School Board Outlines Election

Trustees of the Sonora Independent School District have called a $900,000 bond election for Thursday, September 1. The proceeds of the election will be used to build a new junior high school. The new program will include 13 classrooms, a science room, restrooms, principal's office and teacher workroom, library, snack bar and eating area, janitorial and mechanical room.

The need for a new building is two fold (1) Since the building was constructed in 1904, it does not meet the flexibility of today's educational standards and the accreditation standard of the Texas Education Agency. (2) The school's growth in recent years has added to the problem. The junior high has increased from 221 in 1972-73 to 280 in 1976-77. The elementary school has increased from 396 in 1972-73 to 594 in 1976-77. This increased enrollment will exceed the capacity of the present junior high building.

The district has under construction a new vocational building that costs $529,380 and plans to renovate the old gym at an estimated cost of $180,000. With these expenditures, the district does not have the funds to pay for the building and must have tax payer's approval of the bond issue.

The district plans to use local funds to reduce the total amount of the building cost to $900,000 which will be covered by the bond issue. The bonds can be paid over a seven or eight year period at the present tax rate and valuation.

Sonora ISD To Host In-Service Program

The faculty and staff from the Sonora Independent School District will participate in an in-service training program coordinated by Region XV Education Center to be held on the Sonora school campus August 16 and 17. The in-service program is a cooperative endeavor involving approximately 300 participants from Sonora, Eldorado, Ozona, and Rockspring school districts.

The opening address for the program will be given at 9 a.m., August 16, by Mr. Jack Jackson of American Airlines. After the opening address, participants will attend sessions dealing with subjects related to their area of work within the public schools.

The various sessions will be conducted by people from public schools, region education centers, and universities. Conducting sessions from the Sonora Independent School District will be Mr. Donald Patton, Mr. Lewis Ferguson, Mrs. Roberta Sappington, Mrs. Lori Solis, and Mrs. Edwina Friess.

Absentee voting In School Bond Election Starts Aug. 12

Absentee voting in the $900,000 school bond election will begin August 12 and continue thru August 26.

Those persons who plan to be out of town on election day (September 1) are eligible to vote absentee at the School Administration office during office hours during the days listed above. Miss Vivian Mearns will serve as judge.

The election will be held to ascertain whether resident qualified voters in the Sonora School District want to pass a bond election to erect a new junior high school building.

Stranger Things Have Happened

An unidentified man walked into a grocery store in Sonora Sunday night around 10 p.m. to use the public pay phone. During his conversation he couldn't help overhearing the man using the phone adjacent to him telling the party on the other end of his conversation about "ripping" off a place in Lubbock for $3,000 and he was scared of his partner.

As soon as his conversation was terminated the man went to a phone at a nearby service station and called police giving them the admitted thief's description and latest whereabouts.

City officer Brent Gesch took the call and proceeded to hunt down the subject.

At a local all night restaurant Officer Gesch came in contact with two DPS Patrolmen, Archie Crenwelge of Sonora and Manuel Hartnett of Ozona, During Gesch's conversation with the two patrolmen a man ran up to them asking to give himself up.

With a look of surprise, the two patrolmen asked what for? And the man told them he and two companions had broken into a Halfway House in Lubbock and robbed it of a large amount of money.

The two highway patrolmen, Officer Gesch, Frank Tabola, and Dick Jones went to a local motel where the trio had rented rooms and arrested the man's companions, one male and one female. They also recovered approximately $1,100 in cash and checks.

The trio was held in custody for Lubbock police. The female companion was taken to Ozona Jail and later released when the Lubbock firm declined to file charges against her.

Some 1,075 projects in 223 counties are included in the program. District Engineer Watson noted that a large part of the program will be financed with General Revenue funds appropriated by the 65th Legislature for maintenance and construction. The remainder of the projects will be financed with state highway funds.

Approximately 69 per cent of the overall program will be on State and U.S. Highways, another 30 per cent on Farm to Market Roads, and the remaining 1 per cent reserved for future assignment.

"The program is the

Marche Lane Takes Second In ACU Poem Writing

[Editor's Note: The following poem was written by Marche Lane during band camp at Abilene Christian University. Marche was awarded a second place rating for her poem.]

"The Only Rating [Or, "A Song to be sung by Nervous Band Members]

by Marche Lane
On the 6th of November in '76
Out marched our Band to clicking of sticks.
'Twas the Bronco Band who strutted across
Showing the judges who was boss.
We marched our way to victory and fame
With heads held high, and our knees the same,
Full of Pride we marched and undaunted
In circles, Pinwheels, diagonals, & flunited,
That we were the best and that we'd not rest
Until we went home with the very best--
A trophy for the rating of 1.
After the show we sat in the stands
Biting our nails, wringing our hands.
We fidgeted and whispered, our eyes filled with fear,
The Time dragged by but we knew it was near.
Out of the Press box came a voice,
The words that were said caused us all to rejoice...
"SONORA-1st!!!!"
We've done it!" we yelled, as we all beheld
The trophy we had won because we had done so well.
We had spent so much time but our time was returned,
As we put on the shelf the trophy we'd earned.

Sonora Minister Speaks

Every once in awhile I have someone tell me that their religion is the Golden Rule...that is "do unto others as you would have them do unto you". That sounds fine, but I remember hearing Dr. George Buttrick some years ago deal with that subject. His point was that without the frame of reference of the Church, the believing community, the Golden Rule is a delusion. For without that frame of reference, the Golden Rule could be used in these ways:

The alcoholic, liking alcohol, could give it to others

The drug pusher, desiring drugs himself, could urge others to use them

The thief, liking to steal himself, could urge others to steal

The sexual deviate, whether hereto or homo- could urge others to imitate him

And all of the above would be able to say quite honestly that they were living by the Golden Rule.

What I am trying to say is that we need to be careful about the frame of reference from which we look at life. The Church, even though it contains fallible and sinful human beings, has a history of raising basic questions about life. Because the Church at its best seeks to interpret life from the standpoint of the spirit of its living Lord, we would do well to listen to the Church. If we think the Church is wrong in a stand, we should speak out, but speak out from inside the Church, and in a spirit of love. It just might be that we are wrong and the Church is right. And of course when I speak of the Church, I am not speaking of a denomination, but the entire body of believers, all of those who are aware of and seek to be obedient to God's presence in life. If you believe in God, you do yourself and society a disservice when you withhold your presence and your support from some branch of the Church.

Officers and members of the Good Shepherd Presbyterian church have had an active summer. The congregation celebrated its twentieth anniversary in June. Groundbreaking ceremonies were held for the new manse, which is being constructed on the property adjacent to the church.

A new Church school program was begun with Mrs. Carl Teaff as Superintendent. Classes currently being held include: Preschool, taught by Mrs. Tom Peaslee, Elementary, taught by Mrs. Carl Teaff, Jr. and Sr. Hi., taught by Miss Debbie Hard, and Adult, taught by the Rev. Jim Miles. Another inquirers class, designed for those interested in learning more about Presbyterianism, will be held in September.

The church was represented at the denominations camp in Cloudcroft, New Mexico by Deacon Tom Peaslee and family.

The pastor and Mrs. Miles represented Presbytery of Tres Rios at the National Smaller Church Conference in Montreat, North Carolina. Mrs. Harva Cooper is currently attending Bloys Camp Meeting in Fort Davis, Texas.

Elder Trustee Nelson Stubblefield and the pastor have represented the church at several meetings of Presbytery and will be part of the Commission to ordain and install Mr. Lymon Mobley as pastor of First Church, Eldorado on August 28.

In other activities the church will have a Family

Night Supper in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mayfield, this Friday night, August 12. Members attending are asked to bring a salad or a dessert. A car caravan will leave the church at 6:00 p.m.

The youth of the church will be honored with a swimming party at the Municipal Pool on Tuesday, August 16. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rosford are sponsors for this event.

The painting of the Mona Lisa, which Leonardo da Vinci worked on for four years, was never finished.

Krueger Report

by Congressman Bob Krueger

Last week's vote by the U.S. House of Representatives against the deregulation of natural gas prices was a vote against the American consumer and against jobs for Texans.

Because of the great amount of confusion and misinformation surrounding last week's vote and the entire issue of the deregulation of natural gas prices, I felt that it was important that an attempt be made to set the record straight.

The nation and Texas both lost in the vote against deregulation of natural gas prices. It was a vote to give the power to federal bureaucrats not just to set prices for energy but to allocate energy supplies and jobs to other states.

In the winters ahead, as the dwindling supply of natural gas fails to meet our nation's needs, as Texas loses jobs and economic growth, I hope we will remember the circumstances that caused opponents of deregulation to reach the conclusion reflected in today's vote.

Our loss might very well have been prevented, I believe, if two things had happened:

--if the Administration had offered a better, more realistic gas pricing policy; and

--if the issue had remained non-partisan, as it ought to have.

Instead, people put obligation to party ahead of obligation to country.

For weeks, I had sought a method of compromise in implementing a plan that would hold true to two essential principles:

--eventual removal of federal price controls, or deregulation, and

--the denial of federal authority over our state's intrastate gas supplies.

Both those principles were served in my deregulation bill in 1976, which lost only 205-201. At that time, many Democrats, including myself, worked with a Republican President to fashion non-partisan energy policy.

Today, partisanship on both sides prevailed and the loss was substantial.

After the initial Krueger bill to deregulate natural gas won in subcommittee, by a vote of 12-10, I knew that it would be harder to win in full committee.

I felt that by phasing out price controls, over several years, however, we could win deregulation in full committee.

But the Republican leadership insisted instead upon holding to the official Republican policy of immediate deregulation of new natural gas, coupled with windfall profits taxes. That strategy lost by a vote of 23-20.

I then negotiated with Republicans and Democrats, seeking to offer phased out price controls before the full House of Representatives. That seemed to be the only strategy capable of victory.

Unfortunately, in the Rules Committee the Republican leadership combined with Democratic supporters of the Administration's policy to deny me the opportunity to offer the only amendment that would have won.

In my judgment, the Republican leadership consciously offered a losing strategy so that they could blame President Carter for the defeat of deregulation.

In so doing, they allowed partisanship to overrule wise policy. The House became polarized on a highly complex issue and people tended to take the easy way of voting a party line as Republicans versus Democrats instead of working together as public officials to fashion non-partisan energy policy, as I had hoped we might.

Since Texas is by far the largest consumer of natural gas--consuming more than all of New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, California, Oregon and Washington combined--if we have a very cold winter this year, Texas stands to lose thousands of jobs if natural gas is allocated, as allowed by this bill, to other states.

If that happens, the Texas consumer and wage earner will be the ones to suffer.

Bids Sought On SA Post Office Building

The U.S. Postal Service is asking for construction bids to build a new main post office building in San Angelo, Postmaster M.D. Green said.

Bids are to be sent to Blenard C. Wilson, Field Real Estate and Buildings Office, U.S. Postal Service, P.O. Drawer 239, Dallas, TX 75221.

Bids will be opened at 2 p.m., September 7, in Room 550, General Post Office, Bryan and Ervay Streets, in Dallas.

The proposed new post office building will have approximately 36,000 sq. ft. of interior floor space. It will be located on a 204,450 sq. ft., about 4.7 acres, tract of land bounded on the north by First St., on the east by Abe St., on the south by W. Harris Ave., and on the west by N. David St.

Pre-construction cost range is estimated at $1,200,000 to $1,400,000.

Project architect is Chakos-Zentner-Marcum, Architects, of San Angelo.

GOOD PSYCHOLOGY

Many psychologists agree that parents should accept childishness in their children. It's natural for youngsters to fidget when they have to sit still for long stretches and to run instead of walk.

Experts have also found that too much regimentation may cause children to rebel. For instance, schools that take candy machines out of their lunchrooms to cut students' intake of sweets may find the youngsters boycotting the lunchrooms and going outside for what they want.

Spirited COOKING

CHARMING CHILI
Any time of year is a hot time to enjoy the thrill of chili. With this recipe, you do little more than chuck the ground meat and other ingredients into a skillet and you can get a dish that tastes like it was turned out by the most skillful cook in Mexico.

- LILLI'S CHILI
- 2 pounds ground chuck
  - 2 large onions, chopped
  - 1 green pepper, chopped
  - 1 clove garlic, chopped
  - Salt, pepper
  - 2 tablespoons chili powder
  - 1 can (1 lb. 13 oz.) tomatoes
  - 1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste
  - 1 can (4 oz.) red chili peppers
  - 2 cans (1 lb. each) red kidney beans
  - 1/4 cup gin

Cook meat in a large skillet, stirring continuously with a fork, until it loses its red color. Drain off excess fat. Add onions, pepper, garlic and spices; cook, stirring occasionally until the vegetables are lightly browned. Add tomatoes, tomato paste, and chili peppers; bring the mixture to the simmering point and simmer, covered, about 1 hour to develop the flavors and thicken the sauce. Add the beans, heat. Add gin. Serve as a hearty dip, with large corn chips, or with tortillas crisped in hot fat or on a greased skillet. Makes about 2 1/2 quarts, enough for 8 or more hearty eaters.

Wool and Mohair Report

Overseas wool auctions are still closed and will remain closed for two more weeks. Demand for grease wool during the past month has been poor. One of the only indicators of market trends has been the Sydney grease futures market and it has been showing weakness instead of strength. Shearing will begin soon in Southern Hemisphere countries such as Australia, New Zealand, Argentina and Uruguay. Wool carryovers in these countries is fairly high and is tending to depress the market.

In the U.S. very little wool has sold recently. Previously purchased wool is still being shipped into the mills and they are showing little interest in new purchases.

Quite a bit of mohair has now been sheared and is moving into the warehouse. Inquiries are not plentiful and are in the range of $2.40 for good length clean adult mohair. No offers have been received for kid or yearling.

The first South Africa sale is scheduled for September 6. Their current clip is reported to be coming into the warehouse in Port Elizabeth. The quality is said to be on the low side length good and free of burr. Our market contact these reports expectations of steady prices for the finer grades and some weakness for the lower grades.

Sawyer Ranch Shearing

Domingo Gutierrez shears one of 1,150 Angora goats during shearing operations at the Edwin Sawyer Ranch this week. Shearing captain, Ben Castilleja, expressed praise for the Sawyer shearing facility. Ranch foreman, Bill Doran, says the mohair is in good shape, and appears to be an excellent shearing.

TS&GRA Convention Elects Officers

The 62nd Annual Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers' Association convention, recently concluded in Kerrville, brought resolutions concerning predator control, appreciation and sympathy, as well as execution of the Association's official business. All these activities were concluded during what was generally described as one of the most enjoyable sessions in recent memory.

Late in the final business session outgoing president Bill Pfluger, San Angelo, turned control of the meeting over to his newly-elected successor Bill Schneemann, Big Lake. Schneemann, a TS&GRA member for 18 years, served as a director for 15 years and held the first vice president post under Pfluger.

Convention delegates elected Sonoran Norman Rousselot to the first vice president post, and his previous position as second vice president will be filled by Martin Wardlaw, Del Rio. Prior to becoming an officer for the Association, Rousselot served as chairman of the Wool and Mohair Promotion Committee and on the Miss Wool of America Pageant Board. Wardlaw has raised sheep, goats and cattle since 1966 and is a director of the Devil's River Soil and Water Conservation District, as well as a member of the Val Verde County Commissioners' Court.

Predator-related resolutions accepted at the convention include one commending Roy McBride, Alpine, for his work developing the toxic collar for predator control, and also urging that a program be developed in order to register Compound 1080 for us in the collar.

A related resolution requests that the president of the National Wool Growers meet with President Carter to seek modification of the Executive Order of 1972, which banned the use of chemical toxicants. Still another measure calls on the Texas Agriculture Commissioner to authorize the Rodent and Predatory Animal Control Service to rewrite regulations determining the ability of predatory animal hunters to handle restricted pesticides. It was also requested that this authority be granted immediately so that testing and certification could be completed prior to institution of pesticide controls October 21.

The Association also commended U.S. Congressman Bob Poage "for his invaluable assistance in working for extension and renewal of the National Wool Act." It was requested that sheep producers write Poage to express their appreciation of his contribution.

New Association directors elected at the convention are Jack Hoggett, Junction; Tommy Hayre, Sheffield; Karlos Kothmann, Sanderson; Dr. Paul Weyerts, Alpine; John Copeland, Jr., Sterling City; T.F. Foster, Sterling City; Stan K. Horwood, Sterling City; Carl Hyde, Rocksprings; Wayne O. Smith, Lampasas and Steve Sykes, Christoval. New directors for life will be George Tomlinson, Del Rio, Carl Pfluger, Eden and G.R. Kothmann, Junction.

Ranch Loans Up

A recent survey of agricultural credit conditions in Texas shows that money lenders are serving more ranchers and that the average loan amount has increased.

Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist in management for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service who conducted the survey noted that over a quarter of the 149 lenders responding were serving more clients and 65 per cent were serving the same number of customers.

"Interest rates declined for loans for the fourth straight semi-annual period."

"If these interest rates do change, they are predicted to go up. However, most of the lenders expected the rates to remain stable," says Hayenga.

According to requirements for feedlot loans, which show only 30 per cent of these loans hedged on the futures market, cattle prices are expected to get better.

"An increase in forward contracts made by crop farmers indicate a rising security consciousness," points out the economist. "Fifty-seven per cent of the contracts were made on an acreage basis in contrast to 43 per cent of the contracts made on a quantity basis."

The majority of the lenders expect ranch earnings to be higher during the next year than in the past six months. But all agreed that spending from ranchers will go up," adds Hayenga.

The demand for refinancing of ranch loans was expected to remain about the same by 71 per cent of the lenders.

Mohair Council To Meet In Sonora

A proposed by-law change and the realignment of the Mohair Council of America's Texas districts will be up for discussion when the Council's directors hold their summer meeting here on August 25 at the Sutton County 4-H Club Center.

According to a Council spokesman, the by-law change proposal must be approved by the directors before it can be presented to the annual membership meeting in January, 1978.

The proposed by-law change would affect the apportionment of directors for the Council and a change in the formula used to determine the number of directors allowed from each district.

In addition to the proposed by-law change and the realignment of districts, directors also will be given detailed information on the plans for changing over the Mohair Council's financing.

It is anticipated that the federal funds in the Council's reserve will be expended by early 1978, at which time the Texas Mohair Producers Board will begin funding the Council's promotion, advertising market development programs.

Other matters to be discussed at the meeting here include a full report on the recent international Mohair Association meeting held in San Antonio which was attended by more than 80 persons representing the world's major mohair users, including importers, processors, spinners, manufacturers and producers.

Large Production Highlights Sonora Gas Field

The massive energy needs of this nation continue to grow in the face of declining crude oil and natural gas production in Texas and nationwide.

Because of this, Sutton County's 1976 petroleum production was as important as in any year since production began in 1948. Economic conditions within the county were improved substantially by the marketing of crude oil and natural gas with an estimated value of $57.2-million and an industry payroll said to be $6.6-million, according to a report prepared by the staff of the Dallas-based Texas Mid-continent Oil & Gas Association.

Jack S. Blanton of Houston, president of the association, said, "The decline in Texas' oil and gas production makes it imperative that Congress adopt policies which will encourage more exploration and drilling in the nation's No. 1 energy state.

This is a facet of the energy supply problem that President Carter has not dealt with adequately in his proposals."

According to figures from the U.S. Bureau of Mines, Texas' crude oil production last year was approximately 1,189,719,000 barrels, down from 1,221,929,000 barrels in 1975, and the fourth consecutive year of decline from 1972's all-time high of just over 1.3-billion barrels.

Natural gas production, estimated by the Bureau at 7,192,371 MMcfs, also was down from the 1975 figure of 7,485,764 MMcfs. Texas gas production also peaked in 1972—at 8,657,840 MMcfs—and has fallen each year since.

Blanton said that drilling starts and expenses reached all-time highs in Texas last year and noted that this was directly attributable to a free market for intrastate natural gas.

He also pointed out that a five-year lag time exists between increased drilling activity and increases in proved reserves.

Sutton was one of 200 Texas counties last year which produced crude oil and natural gas with a marketed value of $100,000 or more, the same number as in 1975.

The county ranked 66th in the total estimated value of petroleum produced, realizing $2.1-million from the sale of 257,450 barrels of crude oil; $55.1-million from the sale of 71.9-million Mcf of natural gas.

Payments last year to owners of royalty in the county totaled an estimated $7.2-million.

In addition to the payment of local school and county property taxes, producers in the county also contributed to the support of state government through production tax payments calculated by the Association at $4.2-million, with $96,300 coming from crude oil output; $4.1-million from natural gas.

According to the Texas Employment Commission, 471 employees worked in the industry in the county last year.

These direct employment figures do not take into account employment by the service and supply firms that support oil and gas company exploration, production, transportation, and processing activities and, as a result, do not reflect the industry's full impact on the county's economy.

The search for additional petroleum continued in Sutton County in 1976, with oil and gas developers spending as estimated $32.5-million in the drilling of 199 wells, including 12 classified as wildcats.

Some $6.2-million of that amount was lost in 54 dry holes. The 145 strikes included two oil wells and 143 gas wells.

Processing also contributed to the county's petroleum-related economy through the operation of two natural gasoline processing plants, with a total daily capacity of 60-million cubic feet.

Drilling activity in Sutton County and surrounding counties has been steadily increasing in the past few years. The drilling here is more dramatically seen from the air, with drilling pads dotting the countryside, like this one a few miles southwest of Sonora. [aerial photo courtesy Mike Spies]

Krueger On Energy

by Wes Burnett

"It's hard for a Texan to come out of Washington this week and say there's good news..." U.S. Congressman Bob Krueger told West Texas Press Association publishers Saturday morning in Midland. Speaking to the annual WTPA convention, Krueger explained the "behind the scenes" maneuvering which contributed to the defeat of the natural gas deregulation bill in the House of Representatives. "Republicans wanted to put forth a completely different package than the President, and the democratic leadership would have nothing less than the President's plan," Krueger said.

Working for a compromise after the full commerce committee turned down the deregulation effort, Krueger tried to introduce phased-out decontrol of natural gas.

"The house leadership openly admitted that they could not allow me to introduce phased-out controls," Krueger added, "because it would probably pass, and they did not want to see that happen." Earlier in the year Krueger had attempted to work out a phased-out decontrol measure with Republicans.

"It was obvious that the Republican leadership was not interested in a compromise," Krueger continued, "they were more interested in setting up a campaign issue for 1978."

Krueger also blasted the Democratic leadership for its failure to see the futility of the current legislation, which calls for continued control of natural gas pricing, and worse, the extension of controls to the intra-state market.

And Texas will lose more than any other state, because Texas uses more natural gas than any other state.

HOME LAUNDRY

Wash and dry a full load, but never overload... it is essential for each item to move freely for proper cleaning and drying.

Choose the correct cycle for washing modern materials. Perhaps hot water isn't needed, and only a gentle drying temperature.

Too much detergent can clog machine and drains... always measure, don't guess!

Follow the manufacturer's recommendations for your type equipment.

Mixing brands of detergents can cause graying of clothes.

Many manufacturers of permanent press garments recommend machine washing and machine drying for best results. Following instructions on the garment tag can help preserve the life of your clothing and give you wrinkle-free clothes without need for ironing. A big savings!
