LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Action Needed Now On Proposed Labor Regulations

(Editor's Note: Directors of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association are receiving the following letter. We feel it is of vital interest to every ranchman in our area, and advise everyone to study the contents of the letter, then act on it as you see best serves your interest.)

Dear Director:

The agricultural labor situation is in a severe crisis. This is NOT BRACERO but native American farm and ranch labor. It is being exploited by the United States Department of Labor for the ultimate benefit of the labor unions.

As you know, the Secretary of Labor has announced his intention to publish in the Federal Register certain rules and regulations pertaining to American agricultural labor. If adopted, these rules will have the effect of LAW.

Efforts of our own Association and that of the rest of American farmers and ranchers appear to be opening a small crack in the Secretary's intentions. To further help prevent the publication of these rules and regulations, it is suggested and urged that you and your neighbors write each and everyone of the men on the following list protesting the action of the Secretary in unurping legislative authority and urge them to use all effort to have the Secretary WITHDRAW his plan.

This is urgent. Get as many of your ranchmen friends as possible to write. Use your own words.

The list:

1. Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States.
2. Richard Nixon, Vice-President of the United States.
2. Senator Everett Dirksen, Republican Leader, U. S. Senate.
4. Honorable Charles Hallick, Republican Leader, U. S. House of Representatives.
5. Honorable James A. Mitchell, Secretary of Labor.
6. Honorable Ezra Taft Benson, Secretary of Agriculture.
7. Senator Thruston Morton, Chairman, Republican Party.

C of C Directors Eye Housing Problem, Consider Possibility Of Employment List

Chamber of Commerce directors and members met Tuesday night, April 14, in the Chamber office in their regular monthly meeting. Chamber Manager H. V. (Buzzie) Stokes reported a total of 138 members of date and a surplus of $2,171.71 of which some $600 is advance dues.

President E. E. Sawyer named as the number one problem, an urgent need for rent houses. This need will become more and more acute, Sawyer said, with various construction crews moving into Sonora in the near future.

G. C. (Son) Allison announced that the Boy Scouts will operate the concession stand at the forthcoming race meet and that dances will be held by the Suez Shrine Club and the Plateau Shrine Club during the races. Stokes reported purchase of two books of season tickets to San Angelo Pirates baseball games this year. These tickets will be on sale to anyone interested in attending.

Dr. C. F. Browne suggested the possibility of the Chamber office acting as a community employment center with all types of employment, including domestic help, being listed. This is a service not offered at present by any organization and its advisability will be investigated and a decision reached soon.

The possibility of constructing rental property will be looked into by the Chamber's housing committee.

Power Mowers Are Handy But Dangerous

For a boy, the power mower is probably the smartest thing to appear on the American scene since Tom Sawyer finagled his friends to pay him for whitewashing Aunt Polly's fence, and Texans should take extra care when using power mowers, edgers and clippers.

Handy as the mechanization of lawn tools may be, they also have at least one disadvantage; that is that they can be extremely dangerous when handled by an inexperienced or careless worker.

One study of power mower accidents has revealed that one injury in every seven results in a permanent disability; that 70 percent of injuries came about through direct contact with the mower; and that 30 percent were caused by shrapnel-like objects thrown from mowers.

This, of course, does not mean that we should condemn all power lawn tools. It means that the operator must be aware of the tool's inherent dangers and know how to counteract them.

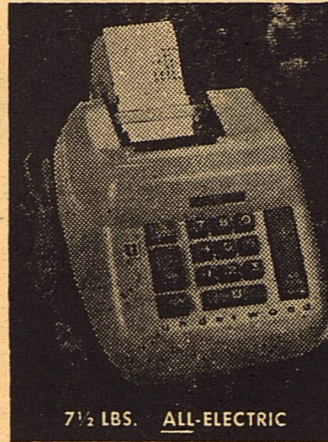

The following twelve safety suggestions are an aid to reducing hazards when working with power lawn equipment:

1. Never permit small children to operate any kind of power mower, edger or clipper.
2. Know how to throw tool out of gear quickly.
3. Know how to stop engine or motor immediately, and NEVER leave the tool unattended when running.
4. Allow for gas expansion when filling tank and be sure engine is turned off and cool before refueling. Always refuel out of doors.
5. Use approved fuels and store them in safe containers.
6. Clear yard of debris before mowing; i.e., sticks, bones, rocks, etc.
7. When starting a mower, maintain your balance and have solid footing.
8. Do not allow pets, children or other bystanders near mower during operation. This will prevent their injury by objects thrown from the mower blades.
9. If using electric equipment, be sure motor is grounded and wiring is in perfect condition. NEVER mow or clip when grass and shrubs are wet.
10. Maintain firm control or mower. Mow hills sideways-not up and down.
11. Disconnect spark plug, or electric plug, before working on power tool parts or while oiling. Always keep hands and loose clothing away from blades or other moving parts.
12. Be AFRAID of all power mowers and other tools-you are not as apt to become careless.

Sleeping Pill Habit Can Lead To Addiction

How often have you asked yourself, after reading a newspaper account of the authorities swooping down on a narcotic den, what would prompt a person to willingly become a slave to the drug habit?

It seems unreasonable that any normal, healthy person would deliberately endanger his life, family and future by allowing himself to become enmeshed in a net from whence there is often no escape.

Yet, many thousands have developed the sleeping pill habit without considering the possibilities of becoming an addict to the drug. A habit of this type is a menace to health as well as the cause of an alarming number of deaths.

Sleeping pills, or "goof balls" as they are commonly referred to by addicts, belong to a group of drugs known as the barbiturates, which when properly used have a high medicinal value. The too frequent or indiscriminate use of the drug may lead to serious, mental crackups and death.

As an individual continues to use sleep-inducing medicines without consulting a physician, the dose required to relax and put him to sleep grows larger and larger. It is here that the grave danger lies—the tentacles of addiction have entangled him and he is unaware of the fact.

His tolerance to the drug has been so greatly increased that to be effective, the dose must necessarily be greater than a physician would ordinarily prescribe for a patient.

In severe cases, to overcome the habit of inducing sleep with these pills, the help of a physician is advisable. But in most cases good living habits moderate exercise and sufficient rest will insure sleep.

Often drinking a glass of warm milk before going to bed and light reading to relax the mind will help produce sleep. Regardless of how the habit is broken, it should be broken before it causes serious damage.

HIGH LIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM THE STATE CAPITOL

AUSTIN, TEXAS—With just about three weeks left in the regular session, legislators will be under much pressure—to do many things and do them fast.

Each day that passes without agreement on financial matters heightens the possibility of a special session as soon as this one ends.

Many measures will be trampled under or pushed aside until '61. But as Speaker Waggoner Carr told the House, the problem of raising some new money "went away. It has to be faced."

NO EASY OUT—Like every other tax proposal made this session, the huge "something for everybody" omnibus tax bill recommended by the House Tax Committee brought howls of protest.

It would raise an estimated $151,000,000 a year by raising some old taxes and placing new taxes on hundreds of items. Tabbed for increases are natural gas, motor vehicles, cigarettes, liquor, wine, beer licenses.

New targets include hotel rooms, restaurant meals, cigars, chewing tobacco, snuff, aircraft and auto parts, dozens of luxury items (jewelry, furs, cameras, watches, silver, etc.), radio and TV parts, business machines, commercial rentals, club dues, construction materials, dance studios, reducing salons.

Officially, the bill is known as the Tax Committee substitute for H.B. 727. Unofficially, it's called a lot of other things.

House members showed no more eagerness to rally behind this broad-based approach than they had for Gov. Price Daniel's less "spread out" plan.

GIVE LITTLE, TAKE LITTLE—Two appropriations bills of varying sizes have been passed by the House and Senate. Differences will be adjusted by a conference committee of members from the two houses.

Both bills call for spending nearly $2,500,000,000 during the next two years. House bill is slightly larger. It calls for approximately $33,000,000 from general revenue. Senate would spend only $307,000,000 in general revenue.

To satisfy both houses, the conference committee will try to reach a compromise between these two figures. However it's worked out, it's already clear that spending will considerably exceed the $281,000,000 spent from general fund for 1958-59.

ROUGH SLEDDING—Governor Daniel's "abandoned property act" barely squeaked by its first test on the House floor by a 71-59 vote.

Measure would allow the state to take over money and property unclaimed for seven years or more. Estimates of how much it would bring in immediately range from $20,000,000 to $50,000,000.

Many bankers fear such a law would cause people to be afraid to put their money in banks and decide to stick it in a sock instead.

Backers of the measure say the banks and other businesses are holding and getting the benefit of property that does not belong to them, should be used to benefit all the people.

CO-OP BILL SHUNTED ASIDE—A bill to allow rural electric coops more "elbow room" has been sent to the Attorney General for an opinion.

Rep. Alonzo Jamison of Denton, sponsor, protested to the House State Affairs Committee that his would kill the bill. This late in the session, delay is usually fatal.

Highly controversial, the bill would allow coops to add new customers after the area of their lines is annexed to a city.

Devil's River Philosopher Wonders Why Seven Top Space Men In The U.S. All Came From Small Towns

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Devil's River discusses education this week. It's a free country, and he seems to be taking advantage of it.

Dear editor:

When it comes to talking about education, I can speak without any conflict of interest, if you understand what I mean, and I was interested in an article I read some time ago about a famous educator who has surveyed the public education system in this country and announced that it was his opinion a high school to be really first class has to have at least 100 members in the Senior class.

Since I didn't go to a high school that big when I was in school, I guess you can say he has a pretty good argument, but something turned up in the newspapers the other day that has got me to thinking.

It's about those seven men the country has picked to be the first men to fly off into space. As I understand it, the armed services searched from top to bottom to find the best equipped men, physically, mentally, etc., to make this attempt, and where did the top seven men come from? From small towns most people never heard of before.

Now I know some educator is gonna bust out and say the purpose of public schools isn't to train men to conquer space, but you'd think at least one or two of these superbly equipped men would come from a big city with a big school.

I know it's nicer to have well-equipped schools, and the bigger the school the better chance it has of being well equipped, but I have a notion there are some people in this country it wouldn't make any difference what size school you put them in, they'd miss the boat. And on the other hand, there are some young people who make the boat regardless of how small a school they had to put up with.

I ain't saying if you go to school in a big high school you can't come out pretty well equipped to start getting educated, I'm just saying if you look around among the leaders in all phases of life and assume they all came from big high schools, you'll be a long ways from being accurate.

I've heard that a good school could consist of a good teacher on one end of a long and a good pupil on the other, but there are people who argue the whole thing depends on the size of the log. There are others who say this is true, but there's a shortage of logs.

But don't take my advice on this. As far as I'm concerned, logs are made to fish from.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

El Paso Natural Gas Company reports record deliveries of Natural Gas to customers in the West Natural gas is America's fastest-growing energy source, and El Paso Natural Gas Company and its subsidiaries serve natural gas's fastest-growing market.

Deliveries of gas were at record highs in 1958 as El Paso and subsidiaries continued to expand their pipeline systems and increase their gas reserves to meet the long-term energy demands of the West.

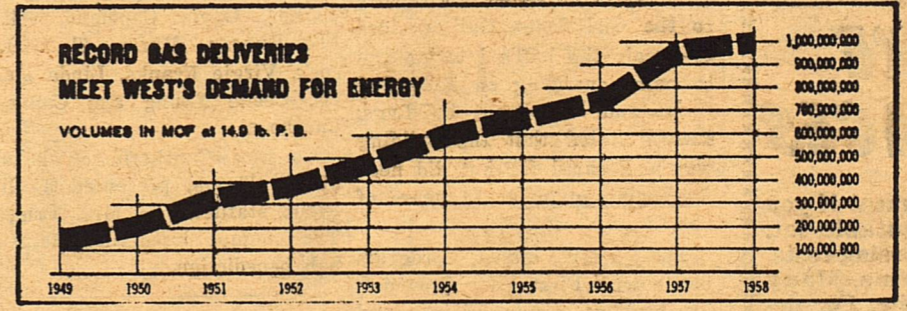

For the second consecutive year, gas deliveries totalled more than a trillion cubic feet.

Extensive exploration and purchase programs brought total gas reserves at year's end to an all-time high of 38.8 trillion cubic feet—assuring vitally needed energy supplies for western consumers and industries in the years ahead.

El Paso's 1958 annual report, distributed to its 51,835 stockholders (an increase of 10 per cent in 1958) reports consolidated gross revenues for 1958 of $368,299,522, compared with 1957's $301,090,537. Net income was $35,308,813 in 1958, compared with $34,506,238 in 1957.

The report gives details of 1958's accomplishments, as well as plans to meet the future needs of western consumers—for natural gas, for petroleum, for petro-chemicals.

El Paso Natural Gas Company and its subsidiary, Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corporation, serve customers in California, West Texas, Arizona, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wyoming and Colorado.
