WHAT'S...

COOKING?

By NORMAN WRIGHT

Some of you people will remember from time to time we have lamented the fact that only 23 whooping cranes showed up this year at their ancestral wintering grounds in the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge near Austwell, on the Texas Coast.

Well, sir, they've found another one, the twenty-fourth! This crazy bird must have forgotten he was a Whooper because he came down from the skies in his southward migration and joined a flock of Sandhill cranes that were spending the winter on the north part of King's Ranch, southwest of the refuge.

Claud Lard, one of the directors of the refuge, said Sandhill cranes were large, long-legged, slate-colored birds frequently mistaken for Whoopers. Incidentally, the Whoopers start northward again the latter part of this month. The present 24 are the last remaining ones on this earth.

The Texas Game and Fish Commission is getting ready to turn loose several million small mouth black bass in various fresh water streams and lakes over the state, the first to be released in the South Fork of the Llano River over a 15-mile stretch extending from Junction to Telegraph in Kimble County.

These fish will be obtained from the Federal Hatchery on Lake Texoma, and we wonder if some could be secured for Lake Leon.

Marion Toole, chief aquatic biologist of the Texas Fish and Game Commission, has said that even the scrawpiest of the large mouth bass are slow and sluggish compared to the actions of a small mouth bather, and when a fellow hooks one of the little fighters weighing even as much as two pounds he's got a "mighty lot of fish" on his line.

The small mouth bass project is being handled under the Dingell-Johnson Act whereby the Federal government pays two-thirds of the cost and the state one-third. And do you know where this money comes from? It comes from the excise taxes levied against the fishing tackle you buy.

If it is not against the rules of the Lake, we would like to see somebody get behind the move to secure several thousand of these fish, and we suppose full information could be had by writing Marion Toole, Chief Aquatic Biologist, Texas Game and Fish Commission, Austin, Texas. If none are available now, we could at least get our name in the pot and on the waiting list.

The millionaires down in Miami are puzzled about the activities of a zillionaire named Arthur Vining Davis. A dried up little old man of 89, Davis sits around in his hundred-dollar-a-day hotel while his agents snap up choice bits of Florida real estate at the rate of $200,000 worth a day.

Weather Reports

Cloudy to partly cloudy and windy, turning much colder Thursday night with lows of 26-30 early Friday. High Friday in the 50s.

One big day remains in one of the most successful Public Schools Weeks ever observed in Ranger, as Friday has been set aside as visitation day at Ranger High School.

Two outstanding assembly programs have been arranged, one for Friday morning and another for Friday afternoon.

At 10:30 Friday morning members of the Junior Class will present a skit from their annual class play "Rest Assured" which is to be staged in full in the auditorium Friday night. The skit will give highlights of the play, which is a ghost story, and which the Juniors guarantee will keep you creepy from the first curtain to the last.

All Juniors join with the faculty in extending an invitation to everyone to attend this special assembly program.

Friday afternoon at 3:15 another assembly program will be held under auspices of the Senior Class when the Senior Concert Band will be presented under direction of Dan Whitaker. A full concert will be played, again everyone is extended a warm invitation to attend.

Mrs. Richard Henderson, of the Home Economics Department, has also extended a special invitation to all patrons to visit the new kitchen while they are at high school. It is the first time the kitchen has been open for public inspection since it was built last year. Mrs. Henderson said they would be serving coffee and cookies all day to patrons who visited them, and that the entire Home Economics Department was also open for inspection.

Principal Charlie Barrett has invited all visitors to drop in on some of the classes while they are in the building and actually attend one if they wish. He pointed out that they would see the type of instruction carried on every day in Ranger High School, and not just on special occasions like the present one.

Principal O. C. Warden of Hodges Oak Park said his school had enjoyed the best Public Schools Week since he had been here and he was well pleased with the big number of patrons that had visited them.

Principal Morris Jeffries of Young School said the same thing, stating they had been given the pleasure of welcoming many visitors who showed much interest in the work being carried on there, and he said he and all the teachers were very gratified with the response.

Today, Thursday, was visitation day at Junior High School, and the pupils put on a program at 10:30 which was well attended by patrons, and many parents and others visited Junior High School classes throughout the day.

Town Invited To Junior Class Play Friday Nite, 8:00

The Junior Class of Ranger High School invites the public to attend their annual class play Friday night in the auditorium beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

Name of the play is "Rest Assured," a three-act ghost story that is guaranteed to make a rough evening for all who see it. Admission is 50c for adults and 25c for students. All proceeds will go for the Junior-Senior Banquet to be held later in the spring.

The play will be acted by an all-star cast of Juniors under direction of A. G. Koenig.

Ranger Jr. College Announces Spring Track Schedule

Tom Hestand, head coach at Ranger Junior College, has announced the school's track schedule for the spring months as follows:

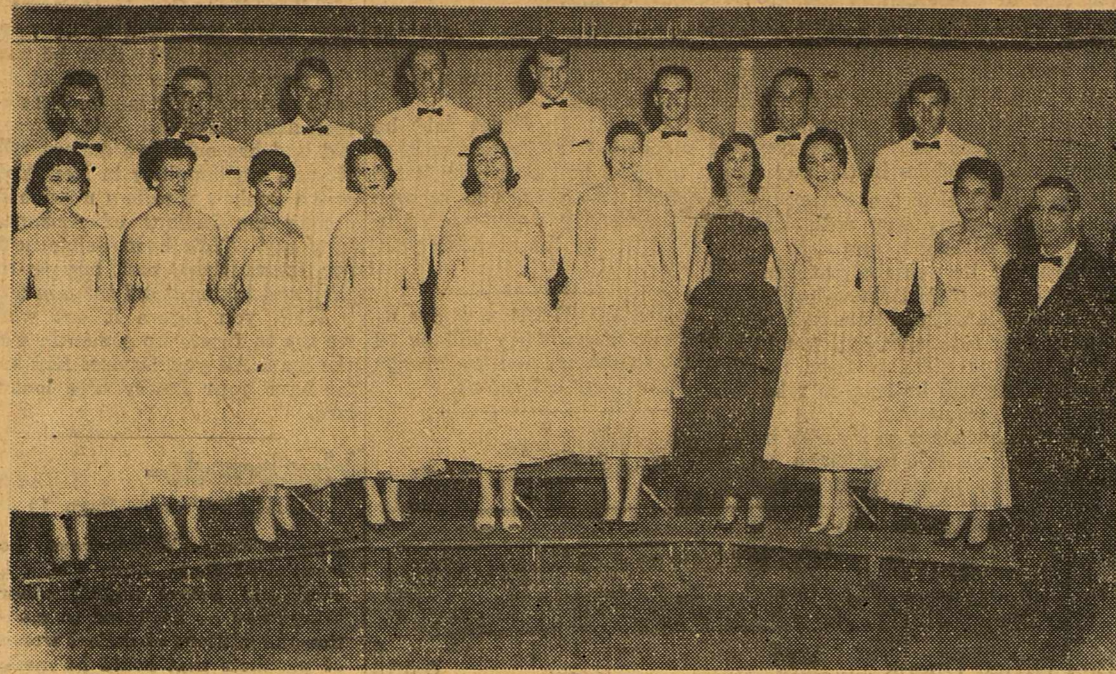

March 16—Southwestern Recreational Meet in Fort Worth.

March 23—Cisco Big Dam Relays at Denton.

April 12—Tarleton State 5-Way Meet.

April 27—Pioneer Conference Meet at Arlington State. Coach Hestand and Ranger Junior College would have men entered in many of the events but the track team had lost several of its best men and the most they could do was to give it a "good old college try" and see what happens.

Chamber Commerce Adopts New Program

James Tull Makes Pioneer Loop's First String Team

With an almost perfect attendance of all committees and members of the Board of Directors, the Ranger Chamber of Commerce approved and adopted its program for 1957 at a meeting Tuesday night at Ranger Junior College Cafeteria.

The program had been prepared by the Projects and Planning Committee and was read by Gaston Dixon, committee chairman. It contained in all some 25 projects and plans, some of which can and will be completed this year and some of which will be started and continued until completion is reached at a later date.

A few of the suggestions made and adopted were as follows:

Wilson Guest, chairman of the Industrial Committee, agreed to take charge of a plan to organize the service station operators, cafes and other businesses along Highway 80 so they could give the town the biggest boost possible and information about it to people traveling through the country.

It was pointed out that busi-

Lake Leon Lauded To Skies by Fort Worth Newspaper

Lake Leon, the Gateway to which is Ranger, was lauded to the skies Tuesday by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's Outdoor Writer Ushur Vincent, who related the experience of some other Cowtowners who had been fishing here.

So you will enjoy it as much as we did, we are reprinting Vincent's article in full which is as follows:

"The most wonderful crappie fishing of which I have ever heard," the fisherman talking is Dick Darmon, former president of the Fort Worth Anglers Club, and the water that furnished the "most wonderful crappie fishing" is Lake Leon! Darmon and another well known angler, Felix Ankele, fished Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning at the new lake six miles southwest of Ranger. Their luck didn't start until about 6:30 o'clock and they quit at 9:00 p. m. They threw back some 40 crappie that weighed a pound or more and kept seven crappie and one black bass that weighed around two pounds each. Their two largest crappie weighed 2½ pounds each. Darmon declares they saw fishermen there with tow sacks full of the biggest crappie he ever saw!

Sunday morning fishing was not so good. Ankele thinks they were back in the brush, but he and Darmon never did find where the really big crappie were hiding. But they saw other fishermen with great strings of the big ones.

"People who like crappie fishing are missing the time of their lives if they don't get to Lake Leon while this crappie spree is on," Darmon declared.

Incidentally, there were rumors Monday of a ten-pounder that was taken from this same Lake Leon last week, but it was impossible to verify this report. Maybe reliable news about it will be available later. Certain it is that such bass may have gotten into Lake Leon from the many deep holes along the Leon River that were full of fish long before a Lake Leon was thought of.

Industrialist Tells Lions and Rotarians

Husbands Says Ranger Must Be Sold on Self

Fred Husbands, executive vice president and general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, told members of the Ranger Lions Club and Rotary Club in a joint luncheon meet Wednesday that in this city's quest for new industry every man and woman in town must be thoroughly and 100 per cent sold on the city or they might as well fold their tents and move into the desert.

The West Texas industrial leader gave examples and cited chapter and verse on why this was so.

Husbands pointed out an incident that happened in Bevell where a large industrial concern was on the verge of locating. The firm had checked Bevell from every standpoint and found it to be a desirable place for its new operation until a few of the firm's representatives decided to make one final check. Under the disguise of common visitors in the town the representatives struck up conversations with natives on the street and asked them what they thought of their city. The town was given such a black eye by its citizens that the new plant turned and fled and a bright, prosperous new industry was lost forever.

On the other hand Husbands told of a man traveling through the country and stopped at a service station. It was getting late in the evening and the man told the attendant he was hurrying on to the next town to spend the night when the attendant said "Why don't you stay all night here? We've got a good hotel and would be glad to have you stay in our town."

The man stayed. He was so impressed by the natives that by 4:00 o'clock the following afternoon he had everything signed and sealed to locate a new manufacturing plant there for the company that he represented.

Husbands said the attitude of a town's citizens spelled the difference in success or defeat in seeking new business and new industry. He said no matter how wonderful the town's assets and how rich its resources and how desirable it was as a location, if the people of the town were not behind it none of the other things counted at all. "It is the people who determine whether or not they amount to something, or whether or not they dry up and blow away," Husbands said.

Husbands pointed out that industry was leaving the cities and larger municipalities as fast as it could move away from them, more especially the smaller industries that could not compete with the big ones in the labor market. He said even the huge industrial giants located in the big cities were locating small branch plants by the thousands in cities with less than 10,000 population.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce executive said the smaller cities offered industry more stable conditions, a better quality of labor, better labor conditions and better economic benefits than the big cities, and that accounted for the mass movement of industry from the urban areas into the country.

Husbands said a town like Ranger had almost everything under the sun that an industry would want. He pointed first to the availability of labor in this area, especially female labor, and said he would venture to say that Ranger had no idea how much of it was available within a few days time with the proper notice.

He pointed also to Ranger's location on one of the finest Railroads in the country and on one of the busiest coast to coast highways; he pointed out the vast supply of gas and oil and electric power that was available here, and he pointed out Ranger's almost immediate access to all parts of the country for the distribution of goods.

Husbands said if industry was hunting a better type of employee it could most certainly be found here; that a desirable community was here in which to live; that the climate on a year-round basis was a good one and industry would find few days lost on account of the weather. He pointed out the recreational advantages of the area.

Husbands did not mention the new super-highway coming through Ranger from Fort Worth, but he touched on it indirectly when he said that industry was most interested in fast thoroughfares over which to move its freight and supplies and would locate on them in preference to anything else.

Husbands said another thing that industry looked at when picking a town in which to locate was "site possibilities," the actual plant, and he said Ranger had no fears in this respect. (Continued on Page 2)

Civic Committees Meet Friday Night At C. of C. Office

Civic Committees of the Ranger Garden Club and the Chamber of Commerce will meet Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce office at 6:30. Special attention is called to the early meeting time, as some of the members have other engagements later in the evening.

Purpose of the meeting is to discuss several civic projects in which both the Garden Club and the Chamber of Commerce are interested, and to coordinate efforts of the two organizations in accomplishing them.

Also a new project of a civic nature, on which both organizations are interested, may also be brought up and discussed.

Mrs. A. W. Brazda is chairman of the Garden Club Civic Committee but is out of town, and Mrs. R. L. Hamrick, president of the Garden Club will take her place at the meeting. Other members include Mrs. W. F. Creager, Mrs. J. F. Killingsworth and Mrs. Buck Wallace.

The Chamber of Commerce Civic Committee consists of Buck Wallace, chairman, Mrs. Betty Wolford, G. B. Rush, Morris Campbell and Archie Robinson.

76 PUPILS GIVEN POLIO SHOTS AT OLDEN

The Olden school has announced that Dr. A. W. Brazda of Ranger gave Salk Polio vaccinations to 76 pupils in the school system there Wednesday morning. The vaccine was received through the State Department of Public Health.

NO FLU EPIDEMIC IN RANGER SCHOOLS

There is no flu epidemic in the Ranger Public schools, according to Dr. A. W. Brazda, city health officer, and the disease is well under control here.

The schools at Gorman had to close down the first part of this week on account of wide-spread influenza among pupils.

Scout Exposition Is Scheduled April 13

The Third annual spring activity for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers in the Comanche Trail Council will be a Scouting Exposition to be held on April 13, according to word received here from Council Headquarters at Brownwood.

Hundreds of boys will exhibit and demonstrate "Scouting in Action" in Memorial Hall in Brownwood beginning at 2:00 p. m. and lasting until 9:00 p. m. This is a walk-around show and people should feel free to come and go at will.

More than thirty Scouting activities will be demonstrated and displayed in booths—county fair style. "The Exposition will be the biggest boys' show in our area. It is strictly an amateur performance with boys in action. It will feature boy activities and all sorts of displays which depict skills and hobbies staged by the boys," stated Lee R. Tesson, Chairman of Camping and Activities for the Comanche Trail Council.

Exhibits already entered include cooking, bridge building, tent pitching, handcraft, signaling, Indian Lore and nature study. This will be a most interesting activity with the boys working in the booths.

Tickets may be secured through the boys and each Scout Unit will receive a percentage from the tickets sold.

The Scout Officials urge the public to secure tickets and attend the show.

There will be stage attractions which will give the show added appeal. Awards will be presented to all units participating in the show.

Both Dr. Weeden and Dr. O'Brien will meet with the 38 pastors of the Association at 2:30 in the First Baptist Church of Olden, and all pastors are asked to please make note of this time.

An attendance goal of 500 has been set, and the meeting will be held in the Olden Gym.

Rev. Perkins said the public was invited to the supper, the evening program, or any and all of it for that matter, according to their time.

Two More Fish Catches Reported

The store at Staff has reported two more fish catches that were brought by there early in the week.

W. E. Gober and J. N. Childers of Rising Star caught 14 crappie that weighed a total of 14½ pounds. They were caught near the Fox place on the south side of the lake, and the fishermen were using minnows.

Bobby Little, Charles Little and Harold Hendrick of Route No. 1, Eastland, caught 12 crappie and one bass weighing a total of 15 pounds. They were using minnows, also.

here and put on a clinic for all organizations and groups in an effort to get them more interested in solving the needs of Ranger. A move was adopted to make an effort in some way to improve the entertainment facilities in Ranger, particularly a picture show.

Efforts will be made to see that Ranger stays before the rural people of this area by taking a more active part in the events staged by them in their various communities. It was recommended that a paving committee be appointed to work up a paving project and take it before the City Commission to see if additional paving can be secured for some of the residential sections. It was recommended a close vigilance be obtained on all possibilities of developing new and better Farm to Market Roads. It was recommended that an annual Fire Prevention program be put on each year and to make every effort possible to reduce the present penalty on fire insurance rates. The Chamber went on record to encourage the improvement of private and public property and it was especially recommended that efforts be made to make the strip of Highway 80 going through town as attractive as possible for tourists in order to make the best impression possible on people coming through here. It was recommended that large signs be placed on Highway 80 on each side of town calling the attention of travelers to the industrial possibilities of Ranger, and to Lake Leon. The Chamber will assist in every possible way in the development of new sources of income for farmers and ranchers in the area. It was voted that the Chamber cooperate in every way with the local National Guard, and that a big barbecue be staged at the opening of the Guard's new building which will be sometime within the very near future, during which time important officials from all over the state will be here to take part in the ceremonies. The Chamber went on record for giving every possible assistance in furthering the program of building new GI Homes here which is now in progress. It was voted to give every assistance to the Youth Committee program and to assist with the Little League and Pony League baseball programs. The above items are only a few of the many recommendations submitted and adopted. Each plan and each project will be assigned to a special Chamber of Commerce Committee so that a followup can be made, and thus a year's work has been launched. President C. B. Pruet said he was encouraged by the enthusiasm each member and each committee has shown this year, and he was confident all of it would add up to real progress by the time the year was over. PLEASE PHONE 224 and give us your news items. They will be of interest to others, and we always appreciate your calling us.

Husbands-

Among Ranger's resources he mentioned shale, coal, gas, oil, sand and gravel among other things and he hesitated to mention the millions of dollars worth of products that could be made from these resources alone.

The speaker enumerated a few of the things that were being manufactured outside of the State of Texas and shipped in here annually such as $6 million worth of handkerchiefs, $250 million in shoes, $8 in gypsum products, $65 million in hosiery, $22 million in underwear, $25 million in men's dress shirts and $55 million in women's apparel. He said all this was being manufactured outside of Texas and shipped in here for Texans to buy. He predicted that all of these manufacturing concerns had much rather make the stuff here and he predicted further that they would all be doing it within a few years, which meant still more openings for new industry.

He challenged Ranger to stay on the alert, to make contact after contact and to never take "No" for an answer. He challenged the people of Ranger to back their town and to boost their town and to talk their town and to preach their town to everybody who would stop and listen and said not a word would be wasted because it would sooner or later be spread to the point where it fell on the right set of ears and the chickens would come home to roost.

Better things are here for Ranger, Husbands said, if Ranger wants to reach out and get them, but they can't be wished into being, they have to be worked for.

E. L. Below of Abilene, West Texas Regional Manager of Lone Star Gas Company, accompanied Husbands to Ranger and introduced him at the luncheon. It was Below who managed to secure the speaker for the occasion, at the request of Rotary leaders here.

car. Nothing in the low-price field could touch it. No other car, regardless of price, scored such a sweep. And Chevy walked away with the famous Manufacturers' Trophy, hands down!
 The 1957 Chevrolet is, by all odds, the most astonishing performer ever produced in the low-price field. Best of all, this superiority isn't limited to just a few extra-cost high-performance models. Every type of Chevy—from the six-cylinder models right up to the 283-horsepower "Super Turbo-Fire" V8's, from the single-carburetor V8's with Powerglide to the stick-shift "270's"—is a championship car.

 Daytona proves it. And you can sample it for yourself at your Chevrolet dealership. Come in and test drive the model that suits your needs. And get a championship deal.

Why Should I Have An Abstract?

... is a question that all abstracters have a ready answer for. When the ownership of real estate enters your business life, title problems also enter. Buying, selling, mortgaging or otherwise conveyancing, demand title information. You get that information from the abstract, the only means yet devised which reflects the condition of the record title which has everything to do with the question of values. If you buy only good titles based on the abstract you will have few, if any, title problems.

Since the day of Sam Bass, when many Texas approved his robbing of trains, causing the railroads has been popular. While many have squawked about freight rates, others have complained of noise and tax officers have asked the rail lines with more than their share of love.

But folks in and around the Texas town of Dublin don't think that way about the railroads. Recently ranchmen, dairymen and farmers for a number of years have been busy for a purpose, was to show the action of the railroads in reducing the freight rates for drought areas by 50 per cent.

But everyone seems to have taken this service for granted. But happily, several hundred farmers and ranchers in the Central Texas region had the grace to say "thanks." Last week they gave a banner ad in Dublin for same to express their appreciation to the railroads of America.

IN REPLY YOUR TELEGRAM FEBRUARY 4, RAILROADS HAVE NOT BEEN COMPENSATED BY GOVERNMENT SUBSIDY OR DIRECT PAYMENT FOR THE FIFTY PERCENT REDUCTION THEY VOLUNTARILY MADE ON SHIPMENTS OF HAY TO DROUGHT DESIGNATED STATES. MANY REPORTS WE HAVE RECEIVED FROM THESE STATES INDICATE THESE REDUCED RAIL RATES HAVE BEEN VERY HELPFUL TO FARMERS AND RANCHERS. WE WOULD APPRECIATE IT IF YOU WOULD PUBLICIZE THIS STATEMENT=

$25,000,000 Contribution ...to Farmers and Ranchers

Within the past four years the railroads have contributed to the farmers, ranchers and dairymen, through a 50% reduction in rates on hay and other feedstuffs, 25 million dollars.

Both the Congress of the United States and the Legislature of Texas, by resolution, have expressed their thanks to the railroads for this substantial contribution.

Through the years the railroads have always extended a helping hand to their neighbors in times of disaster. To us this is a basic responsibility of good Americans.
