Absentee Voting In May 7 Primary To End Tuesday

Absentee voting in the May 7 Democratic Primary Election will end Tuesday, May 3, in the office of County Clerk F. L. McKinney. Under new state law, any qualified voter who cannot appear at the polling place on the called day of election due to illness or physical disability, may apply to the county clerk's office and vote by mail as other absentee voters.

Voters are also reminded of the new state law which requires presentation of poll tax receipts before voting. No one shall be permitted to vote unless he first presents to the election judge his poll tax receipt. In case the receipt has been lost or left at home the voter must sign an affidavit to that effect.

Persons exempt from poll tax payment (those over 60 years of age as of January 1, 1959) will not be required to present an exemption certificate under the new election code. These persons will receive from the presiding a signed certificate entitling the exempt voter to participation in the convention.

Poisonings Claim At Least 80 Texans Each Year

Poisonings, while not a top killer in Texas, claim over 80 lives each year in Texas.

In addition, the dozen poison control centers scattered around accidental ingestion of poisons, the State answer hundreds of with aspirin overdose heading the urgent pleas for information each list. Sedatives and tranquilizers are close behind.

Generally, pre-schoolers are the victims. Records indicate that 65 to 70 percent of all poisonings cases reported to poison control centers involve children who are one or two years of age.

The improper usage (not following directions) of medicines cause the greatest percentage of 87 deaths from solid and liquid poisons during 1959.

Aspirins and salicylates led the causes, followed by noxious foodstuffs (toadstools and other poisonous plants.)

Barbiturates and petroleum products deaths are not as high as some other causes because prompt medical action is usually successful in saving the victim.

A breakdown of ages in poison deaths shows 17 deaths for children in one-to-four year olds, the age of inquisitive toddlers.

Thirty-one persons between the age of 45 and 64 died from poisoning, most resulting from an overdose of medicines. Least number of death was in the 5 to 14 age group, with only one death during 1959.

Additional poisonings during 1959 were attributed to deadly gases. Forty-two deaths were reported during the year.

Death from carbon monoxide gas was the leading cause, claiming 35 lives.

In nearly all cases of accidental poisoning, negligence or error is the cause. Care should be exercised in the handling of all potential poisonings.

I have to live with myself, and so I want to be fit for myself to know; I want to be able, as days go by Always to look myself straight in the eye; I don't want to stand with the setting sun And hate myself for the things I've done.

I don't want to keep on a closet shelf A lot of secrets about myself, And fool myself as I come and go Into thinking that nobody else will know The kind of a man I really am; I don't want to dress myself up in sham.

I want to go out with my head erect, I want to deserve all men's respect; But here in the struggle for fame and pelf, I want to be able to like myself. I don't want to think, as I come and go, That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show.

I never can hide myself from me; I see what others may never see; I know what others may never know; I never can fool myself—and so, Whatsoever happens, I want to be Self-respecting and conscience free.

El Paso Natural Gas Company 1959 ANNUAL REPORT:

MORE ENERGY...

for the rapidly expanding West

On the first day of 1960 El Paso Natural Gas Company merged into its system the facilities of Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corporation and began unified operations of the expanded system.

Gas reserves in Canada . . . in the Southwest . . . in the Rocky Mountain States . . . are now made available to households and industries in an entire 11-state area in the most efficient and economical manner.

This and other steps to meet the West's mounting energy needs are detailed in El Paso's 1959 Annual Report, recently mailed to 58,753 shareholders.

In 1959, energy-use in the West continued to soar—and El Paso's gas deliveries reached an all-time peak of more than 1.1 trillion cubic feet, an increase of more than six times that delivered by the company a decade ago. At the same time, our owned and controlled gas reserves, essential to fill ever-increasing future requirements of our customers, rose by three trillion cubic feet to a record level of 40.5 trillion cubic feet.

The Annual Report summarizes other progress made during the year, including applications pending before the FPC for new pipe line facilities designed to maintain El Paso's record of leadership and service—in natural gas, in petroleum, in petrochemicals.

El Paso's broadened service area and plans for the future outlined in our 1959 Annual Report assure the dependable long-term gas supplies so necessary to sound and speedy economic growth in the West.

Census Count 98.7% Complete, Says Supervisor

As of April 25, 1960 the Census for the 21st Congressional District is 98.7 percent complete, according to estimates of the Bureau of the Census, William G. Stacy, district supervisor announced Wednesday.

The enumeration has been completed in the following counties: Sterling Mills, Runnels, Menard, Kimble, Concho, Irion and Coke, and are in the process of Field Review, awaiting the results of the "Were You Counted?" campaign.

The enumeration is running approximately one week behind schedule in spite of extra hours of work put in by enumerators. It is hoped the population announcement can be made during the first week of May for counties and communities over 10,000 people, however, counties and communities under 10,000 must make a written request to the district supervisor.

At the present time there are still 82 enumerators working in the District out of 312, who are mainly engaged in clean-up work and call backs, Stacy said. Twenty-three enumerators are still working in the city of San Angelo.

Odds And Ends

Something on everyone's minds about now is severe weather—and there has really been some, although, fortunately, few lives have been lost and only a few injured in the turbulent weather that seems to go with spring in Texas.

Perhaps we are a little more concerned than usual since our neighbor city San Angelo took such a pelting Tuesday afternoon. Still and all, that was nothing compared to the tornado which ripped through Angelo seven years ago.

Now it seems like a good idea to put forth the tornado warning signals set up for civil defense use. If you should hear the warning horn give any of the following signals you'll know what they mean:

ONE LONG BLAST AND REPEAT THREE TIMES: Tornado warning. This alert covers a general area and does not mean that a tornado has been sighted in the immediate vicinity.

SERIES OF SHORT BLASTS: Tornado sighted. This means that a particular tornado has been sighted. When you head this signal, take shelter.

FOUR LONG BLASTS: Tornado all clear. Danger is over.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House
Every family has expressions which all the members understand but which puzzle outsiders. Uncle Albert, who live in Coldwater, Miss., came up to Memphis, when I was a boy, to visit us. As he opened the front door, he saw (or thought he did) a lady in the dimly-lighted vestibule so he said, "Good evening, Ma'am". A closer look revealed that the "lady" was a halftree with a lady's hat on top and various hanging garments. He commented to us, "I thought that was a person." So with us ever since, a halftree has been "a person."

Seen from a Southern Railway car window:
In Sheffield, Alabama, a lumber-yard sign, "Gentlest terms in town";
In another small town, a big pile of coal in the side-yard of a cottage—no doubt the winter's fuel supply; (an odd sight to a visitor from gas-fueled Texas);
And in another small town a tablet on the depot platform, informing the traveler that this had been the home of Annie Wheeler (1868-1955), the daughter of Gen. Joe Wheeler (of the Civil War and the Spanish War) who had been a nurse in Cuba, the Philippines and, during World War I, in France.
The train stopped in Iuka and Corinth, names recalled from the study of American history. There was nothing now about the appearance of either place to indicate to the passenger that they had been scenes of two battles. A supply of box lunches was brought aboard at Corinth—four pieces of chicken, French fries, pickle and pie for only 75 cents. At Iuka, autos, halted because the train blocked the street, had to use brakes to remain motionless on the steep hill. Between the two towns, the woods still grow right down to the railroad right-of-way on both sides—woods that once echoed with the rebel yell and with rifle fire, where clouds of smoke hung and where blood reddened the ground.

THAT'S WHAT I CALL A GOOD SOLID FOUNDATION.

Devil's River Philosopher Doubts That Machines Will Ever Really Get Rid Of All The Manual Labor

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Devil's River discusses work this week, in a theoretical sort of way.

Dear editor: Some people never get out of a rut. For example, they think the only time to get spring fever is in the spring, whereas I've found it can be done in the summer, fall or winter too, if you

Be Careful, Snake Season Back Again

Beware of snakes. This is the report coming in from game wardens all over the State, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. With the advent of warm weather, the snake movement has begun throughout the State.

There are four kinds of poisonous snakes in Texas. They are the moccasin, copperhead, coral snake and the rattler. Naturally the moccasins are found around water; the copperheads like cool places around old rock piles, barns and stacks of old lumber; coral snakes also are found around old tree stumps, under vines and shrubs; the rattler likely will be found most any place. Many of them are killed crossing highways.

Because there are so many non-poisonous snakes many persons may take a chance. For instance, near Rockport last week a group of school children found a snake swimming along the beach. They stuffed it in a bag, believing it to be a harmless hognose. Later, however, it developed the snake was a massasauga rattler.

Many of the harmless snakes have value as mice catchers and should not be molested. In fact, the director warns, it is best to leave all snakes alone, except to kill off the poisonous ones.

put your mind to it.

What brought this to my mind was an article

I read yesterday afternoon when I got tired of working and sat down, by an industrial expert who said that "by the year 2,000 the word 'worker' will be obsolete, men having been replaced by industry. Look about you now—do you see many people with a pick and shovel?" he asked. "Do you see anybody actually doing any manual labor?"

Which way you reckon that man was looking? You can look in some directions, say mine for example, and maybe not see anybody doing much manual labor, but the idea that manual labor has just about been abolished is one of the biggest hoaxes ever attempted.

Now it's true that riding a tractor beats walking behind a plow pulled by horses, but anybody who imagines driving a tractor eight or ten hours a day, going up one row and down another, doesn't involve work, just never has tried it. Furthermore, you don't step outside, when plowing time comes, mount your tractor, and take off. Somebody has to get some plows or planters or busters or discs hooked up to that tractor, and if anybody thinks this doesn't involve manual labor, I will be glad to turn the job over to him the first thing in the morning.

And furthermore, manual work isn't confined to the farm. In the most perfectly air-conditioned building in the city, using scientifically designed chairs and an electrically-operated typewriter, typing eight hours a day runs into work. A doctor in a modern hospital, with all kinds of newer gadgets, including an electric saw instead of a hand saw, still finds himself played out after a four-hour operation. And so it goes.

In fact, regardless of how many labor-saving devices man now has, regardless of all the automatic systems and modern inventions, most people I know wind up the day just about as tired as people did 50 years ago. At least they say they're tired. And when I say I'm tired, I don't want anybody arguing with me about it.

My theory is that machines will never be smart enough to eliminate work. It's up to man to do this, and the only way is not to rely on a machine, but to simply crawl under the shade of a tree and stretch out.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Fallout Shelters Can Save Millions of Americans

Many Americans near the points of bomb impact could be killed in a nuclear attack by blast, heat and initial radiation. But millions could survive by the simple expedient of protecting themselves against radioactive fallout.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER has called fallout shelters "the best single defense measure for the protection of the greatest number of our people."

For about $25 to $150 per person, families can construct shelters, on a do-it-yourself basis, into which they can go after any nuclear attack to stay alive until radiation intensity outside lessens to safe levels, civil defense authorities point out.

Any shelter must be equipped with the necessities of life, including food, water, first aid and sanitary supplies and lights. There must be enough for all shelter occupants for at least 14 days.

Two pamphlets are available to help you construct a suitable basement or underground shelter. One is MP-18, "The Family Fallout Shelter," which details five basic designs of concrete block, reinforced concrete and reshaped metal. The other, MP-18, "Clay Masonry Fallout Shelters," shows five other plans for basic shelters, calling for use of clay products (brick or tile).

THESE PAMPHLETS can be obtained from your local or State civil defense offices, or by writing to Box Home Shelter, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, Battle Creek, Mich.

Many persons building shelters are setting them up as recreation rooms, dens, or extra bedroom space, thus gaining multiple use of the facilities, civil defense officials report.

OCDM encourages multi-purpose use of shelter space. Its prime concern is that such radiation-proof shelter be provided now, officials say. On the day of any attack, such efforts would be too little and too late.

CHEVROLET
OVER BACK-COUNTRY ROADS AT 45 WITH A SKY-HIGH LOAD OF TIMBER

Chevy middleweight shows the big rigs how it's done!

That's a 6303 medium-duty Chevrolet powered by a 283-cu.-in. V8. But there's sure nothing medium-duty about the load. Mr. J. E. Blankinship, Arkansas logging contractor, says both of his torsion-spring 6303's "move along at 40 to 50 miles per hour with 55,000 pounds gross weight and maintain a 5-trip-a-day schedule with no trouble at all." Figure the money you save when you've got a medium-duty truck that can cover 30,000 back-country miles a year with a high-tonnage load!

We've never seen anything like the amount of praise truck owners are heaping on Chevy's new torsion spring suspension. Owners like the fact the truck handles a whole lot easier, can move faster off the road without beating the driver to death and shaking loose all the sheet metal. They like the idea of extra thousands of miles before trade-in! . . . Drive a '60 Chevy just once. It's a whole new experience.

Chevy middleweight averages 200 miles of back roads a day dogging timber out of the woods and delivering it to the mill at Crossett, Arkansas.

U. S. 'ALERT' TO FEATURE CONELRAD DRILL, CLOSE GOVERNMENT INTERPLAY

May 3, 4, and 5 are important days this year to all Americans. On these days the seventh annual civil defense preparedness exercise, Operation Alert 1960, will be held from coast to coast.

The objective of the 1960 Alert will be to train personnel in National, State, and local governments, in industry, and in private organizations to respond effectively to an all-out attack on the United States with nuclear weapons.

THE PRINCIPAL participation by the public on a nationwide basis in the exercise will be during the half-hour beginning at 1 p.m. (EST) on Tuesday, May 3, when a Conelrad radio broadcast will be aired on 640 and 1240 kilocycles. During this period, all television, FM radio stations, and those radio stations not in the Conelrad network must leave the air. The special Conelrad broadcast will originate from the Emergency Site of the Federal Government "somewhere outside of Washington." It will include brief addresses by President Eisenhower and Civil and Defense Mobilization Director Leo A. Hoegh.

The Conelrad broadcast will give the American public an opportunity to experience the kind of radio reception it would have to rely on during an enemy attack. The broadcast's importance will be emphasized by the fact that, under attack conditions, the 640 and 1240 channels would be the only source for survival instructions to the general public.

PARTICIPATION BY THE Federal, State, and local governments this year will be of special significance to the nation's preparedness program for it will demonstrate the effectiveness of coordinated action among them.

Federal agencies will invoke comprehensive plans for action during an attack on this country. All 50 States will operate under their statewide survival plans. Plans for emergency action in metropolitan areas and smaller communities will be screened for their effectiveness.

Equally important will be the conduct of the exercise in industrial plants throughout the country because emergency procedures in the larger plants are as comprehensive as those for an entire community. Mutual aid agreements within industry are another form of coordinated action.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bob Ellington of San Angelo spent last weekend here visiting friends and relatives.
