KERRVILLE, KERR COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1918

NO. 36

NOMINATION OF HARRY HERTZBERG IS RATIFIED

J. IRA KERCHEVILLE ENDORSED FOR STATE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

candidate for State Senator at the Harry Hertzberg was nominated at Twenty-fourth Senatorial District convention of the Democratic party, held in this city last Saturday.

The convention was called to order at the St. Charles Hotel by J. M. Hamilton, chairman of the Kerr County Democratic Executive Committee.

On motion of J. Ira Kercheville J. M. Hamilton was elected temporary chairman of the convention and Paul H. Scholz was elected temporary secretary.

The chair stated that the purpose of the meeting was to ratify the results of the recent primary election for a Senator to be the candidate of the Democratic party in the Twenty-fourth Senatorial District at the State election in November, 1918, and to transact such other business as may be the desire of the convention.

The chair then appointed the following committees with instructions to report as soon as possible to the convention; following a motion by Mr. Kercheville, duly passed:

On Organization: Geo. Wright, chairman; J. Ross Boles, Paul Roehs, R. P. Schmerhorn and Dr. E. O. Evans.

On Credentials: L. A. Schreiner, chairman; C. J. Lukin, F. A. Chapa; W. S. Peyton, Raymond Hood, W. H. Chambers and Mrs. Geo. Morris.

On Resolutions: C. W. Gibson, chairman; J. I. Kercheville, Andrew Coy, B. W. Teagarden, Geo. Thompson and Henry Mogford.

The committee on organization reported (the convention having recessed), recommending that the temporary organization be made permanent, and on motion of Mr. Thomson this report was duly adopted.

On motion of Mr. Peyton, duly passed, Mrs. Geo. Morris was elected assistant secretary to the convention.

The committee on credentials reported, approving the names of delegates from the respective parts of the district as assembled here, and on motion of Mr. Thomson, duly passed, this report was adopted as submitted.

The chair reported that the Executive Committee had checked up the returns of the primary election, and would therefore report to the convention that Harry Hertzberg had been nominated over Judge Linden by a majority of 5,191 votes.

The resolutions committee then submitted the following report:

"Hon. Jack M. Hamilton, Chairman of the Convention: We, your committee, appointed to draft the platform and resolutions to be submitted to this convention, beg leave to report as follows:

"We, the Democrats of the Twenty-fourth Senatorial District of Texas, in convention assembled, endorse in the highest terms the epoch-making and statesmanlike Administration of President Woodrow Wilson. As President of this great Nation, he has conducted and is conducting us through the greatest crisis in the history of all nations. He is looked to by the allied world as the mouthpiece of the best thought of the allies, and this Nation is looked to as the military and moral force, which through into the conflict, will eventually and certainly bring victory and a lasting peace. We call upon all American citizens to uphold the hands of our illustrious President, and thereby insure the winning of the war.

"He heartily endorse and approve of the administration of Governor W. P. Hobby, and we bespeak for him a successful administration during his coming term of office. We approve of the war measures adopted during his administration.

"We disapprove and are in no uncertain terms the practice of lending or giving large sums of money on the part of special interests to any officer of the State government during his term of office, because such practice is a species of bribery and corruption that will cause the people to lose faith in their government, and is therefore an attack upon popular government.

"We endorse the principle of equality and women of the State and Nation, and we favor the adoption of woman suffrage both by amendment to the State and Federal Constitutions. The present law is inadequate and confers only partial suffrage, and may be subject to attack in the courts of this State, and we recommend that equal suffrage to men and women be written in the Constitution of this State, and that the next Legislature submit to the people of Texas the proposed constitutional amendment providing for this great reform.

"We endorse and approve of the election reforms brought about by the last special session of the Texas Legislature, especially the law providing for the literacy test, with such amendments as will perfect the purpose and spirit of the act, requiring the voter to make out his own ballot, unaided and unassisted by the election officers. We recommend that this reform be written into the State Constitution, and that the next Legislature submit an amendment to the people of Texas, embodying this measure.

"During this most critical period in our history, we again express our adherence to the principles of democracy. While it is necessary to recognize no faction or party in a successful prosecution of the war, still we desire to call to the attention of the people of this district and State, the fact that a Democratic Administration is leading the Nation through its most historical period, and is destined to lead it to a victorious conclusion of the war; that it has been tested by fire and has shown its capacity to govern in the most trying hours.

"We are about to witness the triumph of the essential principles of democracy and rights of mankind throughout the world. The Democratic party has had a glorious past; has demonstrated its usefulness during the present time, and has a destiny to fulfill in the future. We commend its record to the people of this State and district for their ratification and approval."

On motion of Mr. Gibson the report of the committee on platform and resolutions was duly adopted as submitted.

C. J. Lukin nominated Harry Hertzberg as the convention candidate for Senator of the Twenty-fourth Senatorial District. This nomination was seconded by L. A. Schreiner for Kerr County, and by C. W. Gibson for Bexar County. There were no other nominations and Mr. Hertzberg received the unanimous vote of all delegates present.

Mr. Hertzberg made a speech accepting the nomination and pledging his very best efforts, if elected, to serve his constituency.

The following resolution, offered by C. W. Gibson, was on motion duly adopted:

"Whereas, the Democratic County Convention of Bexar County, Texas, endorsed and recommended J. I. Kercheville as a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee from the Twenty-fourth Senatorial District; and

"Whereas, this endorsement meets with the approval of the delegates from the respective counties, constituting the Twenty-fourth Senatorial District:

"Therefore, Be It Resolved that we, the delegates of the Twenty-fourth Senatorial District in convention assembled, do hereby endorse and recommend the appointment of J. I. Kercheville as a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Democratic State Convention to meet at Waco on September 3rd, 1918."

The following San Antonio delegates attended the convention: Robt. Schermerhorn, C. W. Gibson, C. J. Lukin, J. Ira Kercheville, Paul Roehs, Andrew Coy, Geo. R. Thompson, W. H. Chambers, Mrs. W. H. Chambers, Raymond V. Hood, Mrs. Raymond V. Hood, Col. F. A. Chapa, W. S. Peyton, B. W. Teagarden, Ross J. Boles, Dr. E. O. Evans, Paul H. Scholz, Reagan Houston and Mrs. Reagan Houston.

Recruiting Officer in Kerrville.

Lieut. Adelph Dubas spent the first of the week in Kerrville taking recruits for the Machine Gun Company of the First Texas Infantry.

Lieutenant Dubas left Thursday with seven new recruits, who will go to San Antonio to fix up their final papers, after which they will return home to await their call for Federal inspection, which is expected to be some time in September.

AID FOR FRENCH WOUNDED AND BELGIAN PRISONERS

Funds are greatly needed by these two classes of sufferers by the great war, which is being waged for the preservation of the liberties of the whole world.

Let us remember, now as always, that the persecutions and horrors, the suffering and hardships these Belgians and French have endured are the price they paid for doing all save dishonor.

The Belgians stood by their "scrap of paper"; defied the Prussian invading hordes, and held them in check, for a while at least, until the Allies made preparation to meet them. But for this heroism and sacrifice the whole course of the war might have been different, and our own losses much heavier.

Arrangements have been made, through the Spanish government, by which food and clothing may be sent to these sufferers by the fortunes of war.

An offering will be made in the Episcopal Church next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock services. If all the churches in town would make a similar offering, the whole amount might be sent to the New York committee, of which the British Ambassador is a patron, as a gift of the churches here, and as a slight expression of our sympathy. If there is no such general offering, I would be glad to receive gifts to the one we are to make, so as to swell the amount. Persons can designate for which purpose the money shall be used. Both are equally worthy.

J. S. JOHNSTON,

Pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

The Kaiser and King Saul.

The following clipping appeared in the San Antonio Express of the 25th inst.:

HUNS ADVISED TO PRAY FOR AWAKENING OF BISMARCK

London, Aug. 22.—However violent the German war effort may be, but a retreat is a victory, the people of Germany seem less and less inclined to accept their view, and some of them are getting desperate.

The Reichsbote, which is the organ of the state church party, has been exhorting its readers to pray for the resurrection of Bismarck.

It says: "German nation, go to your churches and pray to your God be merciful, beseech Him to endow your Kaiser with the power to awaken Bismarck from the dead."

It is pathetic to see how devoid of a sense of humor the Boches are. (I believe that nickname means woodenhead, as we would say.) It also shows how lacking in knowledge of the Holy Scriptures even the church party is. This doubtless grows out of the fact that they have forsaken Luther (who first gave them the Bible in their own language, and by so setting the Word of God free, made all other liberties possible), and have taken up with Nietzsche, who damns Jesus Christ, and all His teachings.

To any one at all familiar with the Bible, this call to the Kaiser to wake up Bismarck, recalls vividly the story of Saul and Samuel, as recorded in the first Book of Samuel from the third chapter to the end of the Book. It tells how Samuel had anointed Saul to be the first King of the Jewish people.

For awhile Saul followed the admonitions of the prophet-statement, who had long been a judge over the scattered tribes, and prepared them to become a nation. But he had not been king very long before he began to become puffed up with a sense of his own self-sufficiency, and turned a deaf ear to the advice of his old and faithful friend, who had laid the foundations of the kingdom, for which he had anointed him to be the first king. Seeing that he was set on having his own way Samuel left him to his own devices. From that time on things began to go wrong with Saul. Samuel died, and the Philistines invaded the land. Saul had no army with which to repel them. He was in a great strait; in his desperation he sought counsel of a woman, with a familiar spirit, a witch, they called them. It was positively prohibited by the law of Moses to permit such persons to live. But Sam had forsaken the true God, who would no longer listen to his prayers, and he decided to consult the witch, who represented the devil's kingdom. He disguised himself and with two of his faithful soldiers, under cover of darkness, he made his way to the witch's house, and said to her:

"I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit and bring me up whom I shall name unto thee."

And the woman said unto him, "Behold thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off all those that have familiar spirits, and wizards out of the land. Wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?" And Saul swore to her by the Lord saying, "As the Lord liveth, there shall no punishment happen unto thee for this thing."

Then said the woman: "Whom shall I bring up unto thee?" And he said, "Bring me up Samuel." And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: "Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul." And the king said unto her, "Be not afraid: for what sawest thou?" And the woman said unto Saul, "I saw gods ascending out of the earth." And he said unto her, "What form is he of?" And she said, "An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle." And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself. And Samuel said unto Saul: "Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up?" And Saul answered, "I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams; therefore I have called thee that thou mayest make known to me what I shall do."

Then said Samuel, "Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing that Jehovah is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? And the Lord hath wrought for himself, as he spoke by me: for the Lord hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand; because thou obeyedst not the voice of Jehovah. Moreover Jehovah will also deliver the people into the hands of the Egyptians, and tomorrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me." That is, the place of all departed spirits, where all the dead in that day were supposed to go. They knew nothing of the personal immortality of the soul.

The Kaiser's case and that of Saul are strikingly similar, up to the present situation. It remains yet to be seen what the ending will be.

The Kaiser, almost immediately after he ascended the imperial throne (which had been established by Bismarck), sent to the rear, almost in disgrace, the man to whom he owed his crown. And now that the empire turned over to him is about to crumble into ruins by his mismanagement because he has forsaken Jehovah, the God of the whole earth, and sought aid from the old heathen gods of his ancestors, Wotan, the fierce god of war; and Thor, the god of thunder, noise and frightfulness, the last man he would want to meet would be Bismarck, from whom he would get about the same comfort that Samuel gave Saul. "Tomorrow (or very soon) shalt thou and thy sons be with me." Only that the Kaiser and his boys always keep under cover.

But when the German people wake up and see how they have been led to and deceived, they will doubtless know what to do with them.

UETUS MILES.

Wheless-Bollman.

The marriage of Miss Adelaide Wheless and Mr. G. H. Bollman was celebrated at high noon Sunday, the 25th, at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Bishop Johnston officiating.

At the conclusion of the morning service, Mrs. King played Mendelssohn's Wedding March and the bride entered with her father and was met at the altar by the groom, who came in from the vestry. They plighted their troth under an arbor made of coral vine and crepe myrtle. The church was attractively decorated in a profusion of pink flowers and ferns, pink and green being the bride's color scheme.

The bride wore a traveling suit of midnight blue broadcloth with gray collar and vest, and hat, shoes and gloves to match. She carried a hower bouquet of white sweet peas, arnations and maiden-hair ferns.

After the ceremony the wedding party were driven to the home of the bride's parents, where an elaborate family dinner was served. The bride's cake contained the traditional ring, thimble and dime, the ring being the one which was in the bride's grandmother's cake, and was presented to the bride's mother several years ago. The wedding gifts were numerous and costly, and came from all parts of the country, giving evidence of the popularity of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Bollman left on the 3:20 train for Philadelphia, their future home.

The following appeared in the society column of the San Antonio Express, August 12:

That Miss Adelaide Wheless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wheless of Kerrville, formerly of Beaumont, and Mr. George Bollman will be married August 25 is an announcement of wide social interest. Miss Wheless, who has been in Beaumont with her aunt, Mrs. Geo. Reed, since her parents moved to Kerrville more than a year ago, left last night for the latter place, the ceremony to be solemnized there.

Prominently connected, highly accomplished and of an unusually attractive personality, Miss Wheless numbers her friends here by her acquaintances. Having made her home in Beaumont since childhood, her circle is large to see her move so far away as Philadelphia, where Mr. Bollman recently accepted a position with the Hog Island Shipbuilding Company. Although a resident of Beaumont but for a few months, Mr. Bollman is well and favorably known. He has been connected here with the Beaumont Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company.

The following notice appeared in the Galveston Tribune:

Mr. and Mrs. James Sidney Wheless of Kerrville, Tex., formerly of Galveston, more recently of Beaumont, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Adelaide Fishback Wheless, to Mr. George Bollman of Philadelphia, Pa., the marriage to be solemnized in Kerrville on the 25th inst., at high noon, at the Episcopal Church, Bishop Johnston officiating.

The above announcement is of great social interest here as the charming young bride-to-be has a host of friends having frequently visited here as the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Louise Carleton Van Name, and Miss Mary Bulkeley West, also of Mrs. Eugene H. Cavin, since the removal of the family from Galveston.

Miss Wheless is a graduate of the Beaumont high school, and of Sweet Briar, Va. The groom is a graduate of Cornell College, and during his residence in Texas has made a host of warm friends in business and social circles. The bride's brother, Mr. Fishback Wheless, received his commission in the aviation corps, at Kelly Field, and is at present stationed at West Point, Miss. They are grandchildren of the late Governor Meade Fishback of Arkansas.

Ally Beitel was a business visitor in San Antonio the first of the week.

Lutheran Church News

At the Lutheran Church of Kerrville hereafter the English language will be used exclusively. All the services, the instructions in the Sunday School as well as in the catechetical class will be in English. This decision was reached by the congregation at a meeting held last Sunday.

At a conference at Houston, attended by Lutheran ministers from all over the State, the following resolution was passed: "We believe that America is waging a war for liberty and democracy. We believe in her just cause, therefore we again pledge her our allegiance. Those who do not lend her their undivided support for winning the war are against us and traitors of our country. We are for America, first, last and all the time."

On my way to Houston I visited Camp Travis. I also called on Rev. W. S. Kemmer, who is the religious secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Hut No. 31. He is doing well, enjoys his work and is happy to be with the soldier boys. Some time ago his car was stolen by a civilian from in the front of his hut. On Sundays he preaches at four different huts. He charged me to tell his Kerrville friends hello.

Two blocks from the San Antonio Post Office the Lutherans have established their Brotherhood Clubhouse. It is free for soldiers as well as for civilians. Rev. W. Kraushaur is the man who conceived the idea of this clubhouse and who also managed to get the means for it. He is the Lutheran camp pastor for the Kelley Fields. He will be in Kerrville and speak at the Lutheran Church on Thursday, September 5th, at 8 p. m. Everybody is cordially invited to hear him. B. SCHLEIFER, Pastor.

Scholastic Enrollment Decreased.

The 1918 scholastic enrollment of Kerr County shows a decrease of 193 against 1917, the enrollment for 1917 being 1,643 and 1,450 for 1918. However, a net increase of 10 per cent per capita is shown in 1918 over 1917.

LOCAL RED CROSS NEWS
Edited by Mrs. J. W. BURNEY
++++++

The Red Cross work rooms will hereafter be open only in the mornings. The Secretary will be on duty from 9 to 11 o'clock each morning.
The swift march of events is setting a pace for the Red Cross today of which few people are aware. It is no military secret that, with the arrival of considerably over a million American troops in Europe, our army is now many months ahead of its original program, forced thereto by the logic of the German menace. Weev by week new thousands of soldiers are landing in European ports, filling the camps in England and France, releasing trained men who are taking over new sectors at the front, and constituting new field armies. For the Red Cross this victory over schedule means simply that many milestones formerly glimpsed ahead have suddenly flashed by and now only mark the way where achievement passed.

Thanks to the system of warehouses that Major Murphy built, and thanks to the promptitude with which the thousands of tons of material ordered have been shipped and stored, there is no shortage of Red Cross supplies. A new military program, however, has of necessity sprung up overnight. Our sectors on the front are not only far apart but American troops are fighting with French and British units. This means that hospital equipment and supplies must be available and in reserve at many points. Soon, a hundred divisions of American troops must be provided with emergency dressing stations—and emergency stations are not one to a division, as might be imagined. In addition, our sweeping into the French and British hospitals as well as into the emergency canvas hospitals which the Red Cross has set up and turned over to the Army. Here our food supplies are beginning to be needed, particularly to supplement the ration of the French hospitals. American Red Cross surgical dressings are now being supplied to these French hospitals, also, in addition to the French of Dallas.

The Red Cross Army in the field is advancing. Like the Fighting Army it is organized—it is trained—it is equipped. And it is making headway—gaining ground in the struggle to make the world free. We, at home, look to the Red Cross Army with confidence. Our fresh troops have already covered themselves with glory, and "they have just begun to fight." They go into battle with a cheer on their lips. They run to meet danger as a lover flies to his bride. The tale of their courage thrills us. But we are saddened as we think of the hundreds who have fallen, of the thousands who must fall before the struggle is ended.
Everything that industry—loving care and money can do for these boys is being done. Be assured of that. Your money will provide them with comforts in camp and in hospitals. Food, clothing, conveniences will be supplied them without stint. Stretcher bearers and ambulances will carry them to the hospitals. Their wounds will be dressed with bandages and clean muslin and gauze supplied by you.
In material things they will lack nothing. But one thing they will lack and many will die who might have lived for the lack of this thing, unless the need is promptly filled. They will lack trained nursing skill unless the nursing profession rallies to their rescue.
Twelve thousand trained nurses are already in Military Service. The voice of these twelve thousand are as one as they bid their sisters to hasten to their aid. The Surgeon General and the Secretary of War are appealing to the trained womanhood of America to stand by the young manhood of America.
The Surgeon General asks the Red Cross to recruit trained nurses at the rate of one thousand a week for the next eight weeks. The Red Cross Department of Nursing has placed the matter squarely up to the Chapters. Every trained nurse in America must be registered. And every registered nurse who can do so, must enroll for Military Service. The situation demands prompt action. The emergency is acute. The facts must be brought home to every woman who has had the advantage of nursing training.

Cincinnati Man Tells How to Shrive Up Corns or Calluses So They Lift Off With Fingers.
Ouch ! ! ! ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, itching corn or hardened callus stops soreness at once, and soon the corn or callus dries up and lifts right off without pain.
He says freezone dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since in the inauguration of the high heels. If your druggist doesn't have freezone tell him to order a small bottle for you.

Chapters must see that every nurse in the Southwestern Division is enrolled either for home or foreign service.
The crisis is at hand. This is the all-important Red Cross service now.

GENERAL SUGAR CONSERVATION

Is sugar necessary in the diet?

Neither cane nor beet sugar is necessary. In the average American diet all the sugar needed may ordinarily be supplied by using honey, sirups, fresh, preserved and dried fruits.

What are the general sugar saving rules?

Use all sugar sparingly and wherever possible use other sweeteners. Be sparing of confections and sweet cakes. The American people last year spent enough money for candy to feed all Belgium for two years. Supplement sugar with honey and sirups. Cultivate a taste for fruit in its natural sweetness. Sugar is a fuel food. Get fuel from potatoes and other starchy foods rather than from sugar. Sugar excels them as an energy-food only because it produces energy more quickly. They excel sugar since they supply more than merely the fuel need.

How may the sugar ration be expressed in quantities known to everyone?

Two pounds per month means about 8 ounces per week, or a little more than 1 ounce a day. This daily ration is a trifle more than 2 tablespoons level full. It should be remembered that this is to include all sugar used for any purpose whatsoever—for table use, cooking, in ice cream and desserts, on cereals or fruit, in sugar sirups used on griddle cakes, etc.

Learn to Get Along Without Sugar

It has been done before. A hundred years ago refined sugar was unknown. Our ancestors used honey and you can use honey also. Besides there are sirups. The natural sugars of fruits will serve today as they did centuries ago. You will get all the sugar you need in this way. The Allies do it now. England, which before the war used more sugar than we did, has but two pounds per head a month now; France one and a half pounds, and Italy only one. Show yourself a patriotic American and use less than your ration. This is but a slight sacrifice as compared with all that the Allies are doing. Do it yourself.

ADJ. STARBOARD TELLS OF SALVATION ARMY WORK IN FRANCE

A STORY FROM THE FRONT

Returned Salvationist Describes Experiences of American Salvationists in the Huts and Trenches

In our work in the war zone we have received the greatest encouragement from military officers from General Pershing down. The officers manifest the fact that they believe in us and are glad that we are doing what we can to make the lot of the soldier easier. General Pershing has called at some of our huts in his inspections and in each case has expressed his pleasure at the cleanliness, the general arrangement of things and the facilities we have provided for the boys.

Before the American troops began to move to the support of the British and French lines we had fourteen huts in full operation along this front, grouped as follows:—Four huts well back of the firing lines in the training camp, conducted by two or three persons each; four huts well up toward the front, also conducted by two or three persons; five huts closer still to the firing line, each in charge of one Salvation Army officer, and the headquarters hut of Lieutenant Colonel Baker, at Ligny en Barrois. Attached to the headquarters are a number of men who are driving automobiles and distributing supplies among the huts, and other workers are scattered throughout the field or assigned to various huts.

We have not as much to report on the religious side of our work as I would like. The reason for this is that our time has been so completely occupied with other absolutely necessary work. In addition to this it is most difficult under existing conditions to follow to an end the impressions made at our meetings.

You see, the meetings are held in the big rooms where the boys have been playing games, and hearing the piano and victrola music, and eating and smoking and writing letters, and talking and singing, etc. Although we hold meetings twice a week, and sometimes more frequently, as soon as we pronounce the benediction and the meeting is over the hall becomes a play room again.

The Influence of the Workers

But let me say that if I seem to be underestimating the religious phase I am not really doing so, because the personal influence of our officers is purely and distinctively religious. For the reason they have a marked effect on the soldiers.

Our people are certainly not having an easy life over there, but then they do not expect that nor would they want to be in the midst of so much suffering. Some of the men, those up in the front line huts, carry coffee to the men in the trenches, and in some of these cases they are in as much danger as the soldiers. We are in danger from gas attacks, but we have all been provided with gas masks and have become most proficient in adjusting them. We have also developed an ear for gas bombs. These burst with a heavy thud, quite different from the explosion of the shrapnel, which is sharp and energetic. The gas masks are always hanging in front of our workers, and as soon as the thud or explosion is heard they must have their masks perfectly adjusted before they breathe again. These respirators draw the air through a certain combination of chemicals by which the gas is neutralized.

We have spent a great deal of time in and near the most trenches and have had some very narrow escapes. One night the warning bell, the bell which always sounds on the approach of the gas wave, around us from our slumbers, five times between two and six o'clock in the morning. It is the duty of the men on watch at the approach of a gas wave, to awaken the boys in the dugouts who might be sleeping. If the warning bell does not awaken them he must at once use other means besides dropping the gas curtain over the mouth of the dugout. Our boys have been in the trenches many times, escaping without a scratch. There is really no very great danger if they are moderately cautious and properly use the appliances provided by the military authorities.

The Pies and Doughnuts

You probably have seen frequent doughnut and pie stories which have circulated through the American press—stories of the popularity of these articles of food which are made by the women of the Salvation Army and distributed to the soldiers. No one could overstate the popularity of these American pastries. I have seen lines of from two hundred to four hundred men waiting in the pouring rain while the doughnuts were being cooked.

The line officers also have found these things not bad eating, and I have seen a captain waiting on the steps of a hut begging in piteous tones for a few doughnuts. This is not because the men are underfed; they are the best fed soldiers in Europe. The boys certainly like these little delicacies. The special feature of our work that they never cease talking about is the cooking of the doughnuts and pies. Often boys and officers will give orders for pies and doughnuts weeks in advance.

When the cooking time comes the officers have to line up with the rest of the boys. We have insisted that in the matter of these little luxuries the officers have no claim superior to that of the ordinary soldier. This has come to be understood, and they seem perfectly willing to take their place in the line.

When the pie and doughnut wagon are attacked the boys rally forth to defend them with such energy that the enemy no doubt imagines they contain something very precious from a military point of view—as, for instance, a very deadly form of ammunition. The cable has already reported the enemy attack on one of our huts which was carrying delicacies for the boys. The enemy used up a great deal of ammunition on this convoy, and although they succeeded in demolishing those particular pies and doughnuts, reinforcements were speedily at hand from pie and doughnut reserves which the Salvation Army women are ceaselessly taking out in the huts a little way back.

We have to take living conditions pretty much as we find them. Usually the camps have been made either in or very near a village and most of the girls have been able to find billets with a family where things are made fairly comfortable for them. This arrangement may necessitate a considerable walk every night and morning to their stations, but no woman is accepted for service abroad with the Salvation Army who is not strong and healthy and able to play her part under adverse conditions and to endure a great many hardships.

The men find billets in attics, stables, haylofts and cellars and sometimes they are so tired that they are glad to roll themselves in their blankets and sleep on the ground. In the spring, summer and autumn days, when it is fair, this is not at all a disagreeable thing to do, but in the wet and cold winter there is not a little suffering. In some cases the men, especially the officers, when the business of the day is over, make some sort of rough bed in the corner of the hut—sometimes with just a curtain around it—and there both sleep and eat.

It is quite impossible to describe the inferno over there. Just before I left a giant shell from a German gun plumped itself down into the dirt within forty feet of a Salvation Army hut in which were Captain Andrews and some assistants. Had the shell exploded the hut and its occupants would have been blown to atoms, but although it ploughed twelve feet into the ground it did not go off.

There are so many soldiers over there now that the present force of workers, including those of the Young Men's Christian Association, the Knights of Columbus, the Jewish Welfare Association and the Salvation Army, might be multiplied a dozen times without covering the present field fully, and yet our people are providing recreation, consolation, comfort and the power of a vital religion to many thousands of boys each week. The opportunity is so great that it is almost discouraging that we are able to meet it so incompletely, but the situation has infused a great energy into all our people and they are exerting themselves to the utmost.

GATES HALF-SOLE TIRES

Get these three ideas firmly in mind:

- First
They Cost Only 1/2 As Much
- Second
They Are Puncture-Proof
- Third
They are Over-Size, stronger and better than the Tires now on your car.

GATES HALF-SOLE TIRES are built like other Guaranteed Tires. Only the finest and most expensive fabrics and rubber are used.

Your worn casings hold the air pressure and Gates Half-Sole Tires take all the wear of the road.

This is the mechanical principle which is revolutionizing the tire industry.

300,000 Car-Owners are saving 1/2 and getting 5,000 to 15,000 more miles from the tires they used to throw away.

Before you discard another worn tire, investigate.

To Improve Your Digestion.

"For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them did I find the right treatment. Since taking them my digestion is fine."—MRS. BLANCHE BOWERS, Indiana, Pa.

Saving is a patriotic duty; it is a necessary service. There is not enough money in the country to procure luxuries and necessities both. There is not enough labor in the country to produce both essentials and non-essentials. There are not enough materials in the country to construct needed and unneeded articles.

Don't waste time striving after the unattainable; that's profitless and foolish. Strive rather for things attainable; things profitable and permanent—good roads, for instance.

The Germans seem to be willing to accept any treaty agreeable to their purpose, no matter how much the real facts are contradictory thereto.

The man who drinks too much may be an unpardonable sinner, and he is at least a hard case; but the tightwad who swings on to an American dollar until the eagle screams is an ideal citizen, in some people's opinion—especially his own.

We see in the Texas Mesquite, John Davis' paper, that John has been again elected to the Legislature from Dallas County.

Carter of the Valley Mills Tribune tells us: "We are not absolutely and positively certain, but our guess is that German will be the most popular language spoken in hell for a long time to come."

Speaking of game and conservation of food, why not protect the chicken? It is said to be an actual fact that chickens are now scarcer than quail in Texas.

AS OTHERS SEE IT

Get a wrong principle in government and it will work itself out in disaster to the people.

The price of cotton advanced nearly three cents a pound last week. During the same period the yield of cotton decreased about one thousand points in Fannin County.

A message from the front says: "Hindenberg and Scheer plan to use the German grand fleet in conjunction with a new drive, to stimulate the depressed morale at home."

Thirty covered wagons passed eastward along the McGregor road Saturday carrying tenant farmers' families. They were fleeing from the drought country of the west.

Orders have been issued for the withdrawal from Camp Bowie of the camp pastors, their work in the future to be taken care of by the army chaplains.

A profiteer is the miserable miser who is getting his bite while others are gladly giving their bit.

Austin Callan, one of the most brilliant writers and best newspaper men in Texas is now associated with the Eagle Pass Herald.

If you will take the human out of humanity, leaving only the ity, and then prefix de to that, you will then have something perfect: but, as long as you leave humanity as it is, just that long will you have something imperfect.

Every now and then we hear some shiftless fellow, who apparently thinks it is the Lord's special duty to take care of him without any effort on his own part, quoting that passage from Scripture about the camel trying to thread a needle with his (the camel's) corporeal system.

Sam Fryar tells us in the Clarksville Times: "On account of the sugar shortage or something, cordwood has advanced in price; on account of the high price of cantaloupes, bootleggers have advanced the price of whiskey to two dollars per half-pint."

Eagle Pass Herald: Word comes from the Treasury Department at Washington that profiteers have held the country up all the way from 100 to 3000 per cent since the war commenced.

GET INTO DEBT

It is the Finest Thing in the World, Provided You Do it in a Good Cause—Such as the Liberty Loan.

Then you will plan and contrive to get out of debt. So you will do good to your Country and yourself.

The bank account of a farmer frequently is low. Especially is this true at the present time, when he can invest so profitably in increased acreage and production.

It might appear at first sight that this fact affords a reason for non-support of the Liberty Loan.

It does nothing of the sort. This War Cannot Be Waged on the Nation's Past Savings

Or even on its income, but only by mortgaging its future productiveness.

To pay for the war out of our past savings would mean crippling industry, for we need plenty of capital to work with and produce goods necessary to the war.

By raising loans to be paid off in the future the Government is raising a great national mortgage on the resources of the nation for years to come.

The farmer—everyone in fact—must adopt the same course and mortgage their future earnings.

Let us suppose that in order to do your share for the Liberty Loan you find it necessary to mortgage your house, your farm or your automobile. Do it. Some men are giving their lives.

The U. S. Government, following the advice "Neither a lender nor a borrower be," would have to offer its submission to Germany at once.

There is No Disgrace in Being in Debt Today

The reverse is the case, the man who refuses to mortgage his future earnings is placing his immediate comfort and peace of mind above his clearly defined duty to himself and to his fellows.

Buy heavily of Liberty Bonds, and force yourself to pay for them out of your future earnings. Place yourself up against these conditions—until it hurts. You will gain, mentally, morally and financially.

YOUR UNCLE SAM IS CALLING FOR THE RENT

You put by money to pay your life insurance, your taxes, and if you pay rent you allow for that also in your personal budget.

Why? "Well," you say, "Look what would happen if I did not. My wife and children would suffer if I did not pay my insurance, my taxes I must pay or the sheriff would seize my goods; as for the rent I need a good comfortable place to live in, and I would not have one if I refused to pay my landlord."

Subscriptions to Government Loans represent rent charged you for the privilege—and it is a privilege—of living in the United States; they represent life, accident and business insurance, and they keep not the sheriff but the Germans from seizing your property.

Did you ever look at the matter in this way before? Now, when your rent is due you do not sit down and wonder where you are going to find the money—it has been put aside. Your insurance premiums are not scraped up on the spur of the moment—you have allowed for this expense.

The Liberty Loan is a standing item of expense, or rather investment. It is a saving which you must effect, a standing charge on your income, and can be met only by consistent, persistent, saving.

Whenever the question of personal expense comes up, remember your duties to the Government and yourself—remember the Liberty Loan.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS AND THE LAW

There is a Police Court Judge out in El Paso who believes in law and War Savings Stamps. Whenever a person is arraigned before him on a technical charge, the Judge carefully considers the case and if a decision of guilty is reached, he fines the prisoner and requires him to invest the amount of the fine in War Savings Stamps.

"The best way a man can help his country and himself is to buy War Savings Stamps," declares the Texas magistrate. This court believes in giving a start in the right direction—personal economy.

SWAT THE KAISER BUY W.S.S.

PAY THAT W. S. S. PLEDGE

Don't blow about your patriotism. Hot air won't win the war. Get down to business—the business of saving and buying War Savings Stamps. That's your business. Don't prattle about having done your bit. Do your best. Pay your W.S.S. Pledge now and go your limit for more W.S.S. If you will look out for the War Savings Stamps, they will look out for you. W.S.S. is the "big noise" now.

STAMP YOUR W. S. S. PLEDGE

PAY THAT W. S. S. PLEDGE. PUT YOUR DOLLARS IN THE MONEY BAGS OF VICTORY. INVEST IN YOURSELF.

OUR STANDARD HAS BEEN SET

The mere purchase of a moderate amount of Liberty Bonds, and the payment of taxes without protest does not make up the whole duty of an American citizen today.

Something far deeper, further-reaching in its effect is called for than the lending or giving up of money under the pressure of popular demand or the attention of the tax collector.

We Must Reach a Higher Standard of Living.

We have lived altogether too much for ourselves; for material things. Henceforth our object must be slowly but surely to drive out the thought of self, and to so order our personal and business affairs that our Country, and the Great Cause for which the whole civilized world is fighting shall be our first consideration.

The possibility of bringing the great bulk of our people to such a frame of mind may be thought by some to be an empty dream. Such is not the case. Men used to every luxury that the world can afford, young men just starting out on a successful business or professional career, clerks from the department stores, boys on the farm, street laborers who have hardly learned to use our tongue, young women who might marry well and settle down to a life of comfort—these people in their thousands have seen that glorious vision of America as the Savior of the world, and of themselves as the instruments of that salvation.

Let Us Try to Rise to the Same Level

As have these men and women who have given money, future, life itself, to the service of their country. Let us lend our money to the Government as they have given their lives, cheerfully and fearlessly.

Let the requests of our Government which are published widely from time to time be regarded as sacred obligations. The Government has told us that the hardest work we are capable of, economy and sacrifice, are the great needs of the nation. Again, the Government has told us that the additional wealth we produce is needed for national expenditure and that.

We Must Support the Liberty Loans

Just as the soldier persistently and consistently carries out orders, so must we.

It is only by following out the full scheme of the Government for us as individuals that we can do our duty. For instance, the man who has not worked hard, economized and saved, will not be able to meet the demands of the next Liberty Loan. It is now that we must be producing and saving for our Liberty Loan subscriptions.

Start working, saving, planning now for the Fourth Liberty Loan.

NEW VOTERS FACE GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY

Yes! you m'am—the wife of a farmer. You face a life-time of satisfaction or regret for the part you play in this great war. You have such an influence over what your husband does, that the country is looking to you, quite as much as to him to see that the next Liberty Loan is over-subscribed.

You know how your husband consults you about everything, and—between ourselves—how he does pretty much as you say.

Tell him quietly, "I have been thinking about our duty to our Country and I feel we must make a great big sacrifice. We have never really been called upon to do anything for our Country until this war came, and we must respond now. Let's lend every cent we can spare, and can save during the next twelve months. Let's buy all the Liberty Bonds we can. I'll help you do it."

Yes m'am, you can do a wonderful work, and you will do it, won't you?

SUGAR EXPORTS SMALL TO NEUTRAL NATIONS

Only 797 tons of refined sugar were shipped from America to neutral nations during the first five months of this year. This amounted to only 3.2 per cent of the total exports to all countries. Mexico received more than half the amount we exported to neutrals.

SAVE SUGAR. Sugar means Ships—Ships mean Soldiers—Soldiers mean Victory.

STORAGE WILL HELP SAVE SWEET POTATO CROP

Proper storage of sweet potatoes is one of the most important food conservation measures that can be put into effect in the Southern States, according to United States Department of Agricultural officials.

To keep this crop in good condition the potatoes must be well matured before digging, carefully handled; well dried or cured after being put in the storage house, and kept at uniform temperature after they are cured.

The grower can judge when his sweet potatoes are ripe by breaking or cutting one of them and leaving it exposed to the air for a few minutes. The cut or broken surface dries if it is mature, but the surface remains moist if it is not ready to be dug.

The second essential, careful handling, should be observed in digging, gathering, hauling and unloading. Sweet potatoes should be sorted in the field and gathered in padded baskets or boxes to prevent bruising or breaking the skin.

Died for His Country.

Comfort News: On Monday the body of Lee Corley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pink Corley, was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery at Boerne, the town of his birth.

Behind this simple announcement lies an inspiring story of heroic desire on the part of this nineteen-year-old boy to enter the war in behalf of his country.

He had applied for the Navy and had been rejected because of a physical defect.

He learned, however, that a surgical operation might correct his physical disability, and thought the nature of the required operation was decidedly serious, he eagerly accepted the chances—and lost.

SOME OF THE HITS YOUR LIBERTY BOND WILL DO

If you buy a $100 bond of the Fourth Liberty Loan you are lending the United States Government enough money to feed a soldier in France a little more than seven months. Or you have furnished enough money to give him a complete outfit of winter and summer clothing, including shoes and stockings, and slicker and overcoat and blankets, with enough left over to arm him with a good revolver. You have done that much to beat back the Hun.

It takes $35 more to arm him with a rifle with a bayonet on it, and if you buy a second $100 bond you furnish him this rifle and 1,000 cartridges for it; and there will still be enough of your money left to purchase a good-sized bomb to throw in a dugout, or demolish a machine gun together with the Hun operating it.

Outraged Chivalry.

Washington Post: The great havoc wrought in the German ranks by buckshot from sawed-off shotguns, which appear to have been used with particular effectiveness by the American troops in their hand-to-hand collision with the enemy after he had crossed the Marne east of Chateau-Thierry in the recent offensive, has given rise to another German protest against their "barbaric and unchivalrous" mode of warfare. The originators of poison, flame and ground-glass modes of warfare still think they are judges of chivalry.

How many thousands of these novel instruments of execution have been shipped overseas to Pershing's men is a deeply-hidden secret, but probably not enough to meet his desires. General Pershing, as is well known, true to an early predilection for the homely virtues of this grape-shot style of musket, ordered a supply of them for the expeditionary forces. Undoubtedly the order has been repeated, as there has been more and more an abandonment of trench warfare, for the guns are of even greater value in open fighting.

To call them sawed-off shotguns is somewhat misleading. The barrel is probably not more than two or three inches shorter than that of the average shotgun. They are large-gauged guns, with a slight choke. They do not merely spray buckshot for a short distance, but shoot with deadly effectiveness at a range much greater than that of small shot. The shell contains from fifteen to twenty buckshot, each with the potential execution of a shrapnel bullet.

There is an added advantage in the use of these guns when, owing to the presence of gas, troops are compelled to wear masks. Accurate sighting of a rifle is slow and difficult, if not impossible, through a gas mask. Sawed-off shotguns can be used effectively from the hip if necessary.

There is undoubtedly injured pride as well as injured hides in the German ranks resulting from the fact that novices in the art of war have sprung this highly effective weapon upon them. Sawed-off shotguns may be expected to make their debut in the German army as soon as the boche has recovered from his sense of outraged chivalry and from the holes made by the buckshot.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make This Beauty Lotion Cheaply for Your Face, Neck, Arms and Hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whiten-er and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

BY FATHER KEMPER

One of the Guadalupe students will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the Mexican Church on Sunday during the 8 o'clock mass. Services will be conducted in St. Mary's at 10 a. m.

Mr. Arthur Mosel and members of his family enjoyed a nine hundred-mile auto trip last week with Father Kemper by way of Corpus Christi and Laredo. They got a good start the first day by being able to reach Bell's Ranch at Beeville before sundown despite a small puncture, which was the only mishap on the entire journey. On Monday they visited the old historic mission at Goliad, and several friends in Victoria. After the rain ceased they continued via Port Lavaca to Magnolia Beach, where they rented a cottage and motor boat. Tuesday they examined the ruins of the abandoned Indianola, where Mr. Mosel's ancestors has disembarked. Thence they motored via Kemper City to Refugio and Sinton. Wednesday saw them touring through Taft's ranches, along Gregory and Portland, to Corpus Christi. Here they swam and dined at the Pavilion Hotel. In the evening they passed Alice and San Diego through rough mesquite ranches and heavy sand to Hebronville near the Mexican border. It was a typical wild west country, but they enjoyed the arduous trip through the forty gates and coyote pastures to Laredo. On Thursday they were somewhat delayed by assisting motorists in a bad Ford wreck. Nevertheless they got as far as Cotulla on the Camino Real. After a dip in the Nueces they were prepared on Friday to plow through the deep sand to Pearsall and thence via Hondo to D'Hanis, where Mr. Carle showed them his brick-yards. They spent the night in Castroville with their friend, Dr. Fitzsimon. On the last day they inspected the irrigated fields of the Medina Valley and were ready to leave San Antonio just as the flood-gates of heaven opened. The Buick, undaunted, plowed through all the wash-outs and brought the party back to Kerrville hale and hearty, all the wiser and fresher for the instructive trip.

The new facilities for Notre Dame Institute and Our Lady of Guadalupe School have arrived and are ready to receive enrollments for the next scholastic year, which begins Monday, September 9th. Mother Holy Name is again the superioress of the High School, and Sr. Consolata is back for the Mexican children. Old students will be glad to learn that Sr. Mary Climacus has been returned to Kerrville, as well as Sisters Rose Agnes and Constance.

Mrs. Sistermans will leave with her nieces for San Antonio when the summer boarders depart. After a brief sojourn in the Mission City she will go with her husband to Costa Rica.

Mrs. T. Martin of Missouri City had made arrangements to send her son to Notre Dame, but this plan may be modified now owing to the recent fatal accident of her husband, who was one of the wealthiest cattlemen in his county.

Miss Angeline Kemper and her twin nephews, Henry and William Vois, are expected back on Saturday from their trip through the entire western half of the United States, which they began last May. During the past week, after having camped in Yellowstone National Park, they journeyed to Salt Lake City and spent Sunday with the famous Sarah Bernhard. Next day they took a dip in Saltair and visited the mining town of Bingham. From here, via the picturesque Royal Gorge, they traveled to Colorado Springs and climbed Pike's Peak through a snow storm to see the sun rise on one horizon and the moon set on the other. They took in all the splendors of the Garden of the Gods, Cave of the Winds, and Denver's mountainous environments. Their last stretch will take them home by way of Camp Bowie.

Mrs. M. J. Fraser, one of our health-seekers, received the news that her brother, Lieut. Edmund Rieser, was killed on the battle-field.

Hervey Shelton of Louisville, is another vacation-seeker in our Hill Country. Mrs. Louis Jung has sufficiently recovered to return to her family in Harper. Mrs. W. G. Carpenter was also able to leave the Sanitarium. Adolph Stelling, a brother of Rudolph, has been given a position in the Chas. Schreiner Bank.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into Sour Bile, Making You Sick and You Lose a Day's Work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

A Bilious Attack.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter.

BILLIES.

Have 150 extra good Billies for sale at Live Oak Ranch. They are out of the Weaver registered goats, and I will sell them at reasonable prices. ROBERT REAL, 28-10t Mountain Home, Texas.

The Work That You Do Every Day

By James E. Clark, Secretary Conference Committee on National Preparedness.

(Manufacturers Record)

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the memory of the babies of France and Belgium who were impaled on bayonets and carried off over the shoulders of German soldiers—that your baby may never be in danger of a like death.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the memory of the little boys in the invaded districts of Europe who have been crucified—that your own boy may not be in danger of being crucified.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the memory of the little girls of Belgium and France who have been carried into a slavery far worse than death—that your daughter may not be in danger of thus falling a victim to German barbarians.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the memory of the mothers of Europe who have seen their children slaughtered and their husbands with bound hands driven away to a fate unknown—that the mothers here may not see similar processions in your own streets.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the white-haired women of Belgium and France who have seen honest men dig their own graves—that the white-haired of your family may not suffer a like agony.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the memory of the Allied soldiers who have been crucified upon doors because they fought for civilization and justice—that justice may be done you and yours.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the memory of the beautiful cities, villages, orchards and fields of Europe, now blackened wastes—that your own beautiful towns and fields may not be turned into places which men will avoid.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the memory of the once happy homes in Europe which the Hun burned after murdering the inmates—that your home may not become the funeral pyre of your family.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the memory of the nations that have been crushed and scattered—that your own nation may not be destroyed and that your people may not be driven forth like the migrating multitudes who have died in the fields and highways.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the manhood that is in you—that you may not desert your brother who has gone to the battlefront, that you may not desert your Nation now that it needs you, that you may not be tricked into imperiling the safety of your wife, your daughter, your mother, when the smooth-tongued enemies of your country come whispering to you.

LET the work that you do every day be dedicated—

To the manhood that is in you, that you shall have no remorse when broken men come back from the battlefront—so that empty sleeves and sightless eyes shall not as instruments of your conscience reproach you by day and haunt you by night because you at home failed to support our men while they fought in France.

Germany's Terms.

Indianapolis News: The announcement of peace terms has become a popular summer pastime in Berlin. There is no reason why Germany should not demand everything. What she gets is another matter. Doubtless the absurd statement made the other day by Chancellor von Hertling was designed to encourage the people and make them think that things were going well. For it would be natural to think that the chancellor would make no such declaration unless he thought that there was a good chance for victory. What the crown prince could not bring to pass on the Marne, the chancellor is now trying to accomplish in Berlin.

As for the terms themselves, they are ridiculous. One effect they will have—it is to be hoped—and that is to shut the mouths of the pacifists in the allied countries. If there is one thing that all the allies are agreed on it is that France shall have Alsace-Lorraine. Yet Von Hertling demands that the French renounce all claim to these lost provinces. It would be tolerably cruel to leave these people under the tyranny of Germany. The thing will not be done. Other "terms" are quite as absurd. But two of them are so silly as to be comical. We are, it seems, to recognize the Brest-Litovsk treaty, a treaty which the people of Russia themselves refuse to recognize, and against which they are, in many sections, in revolt. This agreement was the fruit of corruption and intrigue, and it was made with a government that was no government, one that has not been recognized by any allied power. Here indeed is a treaty that is nothing more than "a scrap of paper." Even if we were to respect it—which is of course out of the question—we could have no assurance that Germany would do so.

The other demand is that there be "payments of indemnities to Germany by the allies." Von Hertling has got the things wrong end to. Whatever indemnities are paid will be paid by Germany. She must pay for the rebuilding of France and Belgium, and restore—or pay for—the property stolen. Also she must return to Belgium the enormous sums taken from her in the form of requisitions. In short, there is not one demand made by Von Hertling that can be even considered—not even that for freedom of the seas in the German sense. The chancellor's statement is amusing as it is impertinent.

he looked over the devastated fields of France, thanked God that the Fatherland had been spared such destruction. The sanctimonious hypocrite! The Kaiser knows very well, as does all the world, that the German armies are on the soil of France, not because of the prowess of Prussian arms, but because of a rank act of treachery. If Belgian neutrality had not been violated—Northern France would by this time have been free of the Hun. The Kaiser, of course, wants to leave with the German people the impression that it is due to his leadership that the Fatherland has been free of the invader. He considers that if he can get them to concentrate on how lucky they have been to date, because of his prowess, that they will not mind the sacrifice of another hundred thousand or two of men. But Germany will feel the touch of war before peace comes. Already American airplanes are moving over to France in great numbers. Before another year is out every town and city of Germany will have felt the terror of the air raid. And not only that. There will also come a time when the Americans, the French and the British armies will push their way into German territory. German farms and German fields will be scorched by artillery. German cities will fall into ruins before the terrific battering of the guns. This time may still be distant, but its coming is sure. We must give the German people a taste of their own medicine. In 1870 and in 1914 they plundered and razed and murdered in France. They must pay for this. They must pay for it not only with their blood, but with their property and their homes. Too long they have gone unscathed. War has been too cheap for them. They must be taught that they can not always start a war and cry quits when it becomes too dangerous for them. After the Germans have seen their country once under the destructive touch of war they will think a long time before they allow the militarists to lead them into another.

The New World Must Be Protected.

Springfield (Mass.) Republican: Eleanor Franklin Egan, in an article, "With the British in Bagdad," published in the Saturday Evening Post, contrasts the conduct of the "unspeakable Turk" in this war with that of the Germans. No more illuminating light has been shed on German kultur, that thing which the so-called Christian world was to be forced to worship. We have grown so familiar with Germany's methods as to have lost our first keen sense of their monstrous iniquity.

Miss Egan restores our sensitiveness and our sense of proportion by her comparisons. "I was never more surprised in my life than when I was told by a British officer in Mesopotamia the British do not require gas and liquid fire because the Turks had steadfastly refused to employ such things against them. On both sides the Mesopotamian war has been fought with shot and shell, and so far as is known—aside from the uncertainty as to the fate of British prisoners in Turkish hands—the Turks have broken no established rules and have refused throughout to adopt modern German methods of inhuman terrorism and frightfulness. They have observed all the hitherto internationally customary courtesies and deencies with regard to the wounded and the dead on the battlefield; they have respected the Red Cross as their own Red Crescent has been respected; they have exchanged captured medical men without question; and have displayed throughout a tendency to uphold the ethics of what was once known as civilized warfare."

Like testimony was borne by the British engaged in the Dardanelles campaign. In terriblest the Turk has been vastly outdone in this "made in Germany" war. No exhibit of commentary could reveal in clearer light the devilish audacity of the military caste that has debauched a nation and plotted for half a century to subdue and undo the rest of the world and place tribute upon it to cover Germany's expenses. Now it looks as if the power that overrules the purposes of men and the destinies of nations was leading the plotters to their own deep damnation. They must be overthrown and their false teachings buried through the enduring purposes of the allied nations, that freedom shall not go down in the triumph of ruthlessly destructive forces.

The outrageous Turk would not permit the use of gas and liquid fire, and civilization must fight on until these things are outlawed forever in a new world where truth and honor prevail. The peace we once knew must be kept again by an agreement that shall be enforced through international authority.

The Kaiser didn't raise his eldest boy to be a soldier—only to command an army. There is a difference.
