WHAT'S...

COOKING?

By NORMAN WRIGHT

Regardless of how much you like Price Daniel, and how many times you voted for him for Governor, United States Senator, Attorney General and all the other offices he has held, you will have to admit that he is the original "hard luck kid."

Price Daniel has been a very close friend of ours for the past 30 years. We went through Baylor University together and graduated in the same class and have had a business together a jillion times since, and we were also very well acquainted with Mrs. Daniel long before she ever became Mrs. Daniel.

But we were not among those who voted for Price, simply because we felt he was having too hard a time trying to decide whether he wanted to be United States Senator or Governor, and because he couldn't make up his mind on whether he was a Democrat or a Republican.

But at any rate we were glad to see him get elected and we hope his hard luck does not pursue him all during his administration. To begin with, he just barely did it in with something like a scant 3,000 votes margin which means that half the state didn't want him.

Then he had hard luck on trying to resign from his Senate post because Allan Shivers wouldn't call the special election that Daniel asked for so that he could make good on his promise to the voters by resigning so they could elect a senator without one having to be appointed.

He also had hard luck because Shivers left with the administration packed and jammed to the gills with Shivers' appointees in every possible government position, and those which did not have Shivers' appointees in them were filled by Shivers during the last few days of his administration. Many of these appointees have been openly hostile to Daniel in the past.

Daniel had more hard luck when somebody else came in and stole the thunder of his own inauguration. Few Texans barely knew that a new governor was being inaugurated. Of all the times in a man's life when it should have been "His Day" it should have been the day when he was inaugurated Governor of his state, but that all slipped by Price Daniel.

In the first place, Shivers stole half the show by finally appointing a man to the senate a bare two hours before the inauguration took place, and then again, of all times, Eisenhower chose that time to make his flying trip to the drought-stricken areas of Texas and what headlines Shivers didn't get, Ike got, and is still getting them in. Ranger St'm Laundry to Clean Your Clothes for March Dimes Wed.

Ranger Steam Laundry, owned and operated by S. W. Rainey, has arranged to give the entire day's business Wednesday, Jan. 23, to the March of Dimes.

Rainey said the plan would be worked in the following manner: He asked that everybody in Ranger who has laundry to be done, any type of laundry from the finest finished pieces to regular flat work, bring their bundles to his plant early Wednesday morning, Jan. 23.

The laundry will be done in the regular manner on Wednesday and Thursday, and wrapped, ready for delivery back to the customers when they call on Friday or Saturday.

There will be no prices or charges placed on the bundles for the cleaning. Customers may pick up their bundles and leave whatever donation they wish to the March of Dimes in a container which will be placed on the counter for that purpose. All of the money thus contributed will be turned over to the March of Dimes, Rainey said. None will be kept by the laundry.

Mrs. J. A. Bates, county chairman for the March of Dimes, said this was one of the most generous offers she had heard of, and she urged that everyone, whether they use the laundry regularly or not, take their bundles to Ranger Steam Laundry next Wednesday, Jan. 23, for cleaning and finishing, and leave their donations for the March of Dimes when they pick up their bundles on Friday or Saturday.

There will be no charges of any kind marked on the finished laundry bundles. Customers may take them home for whatever they wish to leave for the polio fund.

Big-Hearted Ranger Sends 150 Xmas Cards to Dystrophy Victims

A few days before last Christmas, the Ranger Times published a story of little 5-year-old Deborah Dixon, of Rt. No. 3, Box 148F, Arlington, Texas, who was dying of muscular dystrophy, and who "dearly loved" to receive cards through the mail.

The Times suggested that perhaps there were several people in Ranger who would like to send Deborah a Christmas Card, and Ranger, big-hearted as always in matters like this, sent 150 of them.

The Times has received the following letter from Deborah's mother, Mrs. J. B. Dixon:

"We want to thank the people of Ranger for the wonderful shower of cards that Debbie got at Christmas time. She received over 200 cards from all over Texas. They were really greatly appreciated.

Debbie has muscular dystrophy and you can see the pleasure she gets from her cards as all her time is spent in a wheel chair.

She will be five the 30th of January and is old enough to care for them. We have made her a scrap book of the cards. Enclosed is a picture of Debbie and her cards. I thought you might like to print it in your paper and tell the people of Ranger that we thank them so much for their kindness.

Over 150 cards came from Ranger. (Signed) Mrs. B. J. Dixon

The Times regrets the picture of which Mrs. Dixon spoke is too dark and too small for reproduction in the paper. However, it is here for all of you to see if you happen to be coming by the office. And the Times also joins Mrs. Dixon in expressing thanks for this wonderful spirit showed by the people of Ranger once again to an unfortunate girl.

Ranger did this quietly and without fanfare and nobody would ever have known that even so much as one card had been sent from here if this letter had not been received from Mrs. Dixon.

Lions Must Pay Tax to Avoid Tailtwister

Ranger Lions must be able to show the Tailtwister a poll tax receipt at next Thursday's meeting or else suffer the consequences. That was decided upon at this week's luncheon as a move to spur poll tax buying as the whole town is going to be disenfranchised unless citizens start buying them pretty soon. Last day is Jan. 31.

The Lions are also without a Sweetheart and a committee, consisting of Judson Hardy, Wilson Guest and Bob Earnest was appointed to find one, quick. Lion President Ronald Pruet complained that he could not enjoy his meal unless he was sitting by a beautiful young lady.

The Reverends Ralph Perkins and Herman Boyd, who were last week appointed on a vice committee to investigate whether or not the Lions should buy a Bingo Game, changed the subject when asked about their findings, and the Lions apparently forgot all about the proposition.

Everything is all set for the Aunt Jimma Pancake Supper on Saturday night, Jan. 26. Aside from the Quaker Oats Company, which is donating the pancake flour, it was announced that Hulsom Products, Inc., had donated the coffee; Vermont Maid had donated the syrup; C. D. Hartnett Co., had donated real butter; and the meat would probably be ham from the Illinois Meat Co.

Teen Town Mothers Club Active In Behalf Of Youth Program

Editor's Note: "Teen Town" is the new name for the Youth Center. Miss Sue Garrett submitted the name in a contest and students selected it over all other entries.

The Teen Town Mothers' Club of Ranger held a meeting this week during which members drew up a Resolution pledging "loyal support" to the Teen Town Control Board and all the efforts being put forth on behalf of activities at the Youth Center, and finally voted unanimously to accept the Resolution as the Club's Charter.

The Teen Town Mothers' Club was organized last September, and since then it has been responsible for suggesting several improvements which have been made at the Youth Center by the Board, two of which were the building of adequate sidewalks, and the placing of cement slabs in front of the building so as to form adequate plots for flower beautification.

In the future the Mothers' Club hopes to see the area between the clubhouse and the Civic League made into an adequate parking lot for cars. It has also been announced by the Club that Mrs. W. P. Hatfield had offered to let the Center use an electric refrigerator which will be moved in soon, and which will fill a pressing need. The mothers are also collecting games for use of the Teen Town members and are ready to assist in planning a Valentine Party. Mrs. David Pickrell, club president, said the members were "very proud of the efforts being made on behalf of the children by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Perry, the new chairmen, and have pledged to do all they can to help them continue the splendid job they are now doing."

The Club has also taken recognition of the fact that it takes money to carry on the successful program that is now in progress at the club house, and members have said: "We earnestly appeal to the people of Ranger to cooperate with the Community Chest in giving funds which will assure a continuation of the program which we feel is keeping our young people from harmful pastimes."

All mothers are invited to become members of the Club, Mrs. Pickrell said. She also wanted to stress that a public telephone had now been installed in the building making it possible for parents to contact children, and for children to call their parents. Mrs. Pickrell said this phone number was not listed and asks that everyone interested please jot it down, No. 9504.

The National Budget An Editorial

That huge, almost unreadable, string of figures stretched across the top of this page is the amount of money President Eisenhower says he needs to run the Government of the United States for the next ONE YEAR.

That amounts to $450.00 each for every man, woman, child and 1-day-old infant in this country with its population of 160,000,000 people, just to run the government for ONE YEAR.

It is the biggest peace-time budget ever set up for any country since the creation of the world.

The amount of money Texas taxpayers will be called upon to furnish in this enormous budget will be $3-150,000,000, almost FOUR TIMES the amount of money spent during 1956 to finance the entire government of the State of Texas.

Back during the early days of Franklin D. Roosevelt when this country was struggling to pull itself out of a depression, FDR submitted a record-breaking, all-time-high budget of $8,000,000,000. But right now, today, it takes $8,000,000,000 just to pay the INTEREST on the money we owe.

Eisenhower says even if he is asking for a $72 billion budget, he will still stay within the limits of income. But there is an "IF" connected with that statement and it is a mighty big "IF". He will stay within the limits of income "IF" congress will continue some $2-300,000,000 in expiring corporate and excise taxes and "IF" congress boosts postal rates by $654,000,000 by charging 5 cents for a letter instead of 3 cents.

This kind of spending has got to stop. Even the president's own Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey said "this upward spending trend must be promptly stopped. If we don't begin taking less out of this economy, I predict we will have a depression that will make your hair curl."

When asked if a depression should come and the administration restored to red-ink financing to combat it, what would he do, Humphrey said he would resign, all of which would certainly be a help to this country after the harm was already done.

Foreign aid alone gets $4,350,000,000. The Department of Defense gets $45,300,000,000. It isn't costing Russia one single ruble to stand by and see this country bankrupt itself. One little threat here, and one little sword rattle there, and we spend a few more billion. It can't last. The country just cannot stand up under it.

Granted that the government needs a lot of money, it would behoove the congress to take time to look at every request. It would take a month to read all of the items in that budget, but just right off we could pick dozens of them that could be very easily tossed out without exposing us to the threats of communism.

We are speaking of such items as "acquisition and maintenance of an official residence for the Vice President," at an undetermined amount of money; more air conditioning for government employees; a $16,000,000 extension on the front of the Capitol; a $500,000 addition to the Smithsonian Institute; a new super-liner for tourists; and we feel pretty sure there are several thousand towns and cities in the United States that can struggle along for a few more years without brand new post-office buildings.

This budget is only one per cent behind the biggest budget we had during the biggest of the war years. And not a penny being set aside to pay on the public debt.

Everybody in favor of this kind of government, let it be known by raising his right hand.

Bulldogs Lose 54-52 to Ballinger Bearcats

A 6-foot 9-inch Ballinger Bearcat Man-Mountain erupted like Vesuvius here Friday night at the gymnasium to sink 14 points in the last quarter and nose out the Ranger Bulldogs 54-52.

It was the Bulldogs first loss of the season in District 7-AA conference play and threw them into a first place tie with Coleman who took a 69-55 win over the Cisco Lobos. Ranger and Coleman will fight it out next Tuesday night at Coleman for undisputed possession of the league-leading spot.

At the end of the first quarter here Friday night, Ballinger led Ranger by a single point, 10-9, but the Bulldogs had little trouble forging ahead to make it 26-20 at the half.

The Bulldogs ended the third quarter with a comfortable 9-point lead and went into the final session setting the pace 41-42. Then came Harold Hudgens, the Bearcats' oil derrick that walks like a man, and sunk 4 field goals and 6 free shots to spark a tremendous 'Cat rally that ended in a 54-52 victory for the lads from Runnels County.

As a result of all this carrying-on, Hudgens wound up high point man of the game with a whopping 26, and the best Paul Hinds, the Bulldogs' leading point-maker could do, was 17. Charles Tibbels followed him with 13.

All this does not mean that Ranger might not still have the best team in the loop. It was just one of those things where a player got red hot and there was no stopping him and the chances are it won't happen again, maybe.

Birthplace of Lake Leon Firm Says of Ranger

L & J Supply, one of Ranger's large boat and motor dealers, in addition to television sets and many other products, gave the Times this week an order for printed checks for the firm.

The checks carried the slogan, "Birthplace of Lake Leon", of which no truer slogan about Ranger was ever devised.

The Times has long been an advocate of all business firms putting some such slogan on their checks which would advertise Ranger. These checks go all over the country in the payment of goods and services, and it doesn't cost a penny more to have the slogan printed.

Turnip Sales for "Dimes" May Start Again

Mrs. J. A. Bates, county chairman for the March of Dimes, said today the city-wide house to house turnip sale may be resumed shortly by Future Homemakers Students provided the late hard freeze did not damage Tom Fox's turnip crop too badly.

Mrs. Bates said Fox was anxious to donate the turnips, the students enjoyed selling them, and they had been very successful taking in money for the March of Dimes.

Everybody that was anybody in the turkey industry in Eastland County, and from counties surrounding Eastland, including a big delegation from Stephenville and representatives from as far away as Kansas City and St. Louis, packed Ranger Junior College Cafeteria Thursday night as more than 150 farmers, their wives and Ranger business men got together for the biggest conflagration of its kind ever held in the city.

Dr. Price Ashton and his cafeteria personnel had prepared table arrangements for 101 guests but by the time they were all served they were eating off of window ledges, piano tops and the banisters surrounding the stage.

Morris Newnam and others working with him on the Poultry & Dairy Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, hauled in a pickup truck full of barbecued turkey, spaghetti and turkey giblets, cole slaw, bread and pickles, but if one more person had shown up he would have had to go out for a hamburger if he expected to eat.

Nothing could have been added to have made the meeting a bigger success.

Wilson Guest, Vice-President of the Chamber of Commerce, gave the welcome address and presented County Agent J. M. Cooper who recognized many of the guests who were present.

Cooper introduced Bart Frasier of Cisco, president of the Central Texas Turkey Growers Association, who also welcomed the growers to the joint meeting which was sponsored by the Association and the Texas Turkey Federation.

Frasier called on Hardy Tidwell of Desdemona, one of the outstanding turkey growers in the county and also Vice-President of the Turkey Growers Association, and Tidwell introduced the speaker, Dr. D. E. Davis, assistant professor in charge of the Virus Research Laboratory at Texas A&M College. Dr. Davis had two assistants with him whom he introduced, Dr. Robert T. DuBoise and Dr. John R. Watkins, both of whom are Poultry Pathologists at the College.

Dr. Davis' lecture, which was illustrated by colored slides, was about "Ornithosis," a disease in turkey flocks that has pestered turkey growers for many years, often killing their birds by the thousands and causing them to lose many thousands of dollars.

Dr. Davis said that just how the disease spreads they have not yet been able to determine, but the main thing is, they have learned how to control and cure it.

Dr. Davis told the Times in an interview before his lecture that in the old days when a man contracted pneumonia they usually just went ahead and measured him or his box because the disease was almost always fatal. Now, he said, with the aid of miracle drugs, pneumonia seldom puts a man in bed before it is cured.

He said the same thing could be said of ornithosis, a respiratory disease in turkeys that is commonly known as "parrot fever." Aureomycin is the wonder drug used in treating the flocks and it is commercially available at any drug store and is relatively inexpensive.

In its powdered form, aureomycin can be given to turkeys in their drinking water or mixed with their feed. In a feed mixture, Dr. Davis said the Virus Laboratory recommended 200 grams of aureomycin to one ton of all-mash ration, fed for three weeks. Any flock of turkeys, he said, which had been stricken with ornithosis could be cured within three weeks by following the recommended (Continued on Page 2)

Next "Mrs. America" Could Be Next Door

Somewhere in the United States there's a housewife destined in May to be crowned "Mrs. America 1958" with the mythical title of the "Nation's No. 1 Homemaker." And it is entirely possible for a resident of Ranger to win this great honor and distinction.

The new "Mrs. America" will acquire fame and fortune overnight and bring lasting recognition to her home town. For a solid year she will represent the housewives of the nation as an ambassador of all that is good in the home.

The next "Mrs. America" will be chosen primarily for her abilities as a homemaker and a planner. She, of course, will be attractive, well groomed and possess a pleasing personality and poise. After surviving regional and state eliminations, she will travel

It shouldn't have happened to a dog. If Eisenhower owed Price Daniel anything at all, he should have stayed out of Texas at least another one or two days. If nothing else, common courtesy and decency would have demanded it. But no, it was Ike's and Alan's big week in Texas and the inauguration was relegated to a secondary position on all the Page Ones throughout the State, and on all the radio and TV programs.

We hope that Daniel makes a good Governor because if there ever was a time in the history of this state that a good one is needed it is right now. Two great things will have to be faced, drought and segregation. There are hundreds of lesser things, that are within themselves of vast importance, but the two great overshadowing things are drought and water, and segregation, because they will both have to be solved within the next four years or we might all just as well leave the country if we can find somebody to take us in as refugees.

Daniel's task would be hard enough if he had all the people and all the machinery of government with him, but alas, he does not have either. It will be a tremendous task for a country lawyer who admits that $75 a month was at one time considered a good practice for him.

Some people get to where they are going because they are leaders; others get there because they are politicians. It will be interesting to note which category Daniel falls into.

We wish him godspeed, good luck and good health, and may his efforts on behalf of all of us be crowned with success.

Turkey Banquet-

He said the main thing for turkey growers to remember was not to get panicky when the disease struck, but to follow instructions carefully and they could conquer it. He said in extreme cases, in some of the huge flocks scattered about the country, that A&M College was ready to come in and lend a hand if the disease showed signs of getting out of control.

Aside from many turkey growers from the Eastland County area who were in attendance, the following were present from Stephenville:

J. W. Autry, head of the Agriculture Department of Tarleton College; Ralph Moser, Vocational Ag Teacher at Stephenville; Doyle Graves, head of the Poultry Department, Tarleton College; Gilbert Wood, County Agent; Melvin Mollard, one of the prominent turkey growers of Stephenville and A. D. Hilburn one of the high school teachers.

C. W. Crawley, representing the Purina Company, of Kansas City, Mo., was present, as was Joe B. Scott, of Ft. Worth, sales manager for Purina, Jim Byrd of Ft. Worth, sales manager for Universal Mills and Red Chain Feed, and R. B. Thomas, former Ag teacher of Ranger, representing Western Hatcheries.

Dr. W. C. Scofield, manager of the Animal Pathology Division of the Purina Company, was here from St. Louis.

All of the turkey growers were asked to fill out registration cards telling the number of turkeys they raised during 1956, and of the growers present they raised a total of 64,344. They were asked to give an estimate of the number of turkeys they expected to raise in 1957 and they estimated 86,100.

Growers were furnished with a complete copy of the program to be held here on April 4 when Texas A&M College conducts an all-day Turkey Production and Marketing Clinic for a 14-county area. It will be one of only four such meetings to be held in the entire state and it is an honor to Ranger to have this meeting scheduled for here.

County Agent Cooper praised Ranger for being the most cooperative city he knew of for its efforts on behalf of projects that were drawn up for the benefit of turkey growers.

Ranger business men in attendance at the meeting played the perfect hosts in welcoming the turkey growers and their wives, and in contributing to their enjoyment.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Joyce Tucker, Billy Joe Dennis

A double ring ceremony by candlelight was performed before an altar of white chrysanthemums and greenery for Miss Norma Joyce Tucker and Billy Joe Dennis. Miss Tucker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Tucker of Beall Hurst Ranch, Eastland, and Dennis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Dennis of Gorman. The wedding took place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Russell and sons, John and Joe, of Beall Hurst Drive on Dec. 22, at 8 p.m.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and chose for her wedding a teal blue crepe rayon dress with navy accessories. Her traditional "something old" was a string of pearls and matching earrings. She wore a halo of carnations in her hair.

Rev. M. F. Dennis, father of the groom, performed the ceremony and Roy Dennis, brother of the groom, served as best man. Mrs. Tommie M. Tucker Jr., served her sister-in-law as matron of honor. Mrs. Tucker chose a navy faille suit to wear with navy accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Tucker wore a blue and gray dress with navy accessories. The mother of the groom chose to wear a navy dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore carnation corsages.

Mrs. James Kinser, sister of the groom, played the wedding music. Her selections included "True Love," "The Wedding March" by Mendelssohn, and "Always."

Following the wedding a receiving line was formed in the music room. After greeting their guests, the bride and groom went into the lovely reception room where they cut a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake. The cake was decorated with a miniature bride and groom; the groom was in Air Force uniform. Mrs. Myron Vann of Lubbock served the wedding cake and Mrs. A. L. Mayfield of Clifton laded punch from a crystal punch bowl. The napkins were white with "Joyce and Billy Joe" engraved in silver.

Mrs. Otis Arnett and Mrs. James Kinser, sisters of the groom, alternated with Mrs. Tommie Tucker in registering the guests in a white bride's book, a gift for the bride from the Russells.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a suit. Her corsage was a white orchid. The couple took their honeymoon trip to San Antonio, San Marcos, and Austin. They are now at home in Eastland.

Looking Back on 1956-

... the inventory shows that the scales weighed out a good portion of the better things for us to enjoy. While the mistakes we made stick out like a sore thumb and our failures almost overwhelm us, yet these discouragements are small indeed when compared to the unhappiness and tragic experiences of some who happen to live in other countries. We are glad we live right here in Eastland County where we have had the opportunity to serve a host of loyal customers for more than 30 years.

ULTRASUPERSONIC SECRET—Here's how an artist sees the "Bomarc" IM-99 guided missile now in process for the USAF. The Boeing-built pilotless interceptor is very much under wraps, but expert estimates place its top speed somewhere in the 2,000-mile-per-hour-plus range. To be equipped with electronic sensing devices which will "find" enemy craft many miles from their proposed target, Bomarc presumably would be adaptable to various types of war heads.

Evangelistic Conference Held In Ft. Worth

By Rev. Ralph Perkins
Each session of the Evangelistic conference, conducted in Ft. Worth by the Baptist General Convention of Texas, was packed to capacity, with scores of people standing to hear the speakers.

Messages from these dynamic preachers were pungent with reports from top-flight leaders in politics, education, and economics, and these statements were all of the opinion that if the world is to be saved that only Christianity has the power to stop, what scientists call "world suicide." Students in colleges and universities are turning by the hundreds from formalism in education and psychology to Christianity, according to a statement from Billy Graham.

Anti-god principles and practices followed by the Communist have infiltrated the entire world. Billy Graham said, Russia has 1000 planes and enough nuclear bombs to fill each one and could launch them towards the United States and that it would be impossible to stop all of them and that with 250 getting through to their targets our "Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave" would be finished.

One speaker said that many of us in the U. S. were like the Osbrich, just hid our heads in the

Rev. Ralph Perkins Announces Baptist Services

A new experience awaits every one who, "places the Lord Jesus Christ First in their lives." Either as sinners condemned, or Christians who have lost the "joy" of their salvation. Bring your family this Lord's day and learn what the Bible teaches concerning, "His Grace, The Sinners Plea." This message will be delivered by the pastor at 11 a.m.

People who love the Lord and who adore sacred music and gospel singing are doubly blessed at each of the services conducted in the First Baptist Church with the Sanctuary Choir under the leadership of Jesse Sutton. Sacred music in the Church will adorn your heart for the Heavenly Chorus in eternity. Discerning parents will give their children the best in life that they possibly can. Parents, bring your children to Sunday School and then sit with them in the worship services. The Bible study each Lord's day is a spiritual feast for hungry souls.

Training Union at 6:30 p.m. each Sunday night gives to the concerned Christian a growing knowledge of the spiritual growth that each follower of Christ ought to experience early in their "New Spiritual Birth." Again, the careful parent will bring their family back to the Lord's house for a continuation of Heavenly Feasts.

The preaching hour will find the pastor bringing a message on a subject that is not often preached about, yet one that plagues the life of Saint and sinner alike, "The Reality of Hell in the Hereafter." Is hell a place, is it a place of fire and brimstone, do people live there, what kind of people? Will there be Christians living in hell? Is there an escape from the torments of Hell? The word has been used so frequently in profanity to express the exasperated feelings of the weakling, that when the word is used in the scripture it carries little significance in the mind of the profane, but it carries eternal judgment in eternity.

Come hear what the Scriptures tell us about "eternal judgment of the unbelieving."
Only 49 more Sundays in this year, serve the Lord with each one of them. Evening worship begins at 7:30 with gospel music. Bring your family, there is a place for the babies in the nursery.
Come worship with us this Lord's day.

with Purina's modern caged hen plan... you can build steady year-round income...

Producing eggs with caged hens the Purina way has caught the fancy of hundreds of poultrymen for these reasons:

Constant culling and replacement help keep production steady and high. Hens produce each dozen eggs on about 20% less feed than average. Assembly-line type operation greatly reduces labor needed to feed, cull, gather eggs, and clean. No previous poultry experience is necessary—if you follow simple instructions available at our store. Caged hens can be handled efficiently on full-time (commercial) or part-time (family) basis.

Purina was the leader in introducing caged hens to the Southeast. Purina Chows are used by most cage operators in this area because they have found them profitable. We always have fresh Cage Hen Chows, as well as detailed instructions and service to help you succeed in, and enjoy, your caged hen business. See us now and learn about this new way to make a steady year-round income.
