Publicity Starts Going Out This Week

Ranger Points for Big Turkey Meet April 4

By NORMAN WRIGHT

Ranger is not the only town having a Clean-Up Day. Eastland (ugh) is having one, too. It is going on right now, the same as ours, and is scheduled to end at the same time ours does.

And Ranger people are going to have to go some and get high behind it if they expect to outdo Eastland, because those folks over there are working for a purpose. They are having the dog-gonest Homecoming one of these days pretty soon that any town ever had. They're expecting everybody that ever did even pass through Eastland to return for this event and they've been working on it for more than a year.

Egged on by the Civic League and Garden Club, they are giving that town the awfulest cleaning a place ever got. Every man in town has a woman standing over him with a club, and they're even scraping out the cracks in the street. There's not a board or a rock in town that is not being moved and swept under, and what they can't haul off they're painting.

They have already got their street markers up, so the Homecomers will know how to get around, and they're leaving nothing undone to put on the spit and polish. They've even got a committee of women working on the owners of vacant lots and those things are being beautified.

So that is why we say Ranger is going to have to quit sitting on its hands and get going unless we want to take a back seat and feel ashamed of ourselves from now on.

Time's a-wasting! The first week is almost gone, and the first pick-up is scheduled for Friday of next week! And there is plenty of work to be done yet, because the surface has hardly been scratched.

There are just all sorts of things going on around here, and if anybody ever tells you nothing ever goes on in Ranger, you tell 'em this is where EVERYTHING goes on, all the time.

In addition to Clean-Up Day, which we're right in the middle of, we've got that Camp Meeting at the Baptist Church going on, and another one starts at the Methodist Church next Sunday.

Then we have this all-day turkey meeting that will come off on April 4, which is almost on us right now, and we'll have turkey growers and their families from a 14-county area here attending the thing, in addition to turkey pro-

Responsible committees go down to serious business in Ranger this week making advance preparations for the 14-County Turkey Meet to be held here on Thursday, April 4, when growers from all over this area will be here to attend an all-day Turkey Production and Marketing Clinic to be put on by the Extension Service of Texas A & M College.

Only four such meetings will be held in the entire State this year, and Ranger was picked as the site for one of them due to its being in the center of the turkey producing area in this section of West Texas.

The all-day meeting will be held at Ranger Junior College, possibly in the auditorium, where practically every poultry specialist at A&M will give lectures divided into one-hour periods on subjects of vital interest to turkey growers and the industry.

Turkey processors, county agents, feed men, and all others interested in the industry, are expected to be here.

A free turkey barbecue sponsored by the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, will be served to all the visitors at noon in the college cafeteria, during which time, Murray Cox, famous radio farm editor of Station WFAA Dallas, will have the luncheon on the air during his regular 30-minute period of noon broadcasting.

Cox will discuss the meeting here and will also interview a number of the A&M dignitaries as well as a large number of turkey growers from this immediate section. His 30 minutes of broadcasting, the first 15 of which are over WFAA 820 and the second 15 over WFAA 570, are heard by thousands of people all over the great Southwestern region of the country, and it will be worth a lot to Ranger Junior College as well as the turkey interests of the area.

The turkey barbecue dinner will also be open to the merchants, business and professional men of Ranger who will be asked to buy at least one ticket for themselves and another ticket for a turkey grower in order to finance the feast. This arrangement was announced long ago and most business men are expecting it.

There will be a conflict between the Clinic and the Lions Club, which also meets on that day, but it is expected some arrangement will be made with the Lions to cancel their program and take part in the barbecue instead.

The telephone company will be asked within the next few days to wire the cafeteria for a radio line to Dallas and the central studios of WFAA for the broadcasts. They will take place on the stage in the north end of the building, according to R. V. Galloway, manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Galloway is this week sending out publicity to all the daily newspapers in West Texas, and to all the home town weekly papers in all 14-counties interested in the meeting. Personal letters and invitations are also being sent by the Chamber of Commerce to a large list of members of the Central Texas Turkey Growers Association and the Turkey Federation, both of which are co-sponsors of the clinic.

The Eastland County Extension Service, through the County Agent's office, is also taking a big part in publicizing the event.

Car Tag Sales In Ranger About Same As Last Year

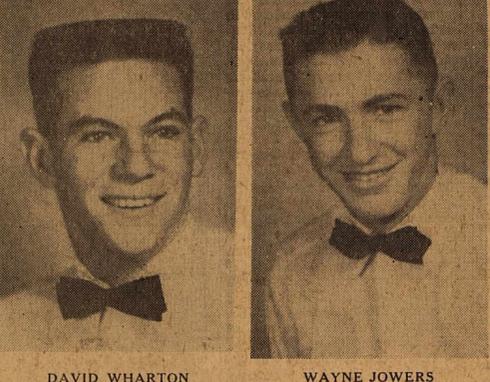

Sale of 1957 car license plates in Ranger is running about the same as last year, according to C. E. May, who handles the tags here in a sub-station set up by the county in his insurance office at 214 Main.

"Actually, the sales are about one per cent ahead of last year," May said. "We have sold a total of 493 in this year."

Among the licenses sold, there have been 413 passenger, 10 trailer, 46 commercial trucks and 24 farm trucks.

April 1 is the final day to operate automobiles or trucks without a new license plate. April 15 is the final day for a safety sticker, and this is one phase of the motor vehicle program that is lagging far behind last year. Everybody wants to wait until the last day, and then wait in line for two or three hours while his vehicle is inspected.

We do it every year.

Wharton and Jowers To Captain Bulldogs

David Wharton, star Ranger High School fullback and Wayne Jowers, hard charging Bulldog center, have been elected by their teammates to captain the 1957 edition of the Bulldogs next year, it has been announced by Harold Barrett, head coach.

The new co-captains have had outstanding careers as Bulldog players and Wharton received all-district honors this past year. Both Wharton and Jowers will be senior students next year and will be playing their final season with the Bulldogs.

Eastland County Turkeys

The following editorial appeared in a recent issue of the Abilene Reporter News which has taken recognition of Eastland County as one of the outstanding turkey growing sections in the State of Texas.

A new "cash crop", turkeys, has been moving up the economic ladder in West Texas the last few years, particularly since acreage allotments and the drought have disturbed the routine which had characterized farming for two generations.

An outstanding example of the development of this new source of income is found in Eastland County where the turkey growers have banded together to pool their information on both production and marketing.

The turkey association has a big function scheduled in Ranger on April 4, a "clinic" on growing and selling the birds, first such a meeting on this scale ever undertaken in this area.

Eastland County 4-H boys and girls are being encouraged to get into the turkey business. For three years now an essay contest has been sponsored among the youngsters through the county agent's office with the prizes—turkey poult—donated by Kincaid's feed store and hatchery. A few days ago 14 young farmers were awarded 96 poult each. Under the rules, the 4-H'ers will feed and care for the birds and ready them for market. This fall each contestant will show three hens and three toms at the Dallas Fair. Last year they did quite well at the fair, collecting a total of over $500 in auction and prize money.

During the three years of the contest the youngsters have averaged a net profit of about a dollar a bird as tangible proof of the cash value of their "crop."

Eastland Co. Growers Win Pecan Honors

A number of Eastland County farmers have again walked off with top honors in the State Pecan Show.

Four first place honors, two second place awards and four third place ribbons were won by Eastland growers.

Mrs. A. L. Ware of Rising Star won first place in the Stuart Division. Another first place was won by Doss Alexander, also of Rising Star. Alexander's nuts won first in the Onilvon Division. A third first was also won by Alexander in the John Garner division. H. L. Capers of Gorman was first place winner in the Best seedling of a named variety division.

Second place honors were won by W. D. Thurman of Cisco and Lee Leiske of Cisco. Thurman was second in the Western Schley division and Leiske finished second behind Alexander in the John Garner division, giving the county a one-two finish.

Third place awards were won by Leiske in the Western Schley division; by Ellis Cooper of Ranger in the Burkett division; and by W. D. Thurman of Cisco in both the San Saba Improved division and the Squirrels Delight Division.

There were 172 entries in the state show this year, the largest number ever entered.

"We are proud of the winning entries," J. M. Cooper, county agent, said. "It is only one step forward in helping to develop the pecan industry in the county by recognizing a few of the growers, their varieties and focusing attention upon the crop as a whole, and on the county."

Cooper also revealed that the George Parr Cases Transferred to Co.

Two court cases involving Duval County's de-throned duke, George Parr, have been transferred from the San Antonio Court of Civil Appeals to the 11th Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland.

One of the cases is an attempt by Parr to recover the 55,711-acre Doble Ranch which was taken from him by Duval County. The county alleged that in 1945 Parr took $500,000 from the county's road and bridge fund without the consent of the county and bought the ranch for $385,630.25. The lower courts awarded the ranch to the county, and Parr is seeking to recover it in this appeals suit. The big Doble Ranch lies in LaSalle and Webb Counties.

Another case is the suit of Parr and others against the First State Bank of San Diego. Not much is known about this case because the records have not yet been received by the Court in Eastland, according to Homer Smith, Clerk.

Another headline case transferred to this county is the libel suit of C. B. W. Dick and A. W. Gates against William Prescott Allen, the famed publisher of the Loreda Times who has had his name in all the papers from time to time as a self-appointed reformer. When this case was first heard, the lower courts dismissed it, saying there had been no libel, but Dick and Gates have appealed.

In all, 33 cases were transferred from the San Antonio court to the Eastland County Court by the Supreme Court in its semi-annual effort to equalize the dockets.

Clyde Grissom is Chief Justice of the 11th Court at Eastland. Associate Justices are Milburn S. Long and Cecil C. Collins.

The big City-Wide Clean-Up Campaign in Ranger is beginning to move this week as homeowners are getting their work organized and as all committees connected with the event begin to function in their drive to impress upon the people the importance of joining the Clean-Up program which is the first to be held here in two years.

Members of the Ranger Garden Club, co-sponsors of the event, have set out on the huge task of calling everybody in the telephone book to enlist their cooperation in not only cleaning up their premises, but in joining the city-wide Plant-A-Shrub move as well.

The Garden Club has also had posters printed calling attention to Clean-Up Day. The posters read, "Be A Partner For A Better Ranger—Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up, Plant Up." They will be placed in show windows all over town and in other prominent places.

A committee consisting of Mrs. C. E. May, Jr., Mrs. Floyd Killingsworth, Mrs. Pat Thomas and Mrs. Pete Brasher, has called on School Superintendent G. B. Roeb, and other principals and teachers to enlist the cooperation of school children in making Clean-Up Day posters, for which prizes are being offered.

In one group, silver dollars will be given for the best posters prepared by pupils in the 1, 2 and 3 grades; and in another group children in the 4, 5 and 6 grade will compete for silver dollars. There are also silver dollar prizes for pupils in the 7 and 8 grades. Cooperation in this part of the program has been excellent, according to the committee, and many pupils have already called at the Times to secure poster paper, indicating there will be many entries. The posters will emphasize health, sanitation, beauty and civic pride.

Buck Wallace is over-all general chairman of the campaign making it the third time in a row that he has headed such a drive in Ranger. He is supervising the work of all other committees which includes truck committee, pick-up committee in which block chairmen have been appointed, and a finance committee which has been charged with the task of raising $100 to help pay for labor that will have to be hired to man the pick-up trash trucks.

Everyone is urged to take advantage of the first trash pick-up which will be city-wide on March 29. This will be the big one and the main one, according to Chairman Wallace, although a second pick-up has been scheduled for April 5 for the few who could not get ready in time for the first one.

It is expected that something in the neighborhood of 100 loads of trash will be hauled if everybody will do their part in ridding their premises of useless accumulations of the past two years.

Rain .90

You folks can just go ahead and start spending your money now. Jot down the few little things you need—new car, power lawn mower, boat, motor, trailer, new furniture throughout—such stuff as that—and have the man send it on over. Tell him to charge it.

Don't worry about the money, it'll be along later in the year when the crops are gathered. With this last rain the Times now personally guarantees a crop.

But, if you're one of those who wants to wait and see, just chalk up another .90-inches that fell Wednesday, the First Day of Spring.

Add this to the 6.89 inches that has fallen here since last Dec. 18, and you have a 90-day total of 7.79-inches, which is more rain than anybody has heard of around here in a long time.

According to the Times' records, here is the rainfall for the past 90-days:

Dec. 18	2.30 Ins.
Dec. 19	2.20 Ins.
Jan. 31	1.34 Ins.
Feb. 5	.55 Ins.
Feb. 17	.20 Ins.
Feb. 19	.15 Ins.
Feb. 24	.20 Ins.
Mar. 20	.90 Ins.
90 DAY TOTAL	7.79 Ins.

The rainfall of yesterday was general all over West Texas, with various points reporting from about 40 to 1.30.

Checkpoints in Eastland County show that Cisco recorded the greatest amount with 1.20. Eastland got .93 and Rising Star .80. Other nearby stations outside the county (Continued on Page Four)

Few Days Remain In Baptist Revival

Only three more days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, remain in the Spring Revival being held at the First Baptist Church in Ranger. Good crowds have attended all services to hear Dr. Elmer Dunham, and the beautiful singing has been a feature of the meeting.

Morning services are held from 6:50 until 7:50, beginning with a light breakfast served at the church. Evening services begin at 7:30. Junior Choir and Booster Band meets at 7:00 each evening. The pastor and the church invites everyone to join in these final services.

Additions Made To Times Staff In Printing Dep't

Several additions were made this week to the printing staff in the Times composing room.

Grady Shook, long-time make-up man for the Times, has returned during which he was connected with the paper in Colorado City.

Shook said Ranger was home for him, his wife and baby, and they moved back last week. He will divide his time between the job-printing shop and the composing room in his new arrangements here.

Johnny Roberson, who has been pressman for the Times for several months, has been promoted to floorman, and will work on ad composition and make-up of the inside pages.

George Hazard, a night student at Ranger Junior College, who has been employed recently by D. C. Cox, has taken the pressman's job here. Hazard is married and has two children.

Hale Danson was promoted from the job shop to linotype operator.

Pat Collins is general floorman, coming here recently from Stephenville. He is married and has one small son.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

PROPERTY RENDERING DEADLINES NEAR

April 1 will be the deadline for most Texans to render their property to certain taxing agencies. State laws require all real and personal property to be rendered for taxes on or before prescribed dates. Those who fail to comply can blame only themselves for the money loss they may consequently suffer.

Some Texas cities set their own tax deadlines. These are the cities of more than 5,000 population which have incorporated under the "Home Rule" provisions of our statutes. All other cities are governed by the general laws of Texas.

In towns operating under the general laws property must be rendered for taxes between Jan. 1 and April 1 each year. A number of home rule cities set up the same requirements in their ordinances, while others prescribe different periods.

For state and county tax purposes, property must be rendered to the County Tax Assessor by April 30, and homestead exemptions must be claimed by the same time.

In some localities a third taxing unit is involved—the independent school district. In other places school taxes are collected by the city or county. In addition, some localities have water, irrigation, or levee districts which assess and collect taxes. Make inquiry as to where these various taxes are assessed, and as to applicable deadlines for rendition.

What property must be rendered for taxes? If Texas laws were strictly enforced, we would be required to render to all taxing units nearly every piece of real and personal property which we own, down to the very clothing on our backs. An exception is the constitutional exemption of $250 worth of household furniture. However, no taxing unit carries their requirements this far, and it will be necessary to inquire of each tax assessor when rendering your property whether specific types of property are ordinarily rendered in that locality. Some cities and counties collect ad valorem taxes on automobiles, television sets and other personal items, while others ignore practically all personal property. Business and professional men are generally required to render all merchandise, furnishings, fixtures, business automobiles and equipment.

If property is not rendered by the tax payer, it may then be placed upon the unrendered tax roll, and the taxing agency places such valuation thereon as it considers fair. One advantage of rendering your property is that you can set your own valuation. Then, if the county or city decides a higher valuation is in order, you will be given an opportunity to appear before a board to explain why the higher figure should not be used in computing your taxes.

Thereafter, an appeal to the courts is possible in some instances. Generally speaking, however, the courts are unable to strike out a valuation unless the agency or board has acted arbitrarily and placed on the property a valuation higher than that placed on comparable property owned by others. If you do not render, the valuation set by the taxing agency is final.

Remember these facts: You may need to render your property at three or more different tax offices. Ask each tax assessor if in doubt concerning the deadline or the rendering of specific personal items.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

But, regardless of picnics or plans, it seems that this young gentleman's springtime fancy, for the moment at least, has turned to thoughts of pretty little Cynthia.

More Uses For Eggs Given

By Julia Hunter
Home Economics Director,
Lone Star Gas Company

Because of increased production, eggs are in abundance and their quality is excellent. Cool February temperatures are keeping them in top condition.

Most of us buy a dozen, two dozen or some certain quantity of eggs each week and that quantity takes care of our usual uses. With supply and quality as they are, it is wise to use an extra dozen or so.

A real staple item in our diets, almost everybody likes eggs and almost everybody can eat eggs. A gold mine of nutrients, eggs are rich in protein and they supply other nutrients, as well.

A luncheon or supper dish may well feature eggs. Egg-rich desserts, such as cream puffs, are always popular. Hard-cooked eggs left in the shell and tucked into lunch boxes are sturdy travelers.

Keep them in the refrigerator to be peeled and eaten on the spot. They make a good snack food for dieters!

Add variety to the breakfast eggs by serving creamed eggs. Goldenrod Eggs is a more taste-tempting name for them. For four servings, prepare 1 1/2 cups medium white sauce. Add 4 coarsely chopped hard-cooked egg whites. Spoon the mixture over crisp brown toast. Top with 4 hard-cooked egg yolks which have been forced through a sieve or strainer.

It takes only minutes to mix a delicious salad of chopped hard-cooked eggs, canned chopped ripe olives, salt, pepper and mayonnaise. Use it in a sandwich, to fill a tomato for a salad main dish, spoon it onto tomato slices or into lettuce cups for a salad to go with a main dish.

Scrambled eggs take well to mushrooms, minced green onion and grated cheese. Add about 1/4-cup of one of them to 4 beaten eggs.

Cook eggs at low gentle temperatures. Fast cooking toughens them and overcooking darkens the yolk. For tender hard-cooked eggs with clear yellow yolks, place eggs in saucepan and add cold water to completely cover them. Cover and bring to a rolling boil. Remove from flame and let stand covered 20 minutes. Immediately cool eggs under cold running water.

For easier dishwashing, rinse egg beater, dishes and pans in which eggs have been beaten or cracked, in cold water. Hot water will cook the egg on, making it hard to remove.

Why Should I Have An Abstract?

... is a question that all abstracters have a ready answer for. When the ownership of real estate enters your business life, title problems also enter. Buying, selling, mortgaging or otherwise conveyancing, demand title information. You get that information from the abstract, the only means yet devised which reflects the condition of the record title which has everything to do with the question of values. If you buy only good titles based on the abstract you will have few, if any, title problems.

County Students Take Advantage Of Club Loans

Three young ladies and one young man have already taken advantage of the Student Loan Fund which was made available on Jan. 1 by the Eastland County Federation of Clubs.

Students in both Cisco Junior College and Ranger Junior College who are now enjoying the use of a cash loan to further their studies in these two junior colleges in the county are Miss Lou Jane Walker of Rising Star, Ranger Junior College; Miss Patricia Mayor, Cisco, a student in Cisco Junior College; Miss Carolyn Illingsworth, Cross Plains, Cisco Junior College student; and Jack Davis, Austin, a student in Ranger Junior college. These loans are made available without interest, to be repaid to the fund at the end of the year, according to Mrs. Bill Tucker, ECW reporter.

This is the report that was given Saturday by Mrs. Edward Keough, Cisco, committee chairman of the Loan Fund, to the Eastland County Federation meeting in regular session at the Womens Club in Eastland.

Mrs. E. E. Todd, Gorman, president, conducted the business session after the program planned by the Eastland clubs was presented.

Mrs. B. O. Harrell introduced Mrs. Grady Pipkin, who sang "Thou Art Our Father" and "By the Bend of the River," accompanied by Mrs. D. L. Kinnard at the piano.

Mrs. I. C. Inzer read short sketches of Texas Poet Laureates, and also read typical poems of each one, from their books of poetry.

Mrs. A. Louise Weber gave a short summary of the 6th District TFWC meeting in Abilene, March 13-15.

The county federation will be a contributor to Meals for Millions, a project somewhat like CARE, to send Multi-purpose foods overseas.

Another project to which ECF contributed is "Cows for Korea," a cash contribution to help purchase cattle for Korean herds.

Magazines for Friendship, and Dolls for Foreign Children will also be on the list of charitable activities for the Eastland County club women.

Delegate and alternate named to the Texas Federation Convention in May in Waco, are Mrs. E. E. Todd and Mrs. Tommie Haile, both from Gorman.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

AUSTIN — When President Teddy Roosevelt ordered periodic health examinations for all army officers in 1908, he started what has since become recognized as one of the most vital single phases of health promotion.

A "periodic check-up" is simply a careful study of a presumably healthy person. It should be performed regularly once a year, preferably by the family physician as a means of detecting disease or body malfunction in an early stage. Early treatment not only reduces suffering, but it can also prevent some diseases from becoming chronic, and perhaps incurable.

Besides detecting disease at an early stage before it becomes too painful or too deep rooted, the check-up can serve as a basis for better health practices for the patient and his family. The physician can discuss such problems as diet, exercise, rest, work and play habits, and other activities that affect health. He can make a tentative appraisal of the patient's need for psychotherapy, and educate him toward a better understanding of himself.

How often and what type examination should be given varies with the patient's age, sex, occupation, heredity, past health, place of residence, and economic status. Says the American Academy of Pediatrics:

"The normally healthy infant should be checked about every six weeks during the first year; every three months during the second year; and once a year from the sixth to the twelfth year." Most medical authorities believe that from about 12 years up to age 40 or 45, annual health check-ups are adequate. After 45 some doctors advise examinations every nine months. These time schedules, keep in mind, are suggested for normal persons without previous serious or chronic illness.

No single examining routine can be applied to all persons, but all check-ups include a medical history, the actual physical examination, and certain laboratory and x-ray procedures. The medical history gives the doctor clues as to what he should be especially alert for. It will include such things as family, social and occupational habits, past illnesses, and present symptoms. Armed with this advance knowledge of his patient, the doctor can frequently detect the possibility of disease long before abnormal physical signs become apparent to the patient.

Part of the examination will include a check for birthmarks and moles with cancer potentialities, particularly on body areas subject to repeated irritation. A blood-sugar test may also be included if there is a family history of diabetes.

Human Body Can, Does Do Plenty About Weather

AUSTIN — If you think you can't do anything about the weather you're dead wrong. Ask the State Health Department. They'll tell you all of us, assuming normalcy, are constantly doing something about it.

We are all equipped with our own private thermostat. When atmospheric temperatures rise or fall from the 98.6 degrees which is normal body temperature, the thermostat goes into action.

This built-in regulator is a tiny maze of nerve cells in the mid-brain. If the day is hot, it routes blood from internal organs to skin capillaries, dilating the flow with fluids drawn from skin and muscle tissue and from the liver. Sweat glands on skin surfaces dilate and exude perspiration. Body temperature is reduced by the dilution of blood and exudation of sweat. When the sweat evaporates your skin cools off.

If the day is cold the thermostat concentrates the blood and diminishes the flow through skin capillaries. Sweating is minimal and the blood coarses through internal organs deep within the body. Result: you feel cold and have to put on a coat or an extra blanket to stay comfortable.

cessors, county agents and feed representatives from everywhere. We'll have a crew of radio technicians in here arranging for the Murray Cox broadcast from the RJC Cafeteria during the turkey barbecue luncheon that is to be served the growers and all the visitors, and we will have news reporters from all the big daily newspapers, complete with photographers.

Also at the same time, April 4 and 5, we are having that City Wide Free-Chest Survey which will take place in the lobby of the Gholsen. That is being put on by the State Department of Public Health and is expected that every man, woman and child, of all races, white, Negro and Mexican, will be lined up for the X-rays.

Anyway, they should be. If you want to take TB and die, that's your own business, go ahead and die, but we are going to be there with bells on. It's a darn good idea to know what's going on inside of you, if you ask us, and so long as it's free we, for one, are going to find out.

No doubt a lot more things are scheduled to fall right in here about now, but do you know what the next biggest thing is, on account of it being later than you think? Well, when we get through with these other things, school will be almost ready to turn out! Yes, sir, they'll start winding that thing up and everybody WILL be in a run, sure enough.

But let's take it one thing at a time, for Pete's sake, and do first things first, and that happens to be CLEAN-UP DAY which needs all the attention right now.

We certainly would feel like a sad, sad sack to come up here out-stripped by Eastland on this Clean-Up Day deal after so much has been put into it to make it the biggest one ever held here.

And, oh, yes, won't you please, please call up and order yourself a Nandina or a Grape Myrtle or both, and put two or three of those things out while you're at it?

RAIN-

reporting were Breckenridge .55, Baird .40 and Clyde .40. Abilene also reported an official .40.

As far as Ranger and Eastland County is concerned, a person could hardly have taken a rain catalog and ordered it any more satisfactorily. The rain has been well spaced and followed by just such weather that would not dry it all out the next day.

If the pattern continues throughout the year, a lot of people will have bank statements next Fall that will make mighty pretty reading. But, any way you look at it, it is a long ways to next Fall.

Boating and Sailing
Ahoy, mate! "Furl the jib, and raise the mizzen" well, all of that sounds too nautical for us, but it means that there'll be wonderful boating and sailing from the secluded docks and ramps of the Lone Cedar Country Club, Lake Leon.

Club officers will see to it that waters immediately adjacent to club property will be properly marked off and policed to make sure your sailing and boating will be as safe as possible from alien boats and non-members.

All-in-all Captain, we think you'll enjoy the boating and docking facilities to be provided by the Lone Cedar Country Club. If you'll investigate, you find that just $150.00 will assure you of a membership in this club-to-be... West Texas' pride and joy, to be constructed this summer and fall.

Gotta run and Batten down the hatches, there's a strong So'west-erner blowin' up from the Leon River.
