Duce's Son Airman In Spain War

Mussolini Sends Arms and Men to The Insurgents

ROME, Oct. 5. (AP) — Fascist aviation circles disclosed today Bruno Mussolini, 20, son of Premier Mussolini, accompanied by the flower of Italy's bombardment aviation, is in active service as a pilot in the insurgent armies in Spain.

Twenty-three of Italy's best bombers are believed to have made the first raid on Valencia, Spanish government capital.

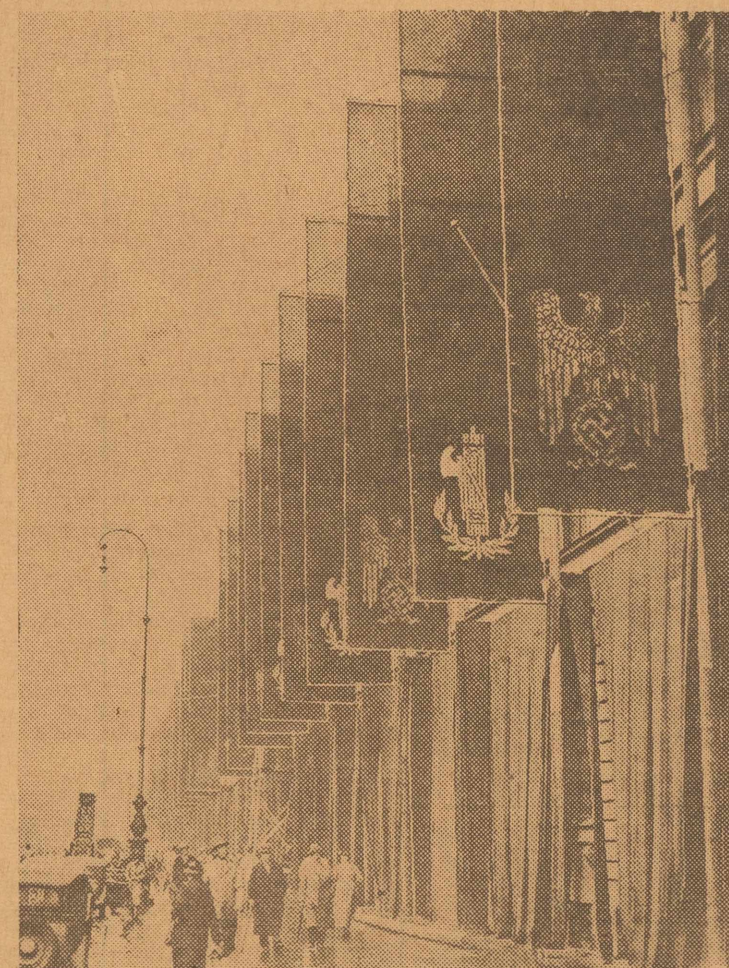

Diplomats believe the developments mean either:

(1) Mussolini is determined to make an effort to settle the war in favor of the insurgents before winter; or (2) He has sent more men in order to be in better bargaining position with England and France if he finds it expedient to negotiate the withdrawal of volunteers.

London diplomats saw the development as a grave new factor in the problem of European peace.

The situation was already intensified when British bombs were believed to have sunk a pirate submarine off Spain in vengeance for a torpedo attack on a British destroyer.

How Munich Protected Duce

Taking no chances that an attempt might be made to assassinate Premier Benito Mussolini on arrival in Germany, Nazi officials ordered "no open windows" along his route through Munich. This view of the decorated Ludwigsstrasse shows not only the Nazi and Fascist decorations but also the curtains hung to shut off windows.

Rotary Group Leaves On Tour Wed.

22 Men in Party on Good Will Trip to Big Bend Country

Rotary excursionists, Big-Bend-bound, will meet at the bus station Wednesday morning in time to leave at 7 o'clock, trip Grand Marshal Addison Wadley announced today.

The big 33-passenger Greyhound bus, comfortably ballasted with only 22 men, will take off promptly in order to meet its full two-day schedule.

Stopping only briefly at Odessa to pick up Lester L. Grant, Rotarian who lives at the McElroy Ranch near Crane, the party will proceed by way of Monahans and Fort Stockton to Marathon for lunch. A group of Alpine Rotarians, headed by Dr. H. W. Morelock, president of Sul Ross State Teachers' College and chairman of the Big Bend park campaign, will join the Midland delegation there and go directly into the Big Bend country south of Marathon and Alpine.

Night stop will be at the CCC camp in the park area where supper and breakfast, as well as the night's lodging, will be complimentary to the visitors. Thursday morning and a part of the afternoon will be devoted to various tours in the Big Bend park site, visiting the spectacular rim-rock where one may look for hundreds of miles across the Rio Grande and into Old Mexico.

Thursday afternoon, the group will move north to Alpine for a 6 o'clock banquet with the Alpine Rotary club. The program will be presented by the Midland organization with Fred Wemple presiding, at invitation of the Alpine club officers. The group will arrive home around midnight Thursday.

Those planning to make the trip were warned to take extra precautions as evenings and mornings are cool in the Chisos mountains. Field glasses and Kodaks also were recommended.

Regular meeting of the Rotary club will be held here at noon Thursday, with announcement of the program to be made in tomorrow's paper.

Getting The 'Swing' of Hollywood

Dim lights, languorous music, a bewitching young beauty whirling across the floor with him—what more could a young man ask to celebrate his 21st birthday? It is Vittorio Mussolini, son of Italy's dictator, who marks his coming of age, at a party in his honor in Hollywood. His alluring, dreamy-eyed partner is Margaret Roach daughter of Hal Roach, his host.

Concerted Peace Move Requested

Determined to Keep U. S. Out of War, Tells Chicagoans

CHICAGO, Oct. 5. (AP) — President Roosevelt bitterly arraigned aggressor nations before the bar of world opinion today, and called upon peace loving countries to join in a "concerted effort" to restore international tranquility.

Withholding any definite proposals for international conferences or invocation of peace pacts, the President asserted in dedicating a bridge here:

"There must be positive endeavors to preserve peace; America is determined to stay out of war and will not remain aloof from these efforts."

He mentioned no nation, but in scoring "these violations of treaties," it was clear he referred to the Sino-Japanese conflict, Mediterranean submarine attacks and outside interference in the Spanish civil war.

British Aim Bombs At Pirate Sub as Warship Attacked

LONDON, Oct. 5. (U.P.) — British warships and seaplanes dropped depth bombs off the Spanish east coast late Monday in an effort to destroy a submarine that fired a torpedo at the British destroyer Basilisk, which was engaged in the Mediterranean anti-piracy control.

The Basilisk, a 1,360-ton vessel of the beagle class, was attacked without warning off Cape San Antonio, midway between Valencia and Alicante.

The torpedo missed its mark and the Basilisk answered the attack with depth charges, which were ready for use on its deck.

The small force of British warships which went to the Basilisk's aid was reported to have dropped a series of depth bombs close to the Spanish shore, indicating the submarines might have been sighted.

The admiralty in London, confirming the attack, was unable to say whether the submarine had been damaged or destroyed.

The attempted torpedoing of the British destroyer was the first pirate attack since nearly 100 British and French warships and reconnaissance planes went into the Mediterranean three weeks ago to prevent interference with merchant shipping.

The anti-piracy patrol was ordered by nine nations in a conference at Nyon, Switzerland, and only last week the Italian navy joined the scheme. The Nyon accord, however, does not take into consideration any attacks on warships, which are left to defend themselves.

The admiralty described the incident as one of the risks inherent in the patrol.

SALAMANCA, Spain, Oct. 5. (AP) — Harold Dahl, American flyer for the Spanish government who was shot down by insurgents, was court martialed today. The court is to forward judgment, which is being withheld until Thursday, to Generalissimo Franco for approval or clemency.

Franco has promised Dahl's wife that he would gain the prisoner's freedom by trading him for an insurgent captive.

Man and Woman Are Taken at Sonora After Car Wreck

SONORA, Oct. 5. (AP) — Sutton county officials Monday night captured a man and a woman after a sedan had wrecker and burned on a highway 15 miles west of here.

Sheriff B. W. Hutchinson said the man, who gave his name as Bill Garrett, said he was an escapee from jail at Dallas. He said the woman refused to give her name.

The sheriff said he was still investigating the burning wreck when a motorist drove up and reported the couple had attempted a holdup.

Hutchinson said the man was armed with a rifle and the woman with a scuffie before the two were subdued.

The man was in jail here, and the woman was carried to the hospital in San Angelo.

Officers said the sedan bore an Eastland county license (326745). They said a sawed off shotgun, rifle, and dynamite fuses were found in the machine.

American Marines Are Sprayed By Shrapnel

SHANGHAI, Oct. 5. (AP) — Shrapnel sprayed American marines today when Japanese bombed mills across the boundary from the International Settlement. The marines evacuated Chinese and Japanese fought fiercely in the Shanghai area. Machine guns mowed attacking Japanese troopers down like ten pins. Positions remained unchanged.

Japanese claimed to have destroyed the Chinese air force.

In Geneva, the drafting committee of the League of Nations advisory group agreed signatories of the nine-power treaty, including the United States, should be invited to meet to examine the far eastern situation.

It was understood the league agreed to China's demand for other action besides involving the treaty, which guarantees China's integrity.

A Japanese army spokesman predicted by Oct. 10, the Chinese national holiday, "the Chinese will not have much to celebrate." The Chinese front at Shanghai, he said, "is like an open fan, with Chinese withdrawing in the same way that a fan closes, thus shortening the front."

The north station area of Shanghai was the scene of a sharp skirmish early in the day. Japanese sought to drive Chinese from Range road but were beaten back.

At Nanking, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and other members of the Chinese defense council expressed concern over continued Japanese advances in northern provinces of Shantung, Shansi and Hopeh.

Sleeping Sickness Spreads Among Stock In Midland County

Spread of the epidemic of sleeping sickness among horses and mules of this area was reported today, as Dr. Wallace E. Brown, local veterinarian, estimated that there are approximately fifty cases in the vicinity of Midland and Stanton. Heavier infestation has been reported in the Big Spring area.

One mare died at a farm three miles south of Midland Saturday night, three hours after the case was detected.

Treatment recommended is to vaccinate with normal horse serum, which thus far has held good for from ten to fifteen days, later administering the encephalomyelitis vaccine which requires about thirty days to immunize the animal. A supply of the vaccine is on hand and a limited supply of the normal horse serum is available, as announced today. Several ranchers and farmers are having their entire horse and mule herds treated with the serum.

One registered thoroughbred mare became affected early this week, at a pasture north of Stanton. She is owned by a Midland man. Several cases were reported in the vicinity of Cloverdale this morning.

Ohio Averitt Is Being Swabbed at 5073 Feet

Ohio Oil Company No. 1 Averitt, bridged after shot, and cleaning out west edge well on the Seminole structure of Gaines, was unintentionally drilled 18 feet deeper while drilling up packer rubbers, a steel-line measurement revealed. Total depth is now 5,073 feet, and crew is swabbing casing 2,500 feet from the top. Two-hundred and fifty barrels of drilling fluid have been swabbed out. There had been 750 barrels pumped into formation while the well was circulating. While bottomed at 5,055 feet, No. 1 Averitt was treated with 5,000 gallons of acid, flowing 4,000,000 cubic feet of gas through 1-inch choke after the treatment. Some sources stated it had flowed a barrel and a quarter of oil hourly after the acid, whereas another source usually more reliable, said that two barrels of basic sediment and water per hour, with no free oil, had appeared by heads after acid. The Ohio test is located 660 feet from the north, 1,980 feet from the east line of section 228, block G, W. T. R. R. survey.

Ector Test Falls.

Fuhrman Petroleum Corporation & Colton Brothers No. 1 E. F. Cowden, Ector wildcat between the Harper and Addis pools, is plugging to abandon after encountering a hole full of water at 4,430 the total depth. It had been carrying about a half-bailer of water hourly from 4,305-10. Several shows of oil were logged, none of any importance. Location is 330 feet from the north and east lines of section 41, block 43, township 2 south, T. & P. survey.

Blackstock Oil Company (formerly Mabree & Blackstock) No. 1 E. F. Cowden, short northwest extension of the Harper pool proper, flowed 77,22 barrels on 24-hour potential test, bottomed at 4,325 feet in lime. It topped pay at 4,145 and was treated with 3,000, then 6,000 gallons of acid. Natural production amounted to 150 barrels in 20 hours.

Rogers and Rogers No. 1-B TXL, west extension test to the Goldsmith pool, was last reported coring ahead below 4,203 feet in lime. Slight stains of oil had appeared in cores from 4,185-93, but porosity was lacking.

Southwest of the pool, Shanda Oil Company No. 1 Katherine Shanda is drilling unchanged at 4,512 feet in lime. It tested 14 barrels of sulphur water in eight hours while bottomed at 4,470.

Mid-Continent No. 1 Hinkle, mile-south extension to the Foster pool of Ector, is cleaning out 18 feet off bottom with 2,500 feet of oil in the hole. When swabbed down to bottom of pipe it showed recovery of 146 barrels of oil. It filled back up 2,200 feet in 16 hours.

Walker Well Shot.

Texas No. 1 Walker, southwest Yoakum well three miles west of the Denver area, shot the lower pay at 10 o'clock last night with 180 quarts from 5,100 to 5,162, the plugged-back total depth. Shot was tamped with 25 feet of gravel. Hole

Inspectors from West Texas Protective Cattlemen's associations met at Kermit Monday afternoon, exchanging information and forming contacts to coordinate their efforts to keep down thefts of cattle and sheep and to regulate methods of shipping and sales.

Aldredge Estes of the Midland-Ector-Andrews organization attended, as did Inspectors Bob Coffey of the Pecos Valley, Summerall of Fort Stockton and Shannon of the New Mexico Sanitary commission.

Arrangements were made for closer working together of the inspectors. Ranger Frank Mills, former sheriff of Coleman county, is in this territory and it was announced that he would give his services to the inspectors at any time. Further meetings will be held at intervals, upon call of any of the inspectors, it was announced.

Interest Continues At Revival Meeting At Baptist Church

Continued interest was shown Monday night and this morning in the Baptist revival meeting at which Dr. L. R. Scarborough, president of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, is preaching this week.

Dr. Scarborough's sermons are logical, direct and inspirational, based on many years of soul winning and preaching to citizens of many lands. His audiences have been held in close attention during his powerful, although brief, sermons at each service.

Quartet singing, by the Seminary foursome composed of Bailey Forester, Buford Forester, Somers Barnett and Chase Murph, the last being the local Baptist choir director, has been a high spot at each session.

The revival meeting continues morning and night all this week, with services at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., with Sunday the final day.

Church officials said today that Dr. Scarborough left his Seminary work at the busiest time of the year and spared this week at great sacrifice. Consequently it was urged that every seat in the auditorium be filled to take advantage of the appearance here of the world traveled evangelist.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. — The question whether a popular referendum shall be required to take this country into war will almost certainly be a major issue on the floors of Congress within the next few months.

Last May, as reported in these dispatches, Congressman Louis Ludlow of Indiana had gathered 100 signatures for a petition to discharge from the House Judiciary Committee his resolution which would require that the people vote on any proposed declaration of war. Today he has 185 such signatures. This means that the proposed amendment, assuming Ludlow is correct in his assurance that he has enough additional signatures in sight to make up the necessary 218, will come before the House by February or March.

Subsequent processes of adding it to the Constitution would include passage by two-thirds vote in Senate and House and ratification by three-fourths of the states.

Heavy drive will be placed behind the proposal. A national committee of veteran, church, farmer, labor, war mother and other leaders is being formed to lend weight. Proponents think they can mow down opposition by insisting that America must be asked to "save the world for democracy" again without some democratic process for deciding whether the American section of democracy is interested.

Ludlow's amendment wouldn't apply in case the United States or its territory were invaded and any of its citizens killed. But otherwise, in case of threatened trouble, no war could be declared unless a majority of citizens voted aye on the question: "Shall the United States declare war on—?"

WPA Lists Increasing.
WPA rolls have hit bottom for the current year and are now expected to increase from month to month.

Number of persons employed shrank from this year's peak of 3,145,000 in February to 1,455,000 in mid-September. There were still 2,000,000 WPA workers at the end of May and most of those dropped after that date were taken off because Congress limited WPA appropriations to $1,500,000,000.

The extent to which persons will be added to the rolls as cold weather goes on is uncertain and depends, according to unofficial advice, largely on the extent to which business continues to recover and expand private employment.

Congress provided that the appropriation be divided in twelve parts but gave no directions as to how much money should be spent in any given month. The drastic summer slash in the rolls was meant to assure enough funds for winter and spring, assuming business continued to improve. WPA may or may not be back at Capitol Hill for more before the fiscal year is out.

Cameras To Shoot Mishaps.

DENVER, (U.P.) — Members of the Colorado State Highway Patrol have been ordered by Director Joseph J. Marsh to "shoot" all serious highway accidents and traffic hazards. Each patrol car will be equipped with a camera for making a pictorial record.

Parts of the skeletons had been collected for Dr. Krogman by Sister Marie Lambert. From them, when he arrived soon after the first discovery, he attempted to piece together the story of the Indians.

Racial Identity Not Proved.
He explained that the Indians may have been members of a family, buried together. Skull fragments were insufficient for measurements to establish racial identity, but he thought it likely that they were Iroquois who roamed the territory more than 200 years ago.

"This one," he said, holding up a fragment, "was a sub-adult, about 18. This is part of the arm bone of an unborn child. And here was a child that must have been about a year old."

Discovery of the grave revived a host of island legends, based on previous finds of Indian knives, tomahawks, and bones. A populous Iroquois village is said to have stood on the island centuries ago.

The small size of the grave led Dr. Krogman to believe it was a case of "bundle burial," in which bodies were left in the open until all but the skeletons had wasted away. The bones were then gathered up and buried. The Iroquois were known to have followed that custom.

Model Shows Devonian Fish Long, Long Ago

BUFFALO, N. Y. (U.P.)—After nine years of labor, Everett R. Burmeister has completed a wax model of a fish of the Devonian period—Order Arthrodira, Genus Coccoosteus, a creature which he says swam over Buffalo 350,000,000 years ago.

Burmeister, an assistant anthropologist for the Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences, obtained the basis for his wax model in a fossil he discovered while gazing from a bridge into Silver creek.

After scores of conferences and much letter-writing to various authorities on pre-historic fish, he had the specimen identified. The fossil was a rare one because only the armor plates of the fish were calciferous and would fossilize, the rest of the body decomposing after death.

Chief scientific value of his discovery is said to lie in the fact that it records another stage in the transition of animals from the cartilaginous to the calciferous spinal column stage.

"It shows when animals began to have stiff backbones," Burmeister said.

Letters To Editor

Editor Reporter-Telegram:
A few days ago there was an article in your paper advising the farmers there were plenty of cotton pickers in Midland and coming to Midland, and for the farmers to see T. E. Bizzell or call at Williams & Miller Gin. There are not plenty of pickers here. This kind of publicity is hampering us in getting pickers, also interfering with the government employment agency here in helping us to get pickers. Plenty of publicity should be given to the need of cotton pickers in Midland county, as many farmers are having great difficulty in getting their crops gathered.
Yours very truly,

Illinois Builds Pageant Upon Life Of Lincoln; To Celebrate His Rise

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. Oct. 4. (U.P.)—One hundred years ago a young lawyer in the Illinois legislature executed a series of adroit maneuvers and pushed through a bill to move the state capital from Vandalia to Springfield.

The youthful legislator, a lanky, 28-year-old attorney who practiced law in New Salem, was Abraham Lincoln.

Springfield will commemorate his action and not the passing of a century since it became the state capital in a five-day centennial celebration beginning Oct. 22.

The centennial program will include a series of pageants, one depicting the life of Lincoln, another portraying the history of the city, and one showing the city's spiritual development.

The Lincoln drama will open with a prologue in Kentucky showing the marriage of Thomas Lincoln to Nancy Hanks. Events of their son's life then will be portrayed with his ill-fated courtship of Ann Rutledge and his election to the state legislature.

Pageant Through Years.
Other scenes show him moving to Springfield, marrying Mary Todd in 1842, and his action on the night of his election to the Presidency. The following scene will show him in his farewell address to the people of Springfield when he said, "To this place and to the kindness of these people, I owe everything." The drama will end in an allegorical tableau after a scene portraying the shocked, grief-stricken city the morning after the assassination in Washington.

counties primarily were concerned at the time with tapping state funds for appropriations to aid construction of internal improvements—canals and railroads.

Lincoln believed Springfield's transportation problems automatically would be solved by selection of the city as capital and he enlisted the other eight representatives from the county to support him.

Log-Rolling Tactics.
He then promised other legislators the nine votes from Sangamon county for state aid appropriations to their constituencies. In return he asked repeal of the law to select a capital city by popular vote and election of Springfield.

The first law was repealed and another substituted to name the city by majority of the house of representatives. Springfield led on the first ballot and received a majority on the fourth.

By those "log-rolling" tactics, Springfield became the state capital, 16 years after Sangamon county commissioners drove a stake in the ground near Spring Creek and designated the spot as the county seat.

Lincoln moved from the nearby town of New Salem to Springfield six weeks later and entered a law partnership in the new capital.

Indians' Bones Revive Legends

SANDUSKY, O. (U.P.)—Discovery of powdery, brittle fragments of human bones in a shallow grave on nearby Kelley's Island in Lake Erie has produced one of the region's richest mysteries.

The bones apparently were those of Iroquois Indians who died two or three centuries ago. Part of eight skeletons have been removed from the excavation, less than 3 feet deep, and about 5 feet long and 4 feet wide.

Dr. Wilton M. Krogman, professor of anthropology at Western Reserve University, said the grave contained the bodies of an unborn baby, a child about a year old, a boy of 12, a youth of 18, a woman, and three men.

Skull Turned Up First.
First clues to the presence of the grave was found by telephone linemen who accidentally turned up a skull. Hasty excavations then revealed the skeletons had lain untouched for years while plows furrowed the ground over and around them.

Nearby stands a great stone house, once inhabited by the set-

Smallpox Vaccination Urged as Disease Preventative

By HELEN STOCKING.

When a child is born, his parents look forward to his future with a feeling of vague hope. They make plans for his training and expect him to be able to take advantage of the educational opportunities afforded by the state. When he enters school, some accessories are found to be necessary if the child is to make progress with his studies. He must have books, clothes, as well as countless other items. But there is one thing indispensable to the progress of the child and that is good health, for without it he cannot hope to profit to any great extent by attendance in school.

The state is aware of its responsibility for the welfare of its citizens and has sought to provide facilities not only for education but also for safeguarding the health of its children. Legislative measures have been enacted, the aim of which is to prevent the occurrence and spread of communicable diseases. Among these is the law which provides that all children attending public schools must be vaccinated against small-pox. While small-pox is one of the most serious contagious diseases, it is one which CAN be entirely eradicated if the parents of school children will only cooperate to have them inoculated before allowing them to enter school.

Midland on the whole is a law-abiding community, but it has a very poor record with regard to obeying the law regarding small-pox vaccination. Out of a total enrollment of 1,068 in the Junior high and North and South elementary schools, 889 have NOT been vaccinated. This means that more than 64% of the children in these schools are susceptible to small-pox, which represents a serious situation. Parents are urged to cooperate with the Board of Health in protecting the health of the community by having their children vaccinated.

Mrs. Alma Thomas, North Ward principal, entertained at tea Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home, 110 South A street, complimenting the faculty of the Midland schools, members of the board of trustees, and their wives.

Wisconsin Reports Rise in Men School Teachers

MADISON, Wis. (U.P.)—Men more and more are turning to school teaching in Wisconsin, a survey by the state education association reveals.

An increased number of men in the teaching profession during the last seven years applies in rural, village grade, city and high schools.

In 1930, there were 3,000 male teachers in the state's elementary and high schools. The number had grown to 4,500 in 1936. During the same period the number of women teachers in the same schools decreased 600.

Rural schools, strongholds of women teachers some years ago, had more than 1,000 male teachers in 1936 compared to 631 in 1930.

The association characterized the change as "a healthy condition," permitting development of many club and hobby activities which could not be achieved most effectively with women teachers.

McClintic.

McClintic school had 100 percent attendance for the past month, Miss Hazel Self, teacher, reported. Of the 12 pupils enrolled, not one was either absent or tardy during the month.

Improvements made at the school recently include the painting of the blackboard, and the making and painting of library chairs and painting of the bulletin board by the pupils.

Tuesday of this week the school plans to go to Stokes to see the health show, "Fire Hazards in the Home."

A Book A Day

Scotland Yard Theme Worst in Book Comparison.

"THE CLUE OF THE 14 KEYS" (Crime Club: $2) leaves you with the thought that American publishers could improve the quality of mystery fiction if they'd stray away from the Scotland Yard theme. Plenty of thrillers can be built around New York, San Francisco, or Chicago police departments.

There are 13 members in the Witchcraft Club, but the figure 14 plays a more important part in the mystery yarn concocted by Miles Burton, author of "The Clue of the 14 Keys." The story is not exactly "elementary, my dear Watson," but it isn't as difficult to solve as it seems in the first two or three paragraphs.

One of the six members of the club is found murdered. The plot proves a stickler for a Scotland Yard inspector and an amateur criminologist. A ring of keys found on the dead man finally unlocks the mystery.

THE WINNAHS- AND NEW CHAMPIONS; N. Y. GIANTS

Terry's Club Strengthened Since Last World Series; But the Yanks Are Weaker

Pitching of Hubbell, Melton And McCarthymen's Slump Will Bring Victory to N. L.

By RICHARD McCANN
NEA Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The Giants will win the world series in six games.

Don Carlos Hubbell will out-pitch Senior El Goofo y Gomez in the first game.

Ruffing the Red will beat Melton the Mickey Mouse in the second affair.

Prince Hal Schumacher will be cuffed around a bit, but he will eventually stagger home the winner over Monte Pearson in the third game, which will be something of a slugging bee.

Bill Terry will gamble on Harry Gumbert—and lose—in the fourth game as Lefty Gomez evens the series at 2-all.

Then, with three days rest, Don Carlos will master nine more screwballs to win the fifth game from a brilliant, but frustrated Ruffing.

And then the lanky, lop-eared Melton will hope home with the chipped beef in the sixth and final.

See your daily newspaper for further details. And call the U. S. Weather Bureau for the weather forecast.

Too, Too Simple To Figure Out.

The Giants will win for the simple reason, that they will be the better ball club for four of those afternoons.

You know, despite the lop-sided score of that sixth and final game, there wasn't much difference between the two clubs last year. Didn't the Giants win two of the games, and didn't the Yankees just barely win one of their four by the epidermis of a leghorn's teeth?

Well, the Giants are stronger this year and the Yankees, it appears, are weaker. Take the Giants.

Mel Ott, strong-armed, shifty, is a better third baseman than the shivery-shanked Travis Jackson; and Johnny McCarthy, say what you will, is an improvement over the staggering Bill Terry of 1936. The outfield is stronger with Ripple, Moore, Chiozza, Lieber, and Berger to choose from.

Off hand, it would seem that the Giants go into the series with only two dependable pitchers—Hubbell and Melton. Schumacher's arm is still bothering him, and his confidence is suffering from sympathetic rheumatism. Gumbert and the others are, too, too uncertain.

But even so, two pitchers are enough for a short series like this.

Some Southpaws Stopped Yanks.

The experts nod very wisely and say that the Yankees are weak against southpaws and that's why Hubbell and Melton will bother them—and maybe beat them.

But, although Lefty Lee of the White Sox handcuffed Murderers' Row five times, the Yanks have done fairly well against lefthand pitchers. For instance, until the other day when Joe Krakauskas, the wild young Washington southpaw, flung a seven-hitter at the Yanks had bludgeoned nine out to death seven lefthanders in a row—among them being Grove, Wade, Whitehill, and even Lee.

And another thing. . . . Hubbell is not like the average southpaw; righthand hitters have more trouble following his screwball than do lefthanders.

But all that is so confusing. . . they never used to talk about Walter Johnson being unable to get out lefthand hitters, and Rube Waddell having trouble with righthand hitters.

So suffice it to say that the Messrs. Hubbell and Melton will beat the Yankees because they're confound good pitchers with a confound good defensive team scattered around beef them. You couldn't spray a rose through that Giant infield.

Yankees Haven't Been Hitting.

There can be no denying that the Yankees are weaker this season. Even the New York sportswriters admit that . . . and, you know, when

THE NICKEL WORLD SERIES

A New Yorker admits that something in New York is a little short of being stupendous and sensational, things have come to a pretty pass.

The Yanks definitely lack championship stuff at second, where Tony Lazzeri is hobbling around on ancient stems, and in the outfield where Jake Powell and Myril Hoag are poor imitations of George Selkirk and Tom Henrich, the hospital regulars. Both Henrich and Selkirk expect to compete in the forthcoming tournament but they'll hardly be up to snuff after their idleness.

Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing are great pitchers. They'll either beat you every time out or make you sweat that winning run out of them. But the Giants can do that very thing. The Giants love nothing better than a 1-0, 2-1, 3-2, ball game. Look at their box scores this season.

The most alarming thing—from a Yankee rooster's standpoint—is the Ruppert Rifles' batting slump. They didn't hit the last month at all and depended on their pitchers to bring them through. Crosetti, Lazzeri, Rolfe, Hoag, and Powell sank to the depths of the 200 division. And even Joe DiMaggio and Lou Gehrig fell off.

It's possible that the boys may snap out of it against the Giants.

Scout Uniform Takes Youth on 3,500-Mile Trip

SEATTLE (U.P.)—Robert A. Porter, 19-year-old Eagle Scout and scoutmaster at Jackson, Mich., arrived here after a 3,500-mile journey across the nation—and he owes it all to his scouting uniform.

Porter left Detroit with $30 and a resplendent, spotless Boy Scout uniform. On arrival here, he complained of neither a cramped thumb nor blistered feet and he walked only four miles of the original 3,500.

The young scout left Detroit on Aug. 30, incidentally, in a new Packard automobile that carried him to Salt Lake in one stretch. He arrived there on Aug. 23, reached San Bernardino, Cal., Aug. 24, thence to Los Angeles and on into Seattle Aug. 30.

"The purpose of the trip was solely to meet people and gain experience," Porter said. "Also, I wished to make inquiries about the death of a relative of a friend of mine, and besides, I'm studying to be a lawyer, and this brush with California procedure was instructive."

Bearded Men Warned Gas Masks Won't Fit
LONDON (UP)—Every householder in England soon will receive a booklet explaining the perils of gas attacks and describing the precautions which should be taken in the event of an air raid.

Eventually it is hoped that every man, woman and child in the country will have a gas mask. Millions have been produced already, but millions more are needed. While all these preparations are going on there is bad news for men with beards. An anti-gas expert has announced that "it is difficult to fit a bearded man with a gas mask, and should an emergency arise, those with beards more than a hand long may be faced with the alternative of cutting off their beards or getting gassed."

PANTHERS NEED ONLY ONE WIN TO COP SERIES

FORT WORTH, Oct. 5. (AP)—Husky Joe Greenberg, younger brother of illustrious Hank, cracked a tenth inning single last night with the bases packed to give Fort Worth's Panthers a 3-2 triumph over Little Rock and a three-to-one edge in the Dixie Series.

Subjected to a ball player's most stinging embarrassment — hitting behind a mate who had been intentionally walked to get to easier pickings — Greenberg looked over Pitcher Byron Humphrey's first toss and then drove a liner to center.

Southpaw Clyde Small mixed four-hit twirling with streaks of wildness to down a stubborn Traveler tetam that had muffed its tenth inning chance when Leo Nonnenkamp was caught off second base with only one away.

Humphreys, the Traveler's ace chunker, pitched fine ball himself until the last frame. He let Bill Jackson, Fort Worth catcher, open with a clean single and saw him advance safely to second when he beat First Sacker O'Neill's throw

Wisconsin Town Boasts Fishing on Main Street

WAUTOMA, Wis. (UP)—Joseph Cislak has discovered a fisherman's paradise.

When he wants a mess of trout for supper he walks out of his tailor shop in to the middle of Main street, lifts a manhole cover and drops in his line.

Underneath Main street runs the White river. Cislak said hundreds of trout lie in the cool cave beneath the streets.

Cislak recommends his fishing spot because he can do his angling without the discomfort of mosquitoes, scratching brambles and long trips.

When Cislak goes fishing he doesn't even have to lock up his shop.

of the United Kingdom (England and Ireland), 620,000 acres are submerged with water at each period of high tide.

on Pitcher Small's sacrifice bunt, Shelly forced Jackson at third and Humphreys tossed out McDowell. Then came Stebbins' intentional walk and Greenberg's winning hit.

Big Ed Selway, who shut out the Travelers in Little Rock, will be sent out tonight in an effort to clinch the series. Lee Rogers will hurl for Little Rock.

36th Division Men During War Days to Meet in Ft. Worth

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 5. (SPL)—The local committee on arrangements for the annual 36th Division Veterans reunion reported today the completion of plans for entertaining the hundreds of veterans expected in Fort Worth Saturday and Sunday, October 9th and 10th.

This home coming for the veterans, who trained at Camp Bowie from October 1917 to July 1918, is a happy time for the Texas-Oklahoma boys that belonged to the 36th Division.

Renewal of war-time friendships, made even more dear as the years roll on, is becoming a habit with more and more of them each year.

Letters from many who have never before attended are pouring in to reunion headquarters and indicate the largest attendance ever had at these reunions.

Plenty of entertainment for both the veterans and their wives is promised by the local entertainment committee.

Sunday morning, October 10th memorial services will be held in the municipal auditorium, built on the site formerly occupied by troops who trained at Camp Bowie.

A barbecue dinner, following the memorial service will conclude the two day reunion.

All railroads have very low weekend round trip fares to Ft. Worth and Dallas.

The Texas Hotel will be headquarters for all organizations this year.

Green Says CIO Idea Is to Make Lewis President

DENVER, Colo. Oct. 5. (AP)—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, said last night the C. I. O. was being used as the nucleus from a political organization designed to make John L. Lewis president of the United States.

"I appeal to the American people and the organized workers of America to choose between an unselfish, common sense political policy in labor and one dictated by unreasoning personal ambition, doomed from the outset to failure," Green said in a radio speech.

Green's speech was his second blast of the day at Lewis and his Committee for Industrial Organization. He opened the A. F. of L.'s 57th annual convention by pledging the federation to increasing war to destroy the C. I. O. and to support democracy against the type of dictatorship he said Lewis represented.

For two years the American Federation of Labor has been patient towards the C. I. O., Green said. "First we warned its leaders to desist. We advised them that their course would destroy the unit of labor movement in this country. "They paid no heed to our warnings. Instead, they rashly proceeded to break the laws of constitution of the American Federation of Labor and seize control of several of its affiliated unions. They went even further and directed the activities of these unions along lines

Stamp News

The new three-cent Hawaiian stamp, first of the Territorial series, will go on sale at Honolulu Oct. 18, with distribution throughout Hawaii and the United States the following day.

The new issue, printed in sheets of 50 by rotary process, is purple, .84 by 1.44 inches, arranged vertically. Centrally placed is a reproduction of the statue of King Kamehameha I, first ruler of the united islands. Rays of light from a rising sun form the background. "Hawaii," in white Roman letters, appears as a panel across the lower edge, surmounted by a narrower panel, "U. S. Postage," also in white Roman. The denomination designation, "3c," is in white in a circular panel at the base of the statue. A floral wreath borders top and sides.

Collectors wanting first-day cancellations may send covers, not to exceed 10, to the postmaster at Honolulu, with cash or postal money order to cover only the cost of the stamps.

France, Germany, Great Britain and United States are competing for trans-Atlantic airmail supremacy and probably will bid for mail contracts when preliminary survey flights have been completed. Pan American (U. S.), Imperial (British) Airways and Lufthansa (German) have successfully completed several round trips. France has stationed a weather ship near the Azores in preparation for an initial flight.

No announcement concerning transport of mail will be made until bids are asked and accepted by the Postoffice Department.

Feast of information and inspiration, for the veteran collector and the beginner, is the book "The Stamp Collectors' Round Table" (Stokes, $2.75). Rich with the contributions of more than 30 professional philatelists (each has written a chapter), the book is edited by Foster W. Loso. It is valuable both as a general orientation to the field and also as a professional discussion of its many phases. (Copyright, 1937, NEA Service, Inc.)

Flying Doctor Ansvers Calls Sent By Radio

SYDNEY (UP)—The substitution of the airplane for the horse and buggy of the country doctor in making his rounds, has made possible a decided increase in the territory covered.

Dr. L. E. Odlum, the flying doctor of Australia who has based his airplane medical service on Broken Hill, estimates that he now serves a territory of 500,000 square miles, embracing New South Wales and parts of Queensland, South Australia and Victoria.

His practice has become so extended and at the same time so essential, that the government has granted a subsidy to enable patients to call him at all times. Twenty pedal transmitting and receiving radio sets have been installed in various parts of the vast territory so that sick people can call him by wireless.
