The 5th Annual Lake Buchanan Striped Bass Tournament will be held on October 5th and 6th, 1991. Amateur fishermen will compete for a top prize of $10,000 cash for catching just one fish-the biggest! Professional striper guides will battle for a $2500 first prize.

Lake Buchanan is on the Colorado River in the Hill Country about 60 miles northwest of Austin between Burnet and Llano. It is a 23,000 acre lake with a well-deserved reputation for great striper fishing. The tournament is sponsored by the Lake Buchanan Chamber of Commerce and headquatered at the Buchanan Dam Visitor Center on HWY 29.

In addition to the top prize of $10,000, amateurs will receive $2,000 for 2nd place, $1,500 for 3rd, $1,000 for 4th, and $500 for 5th. A "Big Stringer" competition will also be held each day with a $1,000 prize for either amateurs or pros. Many other prizes, including fishing and boating equipment, resort vacations, and gift certificates will be awarded to winners who finish out of the money. The tournament date was moved from June to October this year. A Fall tournament should bring cooler weather, less crowded conditions, and even better fishing! Area lodges and restaurants will be offering specials. A festival at Fall Creek Vineyards is also planned for the same weekend.

FALL IS FOR FERTILIZING

Most homeowners fertilize their yards and gardens in the spring, but fall is actually the best time to perform this task. The rewards of fall fertilizing are beautiful lawns, bright flowers and juicy vegetables, as well as a revitalized yard that's ready for the rigors of the coming winter.

Extend The Flowering Season

Geraniums, marigolds and other summer annuals return to peak form in early autumn when temperatures begin to cool. Fertilizing in fall will help keep annuals in bloom right up to the first killing frost. A sprinkling of a complete garden fertilizer

-one that is rich in nitrogen, phosphorous and potassuim - will do the trick.

A good choice is "Nature's Best" Brand All Natural Organic Garden Fertilizer. This environmentally sound product consists of a 5-5-5 percent blend of the three major nutrients, but with no chemical additives. The 5-5-5 formulation is also suitable for perennials, bulbs and other garden flowers.

Fall-Blooming Perenni-

Hardy chrysanthemums and asters are among the flowering perennials that help make autumn such a colorful season. Give them an extra spurt by fertilizing when buds swell and begin to show color. This will keep plants looking their best until their blooms finally fade. Harvesting Vegetables

Backyard gardeners usually associate fresh vegetables with summer. But autumn, too, is a season of rich harvests. During the first few weeks, gardeners can still pick tomatoes, spuashes, and other warm-season vegetables. Cool-loving broccoli and brussel sprouts may be harvested later. To keep plants productive, apply a side dressing of fertilizer in very early fall.

The "Nature's Best" 5-5-5 All Natural formulation will also do the job in the vegetable garden as it is free of man-made chemicals and makes for home-grown produce that can be eaten without worry.

Cool-Season Crops Crops such as spinach, lettuce, radish and peas can be sown in autumn, especially in regions where winters are relatively mild and cool. Prepare the planting bed by mixing in some compost and vermiculite. Then spread two to three pounds of "Nature's Best" garden fertilizer for every 100 feet of soil. The fertilizer pellets should be worked into the top three to four inches of garden earth.

Planting Bulbs Fall is the season to plant tulips, daffodils and other spring-flowering bulbs. Fertile soil enhances the quality of firstyear blooms. It is best to sprinkle the bottom of the planting area - eight inches deep for large bulbs like tulips, five inches for small ones like croucuses -with an organic garden fertilizer.

Previous bulb plantings can be encouraged to perennialize, or come up year after year, by fertilizing them each fall. Simply scatter the 5-5-5 feed over the top of the soil. Since bulb foilage tends to disappear over summer, use small wooden markers to locate the bulbs.

Lawn Patching The heat and recreational activities of summer can take their toll on a lawn. Autumn is the perfect time to do some repairs, and prepare the lawn for the rigors of winter.

Bare or dead patches over eight inches across must be reseeded. Clear the spot of dead grass, being sure to remove any sickly sprigs along the edge. Then loosen the soil to a depth of about six inches, digging in some vermiculite at the same time. (If the patch was caused by pet urine or spilled gasoline, replace the polluted soil with something fresh.)

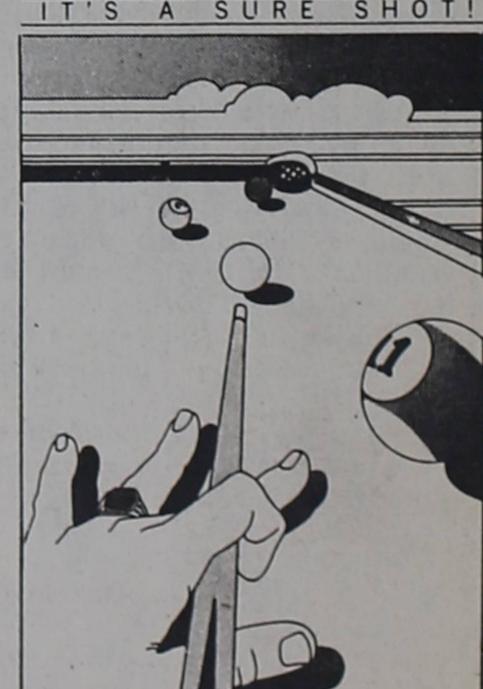

Now the patch is ready for fertilizing. For established lawns, a specially formulated turf feed such as "Nature's Best" Brand All Natural Organic Lawn Fertilizer is the right choice. After working some pellets into the top few inches, tamp the mix down by foot, make the spot level and even with the surrounding soil.

Carefully sprinkle the grass seed over the patch at a rate of eight to 10 seeds per square inch. Use a fine mist to keep soil moist until the new grass becomes established.

Annuals and perennials. Vegetables, bulbs and lawns. Autumn is clearly an important season for tending to the yard and garden. And proper fertilizing is the key to success.

Counselor Encourages Unemployed

While a soft economy has left thousands of Texans standing in the unemployment line, many of those looking for a job don't go about it correctly, explained a Texas Christian University career counselor.

"Searching for employment gets down to using smart jobseeking skills, and most people don't use them," said Career Planning and Placement Director Carolyn Ulrickson.

The 17-year veteran of career counseling noted that smart actions include writing a cover letter, which reinforces strong points in a resume, and targeting resumes to potential employers for whom you are truly qualified to work. Ulrickson also said to tell friends and acquaintances of the job search, especially ones who come in contact with a lot of people.

Those who lose a job experience the stages of grief, according to Ulrickson. "They get into that anger phase where they are saying 'I'm going to show them -I'm going to get a better job than I've ever had.' Oftentimes that may not be possible, she said.

Laid-off workers may look for a carbon copy of their old job with a competitor, she explained. However, the competitor may be having trouble as well. Ulrickson suggested looking at those skills that would be useful to a vari-

Young women who do not ovulate with each period may be at increased risk of osteoporosis, the New England Journal of Medicine reports. Stress and too much exercise may be the cause; progesterone supplements may be the cure.

Very-low-fat diets that included lots of lean red meats were effective in lowering cholesterol -- especially the "bad" LDIs -- in research at Deakon University in Geelong, Australia.

Vitamin deficiency may leave a person at risk of emphysema and bronchitis. A Johns Hopkins University study found that a lack of vitamin A seems to affect the growth and development of oxygen pathways to the lungs, much as smoking does.

Q. What are some ways to acquire a more feminine manner?

A. A couple of things we will mention today are as follows:

1. The laugh should not be loud or with a deep tone. Facial contortions, opening the mouth wide and throwing the head back, slapping your hands on your thighs should be avoided.

2. The cooing or purring quality when takling to babies, little children or animals is typical of a feminine woman.

TREAT YOUR CHILD TO A NOVEL EXPERIENCE. EXPLORE YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY!

If it's true that the best things in life are free, then certainly your public library should be counted among them.

After all, where else can one come face to face with a fire-breathing dragon, take a journey into outer space or discover rare, tropical birds in a single afternoon...without spending a dime!

By introducing your young child to his or her local library and all it has to offer, you can help instill a love of books that will last a lifetime.

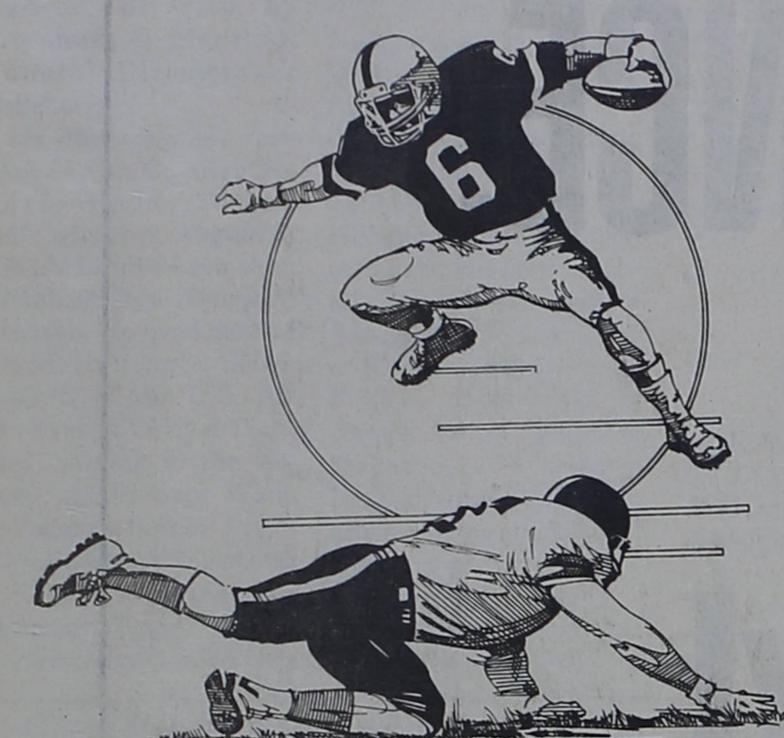

Next time you hear the familiar refrain, "Mommy, I don't have anything to do!", remember there's always something to discover at the library.

Your Library.....It's Worth Checking Out!
