other types of low-cost housing.

DON'T STOP AT MURDER!

A newspaper is an accurate reflection of what today is doing with people . . . and what people are doing with today.

Murder is big-type news. So is a bank stick-up. And so is the dedication of a new library, or the launching of a new ship, or the employment of hundreds in reviving industry.

But you have read only half of the story, if you stop at murder. In our advertising columns can be found news in its most authentic sense.

What are people wearing? What are they eating? Where are they going? How are they going? Why this style, and why that vogue? When is the time to build? Who has the latest? How much does it cost?

Answers to these and like questions give you real information . . . news . . . about this business of modern living. And you will find these answers by carefully reading the advertisements in this newspaper.

We can install a cell block in the shower room in the basement if the need arises. If we had a jail it would just be turned into a haven for transients."

ARCADIA NOW PLAYING

More than a ton of rich, beautiful stage equipment is carried for the performance, all of which is handled with a skill and dexterity evidently born of years of practice and training. How this master of mystery survives the physical and mental strain of his whirl-wind performance must be another of his magical secrets.

The performance will begin at 8 p. m. and will run for two hours. The admission is only 20 cents for all students and 35 cents for adults.

Dr. Gaffney recently completed a tour of the Orient and the Far East, where he studied under some of the Hindu performers, for which India is famous. He has attained the acclaim of "the most beloved entertainer in America."
