Arredondo Wins Contest

Onesimo Arredondo turned in the only entry with only two missed to capture the $20 first prize in last week's Devil's River News Football Contest.

Eugene Reyna and Jesse Ortiz, Jr., took $10 and $5 for second and third places, respectively.

Both missed three games on their entries as did Dwight Hardin with the tie breaker deciding the outcome.

A rash of upsets this week separated the winners quickly as 14 entries missed four games and even more missed five and six.

The games most often missed Eldorado over Ozona, Coahoma over Crane, Kermit over Lovington, New Mexico, Kentucky over Baylor, Texas Tech over Arizona, TCU over Oregon and Southern Cal over Alabama.

All entries in the contest must be turned in by 4 p.m. on Fridays, and all decisions of the judges are final.

The 41st Annual Lions Club Auction came within $25 of breaking last years record, of $10,810.

Businesses and individuals donated $10,785 for the 164 items placed on the auction block.

The famous "Mystery Box" was purchased by Haynie Davis for $700. The package, bought last year by Mack and Adda Cauthorn, was re-donated as has been the custom for years.

Davis was also the purchaser of the package in 1976.

Lem Jones of Scottsdale, Az. was the auctioneer as he has been for over 25 years.

A wide variety of items and services was donated by individuals and businesses.

Among the items donated for the auction were bull dozer work, goats, Las Vegas vacations, hand-crocheted Afgans, a flintlock gun, homemade bread, baby sitting, sheep, pool cues, Bibles, portable heaters, a hog, a case of California avocados and dinners at local restaurants.

Much of the livestock bought was in turn donated to the Boy's Ranch or the Fire Department.

Goats for the barbecue supper were donated by Philip Jacoby, George Brockman, J and F Ranch (Dr. Johnny Fields), Jo Nell Johnson, Jamie Parker Cattle Co., Dr. and Mrs. Lonnie Pollard, G.H. Davis, Bill Stewart, Bill Tittle, Mayer and Rousselot, Harrison Ranch, Wesley Sawyer, Jimmy Cahill and Corky and Elsie

The typing and mimeographing of the programs was done courtesy of the Sutton County Extension Office.

Proceeds from the auction go to support numerous Lions Club charities, both abroad and locally.

Among these are the Boy Scout Charter, the Care Program, the Community Sign, Eye Examinations and glasses, 4-H Center, 4-H Livestock Show, the hunting party, the Lions International Foundation, the Sonora Speech Meet, the Sonora-Sutton County Community Park.

Also the Chamber of Commerce, Concho Valley Home for Girls, the Crippled Childrens Camp, the Firemens Training School, the 4-H Food Show and Dress Revue, the Girl Scout Charter, Little League Baseball, the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, Sonora Youth Football, the Sutton County Senior Center and the Welfare Council.

The members of the Lions Club wish to thank all those who donated or purchased items to make the continuation of these activities possible.

For complete listings of donors and buyer, see page .

A large turnout showed up for the Lions Club Auction despite several conflicting activities. The $10,785 bid for 164 items came within $25 of breaking the record set last year. Lem Jones of Scottsdale, Arizona [in the background] was the auctioneer as he has been for over 25 years.

Gesch Promoted to Sergeant

Police Chief Jerry Kemp recently announced the promotion of Patrolman Brent Gesch to the rank of sergeant.

Gesch joined the police department in January, 1977 after serving two years with the Rocksprings Sheriff's Department.

"Brent has been a very dedicated employee to the City of Sonora and able servant to its citizens. He is very deserving of the department's first rank promotion", Kemp said.

In announcing the promotion Chief Kemp pointed out that the sergeant's slot was a newly created position in the police department and the first of its kind in the four year history of the agency. "We now have four police officers serving the citizens of Sonora and anticipate additional personnel as the city gains in population",

Kemp noted. "With growth comes increased administrative and supervision responsibilities and that's where Brent will become an invaluable asset. He will assume some of those responsibilities, most especially in the activities of those officers assigned to night duty", Kemp added.

Sergeant Gesch holds an associate degree in criminal justice from Southwest Texas Junior College. He is married and his wife, Abby, is employed as dispatcher for the police department and Sutton County Sheriff's Department.

Mrs. Mathews said the board met yesterday to discuss the resignation and also heard from a Federal Aviation Administration official from Midland on the use of airports non-directional light. The board is currently looking for a replacement for the manager's position and will accept applications from anyone interested in the job.

Reflections

By Rev. Jim Miles
About a week ago my wife indicated that she would like to find a poem to decapage for our kitchen. Reflecting upon a society that has been constantly inching away from the nuclear family structure...a culture that has left schools no choice but prepare two of the three meals a day, I penned the following:

Tiny bodies wiggle to life; Alarm clock noses gently coaxing them toward the scent of bacon sizzling in the deep black skillet.

Kitchen...such a word The center of the home brings to mind a myriad of sights and sounds and smells magnified by the telescope of childhood.

Apron strings and pulled back hair stirring magic into a pot as tiny bodies stretched on tiptoe to catch a glimpse of its contents;

Frijoles simmering slowly, silently stirring the salt pork into each bean the faint cloud of steam illuminated by the sunbeam of morning;

And other times...holiday smells of cranberries of turkey and dressing, pumpkin and mince blended with the grown up scents of egg nog, brandy and nutmeg;

All these and left overs too held heaven itself for the child could ever taste the spice of mother's love.

Coffee Break...

By Shirley Hill
It's always great when someone bothers to take the time to tell you you've done something right or to pay you a compliment.

Wednesday, I had one of the nicest compliments of all and since it is a compliment to all Sonorans I would like to share it.

Marsha Chlumsky came into the office to visit and ask me how she might go about telling the people of Sonora just how friendly and generous they are.

Marsha and her husband moved to Sonora last September from Houston and had to live in a motel for six weeks before finding a place to live. She was amazed, when she finally found a house, when her new landlord refused references before letting her move into the house.

In February Marsha said she had a stay in our local hospital. She couldn't say enough nice things about the hospital. "What they lack in size and facilities, they more than make up in consideration and attention," she said.

Marsha also had many kind words to say for Dr. Owensby and for neighbors who had graciously offered them the loan of tools and lawn mowers.

Like I said it's always nice to get compliments and have a few kind words said about you. So Marsha we thank you for all these nice words and hope we can live up to them.

Contest entrants will be required to submit a 500 word essay on the subject "Facts about Rural Electric Cooperatives and Their Role in Energy and Carl Igo of Eldorado. Both were very enthusiastic about the association with the other winners, the sites visited enroute to Washington, and the interesting and historic sites visited in the Nations's capitol.

As participants in the Youth Tour, local contest winners will travel by bus to Washington where they will spend five days visiting with political people, getting a first hand view of our government in action, as well as visiting many places of historical interest.

Approximately 1000 young people from across the nation will meet during the week for a special program coordinated by the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association. The program will feature congressional leaders and high government officials. A visit to the White House and a fun filled banquet will highlight the day's events.

Essays will be judged by the area school on the basis they select.

Deadline for submitting essays will be February 19, 1979. On the basis of the essays, finalists will be selected to give a talk on the same subject before a committee of judges who will select the winners.

This is the second year Southwest Texas Electric Cooperative has sponsored this contest. Winners last year were Paige Helmers

4-H Week Observed

Nearly 5.5 million young people across the nation... more than 100,000 of those in Texas... will observe National 4-H Week, October 1-7. Activities will center on the theme, "4-H Freedom to Be."

President Jimmy Carter called the theme "most appropriate for a program which is reaching out to all young Americans... rural and urban... from every cultural, economic and social background."

"For many," he said, "4-H is opening doors to a lifetime of personal growth and fulfillment. In learning by doing, through educational projects and through community involvement efforts, 4-H is providing useful guidance and direction to young people and making them more responsible and sensitive adult citizens."

"National 4-H Week is set aside annually by the Cooperative Extension Service to focus attention on the values of 4-H as an informal educational program for boys and girls 9 to 19 years old," said Dr. John T. Pelham, state 4-H and youth leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"The program's learning-by-doing philosophy encourages young people to acquire 'real life' skills and develop citizenship and leadership abilities."

noted Pelham.

Most 4-H members are enrolled in locally organized clubs on a year-round basis. Others take part in 4-H through special interest groups, nutrition education programs, instructional television, international programs, short term activities and camping.

Complexion Care

By Maxine Locklin Merle Norman Consultant

THE THREE STEPS TO BEAUTY PLAN CREATES A WHOLE NEW CLIMATE FOR YOUR SKIN

CLEANSING CREAM is a pure and simple-to-use cleanser with dual action that dissolves both oil and water-soluble substances including stale skin oils, old makeup, and the just plain grime of pollution. It softens as it cleanses.

MIRACOL is more than a masque. It's a deep cleansing treatment that goes after impurities already softened by Cleansing Cream. Miracol loosens that top layer of flaky skin that can clog and enlarge pores and, unless removed, can cause unsightly blemishes. Miracol leaves the skin feeling fresh and tingly clean, better in tone, and looking more refined.

MIRACOL BOOSTER is an additive for Miracol that intensifies the effectiveness of miracol; to be used by everyone once a week for greater benefits.

POWDER BASE is used every day and especially to protect your skin when it is baby fresh and clean after using Miracol. There are a variety of fashion shades in Powder Base to protect, to even out color, and to give a flawless look to your complexion.

Some of the ingredients in Powder Base are known to have a beneficial, soothing effect on mild teenage type skin problems. Other ingredients complement the skin's natural hydration process and help keep it looking younger longer.

The Three Steps to Beauty Plan has been proven by three generations of women who care about their skin. It has withstood the test of time because it provides the most thorough of cleansing methods, because it protects and because it makes women look and feel more beautiful. Try it yourself and see, in one of famous free lessons.

Merle Norman Cosmetics the choice for Miss World-America again this year. Sept. 24-28.

Sorority Holds Style Show

Kappa Gamma chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha

International held a very successful style show and luncheon in Sonora on September 23 in the basement of the Methodist Church.

Local merchants participating in the style show were Gosney's, The Corral, Neville's, Labenske's and Sonora Fashions.

Each merchant chose local ladies, teenagers and youngsters to model the new fall fashions they are featuring this season.

Ruthie Bounds, an employee of Sonora Fashions, introduced models and acted as commentator for the show.

Included in the style show were new designs and ideas in jewelry

presented by Mr. J. T. Hill of Ruth Shurley

Jewelry and Mr. John Tedford of Tedford's Jewelry.

Kappa Gamma would like to thank local business men and women for their participation in the style show and also the ladies of Sonora who supported the sorority's first attempt at a style show by buying tickets and by attending.

Jo Ann Wilkinson models jeans from Sonora Floral, Gifts and Fashions.

Lydia San Miguel and Javier Hernandez model fashions from Gosneys.

Jeanette Sipes and son Austin model for Gosney's and the Corral.

Bronco Bits

BY ANNABELLE GONZALES

The Broncos won again last Friday night as they demolished the Mason Punchers 37 to 6. The Broncos had a good offensive game. They scored their first touchdown in the opening moments of the game.

The Broncos showed great deal of spirit and pride in their work. They will probably continue to show that pride and spirit in the future games to come.

The Broncos were guilty of too many penalties, as was the case in last week's game against Ballinger.

The captains for last Friday's game were announced at the pep rally. They were R. B. Alexander and Cody Savell.

The Mighty Bronco Band again won the spirit plaque yell. This was the second time the band won the plaque. The Mighty Bronco Band also performed a great halftime show. This was probably their best show of the season. I'm sure it won't be their last.

The band also provided entertainment after halftime, when the lights went out. This proved just how good the band is and how much pride they have. They played their songs in the dark without being able to see their music.

The pep rally seemed a little louder. More of the student body participated in the yells and chants along with the cheerleaders.

The cheerleaders have also been working hard decorating the SHS and gym walls with posters and signs. In a few weeks, there may be a case of Bronco Mania in SHS and the City of Sonora. The Broncos will host the Reagan County Owls here Friday night. Kick-off time will be 8 p.m.

The J.V. football team defeated the Reagan County Owls last Thursday night in Big Lake. The final score was 20-0. The freshman team was combined with the J.V. because the Owls didn't have enough players for two teams.

Class officers and favorites were elected at SHS last week. Officers for the senior class are president, Chase Snodgrass; vice president, Bunk Galbreath; secretary, treasurer, Carol Brandon. Carol Brandon and Mike Jones were chosen nominees for most beautiful and most handsome. Nominees for Mr. and Miss Personality are Tony Hooper and Karen Crownover. Lorraine Creek was chosen for Halloween queen candidate.

Junior officers are: president, Nora Galindo; vice president, Debbie Perez; secretary and treasurer, Louis Humphreys. Nominees for Mr. and Miss Personality are Carla Lee and Bruce Bartz. Peter Gomez and Emily Elliott were chosen class favorites.

Kent Cagle and Sandy Lilly were chosen as nominees for most handsome and most beautiful. Mary Lynch was selected as Halloween queen candidate.

Sophomore officers are: Paula Friess, president; vice president, Cody Gold; and secretary and treasurer, Stacy Chandler. Mr. and Miss Personality hopefuls are Rex Surber and Fran Friess. Marche Lane and David Creek were selected as class favorites. Trina Powers and Johnny Doan will be the sophomore candidates for most beautiful and most handsome.

Officers for the freshman class are president, Jessica Robledo; vice president, Rosa Noriega, and secretary and treasurer Cissy Gallegos. Linda Duran was nominated for the freshman Halloween Queen candidate.

The three-act play, Bus Stop, which was previously been played by Marilyn Monroe and John Travolta, will be presented by the Sonora High School Drama Department in the SHS auditorium on October 20-21.

The cast consists of DuRay Smith, Valerie Tedford, Craig Cooper, Pam Powers, Janie Gold, Gary Vick, Lance Reynolds, and Nata Hinojosa. The play is under the direction of Chris Cassle.

Work such as set designers, sound, lights, make-up, etc., is being done by several other SHS students. All of the students have been working very hard at five rehearsals every week.

They are looking forward to presenting a very enjoyable performance for the student body and everybody else who wishes to come.

Thought for the week: "Friendship is the only cement that will ever hold the world together."

Second Thoughts

by Tom Driskell

Sometimes we have trouble adjusting to new laws, or new interpretations of old ones, and we feel put upon as individuals with a unique personal imposed upon feeling.

(going back to 1890) was very informative.

The first impression was the quiet competence of the people in the County Clerk's Office. It is regrettable that it cannot extend to the higher echelons of government.

Rest assured that we are neither unique, nor original.

In a clubfooted attempt to contribute to the County history, a search of the records of the local courts

The second feeling was one of elation. I am a poor speller (the names printed on my checks are guides to keep me from spelling some other name on the bottom line).

An early County recorder (the same individual) spelled fined successively; finde, find, and feined.

That individual sure knew how to make a poor speller feel good.

The big story that the records had to tell, however, was one of the difficulty of the citizenry in adjusting to civilization's encroachment.

The secondary derivation was an insight into the early citizens of Sonora--a hard-headed lot, capable of meeting adversity functioning as benders of nature and their environment both geographical and social, rather than being bent.

The major misdemeanor appearing in the town's formative years' records was gambling. The citizens seemed to believe that any man who confronted mother nature in the ranching business, with our rainfall, livestock disease and other handicaps was, by his very nature, a gambler.

They had difficulty understanding why this gamble could not be extended to gambling for money. It must be conceded that there was sound logic in their position.

The legislation of morality is neither new nor effective.

The second ranking misdemeanor was carrying a pistol--giving up the sidearm must have been like pulling teeth. It was a social practice that apparently hung on until well into the nineteenth century.

The cases in the courts showed a high rate of dismissal for one reason or another and the impression lingers that sidearms were the general practice--a ten dollar fine if you were too noisy.

Aggravated assault was not unknown, and the price on conviction was ten dollars plus costs, with the price of five dollars plus costs for gambling, ten dollars if you were running the game.

Murder appears several times, slightly less than theft of livestock. The sentences handed down for murder leave a twinge of suspicion that you could shoot a man (or otherwise dispose of him) in early Sonora with comparative impunity (five years or so, at most).

Contrasted to the uni-mate felony, even the intent to steal livestock would earn protected employment on one of the early Texas penal farms. Precisely what one would expect, in a pastoral frontier society.

The names appearing on the court records frequently provided a chuckle and a decided indication that in earlier years, some of the pillars of this society were inclined toward a slight cant.

TSGRA Favors Tax Amendment

The Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association favors the Texas Tax Relief Amendment. There is a simple, forthright statement if ever we made one.

The amendment comes up for a vote by the people November 7. It's not necessarily all that all of us might have wished, but it does a more than credible job of addressing several important points that have long needed addressing.

The amendment is a compromise measure, but it really couldn't have been anything else, considering the wide variations of interests represented within the State of Texas. It mandates some tax-related changes and allows for others at the discretion of the legislature.

Mandated changes that the amendment will provide include:

A homestead exemption from school taxes of $5,000 off the market value; notice to a homeowner of a re-evaluation of his property, including the actual effect of that re-evaluation; public notice by any local government of plans to increase total tax revenues, along with a public hearing on the proposals; a prohibition against centralized property tax appraisals; a requirement that all future enforcement of uniform tax appraisal standards be originated in the individual counties; a prohibition against increased state spending above the estimated growth of the state's economy.

Provisions that are allowed by the amendment but which will still require legislative action include:

Additional homestead exemptions for the elderly or disabled up to $10,000 and a prohibition against increasing taxes on such homesteads unless they change hands or are remodeled; an increase on household goods and personal effects' exemptions from the current $250 to an unlimited amount, as long as the property is not used to produce income or is otherwise exempt from forced sale for debt; valuation of agricultural and forest lands on productive, rather than speculative values.

The last provision has already been acted on by the legislature. The 1977 legislative session produced a bill calling for just such productive value taxation, but it cannot be put into force without a constitutional amendment such as the one we'll be voting on soon.

The tax relief amendment has been attacked by some as a "special interest" measure offering benefits for only a select few. It's hard to see much truth in that claim, because the "select few" include the elderly, the disabled, the rancher and farmer and the homeowner, just for starters.

Less obvious, perhaps, but just as valid, is the amendment's application to almost anyone else not fitting these categories.

Everyone pays property taxes, whether he or she be a homeowner or a renter. Members of the latter group may not see the tax statement, but they pay it with a portion of their monthly rent.

If that's not near enough to home, the amendment's limitations on state spending should be. It is spending that determines taxing, and the more is spent, the more will be taxes.

Some continue to argue that agriculture and timber producers are getting the big break, but in reality it's not a break at all -- it's simply an evening of the burden.

At one time, the term "property" was almost synonymous with real estate, and property taxation was accordingly based on the ownership of real estate.

The link between real estate and wealth has long since been broken, but the taxing philosophy is still the same. It's not secret that farmers and ranchers own the most land and because they do, they carry a grossly unfair share of the burden.

The "big break" given producers is their land will now be taxed according to what it can produce, not what some developer might be willing to pay to turn it into a jungle of condominiums, tennis courts or high priced shopping boutiques.

Rumensin Helps Feed Efficiency

Cattlemen now have available a product to help them to produce more beef per acre. Rumensin, an additive that improves feed efficiency 10 percent in feedlot cattle, has been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for use in range cattle.

"This means that Rumensin can now be fed to stocker, feeder and slaughter cattle weighing more than 400 pounds," points out Dr. Larry L. Boleman, beef cattle specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "The approval has immediate application to all cattlemen using pastures in any way with beef cattle."

According to the manufacturer, Elanco Products Co., a division of Eli Lilly and Co., the cost of Rumensin is only about a penny a day per animal, and research trials indicate a 16 percent faster rate of gain. Cattle on pasture fed 200 milligrams of Rumensin daily gained 0.2 pounds over those not receiving the additive.

Studies indicate the product is effective in both steers and heifers, in implanted or non-implanted cattle, notes Boleman.

"Rumensin may make continuous supplementation on poor quality pastures a more profitable practice, provided the feeding practice will insure a consistent intake of the material on a daily basis," says the specialist. "Mineral blocks, molasses-type blocks or other supplement mixes or carriers may be used to control consumption if they do so at a low cost. The type of carrier will be important in the overall economics of pasture supplementation since the high cost supplemental feed or feeding system can easily offset the weight gain advantage of the additive."

Ranchers should also be aware of a low intake or palatability problem of the additive that could occur for cattle grazing high quality forages such as winter pastures, reminds Boleman.

How does Rumensin work to improve weight gains in cattle? Monesin sodium, the active ingredient in Rumensin, shifts the ruminal fermentation patterns, explains Boleman. The propionic acid production is increased at the expense of acetic or butyric acid, and this alteration increases the efficiency of energy use for growth and fattening.

"Use of Rumensin could have a tremendous economic breakthrough in growing cattle on pasture, provided it can be used economically," contends Boleman. "The additive must be supplied in a low cost carrier and must be consumed by the animal for its use to be effective and profitable."

Producers should remember that although Rumensin is safe for cattle, it is quite toxic to horses, adds the specialist.

Shearing at the Texas A&M Experiment Station was an all day affair. The rams are being sheared as a part of the Annual Ram Test to determine fleece data. This year's test includes 307 rams already delivered, with medium wool breeds still to come on October 16-18.

ICA Drive Set for Friday In Georgetown

The Independent Cattlemen's Association of Texas will revive an old-time tradition Sept. 29-30 with its first annual statewide cattle drive and auction.

The event officially begins Friday, Sept. 29, when members from county chapters all over the state load donated animals for the auction into gooseneck trailers and head for Georgetown.

As each trailer reaches the Georgetown Livestock Commission, the animals will be placed in separate pens according to county where they will be judged, fed, watered and settled for the night.

The cattle drive will start with a dance, food and refreshments at the Georgetown Community Center. Food served will include sausage, hot tamales and soft drinks and music will be provided by Jodie J and the Silvertones.

Activity will pick up again on Saturday, Sept. 30, at 10 a.m. when the auction begins. For sale will be horses, bulls, heifers, calves and other livestock donated by people throughout the state.

The money raised will provide operating funds for ICA.

David Shurley is in charge of the local solicitations for the cattle drive and auction.

Ram Test Underway Shearing Finished

Shearing of the test rams finished up last week at the Texas A&M Experiment Station. This year's test is one of the largest ever with 307 rams on test at the station. This number includes only Rambouillet, Finewool or other breeds that wool data is desired for. Medium wool breeds are set for delivery to the experiment station October 16-18.

The field day to observe the results of the testing will be held on March 15, 1979.

The test will be on a self-sustaining basis with the cooperator paying the cost of feed, shearing, any medical expenses, and a proportionate charge for labor of feeding and cleaning of the pens.

Due to the manner in which the feed will be purchased, the experiment station will not be able to handle the financing. Fred Campbell will assume responsibility for handling the funds and purchasing the feeds.

An initial deposit of $100 per ram is required. Checks should be made payable to "Ram Text Account" (not to Experiment Station), and may be mailed to Fred Campbell, Mohair Council of America at P.O. Box 222, San Angelo, Texas 76902 or to the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in Sonora.

In the past the expenses have not amounted to the $100 deposit and any unused funds will be returned after the test is completed.

Additional information or entry forms may be obtained from Don Spiller in Sonora, or Campbell, Dr. Maurice Shelton or Dr. George Ahlschwede in San Angelo.

Wool and Mohair Report

The mohair market is considerably weaker, but hopefully has stabilized. The South African sale was off about 15 percent with some types off more and some (particularly kid) types off a little less. The South African Board decided to sell and they cleared 97-99 percent of the offering at the reduced prices.

No reported sales have been made in Texas the past couple of weeks, but it appears grown hair will be around $4.25 to possibly higher and kid should be in the $7.25 to $7.50 level for upcoming sales. Some strength could be shown in late October or November but many are still waiting to see the results of the next South African sale scheduled for the third of October. Mohair at the higher prices had been meeting with a good deal of buyer resistance so maybe the lower prices will bring the customers back and even strengthen the demand in the coming months and for the spring clip here in Texas.

The first fall wool sale was held in Ozona last Thursday and demand was strong and prices slightly above spring short wool levels. The top price was around 93c ranging to the low 80c's. We are planning a fall wool sale in a couple of weeks. Del Rio has scheduled sales for October 19 and 20.

John Hill sets record with service as Secretary of State, Attorney General

John Hill will be the first governor in the history of Texas who takes office with eight years of valuable experience in the executive branch of state government. His two years as Secretary of State and six years as Attorney General are unprecedented among Texas governors. This experience will give Texans a governor ready to take charge on the first day in office — a governor who knows how to bring efficient management to the job of the state's chief executive.

Colts Smother Big Lake

By Coach Charles Adams

The Sonora 7th grade Colts showed the Owls from Big Lake how hard a young Colt can kick by the score of 32-6.

The Red offense rolled up 460 yards while holding the visitors to a mere 60 yards.

The scoring started in the first quarter on a 17-yard run by quarterback Jeff Brittain.

The score was upped to 8-0 when Wendell Yarborough ran off tackle behind Rodney Jones and Ronnie Pollard for the two extra points.

All of this was made possible by Eugene Gonzales who ran 40 yards around right end to the Owl 17 yard line.

The Colts kicked off and proceeded to cover an Owl fumble on the return. The fumble was recovered by Adam Hernandez.

Behind the running of Terry Vickers, Tino Martinez and good blocking of the entire line the Colts marched down the field and scored on a 10 yard run over left tackle by Yarborough.

The extra points came on a pass from Brittain to Mike Polock, thus making it 16-0 with 5:30 left in the second quarter.

The Colts kicked off and immediately forced the Owls to punt which was returned 40 yards by Drew Wallace behind a wall of good blocks.

Once again the Colts drove to the goal with Brittain going the last 13 yards for the score.

Jay Thomas scored the extra points. This made the score 24-0 at halftime.

A check of the first downs showed the Colts with 12 and the Owls with none after the first half.

The second half saw the entire Colt bench on the field, but this did not slow things down very much.

The Colts got on the scoreboard one more time as quarterback Wallace scored from two yards out.

The extra points were scored by Martinez on a run over right tackle behind Hernandez, Jerry Jimenez and Houston Powers.

The touchdown was set up on runs of 35 and 45 by Martinez and Jimmy Vaughan respectively.

The Owls finally scored against the Colt second defense leaving the final score 32-6.

It was a much improved Colt team from the one a week ago at Ballinger. Overall it was a tremendous team effort.

The Colts will take the field again Thursday at 5:30 to play Kerrville here.

Broncos Outpunch Punchers

David Reyna [no number] and Chase Gus Ward [61] and Wesley Barton [72]. The Snodgrass sandwich a Puncher running back Broncos take on Reagan County here Friday before he can cross the line of scrimmage. night. The Owls have a 2-1 season record. Other players pictured are Jessie Vela [73],

With the memory of a 14-14 upset last year, the Sonora Broncos will host the Reagan County Owls here Friday night at 8 p.m.

The Broncos marched into Big Lake unscathed at this time last year, ranked number eight among the state's AA ballclubs.

As it turned out the Red Hosses barely escaped with their lives, and the tie with the Owls, a mediocre team at best, started the skid that saw Sonora win only one more game all year.

Despite only having five returning lettermen from last season's 1-8-1 squad, the Owls have a solid nucleus of juniors, and as former Sonora coach Tally Kelso, now at Big Lake said, "We're still about a year away."

The Owls come to Sonora with a 2-1 season record. They rolled over Ozona and McCamey before being thrashed by powerhouse Iraan last week.

Heading up the Owls offense is Mickey Tom Owen, while linebacker Mark Noland (6-0, 205) leads the defense.

Other key players are guard Simon Jacobo, wingback Johnny Mitchell and tackle Roy Childs (6-3, 220).

The Owls boast some good size, but are lacking in the speed department.

The Reagan County offense runs a wing T offense similar to Sonora's, while Bronco coach Jerry Hopkins says the defense does a lot of stunting which could provide some blocking problems.

The Broncos again were plagued with penalty problems last week, and the miscues cost the Red and White two, and possibly three, touchdowns.

The Broncos still managed a convincing 37-7 victory over an Abbott-less Mason team.

Star quarterback Danny Abbott was sidelined with an ankle injury, but whether his presence would have made a difference, no one knows.

Hopkins praised Wayne McLaughlin for his punting. It was the kicking game and a stout defense that kept the Punchers bottled up on their end of the field Friday night until the Bronco offense could get rolling in the third quarter.

Linebacker Dan Lawson set up the first score on an interception of a Scott Schmidt pass at the Mason 27-yard line.

Three plays later McLaughlin bulled over from his fullback position from three yards out.

Benny Granger's pass found David Reyna in the end zone for two extra points.

Reyna set up the second

Sporting Chance

By Don Holdridge

Somebody get me a bookie! If I had been a gambling man last week, I could have retired. I hit nearly all the upsets, including Eldorado over Ozona, Buffalo over Baltimore, Philadelphia over Miami and Green Bay over San Diego. A final tally shows 16 out of 20 for the week. On the year I'm 45 for 60, tabbing the winner 75 percent of the time. Sure as I find that bookie, I'll fall flat on my face. Anyway, here goes one more time.

Sonora vs Reagan County
The Bronco offense is going to have to cut down on penalties, but the defense and special teams should be enough. The Owls are still a little young. Sonora 24-7.

Eldorado vs McCamey
Personal prejudice and fear control my choice on this one. My old high school coach is at McCamey, and I can't very well pick against him—he'll make me run five extra laps. McCamey 13-7.

Tahoka vs Crane
I haven't pegged Crane right all year—until now. Tahoka is the classic irresistible force. Tahoka 28-14.

Fort Stockton vs Kermit
The jig is up for the Yellowjackets. Fort Stockton is too tough for most AAA units, much less Kermit. Fort Stockton 34-7.

Menard vs Ozona
Ozona finally gets a victory, maybe their only one all year. The "Menard Miracle" of last year is past history. Ozona 21-0.

East Central Oklahoma vs Angelo State
If anyone can beat the Rams this year, I haven't figured out who yet. Ram fever just keeps getting higher. Angelo State 42-17.

Arkansas vs Tulsa
Arkansas still hasn't looked that impressive, but they've got an opponent to make anyone look good. Arkansas 34-17.

Ohio State vs Baylor
Baylor loses another close one this week. If Baptists had a Purgatory, that's where the Bears would be this year—not quite there. Ohio State 24-17.

Florida State vs Houston
The Cougars finally exploded last week. They better hope they can keep it up. Houston 28-27.

Rice vs Louisiana State
Rice wouldn't have a winning record in a powerpuff league, and there's especially no way with the schedule they're facing. Louisiana State 48-17.

Texas Tech vs Texas
Red Raider fans had plenty to cheer about last week, but it won't last for long against the Longhorn defense. Texas 23-7.

Texas A&M vs Memphis State
These Tennessee hillbillies have been too up and down. This week they get to read the trademark on the heels of Curtis Dickey's shoes. A&M 34-14.

Penn State vs TCU
Heaven help the Horned Frogs. Nobody else is going to, that's for sure. Name your points.

North Texas State vs Oklahoma
The Sooners finally get a tough test this week, but they still pass with flying colors. Oklahoma 31-14.

Arizona State vs UT-El Paso
The Miners finally got a win last week. This time they get mud in their face ... if there is any mud in Tempe. Arizona State 42-10.

Maryland vs Cleveland
The Wildcats had enough trouble getting by Baylor. The going gets tougher this week. Maryland 21-17.

Houston vs Cleveland
Houston has to have this one to get back in the race. The Browns could be down after an overtime loss to Pittsburg. Houston 17-14.

Washington vs Dallas
The Cowboys aren't playing that sharp and injuries aren't helping any. The Redskins have just been too hot. Washington 24-20.

Green Bay vs Detroit
The Pack is back, while the Motor City bunch has been too busy looking at the new models or something. Green Bay 21-10.

Chicago vs Oakland
Oakland catches its second straight team coming off a Monday night game. The jinx holds up this time. Oakland 24-14.

touchdown when he tackled Punter John Watson on the five after a bad snap.

Granger went the distance two plays later, and Mike Jones' kick gave the Broncos a 15-0 halftime lead.

The Broncos busted loose from their penalty corral in the second half. Fleet halfback Eddie Favila took a pitchout on the Broncos first play of the half, picked up some good blocking, eluded one tackler and sprinted 65 yards to the goal line.

Granger ran the ball across for the extra point conversion.

Lawson set up another touchdown minutes later with his second interception.

It was Favila again scoring on the same play, this time from 13 yards out. Jones' PAT was true.

McLaughlin got the final Bronco score late in the third period with a six yard burst. Jones' boot was again good.

Key play in the drive was a 42 yard scramble by Joey Kirby, filling in at halfback for injured Manuel Lopez.

Reserves finished out the final period and finally gave up Mason's only touchdown with little over a minute left in the contest.

The scoring march was the only time all night the Punters had been able to cross the center stripe.

Besides McLaughlin's

punting, he named line-backer Gus Ward and end Mike Jones as having good games at their defensive positions.

Injury wise, the Broncos are in relatively good shape, except for Lopez and George Wipff.

Scott Cain suffered a knee injury in practice last week and had to lay out the Mason game. The swelling had not gone down, and it is doubtful if he will play this week.

Will Lone Star Gas still be saving your family money in 2028?

You can be sure we're planning to help your children's children control their energy costs exactly the way we're helping you—with economical gas service.

Economical? Absolutely, because even at current prices natural gas is providing an energy bargain in home heating, water heating, clothes drying and cooking.

The reason, of course, is that gas is a natural energy that you use in its original form. Gas flame provides heat with remarkable efficiency. And these big household jobs require heat.

Your direct use of gas in appliances actually conserves energy. But, even with the wisest use of gas, can you really expect our area's natural gas supplies to last until 2028? You can.

Some people believe we'll run out of gas in a few years.

We don't. Because we've been in the gas business for 69 years, and our experience convinces us enough gas will be available to last our service area for at least another 50 years.

In fact, the groundwork for your energy future has already been laid—Lone Star's 11,400-mile pipeline network. This gathering and transmission system:

- reaches into, or connects with, basins that are estimated to contain 50% of this nation's remaining onshore gas reserves.
- lets us take deliveries from offshore gas fields in the Gulf of Mexico, and areas where other companies have no pipelines.
- gives us a distinct advantage when it comes to buying gas at the best prices, but this is an advantage we'll lose in time.

The race is on.

Some areas of the country have delayed the development of their own resources for ecological reasons, but they learned the real value of adequate gas supplies during the winter of 1976-1977.

The race for long-term gas contracts is on, and it's happening in our own backyard. We can't afford to miss sound opportunities to buy new reserves in economical volumes.

The groundwork has been laid for us to buy our area's fair share of the new reserves. All we need to do is your understanding that we must recover the prices we actually pay for gas.

If you'll give us that, Lone Star will have no problem financing the energy that will save you money for decades to come.
