The benefit will be held August 24 beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Reagan County High School Auditorium.

There will be autographed items by the following: Roger Staubach, Nolan Ryan, Clyde Drexler, Sammy Baugh, Pierce Holt, John Elway, Craig Ludwig, David Hulse, Warren Moon, Mike Bielecki, Jody Conradt, George Gervin, Women's Olympic Basketball Team, 1996 2A State Champion Ozona Lady Lions, Cliff Gustafson, Bill Bates, Steve Young, Hank Aaron, Scottie Pippen, Troy Aikman, Doc Rivers, Brock Marion, David Robinson, Jr. Seau, and Dick Bosman.

For information or to place silent bids call Trey at (915) 884-2066 or Mara (915) 884-3237.

Kemp Assigned To Deputy Sheriff Position

Jerry Kemp

Jerry Kemp recently accepted the position of Deputy Sheriff for Sutton County. Kemp served as Sonora's Chief of Police from 1977 until 1980, when he retired. In August of 1974, Kemp assisted Sheriff Bill Webster in forming the Sonora Police Department.

Kemp's prior experience was serving on the Midland Police Department as a patrolman and detective from 1967-72 and on the Farmers Branch P.D. from 73-74.

He is married to Joy Kemp who is employed at First National Bank of Sonora.

SISD Holds Budget Hearing

The Sonora School Board held their budget meeting last Monday, August 5. Topics discussed during the meeting included the middle school math lab program and the Site Based Committee report regarding the course of action for improving the recent TEA findings.

The proposed school budget for the 96/97 year is $6,508,420.70 compared to last year's budget of $6,217,125.74.

Concerning the future of school funding Diana Condra stated, in 1995, 158 wells were drilled, in 96 to date, 108 wells have been drilled, and in the last two years, a 34% decrease in reserves has been experienced. This means commercial and industrial property values will decline as well as residential properties.

Because of the large number of questions concerning expenditures and future financing there will be another meeting concerning the school budget Thursday, August 15, at 6:00 p.m. at the middle school cafeteria.

Coach Dempsey gave a math lab presentation and the Site Based Committee report was tabled for further review.

The Covered Wagon Dinner Theater

Gary Karschner Hosts Last Dinner & Show Of 1996 Season

The final performance of the Covered Wagon Dinner Theater will be this Saturday night, August 10, featuring Gary Karschner, famous cowboy historian and poet. Tom Bob Wilson and Moe Salinas, West Texas country singers, will also perform bringing this year's dinner theatre to a close.

Gary Karschner is a most unusual speaker with a captivating and entertaining style. His humor and quick wit make his audiences listen and learn. When speaking to motivate or entertain, Gary brings a touch of homespun humor into the message. Gary has spoken to various groups throughout West Texas. His audiences have ranged from scouts to certified public accountants and service clubs. His messages always hit their marks.

Gary was born in Lubbock to a career air force officer. Gary has lived in seven states and three countries. For the past twenty years, he has made San Angelo his home. He speaks and writes English as a second language. He gave up on the first one. He attended Angelo State University, where he received his B.A. and his M.Ed. He married his former fiancé, has two children, a pick-up truck, a mortgage, and a dog. (All but the house and kids are paid for.)

As well as being an accomplished speaker, Gary is also a Cowboy Historian and Poet. He first became aware of cowboy poetry when he saw Baxter Black, a well-known cowboy poet, on the Tonight Show. Baxter's poetry and approach to life sparked Gary's interest in cowboy "stuff." Gary began reading cowboy history and poetry as a hobby. He learned his grandfather was a cowhand on the SIT Ranch in the Panhandle of Texas. Today, Gary writes and performs his own material. Gary immerses himself into each performance. He blends his original poems with true stories and history of the American "Cowhand."

Gary is a dynamic and motivational speaker. His delivery reflects his twelve years of award winning professional speaking. His keynote addresses move audiences to cry with laughter and heartfelt emotion. He has also performed at The Cowboy Symposium and Celebration in Lubbock, and he has chaired the cowboy poets' portion of the Christmas at Old Fort Concho in San Angelo since 1992. Gary's speaking accomplishments include District Winner in Toastmasters International Competitions, Outstanding President of a local Toastmasters club and twelve-year member of a top fifteen club in the world. He is a member of the National Speaker's Association.

Gary Karschner presents a wonderfully entertaining one-man show for audiences who want to learn about the real American West and the people who lived the legends.

Come out and enjoy yourself at the season finale of the CWDT! It's fun for the whole family.

County Fair Rule Books Available

Pick up Sutton Co. Days County Fair Rule books at the Chamber Office, Craft Cottage, The Devil's River News, Sutton County Leader, or the Sutton County Extension Office. For more information, contact Kelly Thorp at 387-3604.

COA BBQ Fundraiser

The Old Thyme Country Band will be playing for the Committee on Aging Barbecue Fundraiser at the Courthouse Lawn right after the Sutton County Days Parade. Bring lawn chairs and enjoy a plate of barbecue goat, brisket, and sausage, potato salad, beans, and peach cobbler.

Metco Supply of Junction donated a metal building to the Sutton County Days Association. It will be used as the secretary's office during the rodeo. Mack McMann, of Metco Supply (middle) stated that Metco wanted to give back to this community in appreciation for the business he has received from the people of Sonora and Sutton County. Mickey Powers (right) stated that the Sutton County Days Association and the secretary appreciate the building. Also pictured (left) is Mike Jacoby of Metco Supply.

Sutton County Days Parade

The Sutton County Days 1996 Rodeo Parade has been scheduled for Friday, August 23, 1996. The Parade will follow the same route that it has in past years and will again begin on Concho Avenue near the school. Starting time will be 5:00 p.m. and all participants are asked to line up by 4:30.

The Committee on Aging will host a Texas-style Bar-B-Que on the Courthouse lawn immediately following the parade with all proceeds going to the Sutton County Senior Center.

Entries have been received from local and out-of-town participants, and everyone is encouraged to return any forms that are completed. If you or your organization needs an entry blank, please contact the Chamber of Commerce at 387-2880.

Breakaway Roping Cowgirls

Sonora Outlaw Pro Rodeo (Aug. 23-24) and Dale Gas Pro Rodeo (Aug. 31 & Sept. 1) will be having a PWRA approved Girls' Breakaway Roping. Due to rule changes in the PRCA, we will not be allowed to take local entries in any event except the Breakaway Roping. The rule for a local contestant is anyone who is not a PWRA member can enter as a local, regardless as to where you live. You do have to be 14 years old or older to compete. To enter Sonora, the books will be Aug. 12th from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Rodeo Wild 915-387-6577. To enter Del Rio, the books will be Aug. 19th from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Bad Company 210-775-7459.

A couple of good reasons for entering the Girls' Breakaway Roping is that there will be added prize money at both rodeos and also a Championship Saddle to be given at both rodeos. Our many, many thanks go to Mr. Rick Wright of Big Country Saddlery in Del Rio for his generosity in making and donating the saddles to be given to the Champion Breakaway Roper of the Sonora Outlaw Pro Rodeo and also the Champion Breakaway Roper of the Dale Gas Pro Rodeo. All you cowgirls, enter up.

Ask The Historical Society

by Jo-Ann E. Palmer, Secretary, Sutton County Historical Society

Before I start into the ladie's fads and phases through the years, I would like to address several gentlemen who have called me this week. They stated quite emphatically that people in Sutton Co. did not wear Beatle haircuts, etc. Gentlemen, one picture is worth a thousand words, and I have on file in the old papers many, many photos of young men in Sutton Co. wearing Beatles inspired haircuts. Maybe you didn't wear one, but quite a few did. Out of respect for fathers that are having a terrible time convincing their sons not to shave their heads, etc. I will not print their names in this column. I would suggest you go look through old school year books, and you will find for yourself who wore what.

Now, for the ladies. A group of you called this week and said, "Don't you dare tell them what we wore." Ladies, you got a big chuckle over the gentlemen squirming while reading last week, and they demand equal rights. So here goes!

Women according to the Bible wore nothing at first, i.e. Eve. Then there were robes, togas, and many different furs. Some wore cloth woven from plants and some less than others. In certain parts of the country, they were clothed from head to toe and in others, almost naked.

Time marches on, and we find women in layers and layers of clothing. Undergarments, tunics, overskirts, slippers indoors, with wooden clogs over them outside or boots. Hairstyles went up and down and so did hem lines. French women at one time had huge hair pieces, some towering six feet into the air, with intricate sculptures in them. One woman had a bird cage in her tresses. Of course, they couldn't balance these on their heads, so they had servants with long poles walk along with them holding their creations in place. Their skirts had panniers, a framework of whale bone and wire, board, etc., used to extend or puff out at the hips. Some of these were three feet long and made a lady's skirt six feet wide. Madame had to turn sideways to get through a doorway.

Empress Josephine brought into style dresses that draped below the breast to the ankle in soft folds and hairstyles that were pulled up on top of the head and allowed to flow down in graceful waterfalls of curls.

I almost forgot the hats. Hats at one time were huge. They were loaded with all kinds of concoctions. Some were loaded down with flowers and ribbons, some had huge ties to hold them on, and some had full-size stuffed birds on them, nests, eggs, and all. Hats went in and out and up and down with style changes and still do. Some looked like the prow of a ship with ribbons flowing off them so that milady looked like a ship underway as she made her way around town. They were a sight to behold. Now we must not forget the cloche, a bell-shaped, close fitting hat or the skimmers and sailor hats. Jackie Kennedy brought the pillbox back into the fashion forefront. Then there were those hats made from nets with feathers or flower petals on them. They were great on bad hair days, but when I look back at old pictures I look like I swallowed a whole chicken, and it made me sprout feathers instead of hair. Cowgirl hats started as a plain hat like the men and gradually were individualized by women. I've seen them in every color of the rainbow, a few that aren't in it, and with all types of decorations.

Clothes: Southern ladies before the Civil War wore skirts made from yards and yards of material held up by huge hoops and under them ankle length, heavily ruffled underwear. They had corsets to make their waists, hopefully 16" to 18". No wonder they passed out all the time and couldn't ever eat a bite. You couldn't fit any air or food in with your diaphragm forced up into lung space. And riding costumes made of yards and yards of velvet, so that milady could ride side saddle and not display any ankle. It's a wonder the feathered confections they wore on their heads didn't make their horses stampede when they saw them coming.

I almost forgot the Elizabethan age. How would you like to wear those huge starched collars around your neck? All those ruffles and layers. Of course, a few of us as we get older and obtain neck wrinkles, sagging chins, etc. might appreciate a comeback of that little style.

After the war, Queen Victoria made the fashion world moderate their creations. During the Victorian Era, a lady was dressed properly, wore her gloves and hat, and comported herself primly at all times. No ankles were flashing and the bust lines that had plunged with Josephine in France were raised to sedate collars.

At the turn of the century, skirts started to get narrower and raise up just a little so the ankle could be seen, but oh, those huge leghorn hats and long hat pins. You didn't need to learn Karate to protect yourself. One jab with a hat pin would quickly cool off any overly impetuous gentleman. Then skirts got so narrow you could hardly walk. Between the high button shoes, high heels, and the little slits in the skirt, you had to carry a parasol to keep from falling on your face.

After World War I, in came the roaring twenties and cloche hats, berets, bobbed hair, frizzed hair, and flapper skirts with rolled stockings and garters. Big chunky heels were popular then too. Speakeasies and the Charleston were in and long, long necklaces.

Then came the thirties and clothes became fuller and a lot of cotton was used. Sweet little house dresses were introduced and linen dresses. Big clunky tie shoes for work and dress heels were worn. Hair got longer and simpler except for the permanent wave craze. Some women still had short frizzy hair, and some had long hair curled under or pulled up into French twists. But dresses came just below the knees, and most coats were cut full and flowing. Hats were a lot smaller and used net for decoration.

Then came World War II, and women went to work in the factory. Hem lines went up, and women started to do something that some considered scandalous. They wore pants, just like men, to go to work, golf, and for leisure. This was considered by many as very improper behavior. Men wore the pants, not women. But women said if they had to do a man's work, they had to dress for it. And those tight fitting sweaters.

I almost forgot bathing costumes. They had no caps and full length blousy tops and bloomer type ankle length skirts, worn with hose, of course, and bathing slippers. These changed to tank top type suits with knee length bottoms, either skirts or pants. Next came the bathing suits and the bathing beauties or calendar girls. Many a World War II plane had a bathing beauty painted on her. These were one piece tank tops cut a little lower, waist level in the back, and straight across the thigh. The suits have gotten lower and higher in cut, and we mustn't forget the itzy, bitsy bikini and thong suits.

Remember the fifties and sixties and seventies. Now some mothers and grandmothers are starting to squirm. Pony tails, full skirts with layer after layer of petticoats underneath them and a poodle or Scottie dog applique on the front. And the sweaters with fur collars, preferably in colors to match your dog, on the skirt. Angora was in. I nearly itched to death. My dear Mother got me a pink sweater with an Angora collar on it, and I wore it to school with my pink quilted skirt with the white poodle on it. By the end of the school day, my neck looked like raw meat, and we definitely knew that I was allergic to Angora. But I had plenty of little shirts with Peter Pan collars to wear instead, even one with a little poodle embroidered on the pocket.

Just about the time you finally accumulated enough petticoats to make that skirt stick out just right and hide all the bells you tied on for Christmas and drove your teachers crazy with, along came tight skirts and little matching color jackets. And the skirts got shorter and shorter, from mini to micro-mini. We had bell bottom trousers, hip huggers, pedal pushers and all kinds of pants. A young lady was not allowed to wear pants to school where I lived, only dresses or skirts, and boys could only wear dress pants; no blue jeans until I was in about the 9th grade. No, I'm not going to tell you what year that was!

Anyway Nancy Sinatra came out with a song about boots and out came the boots. Knee length, patent leather creations in all colors, worn with mini or micro-mini skirts or hot pants. I mustn't forget the Hippies, Moonies, and the leather outfits. Anyone that saw

Marlon Brando on that motorcycle just had to run out and get a leather outfit. And James Dean with his hair and pegged pants, cool man. Even the girls wore leather outfits and leather skirts. After that a denim rage came in and everyone wanted to look "Western." Boots became popular. Oh remember Jackie Kennedy had that sacque dress that everyone went out and got one like. No waist, cute little round collar, big pin right in the middle of your chest or a long set of pearls and, of course, the pillbox hat to top it off. Hair length went up and down and became every color of the rainbow. So did little Volkswagens and vans, flower power was in. We had the psychedelic age and the paisley age, etc. People expressed themselves through their fashions. but we pierced our ears, and only once, not our noses, belly buttons, and lips.

So see, Moms and Dads out there, fads and phases come and go and these too shall pass. Just be patient and hang in there. They will only be young for a short time, stay cool!

SENIOR CENTER NEWS

by Juanita Mesa

Come by the Senior Center on Monday, August 12th, to visit with Victor Morales. He will be here from 11:45-12:15 to visit and answer any questions. Mark this date on your calendar--don't forget!

The Old Thyme Country Band will be playing for our Barbecue Fundraiser at the Courthouse Lawn right after the Sutton County Days Parade. Bring your lawn chairs and enjoy a plate of barbecue goat, brisket, and sausage, potato salad, beans, and peach cobbler. Enjoy this group's music, because they're really entertaining. Everyone's welcome!

Tickets will be available on August 5th from all the members of the Committee on Aging and at the Senior Center. Buy your tickets early for a $5.00 donation.

If you want to help by cooking, serving, selling tickets, setting up, or cleaning up, please contact the staff at the Senior Center at 387-5657 or 387-3941. If you would like to donate goats, briskets, or cash to offset the costs of the barbecue, please contact the Senior Center.

I have asked many seniors and have received many emotional and thoughtful responses to the following question: What does the Senior Center mean to you?

"The Senior Center is a second home to me."

"I come here to meet old and new friends."

"The Senior Center gives me the opportunity to maintain my physical fitness level."

"It enables me to learn new skills in areas of ceramics, crafts."

"It always provides me a hot, nutritious lunch at a reasonable cost."

"At the Center, I can play dominoes, bingo, pool, cards, listen and dance to a live band."

"I can sing or help out with programs."

"I can take day trips as well as overnight trips."

"The Senior Center has a special event every month."

As you can see, the Senior Center offers something for everyone. Most of all, the Senior Center is a home away from home. Friendship, socialization, and companionship can always be with you. If you have never been to the Center, or if it has been a long time since you have visited, let me invite you to drop by and experience a "second home." We think you will like it.

If we missed you on this month's birthday list, please contact us so we can "update." You are invited to the Birthday/Watermelon Party on August 16 as an honored guest!!!

We have a new 31" color television. Thanks to a "secret" citizen for his donation and the Committee on Aging. Come and join us every Wednesday for a video. Thanks to Pat and Butch Campbell for the "free video."

We at the Center would like to say "Thanks" to all our super Sonorans who support our Senior Center projects, our volunteers who help at the Center, and to those who deliver meals to our homebound seniors.

The Cornerstone Health Program will do blood sugar counts every other Tuesday starting on August 6 from 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. The Committee on Aging will meet on Tuesday, August 13, at 5:30 p.m. All interested persons are invited to attend. Every Tuesday is bingo. Nutrition education will be on August 27 with Kooking with Kelly! The Senior Center will be closed Monday, September 2, for the Labor Day Holiday! We will have frozen meals for those who sign-in so let one of the staff know if you want a holiday frozen meal.

I will be gone from August 20-23. I will be in El Paso for the Minority Conference on Aging--"Strength in Unity." I'll miss Sutton County Days again but the staff and Committee on Aging will take care of things as always.

Senator Madla Visits Sonora

State Sen. Frank Madla visited Sonora Wednesday, July 31. The Senator has the largest district in the U.S. covering approximately 550,000 square miles.

His primary concerns as a legislator are education, public health and the environment, mental health and mental retardation, and alcoholism and drug abuse.

Sen. Madla can be reached at 1-800-459-0119 or by writing to 1313 SE Military Dr. Suite 101, San Antonio, 78214.

Valliant Effort

by Martha Valliant McLain

Weather, weather, and more weather! It always seems to be the same. Hot! Dry! Undaunted citizens of Sutton county are depressed by the terrible weather, but Saturday night they made merry in spite of the weather. In fact, weather was the theme of the summer Tarantella Dance. The group whooped it up, but didn't manage to scare up any clouds or moisture.

Last week also was a surprise celebration of Diana Condra's birthday. It was a great party as it should be. Happy Birthday, Diana. San Antonio was full of Sonora citizens participating in the Texas Folklife Festival. The Folklife Festival was celebrating its Silver anniversary. It began 25 years ago and has grown yearly. It celebrates all nationalities, cultures and crafts of Texans. Claudia Ball (Hudspeth family) of Juno is one of the powers behind the event. This year, the Texas Army camped near the School House, one of the permanent buildings on the grounds of the Texas Institute of American Culture. All of the craftsmen who are participating in the Texas Army had their booths with the Army camp. Attending from Sonora were Betty and Col. Jim Stephen. Jim is a gun smith and had many hand made weapons on display. Also in camp were Linda and Col. Preston Love and Marti and Col. Dean McLain. It was great to be there. Dean did the entire evening in his wheel chair, but he was able to go.

Story teller, Biscuits O'Bryan, Sonora's Monte Jones, was hard at work entertaining people with his wild west stories. Many visitors stopped by to say hello. Sue Greenhill, formerly of Sonora, stopped by her booth. Preston Love, III and his family were there for a visit. That meant that we had Preston, II, III, & IV with us. The children always love to attend the festival.

Linda Love had been shopping for a while, and arrived later than Preston. She remembered that Preston was wearing a red shirt. She walked up behind a man who was seated and wearing a red shirt. She leaned over to kiss him on the cheek. He turned his head to look at her, and she realized that she was about to kiss a total stranger. She apologized and was very embarrassed. The stranger was Tom Rideout, a colonel in the Texas Army from Kerrville. As we were leaving for the night, Tom was asking Preston what color shirt he planned to wear for the final day.

This year around 70,000 people attended the activities. The food booths feature food from around the world, but all of it has become a part of Texas culture.

I am packing my all weather coat, and we are headed to San Francisco to attend the ordination of our daughter, Melinda. I hope that San Francisco does not have a heat wave while we are there. Wouldn't that be terrible? We are delighted that the doctors have cleared Dean for the trip if he will stay in his wheel chair and walk very little.

Our sympathies are with Benny King and his family. They recently lost Benny's mother, Vida Kates King of Clyde, Texas. She was a lovely lady, well into her 90's and sharp and alert to the end.

Our Tavia, my niece, Tavia Lee Valliant will be leaving mid-August for Beaumont. She has been accepted at the Texas Academy of Arts and Humanities. She will be on the college campus, taking college level courses. At 16, this is a bit scary to all of us and very exciting to Tavia. She was asked to apply based on test scores. Instead of doing her junior and senior years in Sonora High School, she will take college courses. After two years, she will have her high school diploma and be a junior in college. It is a wonderful opportunity, but very hard on Tom E. and Brenda. I know that she will do well.

Next week, I will write this column in the shadow of the Golden Gate Bridge. Pray for rain in Sonora and no earthquakes in California.

Ownership Governs Water Rights

Contrary to what many Texans believe, just because water is located on their property does not give landowners the automatic right to use it, warns an attorney with the Real Estate Center at Texas A&M University. "Water is either publicly or privately owned," says Judon Fambrough, "and the right to use water is granted or denied by the law. Deciding who can use water and under what circumstances stems from ownership. Land values and even home refinancing can pivot on the right to use water."

The first step in determining the right to use water is governed by both statutory and case law," says Fambrough. "The right to use privately-owned water is basically unrestricted as long as the owner does not waste it or withdraw it negligently."

The right to public water depends on three factors--the year the land surrounding the stream or lake was transferred to private ownership, whether a permit has been issued and the type of use being considered. Unauthorized use of state water can result in fines, jail sentences, and civil penalties.

Privately-owned Texas water is determined by location. The three types of privately-owned water includes: diffused surface water, percolating groundwater, and water from springs and artesian wells.

"Water is rapidly becoming a scarce natural resource in Texas," Fambrough says. "Although Texas is attempting to implement a state-wide plan for water use, the water supply dwindles in the face of an ever-increasing demand. Consequently, the right to use water, and not necessarily its abundance in a region, will have a strong impact on future land values."

For more information on water rights, Texas residents send $2 (out-of-state residents send $2.50) and request "Use Not Automatic: Ownership Governs Water Rights," publication No. 715, from the Real Estate Center, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843-2115. Hunter Education Course

Twenty-two young men recently completed the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's Hunter Education Course during a four day camp held at the 4M Hunting Facilities. This event was held July 15-18 and was sponsored by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, the McPherson 4M Ranch, Meridian Oil and the Canyon Ranch. Rodney Knight, Sutton County Game Warden, was assisted by fellow game wardens Mike Porter, Joe Guidry, J.C. Flores, Freddie Cervantes, Don Jackson, Alan Masloff, and Gary Dick. Local participants included Ed Mayfield, Ryan Hardgrave, Christopher Green, Shawn Odom, Jerrad Soles, Thomas Bloodworth, Sloan Holley, and Beau Hughes. Other participants included Justin Trimble of Junction, Luke Hyatt of Roosevelt, Taylor Brown of Yorktown, Josh Friesenhahn and Adam Sheffield of LaVernia, Aaron Allen of Midland, Steven Strahan of Corpus Christi, Sterling Neblett of Connecticut, Kyle Couch of Sanderson, Michael Van Zandt and Robert Masick of Lorena, T.J. and Larry Jackson of China Springs, and Dustin Williams of Iowa Park. T.J. Jackson won a knife, and Dustin Williams won a whistle. The McPhersons provide use of their facilities each year for the youth education camps. Carol prepared all meals for the guys while they were staying at the facilities. Special appreciation is extended to the Wardens-Rodney Knight, Mike Porter, Joe Guidry, J.C. Flores, Freddie Cervantes, Don Jackson, Alan Masloff, and Gary Dick. Also, a special thanks to Jim Stephen, Jim Ross, Mary Humphreys, Brent Gesch, and Tim Talley.

Disaster Reserve Assistance Program

submitted
The USDA has implemented the Disaster Reserve Assistance Program (DRAP) as a result of the continued drought in Texas and the Southwest. Sutton County was declared eligible for this program which pays 30% cost-share on eligible livestock feed through the sale of grain reserves held by the USDA. This program is a substitute for the Emergency Feed Program (EFP), so only those producers that are not enrolled in the EFP can apply. Applications filed with the Sutton County FSA Office by August 9, 1996 became retroactive back to March 1, 1996. If you are not enrolled in the Emergency Feed Program and have livestock for which you have purchased feed since March 1st, please come in to the Sutton County FSA Office for program details and to enroll in the program.

Grazing Loss Payments On Small Grains

submitted
The Non-Insured Assistance Program (NAP) has benefits for drought affected crops when the crop was not insurable. In Sutton County, producers normally graze their wheat. Due to the drought producers, who lost grazing anytime from November through May, might be eligible for grazing loss payments. The consideration will be based on dates planted, producer's loss assessments, and documentation of supplemental feeds used during this feeding period. If you planted wheat last fall for grazing purposes and it failed, please come by the Sutton County FSA Office to certify your wheat acreages and file a Disaster Application. All NAP applications for small grains must be filed by August 15, 1996.
